The annual Parochial Church meeting was held at the National School on Tuesday evening, the Vicar (Rev. C. F. Stebbing) presiding, supported by Mr. H. H. Wells (churchwarden) and Mrs. Banks (secretary of the Church Council). The church expenses accounts, which showed a balance in hand of £17, were passed, and it was announced that £750 1s. 10d. stood to the credit of the Church Repair Fund, of which £670 had been invested and £74 was in the bank. The whole of the Church Council were re-elected, viz., Messrs. R. Barwell and R. Mitham, sen. (representatives to the Diocesan and Ruridecanal Conferences), Mrs. Banks, Mrs. Cooksey, Miss Beaumont, Messrs. C. S. Hephner, S. F. Mitham and G. J. Paine. The sidesmen were also re-appointed, but the hope was expressed that in future they would attend more regularly. Before the meeting closed Mrs. Cooksey moved a vote of sympathy with Mr. C. F. Banks (vicar's warden) who recently met with a serious accident from the effects of which he is, however, happily recovering. The proposition was carried by acclamation.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR. 21st Jan. 1927

ALIEN DOMINATION OF SWAVESEY DISTRICT COUNCIL.

Sir, - I am given to understand that at the last meeting of the Swavesey District Council Mr. G. A. Harrison, relieving officer for the district, was appointed the rating officer, who is to supersede the rate collectors, for the six parishes in the district, viz., Swavesey, Over, Boxworth, Conington, Fen Drayton and Lolworth. There were other candidates for the post, all of whom reside in the district, whereas Mr. Harrison lives in Huntingdonshire.

As to the respective merits of the various candidates I offer no opinion, but I understand that the appointment has aroused considerable indignation in at least one parish, and when the facts become generally known there is reason to believe that the feeling of dissatisfaction and indignation will spread.

These six Cambridgeshire parishes will in future be controlled by officials, all of whom, with the sole exception of the road surveyor, are Huntingdonshire men, resident in that county, and with Huntingdonshire interests. I used the word "controlled" advisedly.

The Swavesey Council is ridiculously small, consisting as it does of eight councillors, all farmers, with a co-opted chairman, once resident in the district, but for some years living in Cambridge, who now, it is believed, has no interest in the district. The Council is attached to the St. Ives Board of Guardians. Surely this would have been a good opportunity to have relieved the district from the domination of an alien county, and to have had the six unfortunate parishes, if constituting a district not large enough to stand alone, amalgamated with one of the other Cambridgeshire districts. Ratepayers in the Swavesey district must not forget that in future they will have to journey to St. Ives if they wish to interview the rating officer, and that the day when the rate collector could be seen at all hours will be a thing of the past. – Yours, etc.,

“NOT CRICKET.”

SEQUEL TO MOTOR ACCIDENT AT SWAVESEY CORNER. 21st Jan. 1927

Conflicting Evidence.

An accident on the Swavesey Corner on the Huntingdon to Cambridge road, in which a Ford van going from Cambridge to Huntingdon was knocked completely over by a car coming from the direction of Swavesey to Cambridge, had a sequel in the Cambs. Divisional Bench last Saturday.

Henry Robinson Lovell, of Council Houses, Swavesey, was summoned for driving a motor car in a manner dangerous to the public near Swavesey on Jan. 8th. Mr. Grafton Pryor, instructed by Messrs. Lyon and Son, appeared for the defendant and pleaded not guilty.

William Burt, a skin dealer, of Rockwell-road, Kettering, said he was driving the motor van for Mr. Bradshaw. He was coming from Brandon, and had passed through Newmarket and Cambridge. He was on his way to Huntingdon. At the Swavesey corner he was going 15 to 20 miles an hour. At the corner the near side wheels of the van were about 18 inches from the near side of the road. Witness sounded his horn two or three times. A car came round the Swavesey corner at a dangerous speed. It was on the wrong side of the white line. The car was going very fast, but witness could not estimate speed. The car came straight across the road and hit witness's van. Witness did not remember anything after the accident. He regained consciousness in the Cambridge Hospital.

Supt. Allen said that the width of the road where the accident happened was 44 feet.

Cross-examined by Mr. Pryor, witness said the private car was on the wrong side of the road. He had been driving a car for 12 years and had never had an accident before.

Alfred Bradshaw, a skin dealer, of Rockwell-road, Kettering, who was in the Ford van with the last witness at the time of the accident, stated that they were going about 20 to 25 miles an hour. After the accident he was in a dazed condition. A man took Mr. Burt into the New Inn. Mr. Burt was later taken to the Hospital in an unconscious state. Witness went over to defendant, who did not complain of any injury. Defendant said to him, "Are you insured?" Witness replied, "No, sir." Defendant said, "I am. You can do the best you can. Don't be so funny. Why don't you speak and see if we can't come to some agreement?" Witness told him he did not want to argue with him, as he (defendant) was drunk. Defendant did not offer any assistance to the injured man. He was going to drive away, but witness asked him twice to wait until a constable arrived. A gentleman in the New Inn gave witness and defendant a lift to St. Ives. At St. Ives defendant fell out of the car on to his hands and knees. Witness did not think defendant was a fit person to drive a car.

Cross-examined by Mr. Pryor, witness said he did not tell the police that defendant was drunk. He did not think the defendant fell out of the car as a result of the shock of the accident.

Stephen Sidney Gifford, of 79, Vinery-road, Cambridge, employed as a joiner, stated that on the afternoon of Jan. 8th he was with a party of fellows going by car to Over to play a football match. Witness was sitting next the driver in the front seat. Just before reaching Swavesey corner the car witness was in slowed up to allow a Ford van to pass it, as they were turning into the Swavesey-road. The private car came round the corner and struck the van near the rear wheel. The Ford van was 18 inches from the near side of the road and travelling at about 20 miles per hour. The private car, a Wolsey two-seater, was over on the wrong side of both white lines. The car in which witness was in was about 30 yards behind the van. The van, when hit, fell over on to the side of the grass. Witness thought defendant had been drinking, as he seemed unsteady on his feet.

Harold Douglas Gray, sports outfitter, of 220 Milton-road, Cambridge, stated that on the afternoon of Jan. 8th he was motoring to Huntingdon. When he arrived at the Swavesey turning he found that an accident had taken place. He stopped to see if he could render any assistance. The Ford van was on the grass on its back, facing Huntingdon. Witness noticed that the accident had taken place on the near side, going in the direction of Cambridge. Defendant said he wanted to go to Cambridge on business. He seemed excited, and was waving his arms about. He said he was insured and he would be all right. He later asked witness if he would be a witness to the accident for his insurance company. Witness went to Swavesey for the police, but had to go on to Boxworth to obtain a policeman. Witness returned to the New Inn. By defendant's manner he thought he had had drink. Defendant was somewhat incoherent.

P.C. Bell, stationed at Boxworth, said that in consequence of information he went to the New Inn. The Ford van was upside down on the grass with its bonnet on the road. Witness saw the defendant, and when writing a statement defendant kept making a kind of hiccough, as if he had had something to drink. On the back wing of the off side of the Ford van there was a small round mark. It looked as if it had been hit by the small lamp of the private car. On the private car the off-side front wing had been knocked back.

Cross-examined by Mr. Pryor, witness said it had been raining, and was raining at the time. The road was wet, but not slippery.

THE DEFENDANT'S CASE.

Defendant, on oath, said that he was Justice of the Peace for the county of Hertfordshire. He had been driving a car since 1922, and had never had a charge of any description brought against him before. He had motored about 200,000 miles. He had had to go all over England for his work, which was responsible for his tremendous mileage. On the afternoon of the day mentioned he was driving from Swavesey to Cambridge at about 15 to 20 miles per hour. On nearing the corner he slowed down to ten miles an hour, sounding his horn once or twice. He did not hear the Ford van sound its horn. It was proceeding at a fast pace in the direction of Huntingdon. It was over the crown of the road – on the wrong side of the white line. The Ford van appeared to be going to the New Inn. The front wheels of the van hit defendant's radiator. In between hitting defendant's car and toppling over the van had gone 20 yards. Defendant thought the accident was due to the Ford van. Defendant's car finished up on his off-side of the road, as his steering gear was put out of action. He was terribly shaken up by the accident.

Defendant stated that he was crippled in one leg. He was not under the influence of drink. He had ridden to St. Ives on the dicky seat, which he was not used to. On getting out he put his lame foot on the ground and it gave way. He fell down, but got up immediately.

Going on to speak of the accident again, defendant said he asked someone to go for the police. The Ford van was half on the road and half on the grass. Someone fetched a rope from the New Inn, and the van was steered on to the grass.

Cross-examined by Supt. Allen, defendant admitted that he had had three small glasses of beer at the Rising Sun publichouse, Swavesey. He rounded the corner on the left hand side of the road. A Ford van would turn over much easier than a car of his (defendant's) make, since a Ford was built higher. Defendant tried the engine of his car to see if it would run.

Reginald George Parker, a motor engineer, of St. Ives, said that he had inspected the car belonging to Mr. Lovell. He thought the car had been hit very hard by something. Witness thought the Ford van must have been very far over on the right hand side of the road. The Ford front axle was bent back. Frederick Crane, motor engineer, of Hobson-street, Cambridge, said he had examined the Ford van. Witness thought that one wheel had been smashed in the collision, and the other wheel smashed by having too much weight on it. Without retiring, the magistrates decided to convict. Defendant was fined £10, with witnesses' fees, amounting to £3 15s. 2d., and his licence was endorsed.

ANOTHER LAMP LIGHTED. 28th Jan. 1927

The new lamp post which has been erected at the junction of High-street, Taylor's-lane and Church End by the Parish Council in place of one knocked down by a motor car some time ago, was brought into use last week. Mr. Dick Wilderspin, of Swavesey, to whom the work was entrusted, has had the post painted red, and has provided an excellent lamp, which will be of great service, as there is a dangerous bend in the road where it is placed. Mr. Wilderspin has generously undertaken to provide the oil, etc., for the lamp at his own expense, and to be responsible for lighting and extinguishing it.

ACCIDENT. 28th Jan. 1927

Herbert Peppercorn, son of Mr. Joseph Peppercorn, Boxworth End, a youth employed by Mr. W. D. Isgrove, baker and confectioner, High-street, Swavesey, when cranking up a motor van at Fen Drayton on Monday afternoon, had his wrist broken through the engine misfiring. A similar accident happened to another Swavesey youth quite recently. Young Peppercorn returned to Swavesey, a Fen Drayton resident kindly volunteering to drive the van, and later he was conveyed to Addenbrooke's Hospital, where the injured wrist was attended to. He was not detained, but will remain an outpatient.

WHERE ARE THE LIBERALS. 28th Jan. 1927

We have received the following communication for publication: "Where, oh where, are the Liberals gone. Oh where, oh where, are they?" Has the Liberal sun set in the local sky, never to rise again? Has the Tory giant, or the Labour dragon frightened them? If the party is dead, where is it buried, so that one might shed a tear over its demise? Surely in Swavesey there are some Progressives left, who still adhere to those principles so ably advocated by Gladstone, Campbell-Bannerman and John Bright, which if fully carried out would bless England once again. If there is a local secretary, could he not call a meeting to reconsider the formation of the Liberal Association for the village. – Nemo.

LABOUR PARTY ENTERTAINMENT. 4th Feb. 1927

An excellent programme was given by the Foxton U.T.P. Concert Party on Tuesday at the concert arranged by the Swavesey Labour Party in the Memorial Hall. The songs, dances and jokes were well applauded. Particularly entertaining was the singing contest by members of the audience, the winner of which (a young man) was presented with a "ring." This provoked roars of laughter, and left the young man with nothing but a trick to play on his friends. During the interval refreshments were served by Mrs. Savage and other women members. A short address was given by Mr. Sidney Dye (Divisional Agent), in which he strongly criticised the policy of the Conservatives, which he stated had led the richer people into greater riches, but had left the great mass of the people poorer. The attempts to reduce wages, the attack on the insurance funds, and the continued bad housing conditions in both towns and villages were briefly dealt with. Dancing was continued until 11.15 p.m., and the concert party were heartily thanked for their services by the local secretary, Mr. C. Savage.

BRITISH LEGION. 4th Feb. 1927

Barwell. The treasurer announced that the branch had a balance in hand of £10 11s. 7d., and the secretary, after giving an interesting review of the year's activities, intimated that 12 new members had joined during the twelve months ending 31st December, and three since that date, and that the total membership was now 64, nearly 50 of whom were at the meeting. The following officers were elected: President, Mr. W. A. Bignell; chairman, Mr. R. Barwell; vice-chairman, Mr. Frank Prior; treasurer, Mr. F. H. Lee; hon. secretary, Mr. H. H. Berryman; auditors, Messrs. P. Burton and Turner; committee, Messrs. S. Clark, H. J. Culpin, J. Hall, F. Hepher, E. Prior, T. Savage and H. Topman; delegate to the County Committee, Mr. W. Melbourne. Ten vice-presidents were also elected, subject to their acceptance of office. It was decided to enter a team for the Lord Lieutenant's Cup, and a committee was appointed to consider whether it would be possible to form a cricket club in connection with the branch. An excellent dinner, provided by Mr. T. C. Heasman, preceded the business meeting and closing the evening, Mr. Sidney Maltby's concert party and Mr. Fred Tuck gave an entertainment.

STATIONMASTER'S DEATH. 4th Feb. 1927

Inquest Story of Fatality at Swavesey.

JURY AND INEXPERIENCED DRIVERS.

A verdict of "Accidental death" was recorded at the inquest at Addenbrooke's Hospital on Wednesday last on Mr. Tom Ernest Tagg, stationmaster at Swavesey, who died as a result of injuries received in an accident on Monday evening. The inquest was conducted by the Borough Coroner (Mr. G. A. Wootten), before a jury. The evidence showed that Mr. Tagg was walking from Swavesey station to the village on Monday evening, arm in arm with a friend, Mr. W. D. Lucas. They were walking close to the grass on their left hand side, Mr. Tagg being on the outside, when a motor cycle approached from behind, driven by Mr. Harry Hemington, of Over. The motor cyclist did not see the two men until he was two or three yards from them. He swerved to the right and put on his brakes, but his handlebars struck Mr. Tagg and knocked him to the ground. Mr. Tagg's skull was fractured, and he died in hospital the same evening. The Coroner suggested the advisability of pedestrians walking on their right hand side of the road, so as to face oncoming traffic, and thus be in a position to avoid it. Mr. Lucas declared that it was a dangerous spot where the accident happened, and suggested that the Swavesey Rural District Council should be requested to erect a lamp at that place. Over, he said, had lamps in the village, but there were none in Swavesey. In returning their verdict the jury expressed the opinion that motor driving licences should not be issued to people until they had passed a proficiency test.

Supt. A. E. Allen, of the County Constabulary, watched the proceedings on behalf of the police, and Mr. F. E. Fordham represented the motor cyclist. Mr. E. H. Brett was elected foreman of the jury.

Evidence of identification was given by Ernest Wilson Tagg, 69, Thoday-street, Cambridge, relief signalman, son of the deceased, who said his father had been stationmaster at Swavesey for four to five years. His age was 62, and his eyesight and hearing were good.

Percy Burton, Church End, Swavesey, market gardener, said that about 7.00 p.m. on Monday evening, he was in his back yard and heard a motor cycle back-firing as it passed. He went to his gate and saw the motor cycle had "pitched" and was facing towards him. He saw the motor cyclist lying on the road and went over to him. He struck a match and saw Mr. Tagg lying on the ground. With the aid of a neighbour he carried Mr. Tagg into the house. He fetched Dr. Ellis, who came in about five minutes and ordered his removal to hospital.

In reply to the Coroner, witness said that the motor cycle had a very good light.

Replying to the jury, witness said he did not hear a horn blown. The engine was running very slowly, and he could hardly hear it.

WALKING ARM IN ARM.

William Downs Lucas, Council houses, Over, retired railway official, said that on Monday about 6.30 p.m. he went to Swavesey Station and saw Mr. Tagg there. He remained in Mr. Tagg's office for about half an hour, and they then decided to walk towards the village. They walked together towards the Swan Pond, arm in arm. Mr. Tagg had witness's right arm, and witness was walking close to the grass on their left hand side. Mr. Tagg generally took witness's arm when they were walking in the dark. As near as he could say, witness's left foot was almost touching the grass. There was a slight bend in the road where the accident happened. The night was very dark, but not foggy. Witness heard what appeared to be a motor cycle coming up from behind, but they kept on walking without looking round. Witness did not see a light shining – a bend in the road would prevent it showing to them. Witness did not hear a horn sounded.

"The next thing I remembered," witness continued, "was I was lying full length on the grass. I did not feel anything strike me. I take it that the impact of the machine striking Mr. Tagg threw me on to the grass." Witness picked himself up as soon as possible, and said, "Where are you, Mr. Tagg?" He could not see him, so he struck a match and then saw him lying on the side of the road, within about one foot of the grass – almost where he had been walking. Witness turned and saw the motor cyclist standing up, and said to him, "Whatever are you a-doing?" The motor cyclist did not reply. Witness said, "Who is it? Are you Harry?" The motor cyclist replied "Yes." Witness knew him. Mr. Tagg was taken to hospital on Dr. Ellis's orders.

In reply to the jury, witness said he had no idea what speed the motor cycle was going. It did not carry Mr. Tagg any distance. His opinion was that the handlebars of the motor cycle hit Mr. Tagg and took him off his feet, and he fell backwards exactly where he was.

In reply to Supt. Allen, witness said the motor cycle was close to Mr. Tagg after the accident – it seemed to stop where it hit him.

SUGGESTION TO R.D.C.

Witness said he would like to make a suggestion. He thought that the spot where the accident occurred was very dangerous, especially on a dark night. He thought the Council should be requested to have a lamp erected there. There were no lamps in Swavesey, while at Over they had them all over the village.

Mr. Burton, re-called, said he saw the motor cycle about 20 yards before it arrived at the scene of the accident. It was going very slowly "from what he could see of it.” The engine had been shut off to take the bend. The machine was “just gliding round.”

MOTOR CYCLIST’S EVIDENCE.

Harry Carl Hemington, of Over, farm labourer, said he was the owner of a Cotton motor cycle of 2¾ h.p. He had been driving it for about two months. On Monday evening he was proceeding towards Swavesey in his machine. He stopped dead at the railway crossing, and then went on towards the Swan Pond. He had to cross a bridge, and the road then went downhill. He knew the road well. In approaching the Swan Pond there was a bend in the road, round which one could not see in the dark. It did not occur to him that he should blow his horn at the bend. As he approached the pond he saw two men walking in the same direction. One was on the left hand side of the road, and the other more towards the middle. His speed was about 12 miles per hour. He always shut off his engine on going down that hill before taking the bend, and he did so on that occasion. The road was 18 to 20 feet wide, and there was no other traffic on it at the time.

The Coroner: What was to prevent you passing the men? – Witness: I could not because as I turned a little more to the bend my light was shining straight up the road, and when I caught sight of them I was on them.

Witness said his light was acetylene, and very good. He swerved to the right, but did not see the men soon enough. The left handlebar of his machine struck Mr. Tagg from behind. Witness was knocked over, and on getting up he found Mr. Tagg lying on the road and another man going towards him. Witness put his brakes on, swerved to the right, and hit Mr. Tagg practically at the same time.

In reply to Supt. Allen, witness said he could see 20 yards ahead on a straight road with his lamp. After getting to the bridge the road went to the left practically all the way to the scene of the accident.

Supt. Allen asked witness if he knew that there were skid marks from the point where the motor cycle stopped for a distance of some 25 feet back.

Witness replied that he could not explain them. It would take about 6 yards to pull up when travelling at 12 miles an hour.

POLICE CONSTABLE AND SKID MARKS.

P.C. Edward Breed, stationed at Swavesey, said that at 8.15 on Monday evening he went to the scene of the accident and saw Hemington, cautioning him. Hemington’s licence was in order. He examined the machine and found the front mudguard on the off-side was grazed, as well as the control lever on the right handlebar, the right footrest was bent back, the end of the footrest was grazed where it had touched the road, the gear lever was bent slightly inwards, and the handlebars were slightly twisted to the left, about one inch back. The motor cycle had fallen over on its off-side. At 8.25 there was still a light burning on the machine – not very bright, but brighter than that of an ordinary bicycle lamp. He examined the road. There was not a bend within 60 yards of the accident. After going further towards the village there was a bend.

Witness, in reply to the Coroner, said that the bend in the road did not affect the case. He found a pool of blood two feet from the grass on the near side of the road, coming from the direction of the station towards the village. There was a tyre skid mark for 11 feet, and then for a distance of 12 feet there were marks where some hard substance had come in contact with the road. The first skid marks would be caused by the brakes being put on, and the machine then skidded out to the right. The skid marks ended one foot beyond the spot where the blood was. The road was 18 to 20 feet wide.

THE SAFEST SIDE.

Asked by the Coroner if he considered it was safer for pedestrians to walk on their right hand side of the road so as to face on-coming traffic, witness agreed that was the best thing to do.

Witness read a statement made to him by Hemington, which coincided with the latter's evidence, and which included the sentence: "I was going rather slow at the time, and my engine was shut off, but when I hit the man my hand moved the control and started the engine again."

Dr. Guy Montague Turner, house surgeon at Addenbrooke's Hospital, said Mr. Tagg was admitted at 8.45 on Monday evening. He was unconscious, and suffering from superficial wounds of the scalp at the back, a superficial wound on the back of the left leg, and fracture at the base of the skull. He had been struck on the back of the left calf by something, but the chief injury was caused by a very severe blow on the back of the head, consistent with the head having struck the road.

Addressing the jury, the Coroner referred to the frequency of motor accidents, and suggested the advisability of pedestrians walking so as to face oncoming traffic.

After a short retirement, the jury returned a verdict of "Accidental death," due to fracture of the skull. The Foreman said they added a rider pointing out that there was nothing to stop inexperienced people driving motor vehicles. People of limited experience had no business to drive. Drivers should have to pass a test before obtaining a driving licence.

HIS RAILWAY CAREER.

Mr. Tagg started his railway career as a boy clerk at Wisbech in 1879, subsequently serving as a clerk at Fordham, King's Lynn and Peterborough. From Peterborough he went back to Wisbech as chief booking clerk, moving into the new station. After five years he was transferred to King's Lynn as chief parcels clerk, and three years later to a similar position in the Cambridge parcels office. He remained at Cambridge for a year and 10 months, and was then appointed stationmaster at Bluntisham, Hunts., where he spent 24 happy years, until he was selected to succeed Mr. Beales, the present stationmaster of Wisbech, at Swavesey, in 1922.

At Swavesey Mr. Tagg was greatly liked and respected by his staff, and by all with whom he came into contact, and his untimely end is deeply deplored. Universal sympathy is felt for his widow and his three sons.

"DANGEROUS DRIVING."

Harry Carl Hemington, of Over, appeared at the Cambs. Divisional Bench on Saturday last, before his Honour Judge Farrant (in the chair), to answer a summons for riding a motor cycle in a dangerous manner at Swavesey on 31st January. The case was the outcome of a fatal accident, in which defendant knocked down Mr. Tom Ernest Tagg, the Swavesey stationmaster, who died from his injuries. Major O. Papworth appeared for the defendant, and pleaded not guilty.

(Report has appeared elsewhere)

The Bench retired, and on their return the Chairman announced that they found the case proved. Defendant would be fined £5 and expenses. His licence would be endorsed, and he would be disqualified from driving for twelve months.

Defendant asked for time to pay and a month was allowed.

Miss Spearman gave the cash statement, showing a small balance in hand. Miss M. Coulson presided at the piano. Both the tea and the meeting were well attended.

THE DISTRICT NURSE. 25th Feb. 1927

A correspondent writes: "We have a very excellent district nurse, but regret that she is obliged in her self-denying and arduous work to use an ordinary push bicycle to get about on. Could not something be done to secure a motor vehicle for her, which, of course, would remain the property of the local nursing association? Is that association sufficiently representative of the local churches and other institutions? Could not a public meeting be called once a year, say in the Memorial Hall, so that we who are so disposed might have the opportunity of hearing of its work and thus take a deeper interest in its affairs. – Verb Sap."

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 25th Feb. 1927

A largely attended meeting took place on Thursday week, which was the annual tea and meeting of the church and congregation. The Rev. T. B. Field, pastor, presided. Speeches were made by the following representatives of the different organisations: Messrs. B. Prior, J. Day and G. E. Canham (deacons), Mrs. Field (supt. Sunday School), Miss Easter (Band of Hope), Mrs. Aldred (Missionary Society), Mr. G. Day (Boys' Brigade), Mrs. J. Day (B.W.T.A.), Mr. Williams (choir). A resolution of sympathy with the treasurer, Mr. A. Norman, in his prolonged illness, was heartily passed. Mr. Canham, acting treasurer, read the accounts, which showed an income of £293, leaving a good working balance in hand. To the sum has to be added the amount raised for school and missions, making a grand total of £320. The church has been beautifully renovated, and the cause is in a flourishing condition, and commences its new year full of hope.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY. 25th Feb. 1927

There was a good attendance at the annual meeting of the Swavesey and District Horticultural Society, which was held at the Memorial Hall on Friday evening, under the presidency of Mr. C. W. Hines. The following officers and committee were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mr. Roger C. Cole; vice-presidents, re-elected, with the exception of three who have left the district, and the Rev. T. B. Field, Messrs. F. Kirby, Roberts and B. Thorp being added, subject to their consent; chairman of general meetings, Mr. C. W. Hines; chairman of Horticultural Committee, Mr. H. Peachey; hon. secretary, Mr. C. Wood, School House, Swavesey; joint treasurers, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hepher; Horticultural Committee, Messrs. A. Brasher, S. Godfrey, A. P. Payne, F. W. Pontefract, W. Parish (Fen Drayton); Sports Committee, Messrs. P. Burton, H. J. Culpin, F. Hepher, C. Savage, U. Thixton and P. Watts, with power to add to their number. The date of the year's show and sports was fixed, and it was agreed that Mr. Alfred Watts should be asked to allow them to be again held in Manor Field, adjoining Swavesey railway station. Mr. P. Watts having intimated that his father would allow the Society the use of the field, the Secretary was desired to convey the thanks of the Society to Mr. A. Watts. After a short discussion it was decided that the sports should not be "affiliated," but that certain events should be open to all England.

PARISH COUNCIL. 25th Feb. 1927

The meeting of the Parish Council, held at the Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening, was attended by Mr. J. Linford (chairman), Messrs. P. Burton, C. W. H. Cole, M. C. Culpin, F. Hepher and Harry Wells. After the minutes of the previous meeting had been signed, the Chairman said he had received complaints of the very bad state of the ditch at the end of the recreation ground. The ditch, which was supposed to carry water away from the adjoining land, he said, was "full up," and was in such a condition that it could neither convey nor hold water. Nothing had been done to the ditch to his knowledge for 15 years, but he understood that about 12 months ago the District Council, to whom it belonged, had given instructions for it to be cleared out. Nothing, however, had been done. Mr. Cole asked the Chairman whether that ditch was the only one in the parish under the control of the District Council which needed attention. He could point to one that had not been cleared out for 30 years. The Clerk (Mr. P. Godfrey) said that he had received a complaint respecting a pond at Boxworth End, into which it was alleged sewage drained. After further discussion Mr. Hepher proposed that a letter be sent to the District Council asking that the recreation ground ditch should be attended to forthwith. Mr. Culpin seconded. Mr. Cole moved an amendment that the attention of the District Council be called to the very bad condition of the ditches and waterways in the parish under the control of that Council. Mr. Burton seconded. The amendment was carried. Messrs. C. J. Shepperson (the present constable), J. J. Marriott, B. Hodson and G. Burling were nominated as eligible to serve as parish constable during the ensuing year. A letter from the Cambs. Rural Community Council respecting rural planning, etc., was considered, and the Clerk was asked to do what he could to comply with the request of the Council. An application from the Rev. T. B. Field for the use of the Memorial Hall on Sunday afternoons for Brotherhood meetings was referred to the Hall Management Committee. Before the meeting closed, the Council unanimously decided that a parish meeting should be held at the Memorial Hall at 7 p.m. on Thursday, 3rd March, to protest against the appointment by the District Council of a Huntingdonshire man as rate collector of the Cambridgeshire parish of Swavesey.

PARISH CHURCH. 4th March 1927

AN EXCLUSIVE HEN. 4th March 1927

MEMORIAL HALL. 4th March 1927

Key; Gentlemen – Mr. A. Homes, Mr. C. Dean, booby, Mr. A. Hawkes. Mr. H. H. Berryman acted as M.C. The proceeds were in aid of the Memorial Hall funds.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY. 4th March 1927

The annual business meeting of the Young People's Society, connected with the Bethel Baptist Church, was held on Monday evening, the President occupying the chair. Miss Freestone, secretary, read the annual report, which showed that a series of interesting meetings had taken place during the session now about to close, and that the Society had a small balance of cash in hand. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Rev. T. B. Field; vice-president, Miss B. Savage; treasurer, Miss Freestone; secretary, Miss Field.

THE DISTRICT NURSE. 4th March 1927

We have received the following communication with reference to the paragraph which appeared in our last issue respecting the district nurse: "The committee of the Swavesey, Over and Fen Drayton Nursing Association wish to state they have entered upon their eighth year, and as hitherto all has worked smoothly and successfully they do not contemplate making any changes in their present regime. The balance sheet is sent up annually to the Cambridge Nursing Association, to which they are affiliated. If any non-benefitting subscribers or donors question the wisdom of our administration and wish to do so, they can, on applying to the treasurer, see the balance sheet. The benefitting subscriptions and fees, it may be mentioned, do not nearly cover expenses. We have a good nurse, and her strength is taxed to the utmost. We shall be glad if the work can be so arranged that she has free Saturday afternoons and Sundays; but, of course, this could not apply to midwifery or emergency cases. As regards a motor cycle, if the nurse really wishes for one and can learn to ride it, doubtless one will be forthcoming.

EXCURSION TO LONDON. 11th March 1927

Twenty-seven passengers were booked from Swavesey station on Sunday by the special half-day excursion to Liverpool-street.

PROPOSED BROTHERHOOD. 11th March 1927

POLICE CHANGES. 11th March 1927

P.C. Edward Breed, who has been stationed at Swavesey for the unusually long period of 10½ years, left the village yesterday (Thursday), having been transferred to Ickleton. His departure is much regretted by the village generally. His successor at Swavesey is P.C. Luke Brooks, who has been at Ickleton for some years.

LITTLE GIRL INJURED. 11th March 1927

While walking along High-street to school with other children on Wednesday afternoon, Pearl Wilderspin, the seven-year-old twin daughter of Mr. Dick Wilderspin, in some unexplained way came into contact with a bicycle ridden by a lad named William Holmes, and her clothes catching in the machine, was dragged along the road for several yards. She was picked up by her sister Joan, aged 8, and was carried by her for some distance towards home, until they were met by their elder sister, who then took the injured child in her arms. Dr. Rose, who was sent for, on examining the child, found that her right leg had been fractured just above the ankle. She is under treatment at home.

PARISH CHURCH. 11th March 1927

A question of great interest to churchgoers was discussed at a meeting of the Parochial Church Council on Monday evening, when it was decided that for the present efforts on behalf of the Church Roof Repair Fund should be discontinued until sufficient money had been raised to provide a new heating apparatus for the church, many complaints having been heard lately of the inadequacy of the present system. The Council will, therefore, direct their energies to supplying this immediate need. Meanwhile the Repair Fund, which now amounts to more than £750 will go on accumulating interest, so that when efforts in that direction are resumed a substantial increase will be found to have accrued.

MEETING OF PROTEST. 11th March 1927

The parish meeting called by the Parish Council to protest against the recent appointment by the Swavesey District Council of a rate collector for the six parishes in the district, was held at the Memorial Hall on the 3rd inst. Mr. J. Linford, chairman of the Parish Council, who presided, having explained the circumstances in which the meeting had been summoned, Mr. C.H. Parish, one of the overseers, spoke of some of the objections to the appointment of an Huntingdonshire man as collector of rates for Swavesey, and he stated that Mr. P. Godfrey, the present rate collector, who was one of the unsuccessful applicants for the district collectorship, and who would have to relinquish his present office at the end of the month, had been complimented at the last audit by the Government auditor on the way in which he had done his work. Why then, he asked, was Mr. Godfrey not as competent as the candidate selected by the District Council? Other parochial electors having testified to Mr. Godfrey's fitness for the post, and condemned the District Council's appointment, the following resolution was carried unanimously: "That the parishioners of Swavesey assembled in parish meeting on Thursday, 3rd March, 1927, hereby protest against the appointment by the Swavesey Rural District Council of a Huntingdonshire man as rate collector of the parish of Swavesey and other Cambridgeshire parishes in the district, notwithstanding the fact that there were other qualified applicants for the post who were, and are, residents in the said Cambridgeshire parishes, and two of whom are, and for some time have been, the duly appointed collectors of the rates of their respective parishes. The parishioners of Swavesey point out that a rate collector living at St. Ives, Huntingdonshire, with his office in that town, will be liable to cause inconvenience and expense to the majority of the rate payers in the Swavesey Rural District, and they ask that the appointment of Mr. Harrison may be cancelled, and that a Cambridgeshire man, resident in the district, be appointed collector for the parish of Swavesey." It was decided that copies of the resolution should be sent to the District Council, the County Council, and the Minister of Health. The following reply, dated 4th March, has been received from the Clerk of the District Council: "I read your letter of the 3rd inst and enclosure to my Council at their meeting this morning, and was directed to say that the Council regretted the opinion of your Council in regard to the appointment, but this Council acted in the matter, as they believed, in the public interests. – Yours faithfully, G. D. Day, clerk." Rumour is current in the village that the District Council did not discuss the resolution, but merely authorised their clerk to send what reply he deemed desirable. Whether or not there is any foundation for the rumour or not, it is evident that the Council or the clerk, or both, failed to realise that the resolution contained a protest and a request from the Parish Meeting.

After a full discussion, it was resolved to convene a meeting for further consideration on Sunday, April 3rd, at 3 p.m., in the Memorial Hall, when it is hoped that all men over 16 years of age will gather in large numbers and set the matter going.

SWAVESEY BUTCHER SUED. 18th March 1927

Unsuccessful Claim by Firm of Motor Agents.

A disputed account for the repair of an old Ford van, which was taken by a Cambridge firm of motor agents from a Swavesey butcher in part exchange for a new van, was the subject matter of an action in the Cambridge County Court on Thursday, before his Honour Judge H. G. Farrant.

Plaintiffs were Cambridgeshire Motors, Ltd., Cambridge, who claimed from Walter Spolton, butcher, of Swavesey, the sum of £6 3s. 8d. for repairs carried out to a Ford van.

Mr. S. T. Miller (of Messrs. S. J. and S. T. Miller) appeared for the plaintiffs, and Mr. Grafton Pryor (instructed by Mr. Oliver Papworth) for the defence.

Mr. Miller said defendant agreed that the charges for the repair of the van were fair and proper, and the only question was to liability. On Friday, April 16th last, Mr. Deekes, who was in the employ of the plaintiffs, went over to Swavesey to see the defendant, who was the prospective buyer of a new Ford van. Defendant had a van in use, which was in good running order, and plaintiffs agreed to allow the defendant £20 on it as it stood, in part exchange for a new van. Plaintiffs could not complete the transaction at the time, as they did not have a new van in stock, but defendant agreed to buy a new van on those terms. The repairs executed to the van were the subject matter of the action. Mr. Deekes saw defendant on April 19th, and defendant said the old van had broken down on April 17th – the rear axle had broken. Mr. Deekes told him it was up to him to put the van in good running order, and defendant agreed to pay for the repairs to the axle. Plaintiffs lent him a van in the meantime to carry on his business, for which no charge was made. On April 21st plaintiffs sent a new van to Swavesey, and defendant took delivery of it. Plaintiffs collected the old van and towed it back to their garage and carried out the repairs. The account was rendered monthly five times, and defendant had not replied, or disputed the account. On June 9th Mr. Deekes called on defendant at Swavesey to see how the new van was getting on, and defendant then agreed to pay for the repairs.

Dudley John Deekes, motor salesman with the plaintiffs gave evidence bearing out Mr. Miller's statement.

Mr. Pryor pointed out that there was an item on the account not connected with the repairs to the axle, and his Honour said it must come out.

Cross-examined, witness said defendant did not say to him: "Your firm sent me in a bill for repairs, and I lit a cigarette with it." Witness did not reply, "That's all right."

Mr. Lambert, the secretary of the plaintiff company, gave corroborative evidence as to the agreement come to with the defendant.

Defendant produced a letter from the plaintiffs confirming the order for the new van, and stating that £20 would be allowed for the old one. After the axle had broken, and before he received delivery of the new van, plaintiffs said he would have to pay for the repair, and he replied that if they charge him for that he would not pay it. He sent them a cheque for the full amount, less the £20, and this was cashed. Later he asked Deekes what they meant by sending him an account for the repair of the old van, and told him he had lit his pipe with it, and Deekes said it would be all right. He owed plaintiffs nothing – when they cashed his cheque that finished the deal. Something went wrong with the back axle as he was driving along the road – he did not have an accident, the van simply stopped running.

Cross-examined, witness said the old van was not in good running order; it was worn out, or he would not have wanted a new one. He had had it for seven years, and it was "wobbly".

Mr. Pryor submitted that the old van had passed to the property of the plaintiffs at the time the axle broke, and it was at their risk that defendant was running it.

His Honour said the defendant had given a perfectly clear and consistent account of his view of the transactions, and he could not see any reason why he should not accept it. Under the circumstances plaintiff's witnesses had failed to satisfy him that the defendant ever agreed to pay for the repairs which were the subject matter of the claim. Plaintiffs would be non-suited, with costs.

The attendance at the dance organised by the Swavesey Labour Party, which was held at the Memorial Hall on Saturday was not as good as had been hoped owing to counter attractions in the neighbourhood, but all who were present spent a very enjoyable time. The Swavesey Jazz Band, who made their first appearance in public, provided a capital selection of dance music, and the refreshments served under the superintendence of Mrs. C. Savage and Mrs. J. Coulson were excellent. Mr. R. Seekings was M.C.

HERBAGE OF DROVES AND RECREATION GROUND. 1st April 1927

By direction of the District Council, the annual letting by auction of the herbage of the Swavesey droves and roadsides took place on Monday evening at the White Horse inn. In 1925 the droves, etc., realised £12 2s. 6d., the smallest amount on record, and last year £12 4s. 6d., about half the sum they brought in in pre-war days. On Monday they realised £7 11s. 6d., every lot being let. The herbage of the recreation ground, offered under instructions from the Parish Council, which realised £2 17s. 6d. last year and £3 in 1925, was knocked down to Mr. Bertram Prime for £2. Hephew and Harry Wells. The Clerk (Mr. P. Godfrey) read a letter from the District Council in reply to the Parish Council's complaint respecting the ditch at the end of the Recreation Ground. The reply was considered evasive and unsatisfactory. Letters were also read from the Ministry of Health, the County Council and the District Council in reference to the resolution passed against the appointment of a Huntingdonshire man as rate collector of the parish of Swavesey. The Ministry of Health and the County Council stated that they had no power to interfere in the matter. The District Council's reply has already been published in these columns. The chief business on the agenda was the appointment of two persons to represent the parish on the new Rating Authority. It having been decided on the proposition of Mr. Cole, seconded by Mr. Culpin, that the appointment should be for a period of one year, the following were nominated: Messrs. C. W. H. Cole, C. H. Parish, A. Day, junior, and P. Godfrey. On a vote being taken Messrs. Cole and Godfrey were elected. The Willingham Robarco Band, who paid their first visit to Swavesey, provided a capital programme of music. Mr. George Prime officiated a M.C.

The funeral took place at Newmarket-road Cemetery, Cambridge, on Tuesday morning.

The wet night notwithstanding, there was a large attendance at the social and dance, organised by the Swavesey and Over Labour Parties, which was held in the Memorial Hall on Saturday evening. Mr. A. H. Jones, of Over, who acted as M.C., sang songs, and there were competitions and amusing games, for some of which prizes were offered. The winners included Mrs. H. Nightingale (ring game), Mr. S. Street (candle extinguishing), Mrs. W. Whybrow (guessing lucky number), and Miss Budge and Mr. Stanley Prime (spot dance). Dancing, for which the Swavesey Jazz Band provided the music, was kept up until midnight. Excellent refreshments were supplied under the superintendence of Mrs. J. Coulson and Mrs. C. Savage.

SUMMER TIME INCIDENT. 15th April 1927

A Swavesey householder, who had arranged for a friend to call before church time on Sunday morning, had not risen when the call was made. "I did not mean before the early service," said the householder, who was greatly surprised when told that the church bells were then ringing for the 10.30 a.m. service. It subsequently transpired that although the householder had duly attended to her clocks before retiring to rest, she had omitted to wind up her watch.

Although no local branch was formed that evening, several of those present intimated their intention of joining, and a further meeting will be held at the beginning of next month. Mr. Stubbs answered a few questions, mainly respecting work on Christmas Day and Good Friday.

SWAVESEY DISTRICT BILLIARD LEAGUE. 15th April 1927

Annual Dinner and Presentation of Cup.

The first season of the Swavesey and District Billiard League was brought to a close on Tuesday evening with a dinner at Swavesey Memorial Hall, which was attended by representatives of every club in the League. After full justice had been done to the excellent repast provided by Mr. T. C. Heasman, of the Rising Sun Inn, Mr. W. A. Bignell, president of the League, who occupied the chair, presented the cup to the League champions, the St. Ives Conservative Club team, who out of the forty games had won 26.

PRESENTATION OF THE CUP.

Mr. Bignell, in course of a short speech, referred with satisfaction to the undoubted success of the League in its first season. Every team, he said, had played well, and had shown an excellent sporting spirit. He urged the captains to impress upon their teams the importance of "playing to win." After a few words of advice on "potting the white," Mr. Bignell handed the cup to Mr. F. Harrison, the captain of the winning team.

Mr. Harrison said he could endorse the President's remarks as to the good spirit in which the games had been played, and he knew they had been greatly enjoyed. His club would do their best to hold the cup, but if they were beaten they would be only too glad to hand it over to the better team. They were greatly indebted to Mr. Bignell, to whose efforts the success of the League was so largely due, and they had also to thank him for his gift of this handsome silver cup.

The toast of the St. Ives Conservative Club billiard team was then drunk with musical honours.

In announcing that the annual general meeting would be held in August, Mr. C. Wood, hon. secretary, asked for suggestions to make the League even more successful, to be brought forward at that meeting, and that clubs already in the League would endeavour to induce other clubs to join.

A hearty vote of thanks was accorded Mr. Wood for his services during the season, on the proposition of Mr. Allan (St. Ives Conservatives), seconded by the President.

CHAMPIONS v. THE REST.

The remainder of the evening was devoted to billiards, a member of the Willingham team playing a member of the St. Ives Liberal's team to decide which club should take the position of runner-up, and then the Champions played the Rest of the League. The table had been removed from the billiard room to the hall, in order to accommodate the large company that assembled to witness the games, which resulted as follows:-

Runners-up – C. J. Jeeps (Willingham) 150; Chambers (St. Ives Liberals) 45. St. Ives Conservatives v. The Rest: Conservatives three games, The Rest two.

CHURCHWARDENS. 22nd April 1927

At the joint meeting of the Vestry and Parochial Church electors, held under the tower of the parish church on Monday, the Vicar, who presided, again nominated Mr. C. F. Banks as vicar's warden, and Mr. Harry Wells was re-elected people's warden. There was only a very small attendance and no other business was before the meeting.

WHIST DRIVE. 22nd April 1927

Sixteen tables were in play at the whist drive in aid of the Parish Church Heating Apparatus Fund which was held at the Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening, and the prizewinners were: Ladies – Mrs. J. Prior, Mrs. Barwell, Miss K. Banks; gentlemen – Mr. D. Williams, Rev. C. Stebbing, Mr. H. Burling; knock-out, 1 Mrs. Webb and Mr. H. Culpin, 2 Mrs. Collen and Mr. D. Williams. Mr. A. Beaumont officiated as M.C.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 22nd April 1927

The annual tea and service took place at Bethel Baptist Church on Good Friday. Over one hundred persons sat down to a prettily arranged and well provided meal, after which a large congregation assembled for what proved to be a most interesting service conducted by the Pastor, Rev. T. B. Field. The Rev. E. P. Blackaby, of Willingham Tabernacle, read the lesson and preached a thoughtful sermon upon the alternative offered by Pilate, "Christ or Barabbas." Mr. T. White, of Histon, beautifully rendered two solos, and the choir contributed the anthems, "There is a green hill" and "Sing unto the Lord with thanksgiving."

PARISH CHURCH. 22nd April 1927

The services at the parish church on Good Friday were: Matins and Ante-Communion 10.30, addresses by the Vicar on "Seven Last Words from the Cross" 1 – 3 p.m., Evensong and Sermon 6.30 p.m. The collections were in aid of the Jerusalem Mission. On Easter Day, when the church was bright with spring flowers effectively arranged on every coigne of vantage by the ladies of the congregation, there were celebrations of the Holy Communion at 6, 7.30 and 11.15 a.m. (choral; E. V. Hall's service), Matins at 10.30 a.m. and Evensong at 6.30 p.m., when the music included the Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis (Clare) and the anthem, "Christ the Lord is risen." The offertories, as usual, were given to the Vicar as an Easter offering. All the services were well attended, the communicants numbering 151, a record for Swavesey on Easter Day.

WEDDING. 22nd April 1927

The marriage of Miss Beatrice Mabel Prior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Prior, of Swavesey, and Mr. James Marshall, of the Warwickshire Constabulary, son of Mr. Thomas Marshall, of Stratford-on-Avon, took place on Easter Monday at Swavesey parish church, the Rev. C. F. Stebbing, vicar, officiating. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a pretty dress of white crepe de chine with silver lace and pearl trimmings. She was attended by four bridesmaids, her sisters, Misses Edna and Emily Prior, Miss A. Heasman (friend) and Miss A. Northill (cousin of the bride). The two elder bridesmaids were attired in blue silk with silver lace, and carried bouquets of narcissi, while the younger were in apricot crepe de chine, with mob caps to match, and carried baskets of primroses. The older maids wore gold rings and the younger silver bangles, the gifts of the bridegroom. Mr. Arthur C. Prior, brother of the bride, was best man. After the ceremony a reception was held at the Memorial Hall. The wedding presents were numerous and useful.

PARISH MEETING. 29th April 1927

The annual parish meeting which should have taken place at the Memorial Hall on Friday evening was a dismal failure. The meeting was called for 6.30 p.m., but at 6.45 p.m. only the chairman (Mr. Jethro Linford), the Clerk (Mr. P. Godfrey), and Mr. Harry Wells (a parish councillor) were in attendance. As the Parish Council was summoned to meet at 7 o'clock, the Chairman decided to open the proceedings, and called upon the Clerk to read the minutes of last year's annual meeting and of the special parish meeting held early this year.

This having been done, he signed the minutes, and, no other parishioners putting in an appearance, he then declared the meeting closed.

PARISH COUNCIL. 29th April 1927

Soon after seven o'clock on Friday evening, members of the Parish Council who had not been present at the parish meeting assembled at the Memorial Hall for the annual meeting of the Council. There were present: Messrs. J. Linford, P. Burton, C. W. H. Cole, F. Hephher, R. Norman, sen., P. Parish and H. Wells, with the Clerk (Mr. P. Godfrey). After the minutes of the previous meeting had been confirmed, Mr. Linford was re-appointed chairman for the ensuing twelve months, and Mr. P. Parish, vice-chairman, and the Clerk presented the accounts of the Council for the year ended 31st March. These showed receipts £123 2s. 1d., and expenditure £95 15s. 10d., leaving a balance at the bank of £27 6s. 3d. The accounts were approved. The Clerk also read the accounts of Galon's Charity for 1926. Before the meeting closed an informal discussion took place respecting the Memorial Hall.

DEATH OF MR. GEORGE SMITH. 29th April 1927

We have to record the death of Mr. George Smith, who passed away at his residence at Church End on Friday evening, after only a few hours' illness, aged 56 years. He had been about the village as usual during the morning, but feeling somewhat unwell, had consulted Dr. Ellis at mid-day. During the afternoon his condition became worse, and early in the evening it was evident that he was seriously ill, and Dr. Ellis, who was summoned, found that he was dying. The end came about 8 p.m. The cause of death is believed to have been valvular disease of the heart. Deceased, who was the only son of the late Mr. George Smith, of Audley End had lived in Swavesey for about two years. He leaves a widow, but no children. The funeral took place at Swavesey parish church on Monday afternoon, the vicar, Rev. C. F. Stebbing, officiating. The immediate mourners were: Mrs. Smith (widow), Mr. and Mrs. R. Williamson (step-son and daughter). The funeral arrangements were in the hands of Mr. R. Mitham, Swavesey.

CHILDREN'S CONCERT. 29th April 1927

It is an old saying that if you please the children you please the parents. This may not always be the case, for there have been known occasions – rare perhaps – on which the frolics of children instigated by thoughtless adults have not met with the approval of parents. But it was undoubtedly true on Monday and Tuesday evening, when some 70 of the children attending Swavesey National School closely packed on and around an enlarged platform gave a concert in the Memorial Hall for the entertainment of their parents and friends, and incidentally to raise funds for their Outing and Entertainment Fund. The hall was crowded on both evenings. The children thoroughly enjoyed themselves; they threw themselves heart and soul into all they had to do, and the happy faces, hearty laughter and spontaneous applause of the audience showed that the parents were pleased. The programme, which was far too lengthy to deal with in detail, included 12 unison songs, five folk songs, four part songs, three descants, three rounds, the song "Good-night, Mr. Moon," by girls in night attire – a very popular item – songs, duets, dance, etc., by small children, a sketch "Dollies' Doctor" and "The Washing Day" (musical sketch). The children, without exception, sang, or did their turns, most admirably, and it would be invidious to select individual performers for special commendation, but reference may perhaps be permitted to the excellent rendering of the part songs, "Drake's Drum" (S. Coleridge Taylor) and Brahms' "Slumber Song," and also to the musical sketch "The Washing Day." The latter appealed to fathers as well as mothers, for in it the divergent views of men and women in regard to the weekly washing day were set forth, and but for the timely interposition of a fairy (Winnie Wood), a demonstration by dinnerless "men" carrying banners inscribed with words of protest and defiance, might have had most serious consequences – on the stage. The sketch hugely pleased the audience. The programme concluded with the community singing, in which the audience joined somewhat faint-heartedly on Monday, but with vigour on Tuesday, of "Pack up you troubles," "John Peel," "Swing low, sweet chariot," "Swanee River," "The Drummer and the Cook" (sung earlier in the evening, but repeated by demand of the children), "Auld Lang Syne" and "God save the King." The all-round excellence of the performance on both evenings was due to the admirable training and supervision of the headmaster of the school (Mr. C. Wood) and his assistants, Miss G. V. Thoday and Miss C. Scott, the former being responsible for Standards I and II, and the latter for the infants. Miss Thoday, in addition to her other duties, was the accompanist, being relieved by Miss Scott for the infants' items. Mr. Wood was an indefatigable conductor, and he thoroughly deserved the hearty cheers, repeated again and again, that were given him at the close of the second concert. The proceeds, after paying for the hire of the hall and other expenses, amounted to over £8.

A prize will also be offered for a lucky entrance ticket bought before July 14th, the date on which the fete is to be held.

Canham ably presided at the piano, and members of the Swavesey Orchestral Society considerably brightened the proceedings by their welcome performances.

Exceptionally good congregations, including friends from Cambridge, St. Ives, Godmanchester, and the neighbouring villages were present at the anniversary services at the Particular Baptist Chapel on Tuesday afternoon and evening, when the special preacher was Mr. Seth Pack, of Tunbridge Wells. Between the services there was a well-attended public tea. Collections were taken in aid of the chapel funds.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 20th May 1927

The 87th anniversary of Bethel Baptist Church was celebrated on Wednesday, when a large company greeted the Rev. E. W. Gibbons, F.R.G.S., of London, who so delighted the people last year. A record number sat down to an excellently provided tea, after which Mr. Gibbons preached to a very large congregation. The Revs. E. P. Blackaby and G. Bird were present during the day. The church and Sunday school (the latter being under the superintendence of Mrs. Field), are in a flourishing condition, and the church is usually well filled at the evening services. On Sunday evening, May 29th, it is intended to have a community singing service at Bethel, when some of the time-honoured hymns and tunes will be used, and a soloist will render assistance. The Pastor will give an address upon "Music." An open-air service will also be conducted in Market-street on the same evening at 8.

BAND OF HOPE UNION. 27th May 1927

"Drink the Greatest Curse of Our Time."

SPRING MEETINGS AT SWAVESEY.

That men who are teetotallers are much more healthy and in better condition morally as well as physically, than men who drink intoxicating liquor, was one of the contentions of Mr. T. P. Starke, of Cambridge, when he gave an address at Swavesey on Thursday afternoon at the Bethel Baptist Church, in connection with the Cambs. Band of Hope Union spring meetings. At the meeting in the afternoon the Rev. T. B. Field was the chairman, and the soloists were Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Canham. Another meeting was held in the evening, when Dr. Alex Wood was in the chair, and the Rev. W. Thorington Cork (Waterbeach) addressed a well filled church.

MR. STARKE AND TOTAL ABSTINENCE.

In the course of his address, Mr. T. P. Starke said that he had been a temperance worker for fifty years. One of his earliest experiences in temperance work was when, at the age of eight, he signed the pledge. One evening he wanted to go to a Band of Hope meeting, but he was thought too young, so the next day he signed the pledge and he had adhered to it all his life. There were a great many things said about the people who were attached to the temperance movement. People said they were a bigoted lot, and they had only one idea. The Band of Hope Union's idea was total abstinence for the individual and prohibition for the nation. Some people said the Band of Hope Union had not made any headway, but those people only wished it had not.

Five years hence they would be celebrating the centenary of the great movement started by seven men of Preston. When they first started, those men gave up spirits and did not look upon it as wrong to drink beer. Then one of them found that by giving up spirits they drank more beer, so they gave that up too. Referring to the question of temperance teaching, Mr. Starke said that they must not only teach the young children, but must also gather in the older people into the Band of Hope. There were some things that it was not good to emphasise before children. Diagrams of the drink action on the heart and other parts of the human body were not good for children. They would be surprised at some of the cases that had come through his hands, from murder downwards. They did not want to tell the children of that kind of thing. If they gave them interesting talks and books to read they would be taught far better. Some people said they could not live without drink, but a more healthy body of men could hardly be found than in the prisons, where no intoxicating liquor was allowed.

Turning to the point that drink was a waste of money, the speaker said some people never spent a penny on clothes or shoes. All their money was wasted on drink. The working man should be taught to avoid drink for the sake of the economy, as well as for the spiritual, moral and religious benefits derived. When one recollected that for every 1s. spent on drink, one only got 2¼d worth in exchange, the rest going to the Government and brewers, it seemed a terrible waste of money. He contended a man could live without drink, and could live longer without drink. This was one of the great facts that they wanted to impress upon the people. (Applause.)

A discussion followed, in which several points of Mr. Starke's address were raised.

THE EVENING MEETING.

At the evening meeting Dr. Alex Wood was supported by the Rev. T. B. Field, the Rev. W. T. Cork (Waterbeach) and Mr. Bird.

In his introductory remarks, the Chairman referred to the fact that "Punch" had now refused to take any advertisements referring to intoxicating liquor. He thought this was a great step in the right direction.

The Rev. W. T. Cork, in his address on "Prohibition," said that drink was the greatest curse of our time. What other view one might have on this subject – and there might be some present who were antagonistic to prohibition – (hear, hear) – the speaker felt they would all agree with him when he said that drink was one of the deadliest and most degrading evils in this country. In the workhouses, prisons and lunatic asylums there were large numbers of people who had been ruined by drink. The only way to get rid of the evil was to cut it right out. This was not only vitally necessary in the interests of the nation, but in the best interests of the individual.

Hearty votes of thanks were accorded to Dr. Alex Wood for presiding, and the Rev. W. T. Cork for his address.

LOCAL SUCCESS. 27th May 1927

At the Syston, Leicestershire, Fur and Feather Show, Mr. Percy Parish, of Boxworth End, Swavesey, was awarded a first prize and a special prize for a pair of Angora rabbits under three months old, and a first and a special with the same pair in the class for rabbits (any variety) under twelve months.

MEMORIAL HALL. 27th May 1927

The Entertainments Committee scored a success with their dance in aid of the Memorial Hall funds on Saturday evening. There was a good attendance, and the Histon Jazzoneans provided a capital programme of music.

DEATH OF MR. ARTHUR NORMAN. 27th May 1927

Many of our readers will learn with deep regret of the death, after a long and very painful illness, of Mr. Arthur Norman, of Hill Farm in the parish of Swavesey, who passed away on Tuesday night at Longstanton at the residence of his son-in-law and daughter, Major C. W. and Mrs. Townsend, with whom he had been staying since he left the Evelyn Nursing Home, Cambridge. Mr. Norman, who was 57 years of age, leaves a widow, two sons and a daughter. The funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon, the service at Bethel Baptist Chapel, Swavesey, being at 2.30, and the interment in Over Cemetery at 3.15 p.m.

“TREADING THE FOOTPATHS.” 27th May 1927

A correspondent writes: In a daily newspaper on Monday I read an account of an old-time ceremony known as “treading the footpaths” in which upwards of 100 men, women and children had taken part on the previous day at Keston in Kent. The leader of the procession is reported to have stated that in view of the considerable amount of building that was going on in the district it was considered more necessary than ever that the public rights in regard to the footpaths should be maintained by periodical “treading.” May I suggest that a “treading” expedition should be organised without delay in the parish of Swavesey, where the public rights of way seem to be disappearing, not because of building operations, but in consequence of the neglect of the authorities charged with the duty – by Act of Parliament it is believed – of keeping them open. Perhaps the Cambs. Rural Community Council can help in the matter, for, unless I am mistaken, a Questionnaire sent by them not long ago to the Parish Council contained a request for information respecting footpaths, rights of way, and the like.

INTER-SCHOOL SPORTS. 27th May 1927

In connection with the inter-school sports to be held this (Friday) evening at Cottenham, the youthful athletes of Swavesey and Over had a preliminary meeting on Swavesey Recreation Ground on Wednesday evening. The results of the various events are in the newspaper.

LATE MR. A. NORMAN. 3rd June 1927

Well-Known Breeder of Pedigree Stock.

FUNERAL AT SWAVESEY.

The funeral of Mr. Arthur Charles Norman, of the Hill Farm, Swavesey, whose death on May 24th after a long and very painful illness was announced last week, took place on Sunday afternoon, and was the occasion of a remarkable demonstration of sympathy and respect.

The first part of the burial service was held at Bethel Baptist Church, Swavesey, of which Mr. Norman had for many years been a devoted and honoured member, and for a long period had held the offices of deacon and treasurer. The spacious chapel was crowded with relatives and friends from far and near, and it is estimated that at least 300 persons were present. During the simple but impressive service, which was conducted by the Pastor (Rev. T. B. Field), the hymns “Lead, Kindly Light” and “Blest be the tie that binds” were sung, Mr. J. W. Williams presiding at the organ.

Blinds were drawn in the village as the funeral cortege, followed by a long procession of motor cars, passed on its way from the Chapel to Over Cemetery, where the interment took place. Here the attendance was many times larger than at Swavesey. The Rev. T. B. Field again officiated, assisted by the Rev. G. Bird (Baptist minister, Over). The hymn “For ever with the Lord” was sung at the graveside.

The mourners were: Mrs. A. Norman (widow), Mr. and Mrs. F. Norman (son and daughter-in-law), Major and Mrs. C. W. Townsend (son-in-law and daughter), Mr. Horace Norman (son), Mr. and Mrs. G. Norman (brother and sister-in-law), Mr. R. Norman (brother), Mrs. J. Norman (sister-in-law), Miss

V. Finch, Mr. A. Norman, Mr. F. F. Norman (nephews), Mr. and Mrs. R. Norman, jun., Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. D. Chapman (nephews and nieces), Mrs. W. Coulson, Miss M. Bentley and Mr. Samuel Payne. Employees from the Grange Farm, Lolworth, followed the mourners, carrying wreaths from the cemetery gate to the grave. All the bearers were workers at the Hill Farm.

A very long list of others present is appended to the newspaper report.

The funeral arrangements were carried out by Messrs. B. and R. Wayman, Over, in conjunction with Messrs. Silk, Cambridge.

MEMORIAL SERVICE.

On Sunday evening a very large congregation attended a memorial service at Bethel Chapel, conducted by the Pastor. Mrs. Bird, of Cambridge, gave a beautiful rendering of the solo "Homeland."

A CAREER OF USEFULNESS.

Born at Over 57 years ago, the youngest son of the late Mr. Robert Norman, Mr. Arthur Charles Norman farmed in Swavesey under Trinity College for 30 years, and from 1919 until 1926 at Lolworth as well. He was a well-known and successful breeder of Large Black pigs, winning several prizes, and was also noted for his herd of recorded dairy cattle, concentrating latterly on a herd of pedigree British Friesians. Last year he headed all herds recorded by the Cambs. and District Milk Recording Society by an average of over 1,100 gallons per cow.

He was a member of the Swavesey Parish Council from March, 1910, until his death, and for a considerable period chairman, and since 1922 he represented Lolworth on the St. Ives Board of Guardians and Swavesey District Council. Among other activities Mr. Norman was a founder and director of the Cambs. Farmers' Creamery, vice-chairman of the Cambs. and District Milk Recording Society, and an active member of the Farmers' Union.

FETE AT SWAVESEY. 3rd June 1927

Successful Effort in Aid of Nursing Association.

A successful fete, in aid of the Swavesey, Over and Fen Drayton Nursing Association, was held at Swavesey Manor on Thursday in fine weather. The grounds were kindly lent by the Rev. J. F. Cooksey, and there was a large attendance. Mrs. Simon Fraser, in opening the fete, expressed her pleasure at seeing so many present, and urged them all to buy all they could from the stalls, and enter all the competitions, in order to make the effort a great success.

One of the best side shows was the children's entertainment. Their dances were well conceived and prettily performed, and gained hearty applause from the onlookers. The songs and a play were also well received, and showed that the children had been well trained by Miss Beaumont, Miss Hurrell and Miss Scott. A picturesque fancy dress parade was under the management of Miss Doris Aldred, and about a dozen children took part.

There were the usual amusements and competitions, and early in the afternoon a baby show, arranged by Nurse Walters, was held, for which there were 12 entries. Dr. Robinson judged, assisted by Miss Richards (assistant supt. of the Cambs. Nursing Association). The prizewinners were: One to six months – 1 Arthur Dodson, 2 Ella M. Asplin and Nora O. Nadel. Six to 12 months – 1 Reginald Unwin, 2 Barrie Adams. 12 to 18 months – May Brickwood, 2 Ernest Carter. All received certificates.

Those in charge of the stalls and competitions were as follows: Workstall, Mrs. C. Dean and friends; produce stall, Mrs. C. Barline and Mrs. W. Thorp; sweet stall, Misses E. Dodson and Mr. Parsons; ice cream, Mrs. Kester; refreshments, Mrs. Aldred and Mrs. Dean and many helpers; competition workstall, Mrs. Stebbing and Mrs. Banks; competitions, Miss Freestone, Miss Doris Godfrey, Mrs. W. Prince, Mrs. Winter, Mrs. W. Thorp, Miss Banks, Mrs. Cooke, and Miss Chew; bran tub, Miss Dodson; guessing the weight of the fowl, Mr. Hixton; at the gramophone, Mrs. Lee; at the gate, Messrs. Pontefract and C. Dean.

COUNTY SCHOLARSHIP. 10th June 1927

Winifred Wood and Joyce Melbourne, pupils at Swavesey National School, who sat in the recent County Minor Scholarship examination, have been awarded scholarships tenable at the Cambridge and County School for Girls.

MEMORIAL HALL. 10th June 1927

Although the attendance was not quite so large as on some previous occasions, due no doubt to other attractions in the district, the Memorial Hall Committee scored a success with their dance on Whitsun Monday. The Histon Jazzoneans provided an acceptable programme of dance music, and Mr. J. Salmon was an efficient M.C.

NEW STATIONMASTER. 10th June 1927

Mr. Harold Walter Whitehead, who has been appointed stationmaster of Swavesey, in succession to the late Mr. T. E. Tagg, took up duty on June 1st. He has served 26 years on the Great Central section of the L.N.E.R., having been goods clerk at Brackley and Nottingham, and stationmaster at Charwalton, Northants, and Langworth, Lincolnshire.

THE BROTHERHOOD. 10th June 1927

The second monthly meeting of the Swavesey Brotherhood was held on Sunday afternoon in the Memorial Hall, Mr. S. F. Mitham presiding over a large audience. Rev. E. P. Blackaby, of Willingham, gave the address, Mr. T. White, of Histon, sang two solos, and the Rev. T. B. Field opened and closed with prayer. The orchestral band was in attendance, Mr. J. W. Williams presiding at the piano.

COMMUNITY SINGING. 10th June 1927

A large congregation was present at Bethel Baptist Church on Sunday evening for the community singing service. The Rev. T. B. Field, who presided, gave an address on the word "Hallelujah." Miss D. Godfrey was the soloist, Mr. J. W. Williams led the orchestral band, and Mrs. Aldred presided at the organ. The congregation entered into the singing of the old-fashioned hymns with great zest. In some hymns ladies sang one verse and the men the others; in others the choir sang verses alone. So thoroughly enjoyed was the service that people are asking for the next one, which may be held towards the end of July.

LAST WEEK'S FETE. 10th June 1927

The garden fete, in aid of the Swavesey, Over and Fen Drayton Nursing Association, a report of which appeared last week, resulted in an addition of £45 15s. 6d. to the funds, £1 0s. 4d. more than last year. The gate money, including tickets sold previously, amounted to £8 6s. 6d., a record for this annual fete. The produce stall was under the charge of Mrs. G. Burling and Mrs. W. Thorp, the jumble stall of Mr. John Smith and Mrs. Mead, and the refreshments of Mrs. Aldred and Mrs. Dean, sen., assisted by many helpers. List of competitions and winners in newspaper.

LOCAL SUCCESS. 17th June 1927

In the Essex County Master Bakers' Association Bread and Confectionary Competition, Mr. W. D. Isgrove, High-street, Swavesey, was awarded second prize for heavy fruit cakes (Class C.).

A QUESTION OF SPELLING. 17th June 1927

A correspondent writes: Are the County road authorities, in doubt as to how Swavesey should be spelled, or are they endeavouring tentatively to introduce a new method? I ask the question, because on one side of the sign post opposite the New Inn on the Huntingdon-road the word appears as Swaversey, and on the other side as Swavesey. If the authorities desire to make a change, why not revert to Swaveseye, Swavesheye, Swaveseya or Swavesseia, as in Domesday Book and other ancient records? The variant in an old "National Gazetteer," Swasey, is not recommended.

THE DISTRICT NURSE. 17th June 1927

Nurse Cottrell, who has succeeded Nurse Walters as district nurse, took up her duties this week. She will reside at Berry House, Boxworth-end, Swavesey.

MIXED EGGS. 24th June 1927

A nest containing ten partridge's eggs and four eggs of a domestic fowl has been found this week in Baker's Close, Boxworth End.

PARISH CHURCH. 24th June 1927

During the absence of the Vicar, who is on his annual holiday, the services at the parish church are being taken by the Rev. J. F. Cooksey.

WHIST DRIVE. 24th June 1927

Owing to the uncertain weather the whist drive which was announced to take place in Miss Parson's garden on Tuesday evening, was held in the Memorial Hall. Eleven tables, over which Mr. T. C. Heasman presided as M.C., were in play, and the prizewinners were: Ladies – Miss D. Banks, Miss Watts, booby Mrs. Street; gentlemen – Mr. R. Asplin, Mr. S. Clark, booby Mr. H. Culpin; knock-out competition Mrs. Burton (ladies') and Mr. P. Burton (gentlemen's). The proceeds were in aid of the Memorial Hall funds.

DEATH OF A LATE PARISHIONER. 24th June 1927

We have to announce the death, at the age of 61 years, of Miss Rachel Parish, second daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Parish, of Swavesey, who succumbed to an attack of bronchial pneumonia on June 11th, after three days' illness. A native of Swavesey, she lived in the village until the death of her mother 13 years ago, when she went to reside at Handcross, Sussex. Feeling unwell she went a few days before her death to stay with relatives at Haywards Heath, and here she passed away. She was buried at Handcross Cemetery on Thursday week.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 24th June 1927

The anniversary of the Sunday School was celebrated at Bethel Baptist Church on Sunday, when the Pastor preached to good congregations in the morning and evening. A young people's service was held in the afternoon, over which Mr. Field presided, the address being given by the Rev. G. Bird, of Over. Mrs. Field, the superintendent, presented certificates to the following children who sat in the recent Sunday School Union examination: D. Canham, E. Dodson, F. Dodson, V. Parish, F. Williams, G. Payne and T. Jackson. The children, who had been admirably trained by Mrs. Aldred, Miss Easter and Mr. Canham, sang appropriate hymns during the day, Mr. J. W. Williams presiding at the organ. The children's treat took place on Thursday at Mr. A. Day's farm.

PARISH COUNCIL. 24th June 1927

A meeting of the Parish Council, called specially to elect a councillor to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Arthur Norman, should have been held at the Memorial Hall on Monday, and at 7.30 p.m., the time appointed, the Chairman (Mr. J. Linford) and Councillors P. Burton, Mr. C. Burton, M. C. Culpin and H. Wells were in attendance, together with the Clerk (Mr. P. Godfrey). They could not however, proceed with business, as the Standing Orders required a quorum of five. The four faithful councillors waited patiently, in the hope that one at least of their four absent colleagues might put in an appearance, but they waited in vain, and at 8.15 p.m. it was decided to adjourn until 8 p.m. on Monday next. On that occasion it is possible that the question may be raised of amending the Standing Orders so as to reduce the quorum from five to four, or perhaps three.

testimonials were received, has started her work, and it is hoped she will be kindly received by all, and will soon feel at home in the district.

SUCCESSFUL YOUNG ATHELETS. 1st July 1927

Swavesey National School sent four representatives to the Cambridgeshire Elementary Schools Annual Athletic Championship meeting, which was held in Cambridge on Saturday, and three of the four achieved success. Bernard Bailey, a promising lad of 13 years, won the half-mile in 2min. 49secs., beating W. Adams (Over Church School) easily. He had the distinction of being the only representative of a school in the county who gained a championship medal. Vida Parish, after winning her heat in the girls' 75 yards hurdle race, came in second in the final, and Arthur Godfrey was third in the 220 yards flat race.

NEW COUNCIL HOUSES. 1st July 1927

Some time ago it was announced that the District Council proposed to build six new houses in Swavesey, four of which were to be in the main part of the village, and two at Boxworth End. Much surprise and indignation have therefore been aroused by the preparations that are being made to erect the whole of the houses at Boxworth End on land that is practically a swamp. It is maintained that the site is the most unsuitable to be found in the village, that tons innumerable of earth will be required to raise the land to a proper level, and that, as the sub-soil is clay, the houses when built will soon fall to pieces. One ratepayer suggests that the "wash" at the river side, where a district councillor has already had some experience of house-building, would be a drier and a healthier site, for water there runs away quicker than it does from the swamp at Boxworth End.

PARISH COUNCIL. 1st July 1927

The special meeting of the Parish Council to elect a Councillor in succession to the late Mr. Arthur Norman, which could not be held on June 20th, as the quorum required by the Standing Orders, but not by the Local Government Act, 1894, did not attend, took place at the Memorial Hall on Monday evening. There were present: Mr. J. Linford (Chairman), Messrs. C. W. H. Cole, M. C. Culpin, F. Hephew, P. Parish and H. Wells with the clerk, Mr. P. Godfrey. After Mr. C. H. Parish, who had previously served on the Council, and who has only recently relinquished the office of Overseer, had been unanimously chosen to fill the vacancy on the Council, it was agreed that a cheque should be drawn for £27 5s. 11d., the instalment due to the Public Works Loan Board on July 15th in respect of the loan on the Memorial Hall.

This sum will not, it was explained, be paid out of the rates. A letter was read from Mr. Bertram Prime complaining that cattle had several times strayed on to a field occupied by him; that the pound was not in a fit condition to contain animals, and further that the parishioner who used to officiate as pinder had informed him that he no longer acted in that capacity. Mr. Culpin stated that when the question of repairing the walls of the pound was raised about 18 months ago, it was decided from motives of economy that no action be taken “for the present,” and he moved that the matter be left until after next March, when the new Council could deal with it if they thought fit. Mr. Cole seconded. The proposition was carried by three votes to one, Messrs. F. Hepher and P. Parish not voting. Nothing was done in regard to the appointment of a pinder, probably because a pinder would find it difficult to act without a pound. The Clerk reported that the fire engine was crumbling to pieces. This venerable engine was 30 years of age when it was purchased for the parish from Messrs. Merryweather and Co. a century ago, and it came into great prominence on the occasion of the disastrous fire in Swavesey in 1913. A suggestion on Monday evening that a modern engine should be acquired was received in silence by the Councillors, who passed on to appoint Mr. H. Berryman a member of the Memorial Hall Management Committee, vice Mr. G. Winter, resigned. The Chairman moved that a special meeting of the Council be called to discuss the advisability of a reduction in the quorum required by the Standing Orders. He explained that with the present quorum of five there was frequently delay in commencing business, and that sometimes no meeting could be held owing to the necessary number of Councillors not being present. According to the Act of Parliament, he said, the quorum need not be more than three. Mr. Cole vigorously opposed any reduction, and as the Chairman failed to find a seconder, the proposition was not put to the meeting. Before the proceedings closed it was agreed that the quarterly meeting of the Council should be held on Monday, 18th July, at 8 p.m.

MEMORIAL HALL. 8th July 1927

A dance, in aid of the Memorial Hall funds, was held on Saturday evening. The music was provided by the Histon Jazzzoneans' Band

WHIST DRIVE. 8th July 1927

The whist drive in aid of the Parish Church Heating Apparatus Fund on Tuesday evening took place at the Memorial Hall, and not on the lawn at “The Priory as originally intended. Eleven tables were in play, and the prizes were won by: Ladies – Mrs. H. Culpin, Mrs. Stebbings, Mrs. J. Prior, lucky number Miss Stebbing; gentlemen – Mr. E. A. Mitham, Mr. H. Burling, Mr. Webb, lucky number Mr. W. Twist. Mr. T. C. Heasman was M.C.

THE BROTHERHOOD. 8th July 1927

A largely attended meeting of the Swavesey Brotherhood was held in the Memorial Hall on Sunday afternoon, when Mr. F. Prior was in the chair. Councillor Whibley, of Cambridge, was the speaker, and Miss Prior and Mr. Harper (Cambridge) the soloists. About forty persons have intimated their willingness to become members of the United Sisterhood and Brotherhood, and others are invited to join. A meeting will be held shortly to place the movement on a more permanent footing. There are no binding rules, or financial burdens, the main objects being to promote unity among Christians and to helping forward all good work for the uplifting of the race.

SWAVESEY JAPANESE FAIR. 15th July 1927

Successful Effort for Church Heating Apparatus.

Owing to the wet the Japanese fair, in aid of the Church Heating Apparatus Fund, was held in the Memorial Hall on Thursday instead of the Vicarage grounds, and in spite of being rather cramped, the fair was quite a success. Mr. C. H. Barwell, of Kenilworth, brother of the treasurer of the Swavesey Church Restoration Fund, declared the fete open, and wished them every success.

One of the features in the entertainment was the conjuring of Mr. Sydney Pratt, of Cambridge, who is too well known to need an introduction. The St. Ives Band attended in the afternoon and played a good selection of music, and later in the evening provided the music for dancing. In addition, there were the usual stalls, competitions and sideshows, which were well patronised. The Japanese procession had a good number of entrants, and a prize was given to the person wearing the best costume.

List of stallholders and competitions in newspaper.

A SUCCESSFUL RABBIT. 15th July 1927

Mr. Percy Parish, of Boxworth End, Swavesey, scored another success with his rabbits at the Rugby Fur and Feather Show on the 6th inst., when he was awarded a second prize for a white Angora.

NURSING ASSOCIATION. 15th July 1927

The Treasurer of the Swavesey, Over and Fen Drayton Nursing Association has received a cheque for £18 0s. 7d. from the Over Women's Institute, for which the committee are most grateful.

HARD LINES. 15th July 1927

A Swavesey cottager, who sent two half-sieves of gooseberries to Manchester market last week, felt hurt and indignant when a day or two later he received the following invoice from the salesman: "One half-sieve berries 2s. 6d., one half-sieve pilfered, 1s."

DEATH OF AN EX-SERVICE MAN. 15th July 1927

We have to record the death of Mr. Frank Williams, which occurred at his mother's residence in Market-street on Sunday evening. Mr. Williams on the previous Sunday cycled to Swavesey from Ely, where he had been living for the past few years, and in the evening he walked, with his mother, to Needingworth and back to Swavesey. On Monday he was unwell, and two days later – his 39th birthday – it was evident that he was seriously ill, and Dr. Fraser, who was called in, found that he was suffering from pleurisy and pneumonia. Despite every attention his condition rapidly became worse, and he passed away at 8.30 p.m. on Sunday. Frank Williams was the second son of the late Mr. John Williams, coal merchant, who for many years was parish clerk of Swavesey, an office held continuously by members of the Williams' family for upwards of a century, and is now held by Mr. John Williams' youngest son. Early in the war (December, 1914) Frank Williams joined up, enlisting in the 24th Royal Fusiliers (2nd Sportsmen's Battalion), and with that battalion served on the Western front from November, 1915, until the 22nd December, 1917, when he was severely wounded by a shell, and his right foot had to be amputated. He remained under treatment until he was discharged as unfit for further service in October, 1918, and was granted a pension. He leaves a widow, a daughter and a son. The funeral took place at Swavesey parish church on Wednesday afternoon, and was attended by many villagers and friends of the family. The Rev. C. F. Stebbing, vicar, officiated. Mr. G. H. Skeeles presided at the organ. The coffin was covered with a Union Jack. The mourners were: Mrs. F. Williams (widow), Miss R. Williams (daughter), Master J. Williams (son), Mrs. J. Williams (mother), Messrs. D. and E. Williams (brothers), Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Berryman, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Key (brothers-in-law and sisters), Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Cracknell (sisters-in-law), Mrs. P. Williams, Mrs. Lawrence, Mrs. Day and Mrs. J. Turner (aunts), Mrs. K. Moore, Mrs. H. White, Mr. and Mrs. F. Sanderson, Mr. F. Turner, and Mrs. Farmsworth (cousins), Messrs. A. Melbourne, P. Lee and W. Spolton (ex-Servicemen). The following cablegram was received from his brothers in Australia: "With deepest and loving memory of our dear brother, Ezra and

ACCIDENT AT SWAVESEY STATION. 22nd July 1927

Coach Derailed and Lines Blocked.

RAILWAY OFFICIALS IN DANGER.

Swavesey railway station was on Monday afternoon the scene of an accident of somewhat unusual character, which might have been, but fortunately was not, attended by consequences far more serious than the death of a horse, a smashed cart, damage to a railway coach and to the permanent way, and interruption of traffic.

A horse and empty cart belonging to Mr. Jabez Day, farmer and fruitgrower, Swavesey, was standing on, or near, the up-platform, when from some unknown cause the horse backed the cart into a large pile of baskets of fruit stacked on the platform, upsetting the contents, and then fell on the line, dragging the cart with it. Mr. Day, who clung to the horse as it fell, made a desperate effort to drag it clear of the up metals, on which a train conveying officials of the L.N.E.R. was rapidly approaching the station. As the engine was propelling the train, the driver could not see the obstruction, but the signalman on duty, Mr. W. Kester, had seen what had happened, and he promptly pulled the near up signal to danger just as the engine was passing the post. The driver, however, had not time to pull up before the leading coach, in which the officials were having tea, struck the horse and cart.

The coach was derailed, and travelled some yards, damaging the permanent way. Both up and down roads were blocked, the cart was reduced to fragment of splintered wood, and the horse – a valuable animal – was so badly injured that it died in a short time. Mr. Day escaped injury.

A breakdown gang from Cambridge soon replaced the coach on the metals, and thus cleared the down line, on which both up and down trains had to travel, piloted by Mr. H. Whitehead, the Swavesey stationmaster, until about 7.45 p.m., by which time the damaged up line had been repaired by the local gangs of platelayers.

The coach, which remained in a siding at Swavesey for the night, sustained some damage, including splintered running boards and a smashed panel.

NATIONAL SCHOOL. 22nd July 1927

The Rev. J. D. Stewart, Diocesan Director of Religious Instruction, who recently visited Swavesey National School, has reported as follows: The Headmaster takes a great interest in his work, and desires to do the best for the children. The work has been conscientiously taught by him, and the children made a very good response to the questioning. The standard of written work was very good indeed; the papers were sensible and straightforward; they were written with care, and showed an interest in the subject matter. Middle Group: The younger children responded well to questions put to them on their Old and New Testament work. Good progress has been made on the lines of the new syllabus. Infant Group: I was very pleased with the response of the little ones. They are very happy and interested, and are being taught with care and sympathy.

THE JAPANESE FAIR. 22nd July 1927

Notwithstanding the deplorable weather on Thursday week, which necessitated the transfer at the last moment of the Japanese Fair from the grounds of the Vicarage to the Memorial Hall, a profit of £50 2s. 11d. was realised for the Parish Church Heating Fund. (Competition winners in newspaper)

SCHOOL ATHLETICS. 22nd July 1927

Vida Parish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Parish, a pupil at Swavesey National School, was the only competitor from Cambridgeshire who achieved any sort of distinction at the Third Inter-County Championship sports meeting, held on Saturday at Stamford Bridge, London, under the auspices of the Schools Athletic Association. She won her heat in the first round of the 75 yards girls' hurdle race and ran second in her heat in the second round, but not being the fastest second in the round, she did not compete in the final. Bernard Bailey, Swavesey's hope for the half-mile was unplaced, as also was W. Adams of Over Council School, the only other Cambridgeshire representative in the race. Bailey, it should be mentioned, was far from well, and not fit to run. Arthur Godfrey, the reserve for the 220 yards flat race, accompanied the party to London, but was not called upon to run. The parade of competitors from the 21 counties, each with its flag, was an imposing spectacle. The salute was taken by the Home Secretary, Sir W. Joynson-Hicks, Bart., who distributed the trophies and medals.

PARISH COUNCIL. 22nd July 1927

The quarterly meeting of the Parish Council was held at the Memorial Hall on Monday evening. There were present: Mr. J. Linford (Chairman), Messrs. P.

Burton, C. W. H. Cole, M. C. Culpin, F. Hepher, R. Norman, sen., C. H. Parish, P. Parish and H. Wells, with the Clerk (Mr. P. Godfrey). Mr. C. H. Parish, who had been elected at the previous meeting to fill the vacancy on the Council caused by the death of Mr. Arthur Norman, having signed the declaration of acceptance of office, the Chairman called attention to the fire engine, now some 130 years of age. It had been reported, he said, that the woodwork had decayed, and that the engine was practically useless. If that was the case, he thought they should waste no more money on it. In the discussion that followed, the question was raised as to whether there was a stand pipe for use in case of fire in connection with the public water supply. Mr. C. H. Parish said he believed the stand pipe that had been provided was held by Mr. Chevill, of Willingham, who looks after the repair of the pipes. Some councillors were of opinion that the pressure of water was not sufficient to be effective in case of a fire; others thought it was sufficient. The opinion was expressed that the fire hydrants, some of which it would be difficult to find in a hurry, should be overhauled. Eventually, on the proposition of Mr. Norman, seconded by Mr. Wells, it was agreed that the engine should be tested at 8 p.m. on Monday next, in the presence of the whole of the Council. Before the meeting closed a councillor asked where the fire hooks were at the present time, but no one knew.

ASSAULT AT SWAVESEY. 22nd July 1927

J. K., of Swavesey, was summoned for assaulting R. G., of Swavesey, on July 7th at Swavesey.

Mr. G. A. Wootten appeared for defendant, and pleaded not guilty.

R. G., living at Swavesey, said that on July 7th he was sitting down to tea near his caravan when a man named W. and defendant came along. After conversation, defendant struck witness on the forehead.

Defendant, on oath, spoke of meeting complainant, who came straight up to him, saying that he had a bone to pick with him (defendant). He then hit defendant on the eye and kicked him on the thigh. Defendant then, in self defence, hit back.

A. W., of Swavesey, corroborated defendant's statement.

H. H., a labourer, of Swavesey, said that one day last June, in the White Horse, Swavesey, he saw G., who asked witness where K. was. G. added: "I am out to wait for K. I am going to give him a good hiding."

The Bench decided to convict and sent defendant to prison for two months with hard labour.

WILFUL DAMAGE.

J. K. and A. W., both of Swavesey, were summoned for committing wilful damage to the extent of £5 at Swavesey on July 7th.

Both defendants pleaded not guilty.

R. G., of Swavesey, said that on July 7th, after the assault, he went through the gap in the hedge. Witness later saw defendants burn up everything he had.

P. C. Brooks spoke to seeing the axles and tyres of the wheels, everything else being entirely burnt.

Both defendants, on oath, denied burning G.'s goods.

The Bench decided to convict. K., who had 21 previous convictions, including 11 assaults, four threats and one wilful damage, was sent to prison for two months' hard labour. W., who had four previous convictions, was sent to prison for one month with hard labour.

ADVERT. 29th July 1927

TROJAN VAN, 1925, perfect running order, taxed to December, £70. – Barwell, Swavesey.

EVENING FETE. 29th July 1927

The somewhat hastily arranged evening fete and dance, in aid of the Church Heating Apparatus Fund, which took place in the grounds of the Vicarage on Thursday week, was, it is understood, a financial success. The St. Ives Town Band was in attendance.

ADDENBROOKE'S HOSPITAL. 29th July 1927

The annual house-to-house collection in aid of Addenbrooke's Hospital which has recently been made in the village, under the auspices of the County Organisation Fund, amounted to £17 10s. 3d., 19s. more than last year. The collectors were Mesdames Aldred, Beaumont, Cooksey, Dean, Hemington, Thorp and Miss Gaunt.

POTATO VARIETY TRIALS. 29th July 1927

We are informed by Mr. A. T. Paskett, County Horticultural Adviser, that the following varieties of potatoes grown for the County Agricultural Education Committee on the County Council small holding of Mr. W. F. Gleaves, Swavesey, are now ready for inspection by persons interested in potato growing. 28lbs. of the following varieties (Scotch seed) have been grown this year: Dargil Early, King George, Arran Consul, Glamis Beauty, Kerr's Pink, Red King, Eclipse, Arran Chief, Arran Victory, Golden Wonder, King Edward. A large label has been put up showing each variety. They can be inspected at any time. It is hoped that samples from the different varieties will be on view at the Swavesey Horticultural Show on Thursday, August 4th, and at the Great Autumn Show at Cambridge on Sept. 21st and 22nd.

FOOTBALL CLUB. 29th July 1927

The annual meeting of the Football Club was held on Tuesday evening, at the Memorial Hall, Mr. G. E. Canham presiding. After the balance sheet, which showed that the receipts last year amounted to £34 12s. 5d., and the expenditure to £33 4s. 0½d., had been approved, the following officers were elected for the ensuing season: President, Mr. R. C. Cole; vice-presidents, Rev. C. F. Stebbing, Rev. T. B. Field, Dr. S. J. Fraser, Messrs. C. F. Banks, A. Beaumont, W. A. Bignell, H. Blinkhorn, L. Brooks, G. E. Canham, W. Crouch, P. H. Lee, Moyne, J. Mustill, W. Mustill and H. Whitehead; captain first eleven, Mr. G. E. Canham; vice-captain, Mr. H. N. Unwin; hon. secretary, Mr. A. Hephher, assistant secretary, Mr. H. Holmes; general committee, Messrs. H. Brooks, P. Button, A. Lambert, G. Oakman, R. Seekings, E. Smart and Turner; selection committee, Messrs. E. Smart and Turner with the Captain, Vice-Captain, Secretary and Assistant Secretary. It was decided that the first eleven should be entered for the Cambs. League, Division III, and the Minor Cup Competitions, and a second eleven for the Histon League and Cup. Hearty votes of thanks were accorded the hon. secretary and the retiring assistant secretary (Mr. A. E. Melbourne).

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 29th July 1927

A good congregation attended the special musical service at Bethel Baptist Church on Sunday afternoon. The music included soprano solos by Miss Rose Taylor and Mrs. Ivatt, bass solos, violin solos, a performance by a string quartette, and an anthem by the choir. Mr. J. W. Williams presided at the organ and the piano. At the evening service Miss Taylor gave a beautiful rendering of Liddle's setting of "Abide with me," and Mr. Warren's fine voice was heard to advantage in "Nearer, my God, to Thee." The anthem "Hark, the glad sound" (F. C. Maker) was well sung by the choir. Addresses were given at both services by the Pastor, Rev. T. B. Field. The collections, which amounted to £3 9s. 6d. will be equally divided between the choir and church funds.

WEDDING. 29th July 1927

The marriage of Mr. James Prime, of Atherstone Warwickshire, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Prime, of Swavesey, and Miss K. M. Thomas, daughter of Mr. J. Thomas, of Eardisley, Herefordshire, took place at Eardisley parish church on Monday week, the Rev. S. H. Osborne, rector, officiating. The service was choral, the hymns sung being "The voice that breathed o'er Eden" and "Lead us Heavenly Father," and the organist played the bridal music from Lohengrin and Mendelssohn's Wedding March. A merry peal was rung on the bells as the newly-married couple left the church. The bride's dress was of ivory crepe-de-chine with georgette sleeves and pearl trimming. She wore a veil of silk embroidered net, a wreath of orange blossom, and a rope of pearls (the gift of the bridegroom), and carried a bouquet of pale pink carnations and fern. The bridesmaids were her sisters, Misses Doris and Hilda Thomas. They wore dresses of egg-blue taffeta, with accordion-pleated georgette panels, veils, and gold brooches (the bridegroom's gift). Mr. Reginald Thomas (bride's brother) was best man. Later in the day Mr. and Mrs. J. Prime left by train for their honeymoon at Weston-super-Mare. The wedding presents were numerous and useful.

THE FIRE ENGINE. 29th July 1927

As decreed by the Parish Council at their meeting last week, the ancient fire engine, about which unkind things had been said, was taken to the recreation ground on Monday evening for inspection and trial in the presence of the Councillors. Seven of the nine Councillors were in attendance, viz., Messrs. J. Linford (chairman), C. W. H. Cole, M. C. Culpin, F. Hepher, R. Norman, sen., C. H. Parish and H. Wells, with the Clerk (Mr. P. Godfrey). A crowd of considerable dimensions assembled to watch the operations which were under the superintendence of the captain of the fire engine (Mr. S. Challis) and the sub-captain (Mr. E. Prior). On being manned by a crew of pumpers, among whom were some of the Councillors, the engine with three or four lengths of hose attached was found capable of throwing a fairly satisfactory stream of water. Some of the woodwork, as already reported, was rotten, but probably could be replaced at a small outlay. A fire hydrant near Mr. Ben Thorp's garage, on being tested subsequently with one length of hose, threw a stream of water not equal to that thrown by the engine, but onlookers were satisfied that with a stronger pressure from the waterworks at Bourn a far better result could be obtained, and that the hydrants might be of great service at a fire, provided they were easily accessible and the position of each clearly marked. As both the Swavesey representatives on the District Council were present at the trial these matters will doubtless have prompt attention.

SWAVESEY SHOW. 5th Aug. 1927

Record Entry of Flowers and Vegetables.

Delightful weather favoured the fifth annual show and sports arranged by the Swavesey and District Horticultural Society, held in the Manor Field, by kind permission of Mr. A. Watts, to-day (Thursday). Last year the show was pronounced a success, but on this occasion all previous records were eclipsed. There was a record entry of vegetables and flowers, and one of the judges said that, taking the show all round, it was a great improvement on any previous show at Swavesey. In the classes for vegetables for the cup presented by Mr. Walter Dodson, he said, there would be an improvement in the exhibits if the exhibitors knew what was required.

The outstanding feature of the show was the display of potatoes. Runners and French beans, marrows and carrots were exceptionally good, while, considering the season, cooking apples, for which class there was a large entry, were quite good. Great interest was taken in the special exhibit of potatoes grown for the County Agricultural Education Committee, on the County Council smallholding of Mr. W. F. Gleaves, of Swavesey.

There was a large number of early visitors to the Manor Field, and much interest was shown in the various exhibits. The Cambridge Railway Silver Prize Band was in attendance during the afternoon, when there were children's sports. This evening there will be a further programme of sports, and the band will play for the dancing. There will also be a dance in the Memorial Hall and the music will be supplied by the Histon Jazzzoneans.

LOCAL SUCCESS. 5th Aug. 1927

At the large and important show of the Universal Angora Club, held at Darlington, Mr. Percy Parish, of Boxworth End, Swavesey, was highly commended for a White Angora rabbit in the adult class and commended for another Angora in the five months' class.

MEMORIAL HALL. 5th Aug. 1927

There was a good attendance at the dance at the Memorial Hall on Saturday evening, for which the Histon Jazzzoneans provided an excellent programme of music. The proceeds were in aid of the Hall funds. – A correspondent writes: Dwellers in High-street would be grateful if motor cyclists who attend dances and other functions at the Memorial Hall would show a little more consideration for the men, women and children endeavouring to get a night's rest in houses near the Hall. As an instance of unnecessary noise, it is stated that a motor cyclist on Saturday night kept his engine running while attending to a puncture, and a companion added to the hubbub by continually calling to the cyclist to "hurry up." This occurred under the windows of a row of small houses.

PARISH COUNCIL. 5th Aug. 1927

A special meeting of the Parish Council was held at the Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening in order that the councillors might decide whether anything should be done in regard to the fire engine which had been tested in their presence during the previous week. There were present: Mr. J. Linford (chairman), Messrs. P. Burton, C. W. H. Cole, F. Hepher, R. Norman, sen., C. H. Parish, P. Parish and H. Wells, with the clerk (Mr. P. Godfrey). After some discussion, during which the opinion was expressed that the fire engine was still capable of doing good work, notwithstanding the fact that it – the councillors said “she” – was 130 years old, it was agreed that only a few minor repairs were necessary, and that Messrs. Parish Bros., of Swavesey, should be asked to undertake the work. As regards the fire hydrants connected with the public water supply, it was decided, on the motion of Mr. C.H. Parish, that the District Council should be asked to raise the hydrants to the level of the footpath, where necessary, and to provide the Parish Council with a plan indicating the position of each hydrant. The Clerk reported that the standpipe which was supplied to the Council when the new water system was installed, was kept in the fire engine house, and that the other standpipe to which reference was made at the previous meeting was for the use of the engineer in charge of the pipes. A letter was read from Mr. C. Wood complaining of the stench arising from the District Council sewer between the school and the end of Market-street, and calling attention to a leakage of blood and other objectionable matter from the pipes near Swavesey Manor. As the Parish Council had no control over the sewer, it was decided to send the letter to the District Council

PARISH CHURCH. 12th Aug. 1927

The collections at the parish church on Sunday, which amounted to £3 10s., were in aid of the Sunday School Treat Fund.

TRIP TO THE SEASIDE. 12th Aug. 1927

One hundred and three passengers were booked at Swavesey station on Sunday by the special L.N.E.R. half-day excursion to Skegness.

THE BROTHERHOOD. 12th Aug. 1927

There was a fairly good attendance at the monthly meeting of the Brotherhood, in the Memorial Hall, on Sunday afternoon, at which Mr. G. E. Canham presided. The Rev. F. Bonsey, of the Free Church, St. Ives, was the speaker, and Mr. Webster the soloist.

ACCIDENT. 12th Aug. 1927

While loading up empty tar barrels on the Huntingdon-road, near Lolworth, on Monday morning, Mr. Stephen Gray, of Swavesey, a labourer employed by Mr. P. Godfrey, haulage contractor, was knocked down by a passing motor car, driven by Mrs. Stanton, of Lolworth Grange. Mr. Gray, who appears to have been caught by the wing of the car as he was stepping from behind the traction engine, sustained injuries to his head and leg. Mrs. Stanton immediately summoned the police ambulance from Cambridge, to convey Mr. Gray to Addenbrooke's Hospital, where his injuries were attended to, but he was not detained.

THE HORTICULTURAL SHOW. 12th Aug. 1927

The accounts in connection with the Swavesey and District Horticultural Society's show and sports, held last week, were presented by the joint treasurers, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hephher, at a meeting of the Finance Committee on Wednesday evening. Although incomplete, they showed that the receipts would exceed the expenditure, and that an addition would be made to the reserve fund. The "gate" amounting to about £54, was £2 less than in 1926, but this decrease was to a great extent counter-balanced by an increase in the membership from 200 to 210. The horticultural exhibits had also increased from 110 to 123. Through an unfortunate inadvertence no reference was made in our report last Friday to the President of the Society, Mr. R. C. Cole, J.P., who, in addition to being a most generous contributor to the funds, was unremitting in his efforts to ensure the success of the show. It was much regretted that Mrs. Cole, also a generous contributor was unable to be present, especially as ill-health was the cause of her absence. Practically the whole of the work of preparation, and also of clearing up – an even more thankless task – was done voluntarily, Messrs. E. J. Close, H. Culpin, C. Haddow, T. C. Heasman, F. W. Pontefract, G. W. Wayman and H. Wells being worthy of special commendation in this connection. Mr. Walter Thorp was also responsible for some useful preliminary work, but the heat and burden of the undertaking as a whole fell on the hon. general secretary, Mr. C. Wood, who for weeks before the show was engaged in preparing and organising, and on the day itself was hard at work from sunrise to midnight. The committee are most grateful to all who kindly lent crockery and forms, and also planks, trestles, etc., for staging the exhibits and for use in the refreshment tent. The judge of the horticultural exhibits associated with Mr. A. T. Paskett (County Horticultural Adviser) was Mr. George Hart, J.P., of Willingham. The Memorial Hall was crowded for the dance, which followed the show, 180 people paying for admission. Mr. W. A. Bignell officiated as M.C., and the Histon Jazzzoneans provided the music.

SCHOOL TREAT. 19th Aug. 1927

The children attending the parish church Sunday School spent a happy time in the Vicarage grounds on the 11th inst., on the occasion of their annual summer treat. After an excellent tea on the lawn, parents and friends joined the young people, and there were sports, cricket and other games, and at the close prizes were presented by Mrs. Cooksey.

ADDENBROOKE'S HOSPITAL. 19th Aug. 1927

The total amount realised this year for Addenbrooke's Hospital by the house-to-house collections in the villages comprised in the Swavesey Division, was £84 4s. 8d., and this sum has been forwarded by the divisional Vice-President to Mrs. Bidwell, of Great Shelford, the hon. secretary of the County Organisation Fund.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY. 19th Aug. 1927

The balance sheet in connection with the Swavesey and District Horticultural Society's show and sports, held on the 4th inst., which was presented by the joint treasurers, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hepher, at a meeting of the General Committee on Tuesday evening, showed that, including a balance of £56 5s. 7d. brought from 1926, the receipts amounted to £200 10s. 1½d., and the expenditure to £129 12s. 6d., leaving a balance in hand of £70 17s. 7½d. The profit on this year's working was £14 12s. 0½d.

MEMORIAL HALL. 26th Aug. 1927

There was a fairly good attendance at the dance at the Memorial Hall on Saturday evening, for which the Histon Jazzzoneans supplied the music, and Mr. J. Salmon acted as M.C.

ACCIDENT. 26th Aug. 1927

Mr. T. C. Heasman, of the Rising Sun Inn, Swavesey, agent for Messrs. Bailey and Tebbutt's, accompanied by Mr. E. Oakman, of the New Inn, Huntingdon-road, had been delivering orders in Over on Thursday afternoon in a trap, and when returning down Over Hill a rein broke and the horse bolted. At the foot of the hill it fell, throwing out both occupants, who were injured about the legs. Mrs. Cecil Symonds, of Over, motored both men to their homes, Dr. Fraser being called to attend to Mr. Oakman's injuries.

WHIST DRIVE. 26th Aug. 1927

A successful whist drive was held at the Priory on August 18th, in aid of the Church Heating Fund. Thirteen tables were in play, and the prizes were won as follows: Ladies – Mrs. C. Dean, Miss Jill Stebbing, Mrs. G. Burling. Gentlemen – Mr. E. Moore, Mrs P. Burton (playing as a gentleman), Mrs. Isgrove (as gentleman). The prizes for the subsequent “knock-out” were won by Mr. and Mrs. E. Moore. Mr. Heasman kindly acted as M.C. The proceeds amounted to £6 12s. 7d.

AN OFFENSIVE DRAIN. 26th Aug. 1927

A correspondent writes: At the meeting of the Parish Council on 2nd August, a letter from a parishioner was read, in which complaint was made of the stench arising from the District Council drain between the school and the end of Market-street, and attention was called to the leakage of blood and other offensive matter from the pipes near Swavesey Manor. The letter was forwarded by the Parish Council to the District Council, and was no doubt discussed at a meeting of the latter body on Friday, 5th inst., as within a day or two the sanitary inspector came over and inspected the drain. Notwithstanding this display of energy, no effective steps have yet been taken to abate the nuisance, and this week, especially on Tuesday evening, the stench in the neighbourhood of the school has been particularly deadly. Some Swavesey people are asking whether the District Councillors ever trouble themselves to ascertain if their instructions are carried out, or whether they content themselves with merely passing resolutions, and it is suggested that if a cesspool connected with the District Council houses in School-lane were inspected, the District Councillors and their inspector might find cause for serious reflection. Something really effective ought to be done before the school re-assembles in a week or two's time.

LATE MRS. W. PARISH. 26th Aug. 1927

After four and a half years of ill-health, Mrs. Elizabeth Parish, wife of Mr. William Parish, and daughter of the late Mr. Robert Coulson, of Swavesey, passed away on the 19th inst., aged 74 years, leaving, in addition to her husband, two sons and one daughter to mourn their loss. The funeral took place at Swavesey cemetery on Tuesday afternoon, Mr. Camp, of Southill, Beds., officiating. The immediate mourners were Mr. W. Parish (husband), Miss M. Parish (daughter), Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Parish, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Parish (sons and daughters-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. J. Daisley (brother-in-law and sister), Mr. W. Frost (brother-in-law), Miss E. Parish (sister-in-law), Mr. A. L. Parish (son-in-law), Mrs. J. Parish (niece), Masters E., W. R. and W.

Parish, Miss Mary Parish (grandchildren). The coffin was of unpolished oak. The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. R. Mitham, Swavesey.

TRIP TO THE SEA. 2nd Sept. 1927

Thirty-eight passengers were booked from Swavesey Station by the special half-day excursion to Yarmouth on Sunday.

A PROMISING YOUTH. 2nd Sept. 1927

Charles F. Wood, aged 17, eldest son of Mr. C. Wood, headmaster of Swavesey National School was the youngest of thirteen pupils at the Cambridge and County High School for Boys, who succeeded in passing the Cambridge Higher School Certificate examination. His subjects were chemistry, botany, zoology, French and English authors. Six hundred and sixty-six boys and girls from all parts of England sat for the examination, 391 of whom passed.

MOTOR CYCLES IN COLLISION. 2nd Sept. 1927

People in and around High-street were startled on Friday evening by an alarming noise, as if all the old iron and derelict tin cans in the village had been dropped from an aeroplane. The clatter, however, was occasioned by a collision in the main street, opposite the school house, between two or three motor cycles, all proceeding in the same direction. As far as can be ascertained, their machines were scattered about the road. Fortunately, beyond bruises and abrasions, the riders escaped injury, and their cycles were not seriously damaged.

BILLIARD LEAGUE. 2nd Sept. 1927

The annual general meeting of the Swavesey and District Billiard League was held at Swavesey on August 28th, the chair being taken by Mr. W. A. Bignell. Delegates from Swavesey, St. Ives Conservative, Liberal and Ex-Service Men's Clubs, Fenstanton, Godmanchester, Huntingdon Literary Institute, and Willingham were present. The following officers were elected – President: Mr. Bignell; vice-presidents: Messrs. W. Jeeps, J. Few, W. Cole (Willingham), Sir Arthur G. Dilley (Huntingdon), Mr. Banks (Swavesey), Mr. E. Kiddle (St. Ives), Mr. Salter (Fenstanton), Mr. Allan and Mr. Gardiner; chairman: Mr. Allan (St. Ives); vice-chairman: Mr. L. Brooks (Swavesey); secretary: Mr. C. Wood (Swavesey); treasurer: Mr. H. J. Culpin (Swavesey). The rules in force last year were again adopted with several additions, and it was decided that the last date for clubs to enter the league should be September 10th. It was also agreed that an affiliation fee of 5s. per club be paid, and that a second division of the league should be formed, each club to nominate three players who shall not be allowed to play in the second league. A further meeting of delegates will be held on September 14th to arrange fixtures.

MEMORIAL HALL. 9th Sept. 1927

Upwards of one hundred people attended the dance at the Memorial Hall on Saturday evening, for which the Histon Jazzzoneans provided the music, and Mr. Percy Burton officiated as M.C.

HARVEST THANKSGIVING. 9th Sept. 1927

Notwithstanding the late harvest may have kept some people away, good congregations attended the harvest thanksgiving services at the Particular Baptist Chapel on Tuesday afternoon and evening, when Mr. James, of Dunstable, was the special preacher. Between the services there was a well-attended tea, the tables at which were presided over by Mrs. A. Day, Miss E. day, Mrs. Jabez Parish, Miss M. Parish and Mrs. R. Sutton. The collections in aid of the chapel funds were quite up to the average.

THE BROTHERHOOD 9th Sept. 1927

The monthly meeting of the Swavesey Brotherhood was held in the Memorial Hall on Sunday afternoon, when the Rev. T. B. Field presided, and the programme, with the exception of one item, a violin solo by Mr. Ll. Nicholson, was furnished by the Cambridge Brotherhood, the speaker being Mr. H. Brown, whose hearty and witty manner captivates all audiences. His subject was "Be of good cheer," and was much enjoyed. The following took part in the meeting: Reading, Bro. Humphreys; quartettes, Bros. Thorne, Tingey, Holland and Andrews; prayers, Bro. Brown; solo, C. Coe; and recitation, Bro. Miller.

MEMORIAL HALL. 16th Sept. 1927

Owing probably to the wet evening, the attendance at the dance at the Memorial Hall on Saturday was not as good as usual. The Histon Jazzzoneans supplied the music.

A RABBIT TRAP. 16th Sept. 1927

Two bricks sprinkled with cayenne pepper, a Swavesey youth was assured by a gentleman, formed a simple but effective trap for catching rabbits. Sniffing at the pepper, the gentlemen said, would make a rabbit sneeze, and the sneeze would cause the rabbit to break its neck. The youth set his trap as directed, but caught no rabbit. He thinks, however, that the pepper he used had lost its virtue, so he is going to try again with a fresh supply.

AN UNFORTUNATE MISHAP. 16th Sept. 1927

Mr. Fred Kirby, of Over, vice-chairman of the Swavesey District Council, met with an unfortunate mishap when inspecting the large open drain which runs past the school and under High-street at Turn Bridge. He was accompanied by Ald. J. Frohock (chairman of the Council), Mr. R. Norman, sen. (one of Swavesey's representatives on the Council), the Sanitary Inspector (Mr. Reynolds), and the Road Surveyor (Mr. Hagger). Arriving at that point where the brick lining of the drain ends opposite Turn Bridge cottages, Mr. Kirby apparently desirous of ascertaining the depth of the accumulation of objectionable matter, straddled the drain and slipped in.

Aldred (violins) also contributed to the musical part of the service.

HOCKEY CLUB. 23rd Sept. 1927

There was a fairly good attendance at the annual meeting of the Swavesey Hockey Club, which was held at the Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening. The accounts for last season, which showed a balance in hand of £2 2s. 2½d., having been passed, the following officers were appointed for the ensuing year: Captain, Miss Banks; vice-captain, Miss E. Parish; hon. secretary, Miss K. Banks; treasurer, Miss E. Dodson. A president and vice-presidents were also elected, subject to their acceptance of office. It was arranged that the first practice game should be played on September 29th, and the first match on October 15th at St. Ives. New members will be welcomed. Annual subscription 2s. 6d.

VISIT TO THE ZOO. 23rd Sept. 1927

The long-looked-for children's outing to the Zoo took place on Saturday, the journey being made by Octona saloon 'bus, the comfortable travelling properties of which were greatly appreciated. As several of those who were going when the trip was first discussed had dropped out during the holidays, the vacant places were allotted to any child who wished to make one of the party. The morning dawned with heavy skies and a downpour of rain, which no doubt caused many doleful remarks from sundry parents and children, as all had prayed for a fine day. At 7.15 a.m., however, the 'bus arrived, and soon after 7.30 a.m. started on its journey, a few stragglers being picked up at Boxworth End. The rain continued steadily, but it was evident it had not damped the ardour of the fifty children, who, with three teachers, formed the merry party, who whiled the time away with songs, and jokes and questions fired at each other and the teachers. The route taken was via Cambridge, Royston, Hatfield, Barnet to the north entrance of the Zoo. On arrival, however, the weather decided to be kind, the rain cleared off, and the sun shone brightly from a clear blue sky. Out of the 'bus they tumbled and into the Zoo they all went. The Regent's Canal first claimed attention, with its horse-drawn barges, a novel sight to many, but when the parrot house was reached all interest centred on the birds and animals. A tour was made from house to house, and many were the questions which called for answer from all and sundry, and many were the wondering expressions of surprise as some animal, or bird, which before had been only a name, came into view. As lunch-time came along all sat down to have a well-earned rest and meal. Afterwards there were rides on elephant and camel, and more sights to see, including the chimpanzees at tea (which caused much amusement by its near approach to the human element), the sea lions feeding, and their larger neighbours, the lions and tigers, with their portions of meat. Five o'clock came all too quickly, and after the sweet stalls and automatic machines had been visited, a move was made for the 'bus, and home. A different route was taken, via Broxbourne, Ware and Cambridge, and we soon found ourselves back at the School; everyone tired but full of delight at the splendid day they had enjoyed. Three cheers having been given for the driver, the party dispersed, feeling that the trouble they had taken in preparing the concert, which provided the greater part of the funds for the outing, had been well worthwhile. There was a fairly good attendance. It was announced that the postponed social would take place on Thursday, Oct. 13th.

Harvest thanksgiving services were conducted at the Primitive Methodist Church on Sunday by the Rev. R. T. Corlett, Circuit Minister, of St. Ives. On Tuesday there was a public tea, followed by a service of song, entitled "The Harvest Hymn of Praise," which was excellently rendered by members of the St. Ives Sisterhood, Mrs. Corlett reading the narrative, and Miss Jude, of St. Ives, presiding at the organ. Mrs. G. Asplin, of Over, occupied the chair, and the Rev. R. T. Corlett gave an address. After the meeting the gifts of fruit and vegetables were sold, the proceeds, with the collections, being devoted to Trust Funds of the Church.

PARISH CHURCH. 7th Oct. 1927

The harvest festival at the parish church, which commenced on Thursday week, was continued on Sunday, when, in addition to the usual services, there was a special service in the afternoon, at which children brought gifts of flowers, fruit and eggs for the benefit of the patients of St. Ives Infirmary. At evensong, when there was a large congregation, the preacher was the Rev. E. J. I. Dredge, rector of Lolworth, and the anthem sung on Thursday was repeated. The collections on both days, with the exception of that on Sunday evening, were in aid of Addenbrooke's Hospital. They amounted to £8 8s., rather more than last year. The offerings of fruit, vegetables, etc., have also been sent to the Hospital.

THE INSTITUTE. 7th Oct. 1927

There was a good attendance at the annual meeting of the Institute, which was held at the Memorial Hall on Wednesday evening, Mr. S. Clark occupying the chair. The Secretary presented a satisfactory report of last year's activities, and also the accounts, from which it appeared that the receipts amounted to £71 8s. 8½d. and the expenditure to £67 3s. 1d., leaving a balance in hand of £4 5s. 7½d. In moving the adoption of the report and accounts the Rev. T. B. Field spoke in terms of high appreciation of the services rendered to the Institute by the President (Mr. W. A. Bignell), the hon. Secretary (Mr. C. Wood), and the caretaker (Mr. E. Prior), to all of whom he proposed a vote of thanks. Mr. Walter Thorp seconded, and the proposition was carried amidst applause. The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: President, Mr. W. A. Bignell; Vice-Presidents, Rev. C. F. Stebbing and Rev. T. B. Field; Chairman, Mr. S. Clark; Secretary, Mr. C. Wood; Committee, Messrs. H. H. Berryman, Brooks, H. J. Culpin, F. F. Norman and W. Thorp; Billiards Committee, Messrs. Brooks (Captain), F. Aldred (Vice-captain), H. J. Culpin (Secretary), T. C. It was decided that the annual subscription for members over 16 years should be 4s. to be paid on or before October 31st, or 3s. for each half-year if paid half-yearly; members 16 years of age and under 3s., or 1s. 6d. for each half-year; visitors to the village 1s. Arrangements were made for the supply of coal, oil, etc., and on the proposition of the Rev. T. B. Field it was agreed that the Parish Council should be asked to grant the use of the Hall, free of charge, on two nights of the year for entertainments, etc., for the benefit of the Institute. It was further agreed that lads on attaining the age of 16 should be allowed to play on the full-sized billiard table at the discretion of the Billiards Committee.

Swavesey F.C. have dropped their second team, which was defeated 12 – 1 by Willingham Reserves on Saturday, and have withdrawn from the Histon League. BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 14th Oct. 1927

Child, B.D., of Cambridge, preached to a good congregation after which 80 persons took tea together. During tea a short meeting was held, at which the Rev. E. P. Blackaby gave a cheery address. At the public meeting in the church in the evening Mr. Papworth Norman, of Cambridge, presided over a large congregation. The secretary, Mr. J. Day, presented a report of the work during the past year, and addresses were given by the Revs. R. L. Child and W. G. Bloomfield, A.T.S., of Harston, and the Pastor, Rev. T. B. Field. Solos were sympathetically sung by Mr. and Mrs. Canham and Mrs. Ivatt, and the choir, under the direction of Mr. J. W. Williams (organist), gave an excellent rendering of the anthem "O bless the Lord." The church had been very tastefully decorated, and a large quantity of produce had been given, which has been sent to Addenbrooke's Hospital. The offertories, with many added gifts, were handed to the Pastor as a token of esteem.

NEWMARKET (CAMBS.) POLICE. 14th Oct. 1927

ROAMING HUSBAND SENT TO GAOL.

J. S. W., greengrocer, of Swavesey, formerly of Soham, was brought up in custody and charged as a rogue and a vagabond with leaving his wife and children chargeable to the Common Fund of the Newmarket Union.

P.C. Luke Brooks, of Swavesey, deposed that he arrested the defendant that morning at 7.30. Mr. J. H. Soady prosecuted on behalf of the Newmarket Guardians.

Mr. Frank Wyat Manning produced the certificate of chargeability of defendant's wife and family. The certificate was dated Oct. 4th, 1927. Mr. Manning said the defendant ran away from his wife and family on August 23rd, leaving his wife and four children, who became chargeable to the Newmarket Union. Defendant was now living with a woman other than his wife at Swavesey.

J. S. W. went into the box and stated on oath that he lived at School-lane, Swavesey, where he carried on the business of a carrier. He said he left Soham on August 23rd to look for work. He visited several towns, but could not find work until he reached Swavesey, where he took a carrier's business, and where he still was. When he first started as a greengrocer in Soham he had a motor car. It was not a good business. About July he came to the decision to give up the business, and he spoke to his wife about it. He sold his motor car for £5 at Saffron Walden. He had served in the Territorials and had had five years' war service. He had no pension. He was now, as he had said, carrying on a carrier's business at Swavesey. He had sent his wife some money; he could not say how much. When his mother died her estate was worth about £90. He received £48. He spent that before he left Soham. He admitted that there was trouble with his wife about another woman. He was now lodging with that woman at Swavesey. He was the tenant of the house, which was taken in his name. The furniture was hers. He paid the rent, 3s. a week. Mrs. D. paid for the housekeeping. He paid Mrs. D. 20s. a week for his keep. He agreed to give £60 for the carrier's business. He paid £20 and was paying off the remaining £40 at the rate of £6 a week. He intended to make provision for his wife's and children's support as soon as he could. When they came to him in Swavesey he expected that Mrs. D. would take another house. Mrs. D. had been very good to him; she came to Swavesey to keep him out of the gutter.

On this evidence Mr. Soady asked the Bench to treat the defendant as a rogue and a vagabond. It was evident that he did not intend to return to his wife and family or to support them.

The Bench decided to send Watson to prison for one month's hard labour.

THE BROTHERHOOD. 21st Oct. 1927

The Swavesey Brotherhood's social gathering, held at the Memorial Hall on the 13th inst., was well attended, and in every other respect a great success. Mr. G. E. Canham, secretary, having been voted to the chair, the proceedings opened with a hymn and a prayer. The programme for the evening included solos, a duet, quartettes (vocal and instrumental), recitations and community singing accompanied by violins, cornet, etc. Mr. J. W. Williams presided at the piano. The refreshments, all kindly given, were excellent, and were more than ample for the needs of the evening, the surplus being subsequently distributed among the old aged pensioners in the village. At a business meeting held after the social, with Mr. Canham in the chair, the treasurer (Mr. Frank Prior) presented a financial report of the past season, which showed that the Brotherhood had a balance in hand. It was unanimously decided not only to continue the Brotherhood, but to establish a Sisterhood, and the following officers were elected: Chairman, Rev. T. B. Field; vice-chairman, Mr. S. F. Mitham; secretary, Mr. G. E. Canham; treasurer, Mr. F. Prior; committee, Messrs. A. C. Garner, A. Hephner, A. W. Melbourne, A. P. Payne, Mesdames Canham, W. Kester, W. Savage and Street. It was agreed that combined meetings should be held on the first Sunday in each month, the Sisterhood and Brotherhood being alternately responsible for the meetings, and that arrangements should be made for another social in December.

PARISH COUNCIL. 21st Oct. 1927

The quarterly meeting of the Parish Council was held at the Memorial Hall on Monday evening, when there were present Mr. J. Linford (chairman), Messrs. P. Burton, C. W. H. Cole, M. C. Culpin, F. Hephner, C. H. Parish, P. Parish and H. Wells, with the clerk, Mr. P. Godfrey. Arising out of the minutes of the previous meeting, the clerk reported that in accordance with instructions he had seen Mr. A. Parish with regard to certain minor repairs to the fire engine, but he had heard nothing further from him in the matter. Mr. Cole said Mr. Parish had told him he would attend to the engine as soon as possible. The clerk further reported that he had not received any reply to, nor even an acknowledgment of, the letter he had sent to the District Council respecting the fire hydrants in the village, and he was instructed to write again to the clerk of the R.D.C., requesting that the matter might have immediate attention. A precept was issued on the Rating Authority for £15 for expenses of the Council during the ensuing six months, and the clerk was authorised to pay £2 15s. 6d. for taxes on the Hall and other parish property, and for expenses in connection with the fire engine. Mr. C. H. Parish was appointed a trustee of the Swavesey Fire Relief Fund Charity in place of the late Mr. Arthur Norman. A letter from the secretary of the Institute asking for the use of the Memorial Hall, free of charge, twice a year for entertainments for the benefit of the Institute was referred to the Hall Committee of Management. Before the meeting closed the clerk announced that the accounts of the Council for the year ended 31st March last had been examined by the Government auditor and passed as correct. He also stated that on the 31st March the sum owing on the loan on the Hall amounted to £412 10s., and that a further instalment of £27 10s. had been paid, reducing the Council's indebtedness in respect of the loan to £385. – Our Swavesey correspondent writes: During the short discussion respecting the letter from the secretary of the Institute the Councillors, or at any rate some of them, appeared to overlook two important points, viz.: (1) that at the meeting of parishioners held on 7th May, 1919, it was unanimously resolved that the Swavesey War Memorial should take the form of a Village Hall and Institute; and (2) that the committee of management of the Hall is a committee appointed by, and under the control of the Parish Council.

FOOTBALL CLUB. 28th Oct. 1927

The following were the prizewinners at the whist drive, which was held at the Memorial Hall on Thursday week, in aid of Swavesey Institute Football Club: Ladies – Miss D. Godfrey, Mrs. Symonds, Miss Q. Spolton; gentlemen – Mr. A. Dayley, Mr. G. Burling, Mr. H. J. Culpin. Mr. H. Unwin acted as M.C. The net proceeds amounted to £2 1s. 6d.

A RUNAWAY. 28th Oct. 1927

There was considerable excitement in the village shortly after two o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, when a horse, belonging to Mr. T. S. Johnson, farmer, Fen Drayton, bolted from Market-street, where it had been standing for some time, while Mr. Johnson's weighing machines, weights, etc., were being tested by the County Inspector at the White Horse Inn. Mr. T. Johnson, jun., who was in charge of the horse and cart, had already placed several weights in the latter, and was putting in two more, when the horse suddenly jumped forward and set off at a gallop along High-street, with young Johnson in pursuit. Except that the weights were jolted out of the cart one after another, nothing untoward happened in High-street, and, fortunately, the children were inside the building when the school was reached. After safely taking the sharp turning into School-lane, the horse continued on its mad career to Fen Drayton, negotiating all the difficult turns in the road in marvellous fashion, until, in Horse and Gate-street, at the entrance to the village, Mr. T. Johnson, who had gone to meet his son, managed to seize the animal, and by hanging on succeeded in stopping it before the bridge across the brook in the main street was reached. Had he not done so the consequences must have been serious. Young Johnson, who had borrowed, or commandeered, a bicycle, arrived close on the heels of the runaway. No damage was done to the cart, and beyond a slight scratch, the horse appeared to be none the worse for its two-mile gallop.

MEMORIAL HALL. 4th Nov. 1927

Owing to the comparatively small attendance, the dance in aid of the Memorial Hall Fund on Thursday week, for which the Histon Jazzzoneans provided the music, was, unfortunately, not a financial success.

THE GALE. 4th Nov. 1927

No very serious damage was done in Swavesey by the gale on Friday. A few trees, including a large elm at the Priory, were blown down, and the others lost large branches, several wireless poles collapsed, and a brick wall belonging to Mr. W. Twist in Hog Pasture was razed to the ground.

AGRICULTURAL LECTURE. 4th Nov. 1927

The first of a series of free lectures on agricultural subjects, arranged by the County Education Committee, was given at the Institute last Friday evening by Mr. R. Sayce, who dealt with the feeding of dairy cows. The second lecture will be given this (Friday) evening at 7 o'clock by Mr. J. C. Leslie, whose subject will be the management of heavy land.

HEALTH CAMPAIGN. 4th Nov. 1927

There was a large attendance at the Memorial Hall on Wednesday evening at the lecture and educational film display given by Mr. C. M. Kohan, in connection with the health campaign organised by the Cambs. Branch of the British Social Hygiene Council. Godfrey, and recitations were given by Mrs. Savage and Miss Dodson. There was a large attendance of members, most of whom remained to a well-provided social tea.

BIBLE SOCIETY. 4th Nov. 1927

At a public meeting held in the National School on Thursday week, on behalf of the British and Foreign Bible Society, the Rev. T. B. Field presiding, the Rev. H. J. Cossar, of Cambridge (district secretary) gave an able address on "The Romance of Translation," in course of which he mentioned that the Bible had been issued in 592 languages, and that last year over ten million copies of the Scriptures had been issued from the Bible Society's house. Thanks were accorded to the speaker and a small committee was appointed to form an auxiliary for Swavesey.

ENTERTAINMENT. 4th Nov. 1927

Swavesey school children once again acquitted themselves right nobly, when on Monday evening, in conjunction with Mr. Horace Watson, the well-known Cambridge comedian, and Mr. Sydney Pratt, the man of mystery and magic, they provided the programme of a variety entertainment, organised for the benefit of the funds of the Village Institute. The Memorial Hall was packed, the audience enthusiastically appreciative, and from start to finish everything went with a swing. In addition to the marvellous conjuring tricks, etc., of Mr. Pratt, and the mirth provoking ditties of Mr. Watson, both of whom were accorded receptions which must have shown them that a speedy return visit would be greatly welcomed, the programme included several songs from the children. There followed community songs, in which the audience joined, concluding with the play, "The Three Wishes", capitably performed by Muriel Bedford, Kathleen Carrier, Joyce Lee, Hilda Culpin, Elsie Godfrey, John Mitham and Alec Kester. It is needless to add that the children had been admirably trained by their headmaster, Mr. C. Wood, and his assistant teachers, and Mrs. Wood was a capable accompanist. The proceeds amounted to £11 3s. 9d.

BRITISH LEGION. 4th Nov. 1927

The annual meeting of the Swavesey and District branch of the British Legion, which was held at the Memorial Hall on Tuesday, was well attended. The Thirty-four ex-Service men assembled near the National School, and under the command of Captain Barwell, marched to the Hall, the men wearing their medals and decorations. The Hall was crowded in every part by a deeply sympathetic congregation. The service was conducted by the Rev. T.B. Field, who gave an address from the words, "Greater love hath no man than this, that he lay down his life for his friends." Mr. Wood read the lesson, and Mr. Berryman, the secretary, the Roll of the fallen, during which the assembly stood and remained for a minute in silence. Appropriate hymns were sung. Mr. Canham presided at the piano and was assisted in the musical service by members of the Swavesey Orchestra, viz., Messrs. Sutton, sen. and jun., Nicolson, F. Aldred and J. W. Williams. The collection for Earl Haig's Fund amounted to £2 6s. 6d. – The large congregation which attended the service of remembrance at the Parish Church in the evening included 40 ex-Service men, who, after assembling at the churchyard gates under the command of Captain Barwell, marched into church and occupied seats specially reserved for them, and other ex-Service men were in the choir. The service, at which the Vicar officiated and preached while impressive was hearty. “O, Valiant Hearts”, Arkwright’s beautiful hymn, sung after the third Collect, preceded the recital of the long roll of Swavesey men who served in the war, and the National Anthem, followed by the “Last Post,” sounded by Capt. Barwell, concluded the service. The offertory, which amounted to £3, was devoted to Lord Haig’s Fund. A large wreath of Flanders poppies and laurel from the Swavesey and District branch of the British Legion, was laid against the memorial cross in the churchyard.

Swavesey collected £9 0s. 6d., against £8 15s. 1d. in 1926. To the amount realised from the sale of poppies has to be added the collections at the Remembrance Day services at the parish church £3, and at the Memorial Hall £2 6s. 6d., making a total contribution from the district of £21 6s. 8½d, against £17 7s. in 1926. The poppies were sold in Swavesey by Misses D. and K. Banks, M. Parsons, C. Prior, Q. Spolton, J. Willson and Mrs. H. Prime.

The two minutes' silence on Friday was preceded by the tolling of the tenor bell of the parish church 26 times, the number of Swavesey men who fell in the war. Beautiful wreaths were placed around the Memorial Cross in the churchyard, including one in memory of Joseph Barker Parish, who, desperately wounded a few days previously, died in France the day the Armistice was signed. Contrary to custom, however, there was no wreath on the Rolls of Honour and Service in the Memorial Hall. At the National School all the children, with the infants, assembled in the large room, where the Headmaster, Mr. C. Wood, after explaining the reason why the two minutes'

The winner was Mr. L. W. Jenkins, of East Ham, London.

OBITUARY. 25th Nov. 1927

Mr. James William Holmes, of 104, Ross-street, Cambridge, whose death at the age of 52 years occurred on Saturday, was a native of Swavesey. He was a son of the late Mr. Charles Holmes and brother of Mr. Harry Holmes, of Market-street. He was a guard on the L.N.E.R., and while in charge of a train near Cambridge station, about a year ago, he met with a serious accident, as a result of which one of his legs had to be amputated. The immediate cause of death, however, is understood to have been heart failure. Mr. Holmes leaves a widow, but no children. The funeral took place yesterday (Thursday) at the Borough Cemetery, Newmarket-road, Cambridge, after a service had been held at Romsey Town Wesleyan Church.

“THE OTHER WOMAN.” 25th Nov. 1927

Soham Wife Granted a Separation Order.

At the Newmarket (Cambs.) Police Court on Tuesday, J. S. W., formerly a fruiterer of New-street, Soham, but now of School-lane, Swavesey, carrying on the business of a carrier, was summoned by his wife, Mrs. M. J. W., who asked for a separation order, and the custody of four children under 16 years of age, now living at 4, Kimberley House, Station-road, Soham. – Mr. J. H. Soady (d'Albani and Ennions) represented the Newmarket Guardians.

Defendant said he had only just come out of Bedford Gaol, where he had served a month for deserting his wife and children, and he thought he might have a few weeks' grace before this additional case was brought against him.

Mr. Soady said the parties were married on April 4th, 1904, There were eight children of the marriage, four over 16 and four under 16. Until August last defendant carried on the business of a greengrocer in Soham, but about that time he became acquainted with a Mrs. D., of Exning-road, Exning, and on August 23rd he left his wife and family and went to live with Mrs. D.

Mrs. M. J. W. stated that up to August 23rd of this year he supported his family out of the business. On that day he left her, and she had not seen him till last Friday, and he had in no way contributed to the support of his children. He had never written to her. Prior to his leaving, she had had trouble with him in connection with Mrs. D. She found them staying together on August 12th. He stayed with Mrs. D. on August 12th, 13th and 14th at her house. He came home on the 14th for his pyjamas and then went away. On August 23rd he left her altogether, and he told her last Friday that he was living with Mrs. D. She had had trouble with him about women before. Three years ago he lived in London with a blind man's wife. She forgave him that. She considered his offer for her to go to Swavesey with him and Mrs. D. was one that she could not possibly accept. She asked for a maintenance order and the custody of the children.

Defendant had no questions to ask. He said he did not go away with Mrs. D. on August 23rd. She did not come to him till October 20th. Defendant went into the box, and said he was carrying on a carrier's business at School-lane, Swavesey. He had had no chance of other employment. As near as he could work out, the carrier business brought him in £2 a week, and he had instalments to pay on the purchase. He thought he was entitled to a little more grace, after going to Bedford Gaol.

By Mr. Soady: He paid £60 for the carrier's business, £20 down and £6 a month. Mrs. D. lent him the £20. He was making arrangements to reduce the £6 instalment. He was the tenant of the house, and paid 3s. a week. A month's money, 12s., was due this week. Mrs. D. lived with him and with her two children. He was just about making ends meet out of the business in Soham. He paid Mrs. D. £1 a week. For that she kept him and helped him in the carrier business. He left Soham to seek work, and he hoped that his wife and daughter could carry on the business at Soham, but they could not. He never earned a penny after he left his wife at Soham till he bought the carrier business. He admitted he had done wrong in leaving his wife and living with another woman.

The Bench retired, and on returning, the Chairman said the Bench had decided to grant the wife a separation order, with the custody of the children, the defendant to pay 10s. for his wife's maintenance, and 3s. for each of the children until they arrived at the age of 16 years.

Robinson (County poultry instructor) will lecture on poultry keeping. We are asked to announce that by special request the last lecture of the series, on December 16th, will be given by Mr. Syce on the feeding of pigs, instead of Mr. Robinson on poultry keeping.

SCHOOLBOY FOOTBALL. 2nd Dec. 1927

A keenly contested game of football, played on the Recreation Ground on Friday afternoon between teams representing Swavesey National School and Over Council School, resulted in a victory for the Swavesey boys by two goals to nil. Although there was little to choose between the two teams, the total against the visitors might have been larger, but for the fact that they had an excellent goalkeeper in a lad named Day, who saved several very good shots. Owen Walker and John Mitham scored for Swavesey.

SCHOOL PLAYGROUND. 2nd Dec. 1927

A correspondent writes: Cannot something be done to improve the playground and approaches to the National School, which for some time past have been in a deplorable state? In wet weather it is practically impossible for any child to enter or leave the main building by the usual entrance without getting wet-footed, as a huge puddle blocks the gateway, and another covers the path round the northern end of the building leading to the lobby. If the managers have no funds available for providing a few loads of gravel, may I suggest that they should follow the example of the Parochial Church Council and other local organisations in need of money, and run a whist drive, concert, dance, or something of the kind? As regards the extent and depth of the gateway puddle, I can speak from personal experience.

BILLIARDS. 2nd Dec. 1927

Swavesey lost away to Willingham by 10 points to nil.

CONCERT. 9th Dec. 1927

An excellent concert in aid of the National Institute for the Blind were given in the Memorial Hall on Monday evening, Dr. Fraser occupying the chair. The well-varied programme included violin solos by Mrs. Fraser, songs by Miss Rose Taylor, Mr. M. J. Lewis, and Mr. A. R. Gibbs, a duet by Messrs. Lewis and Gibbs, carols by the choir, selections by the Swavesey Orchestra, conducted by Mr. G. Fenton (conductor of the orchestral class that is being held in the village under the auspices of the County Education Committee), and community singing of "Adeste Fideles" and other Christmas hymns. With the exception of Mrs. Fraser, the soloists came from Cambridge, and all, Mrs. Fraser included, and also the orchestra, had to yield to frequent demands for encores. There was a fairly good attendance, but it probably would have been much larger if the concert had been more widely advertised. As far as can be ascertained at present, the net proceeds amounted to £5 11s. 2d.

SALES OF WORK. 9th Dec. 1927

Swavesey Memorial Hall has rarely looked more attractive than on the occasion of the church sale of work on Dec. 1st. There were many stalls laden with useful and pretty articles, a snowball full of Christmas gifts, and gay decorations of evergreens, flowers and paper streamers. The ladies of the Working Party were responsible for the arrangements, and the sale was opened by Mrs. Woolley, of Longstanton, who was introduced by the Vicar, and made a very happy little speech before declaring the sale open. The following were in charge of the stalls, competitions, etc.: Refreshments, Mrs. Cooksey, Mrs. Dean, Mrs. Daintree, Mrs. Berryman, Mrs. W. Thorp, Miss E. Garner and Miss G. A whist drive, at which 26 tables were in play, brought the day's efforts to a close. The prizewinners were: Ladies – Mrs. J. Prior, Miss E. Parish, half-time Mrs. Banks; gentlemen – Mr. Thoday, Rev. C. F. Stebbing, half-time Mr. D. Williams; knock-out Mr. and Mrs. Berryman. Mr. T. C. Heasman officiated as M.C. The net proceeds amounted to £44 10s.

At this Miss Banks officiated.

NOXIOUS FUMES IN CHURCH. 16th Dec. 1927

“One who was there” writes: - The urgent need for the installation of a new heating apparatus at the parish church was clearly demonstrated last Sunday when the morning service had to be curtailed owing to noxious fumes from the worn out stoves. When the congregation assembled an odour pungent and unpleasant pervaded the church, and as the service proceeded it got worse and worse. Choir boys, Sunday school children, and younger members of the congregation were specially affected, and some of them had to be assisted and others carried out of church, a bat even fell from the roof. At the third Collect the Vicar closed the service. All the windows and doors were thrown open, and the children’s service in the afternoon was not held, and by the time of the evening service the church was nearly clear from fumes, but it was thought desirable to make that service as brief as possible. I hope the trouble last Sunday will convince people that a new heating apparatus is an urgent necessity. Complaint is often made of the chilliness of the large building, and our experience last Sunday shows that our present stoves, admittedly inadequate, are also a danger to health. The church must be heated; it is therefore our obvious duty to face facts and do all that lies in our power to support the effort that is now being made to provide a new heating apparatus.

SKATING AT SWAVESEY. 19th Dec. 1927

As the ice was not considered to be in fit condition, no skating was allowed on Mere Fen, Swavesey, yesterday (Sunday), but it will be permitted to-day. The whole of Mere Fen has been flooded, and the ice is stated to be good. Many skaters took advantage of a good piece of ice on flooded land on the Swavesey-Fen Drayton road both on Saturday and Sunday.

The sum of £17 4s. was paid out in sick benefit during the twelve months.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 23rd Dec. 1927

The audience at Bethel Baptist Church on Monday had an intellectual and elocutionary treat, when the Rev. J. Williams, of Cottenham, recited the whole of Dicken's "Christmas Carol," "Marley's Ghost," and gave much force to it by assuming the characteristics of Scrooge, which gave point and power to the effort. A hearty vote of thanks was accorded to Mr. Williams, and the hope was expressed that he would soon come again. The Rev. T. B. Field presided.

MEMORIAL HALL. 23rd Dec. 1927

Twenty-three tables were in play at the whist drive in aid of the Memorial Hall Fund, which was held on Tuesday evening, and the following were the prizewinners: Ladies, Mrs. B. Burton, Mrs. H. J. The Christmas draw in aid of the Hall Fund took place after the drive.

MOTOR VAN OVERTURNED. 23rd Dec. 1927

Mr. Cyril E. Page, butcher, of Swavesey, and his assistant, Mr. H. Prime, had a narrow escape when the motor van driven by the former skidded and overturned into a ditch, while attempting to ascend Over hill during the silver thaw on Wednesday morning. It appears that the van, which was laden with meat, began to run back, and then skidded, eventually falling over into the ditch at the roadside, near the entrance to Mere Fen. Neither Mr. Page nor Mr. Prime was injured, but the van, in addition to other damage, had two of its wheels smashed.

WEDDING. 23rd Dec. 1927

The marriage took place on Saturday at Thornley parish church, Co. Durham, of Miss Emmie J. Prior, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Prior, of Swavesey, and niece of Mr. John Prior, of Thornley, and Mr. George Herbert Hubron, son of Mrs. Hubron and the late Mr. Hubron, of Wingate, Co. Durham. The Vicar of Thornley (Rev. H. Blackwood) officiated. The bride, who was given away by her uncle, Mr. J. Prior, was attired in royal blue georgette, with velour hat to match, grey shoes and stockings, and she carried a sheaf of mauve and white chrysanthemums. Her bridesmaid, Miss Molly Thirlwell, of West Hartlepool, was in navy blue marocain, trimmed red and gold. Mr. John Sword, of Wingate, was best man. The reception after the ceremony was held at the residence of Mrs. T. H. Holder (sister of the bride). The bridegroom is road foreman for Easington Rural District Council.

SKATING AT SWAVESEY. 23rd Dec. 1927

Duddleston Cup Holder Defeated To-day.

C. W. HORN'S SUCCESS.

Competition for the Duddleston Cup, under the auspices of the Fen Department Committee of the National Skating Association, took place at Mere Fen, Swavesey, on Wednesday last, when there were between 600 and 800 spectators. The ice was fairly good, but soft, and there were one or two bad patches, mostly under water. Rain began to fall towards the finish.

The course is one mile, with three turns. There was a difficulty owing to the non-arrival of competitors at the time fixed for the start, owing to the frozen roads. It was reported on the ice that C.W. Horn had started from Upwell, and the beginning of racing was delayed until about 12.45. It was decided that anyone arriving late should be allowed to compete.

The finals were actually about to be started, when Horn, who had been in a motor accident, arrived on the scene, and he recorded the fastest time (3mins. 22 4/5 secs.) in skating a bye.

In the final Horn opposed F. W. Dix. This was a magnificent struggle under very bad conditions, and there was never more than 20 yards between the men. Dix, who last won the cup in 1908, and has been amateur champion of England since, had to give way to a younger man, and was beaten by Horn in a record time for the race (3mins. 23 3/5 secs.).

There is no doubt that horn is a future champion of England. He is probably better known as a cyclist, and also takes part in boxing, so that not only is he 20 years younger than Dix, but was also in better condition. Dix was the first to congratulate Horn, who he assisted to train in Switzerland last winter.

MORE PASSENGERS. 30th Dec. 1927

During the week ended Saturday, 24th December, 250 more passengers were booked from Swavesey station than in the corresponding week of 1926.

CAROLS. 30th Dec. 1927

A party of Swavesey and Fen Drayton carol singers perambulated the village on Friday and Saturday evenings, a collection taken en route for Addenbrooke's Hospital by Miss Parsons, Messrs. A. Hawkes and W. Brooks realising £7 3s. 8½d.

COUNTY ROADMAN COMMENDED. 30th Dec. 1927

A correspondent writes: We often complain, sometimes perhaps rather unjustly, of the unsatisfactory condition of the roads. I am writing now, not to complain, but to express keen appreciation not only of myself, but, I believe, of the people of Swavesey generally, of the energetic and capable way in which the local County Council roadman cleared the main road from the New Inn to Over Church early on Monday. By using the snow plough so promptly, sanding the slippery places, and cutting channels to enable the melting snow to run away, he rendered the road perfectly safe both for vehicular traffic and for pedestrians.

CHRISTMAS IN CHURCH. 30th Dec. 1927

In accordance with ancient custom the Christmas festival was heralded by a merry peal on the bells of the parish church. There were celebrations of the Holy Communion at 6, 7.30 a.m., and at midday (choral: music by Rev. E. Hall), the communicants numbering over 100. Matins was at 10.30 a.m., and evensong, without sermon, at 6.30 p.m. The music at evensong included Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis (E. Clare), a creditable rendering of the anthem "Behold, I bring you good tidings" (Goss), and the carols "Christ was born," "See amid the winter snow" and "Good King Wenceslas." The collections throughout the day were, as usual, devoted to the C. of E. Waifs' and Strays' Society. They amounted to £4 1s., one shilling more than last year.

SCHOOL TREAT. 30th Dec. 1927

There was high revelry at the National School last Friday afternoon and evening on the occasion of the breaking up for the Christmas holiday. The proceedings opened at 3.30 p.m. with a sumptuous tea for those children who were not taken to the Zoological Gardens in the summer, and there was great fun when crackers containing comical caps, etc., were distributed. At five o'clock the Zoological Gardens contingent were admitted, and many parents with children not of school age, old scholars, and friends came in, but strange to say the only school managers who attended were the Vicar and the Parish Council representative (Mr. A. L. Parish), the latter in addition to giving milk, rendering most valuable assistance at the tea and during the evening. The programme included musical chairs for boys and girls, a song by one tiny girl, another by three little girls, and a recitation by yet another little mite, all of which were vociferously applauded. Then the top standard sang – and sang it admirably – the pathetic ballad about Clementine, and the whole school sang chancies and other songs. During the evening a loud knock was heard at the door and Father Christmas (Mr. C. F. Wood) entered, followed by a tub, from which every youngster attending the school received a present. The presents, it may be mentioned, were provided by the headmaster (Mr. C. Wood) and the assistant teachers, Mrs. Wood, Miss Thoday, Miss Scott and Miss Evans. Oranges given by Mr. G. J. Paine and Mr. W. A. Bignell, apples given by Mrs. Aldred, and sweets the gift of Mr. R. Williamson, were also distributed. Towards the close of the happy evening, “While shepherds watched” and “Auld Lang Syne” were sung, after which the Vicar, on behalf of the children, proposed a vote of thanks to the headmaster and the assistant teachers, and to all who had contributed to the enjoyment of the evening. Mr. Walter Thorp, in seconding, amused the youngsters by contrasting the gentle methods of imparting knowledge in these days with the more strenuous system adopted when he was a schoolboy. The National Anthem having been sung, children, parents and the rest of the company went home.

BIRD CRASHES THROUGH WINDOW. 6th Jan. 1928

A wild duck crashed through the window of the signal box at Swavesey station on Saturday night, greatly startling the signalman on duty, Mr. W. Kester, who was attending to the telephone at the time, and covering him with fragments of glass. The bird fell inside the box, and was dead when picked up.

A SUCCESSFUL SKATER. 6th Jan. 1928

Although beaten by H. C. Hudson, of Northampton, in the first round for the King's Cup on Lingay Fen on Saturday, Percy Burton, of Swavesey, the holder of the local Chicago Cup, was awarded a gold medal (2nd class) in the mile time tests held after the championship race. His time for the mile was 3 minutes 39 seconds.

THE BROTHERHOOD. 6th Jan. 1928

A well-attended meeting of the Swavesey Brotherhood was held in the Memorial Hall on Sunday afternoon. Mr. F. Prior presided, and the Rev. T. B. Field opened and closed the meeting with prayer. The Rev. S. Bird, of Over, gave a bright and cheery New Year's address, and Mr. Webster, also of Over, sang the solos "The Lost Chord" and "Nearer my God to Thee." Mrs. Blackaby is expected at the next meeting.

FLOODS. 6th Jan. 1928

The floods at Swavesey are serious, but so far only the inhabitants of the Mow Fen and Hog Pasture railway gate houses have had to find other quarters. During Wednesday night the water rose considerably, and yesterday (Thursday) morning flood water was pouring out of Hog Pasture across the main road into Church Green, and the Over road near the entrance to Mere Fen was also covered. As stated in another column, the L.N.E.R. line between the station and the river viaduct was affected, and certain trains had to be diverted.

SKATING. 6th Jan. 1928

Mere Fen was opened for skating on Friday last, but very few people took advantage of the splendid stretch of ice which was in perfect condition either on that day or on Saturday. On Sunday, however, when half of the takings at the gate were to be handed to Addenbrooke's Hospital there was a large attendance, and the hospital benefitted to the extent of £7 15s., a sum that would have been larger had not a number of people found admission by ways other than the recognised gate. Arrangements had been made for the race for the Chicago (local) Cup to be run on Monday, and for the Williamson Professional Challenge Cup (open to all England) on Tuesday, but owing to the thaw these were abandoned for the second time this season.

THE LATE MR. JOHN HODSON. 6th Jan. 1928

Swavesey has lost one of its oldest and most respected inhabitants by the death at the age of 81 years of Mr. John Metcalfe Hodson which occurred at the residence of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Linford, junior, on December 28th, after eight days' illness. Born in Swavesey 81 years ago the son of John and Hannah Metcalfe, Mr. Hodson lived in the village all his life. He was an ardent church worker, and an enthusiastic bell-ringer. He leaves three sons and three daughters to mourn their loss. The funeral took place on New Year's Eve at the parish church, the Rev. C. F. Stebbing, vicar, officiating, the service being preceded and followed by dumb peals on the bells in the ringing of which John Hodson had taken so keen an interest. The mourners included Messrs. William, Bert and Harry Hodson (sons), Mrs. A. Butterworth, and Mrs. E. J. Linford (daughters), Mr. E. J. Linford (son-in-law), Mrs. W. Hodson, Mrs. B. Hodson, Mrs. J. T. Daintree (daughters-in-law), master G. Hodson (grandson), Mrs. Pitt, Mr. and Mrs. John Throssell, Mrs. F. Prior, Mr. and Mrs. G. Burling (nephews and nieces), Mrs. C. Crisp (sister-in-law). The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. R. Mitham, Swavesey.

CHILDREN'S CONCERT. 6th Jan. 1928

A concert given by the children of the National School, was held in the Memorial Hall on Monday and Tuesday evenings, the proceeds being for the Children's Entertainment and Outing Fund. Notwithstanding the numerous absences due to illness and inclement weather conditions there was an excellent attendance on both evenings. (Full programme in newspaper).

RAILWAY LINE BLOCKED NEAR SWAVESEY. 6th Jan. 1928

During some of the early hours of Thursday morning trains on the Cambridge – St. Ives line had to be diverted via Ely on account of the flooding between Swavesey and St. Ives, but at 8.30 a.m. the waters had subsided somewhat and the line was reported fit for traffic.

Since the early part of the week flooding has developed between Swavesey Station and the bridge over the River Ouse, near St. Ives, but it was not until Wednesday night that it appeared likely to affect seriously the railway traffic. During the night it rose some inches, and at six o'clock was eight or nine inches over the metals. Whilst this was not considered very serious (we were informed by a railway official at Cambridge), the flooding was such that it was felt that precautions should be taken, and in consequence early morning through trains were diverted via Ely.

MUSICAL SUCCESS. 13th Jan. 1928

At the examination of the London College of Music, held recently at Cambridge, Vera G. Endersby, pupil of Miss G. Lilley (silver medallist), Hemingford Abbots, obtained a first-class certificate in the primary division in theoretical music.

EPIPHANY TEA. 13th Jan. 1928

There was a good attendance at the Epiphany tea – an annual parochial gathering in the interest of Home and Foreign Missions inaugurated many years ago by the Rev. Canon Sharp, when vicar of Swavesey – which took place at the National School on Tuesday evening. After the tea an interesting and most instructive lecture on mission work in China was given by the Rev. F. Jones, of Shantung.

THE GALE. 13th Jan. 1928

No very serious damage was done in Swavesey by last Friday's gale. Parts of wood fences were levelled at the Old House in Black Horse-lane, and at the Priory, slates and tiles were blown off the National School and the new, and not yet occupied, Council houses at Boxworth End, the thatch on several houses and stacks suffered more or less severely, and a passing motorist narrowly escaped a chimney pot which fell from a house in High-street.

A ratepayer writes: I am given to understand that the water supply has been cut off at the Memorial Hall. May I, on behalf of other ratepayers, ask the reason?

FRIENDS' MEETING HOUSE. 20th Jan. 1928

For the sacred concert given by the children under the direction of Miss Gaunt, on the 12th inst., the Friends' Meeting House was crowded. A CYCLIST'S COMPLAINT. 20th Jan. 1928

Mr. F. H. R. Aldred, London House, Swavesey, writes: "I would like to draw attention to the increasing habit among pedestrians in Swavesey of walking at night on the middle of the road, instead of the path, in spite of the fact that the latter is in most cases the cleaner. This causes inconvenience to cyclists, and is a source of danger to both. The writer has on more than one occasion narrowly avoided colliding with persons walking on the middle of the road, and with the roads in their present condition it is difficult to turn aside quickly on a bicycle without skidding. The difficulty would, of course, be avoided if the street lamps were lighted, but this convenience will not, apparently, be enjoyed by the present generation. May I suggest that if people must walk in the road at night (possibly to avoid gate posts, petrol pumps, etc.) they should carry a light of some kind to warn an approaching cyclist of their presence.

PARISH COUNCIL. 20th Jan. 1928

The quarterly meeting of the Parish Council, which was held at the Memorial Hall on Monday evening, was attended by Mr. J. Linford (chairman), Messrs. P. Burton, C. W. H. Cole, F. Hepher, R. Norman, sen., C. H. Parish, P. Parish and H. Wells, with the clerk, Mr. P. Godfrey. Arising out of the minutes of the previous meeting, it transpired that the Council's request to the District Council to be supplied with a plan indicating the position of each of the fire hydrants in the village had not been complied with, and that there was reason to believe that no such plan was in existence. During discussion it was stated that many of the hydrants had been covered by the County road authorities with gravel and tar, and that there would be considerable difficulty in locating them. On the proposition of Mr. Cole, seconded by the Chairman, it was agreed that the attention of the County Council should be called to the danger to which the village was exposed in the event of fire by the hydrants being covered up, and that it should be asked that the hydrants should be cleared from gravel and tar without delay, and kept clear in future. It was further agreed that the Chairman, Mr. Cole, Mr. C. H. Parish and the clerk should prepare a plan showing the exact position of each hydrant. The question of appointing a captain of the Fire Engine to act during the illness of the captain, Mr. S. Challis, was next considered, and it was decided to appoint Mr. Ernest Mitham, of Middle Watch, captain pro tem. Mr. Ernest Prior, sub-captain, tendered his resignation, and it was accepted as from 31st March.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 27th Jan. 1928

Mr. C. Songer, secretary of the Cambs. Some of the older inhabitants of the parish may remember that Mr. Wickham at one time resided at the Brewery.

Webster, of Castle Gate, Nottingham, took place at the Cathedral, Nottingham, on January 19th. The happy couple, who were the recipients of a large number of presents, left Nottingham immediately after the ceremony for their honeymoon, which is being spent in London.

PRESENTATION. 27th Jan. 1928

The girls who have been attending the Cookery Class which has been held at the National School, under the auspices of the County Education Committee, at their concluding meeting on Wednesday evening greatly surprised their instructress, Mrs. C. Wood, by presenting her with an oak, E.P.N.S. mounted, biscuit barrel. Mrs. Wood keenly appreciated the gift, and the kindly feeling that prompted it.

PAROCHIAL CHURCH MEETING. 27th Jan. 1928

There was a good attendance at the annual Parochial Church Meeting held at the National School on Tuesday evening. The various church accounts, all of which were in a satisfactory state, were presented. Mr. R. Barwell and Mrs. Cooksey were appointed representatives on the Ruri-decanal and Diocesan Conferences, the latter in place of Mr. R. Mitham, sen., resigned, and the following were elected members of the Church Council: Mrs. Banks, Mrs. Fraser, Mr. W. J. Hephher, Mr. S. F. Mitham, Mr. G. J. Paine, and Mrs. C. S. Hephher. Miss Beaumont did not seek re-election. Before the election of sidesmen the Vicar referred to Mr. John Hodson's death, and all present stood for a minute in silence as an expression of sympathy. Last year's sidesmen were re-elected with the addition of Mr. J. Cain and Mr. W. J. Hephher. – At a meeting of the Church Council which followed the meeting of church electors, the officers for the ensuing year were all re-appointed.

THEATRICALS. 27th Jan. 1928

A highly amusing and successful entertainment was given in aid of the Parish Church Heating Apparatus Fund on Thursday week in the Memorial Hall, when the A.B.C. Company presented two farces, "He's a Lunatic," by Felix Dale, and "My Lord in Livery," by S. Theyre Smith. The audience enjoyed both these farces, and showed their appreciation in a hearty manner. During the interval between the sketches, two little girls, Joan and Lily Hephher, sang two songs, "The Silver House" and "Golden Slumbers," accompanied on the piano by their mother. Mr. Edward Williams, accompanied on the piano by Mr. James Williams, also played a banjo solo; and Miss Elsie Dodson gave a monologue "Alice goes below." At the close of the evening the Vicar (Rev. C. F. Stebbing) proposed a vote of thanks to the members of the A.B.C. Company and to the local artistes. Mr. C. F. Banks (churchwarden) seconded, and the Rev. F. B. B. Whittington replied. The net proceeds amounted to £8 16s.

PICTURES ON HEALTH. 3rd Feb. 1928

Dr. S. J. C. Fraser presided at the free cinema exhibition of pictures on health, which was given under the auspices of the County Council at the Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening, women only being admitted. The films were explained by Dr. F. Robinson, County Medical Officer of Health. Several men, some of them fathers of families varying in size, who were anxious to attend, on presenting themselves at the Hall were told that they could not be admitted. A correspondent suggests that if the exhibition was for the benefit of women only, and that men would be excluded, a more definite notification of that fact should have appeared on the leaflet distributed in the village than the words, "All women are invited to attend."

Earl Haig in the War Memorial Hall on Sunday evening, after the usual service at the Parish Church and other places of worship in the village. The congregation numbered about 150, and included 50 ex-servicemen. During the service the hymns "O God, our help in ages past," and "Fight the good fight" were sung, and the 39th Psalm read, and Mr.

Field gave an address, based on the text, "Know ye not that there is a Prince and a Great Man fallen this day in Israel?" (II Samuel iii., 39), in which he paid a warm tribute to the late Field Marshal. At the close of the address the congregation stood for a few moments in silence, and a prayer was said, after which "Onward, Christian Soldiers" was sung, the short service concluding with the Benediction. Mr. G. E. Canham played the pianoforte accompaniment to the hymns.

Norman, sen., C. H. Parish, P. Parish and H. Wells. The Clerk (Mr. P. Godfrey) announced that Mr. Ernest Mitham, of Middle Watch, had consented to act as captain of the fire engine, and the committee appointed to make inquiry respecting the fire hydrants in the village reported that all had been located, but that six of them required to be raised to the level of the footpaths. A letter was read from the County Surveyor stating that the footpaths in which the hydrants were built had from time to time been surface tarred, with the result that the hydrants were now below the general surface. Instructions had been given to uncover them, but as they were low, the Parish Council should arrange to have them raised to prevent possible accidents. Mr. Cole moved that the District Council should once again be written to respecting the condition of the hydrants, for which the Council were responsible, and requested to give the matter immediate attention, especially as regards the six hydrants that urgently need raising. Mr. C. H. Parish seconded, and the motion was carried unanimously. The following parishioners were nominated as qualified to serve as parish councillors during the ensuing year: - Messrs. C. J. Shepperson (the present constable), B. Hodson, G. Burling and C. Eason. Two other matters were also discussed, viz., the unsatisfactory state of the Recreation Ground, and the delay in repairing the fire engine. As regards the former, it was decided that the holes near the trees at the side of the main street should be filled up with earth.

Day (deacons), and reports of the various departments were presented by Mrs. Aldred, Miss Easter, Miss B. Savage and Mr. Daisley. A special effort was made on the 9th inst. by the members of the Sisterhood, who meet every fortnight at the Primitive Methodist Chapel to help the funds of that body. After the usual meeting in the afternoon an excellent public tea was provided by the members, which was attended by upwards of seventy persons, and in the evening a most enjoyable concert was given by the St. Ives Sisterhood, under the genial chairmanship of Mr. Leigh, of Fenstanton. The Sisterhood is not connected with the Primitive Methodists, though meeting in their chapel. Its aim is to provide a bright, happy afternoon once a fortnight for women of all denominations.

Messrs. Colin Kitching and George Gordon, two members of the large party of Canadian farmers who are touring this country, paid a short visit to Swavesey on Wednesday week in order to spend a few hours at Mill Farm with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Day, whose eldest son, Mr. Frank Day, has for some years been a near neighbour of theirs at Rockwood, Ontario. They were met in Cambridge after the luncheon at Caius College by Mr. Alfred Day, jun., and were driven by him in a spring cart – their first experience of such a vehicle – to Swavesey, calling on the way at Messrs. Day and Sons’ farm at Boxworth, where they found some things that interested them, and some that were not quite to their taste. Soon after 4 p.m. they arrived at Mill Farm, Frank’s old home, and received a hearty welcome from Mr. and Mrs. Day and the members of the family who were in Swavesey. Here they remained until 9 p.m., comfortably seated by the fireside, which they absolutely declined to quit for a little local sightseeing, for of sightseeing they had had enough for that day. They talked of the absent son and his family, and of their desire to get English lads and lasses to go to Canada. During the evening the guests and the family had “hot supper” served in Canadian fashion, or as near to it as people who had had no Canadian experience could manage. About nine o’clock the visitors left for Cambridge, and on the following day took part in the inspection of Messrs. Chivers’ farms at Haslingfield and Histon and the Histon factory.

The football match between teams of boys representing Over Council and Swavesey National Schools respectively, played on Swavesey recreation ground on Friday afternoon resulted in a decisive win for the visitors by 4 goals to nil. Both sides played a clean and strenuous game, but it is only fair to the Swavesey boys to say that while they equalled their opponents in keenness they were considerably smaller in size. Mr. T. C. Heasman officiated as referee.

THE LATE MRS. T. HARRADINE. 2nd March 1928

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Ann Harradine, widow of the late Mr. Thomas Harradine, of Fenstanton, whose death at the age of 78 years on Feb. 21st was announced last week, took place at Swavesey Parish church on Monday afternoon. PARISH COUNCIL. 2nd March 1928

A special meeting of the Parish Council was held at the Memorial Hall on Monday evening. There were present: Mr. J. Linford (chairman), Messrs. P. Burton, C. W. H. Cole, F. Hephher, C. H. Parish, P. Parish and H. Wells, with the clerk (Mr. P. Godfrey). Arising out of the minutes it was reported (a) that, as usual, no reply had been received from the District Council to the letter sent by the Parish Council respecting the fire hydrants in the village, (b) that a bill for £1 13s. had been received from Mr. B. Hodson for carting earth from roadsides to fill holes in the recreation ground, (c) that the repairs to the fire engine had practically been completed. Discussion followed respecting a letter from the secretary of the Cricket Club asking if the Council would assist in repairing the cricket pitch on the recreation ground. The Chairman was strongly opposed to the application being entertained, as in his opinion the Council had already spent more money on the ground for the benefit of the Cricket Club than the club was fairly entitled to. The Council, he maintained, must consider the claims of the children and others who had equal right to the use of the recreation ground. Mr. Cole proposed that the Cricket Club be informed that the Council would pay half the cost of repairing the pitch, but that the Council's liability must not exceed £2 10s. Mr. F. Hephher seconded. An amendment proposed by the Chairman that instead of contributing to the repair of the pitch the Council should purchase seats with the money standing to the credit of the recreation ground failed to find a seconder. Mr. C.H. Parish, while not opposing the motion, advocated the erection of a rail and post fence, with permanent openings, to separate the recreation ground from the high-road. This, he said, would add to the letting value of the ground. Mr. Cole's motion was carried, every councillor, except the Chairman, voting in favour. Other business included the issue of a precept on the Rating Authority for £15 for expenses of the Council; the consideration of a complaint by a ratepayer respecting the dumping of derelict tins and other rubbish in a ditch near the cemetery; and the passing of a resolution fixing the parish constable's fee at 28s. It was also decided that the annual parish meeting should be held on Monday, 12th March, after the parish meeting for the election of parish councillors.

P. LIBERALISM IN THE COUNTY. 23rd March 1928

Mr. J. W. Payne at Swavesey.

On Friday evening a successful meeting was held in the Memorial Hall at Swavesey, where Mr. J. W. Payne gave an address, at the close of which many questions were asked and answered by the prospective candidate. The chair was taken by the Rev. T. B. Field.

Mr. Payne, in the course of a lengthy speech, dealt with what he termed the failure of the Government's financial policy. Trade, he said, had not recovered as it ought to have done, war debt settlements, the premature return to the gold standard and wasteful expenditure having hindered real progress and handicapped prosperity. How could they talk of prosperity while we had still such a volume of unemployed? They could only boast of prosperity when work was available for those who desired it, and wages, the purchasing power of which would enable them to live in common decency. Those conditions did not exist to-day. The mining areas were full of distress, and, therefore, of discontent, and the Government had wasted millions on subsidy to the coal owners without having dealt with the problem which had caused the conditions which existed to-day.

PROSPERITY WHEN LIBERALS IN OFFICE.

Unemployment presented to the country and economic difficulty, but its most serious aspect was the moral effect on the younger men. Methods adopted by the Government had failed to reduce the figures to any appreciable extent, and guardians' relief had increased, thus proving that unemployment had not decreased. Prosperity which had always been in evidence when the Liberals were in office, said the speaker, was due to the sound basis of all their finances. They based every change and every reform on that foundation, and while they initiated social benefits, they reduced national debt. No one should be more grateful to Liberal policy in the past than Mr. Churchill. It was their sound basis in National Health Insurance which had made possible the giving of pensions at 65. It was their foundation for unemployment insurance which had saved the rates the additional burden which would have come with the continued number out of work. The Government's action in lessening their quota towards these funds was wrong, and contributions should not have been forced to make extra contributions while the Government paid less. They had used the results of Liberal legislation to help them out of difficulties. Promises with regard to agriculture had not been fulfilled; benefits supposed to be for agriculture had found their way into the pockets of financiers instead of the farmers. Safeguarding is not for him. Clauses in the beet subsidy provisions might have ensured for the farmer a fairer share of the benefits. The whole trouble was that agricultural constituencies were represented by men who had more interest in other undertakings than in the industry they should represent.

We were being deluded, continued Mr. Payne, by the subtle manoeuvres on the part of the Chancellor, whose methods of getting out of difficulties only put the taxpayer further in them. As an instance, he referred to the collection of three instalments of income tax on schedule A., thus getting one and a half years' revenue from this source in the financial year.

A vote of thanks to the Chairman concluded the meeting.

Only Mrs. Jacklin was injured, and she was taken home in a motor car which came up shortly after the accident. Dr. Fraser, who was called in, found she was suffering from concussion and injuries to her head, shoulder and leg, and on his advice she was taken at once to Addenbrooke's Hospital, but after receiving attention there she was allowed to return home. On the 12th inst. closing meetings of the winter session of the Mothers' Meeting and of the Band of Hope, two organisations for which Miss Gaunt has been the mainstay, were held at the Friends' Meeting House. The members of the former met in the afternoon, under the presidency of Miss Gaunt, and after a hymn and prayer, an address was given by Miss Crow, of St. Ives, and Miss Stuttle and Miss Peggy Lee, also of St. Ives, contributed a solo and a recitation, respectively. During tea that followed, Miss Easter, on behalf of the members and other friends, presented Miss Gaunt with a purse of money as a slight tribute of their appreciation of her devoted work. Later Miss Gaunt entertained 45 children of the Band of Hope to an excellent tea, after which several adults joined the party, and Mr. Harris (St. Ives Evangelistic Band) gave an interesting address, the children sang sacred action songs, and Miss Peggy Lee again recited. Cole were proposed and seconded, and on a vote being taken Mr. Mitham received two votes, Mr. Parish three and Mr. Cole three. The clerk having declined to give a casting vote, another show of hands was called for, with the result that Mr. Parish received three votes and Mr. Cole four. Mr. Cole then took the chair. Arising out of the minutes of the last meeting of the old Council, the clerk reported that the derelict tins and other rubbish had been cleared from the ditch near the cemetery, that Mr. S. Challis had resigned the captaincy of the fire engine, and that the bill for repairs to the engine had been paid, the test to which it had been subjected having shown that they were satisfactory. The accounts of the Council for the year ended 31st March, were read by the clerk, who also produced vouchers for all payments. They were passed. After this Mr. C. H. Parish was unanimously elected vice-chairman of the Council; Messrs. W. Burton and C. H. Parish were authorised to sign cheques with the Chairman; Messrs. P. Burton, Dean, F. Hepher and P. Parish (representing the Parish Council) and Messrs. H. H. Berryman, F. F. Norman, F. W. Pontefract and W. Spolton were appointed the Committee of Management of the Memorial Hall, and it was agreed that the whole of the Council should form the Fire Engine Committee. Mr. T. Froment having been chosen vice-captain of the fire engine in place of Mr. E. Prior, resigned, a long discussion ensued respecting accessories needed for the engine, and eventually Messrs. W. Burton, Dean, C. H. Parish and Twist were authorised to inspect the hose, etc., and obtain what was necessary. Before the meeting closed Mr. F. Hephner proposed that arrangements should be made for a parade in the village on Feast Sunday, May 20th, in aid of Addenbrooke's Hospital. Although the suggestion met with general approval, it was agreed that the Council could not act in the matter, but several of the Councillors undertook to ascertain the feeling in the village on the subject, and if necessary call a meeting.

The proceeds from the whist drive on the 10th inst., £4 6s. 2d., and further subscriptions, including donations from the Bishop of Ely, the Hon. Mrs. White-Thomson, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Banks, Dr. and Mrs. Fraser, have brought the total amount standing to the credit of the Parish Church Heating Apparatus Fund up to £196 14s. 10d. At a meeting held last month the Church Council decided to accept a plan of heating, the estimated cost of which, without the builders' work, is £284 7s. 6d., so that a considerable sum remains to be raised. A big effort will be made in July, when a fancy dress carnival is to be held in the Vicarage grounds in aid of the fund, and doubtless before then many more subscriptions will come in. Of the urgent need for a satisfactory and adequate system of heating there can be no doubt, not only for the benefit of the congregation, but also of the fabric of the fine old church, one of the largest in the county.

At a recent meeting of the Parish Council, reference was made to the objectionable practice of dumping rubbish in a ditch near the Cemetery, and on the attention of the local district councillors being called to the matter, the accumulation of old tins, paper, etc., was promptly cleared away. A ratepayer now complains that the dumping of rubbish in the ditch still continues, and he asks that effective steps may be taken to stop it. He suggests that the District Council should replace the notice board warning people not to deposit rubbish in the ditch, which disappeared some time ago, after it had been knocked down, it is believed, by a cow.

THE LATE MR. PAGE. 4th May 1928

Although some people in the village knew that Mr. William Edwin Cyril Page had been taken ill while on a short visit to Groombridge, Kent, the announcement of his death on April 26th came as a great shock when the sad news was received on Friday morning. Some time ago he had a very serious illness, but he seemed to be recovering his health, and was capable of attending to his business. Mr. Cyril Page, who was 46 years of age, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Page, of Tunbridge Wells. For the last ten years he had carried on a successful butcher's business in Swavesey, and for many miles around, and wherever he went he was most popular and trusted by his customers. He leaves a widow and one young daughter, for whom much sympathy is felt. The funeral took place on Monday at Wimblington parish church, whither the body had been conveyed by motor hearse. The Rev. H. Ratford, rector, officiated, and as the mourners left the church for the grave in the churchyard, Mr. Easson, who presided at the organ, played appropriate music. The immediate mourners were Mrs. Page (widow), Miss Edna Page (daughter), Mr. and Mrs. J. Reynolds (mother-in-law and father-in-law), Mrs. M. Turner (sister). Many other friends from Swavesey and Somersham were present. (List in newspaper). The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. Manktelow, Groombridge, Kent.

BROTHERHOOD AND SISTERHOOD. 11th May 1928

Mr. S. F. Mitham presided at the monthly meeting of the Swavesey Brotherhood and Sisterhood, which was held in the Memorial Hall on Sunday afternoon, the speaker being Mr. C. Joseph, of Cambridge, whose address was based upon Psalm 27. Mr. Harper, of Cambridge, sang two solos, Mr. Canham presiding at the organ. The Rev. T. B. Field opened and closed the meeting with a prayer, and Mr. F. Prior read the Scripture lesson. The attendance was fairly good considering the fine weather.

THE LATE REV. T. G. L. LUSHINGTON. 11th May 1928

The sad news of the death of the Rev. T. G. L. Lushington was received with sincere sorrow and regret by the older parishioners of Swavesey, many of whom have grateful recollections of him as their vicar. Although 34 years have elapsed since Mr. Lushington left Swavesey, his name is still a household word, and that he remembered the village is evident from the many undertakings in connection with the church and parish that he helped financially during that long period. At the request of a number of the older parishioners, the present Vicar has sent on their behalf a letter of condolence to his sister, Miss Lushington, and also arranged for a special celebration of Holy Communion at the parish church this (Friday) morning, the day on which the funeral is to take place.

DEATH OF MISS POOK. 11th May 1928

We have to record the death of Miss Laura Pook, who passed away at the age of 70 years early on Friday morning after a short illness. Her health had, however, been failing for a considerable time, and had been a source of anxiety to her friends. Commencing as a pupil teacher at Oatland Park School, Weybridge, Miss Pook was engaged in scholastic work for 48 years.

She held temporary posts at Brighton and Cheam, Surrey, was headmistress at Bovingdon, Herts., (6½ years), and Handborough, near Oxford (5 years). On 14th February, 1890, she went to Swavesey, where for 15 or 16 years she was headmistress of the Infants' School until it was merged into the mixed school, and she became an assistant teacher, with charge of the infants' department. For fifteen months during the war, in the absence of the headmaster (Mr. C. Wood) on active service, she had charge of the whole school, until the late Mr. George Hicks was appointed temporary headmaster. All the pupil teachers in the old days were taught by her until they went to the "Centre," and for her work in this respect she was commended by H.M. Inspector of Schools. On 2nd June, 1922, she retired under the age limit rule. In various other ways Miss Pook rendered valuable service in Swavesey, notably in connection with the parish church. She was laid to rest beneath the cedar trees in the churchyard on Monday afternoon. All the schoolchildren, with Mr. C. Wood (headmaster) and the assistant teachers attended, and lined each side of the path as the body, preceded by the full choir and the Vicar (Rev. C. F. Stebbing), who officiated, was borne from the churchyard gates into the church. The mourners were old friends as, sad to say, Miss Pook had outlived all known members of her family. The large congregation included representatives of almost every family in the village (List in newspaper). Beautiful floral tributes were sent by the managers, staff, scholars and ex-scholars of Swavesey National School; friends and fellow workers and others; and after the interment, when the school children passed by the grave each of them dropped flowers on the coffin. Mr. S. F. Mitham was the undertaker.

DRUNKENNESS AND ASSAULT. 11th May 1928

Two Swavesey Men Heavily Fined at Divisional Bench.

Two Swavesey men appeared before the County magistrates last Saturday morning charged with being drunk and disorderly at Swavesey on May 2nd, and also with assaulting P.S. Keep at the same time and place. All four charges were taken together. The defendants were A. W. and J. K., and Mr. A. H. Wild (Messrs. Few and Wild) appeared for the latter. His Honour Judge H. G. Farrant was in the chair.

Both defendants pleaded guilty to the first offence, and not guilty to the second.

P.S. Keep, stationed at Longstanton, stated that at about 10 p.m. on May 2nd he was on duty on the Huntingdon-road, in company with P.C. Brooks, outside the New Inn, at Swavesey. Defendants came out of the house and went and got their bicycles. They tried to mount, but could not do so, and it took them ten minutes to go 50 yards. Witness then said "Pick up that bicycle and go home quietly,” and W. replied “I shall go home how I ----- well like.” K. later said “If you want trouble you can ----- soon have it.” K. then appeared to go mad, and rushed at witness like a madman, but witness side stepped and K. fell on to W., and they both fell over. Witness then closed with K. and held him, and W. struck witness and tried to get K. away, but P.C. Brooks closed with him. Witness handcuffed K., and they got a van to take them to Cambridge, but K. refused to get up from the grass. They dragged him to the van and had to lift him in. He was kicking out like a madman. He was very violent all the way to Cambridge, and was continually threatening witness, and used the most violent language.

Cross-examined, witness said K. was absolutely drunk; he could stand up, but not for long. Witness admitted that the handcuffs were rather tight and his wrists were bleeding when they were taken off. K. did not want witness to take the handcuffs off, as he said he did not want them put on.

P.C. Brooks, stationed at Swavesey, gave corroborative evidence, and said he handcuffed W., who became very violent in the lorry.

Cross-examined, witness said defendants were helplessly drunk. He knew K. very well, and knew he was very violent when he was in drink. He was a very good workman and also very nice when out of drink. He had nothing to say against him when out of drink, and he was very kindhearted. He would help and advise anybody, and there was not a better family in the village. He came to witness the night after and apologised.

Mr. Wild, addressing the Bench, said K. was a married man, and had been in the Army, and also a regular soldier. Out in France in the trenches during the war, it was an established thing that every soldier should have a ration of rum, and up to going out to France K. had never drunk rum at all. These particular charges showed that instead of sticking to beer he went on to rum. He got very drunk on this occasion, and had had a larger ration of rum than in the Army, and on that account became very violent. He was quite prepared to sign the pledge.

W., on oath, said they went to Cambridge on the day and had several drinks. They called at the New Inn at Swavesey, but what happened after that he could not say.

It was stated that from 1901 to 1927 K. had been before the court on 18 occasions with 24 offences. Two were for causing bodily harm, 13 for assault, four for threats, and two for wilful damage.

W. had six previous offences against him.

After retiring, the Bench fined each defendant 20s. for the first offence, and £5 for the second, and allowed them 21 days to pay. The magistrates hoped that they would not see them there again.

DEATH OF REV. T. G. L. LUSHINGTON. 11th May 1928

Former Vicar of Swavesey Passes Away in Kent.

The Rev. Thomas Godfrey Law Lushington, who from 1885 until 1894 was vicar of Swavesey, died early on Monday morning at his residence, The Park, Sandling, Maidstone. He was the head of an old Kent family, tracing its descent back to the 15th century, members of which have been distinguished in the law and in the Indian services. Born on July 18th, 1851, Mr. Lushington was the eldest son of Mr. J. D. Lushington, of the Madras Civil Service, and grandson of Mr. E. H. Lushington, a Judge in Ceylon and subsequently Chief Commissioner of the Colonial Board of Audit and Master of the Crown Office. Sir Franklin Lushington, formerly chief Metropolitan Police magistrate and Dr. E. L. Lushington, Professor of Greek at Glasgow, who married Cecilia Tennyson, sister of the Poet Laureate, were his uncles.

He was a scholar of Jesus College, Cambridge, where he took his degree in 1874. After being curate of Farnham and then of Great Barton, Suffolk, he was appointed rector of Hawstead, Suffolk, in 1882, and was subsequently vicar of Swavesey, rector of Milstead, vicar of Sittingbourne, and, lastly, vicar of Bearsted, retiring in 1914. In 1911 he became Rural Dean of Sutton, an office he held until his death.

Mr. Lushington succeeded his cousin at The Park, Sandling, in 1910, and after his retirement went to live there.

NURSING ASSOCIATION. 18th May 1928

The Swavesey, Over, and Fen Drayton Nursing Association have received a very welcome cheque for £10 12s. 6d., part proceeds of a sale of work held by the Over Women's Institute on Easter Tuesday.

EARLIER BEES. 18th May 1928

A correspondent writes: With reference to the statement in a Bourn village paragraph in last Friday's "Independent Press" that Mr. E. Clark, of Bourn, had taken a swarm of bees on Saturday, May 5th, perhaps it may be of interest to him and others who have faith in ancient proverbs, to know that Mr. Hugh Smith, of Boxworth End, Swavesey, took a swarm at least a week earlier.

PARTICULAR BAPTIST CHAPEL. 18th May 1928

Many friends from Southill, Beds, Cambridge, St. Ives, Godmanchester, Oakington, Over, Warboys, Woodhurst, Needingworth, and other neighbouring villages, were in the large congregations at the anniversary services at the Particular Baptist Chapel on Tuesday afternoon and evening, when the special preacher was Mr. Pack, of Tunbridge Wells. Between the services there was a well-attended public tea, the tables at which were presided over by Mrs. Alfred Day, Miss E. Day, Mrs. R. Sutton, Mrs. Jabez Parish, Mrs. Joseph Parish (Bedford), and Miss M. Parish. Good collections were taken for the chapel funds.

THE FEAST. 18th May 1928

The village feast, a yearly festival no doubt of religious origin dating back centuries, will open on Sunday, and this year will be notable by the introduction of a new feature. In olden times – for instance in the days of Thomas Galon, in whose benefaction Swavesey people still participate – stately processions may have wended their way through the village to or from the then old church. Such processions, if ever there were any, have long since been a thing of the past, and in these days their revival might not meet with universal approval. Next Sunday, however, there is to be a procession – its organisers call it a parade – to which no one can take exception, for it is part of an effort to raise money for Addenbrooke's Hospital, the institution to which so many Swavesey people owe a deep debt of gratitude. The procession, which is timed to start from Boxworth End at 2 p.m., will include the Cottenham Salvation Army Band and the St. Ives Town Band; a meeting will be held on the Recreation Ground at 3.15 p.m., and both bands will play selections; and at 7.15 p.m. the St. Ives Band will give a concert on the Recreation Ground. If the weather is unfavourable the meeting will be held in the Memorial Hall.

PARISH COUNCIL. 18th May 1928

At a special meeting of the Parish Council, held on the 10th inst. at the Memorial Hall, the Chairman (Mr. C. W. H. Cole) and the Clerk (Mr. P. Godfrey) were re-appointed representatives of the Council on the Rating Authority. Two letters from the hon. secretary of the Feast Sunday Hospital Parade Committee were received; the first invited the councillors to take part in the parade and in the subsequent meeting on the Recreation ground, and the second asked for permission to include the parish fire engine in the procession. Both requests were acceded to. Mr. W. Twist raised the question of repairing, or rather, as he said it was smashed, replacing the swing gate leading from the footbridge near the side entrance to "Brooklands" on to Church Green. The gate, he said, had been repaired by the Council some years ago. The Clerk, however, stated that when the question of the repair of the gate was referred to the District Council in 1925, the Clerk of the District Council (Mr. G. D. Day) had replied that the owners and occupiers of Church Green were responsible for the gate. The subject then dropped. Mr. Twist also called attention to the rights of way to the river which were now obstructed, and were in danger of being lost to the public. An interesting discussion ensued, in course of which it was mentioned that various rights of way in other parts of the parish were disappearing. The Council also took no action in this matter. The following councillors were present: Mr. C.W. H. Cole (chairman), Messrs. P. Burton, C. Dean, C. H. Parish, P. Parish, and W. Twist. – The fire engine, it may be mentioned, was bought from Messrs. Merryweather for use in Swavesey on the 19th September, 1827, and was secondhand when acquired. At the time of the disastrous Swavesey fire in 1913 Mr. J. C. Merryweather stated that the engine was originally built by his firm for the British Fire Office, and that it was extremely probable that the ancient warrior's fire experience in pumping water dated back some 20 or 30 years prior to 1827.

CRICKET CLUB. 25th May 1928

A welcome donation of £1 to the funds of the Cricket Club has been received from Mr. George Carter, of Harpenden, who says he still thinks a good deal about the old village in which he was born and spent his early days.

THE LATE EARL HAIG. 25th May 1928

By permission of the Committee of Management a portrait of the late Earl Haig, enclosed in a massive oak frame, the property of the Swavesey and District Branch of the British Legion, has been hung in the Memorial Hall.

MEMORIAL HALL. 25th May 1928

There was a large attendance at the dance at the Memorial Hall on Feast Tuesday evening for which the Longstanton Syncopatonian Dance Band provided the music. The net proceeds, amounting to about £5, will be devoted to the Memorial Hall Fund.

THE FEAST. 25th May 1928

The annual village Feast, which opened on Sunday, has not been one of the most successful on record, and for this the weather, to a large extent, must be held responsible. The service at the parish church on Sunday were of a festal character. The most notable feature of the day was the parade in aid of Addenbrooke's Hospital, a full report of which will be found on another page.

On Monday and Tuesday cricket matches were played. In Market-street there has been a fairly extensive array of stalls, shooting galleries, swings, etc., and two roundabouts, the proprietors of which very generously handed over their takings during certain hours on Wednesday to the Parade Committee for the benefit of Addenbrooke's, £1 being received from Mr. C. Manning, and 7s. from Mr. Freeman, whose roundabout was for children only.

PERMITTING DRUNKENNESS. 25th May 1928

Swavesey Licence Holder Fined at Divisional Bench.

The cases of two Swavesey men, who were fined at the Cambs. Divisional Court on May 5th for being drunk and assault, had an echo at the same Court on Saturday last, when E.O. of the New Inn, Swavesey, was summoned for permitting drunkenness on May 2nd. He was further summoned for selling intoxicating liquor on the same date to the drunken persons, named A.W. and J. K. The latter summonses were subsequently withdrawn, and the Bench inflicted a fine of £2 for the first offence. His Honour Judge H. G. Farrant was in the chair.

Mr. Grafton Pryor appeared for defendant and pleaded not guilty to the first summons.

P.C. Keep stated that he was on duty at the New Inn at 10 p.m. on May 2nd, when he saw J. K. and A. W. come out of the house in a drunken condition. They got their bicycles and tried to mount them, but could not do so, and fell to the ground. They were arrested and were convicted on May 5th for being drunk and disorderly. Next morning, May 3rd, they searched for a quart bottle which W. had had in his pocket, and which was placed in the ditch by P.C. Brooks. The bottle, which contained beer, was found, and produced in court. Cross-examined, witness said a small bottle was found on the men and contained some spirit. He did not say it was impossible, but he did not think they drank anything after they left the New Inn.

P.C. Brooks, stationed at Swavesey, who was in company with the previous witness outside the New Inn on May 2nd, gave corroborative evidence.

Questioned by Mr. Pryor, witness said that he was positive the men did not go into the lavatory at the rear of the house. K. was a most violent man when in drink.

Mr. Pryor: Is it within your knowledge that K. has violently assaulted a licence holder when refused drink? – I do not know, sir.

Mr. Pryor: According to my instructions, K. went into the White Horse, Swavesey, and was refused drink, and violently assaulted the landlord.

Supt. Allen: That was a different case, a shooting case.

Supt. Allen stated that on May 3rd he went to the New Inn with Sergt. Keep at about 10.30 a.m. and saw defendant. He told him that the men had been summoned for being drunk when leaving the New Inn. Witness cautioned him, and asked defendant if he wished to say anything or give any information. Defendant said he wished to make a statement, and stated that at about 9.20 p.m. on May 2nd K. and W. came into the house and shouted "Ted" (meaning defendant). They went into the taproom, which was in darkness, and both asked for a pint and were served. When the beer was served W. was standing beside K., who was sitting. When the beer was put on the table W. said if defendant did not light a lamp they could not pay. The lamp was lit, and it was then seen that the men were the worse for drink. They drank some of the beer and then started singing. The two men then asked for some old beer, some of which they drank, and at 10 p.m. there was beer in four glasses. Defendant suggested that the beer which remained should be put into an empty quart bottle, and the men agreed. They then left the house. Defendant was afraid if he did not serve them there would be trouble, and there was nobody to send for assistance.

Mr. Pryor: He intimated to you in that statement that he was in fear of these men? – Yes.

Defendant, on oath, said he had been at the New Inn since Michaelmas, 1913, and had never been convicted for any offence. The statement was correct, and he agreed with the police description that K. was a most violent man.

Mr. Pryor: How came you to serve these men with beer? – Well, if I had not done so I could see trouble.

What sort of trouble? – I might have been in Cambridge Hospital, or in bed at home.

Cross-examined, defendant said there was nobody in the house who could get assistance. He was alone.

This concluded the first case, and the Bench decided to hear the other two before making a decision. At the request of Supt. Allen, the other cases were withdrawn. Defendant was fined 40s.

SWAVESEY'S HOSPITAL PARADE. 25th May 1928

Successful First Effort for Addenbrooke's.

Swavesey's first parade in aid of Addenbrooke's Hospital on Sunday was an undoubted success. Though threatening clouds hovered overhead, there was but little fault to find with the weather until the early evening, and so both the procession and the subsequent meeting on the Recreation Ground took place under favourable conditions. It had, however, been arranged for the St. Ives Town Band to give a concert in the evening on the Recreation Ground, but owing to a heavy thunderstorm this had to be transferred to the Memorial Hall, and not doubt the funds suffered in consequence.

THE PROCESSION.

The procession, admirably marshalled by Mr. R. Barwell, and Mr. C. Wood, started promptly to time from Boxworth End. At the head were the Secretary of the Organising Committee (Mr. H. W. Whitehead) and P.C. Brooks. P.S. Keep was also in attendance. Then followed the Cottenham Salvation Army Band (Bandmaster Leslie Norman), members of the committee, Messrs. Cole, P. Burton, W. Burton, C. Dean and P. Parish (Parish Councillors), with their Clerk (Mr. P. Godfrey), and Mr. R. Mailer (County Councillor). They were succeeded by V.A.D's accompanying a hospital tableau on a waggon, Nurse Cottrell and Miss Beaumont being the nurses, and Stanley Wood the heavily bandaged patient, whose rosy cheeks betokened a high temperature. Then in succession came the Boy's Brigade, under Lieut. S. Wright, with banner, the Swavesey Brotherhood (with banner), B.W.T.A. (with banner). The St. Ives Town Band (Bandmaster F. Searle), preceded the members of the Swavesey district branch of the British Legion (under Lieut. E. Williams), who paraded with standard, representatives of the Horticultural Society, Ladies' Hockey Club in pretty blue and yellow outfit, and the National Deposit Friendly Society (with banner), and lastly, Sunday School children in waggons. The procession made its way, with short halts at Longstanton-road turning and the Memorial Hall, to the Swan Pond at Church End, and thence back to the Recreation Ground, pausing at Market-street. Collectors, carrying boxes supplied officially, spared no efforts en route to rake in coins, and, it is understood, an occasional Treasury note, for the good cause.

ON THE RECREATION GROUND.

A large crowd assembled for the meeting on the Recreation Ground, at which the Vicar of Swavesey (Rev. C. F. Stebbing) presided, being supported on the platform by the Rev. T. B. Field (pastor of Bethel Baptist Church), Mr. R. Mailer and Mr. G. Hart (County Councillors), Mr. A. T. Potter (Chairman of the Workers' Hospital Fund), who deputised for Mr. W. H. Head, secretary-superintendent of Addenbrooke's, Mr. F. Kirby (vice-chairman, Swavesey R.D.C.), Mr. C. W. H. Cole (chairman Parish Council), Mr. P. Godfrey (clerk, Parish Council), Mr. Harry Smith (Willingham), and Dr. Fraser (chairman of the Organising Committee). A letter regretting his inability to attend owing to his absence from home, was received from the Rev. R. T. Collett (Primitive Methodist Circuit minister).

The Vicar, in his opening remarks, said he was proud to be in the chair at the first hospital parade ever held in Swavesey. During the six years he had been in the parish he had very frequently visited the hospital to see Swavesey people, and therefore had had ample opportunity to realise the splendid work that was being done, and that every patient received the best possible attention. Mr. Potter expressed his pleasure at seeing such a large gathering, and said he much regretted that Mr. W. H. Head, secretary-superintendent of Addenbrooke's, could not be present. He was, however, speaking at a parade at Stretham. After briefly referring to the wonders of medical science in these days, and to the beneficent work of voluntary hospitals, and the self-sacrificing efforts of doctors and nurses, Mr. Potter mentioned that Mr. Arthur Cooke, one of the eminent surgeons at Addenbrooke's had, in connection with the Cambridge Y.M.C.A., organised a band of men who were willing at a moment's notice to give their blood for transfusion, and that one of the staff of his own firm had on more than one occasion been called upon to make the sacrifice. He also quoted what Viscount Knutsford, whose great work for the London Hospital in Whitechapel was so well-known, Mr. Neville Chamberlain, Minister of Health, and Mr. Lloyd George had said about voluntary hospitals. The last named, he said, had solemnly warned the people of Manchester that if the voluntary system broke down, rates would go up, and the burden of taxation would increase.

After giving details of work done by Addenbrooke's, Mr. Potter said that last year £25,000 was raised, but the ordinary expenditure amounted to £27,000, and if a large sum had not been received in legacies they would have been faced with a big deficiency. During the past two years there had been 41 in-patients from Swavesey at a cost of over £7 each, equal to about £300, and there had been a still larger number of out-patients who had also been an expense to the hospital. Continuing, Mr. Potter spoke of what had been done in other places, instancing Chatteris, Mepal, Haddenham and Willingham. He also made reference to the new building scheme, and the long list of sick people waiting for admission, for whom there was no accommodation.

The Rev. T. B. Field, in a short, but effective, speech, said he had been a great supporter of hospitals ever since he was a small boy, when he had spent some time in Guy's Hospital as a result of an accident, and by means of an amusing anecdote he pointed out the wisdom of not delaying to support the cause they were advocating that day.

SWAVESEY WAKING UP.

Mr. George Hart said he was glad to see Swavesey people were waking up at last to a sense of their responsibilities, for what was being done that day ought to have been done long ago. He appealed to them to raise at least £40, adding that he should be greatly disappointed if they did not do so.

Mr. F. Kirby, in supporting the appeal, said that already this year there had been 17 in-patients from Swavesey at Addenbrooke's. He hoped the day's effort would result in Over's contribution of £53 from a similar parade last year being exceeded.

Dr. Fraser said credit must be given to the Parish Council, who had originated the idea of a parade, and had been at the back of it. The Council had certainly given expression to the wishes of the parishioners generally. He had occasion during the short time he had been in Swavesey to send several urgent cases to Addenbrooke's, and he had been greatly impressed by the prompt and admirable way in which those patients had been treated. Hospitals in these days were far more popular than they were when he was young – in fact, now people were far more willing to have their tummies opened than their windows. "If you don't raise £40," said the doctor in conclusion, "I shall be sick."

THE EXTRACTOR OF "BRADBURY'S."

Mr. Harry Smith, the famous Willingham extractor of "Bradburys," was the last speaker. "We don't want all your money," said he; "we don't want to rob you. We must leave you some money for your kiddies to spend at the feast. But at the same time I want your money. How many of you are prepared to give a £1 note? I will give one to begin with." Loud applause greeted this declaration, and then the handing up of notes began. When Mr. Smith announced that the sum he had captured by similar means at Over last year had been beaten the crowd cheered heartily and at the close he had the satisfaction of handing £17 to the Chairman. Coins of various denominations were also collected on the big drum of the Cottenham band.

Between the speeches the bands played selections.

The Chairman having thanked Mr. Potter and the other speakers for so kindly assisting Swavesey in their effort, the meeting concluded with the National Anthem, played by the Cottenham Band.

THE EVENING'S PROCEEDINGS.

In the evening, notwithstanding the downpour of rain, there was a good attendance at the Memorial Hall, where the programme included various items by the St. Ives Town Band, and community singing. The Rev. T. B. Field presided, and at the close hearty votes of thanks were accorded the Chairman of the Organising Committee (Dr. Fraser) and the energetic Hon. Secretary (Mr. W.H. Whitehead).

THE COLLECTION.

The amount collected during the day amounted approximately to £70, and after expenses have been paid it is estimated that at least £66 will be available for the hospital. The total weight of the coins collected was 87 lbs.

STRANGE NESTING PLACE. 1st June 1928

A blue tie has nested below the bucket in the old pump on the side of the main road at Boxworth End, and it is hoped she will be allowed to bring up her family without interference.

MEMORIAL HALL. 1st June 1928

Owing no doubt to the many other attractions in the district the attendance at the dance promoted by the Memorial Hall Committee of Management on Whit-Monday evening was not as good as usual. The Cottenham Syncopators provided the music.

HOSPITAL PARADE. 1st June 1928

At a meeting of the Hospital Parade Committee held at the Memorial Hall on Tuesday, Dr. Fraser presiding, it was announced that the net proceeds from the parade on Feast Sunday amounted to £68, and that this sum had been sent to Addenbrooke's Hospital. Votes of thanks were passed to the hon. secretary (Mr. H. W. Whitehead), to the "Independent Press and News," and to all others who in any way had contributed to the undoubted success of the effort. The committee will remain in office until a general meeting next spring.

CRICKET MATCH. 1st June 1928

The cricket match for the benefit of the Swavesey and Fenstanton Institutes, which was played at Fenstanton on Whit Monday between F. S. Salters XI and Gordon Pratt's XI, resulted in a win for the former team. The proceeds, amounting to £2 12s., have been divided between the two institutes.

A REMARKABLE DRAIN. 1st June 1928

Villagers are commenting on a remarkable piece of drainage work which is being carried out at Boxworth End, where about fifty 18 inch tile pipes are being used to connect a drain of ordinary field tiles with the 9 inch drain which carried the surplus water from a pond under the main road, and thence into the open parish drain that runs at the back of the new Council houses. No exception is taken to the object of the new length of drain which is to divert drainage from neighbouring premises from the pond, but the ratepayers are anxious to know why expensive 18 inch pipes are being used while smaller ones costing probably a quarter the price would be more effective.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 1st June 1928

The Feast week was appropriately closed by the celebration of the 88th anniversary of Bethel Baptist Church on Thursday week, the large congregations, including friends from Girton, Lolworth, Knapwell, Somersham, Bluntisham, Colne, Woodhurst, Over, Willingham, Longstanton, Fen Drayton, Oakington and Cambridge. The speaker was Dr. John Wilson, M.B.E., who for 50 years has been pastor of the Woolwich Tabernacle, his subject in the afternoon being "The vital necessity of prayer" and in the evening "Home influence." Tea was provided between the services, during the progress of which brief speeches were given by Revs. Gordon Jones (Bluntisham), E. P. Blackaby (Willingham), G. Bird (Over) and Dr. Wilson. The choir gave an admirable rendering of an anthem at the evening service. Messrs. Canham and J. W. Williams presided at the organ. The financial proceeds reached £15.

OBITUARY. 1st June 1928

We have to record the death at the age of 83 years of Mr. Andrew Pilgrim, which occurred at his residence of Albion House, Swavesey, on the evening of Thursday, 24th May. Although he had been more or less crippled with rheumatism for many years he used to declare that he had never been in the hands of a doctor. On the Saturday evening previous to his death, however, he was suddenly taken very seriously ill, and Dr. Fraser had to be called in. He never rallied and passed away as stated. The funeral took place at the parish church on Whit-Monday afternoon, the Vicar, Rev. C. F. Stebbing, officiating. The mourners included Mrs. Pilgrim (widow) and Mr. Percy Pilgrim (son). Mr. Ernest Mitham, Middle Watch, Swavesey, was the undertaker.

RURAL DEANERY OF NORTH STOWE. 1st June 1928

Festival of Choirs at Swavesey Parish Church.

A festival of choirs in the Rural Deanery of North Stowe was held at Swavesey parish church on Tuesday evening, under the auspices of the Diocesan Council of Church Music. Choirs from Cottenham, Impington, Over and Swavesey attended, and the following clergy were present: Rev. Lawrence Fisher (vicar of Swaffham Prior and Secretary of the Diocesan Council of Church Music), Rev. V. H. E. Ritson (vicar of Stuntney and chaplain to the Bishop of Ely), Rev. F. G. Weston (vicar of Over), and Rev. C. F. Stebbing (vicar of Swavesey). The Rev. H. G. Hooton (vicar of Impington) was in the congregation. Mr. G. W. Thoday (organist of Over parish church) conducted, and Mr. G. H. Skeeles (the Swavesey organist) was at the organ.

The congregation was comparatively small, as only four of the 15 choirs in the Rural Deanery were represented, the question whether these festivals are organised on the right lines would seem worthy of the consideration of the Diocesan Council.

The service was taken by the Rev. L. Fisher, the first lesson being read by the Vicar of Swavesey, and the second by the Vicar of Over. The sermon was preached by the Rev. V. H. E. Ritson.

The music was that given in the Order of Service for Festivals of Parish Choirs in the Diocese of Ely, 1928, and included Psalm lxxii. to a chant by Sir George Elvey, Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis (A. W. Wilson), the anthems "How lovely are the messengers," from Mendelssohn's "St. Paul," and "Then round about the Starry Throne," from Handel's "Samson," and the hymns "Spread, O spread, thou mighty word," "Love Divine, all loves excelling" (melody by R. H. Pritchard), "Lord of the Harvest, it is right and meet" (P. C. Buck), and "Trumpet of God, sound high" (C. Wood). The first and last hymns were sung in procession.

Although the singing of the choirs was not entirely faultless, it was evident that great pains had been bestowed on their training. The altos in "How lovely are the messengers" were admirable. Mr. Thoday conducted with considerable energy, and Mr. Skeeles' organ accompaniment was marked by most commendable restraint.

The collection, which amounted to £3, was divided between Church Missions and the Diocesan Council for Music.

THE BROTHERHOOD. 8th June 1928

There was a good attendance at the monthly meeting of the Swavesey Brotherhood and Sisterhood, which was held at the Memorial Hall on Sunday afternoon, with Mr. Jabez Day in the chair. The speaker was the President of the Cambridge Men's Brotherhood (Rev. J. McCleery, pastor of Zion Baptist Church), who gave a most interesting address on the life of George Muller, the founder of a home for destitute children. Mr. McCleery explained how by his wonderful faith, earnest prayers, and untiring efforts Muller had raised money to feed, clothe and train these little ones, and how since his death the work was still being carried on. We needed more faith, said the speaker in conclusion, and it was only by prayer and by leading a life such as that George Muller had led that we could get that faith. Two solos were well rendered by Mr. Dickerson, of Cambridge, to whom, and to Mr. McCleery, the Chairman expressed the thanks and appreciation of all present.

SWAVESEY DISTRICT COUNCIL. 8th June 1928

Rating Officer and Expenditure Not Provided for.

An enlightening, but far from reassuring report respecting the financial position of the Swavesey rural district, and the parish of Swavesey in particular, was given by the Rating Officer (Mr. B. Mason) at the meeting of the District Council. Ald. J. Frohock, the co-opted chairman, presided, and the following councillors were present: Mr. R. Mailer (Boxworth), Mr. F. Johnson (Fen Drayton), Mr. F. Stanton (Lolworth), Messrs. W. I. Hemington and F. Kirby (Over), and Messrs. A. Day, sen., and R. Norman, sen. (Swavesey).

Mr. Mason stated that the Treasurer's balance was £230, and that cheques drawn that day totalled £257. After all accounts had been paid there should have been a balance in the bank of at least £90. The present position was due to the ever increasing expenditure for which no provision had been made. For sewerage at Swavesey £80 was required, £40 in the last half-year's special rate, leaving £40 to be included in the special rate for the current half-year. Since then a further expenditure of £57 had been incurred, and in addition he had received an account for £10 in connection with Swavesey by-ways. Mr. Mason said he realised that there was urgency so far as sewerage was concerned, but there were many other instances where provision could, and should, have been made before the work was proceeded with – on the by-ways, for instance. He understood that further sewerage work was in hand at Swavesey, at an estimated cost of £50, but he did not know where they were going to get the money.

Mr. Kirby (vice-chairman) remarked that while expenditure on byways might be foreseen, it was not possible to make provision beforehand for urgent sanitary matters.

Mr. Mason suggested that some of the expenditure could not have been said to have been thrust upon the Council.

Mr. Day explained that the sewerage work was urgent. As regards the byways, they used to employ a man to attend to them and pay him £20 a year.

Mr. Mason: You have washed out the man with £20.

Mr. Day: We spend the money now on material instead of on labour. There were, continued Mr. Day, 15 or 20 bridges, and if one of them fell in an extra expenditure of from £20 to £40 would probably have to be incurred. He would, however, see that in future provision was made for all money required.

Mr. Kirby said the Council had always exercised great care when levying a special rate on Swavesey, knowing as they did the difficulties that faced the ratepayers of that very hard-hit parish. He was sorry for Swavesey, but there were matters that had to be attended to. There was a 5s. rate, an 8d. rate, and a 2d. rate. What, he asked, was the 2d. rate for?

Mr. Mason replied that one penny was for the Parish Council, and a penny for superannuation.

Mr. Day, bringing the discussion to a close, expressed the hope that they would have no more of these matters, and that they would live a quiet life for many years to come.

FOR ADDENBROOKE'S. 15th June 1928

By the sale of photographs of the hospital parade on Feast Sunday, taken by her, a Swavesey lady has been able to send 15s. to Addenbrooke's, for which she has received a letter of grateful thanks from the Secretary-Superintendent.

The Swavesey National School girls' team, playing against Over Council school team, at Swavesey, on the same day, also won their game by 38 runs against Over's 21.

DEATH OF A LATE INHABITANT. 15th June 1928

Many of our readers in the Swavesey district will learn with regret that Mrs. Eliza G. Chamberlain, wife of Mr. William H. Chamberlain, of 58, Pool-lane, Yardley, Birmingham, and some years ago licensee of the Rising Sun Inn, Swavesey, passed away on the 5th inst., after four months' illness, followed by a painful operation.

SWAVESEY FETE. 15th June 1928

Annual Function in Aid of District Nursing Association.

The bad weather marred what promised to be a most enjoyable fete, but notwithstanding, quite a large number of people spent a happy time in the beautiful grounds of Swavesey Manor, kindly lent by the Rev. J. F. Cooksey, on Thursday. The fete, which was in aid of the District Nursing Association (Swavesey, Over and Fen Drayton), was opened by the Rev. F. G. Weston (vicar of Over). Dr. Fraser also said a few words.

The Rev. F. G. Weston said one must express ones sympathy with Mrs. Cooksey and others who organised that gathering, because it was not a very exhilarating afternoon. Continuing, he said that the object of the fete was a worthy one, for no one after the parson and the doctor could be more essential in any village than the nurse. They were gathered together on that very important occasion to help to maintain the nurse of that district, and they all felt she discharged her duties with commendable skill. If every householder contributed towards the funds what might be reasonably expected of them, then these extra efforts would not be needed. He hoped the people would rally to the committee and make these occasions less needed, because the work of these affairs fell on the shoulders of a few people. He hoped they would raise a sufficient sum, and he had much pleasure in declaring the sale open.

Dr. Fraser, in speaking of the work of the district nurse, said he remembered a year ago a good deal of perturbation was expressed by the people in Swavesey and district because they were losing a good nurse and they were wondering if they would get another one as good. They had had the nurse a year, and they must appreciate her work. He thought she had worked loyally and well for the community. This was summer time, and they were apt to forget under what conditions she worked in the winter. In all weathers, gale or rain, and at all hours of the day and night, they found the nurse discharging her duties with skill and despatch. Their previous nurse had taken six years to settle down among them, but during the year, their present nurse had done remarkably good work and was gaining the confidence of every household. He hoped that the response to the appeal would be satisfactory.

Owing to the rain, the stalls were taken under shelter, and although rather cramped for room, did a good trade. Later in the afternoon a baby show was held, Dr. Frank Robinson (County Medical Officer of Health) being the judge, assisted by Miss Bills (L.S.N.A.), and under the management of Nurse Cottrell. There was a fair number of entries. Miss Banks arranged the children's fancy dress parade, in which several children in picturesque costumes took part. After tea, the Over Girl Guides (under Miss G. Thoday) entertained with dancing, and the Over Boy Scouts (under Mr. R. Thoday) followed with an exhibition of drill. Miss Cole and Miss E. Dodson also entertained during the afternoon. There were numerous competitions, which included guessing the towns, candle lighting, chocolates and doll.

The stallholders were as follows: Workstall, Miss Norman and Mrs. C. Dean; pound and produce, Mrs. Barling and Mrs. W. Thorp; jumbles, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Mead; soap, Mrs. Cooke and Mrs. Chew; sweets, the Misses Dodson and Miss Muriel Parsons; ice cream, Mrs. W. Kester and Mrs. N. Spolton; refreshments, Mrs. Aldred, Mrs. Dean and many helpers. Competitions: Cake, Mrs. Banks; doll, Miss Freestone; chocolates, Miss Godfrey; guessing the towns, Mrs. Cardnell and Miss Spolton; candle-lighting, Miss Parish; cake, Miss Crouch; buried treasure, Mr. W. Thorp; bran tub, Miss P. Parish. Mr. Pontefract and Mr. C. Dean were at the gate.

PRIMITIVE METHODISTS. 22nd June 1928

A successful sale of needlework made by the members of Mrs. R. Asplin's Girls' Guild at Over was held at Swavesey Primitive Methodist Church on Tuesday afternoon, Miss Easter performing the opening ceremony. The sale was followed in the evening by a concert, at which Mr. Jabez Day presided, and the Rev. R. T. Collett (circuit minister) gave an address. An excellent programme was provided by the Guild girls and friends from Bethel Baptist Church.

BETHEL SUNDAY SCHOOL. 22nd June 1928

Services in connection with the anniversary of Bethel Baptist Sunday School were held on Sunday, the Rev. J. Williams, of Cottenham, preaching excellent sermons in the morning and evening, and giving an address at the flower service in the afternoon, at which some of the scholars recited portions of Scripture. Special hymns were sung throughout the day. The collections, which were very satisfactory, were for the school funds. The flowers were sent to St. Ives Infirmary.

NURSING ASSOCIATION FETE. 22nd June 1928

In spite of the most unfavourable weather the Swavesey, Over and Fen Drayton Nursing Association benefited to the extent of £42 6s. 7½d. by the annual garden fete in the grounds of Swavesey Manor, a report of which appeared in last Friday's "Press and News." The prizewinners in the Baby Show and children's fancy dress parade were: Baby show, class I (1 to 6 months) – 1 Norman L. Hemington, 2 Peter J. Leggatt, certificate Sylvia F. Kester; class II (6 to 10 months) – 1 Ronald J. Saxby, 2 Reginald C. Cook, certificate, Raymond P. Cook; class III (from 10 months) – 1 Ella M. Asplin, 2 Audrey M. Bird, 3 Arthur L. Dodson, certificate Dennis F. Prior. Button holes were presented to the Rev. F. G. Weston, who opened the fete, and Dr. Fraser by little Audrey M. Bird. Fancy dress parade: Over 10 years – 1 Florence Warboys (Bryant and May's matches), 2 Vera Endersby (gipsy), 3 Elsie Godfrey (Japanese lady), 4 Hilda Hephher (Victorian lady), 5 Joyce Lee (newsboy); under 10 – 1 Jimmy Close (Dick Whittington), 2 Lily Hephher (powder puff), 3 Elsie Dodson and Ronnie Spearman (Darby and Joan), 4

Marjorie Culpin (daisy), 5 Gladys Melbourne (Red Cross Nurse), 6 Norman and Alan Lee ("Good Night").

An admirable performance of a sketch, entitled "Allotments," by Miss Cole and Miss E. Dodson, was greatly appreciated, as also was the entertainment given by the Over Girl Guides, under Miss Gertrude Thoday, whose programme included dancing, Morse signalling and the sketch, "A little knowledge is a dangerous thing." Mrs. Lee supervised the gramophone, and Mrs. Aldred was at the work stall and not in charge of refreshments as previously stated.

BIG FIRE AT SWAVESEY. 22nd June 1928

Barn, Sheds & Furniture Among Destroyed Property.

£800 ESTIMATED DAMAGE.

Considerable damage, estimated at about £800, was caused by a fire which broke out at Boxworth End, Swavesey, last Friday evening.

Shortly after 7 o' clock smoke and flames were seen coming from the premises of Mr. James Prior, furniture dealer and remover, etc. Neighbours and men working in the fields near by hastened to the scene, and did what they could with pails and water, but the fire had got firm hold of the wooden buildings and their inflammable contents. Mr. E. Mitham, the recently appointed Captain of the Swavesey fire engine, received a call at 7.15 p.m., and, with Mr. E. Prior, late Vice-Captain, was soon on the spot with hose and standpipe which were connected with a hydrant in the road. This had some effect in checking the flames spreading to other buildings which surrounded the yard.

The Cambridge Fire Brigade was sent for, and arrived in very quick time. The Dennis pump was taken to a pond in an adjoining field belonging to Mr. W. Daisley, and promptly getting to work, the fire was extinguished in about 1½ hours, the firemen being assisted towards the end by a heavy fall of rain.

A large barn, van shed, store shed, workshop and tool shed were completely destroyed, with a Morris Commercial van, a four-wheeled removal van, a lot of furniture, fruit baskets, carpenter's bench and tools, paint, etc. The flames were so fierce and spread so rapidly that, although strenuous efforts were made, it was impossible to remove anything from the burning buildings. Panes of glass in the windows of Mr. Prior's house were cracked by the heat and the paint blistered.

Thatched cottages near by were in great danger of getting alight, owing to the heat and sparks, but they were carefully watched and the thatch and walls kept wet with water.

The fire is believed to have been caused by two little children, who had been playing with matches. Mr. Prior was attending to a customer in his store at the front of his house when the outbreak occurred, and another customer, Mr. Cecil Arnold, who was waiting to see him, was the first to give the alarm. The whole of the destroyed property is covered by insurance with the Norwich Union Fire Office.

SUNDAY MUSIC. 29th June 1928

The St. Ives Town Band visited Swavesey on Sunday, and played an excellent selection of music in Market-street, from 7.30 to 9 p.m. Villagers attended in good numbers.

PROTECTION FROM FIRE. 29th June 1928

A correspondent writes: From time to time lately, according to the reports in the "Press and News," the Swavesey Parish Council have had under consideration the question of the protection of the village from fire. The venerable fire engine has been repaired, the hydrants in the streets have been cleared from the tar and gravel with which they had been covered, and the District Council have been asked to provide plates to indicate the exact position of each hydrant – a request, by the way, that so far has not been complied with. At the recent fire at Boxworth End, the engine was not brought out, but very useful service in checking the spread of the fire was done by the hose attached to the hydrant near the burning buildings prior to the arrival of the Dennis pump from Cambridge. The method of dealing with the fire by means of standpipe and hose would have been more effective if the pressure of water had been stronger. I am given to understand that a telephone message was sent to Bourn, but that owing to the water-works not being on the 'phone some delay inevitably occurred before it could be delivered, and extra pressure put on. May I suggest that the Parish Council, at their meeting in July, should consider (1) whether the attention of the Water Supply Company should be called to the risk of serious damage to property by fire owing to the absence of direct telephonic communication with the pumping station, not only from Swavesey, but other places served by the Company; and (2) whether standpipes, keys, hose, etc., should be kept in one or two places in the village, as well as at the engine house? Further, I would venture to suggest that, if the R.D.C. cannot, or will not, provide plates to indicate the positions of the hydrants, the Parish Council should obtain them, and, if our Parish Fathers do not feel justified in spending public funds for the purpose, they should raise the money by means of a whist drive, dance, or garden fete.

THE LATE MRS. W. MUSTILL. 6th July 1928

The funeral of Mrs. Emily Mustill, wife of Mr. William Mustill, who passed away on the 28th ulto., after a long and painful illness, aged 55 years, took place at Swavesey parish church on Saturday afternoon. The Rev. C. F. Stebbing, vicar, officiated. The mourners included: Mr. W. Mustill (husband), Misses May and Annetta Mustill (daughters), Mr. Edward Allen (brother), Miss Lucy Allen (sister), Mrs. Allen Thoday (cousin), Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Symonds (brother-in-law and sister-in-law). Upwards of 20 beautiful wreaths were sent by relatives and friends.

SWAVESEY IN TROUBLE. 6th July 1928

District Council Complain of Anonymous Communications.

At the last monthly meeting of the Swavesey District Council an interesting and, at times, almost pathetic discussion, took place on the financial position of the Council, and the Council's ineffectual efforts to keep down the rates, especially so far as the parish of Swavesey was concerned, and also respecting an anonymous letter received by the Clerk and other anonymous communications which were alleged to have appeared in the Press.

Mr. Jacob Frohock (chairman) presided, and the councillors present were Messrs. F. Kirby (vice-chairman), A. Day, W. I. Hemington, R. Norman and F. Stanton. The representatives of the parishes of Boxworth, Conington and Fen Drayton did not attend.

The Clerk (Mr. G. L. Day) opened the ball by reporting that the treasurer's balance was down to £83 15s, 9d., and that the balance on the general account had only been maintained by holding back two cheques drawn two months previously – one for granite £76, and the other for £18 due to the housing account.

Mr. Kirby remarked that the rates would soon be coming in, and the Clerk agreed.

The Chairman said the Council had always endeavoured to put the ratepayers to as little expense as possible, but apparently their efforts in that direction had not given general satisfaction, according to what he saw in the newspapers. A rather silly letter, he added, had appeared in one paper. If ratepayers wanted to pay more rates, it would make no difference to him.

Mr. Stanton thought that some of the writers of the anonymous letters should be on the Council.

The Clerk then read an anonymous letter, which apparently had been sent to him, and not to a newspaper. In this the writer stated that after reading the account of the Swavesey Rural District Council meeting in the Press, he was surprised to learn the expense of the parish, as Swavesey was more highly rated than any of the other parishes in the rural district, and he would like to know (through the paper) why that was. He suggested that it would be better to have a man on the Swavesey by-roads at £20 per year than spend money on gravel to be kicked to the side of the roads and be ploughed up. . .

Whether the Vice-Chairman's interjection, "If anonymous writers will put their names to their letters, we will try and accede to their requests," put an end to the reading of the remainder of the communication we have been unable to ascertain.

Later in the meeting the Chairman observed that if every little thing was going to be reported in the papers they had better say nothing. Swavesey, he said, is a very expensive parish. If the ratepayers were not satisfied with the efforts of the Council to keep the place in a sanitary condition, they would have to get a qualified man, who was able to drain the fens, and who would be an expense to the Council. The Council tried to do the best they could in the circumstances.

Before the discussion concluded the Chairman said the Council ought to take no notice of what they saw in the papers. The statements were misleading. He thought the people who complained were not very large ratepayers, for if they paid more of the rates they would be more careful in criticising the Council. These things, said Mr. Frohock, got on an old man's nerves.

The Vice-Chairman remarked that when the collector sat at Swavesey the previous week he only obtained 2s.

TRAIN ALTERATION. 6th July 1928

The passenger train to Cambridge, which was due to leave Swavesey station on week-days at 3.59 p.m., since Monday last has been timed to depart at 3.48 p.m.

BETHEL SUNDAY SCHOOL. 6th July 1928

The children attending Bethel Sunday School had their annual summer treat on Thursday week, the proceedings beginning with a tea at 4.30 p.m., at which about 60 youngsters sat down, which was followed by a tea for the parents and friends, and afterwards a happy evening was spent in Mr. A. Day's field with sports and the usual school games. Mr. Canham kindly provided sweets and Mrs. Isgrove ice-cream, both of which were fully appreciated.

SWAVESEY CARNIVAL. 13th July 1928

Pleasant Function for Church Heating Apparatus Fund.

Swavesey had a real carnival day on Thursday, when a carnival fete was held in the Vicarage grounds. The function was in aid of the church heating apparatus fund, and proved to be a most delightful affair. The scene of the jollifications presented a glorious sight, for there was a perfect blaze of magnificent colour, bathed in the warm sunshine.

A fancy dress procession, commencing from the school, opened the proceedings. There was a particularly brilliant display of costumes, and upwards to 50 contested for the prizes for the best dresses. Many of the ladies favoured the Eastern mode of dress, while others resorted to the fashions of the Middle Ages. The procession was headed by the St. Ives Town Band. At the Vicarage grounds the fete was officially opened by the Master of Jesus College (Mr. Arthur Gray).

The Vicar (the Rev. C. F. Stebbing, who presided, remarked that if the Master of Jesus College had been there six or seven months ago he would have found the lawn and the fields surrounding under water. Although it did not seem so at the minute, they needed better heating. That would cost over £285, and of that £213 had already been raised. He welcomed the Master of Jesus, and said that the College took a great interest in the living.

The Master, opening the fete, said he well remembered coming and opening it in former years, and it was a great pleasure to come back. It appeared to him that they had done wonders in Swavesey for the restoration of the nave and now for the aisle and for the new heating apparatus. He wished them most hearty good fortune, and hoped that proceeds would go a long way to provide the necessary funds. Some cold day he might be able to attend Swavesey church and feel the warmth. It was a very great work they were doing for the beautification of the church.

The stalls and competitions immediately commenced to do good business, and the costumes and decorations made a carnival effect. There were numerous competitions, many of which were of the usual type. There were also refreshments, jumble and work stalls, together with such stalls as china, soap, ices, strawberries, and others. A 40-piece tea service was the attractive prize offered for the lucky number ticket.

A one-act play, entitled "The Rest Cure," was performed twice, much to the enjoyment of the audiences. The roles were all capably filled by Dr. Fraser, Mrs. Proctor, Miss Banks, Miss Barwell and Mr. R. Barwell.

The St. Ives Town Band were present throughout, and provided an excellent programme of music, which was greatly appreciated. The band also played for the dancing, which concluded a most pleasant event. (List of stallholders in newspaper)

AN UNFORTUNATE CAPTURE. 20th July 1928

One evening last week a Swavesey resident set a trap to catch a rat. Next morning he found to his dismay that instead of the destructive rodent he had trapped one of his own fowls.

LOCAL BAKER'S SUCCESS. 20th July 1928

At the Little Thetford, Ely, Show last week, Mr. W. D. Isgrove, baker, High-street, Swavesey, was awarded the first prize (gold medal) and Mr. A. J. Freestone, baker (Boxworth End, Swavesey, the third prize (bronze medal), in the competition for the best tin loaf of bread.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 20th July 1928

In the absence, on a short holiday, of the pastor, the Rev. T. B. Field, the services at Bethel Baptist Church last Sunday were conducted by the Rev. A. G. Mill, a missionary from the Congo. Mr. Mill was accompanied by his wife, who was no stranger to Swavesey, as prior to her marriage she lived for some years in the village with her brother, Mr. Herbert Starte, who relinquished his successful business in order to take up missionary work on the Congo.

A NOVEL TRACTOR. 20th July 1926

A correspondent writes: Dwellers in High-street are getting accustomed to what we believe to be the quite unnecessary speed and noise of motor cycles which career up and down the narrow and much used thoroughfare at all hours of the day and night, and it therefore needs a shindy of exceptional variety and violence to bring people to their doors and windows. This happened last Friday morning, when a young farmer noted for his unconventional methods came along the street riding his motor combination at a fairly good speed with a horse rake in tow. Most of us laughed and enjoyed the novel sight, but the village blacksmith, who ran out of his forge on hearing the commotion, did not smile. On the contrary, having a professional interest in agricultural implements and machines he urgently besought the farmer as he rattled past him to have some mercy on his rake, and not shake it to pieces.

LAST WEEK'S CARNIVAL. 20th July 1928

The following were the prizewinners at the carnival which was held in the grounds of the Vicarage on the 12th inst., in aid of the Church Heating Apparatus Fund: Fancy dress, 1 Miss May Furniss (Boat Race), 2 Mr. Philip Banks (Charlie Chaplin), 3 Miss Banks (Turkish Lady), Miss E. Heasman (Poppy Day), Miss L. Key (Felix), who received the same number of votes; tea service, Mr. Arnold; small tea service, Mrs. Wagstaffe (Northampton); rug, Mrs. Carrier; umbrella, Mrs. R. Mitham; bean bags, Mr. H. J. Culpin; mystery parcel, Mrs. H. J. Culpin; chocolate box, Mr. Walter Thorp; doll, Mrs. Harry Wells; tangled flowers, Mrs. G. Froment; weight of cake, Mr. F. Joyce; clock golf, Mr. A. East; quoits, Mr. A. E. Thixton; hidden treasure, 1 Mr. Bullen, 2 Mr. C. Jellings, 3 Mrs. Banks, 4 Master C. Wagstaff. The carnival resulted in the satisfactory sum of £90 being raised for the Heating Apparatus Fund.

“SPECIAL” BREAD. 27th July 1928

Swavesey Baker Fined by County Magistrates.

H.K., a baker, of Swavesey, appeared at the Cambs. Divisional Police Court last Saturday morning to answer three summonses appertaining to the sale of bread. The summonses were for selling a 2lb. loaf of less weight than was purported to be sold, contrary to Sec. 1 of the Sale of Food (Weights and Measures) Act, 1926; (2) selling a loaf of bread otherwise than by net weight, contrary to Sec. 6 (1) of the above mentioned Act; (3) having in his possession for sale a loaf of bread of which the net weight was not 1lb. or an integral number of lbs., contrary to Sec. 6 (2) of the above mentioned Act.

Mr. M. Horgan (Inspector of Weights and Measures for Cambridgeshire) prosecuted. Mr. W. C. Henderson appeared for defendant, and pleaded guilty in each of the three cases, which were taken together.

His Honour Judge H. G. Farrant was in the chair, supported by Mr. J. H. S. McArthur and Mrs. Ellis.

Matthew Horgan, Inspector of Weights and Measures in the County, said that on July 7th, in the afternoon, he entered defendant's bake-house shop at Swavesey and put a loaf of bread on defendant's scale. He saw it was right, so he put it on his own scales and found it was 1¾oz. short of 2lbs. Defendant's wife claimed that this was special fancy bread, made for special people. Witness then weighed other loaves, and found that a 2lb. 10oz. loaf, made from stone flour, was two grams overweight, the next was 16 grams over, the next 10 grams over, and the next was 10 grams short. Four other loaves were short in weight, and defendant's wife said they were special fancy bread.

The Chairman, in referring to the Act, said that fancy bread must be distinctly different from the usual bread, so that people not conversant with the intricacies of the trade might not confuse it with ordinary loaves.

Witness said he bought a loaf which was stated to be fancy bread, and which he produced in Court. Continuing, witness said that later in the afternoon he met the roundsman, and three loaves were short weight, while five were overweight.

Cross-examined by Mr. Henderson, witness admitted that bread evaporated in hot weather, sometimes to the extent of six grams.

Edward Williams, of Market-street, Swavesey, said he was the roundsman, and also worked in the bakery. In the hot weather a loaf might be affected to as much as 1½ozs. Four people had special loaves each day, but there were no special ingredients.

Mr. Henderson said that his clients made the loaves for particular people, and he submitted that they were not, in that case, compelled to keep within the strict letter of the law.

The Bench decided to convict in each case, and imposed a fine of £1 in the third case. In the other two cases defendant was ordered to pay the costs.

BEQUEST TO THE CHURCH. 27th July 1928

In the will of the late Miss Laura Pook, for many years mistress of the infants' department of Swavesey National School, and a devoted church worker, the first bequest was of the sum of £50 to the Church of St. Andrew, Swavesey. The sum is therefore at the disposal of the Parochial Church Council to use as they think best, but a strong feeling has been expressed by the executors and others that it should not be used to augment any existing fund, but rather as a beginning for some future scheme for the beautifying, lighting, or other improvement to the building.

A PLUCKY RESCUE. 27th July 1928

A plucky rescue of a lad from drowning is recorded in a British Columbia journal, and as the rescuer, Stanley Hepher, although not a native of Swavesey, has close family connections with the parish, a brief account of his exploit may be of interest to our Swavesey readers. The incident took place at Boswell, on Lake Kootenay, on June 13th, a few days after young Hepher had arrived home from Moscow University, Idaho, U.S.A., and his plucky act was all the more praiseworthy as he had been in hospital suffering from rheumatism. It appears that while Stanley Hepher was talking to two friends at the end of a wharf he saw that a lad who had been playing on some logs had fallen into the water. Throwing off his coat, Hepher promptly dived in, and grasping the lad, was just able, being hampered with his clothing and heavy boots, to bring him to the side of a log. The two friends took the boy out of the water, and then helped out Hepher, who collapsed on reaching his home. Stanley Hepher is the only child of Mr. Albert Hepher, a son of the late Mr. Jesse Hepher, for many years registrar of births and deaths for the Swavesey district, and a brother of Mrs. Aldred, of London House, Swavesey. His mother is the only daughter of Mr. William Twist, of Church End, Swavesey, who happily is still alive and able to take an active interest in parish affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hephher migrated from Datchett, near Windsor, to British Columbia about eight years ago.

PARISH COUNCIL. 27th July 1928

The quarterly meeting of the Parish Council was called for 7.30 on Monday, but at that time only the Chairman (Mr. C. W. H. Cole) and three councillors, with the clerk, were present. As the standing orders required a quorum of five, the quartet decided to possess their souls in patience for a time in the hope that at least one other councillor would put in an appearance. At ten minutes past eight the chairman thought they had waited long enough, and it was agreed that the clerk should summon another meeting for 8 p.m. on Monday next. At that moment the fifth councillor appeared, stripped to his shirt and showing signs of having hastened from his work.

ANOTHER SWAVESEY FIRE. 3rd Aug. 1928

Haystack Alight in Dangerous Surroundings.

SEVERAL ACCIDENTS.

There was much excitement in Swavesey on Tuesday, when an alarm was given that a fire had broken out in Mr. Bert Hodson's farmyard in Market-street. Shortly before noon Mrs. Wagstaffe, who lives in an adjoining cottage, noticed that a new haystack was on fire, and she at once called to Mr. Hodson, who was working on the roof of the house he is erecting near the entrance to the yard.

Few men were about at the time, but women ran from neighbouring houses with pails of water and did what they could pending the arrival of the parish fire engine and its captain, Mr. E. Mitham. The engine, which was towed to the scene of action by Mr. F. Godfrey's traction engine, was soon at work in Market-street, and water was also poured on the stack from a hydrant in Wallman's lane. Supt Allen, of the County Constabulary, who was in the village, and P.C. Brooks, the local constable, were promptly on the spot, and men hastened up from all quarters, for the outbreak caused great anxiety, as in addition to sheds and sacks in the year, there were thatched houses and other inflammable buildings in close proximity, but fortunately the hay stack never burst into flames.

The centre of the stack had to be entirely cut out before the seat of the fire could be really tackled, and when after about two hours' strenuous work the bottom was reached, it was found that a large log and bushes that had been used for a base were well alight.

UNFORTUNATE ACCIDENTS.

Several untoward accidents happened. A 15-year-old London schoolboy on holiday in the village, while doing useful work on the top of the stack, was struck on the head by the handle of a pitch fork, and had to be brought down by P.C. Brooks, unconscious. The constable rendered first aid, but some time elapsed before the lad came round, and then only partially. Dr. Fraser, who attended the lad later, found he was suffering from concussion. Mr. A. L. Parish, the well known dairyman, while getting over a fence fell and broke two bones in his hand; Mr. Wagstaff, when carting hay from the stack into Market-street, fell from the top of the load, but escaped with a shaking; a young married woman, who was accidentally knocked off her bicycle by a man carrying a pole, sustained bruises and abrasions, and lastly, a horse drawing a cart laden with hay bolted from the yard, and was not stopped until it had run some distance along Cow Fen-road.

At the recent theory examination of the London College of Music (Cambridge Centre), Frederick Endersby passed in the primary division, and Vera Endersby gained a first class certificate in the elementary division. Both are pupils of Miss G. E. Lilley, A.L.C.M., organist of Hemingford Grey Church.

DR. FRASER'S MISHAP. 10th Aug. 1928

When motor cycling between Over and Willingham on Wednesday, Dr. Fraser and a motor combination came into collision, with the result that the doctor was thrown off his machine. He sustained injury to his left arm, and was severely shaken, but he managed to complete his round of visits, although in considerable pain.

OPEN-AIR WHIST DRIVE. 10th Aug. 1928

The weather being all that could be desired, the flag whist drive in aid of the parish church heating apparatus fund, which was held on Dr. Fraser's lawn on Tuesday afternoon, was a great success. The prizewinners were: 1 Mr. M. G. Proctor, 2 Miss L. Key, 3 Mrs. J. Hawkes, 4 Miss K. Banks, 5 Mrs. Banks, 6 Mr. A. M. Saunders. Mr. T. C. Heasman officiated as M.C.

FOOTBALL CLUB. 10th Aug. 1928

At the annual meeting of the Swavesey Institute F.C., it was reported that the receipts for the past season amounted to £13 13s. 4½d., and the expenditure to £13 18s. 11d. The deficit of 5s. 7½d. was, however, wiped off before the meeting concluded by donations from Mr. H. W. Whitehead and Mr. T. Savage. Mr. Whitehead's name was inadvertently omitted from the list of vice-president's which was supplied to us last week.

LORRY AND CAR IN COLLISION. 10th Aug. 1928

Mr. W. J. Hephher, when motoring from Bedford to Swavesey on Monday evening, came into collision with a Ford ton lorry, driven by Mr. A. G. Baker, of Sandy, at the cross-roads at Great Barford. The lorry caught the car broadside on, with the result that the car was considerably damaged, the front axle, radiator and dumb irons being buckled in. We understand that the car had four passengers, all of whom were luckily uninjured.

HOLIDAY PARTY IN TROUBLE. 10th Aug. 1928

A family party of ten, including two children, who had been paying a visit to relatives in Swavesey, when returning in their motor car to London on Sunday night, met with an accident near Bishop's Stortford. Their driver had pulled up to examine a signpost, and had just started again when another car, driven, it is said, at a furious rate, hit them head on. Fortunately none of the party from Swavesey was seriously injured, though all sustained cuts and bruises. Their car, however, was badly damaged, and had to be left at Bishop's Stortford, the journey to London being continued in another vehicle.

SWIMMING CLUB. 10th Aug. 1928

At a meeting held in the Memorial Hall on the 1st inst., it was decided to form a swimming club in the village, and the following officers were elected: President, Rev. C. F. Stebbing; vice-presidents, Rev. Field, Dr. Fraser, Capt. R. G. Briscoe, M.P., Messrs. W. J. Hephher, Smith (Over), E. H. Thornhill, F. W. Pontefract, H. W. Whitehead, R. Cole, A. R. Norman, R. Barwell, W. Blinkhorn, F. Stanton, A. Beales, Len Parish, Austin Coe and R. Mailer; chairman, Mr. F. F. Norman; hon. secretary and treasurer, Mr. F. Aldred; committee, Messrs. J. Prewer, A. Hephher, H. Bishop, E. Parish, H. Bridgeford and K. Williams. The objects of the club are to provide a bathing shed and a new spring diving board, and also to teach and practice the various methods of life saving and swimming. It is hoped subsequently to hold an examination under the auspices of the Royal Life Saving Society, who offer certificates for various standards of merit.

A FORMER VICAR'S WILL. 10th Aug. 1928

The Rev. T. G. L. Lushington, of the Park, Sandling, Kent, formerly of Swavesey, who died on the 7th May, aged 76 years, left unsettled property of the gross value of £18,119 13s., with net personalty £16,739 3s. 2d. The testator bequeathed the silver candelabra presented to Stephen Rumbold Lushington by the Freeman of the City of Canterbury in recognition of his services as Member of Parliament, to devolve as heirloom with the settled estates; his wearing apparel, guns, articles of sport, etc., to his brothers, requesting them to give such of the wearing apparel as they may not require to the Poor Clergy Relief Corporation; £100 each to the S.P.G., S.P.C.K., the Additional Curates' Society, and the National Society for the Education of the Poor in the Principles of the Established Church; £100 between the widow and daughter of his faithful servant George Draikes; an annuity of £40 to his faithful servant Caroline Plummer, if still in his employ; £2 for each year of service to his other servants; £1,000 each to his brothers; £1,000 to his nephew.

SWAVESEY'S SIXTH. 10th Aug. 1928

Annual Show and Sports on Thursday.

Large numbers from Swavesey, the surrounding villages and from Cambridge attended the sixth annual Swavesey and district show and sports, which were held in the Manor Field (by kind permission of Mr. Alfred Watts), on Thursday. The event was bigger than ever, the show entries being well up to standard, while the numbers in the sports section were about 50 per cent. larger than in previous years. The judges for the show were Mr. A. T. Paskett, and Mr. G. Hart (Willingham). Taking into consideration the very dry season and the drought, the fruit and vegetables were exceptionally good. The fruit classes attracted larger entries and were better in quality than last year. Onions, runner and dwarf beans and lettuce were outstanding in the vegetable classes. Cut flowers were a great improvement upon last year, roses and gladioli primulinus being better than any previous show at Swavesey. Table decorations by ladies received more entries than previously, and the arrangement was considerably better. The first three were particularly tasteful. Honey, in sections and jars, was good. In the dessert classes, Beauty of Bath apples were very nicely shown, and there were good dishes of Lane's Prince Albert and Bramley's Seedling. In the pear classes several competitors were disqualified for not keeping to the schedule, which stated that the varieties were to be named. This is a rule which might be made with advantage in all horticultural shows. There was a big entry of shallots, and the agricultural classes were another section that beat any seen at this show.

Interesting demonstrations of beekeeping were given by Mr. H. Seamark, of Willingham. The Cambridge Town Silver Prize Band, conducted by Mr. R. E. Austin, played throughout the proceedings, and also supplied music for dancing in the evening. Another dance was held in the Memorial Hall, at which Owen Adams' band played.

(Full list of committee in newspaper).

The refreshments were under the management of Mrs. Godfrey, sen., and Mrs. Walter Thorp, assisted by a number of ladies. Ice cream was in the care of Mrs. W. D. Isgrove; sweets, Miss Parsons, and Miss Dodson; toys, Miss Doris Godfrey; minerals, Mrs. J. Coulson.

Show results in newspaper.

MEMORIAL HALL. 17th Aug. 1928

The first dance of the season, organised by Mr. F. E. Taylor, and H., of Cottenham, which took place at the Memorial Hall on Saturday evening was a great success. An excellent programme of dance music was provided by the Light Blue Orchestra.

ACCIDENT TO VICAR. 17th Aug. 1928

Through a slip while inspecting the roof of the Vicarage on Friday morning, accompanied by a workman, the Vicar (Rev. C. F. Stebbing) dislocated his shoulder and had to remain on the roof of a lower part of the house until the dislocation was reduced by Dr. Brown (Dr. Fraser's locum tenens). Mr. Stebbing is progressing satisfactorily.

BEE-KEEPING DEMONSTRATION. 17th Aug. 1928

Interesting features at last week's horticultural show, to which, owing to lack of space only a brief reference could be made in our report, were the demonstrations and lectures on bee-keeping by Mr. H. Seamark, the well-known expert, of Willingham. At first there was much nervousness on the part of the spectators, but before Mr. Seamark had finished his manipulations, they gained confidence, and some of them even entered the demonstration tent and handled the combs of bees. One unusual incident caused some amusement. The Queen was lost, and for a time could not be found, and when at last she was discovered on a spectator's trouser leg, there was not unnaturally some consternation. Mr. Seamark retrieved her majesty, and, after placing her between his lips to dampen her wings so she could not again take wing, she was safely returned to the hive. A large observatory hive exhibited by Mr. Seamark also attracted some hundreds of visitors during the day.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY'S SHOW. 17th Aug. 1928

The prizes won at the Swavesey and District Horticultural Society's Show last week were distributed at the Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening. The Dodson Challenge Cup for the best collection of vegetables in the members' classes was handed to Mr. George Wayman, of Over, and the special prizes given by "The Smallholder" to the following: 1 Mr. G. Wayman, 2 P.C. L. Brooks (Swavesey), 3 Mr. W. Symonds (Swavesey), and Certificate of Merit, P.C. Bell (Boxworth). Mr. Wayman took the greatest number of prizes in the show. The successful competitors in the sports received their prizes at the hands of Mrs. Fraser before the dancing commenced on the evening of the show. In introducing Mrs. Fraser, the President of the Society (Mr. Roger C. Cole) availed himself of the opportunity of bearing testimony to the admirable work of the officials and committees responsible for the arrangements of both the show and the sports. He thanked them most cordially, and congratulated them on the great success of their efforts.

THE NORTH KENSINGTON FIRE. 17th Aug. 1928

A report will be found on another page of the disastrous fire at the Golden Cross Hotel, Portobello-road, North Kensington, in which Mrs. Rosa Thorpe, daughter of Mr. George Mitham, of Swavesey, two of her sons and a son's fiancée lost their lives, and another son was terribly injured. The funeral of the four victims took place on Wednesday at Kensal Green Cemetery, the principal mourner being Elsie Thorpe, the 13-year-old daughter, who, with her brother, aged 10, was away from home when the fire occurred. When the procession, escorted by policemen, left the Golden Cross, a crowd of about 5,000 persons had assembled, and the entire route to the cemetery was lined with people, the majority being women. The floral tributes were over 150 in number. Mrs. Thorpe was buried in the same grave as her husband, who died in Swavesey in August, 1925, while the others were interred in another grave, Walter Thorpe and Betty Falkner, his fiancée, being laid side by side. The greatest sympathy is expressed in Swavesey with Mr. G. Mitham and the family in their terrible bereavement.

HOTEL FIRE TRAGEDY. 17th Aug. 1928

Licensee a Daughter of Swavesey Carpenter.

The four people who lost their lives in the fire at the Golden Cross Hotel, Kensington, W., early on Friday morning are more closely connected with Swavesey than Chatteris.

Mrs. Rose Thorpe, the licensee of the hotel, was a native of Swavesey, and was the daughter of Mr. George Mitham, a carpenter, of Middle Watch, Swavesey. Her husband, Walter Thorpe, died in August 1925, while on a visit to his father-in-law in Swavesey. He was taken ill in a Swavesey shop and died within a few hours. Two of the other victims, Walter Thorpe, a son, and Betty Faulkner left Swavesey only last Saturday after a fortnight's holiday with his relatives.

Mr. G. Mitham on Friday received a telegram informing him of the tragedy, and asking him to come at once, and Ernest Mitham, his brother, left by the next train to London.

INJURED YOUTH STILL VERY ILL.

Ernest Thorpe, who was severely burned on Friday in the fire at the Golden Cross public-house, Kensington, was reported to be a little better this morning. He passed a fairly good night but is still dangerously ill.

PISCATORIAL. 24th Aug. 1928

Mr. J. Clarke, of Willesden, who has been spending a fortnight's holiday in Swavesey, has had good sport with roach (1½lb.), chub (3lb.), rudd (1½lb.)

HOSPITAL COLLECTION. 24th Aug. 1928

The house-to-house collection in aid of Addenbrooke's Hospital which has recently taken place in the village resulted in £17 14s. 2d. being raised. The collectors were: Mrs. Aldred, Mrs. Beaumont, Mrs. Cooksey, Mrs. Dean, Miss F. Gaunt, Mrs. F. Hemington, and Mrs. Walter Thorp.

SCHOOL TREAT. 24th Aug. 1928

The children attending the parish church Sunday School spent a happy time in the Vicarage grounds and an adjoining field on Thursday week on the occasion of their annual summer treat. After an excellent tea on the lawn, parents and friends joined the youngsters, and there were sports, cricket and other games.

BILLIARD LEAGUE. 24th Aug. 1928

The annual meeting of the Swavesey and District Billiards League was held in the Memorial Hall on Wednesday evening, delegates attending from Fenstanton, Huntingdon, St. Ives (Liberal, Literary and British Legion), Willingham and Swavesey. Godmanchester sent a letter of apology for their absence, but intimated their desire to join the league for the coming season. As St. Ives Conservative Club have resigned their membership of the league, having lost their clubhouse, the Literary Institute (St. Ives) were unanimously elected to fill their place. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mr. W. A. Bignell; chairman, Mr. G. F. Allan (St. Ives); vice-chairman, Mr. L. Brooks; hon. secretary, Mr. C. Wood; hon. treasurer, Mr. H. J. Culpin. The following were elected vice-presidents, subject to their acceptance of office: Messrs. G. Fuller, G. F. Allan, E. Kiddle, F. M. Warren (St. Ives), F. Jeeps, A. Rogers, E. R. Lewis (Willingham), C. F. Banks (Swavesey), F. Salter (Fenstanton). Sir Arthur G. Dilley (Huntingdon). The rules as passed for last session were discussed, and with a few minor alterations, were agreed upon for the coming season. It was agreed, however, that first division teams should play 120 instead of 100 up, the second division to remain as before. The secretary was instructed to write to a few clubs in the surrounding neighbourhood, and invite them to join the league, as it was felt two or three more entrants would add to the interest and pleasure of all. New entrants must, however, communicate with the secretary before Sept. 8th, as fixtures will be arranged very shortly after that date.

THE HARVEST IN CAMBS. 24th Aug. 1928

Independent Press Special Reports.

CROPS WELL UP TO AVERAGE.

For many years it has been the practice of the "Independent Press" to publish reports concerning the harvest from prominent agriculturalists in the Cambridgeshire district. Reports of this year's harvest are appended, and from them it will be seen that while the writers differ somewhat as regards particular crops, the general consensus of opinion would appear to be that, given favourable weather to enable the crops to be "safely gathered in," they will be quite up to, and in some instances better than, the average of recent years.

Some of the writers speak of the low prices obtained by farmers for their produce, as compared with the wages they have to pay the workers, and a complaint comes from Soham of the reduction in the price given for sugar beet, which, the writer thinks, may result in less being grown in future. Another farmer urges that breweries now paying large dividends should treat the farmers fairly, and not, as he understands some have already done, fill the maltings with foreign barley.

SWAVESEY.

There is not now a large quantity of arable land used for corn growing in the parish of Swavesey, so much of it having been laid down to grass and a lot now used for fruit growing, etc. Wheat this year is not a heavy crop. Some of the land where sown with wheat was injured by flood, and last winter being very wet, it had to be sown with other corn, or the crop mended. Wheat might yield on average 7 or 8 sacks per acre, barley 8 to 10 sacks per acre, oats sown in the spring 12 to 14 sacks per acre. Beans and peas are fairly good, although the former have suffered a little from the fly. Hay was a good crop, and nearly all secured in excellent condition. Fruit, that is plums and strawberries, in most of the orchards a good crop, and those sent to the markets early in the season realised good prices. Roots in general came up a good plant, and with a continuation of fine weather, will be quite up to an average crop. – Robinson Mitham.

WEDDING. 24th Aug. 1928

Linford – Brooks.

A pretty wedding of considerable local interest took place on Monday afternoon at Swavesey parish church, the bride being Miss Edna Helen Brooks, only daughter of P.C. Brooks (late of Ickleton) and Mrs. Brooks, and the bridegroom Mr. Joseph Linford, younger surviving son of Mr. and Mrs. Jethro Linford, of Swavesey.

The Rev. J. Selwyn Sharp (rector of Rattlesden, Suffolk, and formerly vicar of Swavesey), assisted by the Rev. C. F. Stebbing (Vicar of Swavesey) officiated. The service was choral, the hymns sung being "Love Divine" and "O Father, all creating," and Mr. A. M. Hoppitt, organist at All Saints' Church, Cambridge, who was at the organ, played suitable voluntaries, while the large congregation was assembling, and Mendelssohn's Wedding March as the bridal party left the church.

The bride, accompanied by her father, who gave her away, was met at the church door by the clergy and choir. Her charming dress was of white crepe de chine, with georgette sleeves, the skirt being caught at the side with a paste buckle. She wore a veil and orange blossom (lent by a friend) and silver brocade shoes. Her bouquet was of pale pink carnations. The bridesmaids, Miss Vera Button (friend of the bride), and Miss Agnes Linford (sister of the bridegroom) were attired in pretty beige crepe suede dresses, caught up at the side with paste buckles, and hats to match trimmed red. They carried bouquets of red roses. Mr. Edward Williams was best man.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the Memorial Hall, where between 40 and 50 relatives and guests were entertained, and later the happy couple left for Sutton, Isle of Ely, where they are making their home.

FOOTBALL CLUB. 31st Aug. 1928

The Swavesey Institute Football Club will open their season on Saturday, Sept. 29th, with a friendly game at home with Richford United. They will play their first League match with Coton Reserves (away) on October 6th, and will entertain Milton in the first round of the Minor Cup competition on October 20th. The club has only three vacant dates up to April 13 and home and away fixtures have to be made with Ely St. Mary's, who were not represented at the fixture meeting.

THE COLLECTION FOR ADDENBROOKE'S. 31st Aug. 1928

A correspondent writes: This year's house-to-house collection in Swavesey, in aid of Addenbrooke's Hospital, announced in the "Independent Press" last week, works out at about 5d. per head of the population of the parish (1921 Census). Swavesey's contribution by means of this collection, I believe, compares fairly favourably with the house-to-house collections under the auspices of the County Organisation Fund in other Cambridgeshire villages, but can it be regarded as adequate when the number of Swavesey people who have received, and are still receiving, benefit from the hospital is taken into consideration? If half the population contributed one penny a week regularly about £27 a year could be raised, while 2½d a week would bring in £68, the amount realised by the parade on Feast Sunday last May.

SUCCESSFUL BAKERS. 7th Sept. 1928

Two Swavesey bakers were among the successful exhibitors at Sandy Show on Thursday week, Mr. A. J. Freestone, of Middle Watch, being awarded third prize for commercial cottage bread, and Mr. W. D. Isgrove, of High-street, second prize for round fruit cake, and third prize for slab fruit cake.

GERANIUM DAY. 7th Sept. 1928

The sum of £3 16s. was collected in Swavesey on Geranium Day for the National Institute for the Blind. The collectors were Misses Netta Mustill, Ivy Hodson, Grace Thorp, Yvonne and Joyce Lee, Hilda Hephher, Kathleen Carrier, Hilda Culpin and Elsie Godfrey.

ADVERT. 14th Sept. 1928

THE CINEMA will re-open at the Memorial Hall on Friday, September 21st, at 7.30 p.m. Betty Compson in "Love me and the World is Mine."

SUCCESS AT BAKER'S EXHIBITION. 14th Sept. 1928

Mr. W. D. Isgrove, baker and confectioner, High-street, Swavesey, whose successes at Sandy Show were recorded in our last issue, gained still further honours at the Bakers' Exhibition, held this week at the Agricultural Hall, London, where he was awarded first prize for Dundee cake, was highly commended for Genoa slab cake and mixed fruit cake, and was commended for round fruit cake.

PARISH CHURCH. 14th Sept. 1928

In the Parish Magazine for September it is reported that the Parish Church Heating Apparatus Fund has been closed until it is seen whether any more money is needed, as an application has been made for a grant, which should bring the fund up to the required total. The report continues: "A word or two in advance about this heating apparatus for next winter. We must not expect that the church will be as warm as our dwellinghouses, for this result we should have needed the disfigurement of overhead pipes and a much larger outlay. On the other hand some seats in the church may be unpleasantly warm. If this is the case, application must be made to the churchwardens, who will be able to make rearrangements of sittings in due course. One other little matter. There are three or four small air pipes in different parts of the church. These are to allow the escape of air. There is quite a lot of air in cold water which comes off as the water is warmed, and sometimes pushes a little water out of the air pipes. So that if at any time there is a little splash, there is no occasion for alarm. It is not steam, the water is not boiling and there is no danger. In fact, it happened the other day when there was no fire in the boiler."

ADDENBROOKE'S HOSPITAL. 14th Sept. 1928

House-to-House Collections in Swavesey District.

The total amount realised this year for Addenbrooke's Hospital by the house-to-house collections, under the auspices of the County Organisation Fund, in the villages in the Swavesey division, of which Mrs. J. F. Cooksey, Swavesey Manor, is the vice-president, was £86 5s. 10d., against £84 4s. 2d. collected last year. Swavesey collected £17 14s. 2d.

FOR SWAVESEY SHIVERERS. 21st Sept. 1928

I wonder who wrote the notes in the Parish Magazine about the Swavesey Parish Church heating apparatus? They are wonderfully descriptive and so full of promise that I am moved to comment upon the writer's comments – in the same spirit, be it said. "Some seats in the church may be unpleasantly warm. . . . " Well, a few thermometers hung up here and there, and once can suit one's comfort to a "degree." Then again, if it turns chilly about mid-day, a move can be made to a warmer quarter. The report goes on: "There are three or four small air pipes in different parts of the church. These are to allow the escape of air. There is quite a lot of air in cold water which comes off as the water is warmed, and sometimes pushes a little water out of the air pipes. So that if at any time there is a little splash, there is no occasion for alarm. It is not steam, the water is not boiling, and there is no danger. In fact it happened the other day when there was no fire in the boiler."

Apparently all sorts of thrilling things are likely to happen, for I don't suppose the apparatus has been in use long enough to play all its tricks. For instance, no mention is made of a throbbing noise like forty thousand bees working overtime. This, of course, is air in the pipe, and may even happen (in summer time) if there is no pipe.

Then as to that fire in the boiler. No wonder the works are a bit skittish; anyone ought to know the boiler is the place for the water, not the coal. The writer does not say what would happen if the whole lot blows up – I suppose it will be quite all right if there is no water in the pipe!

NATIONAL SCHOOL. 21st Sept. 1928

The National School was re-opened on Monday after the harvest holidays.

THE LATE MISS POOK. 21st Sept. 1928

A massive cross of white marble standing on three steps has been placed on the grave of the late Miss Pook in Swavesey churchyard. On the steps in the inscription: "Laura Pook, born 3rd June, 1857; died 4th May, 1928. Infants' Schoolmistress at Swavesey 1890 – 1922. Jesu Mercy."

OBITUARY. 21st Sept. 1928

The funeral of Mrs. Eliza Garner, widow of Mr. David Garner, and daughter of the late Mr. Edward Bull, of Swavesey and previously of Fen Drayton, whose death at the age of 62 years occurred early on Sunday morning, took place at Swavesey parish church on Tuesday.

PARTICULAR BAPTISTS. 21st Sept. 1928

Harvest thanksgiving services were held at the Particular Baptist Chapel on Tuesday, the special preacher in the afternoon and evening being Mr. Wise, of Chatteris. There was a well-attended public tea between the services. The collections throughout the day were in aid of the chapel funds.

SMELLS O' SWAVESEY. 21st Sept. 1928

A correspondent writes: This village is getting a reputation for 'spicy breezes,' but not from Ceylon's Isle. One day last week a passer-by counted seven distinct perfumes, such as Rimmel or Pears could not produce, making one think of "Sabeian odours from the spicy shore of Araby the blest." Spurgeon once said he had heard it stated that a good stink is counted healthy. If this is so, then our locality must be blessed indeed, and this must account for our immunity from epidemic. – N.

PARISH COUNCIL. 21st Sept. 1928

A special meeting of the Parish Council was held at the Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening, the following councillors attending: Mr. C. H. Parish (vice-chairman), who presided, Messrs. P. Burton, C. Dean, F. Hephher, P. Parish and W. Twist. The business included the issue of a precept on the Rating Authority for £18 for the expenses of the Council during the six months ending 31st March next, and the consideration of an application from the captain of the fire engine for his salary to be increased from 30s. to £3 per annum. The Council, on the proposition of Mr. Twist, seconded by Mr. P.

Parish, unanimously decided that the application should be granted, and that the increased salary should date from 1st October. After bills amounting to £4 17s. 10d. had been passed for payment, some conversation ensued respecting the delay in payment by an insurance company of men employed at the fire in Market-street on July 31st.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 21st Sept. 1928

The annual choir services took place at Bethel Baptist Church on Sunday, when the pastor, Rev. T. B. Field, preached to good congregations. The music at the morning service included solos by Miss D. Godfrey and Mr. Canham, sacred songs by Misses Rose Taylor and Constance Tomlin and Mr. F. Warren, and the Te Deum by the united choir. At a special sacred concert in the afternoon the Pastor, who presided, in the name of the congregation thanked the friends from Histon and Cambridge who had so readily given their valuable services. The following well filled the programme: Misses C. Tomlin, R. Taylor, Doris Aldred, Messrs. T. White and F. Warren. The choir also sang an anthem. It was regretted that the choir secretary, Mr. F. Aldred, was absent owing to illness. Judging by the attendance it was evident that Swavesey people look forward with great interest to this annual festival of song at Bethel.

Mr. Challis, who had reached the age of 70, was for many years captain of the Swavesey fire engine, retiring only a few months ago. He leaves a widow, but no children.

SING A SONG O' SWAVESEY. 28th Sept. 1928

Now about the "Smells o' Swavesey." A correspondent wrote last week about them, but my dear sir, you missed a glorious opportunity! I mean, you (that is, the correspondent) evidently want everyone to know about the Seven Stinks o' Swavesey, but it is not a bit of use writing to the papers about it. No, sir. The only way is to make a song about it and get someone like Van der Dam or Stchinkowsky to set a fox-trot tune to it. I had had to cut out the music, as it takes up such a lot of room, but I suggest some word like the following might catch on, especially with a nice Oriental title like "Gee Sum Pong." Try it over on your mouth organ, sir, and see if you do not agree with me – or if it fails to agree with you:

If you get a smell of tannery
Mixed with your strawberry jammery –
You're in Swavesey.

If the niff, it knocks you over,
And you reel like La Pavlova –
You're in Swavesey

If you go to pick a rose
With a peg upon your nose
And a gas mask slung at "ready" round your neck;

If the smell stops your hiatus;
Chokes your breathing apparatus –

You're in Swavesey, dear old Swavesey, yes by heck!

I should try singing this in the street until it becomes well known or is sung on the wireless, or you may get run in for disorderly conduct or using unseen language!

LICENCE TRANSFERRED. 5th Oct. 1928

At the Cambs. Divisional Bench on Saturday, before his Honour Judge Farrant (in the chair) and other magistrates, the licence of the New Inn, Swavesey, was transferred from Edward Oakman to Richard Aves Cannell, gamekeeper, of Lode. PRIMITIVE METHODISTS. 5th Oct. 1928

Harvest thanksgiving services were held at the Primitive Methodist Chapel on Sunday, the Rev. R. T. Corlett, circuit minister, being the preacher. On Monday a public tea was followed by a service of song, entitled "A merry evening with Joe Wentworth," given by members of the St. Ives Sisterhood reading the narrative. Mr. Hindes presided at the organ. The collections and proceeds from the tea and sale of the contributions of fruit and vegetables were devoted to the chapel funds.

THE BROTHERHOOD. 5th Oct. 1928

A well-attended meeting took place in the Memorial Hall on Sunday afternoon, the occasion being the inaugural gathering for the season of the Swavesey Brotherhood and Sisterhood. The President, Rev. T. B. Field, occupied the chair, and Brethren S. Mitham, Garner, Godfrey, Beaumont and Canham took part in the proceedings. Capt. Staley, M.C., of Royston (Federation secretary) gave a very practical address on "The man gets what he is out for." Mrs. E. Baker, of Royston, sang two solos, which were much appreciated, and Mr. L.I. Nicholson contributed a finely-rendered violin solo. The next meeting is fixed for November 4th, when a lady speaker is expected.

TRIP TO THE ZOO. 5th Oct. 1928

Forty-three children attending the National School, with five of their teachers, spent a happy and instructive day at the Zoological Gardens, London, on Saturday. Leaving Swavesey in a Lord Astor charabanc at 8.30, the party reached Regents Park about 10.30, and at once began their tour of inspection, and before they left on the homeward journey had paid a visit to every part of the gardens, including the wonderful new aquarium, and had had the pleasure of meeting two or three Swavesey people now resident in London. The cost of the outing was met by the proceeds from an entertainment given by the schoolchildren in the spring, and by subscriptions from the teachers.

LATE MR. S. CHALLIS. 5th Oct. 1928

The funeral of Mr. Stephen Challis, carpenter, etc., Wallman's-lane, whose death, at the age of 70 years, after a long and painful illness, was announced last week, took place at Swavesey Parish Church on Saturday afternoon, the Vicar (Rev. C. F. Stebbing) officiating. The mourners included Mrs. Challis (widow), Mr. Arthur Gilby (step son), Mr. and Mrs. William Payne, Whittlesea (brother-in-law and sister), Mrs. Hitch (sister), Mrs. J. Gilby (sister-in-law), Mrs. E. Dean, Hartford, Mrs. W. Mountford, Cambridge (nieces), Mr. and Mrs. C. Adams, Over (nephew and niece), Mr. and Mrs. John Thoday (cousins). There were no flowers, by request. Messrs. R. Mitham and Sons were the undertakers.

THE INSTITUTE. 5th Oct. 1928

The annual meeting of the Swavesey Institute, which was held in the Memorial Hall on Wednesday evening, was fairly well attended. The secretary read the report of the year's working, and presented the balance sheet for the year 1927-1928, which showed a balance in hand of £7 9s. 2d. The Rev. T. B. Field, in moving the adoption of the report and balance sheet thanked the secretary and caretaker for the way in which their duties had been carried out, and Mr. L. Brooks, who seconded, impressed upon the members the vital importance of playing the game in a sportsmanlike manner with the officials and each other if the Institute was to be a success. The following officers were then elected: President, Mr. W. A. Bignell; vice-presidents, Rev. T. B. Field, Rev. C. F. Stebbing, Dr. S. Fraser, Mr. Proctor and Mr. Blinkhorn; chairman, Mr. S. Clark; hon. secretary and treasurer, Mr. C. Wood. The committee of last year were re-elected en bloc.

H. Dodson, W. Godfrey and V. Parrish assistant officers. All girls over ten years of age may join.

RESTRICTED WATER SUPPLY. 12th Oct. 1928

Owing, it is understood, to a burst in the main at, or near, the Pumping Station at Bourn, the public water supply in Swavesey was more or less restricted during last week-end. It was fortunate that the accident did not happen on the occasion of a fire in the village, for if that had been the case the consequences might have been very serious, as in two, at least, of the large ponds there is very little water, but plenty of mud.

NARROW ESCAPE OF BULLOCKS. 12th Oct. 1928

On Monday, as the 8.23 a.m. up passenger train was running into Swavesey Station, two bullocks, which were being driven into the yard for despatch to market, bolted across the platform and down the slope on to the line in front of the engine. Fortunately, the engine driver, who apparently saw the animals, still further reduced his speed, and the Stationmaster (Mr. Whitehead) succeeded in diverting them on to the down line, but as it was one beast missed the engine buffers by about an inch.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY. 12th Oct. 1928

On Monday evening the Young People's Society connected with the Bethel Baptist Church commenced its new session with a well-attended social. The President (Rev. T. B. Field) occupied the chair, and the following contributed to the programme: Pianoforte duet, Misses Coulson and V. Parrish; readings, President and Mr. K. Williams; solos, Mrs. Canham, Miss Godfrey and Miss Coulson; recitations, Mrs. and Miss Savage, and Miss G. Dodson; dialogue, Misses L. Spearman, Savage and G. Dodson. An interesting list of lectures has been arranged, and the Rev. J. Williams, of Cottenham, is expected on Monday next.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 12th Oct. 1928

Harvest thanksgiving services combined with the pastor's 3rd anniversary took place at Bethel Baptist Church on Thursday, October 4th. The Rev. G. Jones, of Bluntisham, preached in the afternoon an eloquent sermon from the words "The Lord of Harvest," after which nearly 100 friends sat down to a well-provided tea at which the Rev. E. P. Blackaby, of Willingham, gave an address. The evening meeting was presided over by Mr. F. Kirby, and addresses were given by the Revs. H. G. Baker (Cambridge), G. Jones, G. Bird (Over), and the pastor, Rev. T. B. Field. Mrs. Canham and Miss Godfrey beautifully rendered solos and the choir contributed an anthem. The church was effectively decorated by loving hands and the generous gifts of vegetables and fruit have been sent to Addenbrooke's Hospital.

PUTTING THE CLOCKS BACK. 12th Oct. 1928

The change from summer to winter time on Sunday led to some amusing happenings in and around Swavesey. In one house the alteration of the time had apparently been overlooked, for the family left home at 9.20 a.m. on their five minutes' walk to the Parish Church for the 10.30 a.m. service. But the most remarkable happenings occurred in connection with the Swavesey milk depot, where some of the milk from neighbouring villages arrived long before the appointed time, one dairy farmer having forgotten to put his clock back, while another advanced his an hour, and it is reported that a third, owing to a serious misapprehension of what was required, had put his time-keeper on two hours. He, however, thought that something was amiss, for he is said to have remarked to a companion when milking that it was an uncommonly dark morning.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY. 12th Oct. 1928

A meeting of the Swavesey and District Horticultural Society was held at the Memorial Hall on Wednesday evening to receive from the treasurers the financial report of the annual show and sports on August 9th. Mr. C. W. Hines presided. From the report it appeared that including a balance of £68 6s. 11d. brought from last year, the receipts amounted to £227 17s., and the expenditure to £138 15s. 11d., leaving an increased balance to the credit of the society of £89 1s. 1d. It was mentioned that £57 1s. 5d. represented gate money, and that the net profit on the show was £20 14s. 2d. The meeting concluded with votes of thanks to the joint treasurers, the ladies who assisted at the show, and to Mr. Alfred Watts for kindly placing Manor Field at the disposal of the society. There was only a very small attendance of members.

WHY THE BELLS WERE SILENT. 12th Oct. 1928

Mr. Edward Williams, sexton and clerk at the parish church, writes: "The absence of sound from the belfry after the harvest thanksgiving service last Thursday evening was the cause of several people asking 'Where are the ringers?' As one who is fully aware of the facts I should be glad to be allowed to explain why a peal was not rung as usual on the night of the festival. The bearings and frame are in such a very bad state that it is foolish and dangerous to ring the bells except when absolutely necessary. In the first place a ringer might be injured through over-straining, and secondly one or more of the six bells might fall and get cracked and thus spoil one of the finest toned peals of bells for many miles round. If the bells were put in order I am confident the ringers would be as eager to ring them as in days gone by when Swavesey ringers set an example to the district, but to what is necessary would cost money, and unfortunately the money that has been raised for our fine old church during recent years, and is still being raised, has been, and, for some time to come, will be used for purposes that are considered of more urgent importance than the bells.”

HARVEST FESTIVAL. 12th Oct. 1928

The Parish Church was beautifully decorated with flowers, fruit, etc., for the Harvest Festival on October 4th. The services included a celebration of Holy Communion at 7 a.m., and Evensong at 7 p.m., when the congregation was exceptionally large, even for a harvest festival. The service, at which the Vicar, Rev. C. F. Stebbing, officiated, was bright and hearty, and the music, in addition to well-known harvest hymns, included Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis (Clare) and the anthem, “Ye shall dwell in the land.” The Rev. C. G. Poynder, Rector of Boxworth, preached an excellent sermon. The festival was continued on Sunday, and at evensong, when the Rev. E. C. Baldwin, Hon. Canon of Ely, was the special preacher, and Thursday’s music was repeated, there was again a large congregation. At the children’s service in the afternoon gifts of flowers, fruit, eggs, jam, etc., were brought by the young people. The collections throughout the festival were, as usual, for the benefit of Addenbrooke’s Hospital, except on Sunday evening, when the offertory was devoted to the Church Expenses Fund. The gifts of fruit, vegetables, etc., used in the decorations have been forwarded to Addenbrooke’s, and the children’s offerings to St. Ives Infirmary.

WEDDING. 12th Oct. 1928

Cloughton – Whybrow.

The marriage took place at Swavesey Parish Church on the 1st inst., the Rev. C. F. Stebbing, vicar, officiating, of Miss Eva Gladys Peace Whybrow, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Whybrow, of Hog Pasture Gate House, Swavesey, and Mr. Sidney Percy Cloughton, second son of Mr. and Mrs. George Cloughton, Banister Green, Felsted, Essex.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in a pretty dress of white georgette with veil and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and fern and wore a necklace of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom. She was attended by her sisters, Misses Irene and Frances Whybrow, who were attired in mauve silk rayon, trimmed with gold lace, and mob caps to match. They carried bouquets of white chrysanthemums and mauve statice, and wore pearl necklaces, the gift of the bridegroom. Mr. George Cloughton, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the Gate House, where about 70 guests were entertained, and later the happy couple left for their honeymoon at St. Leonards-on-Sea. The presents included a cheque from the bridegroom's employer, an eight-day oak striking clock from the staff at Messrs. Hicks Bros.' garage, Braintree, a case of stainless knives and forks and a cheque from the staff at Felsted School, where the bride had been employed for 11 years, a case of silver tea spoons from the school, and a cruet from the bride's eldest brother in Canada.

PARISH COUNCIL. 19th Oct. 1928

The only item on the agenda of the quarterly meeting of the Parish council, which was held at the Memorial Hall on Monday evening, was a letter from Ald. J. W. Ellis relating to the necessity for cleaning out the school and chapel ponds, both of which, he complained, were choked with mud and vegetation. After some discussion it was decided that both ponds should be raked out as far as practicable, and Messrs. F. Hepher and P. Parish were appointed a committee to arrange for the work being done with as little expense to the parish as possible. The following Councillors were present: Mr. C. W. H. Cole (chairman), Messrs. P. Burton, W. Burton, F. Hepher, P. Parish and W. Twist.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 19th Oct. 1928

A branch of the National Federation of Women's Institutes was formed in Swavesey at a meeting attended by about 50 ladies, which was held in the school on Friday. Mrs. Gray (president of the County Federation) and Mrs. Pemberton (president of the Trumpington W.A.) gave addresses on the aims of Women's Institutes, and suggested various ways of running them. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Fraser; vice-president, Mrs. Aldred; secretary, Mrs. Proctor; treasurer, Miss Cole. A committee of 14 was also appointed. It was decided that the monthly meetings should be held on the second Tuesday in each month, the first to take place on November 13th. Anyone not able to be present at last Friday's meeting will be able to join the Institute at the next meeting, after having been proposed and seconded.

B.W.T.A. 19th Oct. 1928

The annual meetings of the Swavesey Branch of the B.W.T.A. were held at Bethel Baptist Church on the 11th inst. There was a good attendance at the business meeting in the afternoon, at which all last year's officers were re-elected for the ensuing twelve months, with the exception that Miss Hilda Dodson was elected hon. secretary in place of Mrs. J. Day, resigned, and Mrs. J. Norman was appointed a vice-president. At the tea that followed upwards of 30 were present. A public meeting was held in the evening, under the presidency of Mrs. Blackaby, of Willingham, at which a stirring address on "Our ideals and how to reach them" was given by Miss Porritt (National L.W.R. supt.), and the solos, "Rest and Peace" and "The Lost Chord," were beautifully rendered by Mrs. Smith and Miss Langan, of Willingham, respectively. A collection was taken at the close of the meeting.

AGRICULTURAL DISCUSSION SOCIETY. 19th Oct. 1928

A fairly well attended meeting was held in the school on Friday evening to consider the question of the formation of an Agricultural Discussion Society for Swavesey and the surrounding district. Mr. Leslie, county agricultural organiser, who was in the chair, having explained the objects in view, it was decided that a society should be formed, and the following officials were elected: President, Mr. R. Mailer (Boxworth); vice-presidents, Mr. F. Kirby (Over), Rev. C. F. Stebbing, Rev. T. B. Field, Alderman J. W. Ellis (Swavesey), Mr. F. Stanton (Lolworth), hon. secretary, Mr. C. Wood; hon. treasurer, Mr. A. Day, jun.; committee, Messrs. C. W. H. Cole (Swavesey), D. W. Parish (Fen Drayton), E. Webb, P. Watts (Over), J. Scambler (Conington), J. Mitham (Lolworth), B. Brooke (Childerley). It was agreed that the annual subscription should be one shilling, farmworkers and holders than less than three acres being admitted as free members. Meetings will take place on alternate Fridays in Swavesey School at 7 p.m. The first lecture, however, will be given on Saturday, 27th October, by Mr. Boutflour on "The Feeding and Management of Dairy Cows," when it is hoped as many as possible who are interested will be present.

DON'TS FOR DARK NIGHTS. 19th Oct. 1928

Mr. A. E. Welch, of Boxworth End, has compiled a list of "Don'ts" for dark nights, but unfortunately it is too lengthy for publication in extensor in these columns. One of the "Don'ts," which are written in a vein of satire, is addressed to pedestrians who prefer to walk in the middle of the road instead of on the footpath, and by so doing annoy motorists and cyclists. (Mr. Welch rides an ordinary bicycle). Another "Don't" has reference to an undesirable practice that is on the increase in Market-street. For the information of those of our readers who are not acquainted with Swavesey, it may be mentioned that with the exception of one lamp at Church End, maintained by a public-spirited parishioner, there are now no street lamps in the village, and that Market-street is a wide and dark thoroughfare running from the narrow main street. It is the site of the annual "Feast," and possibly of the old-time market for which a charter was granted by Henry III, to the Zouch family in 1243. This "Don't" reads as follows: "If you imagine yourself an A1 cyclist, don't hide your light under a bushel, but collect your friends and take them into Market-street, and there demonstrate your skill. Ride slowly under the shadow of the walls, then dart out suddenly into the middle of the road and circle slowly. An oil lamp of inferior quality is best suited for the demonstration. Pedestrians and other cyclists using the road will admire your skill."

After dodging chairs and other furniture, it was finally driven out through the front door and back to its doom.

Austin, of Cottenham, who delighted his audience with a racy address upon "Curiosities of the Pulpit," instancing such names as Berridge, Sutton, C. Hill, Spurgeon, Billy Bray, Peter Mackenzie, Gipsy Smith, Lorenzo Dow and others. The Rev. T. B. Field presided. At the close a hearty vote of thanks was accorded the lecturer, on the motion of Mr. J. Day, seconded by Mr. W. Daisley. The Rev. H. A. Batstone, of Histon, is expected next Monday.

LABOUR PARTY MEETING. 2nd Nov. 1928

That Swavesey people take a considerable interest in politics was shown by the attendance at the Labour Party's public meeting, which was held in the Memorial Hall on Monday evening. Mr. A. P. Payne presided. Mr. G. T. Garratt, in course of an address on the party's policy, stated that now was the time to consider thoroughly the merits and demerits of the various policies, and the results of four years of Conservative government. It was, he said, far better to judge a party on its record, and as politics affected every village and every home, there was no need for persons to say that they were not concerned. Mr. Garratt also dealt with questions of housing, roads, education, and land drainage. Mr. S. Dye also spoke.

BRITISH LEGION. 2nd Nov. 1928

The annual meeting of the Swavesey and District branch of the British Legion, which was held at the Memorial Hall on October 24th, was well attended. The balance sheet, submitted by the treasurer, which showed a substantial sum in hand, and the secretary's report, which stated that the branch had made good progress, and that there had been a steady increase in membership during the year, were adopted, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing 12 months: President, Mr. W. A. Bignell; vice-presidents, Dr. Fraser, Mr. J. H. Elliott (Boxworth) and F. F. Norman; chairman Mr. R. Barwell; vice-chairman, Mr. F. Prior; treasurer, Mr. P. Lee; hon. sec. Mr. H. H. Berryman; committee, Dr. Fraser, Messrs. J. Hall, F. Hepher, F. F. Norman, E. Prior, T. Savage, G. Topham and S. Bath (Boxworth); auditors, Messrs. P. Burton and H. Turner; relief committee, Dr. Fraser, Messrs. S. Bath, F. Hepher, T. Savage, H. Turner, L. Brooks, A. W. Melbourne; delegate on county committee, Mr. A. W. Melbourne. In an interesting statement respecting the new scheme of the British Legion and United Services Fund Benevolent Committee, the secretary explained how cases of distress had been helped in this district. It was agreed that members of the branch should attend services of remembrance on Sunday, November 11th, at the Memorial Hall (undenominational) at 2.30 p.m., and at the Parish Church at 6.30 p.m. Votes of thanks to the Chairman, Treasurer and Secretary for their services conclude the meeting.

AGRICULTURAL DISCUSSION SOCIETY. 2nd Nov. 1928

The first of the lectures arranged by the Swavesey and District Agricultural Discussion Society was given in the School on Saturday evening by Mr. R. Bontflour, of the Harper Adams' Agricultural College at Newport, Salop, who dealt with the feeding and management of dairy cows. Mr. Bontflour, who is the great authority on this subject, had an audience of between 40 and 50 persons from Swavesey and the surrounding district, all of whom were keenly interested in the subject. The lecture was very interesting and most instructive to all, whether engaged in dairy farming or otherwise. Mr. Bontflour began by stating that he intended to give the audience a few shocks, and undoubtedly he succeeded when he made the assertion that they did not know what a cow was, and then proceeded to enlighten them on the subject. A discussion followed the lecture, and many and various questions were rained on the lecturer, to all of which he returned suitable replies or explanations. He impressed on his hearers the necessity for consulting Mr. Leslie and Mr. Sayce, the two county agricultural experts, in all their difficulties with stock or manuring, as both these gentlemen were extremely able and competent guides, and he hoped his lecture would have the effect of stimulating the interest of his audience, and result in their obtaining a great increase in the milk yield from their herd of cows. At the next meeting of the society, which will be held in the School on Friday, November 9th, a "Grass Land" film will be shown by Mr. J. Dunlop, British Basic Slag, Ltd., London.

WHIST DRIVE. 2nd Nov. 1928

Sixteen tables were in play at the Flag whist drive, which was held at the Memorial Hall on October 25th, in aid of the Parish Church Repair Fund. At the winning table were Mrs. J. Prior, Miss Stebbing and the Rev. C. F. Stebbing, who had 38 flags to their credit, Messrs. J. Hall, Careless and A. Kester coming second with 29 flags. The booby prizes fell to Mrs. Barwell, Mrs. H. G. Key and Miss Barwell (score minus five flags). The Vicar officiated as M.C.

FUNERAL. 2nd Nov. 1928

MR. JAMES S. GOAD.

The funeral of Mr. James Stuart Goad, who passed away at Grove House, Stretham, early on Tuesday morning, took place at Stretham yesterday (Thursday) afternoon.

Shortly after 2 o'clock the cortege left the house for the cemetery, the widow and members of the family being conveyed in cars.

The service was conducted by the Rev. G. J. Chamberlain, of Ely, in the presence of a large assembly of friends.

The mourners included: Mrs. J. S. Goad (widow), Messrs. T. and G. Goad (sons), Mrs. W. J. Hephner, Miss N. Goad, and Miss C. Goad (daughters), Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Ashby and Mr. and Mrs. B. Peacock (daughters and sons-in-law), Masters J. and O. Goad (grandsons), Mr. and Mrs. R. Jacobs (brothers and sisters-in-law), Mrs. Bennett and Mrs. G. Wright (sisters-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Tabraham (nephew and niece), Miss. L. Jacobs (niece).

Mr. Goad, who was 69 years of age, had been in failing health for a considerable time. On Saturday night, when he was retiring to rest, he had a sudden seizure and soon became unconscious, in which state he remained to the end. The greater part of his life was spent at Swavesey, where for some years he was an active member of the Parish Council, Parish Council representative on the Boards of Galon's Charity and the Fire Relief Fund Charity (Frere Cottages), and a keen worker in connection with the village War Memorial Fund. He also served on numerous public committees, and several times was an Overseer of the Poor. He left Swavesey for Stretham about four years ago. In addition to his widow, he leaves three sons and five daughters.

The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. A. Routledge, of Stretham.

ALLEGED HORSE STEALING. 16th Nov. 1928

Arrest Follows Investigation by County Police.

Combined investigation by the Cambs. and Herts. Police led to the appearance at an Occasional Court held at the County Police Station on Tuesday afternoon, before Mr. H. F. Cook, of Walter Smith, 22, of no fixed abode, who was charged with feloniously stealing a horse of the value of £30, the property of Edward Oakman, at Swavesey, during November 11th and 12th.

Supt. Allen stated that on Monday morning he received certain information respecting the loss of a horse belonging to Mr. Oakman. In consequence, inquiries were made, and it was ascertained that the prisoner had been in the district and his movements were traced towards London. P.S. Smith and P.C. Hart, of the Cambs. Police Force, and P.S. Marton and P.C. Milton, of the Herts. Force, together made inquiries in Cambs. and Herts., and at about 10.25 on Monday night at Colney Heath, near Hatfield, prisoner was seen in a field. P.S. Smith charged him with stealing a horse, and he was taken into custody. Later a search was made, and two horses were found in the field, one of which answered to the description of the animal stolen. P.S. Smith and P.C. Hart escorted the man to the County Police headquarters, and Mr. Oakman identified his horse.

Supt. Allen asked for a remand until Saturday's Petty Sessions, and this was granted.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 16th Nov. 1928

An able address on "The application of Christian truth to social problems" was given by Mr. Leigh, of Fenstanton, at the meeting of the Bethel Young People's Society on Monday evening. AGRICULTURAL DISCUSSION SOCIETY. 16th Nov. 1928

The second lecture of the series organised by the Swavesey and District Agricultural Discussion Society was given in the schools on Friday evening, when 40 persons were present. The lecturer, Mr. Dunlop, of Basic Slag, Ltd., dealt with the manufacture and uses of basic slag, illustrating his remarks with film pictures showing the manufacture of slag from the crude ore to its being placed in trucks ready for dispersal. Only iron ore containing fossilised shells could be used, he said, as this ore contained phosphate of lime, and illustrated the difference in pastures treated with different strengths of slag and the improvement which resulted, both in quality of grass and in the flesh of cattle fed on the pasture. A long discussion followed, and the lecturer answered many questions.

THE LATE MR. JAMES TAYLOR. 16th Nov. 1928

The funeral of Mr. James Taylor, whose death after a week's illness, occurred on the 8th inst. at 29, Union-road, Cambridge, the residence of his youngest son, took place at Swavesey Parish Church on Monday afternoon, the Vicar (Rev. ARMISTICE DAY. 16th Nov. 1928

The Two Minutes' Silence was observed during the morning services at the Parish Church and at Bethel Baptist Church. At the former the Third Collect had just been said when the solemn moment arrived, and after the silence the tenor bell was tolled 26 times, the number of Swavesey men who fell in the war, and the Roll of Honour was read. The service then proceeded as usual. Beautiful floral tributes were placed around the Memorial Cross in the churchyard, including a large wreath of poppies and laurel from the local branch of the British Legion and another in memory of Joseph Barker Parish, who, desperately wounded a few days previously, died in France on the day the Armistice was signed.

Notwithstanding the rain, there was a large attendance at the undenominational service arranged by the Swavesey and district branch of the British Legion, which was held at the Memorial Hall in the afternoon. For this the ex-Service men assembled on the Recreation Ground, under the command of Capt. R. Barwell, and marched thence to the hall, headed by the recently acquired standard of the branch, carried by Mr. T. Savage. During the service, which was conducted by the Rev. T. B. Field, pastor of Bethel Baptist Church, the hymns "God of our fathers (Kipling), "O, valiant hearts, who to your glory came" (J. S. Arkwright), and "Fight the good fight" were sung, Mr. J. W. Williams playing the piano accompaniment. After the names of the men of Swavesey, Boxworth, Conington, Fen Drayton and Lolworth who had fallen during the war had been recited by Mr. H. H. Berryman, there was silence, and then the "Last Post" was sounded by Capt. Barwell. A short address by Mr.

Field and the singing of "God bless our native land" concluded the service. A collection was taken in aid of Earl Haig's Fund, £2 1s. 8d. being realised. Before the commemoration service at the Parish Church in the evening, the bells were rung half-muffled. The ex-Service men met at the churchyard gates, and led by the standard-bearer, marched into the church, where seats had been reserved for them near the pulpit. There was an excellent congregation, in spite of the wet night. The ordinary form of evensong was used, with special psalms and lessons. After the Third Collect the Vicar, who officiated, read the long list of Swavesey men who served in the war. A sermon appropriate to the occasion was preached by Rev. J. F. Cooksey, who took his text from II Timothy ii, 3. During the service, which concluded with the National Anthem and the "Last Post," the latter sounded by Capt. Barwell, the following hymns were sung: "O God, our help in ages past" (processional), "Fight the good fight," "Through the night of doubt and sorrow," "All people that on earth do dwell," and "Onward, Christian soldiers" (processional). The offertory, which amounted to £2 14s., was devoted to Earl Haig's Fund. Thirty-six ex-Service men attended in the afternoon and 28 in the evening. By the sale of poppies in the village on Saturday £9 5s. 10½d. was realised, a slight increase on last year, and during the afternoon 3s. 1½d. was collected at a football match. These sums, with the collections at the two services on Sunday, brought Swavesey's contribution to Earl Haig's Fund up to £14 4s. 8d.

FOUND ON COLNEY HEATH. 23rd Nov. 1928

Man Pleads Guilty to Stealing Horse at Swavesey.

SMART WORK BY THE POLICE.

After hearing the evidence for the prosecution at the Cambs. Divisional Bench on Saturday on a charge of stealing a horse at Swavesey, between November 10th and 13th, the property of Edward Oakman, a plea of guilty was entered by Walter Smith, of no fixed abode. After the plea he emphasised his desire that the case should be settled then, but this was not possible, and he was committed for trial at the Quarter Sessions. He also stated that he did not want any of the witnesses to attend the trial. Judge H. G. Farrant was in the chair.

Albert Heath, of Swavesey, a labourer, employed by Mr. Edward Oakman, of Swavesey, said that he fed Mr. Oakman's horses at about 3 p.m. on November 11th. There were two horses, both chestnut, and they were in a field beside the Cambridge-to-Huntingdon main road. After he had fed the horses he locked the gate by means of a padlock and key, hiding the key in a small hole at the bottom of the gate. He next went to the field at 7.15 a.m. on November 12th and found only one horse. He found the key where he left it, and the gate was locked. When he went to open it, he found that the gate had been taken off its hinges, and was still off the bottom hinge. He searched for the horse, but failed to find it, and later told Mr. Oakman. He did not know prisoner. On November 13th he went to Colney Heath, Herts., with Mr. Oakman and P.C. Brooks, and saw the missing horse in a barn. He brought the horse to Cambridge.

Edward Oakman, of Swavesey, a farmer, stated that he received a communication from Albert Heath at about 8.30 a.m. on November 12th, and in consequence went to his field at Swavesey. There were two horses put in the field on November 10th, but only one was there then. They searched for one of the horses and later gave information to P.C. Brooks. He went to Colney Heath on November 13th, and was shown his horse, which was valued at £30. He did not know prisoner, and had not given anybody permission to take a horse out of the field, except Albert Heath.

P.S. Smith, stationed at Melbourn, said he received information at 11.15 a.m. on November 12th, in consequence of which he made inquiries in the Melbourn area, and later that day went with P.C. Hart to Baldock, where they were joined by Sergt. Manton, of the Herts. Police. All three eventually went to Stevenage, Welwyn and Hatfield, where they were joined by P.C. Milton, of the Herts. Police. They then went to a gipsy encampment at Colney Heath and searched the camp. From there they went to another part of the heath, and there saw a tent and a cart about 70 yards from the road. There was a woman and a little baby in the tent and one set of harness under the cart. Witness left the tent with Sergt. Manton and later received a signal from P.C.'s Hart and Milton, and returned to the tent. He saw the prisoner and spoke to him. He said "We are police officers. We are making inquiries respecting a chestnut mare being stolen from a field by the side of the Cambridge and Huntingdon road, in the county of Cambridge." Prisoner said, "I have been here for nearly a fortnight; I have no horses of my own. My father drove me here from Cheshunt." Witness then left prisoner in charge of Sergt. Manton and P.C. Hart. With P.C. Milton he went in search of two horses, and found them grazing amongst some bushes on the heath, about 150 yards from the tent. Witness identified one of the horses as a chestnut mare, such as had been stolen, and they went back to the tent. Prisoner said, "They are not my horses." Witness said he would detain him on suspicion of stealing the chestnut mare and would have the mare identified. Prisoner was taken to Hatfield Police Station, and the Herts. Police took charge of the mare. There was no one else in the field where prisoner was found, nor any other tents. There was a fire about two feet from the tent, and the ashes were all fresh. The grass round the tent was not trampled down.

Prisoner said there was hardly any grass around the tent, and as the wind changed, so he changed the fire.

P.C. Hart, stationed at Arrington, gave corroborative evidence, and mentioned that near the tent he saw a two-wheeled springed cart. He asked prisoner if it was his, and he said "Yes." Witness then said, "Has the cart been here a fortnight?" to which prisoner replied "Yes." Witness said that if the cart had been there a fortnight the grass underneath the wheels and points of the shafts would be discoloured. He moved the cart and found that the grass under both wheels and shafts was quite fresh. Witness searched the cart and found a jam jar with a piece of candle inside (produced). The tent appeared to have been erected recently, as the grass round the tent was quite fresh. He noticed the inside of the saddle of the set of harness was wet with perspiration and there was also a number of fresh horse hairs on the lining.

PRISONER IDENTIFIED.

P.C. Bullen, stationed at Willingham, said that at 10.15 a.m. on November 17th he attended an identification parade at the County Police Station. The parade consisted of ten men and the prisoner. He picked out the prisoner, whom he had seen at Shelford's-drove, Willingham, about 3 p.m. on November 9th. A woman and a small child were with him, also a horse and a two-wheeled spring cart. He spoke to prisoner and warned him to leave the drove.

P.C. Douglas, of the Hunts. Police Force, spoke to identifying prisoner as a man he had seen at the Cross, St. Ives, on November 11th between 3 and 4 p.m., and P.C. Unwin, stationed at Melbourn, said he had seen him at 10.25 p.m. on November 11th at High-street, Melbourn. Prisoner was leading a horse, which was drawing a cart. The cart had no lights attached, and there was another horse tied to the rear with a piece of rope. Witness spoke to him and asked him why he had no lights, and prisoner said, "I had a candle in a jar, but it burnt out." Witness said that was not sufficient, and prisoner said, "The police would not let me stop along the road; we have got to get somewhere; I am wet through now." Witness asked him where the jar was fixed concerning the candle, and prisoner said his wife held it. The woman in the cart then produced a 2lb. glass jam jar with a piece of candle in it, similar to the one produced in Court. He advised prisoner to go to the grass verge outside the village, where it was dark, otherwise he might cause an accident. On November 17th he saw a chestnut mare at the County Police Station and it was similar to the one in the shafts.

ADMITS STEALING THE HORSE.

Prisoner, addressing the Bench, said he pleaded guilty to stealing the horse. He added, "I have a wife and a little baby to keep. I have nobody to keep them. I desire you to settle my case to-day."

Judge Farrant said they were unable to settle the case then, and prisoner must take his trial at the next Quarter Sessions.

Prisoner said he did not want any of the witnesses to attend the trial.

AGRICULTURAL DISCUSSION SOCIETY. 30th Nov. 1928

At the third meeting of the Swavesey and District Agricultural Discussion Society, Mr. J. C. Leslie (County Agricultural Organiser) gave an address on "The Use of Home-Grown Foods." In purchasing the concentrated foods, he said that farmers paid too much attention to the percentage of oil which the cake contained instead of the percentage of protein, which was the more important constituent. Oil was far too expensive for feeding purposes, and its place could be taken just as efficiently, and more cheaply, by cereals. Where a farmer grew beans or peas in addition to the ordinary crops, he could be independent of any cake merchant and could make up mixtures for all classes of stock from the foods already on the farm. Referring to sugar beet pulp, Mr. Leslie said that it had been conclusively proved that for fattening cattle, sugar beet pulp could be used as a concentrated food instead of being merely used as a substitute for roots. The next meeting of the society will be held on Friday, Dec. 7th, when an address will be given by Mr. W. P. Crosland on "Breeding."

FIVE MONTHS FOR HORSE STEALING. 14th Dec. 1928

Walter Smith (22) a hawker, pleaded guilty to stealing a horse belonging to Edward Oakman, from a field at Swavesey, between November 10th and November 13th.

Mr. Gerald Howard (instructed by Messrs. S. J. and S. T. Miller), who appeared for the prosecution, said that prisoner was of the gipsy class and went travelling around the country. On November 11th there were two horses in a field, belonging to Mr. Oakman. The next morning the horsekeeper discovered that one was missing, and in the evening the missing horse was discovered in the prisoner's charge at Colney Heath, in Hertfordshire. It did seem an extremely smart and efficient piece of work on the part of the police officers in recovering the horse in an adjacent county at 10 o'clock on the evening of the same day in which it was found to have disappeared.

Supt. Allen said that prisoner was a married man, with one child. He had been fined 40s. at Wood Green Petty Sessions for damaging saplings with intent to steal.

Prisoner submitted a statement to the Bench, which the Clerk read. In it prisoner said he was sorry for his act, and had taken the horse out of thoughtlessness.

The Chairman, after the Bench had returned from considering the case, said that the offence was a serious one. Prisoner led a travelling life and it did seem very satisfactory that the horse should have been found in such a short time. Smith would go to prison for five months.

FEEDING OF PIGS. 21st Dec. 1928

Some 50 members attended the meeting of the Swavesey and District Agricultural Discussion Society, which was held at the National School on Wednesday evening, when Dr. C. Crowther, Principal of the Harper Adams Agricultural College, Newport, Salop, gave a most interesting and instructive lecture on the "Feeding of pigs." Two requirements, he said, were essential to success: (1) a good feeding strain of pig, and (2) experience in practical management. After dealing with the feeding characteristics of the pig, and giving a rough classification of foods, Dr. Crowther proceeded to speak of various foods and methods of feeding. As regards fattening, there was no advantage in forcing consumption, and his own practice, he said, was to feed to limits of appetite at fixed meal times, twice, or at most thrice, daily. No "meal" between meals secured ample periods of rest. A pig, Dr. Crowther added, well repaid attention to cleanliness, careful handling and regularity of management routine. Mr. R. Mailer, of Boxworth, president of the society, occupied the chair, supported by Mr. J. C. Leslie (County Agricultural Organiser).

FARM ORCHARDS. 18th Jan. 1929

The first lecture since Christmas arranged by the Swavesey and District Agricultural Discussion Society was given in the schools on Friday by Mr. A. T. Paskett (County Horticultural Adviser). The chair was taken by Councillor R. Mailer. The subject of the lecture was the management of farm orchards. The lecturer stated that he knew the district fairly well, and that a large amount of fruit was grown in the locality, most of it in fruit plantations. The true definition of an orchard was where trees were planted in grass, but in the Swavesey district they were mostly on cultivated land. trees, and top grafting. At the close Ald. J. W. Ellis proposed a hearty vote of thanks to the lecturer.

SKATING AT SWAVESEY. 1st Feb. 1929

C. W. Horn Retains British Amateur Championship.

SATURDAY'S CUP RACES.

With several spells of sharp frost at the latter end of last week and the early part of this week, three cup races, including the British Amateur Championship, were decided at Mere Fen, Swavesey.

SATURDAY'S RACES.

There was a fair crowd on Saturday for the Chicago Cup and Williamson Cup competitions. Though skating had been carried on during practically the whole of the week, the ice was in good condition and some excellent skating was seen. P. Burton, the holder of the Chicago Cup, for local competition, was defeated by L. Carter, who completed the course of just over a mile in 3mins. 44 2/5 secs. Burton had already won the cup twice, and had he been successful on this occasion would have won the cup outright.

WILLIAMSON CUP.

The result of the race for the Williamson Cup is as follows: 1 G. Scott, Welney (3min. 59 4/5 secs); 2 E. James, Welney; 3 T. Ward, Gorfield.

It was a hard race for half the distance, and then the winner gradually drew away.

BRITISH AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP.

A crowd numbering approximately three thousand gathered on Monday to watch the British Amateur Championship contested. Twenty-two entries were received, including the holder, C. W. Horn, who succeeded in retaining his title and the King's Cup.

The ice was rough and numerous spectators received minor "duckings" and cuts from the ice, but nothing of a very serious nature. The ice at the edge got very thin and towards the end sagged, being covered with a layer of water. Among the unfortunate was the Secretary of the National Skating Association (Mr. F. N. Drake Digby), whose misfortune came just as he was leaving the racing. He received a wetting up to his knees. Among the interested spectators was Mr. A. E. Tebbit, who has been amateur champion on four occasions.

The ice at the starting post was bad, and the competitors had difficulty in turning. The condition of the ice also was inclined to make the times slow, particularly towards the end. The course was one and a half miles in length, and included three bends. The competitors first raced off in pairs, and the six fastest went on to the final. Horn again skated in excellent style, but the most exciting races were the last two. J. W. Beba (Spalding) only beat F. Bott (Leicester) by only one second. The runner-up was G. W. Martin (Nordelph), who met Horn. The fastest time of the day was 5 mins. 32 secs., returned by Horn in his heat.

(Full results in newspaper).

The King's Cup was presented to Horn by Mrs. Morley, wife of the Chairman of the Fen Department Committee.

Mr. Digby said that within the last 13 months Horn had won the Duddleston Cup twice and the King's Cup twice, and that, he thought, was a record.

SWAVESEY DISTRICT COUNCIL. 8th Feb. 1929

The monthly meeting of Swavesey Rural District Council was held at St. Ives on Friday, the members being present Messrs. J. Frohock (chairman), E. Kirby (vice-chairman), A. Day, W. I. Hemington, F. Stanton and R. Norman.

RATES ON COUNCIL HOUSES.

The Rating Officer (Mr. B. Mason) wrote that the committee had passed a resolution that owners of the Council houses, and not the tenants, should be rated, an allowance of 10 per cent. being granted, subject to the Council agreeing to pass on that percentage to the tenants. It was pointed out that the Council were the owners.

The Clerk (Mr. G. D. Day) said the arrangement would benefit the tenants.

On the motion of Mr. Kirby, seconded by Mr. A. Day, the Council approved the proposal.

The Cambs. County Council wrote asking for payment of the precept due December 1st last, and the Clerk said that a cheque would be forwarded, adding that a further instalment was now due.

Mr. Kirby said that in his village (Over) there was a notice that those who had not paid their rates by February 15th would be summoned.

BAD CONDITION OF ROADS.

A letter was read from the Ministry of Transport regarding the amount of granite laid on the roads without the aid of a steam roller, and asking that the matter should receive the consideration of the Council.

It was stated that 788 tons had been used for the repair of the scheduled roads.

The Vice-Chairman said there were serious complaints about the roads. One young fellow, who cycled to Willingham, told him that he wore out a new set of tyres in a fortnight.

The Clerk was instructed to inform the Ministry that it was too late to do anything this season, but that the Council hoped to make the necessary arrangements next year.

Owing to a great extent to the inclement weather, the whist drive under the auspices of the Swavesey Institute Football Club on Thursday week was not a success as far as attendance was concerned, only seven tables being occupied. SKATING RESUMED. 1st March 1929

D. Pearson Wins Again at Swavesey.

SNOWDRIFTS IN THE COUNTY.

Wintry conditions have returned in Cambs., although with less severity, but sufficient to cause a resumption of skating, and Cottenham point-to-point races, arranged for yesterday (Thursday), had to be abandoned.

The ice at Swavesey on Wednesday was hard and in fine trim, except for a few places where it was rough. The snow had, for the most part, drifted to one side of the ice, while clear runs had been made with a snow plough. There was a biting wind, which at times blew with blizzard force, scattering the snow in all directions.

One race was down for decision, this being a professional 1½ mile race for a purse of £10, arranged by the Swavesey and Over Skating Association. There was not a very large crowd of onlookers. Six entries were received, including D. Pearson, the professional champion, and F. Pearson, his younger brother. The champion proved the winner, and skated exceptionally well despite the wind. After the three heats the four fastest competitors qualified for the finals, which happened to be a repetition of the first two heats.

(Results in newspaper).

For the anniversary of the Bethel Band of Hope, which took place on Monday evening, the Schoolroom was well filled. The President, Rev. T. B. Williams, a

P.M. SISTERHOOD. 1st March 1929

The variety entertainment under the auspices of the Swavesey Primitive Methodist Sisterhood which was given in the Memorial Hall on Thursday week by the St. Ives Sisterhood concert party was a great success. The ever-popular Mr. H. S. Turner, who was in the chair, not only gave an address and a recitation, but also sang "The Village Pump." The programme included songs by Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Jacobs, duets by Mrs. Corlett and Mr. Haslop, Mrs. Cornall and Miss Perkins, a pianoforte solo by Miss R. Jacobs, choruses and other concerted items by the party, a sash drill and a mannequin parade. Miss Jude was the accompanist. Excellent refreshments were provided during the evening under the supervision of Mesdames T. and G. Froment, Marriott and Peters. Mr. Samuel Wright, Mrs. G. Asplin and Master L. Peters were the door-keepers. The proceeds, which amounted to a very gratifying sum, have been devoted to the fund for providing new lamps, etc., for the P.M. Chapel, Swavesey.

After full justice had been done to the excellent repast supplied by Mr. T. C. Heasman, a capital programme was provided for the remainder of the evening, consisting of songs by Messrs. H. G. Topham, P. Lee, James Prior, L. Brooks, E. Seaby (Boxworth), R. Barwell and Heasman, recitations by Messrs. W. J. Nichols and A. C. Garner, yarns by Dr. Fraser, and war-time songs and community singing by the company. Messrs. A. C. Garner, B. and J. Sutton, J. W. Williams and E. Williams were the accompanists. PARISH COUNCIL. 1st March 1929

A special meeting of the Parish Council was held at the Memorial Hall on Monday evening, when there were present: Mr. C. H. Parish (Vice-Chairman), who presided, Messrs. P. Burton, W. Burton, C. Dean, F. Hephher, P. Parish and W. Twist with the Clerk (Mr. P. Godfrey). Arising out of the minutes, the Clerk announced that Mr. Watson had agreed to act as village crier in the place of Mr. George Clarke, resigned. On the proposition of Mr. Dean, seconded by Mr. P. Parish, Mr. Jethro Linford was elected to fill the seat on the Council rendered vacant by Mr. B. Prime's departure from the district, and a precept on the Rating Authority was issued for £18 for the expenses of the Council for the six months ending 30th September next. After this a communication from the Cambs. Rural Community Council respecting the dumping of unburnable rubbish led to a prolonged discussion. Eventually it was unanimously agreed on the proposition of Mr. W. Burton, seconded by Mr. Twist, to ask the District Council to defray the cost of the collection of unburnable rubbish twice a year on the understanding that the Parish Council would undertake the duty of collection, and Messrs. W. Burton and Dean were appointed a committee to make enquiries respecting a suitable dumping ground. The question of providing a public convenience on the Recreation Ground was raised by Mr. F. Hepher, who was authorised, in conjunction with Mr. Burton to ascertain the probable cost and to report to the Council at the next meeting.

CRICKET ON THE ICE. 8th March 1929

Interesting Inter-Village Match at Swavesey.

For the first time for 50 years a cricket match took place on the ice at Mere Fen, Swavesey, on Saturday. The match, which was organised by the Hon. Secretary of the Over and Swavesey Skating Association (Mr. P.J. Watts) and Mr. H. P. Burton, of Swavesey, was between representatives of Over and a combined team from Swavesey and Fen Drayton. Mr. Burton captained the Swavesey team and Mr. A. Ginn the Over team. Mr. Ginn won the toss and decided to bat first.

Almost everyone on the ice gathered round the field of play, but they were very soon cleared back to give the fielders room. There were no boundaries, and all hits were run out, which made the play all the more interesting, several eights and nines being hit. The highest scores were L. B. Carter (Over), the Chicago Cup holder, 65, W. M. Ingle (Over) 56 retired, F. Johnson (Fen Drayton) 51, and E. J. Warboys 35.

All the Overites were bowled, and F. Aldred (Swavesey) took two wickets by bowling overarm, quite a difficult performance on skates. The ball was bowled from both ends, the bowler who was not trundling acting as wicket-keeper. No bowling analyses were kept. Over completed their innings with the good total of 211, after batting 2¼ hours.

Swavesey batted very cautiously at first, and scored 60 before the first wicket fell. After this wickets fell more cheaply, and when Smart was caught by Mustill – the first catch of the match – there was loud applause.

Many were the falls, and during one attempt to run F. John's skate came off, and he just managed to reach his ground by crawling in, leaving bat and skate some distance up the pitch. Several short runs were signalled by the umpires (also on skates) at the commencement, but this was avoided as the play proceeded by the batsman skating round the stumps.

Mr. W. Twist, a Swavesey resident, recalls a similar match at Mere Fen 50 years ago.

(The scores are appended). The result was a win by Over with 211 runs to Swavesey and Fen Drayton's 179.

DISTRICT COUNCIL. 8th March 1929

At the monthly meeting of the Swavesey Rural District Council, held at St. Ives on Friday, an application by Mr. D. Wilderspin, of Swavesey, for permission to put up a commercial petrol pump was considered, and it was decided that the matter should be left to the County Council. Mr. J. Frohock was in the chair, and there were also present Messrs. W. L. Hemington, F. Johnson and R. Mailer.

OBITUARY. 8th March 1929

Mrs. Mary Lucy Philo, widow of the late Mr. F. Philo, of Brondesbury Park, London, passed away at "Rutholme," the residence of her son-in-law and youngest daughter (Rev. T. B. and Mrs. Field). She leaves four sons and three daughters.

The annual meeting of the Swavesey branch of the British and Foreign Bible Society was held (by kind permission of the deacons) in Bethel Baptist Church on Wednesday week, when the Rev. H. J. Cossar, District Secretary, gave a most interesting lecture on "Distant Scenes where the Bible Circulates." The lecture was illustrated with a large number of beautiful lantern slides, ably manipulated by Mr. G. Day. Miss Coulson presided at the piano, and the Rev. T. B. Field took the chair. A small but effective committee has been appointed to awaken interest in this valuable society.

AGRICULTURAL DISCUSSION SOCIETY. 8th March 1929

At the meeting of the Swavesey and District Agricultural Discussion Society held at the Memorial Hall on Wednesday evening, with Mr. R. Mailer (President) in the chair, a series of films of great interest to agriculturalists were shown by Mr. G. A. Cowie, of the United Potash Co., Ltd., London. Mr. Cowie, in his explanatory remarks, dealt at some length with the manuring of grass and arable lands, paying special attention to the cultivation of potatoes and roots. The meeting, which was exceptionally well-attended, brought the programme of lectures and discussions arranged for the winter session to a close.

HISTORY LECTURES. 8th March 1929

The last of the series of lectures on "Cambridgeshire Village Life in the Middle Ages," by Mr. W. P. Baker, Secretary of the Rural Community Council, was given on Friday, March 1st, in the School. The six lectures have been very well attended, while the facts and figures given by the lecturer have been most interesting. As far as possible Mr. Baker dealt with the village of Swavesey during the period under review, and a great deal of what was new in the history of the village had been collected by him. The Priory was given a special lecture and "The Enclosures and Drainage of the Fens," the last lecture of the series, aroused a good deal of discussion amongst those present. Mr. Baker was thanked for his instructive lectures, and the trouble to which he had gone to obtain the information, and the desire was expressed that he might give a further series next winter.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY. 15th March 1929

There was a large attendance at the meeting of Bethel Young People's Society on Monday, when the Rev. H. W. Batstone, of Histon, gave an interesting lecture on Francis of Assisi. The Rev. T. B. Field presided.

CRICKET ON ICE. 15th March 1929

Mr. E. J. Warboys, of Fen Drayton, informs us that the statement in our report last week of the cricket match between Swavesey and Fen Drayton and Over on the 2nd inst., was the first game that had been played on the ice on Mere Fen for 50 years, was not correct, as he was a member of a Swavesey team that played an Elsworth eleven on Mere Fen about 35 years ago.

PARISH CHURCH. 15th March 1929

Owing to the illness of the Vicar, there was no celebration of Holy Communion at the parish church last Sunday, and the mid-day and evening services were conducted by laymen, Mr. A. D. Pledger, of Ely, a Diocesan Licensed Reader, officiating at matins, and two students from Westcott House, Cambridge, at evensong, one of whom, Mr. Temple Lang, gave an address.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 15th March 1929

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday, 42 members being present. After routine business, Misses Johnson and Doggett, from Cambridge, gave an excellent demonstration on simple first-aid for the home. The competition, "something new from something old," was won by Mrs. C. S. Hephher, Misses Johnson and Doggett being the judges. Community singing and games brought the evening to a close.

LIBERAL ASSOCIATION. 15th March 1929

A well attended meeting of the Swavesey Liberal Association was held on Thursday week in the Memorial Hall, the Rev. T. B. Field (president) in the chair. Vigorous and interesting addresses were given by Messrs. Rhys Lloyd, of Selwyn College, Cambridge, and Mr. Knightley, of Histon, who dealt with the leading points of the Liberal programme. An instructive discussion followed, which was participated in by Messrs. W. Daisley, Laverack, Day and others.

THE LATE MRS. PHILO. 15th March 1929

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Lucy Philo, widow of the late Mr. F. Philo, of Brondesbury Park, London, whose death, at the age of 89 years, on the 4th inst was announced last week, took place at Over cemetery on Thursday, 7th March, the Rev. G. E. Bird, of Over, officiating. The mourners included Messrs. C. and E. Philo (sons), Mrs. Miles and Mrs. Field (daughters), Rev. T. B. Field (son-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. J. Day and Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Canham (officials of Bethel Baptist Church, Swavesey). The funeral arrangements were carried out by Messrs. R. Mitham and Sons, Swavesey.

PARISH COUNCIL. 15th March 1929

A special meeting of the Parish Council was held at the Memorial Hall on Monday evening, when there were present: Mr. C. W. H. Cole (Chairman), Messrs. P. Burton, C. Dean, F. Hephher, C. H. Parish, P. Parish, W. Twist with Mr. J. Linford, who was co-opted a member of the Council at the last meeting and who signed the declaration of acceptance of office. The Clerk (Mr. P. Godfrey) read a letter from the District Council stating that the Council had agreed to defray the cost of the collection of unburnable rubbish in the parish, and asking to be informed of the sum that would be needed each half year. On the proposition of Mr. Twist, seconded by Mr. P. Parish, it was decided to inform the District Council that it was estimated that £5 would be required to meet the cost of the first collection. The Special Committee reported that Mr. A. J. Parish would provide dumping accommodation for the rubbish for the next four or five years. The Council decided that collections should be made at the end of April and October in each year, that tenders should be invited for the first collection, and that notices should be exhibited in the village stating the date and conditions of collection. A tender by Messrs. R. Mitham and Sons for the erection of a public convenience on the Recreation Ground was considered, but as the Councillors were of opinion that the estimated cost was more than they were justified in accepting, Mr. P. Burton and Mr. Hepher were authorised to ascertain whether any reduction could be arranged.

GREAT SKATING CARNIVAL. 15th March? 1929

Thousands Have Merry Week-End on the Ice.

RACES AT LINGAY AND SWAVESEY.

Not for a generation has such a festival of skating been enjoyed as during the past week, for from Thursday last until yesterday many competitions which had not been decided since 1895 were run off.

During the week-end it was especially cold. Until Tuesday the temperature rarely rose above freezing point, and at the Botanic Gardens degrees of frost were recorded as follows: Friday 22, Saturday 21, Sunday 21, Monday 18, Tuesday 10, Wednesday 10, Thursday 13. After Tuesday the maximum temperature rose gradually and with the thermometer going as high as 43, there was a rapid thaw on Wednesday.

An excellent variety of events and plenty of thrills were provided for enthusiasts who visited Mere Fen, Swavesey, on Saturday. Although there was only a moderate attendance in the morning, it increased towards the afternoon, and 3,000 saw the Cameron Cup.

The ice was in excellent condition, and although there was a little light snow, with roughness in places, several courses had been cleared and skaters were making the most of some fine stretches.

There was keen racing in the competitions, which, with the exception of the Cameron Cup, were on an oval course. The quarter-mile handicap for boys was won by F. Pearson (Mepal), brother of the professional champion.

The Cameron Cup for a quarter-mile straight course attracted some good skaters, the entrants including the 53-year-old holder, A. E. Tebbit, C. W. Horn (Amateur Champion), the brothers Martin, and L. Carter (Chicago Cup winner). Horn equalled the time of the previous win in 1897, the holder being 10 seconds behind.

The results are appended.

PARISH CHURCH. 22nd March 1929

The only service at the parish church on Sunday which the Vicar (Rev. C. F. Stebbing), who has been laid up, was able to take was the celebration of Holy Communion at mid-day, Mr. Arthur Beaumont, M.A., of Wycliffe Hall, Oxford, officiating at matins, the children's service in the afternoon, and at evensong, when he also preached an excellent sermon.

SACRED CONCERT. 22nd March 1929

There was a fairly good attendance at the sacred concert which was given at Bethel Baptist Church on Thursday week in aid of the Choir Fund. The programme included choruses and anthems by the choir, recitations by Mrs. Laverack, violin solos by Master G. Laverack, soprano solos by Miss M. Coulson and Miss D. Aldred, a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Canham, and two quartettes. Mr. J. W. Williams (choirmaster) presided at the piano. The proceeds amounted to £1.

HOSPITAL PARADE. 22nd March 1929

At a largely attended meeting, held at the Memorial Hall, under the presidency of the Rev. T. B. Field on Monday evening, it was unanimously resolved that the parade in aid of Addenbrooke's Hospital should again take place this year, but there was a difference of opinion as to whether it should be on Feast Sunday or on a week day. Mr. J. Day, who strongly protested against its being held on a Sunday, suggested Feast Tuesday as a suitable day, and moved a resolution accordingly. Mr. U. Thixton seconded. An amendment, proposed by Mr. Frank Prior, and seconded by Mr. P. Banks, that the parade should take place on Feast Sunday (May 12th), as was the case last year, was, however, carried unanimously. The following officials were appointed: Hon. secretary, Mr. H. W. Whitehead; treasurer, Miss E. Dodson; committee, re-elected en bloc, with the addition of Messrs. P. Banks, U. Thixton and A. J. Willson. It was agreed that the Rev. T. B. Field should take the chair at the meeting on the Recreation Ground in the afternoon, and also at the meeting in the Memorial Hall in the evening, and, further, that the St. Ives Town Band and the Cottenham Salvation Army Band should be asked to attend, the former for the afternoon and evening, and the latter for the parade only. In reply to a question Mr. Whitehead announced that Mr. W.H. Head, secretary-superintendent of Addenbrooke's, had promised to attend.

At a special general meeting of the Swavesey and District Horticultural Society, held at the Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening, the question of affiliating the sports at this year's show was discussed at considerable length. Mr. C. S. Hephner proposed, and Mr. C. Walker seconded, a resolution that the sports be carried on as in previous years, and Mr. P. Watts moved, and Mr. A. Mustill seconded, an amendment in favour of affiliation. On being put to the meeting the amendment was defeated by 18 votes to 8. During the proceedings the secretary (Mr. P. Godfrey) announced that Mr. Roger Cole had again accepted the presidency of the society.

Many of our Swavesey readers will be pleased to hear that Mr. Jack Wilderspin, son of the late Mr. John Wilderspin, who migrated to Canada some years ago, has recently been promoted to the responsible position of line foreman on the Central Construction staff of the Bell Telephone Company of Canada. Enlisting in August, 1914, Mr. Wilderspin served with the Canadian Infantry in France throughout the war, and for gallantry on 27th September, 1918, when he led a party to silence a machine gun which was holding up an advance on Cambrai and causing many casualties, was awarded the Military Medal.

HERBAGE OF DROVES AND RECREATION GROUND. 29th March 1929
By direction of the District Council, the annual letting by auction of the herbage of the Swavesey droves and roadsides took place at the White Horse Inn on Monday evening. In 1926 the droves, etc., realised £12 4s. 6d., about half the sum they brought in in pre-war days, in 1927 £7 11s. 6d., last year £6 16s. 6d. and on Monday only £5 8s. The herbage of the Recreation Ground, offered under instructions from the Parish Council, was secured by Mr. C. H. Parish for £2 10s., an increase of 7s. 6d. on last year. Mr. Cyril Watts, of St. Ives, who was the auctioneer, also disposed of the mow or feed of several fields at from 35s. to £2 per acre.

Mr. Frank Day, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Day, of Swavesey, writing from Rockwood, Ontario, Canada, on March 11th, says: "I would like to take this opportunity of thanking you for the weekly budget of Swavesey news I have enjoyed since coming to Canada 22 years ago. I still look for Swavesey news first thing on opening the "Press and News" every week, and having served on several local bodies here, I particularly appreciate and enjoy the periodical tickling, and spicy, yet friendly criticism of various Swavesey people and organisations." It may be remembered that some weeks ago it was announced in these columns that Mr. F. Day had relinquished farming in which, except during the war, when he was serving with the Canadian forces in France, he had been engaged since he went to Canada, and had been appointed Postmaster of Rockwood and local manager of the Bell Telephone Company.

Laverack, duet by Miss Perkins and Mrs. Dunstan, and choruses by the St. Ives and Swavesey Sisterhoods. Miss K. Carrier (organ) and Master Laverack (violin) were the accompanists.

The flag whist drive which took place at the Priory on Tuesday afternoon resulted in over £4 being added to the Parish Church Repair Fund. Eleven tables were in play. The prizewinners were: Miss Cole, Miss King and Mrs. Brown (1st prizes); Mr. J. Stebbing, Mr. A. Beaumont and Mrs. Fraser (2nd prizes); knock-out, Miss Ruth Symonds and Mrs. Cecil Symonds. BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 5th April 1929

The annual Lenten tea meeting took place on Friday, when a company of about 100, including visitors from Over, Knapwell, Lolworth, Cottenham, and other villages, sat down to a well appointed meal. The church was well-filled in the evening, when Rev. J. Williams, of Cottenham, was the preacher. On Easter Sunday morning there was a Boys' Brigade parade service, which was attended by a company camping at Lolworth, under Capt. C. Stanton, as well as by the 1st Swavesey Company. Capt. Rev. T. B. Field conducted the service, Capt. Stanton giving an address. In the afternoon both companies attended the Gospel Mission at the Institute, Lolworth, where Capt. Stanton conducted the service.

DEATH OF AN OCTOGENARIAN. 5th April 1929

After a long period of failing health, Mr. Frederick Hindes passed away on Monday, 25th March, aged 87. Deceased, who was a son of the late Mr. J. Hindes, of Comberton, had resided with Mr. and Mrs. Smart, of High-street, Swavesey. The funeral took place at the cemetery on Saturday afternoon. Mr. E. G. Rowell, of Huntingdon, officiated. The mourners were: Mr. Robert Hindes, of London (brother), Mr. and Mrs. Frost, Mrs. Alfred Day, Mrs. Rowell and Miss Bessie Day. Messrs. C. Throssell and Sons, Elsworth, were the undertakers.

GOOD FRIDAY AND EASTER. 5th April 1929

The services at the parish church on Good Friday were as follows: Mattins and ante-communion 10.30 a.m., addresses on "The Words from the Cross" by the Rev. L. B. S. Abbott, rector of Conington, 1 – 3, evensong and sermon 6.30. – The church was beautifully decorated for Easter Day, especially considering the shortage of spring flowers. There were celebrations of Holy Communion at 6, 7.30 and 11.15 a.m. (choral). Mattins was at 10.30 a.m., and evensong at 6.30 p.m. Good congregations attended both on Good Friday and Easter Day, and the number of communicants, 131, was quite up to the average for the Easter festival, notwithstanding the many cases of illness in the village. Peals were rung on the bells between 5 and 6 a.m., and again before Mattins and Evensong.

WEDDING. 5th April 1929

The Rev. T. B. Field, pastor, officiated at the marriage of Miss Ida Spearman, daughter of Mr. George Spearman, Highfields Farm, Swavesey, and Mr. E. Lambert, son of Mr. S. Lambert, of Fen Drayton, which was solemnised at Bethel Baptist Church on March 27th. During the service the hymns "The voice that breathed o'er Eden²" and "O love divine and golden" were sung, and at the close Mr. G. E. Canham, who presided at the organ, played the Wedding March. The bride, who was given away by her father, was charmingly attired in powder blue crepe de chine, with veil and orange blossom, and she carried a bouquet of Easter lilies and white carnations. She was attended by her sisters, Misses Leah and Lily Spearman, in peach coloured artificial silk, with black hats. They wore gold brooches, the gift of the bridegroom, and carried bouquets of rose tulips and maiden hair fern. Mr. A. Lambert, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The reception after the ceremony was held at the bride's home, and later in the day the happy couple left for St. Neots, where the honeymoon is being spent, the bride wearing a navy costume, with fox fur, the gift of the bridegroom. The presents were numerous and useful, the bride's gift to her husband being a pair of cuff links.

THE BROTHERHOOD. 12th April 1929

The monthly meeting of the Swavesey Brotherhood was held at the Memorial Hall on Sunday afternoon, the President, Rev. T. B. Field, occupying the chair. The speaker was the Rev. F. Whitborne, of Fenstanton, whose address on "Faith, Hope, Love" was listened to with great attention. The Lesson was read by Mr. Househam, of Fen Drayton. The Secretary, Mr. Canham, announced that the last meeting for the session would be held on May 5th, when a lady speaker is expected.

PARISH MEETING. 19th April 1929

Only the Chairman of the Parish Council, one Parish Councillor and one parochial elector, with the Clerk of the Parish Council, were present at the Annual Parish Meeting which was held at the Memorial Hall on Monday evening. The business consisted solely of the reading of the audited parochial accounts for the year ended 31st March, 1928, and of the accounts of Galon's Charity.

THE SUMMER FETE. 19th April 1929

A well attended meeting was held at the school on Monday evening to make arrangements for the proposed fete in aid of the Church Roof Repair Fund in July, which, as usual, is to be a fancy dress affair, with a procession from the school, the costumes this year representing advertisements. A large number of new attractions have been arranged, as well as the usual features, which include theatricals and dancing. Tickets will be sold beforehand, with a lucky number carrying a handsome prize.

FLAG DAY. 19th April 1929

The flag day in aid of the Railway Benevolent Institution, which was held in Swavesey and Over on Saturday, resulted in £2 11s. being collected. Mr. H. W. Whitehead, stationmaster, was the local organiser, and Misses K. Carrier and F. Whybrow, both railwaymen's daughters, the collectors.

DEATH OF MR. C. BURTON. 19th April 1929

We have to record the death, at the age of 78, of Mr. Charles Burton, who passed away at the Priory Nursing Home, Cambridge, on Monday evening. Mr. Burton was a native of Over, but for some time had resided with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Burton, at Swavesey. For several years he had been suffering from a very painful ailment.

PARISH COUNCIL. 19th April 1929

The annual meeting of the Parish Council was held at the Memorial Hall on Monday evening. There were present: Messrs. P. Burton, W. Burton, C. W. H. Cole, C. Dean, F. Hephher, J. Linford, C. H. Parish, P. Parish and W. Twist, with the Clerk (Mr. P. Godfrey). Mr. Cole having been re-elected Chairman and Mr. C. H. Parish Vice-Chairman for the ensuing year, Mr. F. Hephher reported that Messrs. Mitham and Sons, whom he had interviewed by direction of the Council with the view of obtaining a reduction in their estimate for erecting a convenience on the Recreation Ground, would do the work for £4 4s. provided they were allowed to use deal posts instead of oak. Since the last meeting of the Council another tender had been received from Messrs. George Mitham and Sons, who would construct the convenience with five sheets of corrugated iron and oak posts at a cost of £2 7s. 6d. It was decided to accept Messrs. G. Mitham and Sons' tender, and Messrs. P. Burton and F. Hephher were appointed to superintend the carrying out of the work. Only one tender was received for the first collection of unburnable rubbish in the village, viz. From Mr. P. Godfrey for £4. The tender was unanimously accepted. A letter was read from Mr. C. S. Hephher complaining of the condition of the pond in Market-street opposite his house, and suggesting that it should be filled in as it was dangerous to health. Councillors pointed out that the authority of a Parish Meeting would have to be obtained before the pond could be filled in, and further that one or more drains emptied into the pond. The question of cleaning out the pond was discussed, but it was generally admitted that this would not effectively abate the nuisance. It was eventually agreed that a Parish Meeting should be held in the Memorial Hall on Wednesday, 24th April, at 7.30 p.m., to decide what steps should be taken in the matter. A letter was also received from the Hospital Parade Committee inviting the Council to take part in the parade and meeting on Feast Sunday, and the Clerk was instructed to reply as many of the Councillors as possible would attend.

A KITCHENER SCHOLAR. 26th April 1929

In the list of scholarship awards made by the Council of the Lord Kitchener National Memorial Fund, which was issued on Tuesday, the name of Mr. F. C. Wood (Cambridge and County High School for Boys) appears. Mr. F. C. Wood, who is the eldest son of Mr. Charles Wood, headmaster of Swavesey School, also recently won a scholarship at Trinity College, Cambridge.

IMPORTANT PARISH MEETING. 26th April 1929

Between 40 and 50 parochial electors attended the parish meeting on Wednesday evening, which had been called to decide what steps should be taken with regard to the pond in Market-street, respecting which the Parish Council had received a letter of complaint. In the absence of the Chairman of the Council, Mr. C. H. Parish was elected chairman of the meeting, on the proposition of Alderman Dr. J. W. Ellis, seconded by Mr. J. Linford. The clerk (Mr. P. Godfrey) read the letter from Mr. C. S. Hephher, who complained that the pond, which was close to his house, in its present condition, was a serious menace to health, and suggested that it should be filled up. This the Parish Council could not do without the authority of a parish meeting. In course of the discussion that followed, Mr. J. T. Daintree said he passed by the pond several times a day, but had never noticed any objectionable odours. Mr. C. Wood raised the question whether any sanitary drain emptied into the pond, and Mr. C. S. Hephher said he found he was mistaken in suggesting that any did. Dr. Ellis thought that before anything was done it should be ascertained whether any sewage entered the pond. The nuisance, he thought, was mainly caused by cows entering the pond and stirring up the mud. The local representative on the District Council, however, did not look after the interests of the parish, and it was undoubtedly true that cases of fever had been due to smells arising from ponds and drains. Dr. Ellis concluded by stating that the District Council had given much trouble to the County Council in regard to sanitary matters. Mr. Wood agreed that the sanitary authority had not done their duty, instancing the neglect of the sewer running from High-street to the Church Bridge. The Chairman remarked that the sewer had not a proper outfall. Mr. D. Williams was of opinion that if the pond was filled up, water would accumulate elsewhere in Market-street, and would cause a still greater nuisance. Mr. C. S. Hephher suggested that it would cost more to put the pond in order than to fill it up, and he handed the Chairman a petition from residents of Market-street asking that the pond should be done away with. The discussion was continued by Mr. J. T. Daintree, Mr. J. Linford, Mr. J. Trundley and Mr. J. Kester, and eventually Mr. C. Wood, after observing that the parish sooner or later would be faced with a very expensive scheme of drainage, but that the evil day might be postponed for some years if the local sanitary authority only did their duty, moved the following resolution: "That the Sanitary Authority for the district be written to from the Parish Meeting and asked to thoroughly examine the Market-street drain and the other drains under their charge, and put them in order, so that the Parish Meeting might be in a position to consider and decide what steps should be taken with regard to the Market-street pond." Dr. Ellis seconded. The resolution was carried unanimously. It was noticed that neither of the local District Councillors attended the meeting.

Amount required from rates £950, which is slightly more than a rate of 2s. 3d. in the £.

The report was approved.

WATER WASTAGE.

A wastage of water being reported at Swavesey, the matter was referred to a committee consisting of the Swavesey representatives (Messrs. Day and Norman), the Vice-Chairman and Mr. Stanton.

DAMAGE BY STEAM ROLLER.

Mr. Day said that in consequence of a drain in Swavesey High-street having been broken by a County Council steam roller, a cellar had been flooded, and he asked if it was possible to get any redress from the County Council? He added that they had diphtheria rather seriously in the village, and that Dr. Robinson, County Medical Officer, had paid them a visit.

It was decided to request the Cambs. County Council to make a good surface road.

ILLNESS IN SWAVESEY.

Mr. Day asked whether there were any fresh cases of diphtheria at Swavesey.

Mr. Reynolds (Sanitary Inspector): I am afraid it is a big job. We had three fresh cases last week.

The Vice-Chairman: They are all of a mild type, are they not?

Mr. Reynolds: Yes, but I don't know what one case will be.

SWAVESEY DRAINS.

A letter was received from the Clerk of the Swavesey Parish Council enclosing a copy of a resolution passed unanimously at a specially called parish meeting held on April 24th, in which the District Council were asked to thoroughly examine the drains in Market-street, Swavesey, and other drains in the parish and have them put in order.

The matter was left in the hands of the Swavesey representatives and the Sanitary Inspector to inspect and report.

FUNERAL. 3rd May 1929

The funeral of Mrs. Hannah Elizabeth Willson, wife of Mr. Charles Willson, jun., of Orton Longueville, Hunts., and second daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jethro Garner, Swavesey, who died after a short illness on April 22nd, aged 56 years, took place at Swavesey Parish Church on Thursday afternoon in last week. The Rev. C. F. Stebbing, Vicar, officiated. The mourners included: Mr. C. Willson (husband), Miss F. Garner (sister), Mrs. Ringrow (sister-in-law), Mrs. W. J. Hepher and Miss Ethel Garner (cousins).

PARISH CHURCH. 10th May 1929

In the absence of the Vicar, who was taking duty at Knapwell, the Rev. R. P. Moline, rector of Cottenham, officiated at Evensong at the parish church on Sunday, and also preached. Next Sunday (Feast Sunday) the special preacher will be the Rev. F. H. C. Poffley, S.P.G. secretary for East Anglia, and the collections, in accordance with custom, will be devoted to the National School.

LABOUR MEETING. 10th May 1929

The first of the meetings in Swavesey in connection with the forthcoming General Election was that held in the Memorial Hall on Monday evening in support of Mr. G. T. Garratt, the Labour candidate for the county. Mr. A. P. Payne presided, and in addition to Mr. Garratt, who had to leave early in order to attend a meeting at Willingham, the speakers included Mrs. Pease, Mr. Barber and Mr. S. Dye.

THE FEAST. 10th May 1929

That hardy annual, the village feast, will be held next week. On Sunday afternoon the parade and meeting in aid of Addenbrooke's Hospital, which, successfully instituted last year, is likely to become an annual event, will take place. The procession, accompanied by the Cottenham Salvation Army and St. Ives Town Prize Band, will leave Boxworth End at 2 p.m., and after perambulating the village, is timed to reach the Recreation Ground at 3 p.m. Here the meeting will be held, at which Mr. W.H. Head (Secretary-Superintendent) will explain the advantages and needs of the Hospital. Other speakers will give addresses, and the bands will play selections at intervals. At 7.45 p.m. the St. Ives Town Band will give a concert. In the event of inclement weather, the proceedings will take place in the Memorial Hall. Other feast attractions include three cricket matches, viz., with Over tomorrow (Saturday), Lolworth on Monday (both Milton League fixtures), and a friendly game with Boxworth on Tuesday. A dance in the Memorial Hall is announced for Tuesday evening, and a whist drive, the proceeds from which will be devoted to Addenbrooke's, on Thursday.

PARISH CHURCH. 17th May 1929

The Rev. F. C. H. Poffley, S.P.G. Secretary for East Anglia, was the special preacher at morning and evening services at the parish church on Sunday, when, as has been the custom on Feast Sunday for many years, the collections, which amounted to £4, were in aid of Swavesey National School. The music at evensong included: Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis (Clare) and anthem, "The Lord is exalted" (John E. West).

THE FEAST. 17th May 1929

This year's feast cannot be described as having been an outstanding success, as the attendances of both visitors and feast folk has been considerably below the average, but for this the unsettled weather was probably to a great extent responsible. Three of the four cricket matches that have been played have been won by the Swavesey teams. The dance in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening, for which the St. Ives Aladdin Band provided the music, attracted a large company.

AGRICULTURAL DISCUSSION SOCIETY. 17th May 1929

A meeting of the Swavesey and District Agricultural Society was held on Friday evening, the President (Councillor R. Mailer) occupying the chair, supported by Mr. A. Day, jun. (treasurer), Mr. C. Wood (hon. secretary), Alderman Dr. J. W. Ellis (vice-president), Mr. J. C. Leslie (County Agricultural Organiser) and Mr. R. Sayce (County Agricultural Adviser). The accounts for the 1928-29 session, which showed a balance in hand of 13s., having been passed, it was agreed that the summer outing, in conjunction with the Fulbourn Society, should take place on June 20th, or July 2nd, when farms in the Spalding district would be visited.

HOSPITAL PARADE. 17th May 1929

Notwithstanding the rainy day, Swavesey's second annual parade in aid of Addenbrooke's Hospital took place on Sunday as arranged, but the meeting in the afternoon and the concert in the evening were held in the Memorial Hall instead of on the Recreation Ground. The procession, admirably marshalled by Mr. R. Barwell, started from Boxworth End. At the head were the Secretary of the Organising Committee (Mr. W. H. Whitehead) and P.C. Brooks. Then followed the Cottenham Salvation Army Band, members of the committee, Messrs. C. W. H. Cole (chairman), C. Dean, W. Twist and P. Godfrey (clerk) (representing the Parish Council); Mr. R. Mailer (County and Rural District Councillor), who were succeeded by V.A.D's, Boys' Brigade, Girls' Brigade, and a hospital tableau waggon with nurses and a patient. Then in succession came members of the Swavesey Brotherhood and Sisterhood (with banner), B.W.T.A. (with banner), and Cambridge and District Workers' Hospital Fund banner. The St. Ives Town Band (Bandmaster F. Searle) preceded a detachment of the local branch of the British legion, representatives of the Women's Institute, Horticultural Society, Hockey and Football Clubs. The banner of the National Deposit Friendly Society and a waggon load of Sunday-School children brought up the rear. The procession made its way with two or three short halts to the Swan pond at Church End, and thence back to the Memorial Hall, collectors being busily engaged en route. The Memorial Hall was packed for the meeting, at which the Rev. T. B. Field presided. The proceedings opened with the recitation by the audience of the Lord's Prayer, after which the St. Ives Band played a selection. The Chairman then called upon Mr. W. H. Head (secretary-superintendent of Addenbrooke's) who, in an address on the work and needs of the hospital stated that during 1928 3,836 in-patients and 11,806 out-patients had been admitted, against 3,102 in-patients and 10,979 out-patients in 1927, the previous highest record; that the ordinary income of the hospital, including legacies, last year amounted to £28, 359 and the ordinary expenditure to £29,016, leaving a deficiency of £657; and that the cost of each in-patient was £6 12s 1½d., as compared with £7 14s. 0¼d. in 1927. He added that the cost per week of each in-patient had been £3 12s. 5d., and of each out-patient 6s. 5¼d., against £2 16s. 3½d. and 6s. 5¾d. respectively in the previous year, and that the total number of out-patient attendances had been 55,618 as compared with 50,220 in 1927, the cost per attendance having been 1s. 1½d. against 1s. 5d. During the twelve months ended 31st Dec. last, 33 in-patients and 46 out-patients from Swavesey had been treated at a cost of £269 1s. 3½d. The other speakers included Mr. H. Smith (Willingham), Mr. Gifford (Cottenham), Mr. George Hart (Willingham), the Vicar of Swavesey (Rev. C. F. Stebbing) and Dr. Fraser. Mr. Smith made his customary appeal for £1 and 10s. notes, and managed to rake in £15, which Mr. Gifford succeeded in increasing to £25 4s. 6d. by means of an urgent appeal for shillings, or, if desired, larger silver coins. A box collection was also taken in the Hall. After the speeches the Cottenham Band played a selection, and the Chairman thanked Mr. Head and the other speakers for their addresses and support, the proceedings concluding with the National Anthem. The Hall was again crowded to its fullest capacity for the concert after the church and chapel services in the evening.

LIBERAL MEETING. 24th May 1929

A donation of ten shillings from the proceeds of a collection in aid of local charities made at a cricket match played at Fenstanton on Whitsun Monday, between Mr. Sidney Pratt's XI and Mr. F. S. Salter's local XI, has been forwarded to the Swavesey, Over and Fen Drayton Nursing Association.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 24th May 1929

At the monthly meeting of the Women's Institute held on Tuesday in the Memorial Hall, Miss Barwell gave an account of the Federation meeting in London, which she attended as the Swavesey delegate. After this instruction in community singing was given by Mr. C. Milner, of Cottenham. A hat trimming was won by Mrs. Carrier, and a musical parcel by Miss Doris Hephher.

PARTICULAR BAPTIST CHAPEL. 24th May 1929

The excellent congregations which attended the anniversary services at the Particular Baptist Chapel on Tuesday included visitors from Cambridge, St. Ives, Godmanchester, Dunstable, Blunham and Southill (Beds.) as well as from Over, Longstanton, Oakington and other neighbouring villages. The special preacher in the afternoon and evening was Mr. Seth Pack, of Tunbridge Wells. Between the services there was a well-attended tea. The collections, which were devoted to the Chapel funds, were very satisfactory.

HOSPITAL PARADE: RESULT. 24th May 1929

Including the proceeds from the Cinema entertainment generously given by Mr. Cecil Symonds, of Over, at the Memorial on Friday (£6), and from the whist drive and prize draw, which took place the previous evening, the total sum raised for Addenbrooke's Hospital by the Sunday Parade Committee this year amounts to £113, £45 more than in May, 1928. The following were the prizewinners at the whist drive: Ladies – Mrs. J. Culpin (Fen Drayton), Mrs. Whybrow (Willingham), Miss D. Richardson (Elsworth), booby Mrs. Wayman (Elsworth); gentlemen – Mr. E. J. Warboys (Fen Drayton), Mr. A. J. Thoday, Mr. E. Burton (Over), booby Mr. C. S. Hephher. Twenty-six tables were in play. He was educated at the Cambridge and County High School for Boys, Emmanuel College, Cambridge, and Wycliffe Hall, Oxford.

HOSPITAL PARADE. 31st May 1929

At the final meeting of the Hospital Parade Committee, held at the Memorial Hall on Friday evening, votes of thanks were passed to the Memorial Hall Committee for granting the free use of the hall for meetings, etc.; to the Cottenham Salvation Army and St. Ives Town Prize Bands for their services; to Messrs. H. Smith (Willingham), Gifford (Cottenham), and G. Hart (Willingham), for their valuable and greatly appreciated assistance; and to the Rev. T. B. Field for presiding at the meetings on the day of the parade.

POLITICAL MEETINGS. 31st May 1929

Capt. Briscoe, Conservative candidate, addressed a meeting of electors at the Memorial Hall on Thursday evening in last week, and Mr. G. T. Garratt, Labour candidate, on Tuesday evening. Both meetings were well-attended, and the candidates were called to reply to numerous questions, some of which might not inaptly be described as quaint.

SWAVESEY RURAL COUNCIL. 31st May 1929

Mr. J. Frohock presided at the monthly meeting of the Swavesey Rural District Council, held at St. Ives on Friday. The other members present were: Messrs. A. Day, R. Mailer, R. Norman, J. Scambler, W. I. Hemington, and F. Johnson. A letter was received from the Cambs. County Council stating that they would waive the usual charge for opening the drain in High-street, Swavesey, and would make the final reinstatement.

HOSPITAL PARADE. 7th June 1929

The name of Mr. Cecil Symonds, of Over, should have been included in the list of persons to whom votes of thanks were accorded at the final meeting of the Hospital Parade Committee. The cinema entertainment he so generously gave at the Memorial Hall resulted in the welcome addition to the funds of £6.

KNOCKED DOWN BY A DOG. 7th June 1929

When returning home from school on Friday afternoon, Beryl Clarke, the six-year-old daughter of Mr. A. E. Clarke, chief clerk at Swavesey railway station, was met by her mother with whom was an Airedale dog, which playfully jumped up at the child and knocked her over. She fell on the side of her head, and when picked up was found to be unconscious. She was taken home, and Dr. Fraser, who was called in, advised her immediate removal to Addenbrooke's Hospital, where she was detained. On the following day the child had recovered sufficiently to allow of her return home, and it is understood she is progressing satisfactorily.

SWIMMING CLUB. 7th June 1929

At the annual meeting of the Swavesey Institute Swimming Club, held in the Memorial Hall on Friday, it was reported by the secretary that a large and serviceable shed had been erected near the diving board, for the use of ladies when bathing, at a cost approximately of £4, by Messrs. K. Williams, H. Bridgeford and F. F. Norman in their spare time, and it was hoped that more ladies would join the club to show their appreciation of this convenience.

Officers for 1929 were elected as follows: President, Rev. C. F. Stebbing; vice-presidents, Capt. Briscoe, M.P., Dr. Fraser, Rev. T. B. Field, Mrs. J. Norman, Messrs. F. Stanton, C. S. Hephner, R. Mailer, A. R. Norman (Carshalton), A. Beales, H. Whitehead, R. Williamson, Ben Thorp, A. L. Parish, J. Mustill and M. Proctor; chairman, Mr. F. F. Norman; hon. secretary and treasurer, Mr. F. Aldred; committee, Misses M. Mustill, S. Daintree and P. Willson, Messrs. H. Bridgeford, L. Day, K. Williams, J. Prewer, E. Parish and J. Sutton. It was decided to affiliate the club with the Royal Life Saving Society. A new spring diving board will, it is hoped, be erected in the near future.

MYSTERIOUS LADY VOTERS. 7th June 1929

On Thursday evening last week, when electors, who had not recorded their votes earlier in the day, were hurrying to the polling station, two mysterious ladies appeared in the streets of the village. People wondered who they were and what might be their business. They were seen to enter the school where voting was taking place, and after an interval to come out, and then they vanished as mysteriously as they had appeared. Some people said they were gypsies, but all agreed that they could not be flappers, for their skirts reached to their ankles, which the frocks of flappers do not, and if they wore silk stockings they were not visible to the naked eye, an essential in the year A.D. 1929. Moreover, their boots were of the substantial order, and in marked contrast to the dainty high-heeled shoes ladies wear to-day. In short, their dress, hats included (marvellous "confections"), was that in vogue in the early years of the present century. It subsequently transpired that the mysterious females were two young ladies of the village masquerading as Suffragettes, but whether they contemplated a demonstration in favour of the abolition of any age-limit for voters, or had merely perambulated the streets with the laudable desire of relieving the deadly tedium of the long-drawn-out polling day, is not known. If the former, their hearts probably failed them at the crucial moment.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 14th June 1929

Good congregations, including visitors from Chatteris, St. Ives, Over, Willingham, Girton, Longstanton, Fen Drayton, Needingworth and other neighbouring villages, attended the services in connection with the 89th anniversary of Bethel Baptist Church on June 6th, when the special preacher was the Rev. W. K. Bryce, R.L.S., of St. Albans.

DEATH OF MR. J. MOYNE. 21st June 1929

Many of our readers, not only in the immediate neighbourhood of Swavesey, but also in Cambridge, will regret to learn that Mr. James Moyne, of the White Horse Inn, passed away at Addenbrooke's Hospital between 10 and 11 a.m. on Tuesday, aged 71 years. He had been suffering for some months from a very painful ailment, borne with great courage and patience, but it had only been found necessary to remove him to Addenbrooke's on June 11th, a week previous to his death. Mr. Moyne, who is survived by his wife, two sons and a daughter, resided in Cambridge for twenty years prior to his going to Swavesey at Christmas 1925.

S.S. ANNIVERSARY. 21st June 1929

Special hymns were sung by the scholars, who had been trained by Mr. J. W. Williams and Mr. Canham. George Laverack accompanied the singing with his violin. Mr. Whitbourn also gave an address in the afternoon, when some of the children gave recitations and sang a chorus. The certificates awarded by the Cambridgeshire Sunday School Union were distributed to successful candidates in the Scripture examination, who also received prizes kindly given by Mr. G. Carter, and certificates were presented to scholars who had collected money for the Native Preachers of the B.M.S. The collections throughout the day, which amounted to £5 8s. 2½d., were for the School Funds.

THE LATE MR. E. J. LINFORD. 21st June 1929

Swavesey has lost one of its oldest inhabitants by the death on June 13th at the age of 74 of Mr. Edward Joseph Linford. He had been ill for eight years, bedridden for 18 months, and blind for the last five years. He was the son of the late William and Elizabeth Linford, of Lolworth, where his younger days were spent, but he had lived in Swavesey for many years. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon at the parish church, the Rev. J. F. Cooksey officiating. The mourners included: Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Linford (son and daughter-in-law), Miss Laura Linford (daughter), Mr. and Mrs. William Linford (brother and sister-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Peppercorn, Mr. and Mrs. William Peppercorn (nephews and nieces). Messrs. R. Mitham and Sons, Swavesey, were the undertakers.

THE VERSATILES. 21st June 1929

The Memorial Hall was filled with a thoroughly appreciative audience on Thursday evening in last week, when "The Versatiles," the well-known Cambridge entertainers, paid their first visit to Swavesey, and gave their excellent performance of "Song, laughter and dance," in aid of the local branch of the British Legion. The programme, which went with a swing from start to finish, every item being heartily applauded, included an opening chorus, concerted pieces and an entertainment at the piano by the ever-popular Miss Mabs Brinkley, who was not a stranger to a Swavesey audience. There were also recitations and a marionette entertainment. In conclusion the party sang "Keep on Smiling," an injunction the audience obeyed, for they went home happy having greatly enjoyed the evening's entertainment. The organisers were also smiling, as the visit of The Versatiles had been an undoubted financial success. (Full programme in newspaper).

GARDEN FETE AT SWAVESEY. 21st June 1929

Annual Effort for Nursing Association.

The annual garden fete in aid of the Swavesey, Over and Fen Drayton Nursing Association, which was held on the 13th inst. in the grounds of Swavesey Manor, by kind permission of the Rev. J. F. Cooksey, resulted, with donations, in a net profit to the Association of £40 7s. 10d. Although this sum is rather smaller than that obtained in some previous years, it must be regarded as satisfactory, considering the number of other fetes, entertainments, etc., which just now are making big demands on the loose coin in people's pockets.

The opening ceremony was performed by Mrs. R. Ellis Long, of Linton, and late of Lolworth, who in a short, but graceful, speech, spoke of the pleasure it gave her to meet once again so many of those with whom she had been associated when Commandant of the Swavesey V.A.D. Hospital during the war. Mrs. Long, at the close of her speech, was presented by Joan Wilderspin with a bouquet given by Mrs. C. S. Hepher.

(List of stalls and competitions in newspaper).

CHILDREN'S ENTERTAINMENT.

Special features of the fete were an entertainment by the children, and a baby show, an annual event. Unfortunately that part of the former which should have been provided by Swavesey children could not be given owing to the small girl who was taking the leading part being indisposed, but the children from Over Church School, who had been most admirably trained by Miss Hurrell, gave a capital display of country dances, followed by an excellent performance of a fairy scene from "Midsummer Night's Dream."

THE BABY SHOW.

The baby show, limited to infants born in the parishes of Swavesey, Over and Fen Drayton, was under the management of Nurse Cottrell. Dr. F. Robinson, county medical officer, and Miss Richards, of Cambridge, were the judges, and their awards were as follows:

Class 1 (1 to 12 months) – 1. Michael Saxby, Fen Drayton; 2 Eric Spence, Over; 3 Harold J. Prime, Swavesey

Class 2 (over 12 months) - 1 Ernest V. E. Smart, Swavesey; 2 Lilian N. Hemington, Over; 3 Reginald Cook, Over; 4 James Peter Leggatt, Over. Certificates were also awarded to the prizewinners and to Jean D. Hepher, Swavesey; John Whybrow, Over; Letitia Thomas, Swavesey; and Raymond Cook, Over.

The Cambridge Corporation wrote stating that they were unable to decrease the cost of the maintenance of the Infectious Diseases Hospital.

It was decided that no application should be made for the delegation to the Council of road powers, it being agreed that it was desirable the County Council should take over the roads.

HOUSING SUBSIDIES.

Mr. C. Cole applied for a subsidy in respect of two cottages to be erected at Swavesey.

The Clerk (Mr. G. L. Day) reported that the work had been commenced before the plans were submitted, and the Council agreed that unless plans were submitted in such cases before building operations were begun, application for subsidies would be turned down.

by Mr. J. C. Leslie (County Agricultural Organiser) and Mr. R. Sayce (County Agricultural Adviser). A very pleasant and profitable day was spent.

OBITUARY. 12th July 1929

MISS E. WILLSON, OF SWAVESEY.

The news that Miss Edith Willson, younger daughter of Mr. Charles Willson, of Swavesey and the late Mrs. Willson, had passed away at a nursing home in Cambridge early on Friday morning came as a great shock to the people of the village. Her health had been failing for some time, but it was only recently that she was confined to bed, and here condition gave cause for serious anxiety. On Saturday, June 29th, she was removed to the nursing home and after a few days the end came. She was 47 years of age.

Miss Willson, with her father and mother, went to Swavesey from Hilton Hunts, about 30 years ago, and ever since devoted her life to the care of her father. Although she never took an active part in the parochial and social happenings of the village, her quiet, retiring and unselfish disposition and her kindly smile endeared her to a host of friends, as was evidenced by the large attendance at the funeral which took place at Swavesey Parish Church on Monday afternoon. The Vicar (Rev. C. F. Stebbing) officiated, assisted by the Rev. J. F. Cooksey, the latter saying the prayers of committal at the grave in the churchyard.

The mourners included Mr. and Mrs. J. Ringrow, Broughton, Hunts. (brother-in-law and sister), Mr. C. Willson, jun., Peterborough (brother), Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Flitton, Cambridge (cousins).

There were several beautiful wreaths.

Mr. H. Lambert, Newnham, Cambridge, carried out the funeral arrangements.

SWAVESEY CHURCH FETE. 12th July 1929

Successful Effort to Aid Church Repair Fund.

In beautiful summer weather, and in the beautiful gardens of Swavesey Vicarage, the annual fete in aid of the church funds, which was held yesterday (Thursday) afternoon and evening, was a great success. The sum of £1,530 is needed to repair the church, and £1,000 has already been raised. This fete, which attracted a large crowd, should help very materially to provide the remainder.

The Vicar (Rev. C. F. Stebbing), in a few remarks, referred to the willing help which had been forthcoming from the number of workers, not only that day, but in the days of preparation. He thanked them very much, and said that he recognised all their efforts and enthusiasms. Mr. Marks, of Leicester, who was to open the fete, was very well known in Swavesey and the surrounding villages as a fruit merchant. They were very grateful to him for coming, because he had given up a lot of his valuable time to come and give them some encouragement.

Mr. A. Marks spoke of the pleasure it gave his wife and himself to be present. Continuing, he said that he had just looked over the church. Although he had been there many years before he had never had the opportunity of seeing it before. He noticed that the roof was in a very bad state of repair, and the vicar had told him that they needed something like £1,530 to repair the roof and the bells. He also knew that they had something like £1,000 towards that sum. He could speak with knowledge when he said that the fruit season had been a bad one up to the present, but he trusted that everyone would spend as much as they could at this fete. He had already promised £10 10s. towards the effort, and he did not need any thanks, because he knew that these churches needed a lot of keeping up.

Their best thanks were due to the church workers, who all the year round got funds together for the church functions.

In declaring the fete open, he wished it every success.

A bouquet was presented to Mrs. Marks, and Mr. Marks briefly returned thanks on her behalf.

A fancy dress procession of costumes, representing advertisement, was held, and a large number, including many original dresses, entered. Besides the usual stalls and side-shows, which claimed a lot of attention, there was a performance of "The Crimson Cocoanut." (List of those taking part in newspaper). Later in the evening there was dancing, the music being supplied by the St. Ives Band, who also rendered selections during the afternoon.

(List of stallholders, stalls and competitions in newspaper).

Results of fancy dress:

Infants – J. Mitham (Oxo), 2 J. Hemington (Lyons Custard), 3 Joan Hephher (Kiaora Lemonade), 4 Lily Hephher (Wincarnis).

Adults – Miss Daintree and Miss Williamson (Bob and Nippy), 2 Miss K. Banks (Lyons Cocoa), 3 Miss Mustill (Ceylinde Tea).

The special collects of thanksgiving for the King's recovery were said at all the services at the parish church on Sunday, and in the evening the Vicar preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion. The bells were rung before the mid-day and evening services – At Bethel Baptist Church on Sunday morning, in common with all Christian churches, thanks to God were given for the King's recovery. The two hymns selected by his Majesty were sung, and the Pastor made feeling reference to both the King and Queen, and in the name of the congregation hoped they would be spared many years to adorn the high positions they hold.

CONDITION OF MARKET STREET. 12th July 1929

A correspondent writes: At a specially summoned parish meeting on 24th April, the following resolution was carried unanimously: "That the Sanitary Authority for the district be written to from the Parish Meeting, and asked to thoroughly examine the Market-street drain and the other drains under their charge, and put them in order, so that the Parish Meeting might be in a position to consider and decide what steps should be taken with regard to the Market-street pond." That resolution was brought before the District Council at their meeting on April 26th, and according to the report of the proceedings, which appeared in the "Press and News" on May 3rd, "the matter was left in the hands of the Swavesey representatives and the Sanitary Inspector to inspect and report." Parishioners are anxious to know whether the inspection has been made, whether the District Council have received a report, and what steps the Council are taking, or propose to take, in the matter. If, however, no report has yet been made, we should like to know the reason for the delay.

Fortunately the car was going slowly at the time, and the driver was able to pull up immediately. On the child being taken to his home close by, it was found that no bones had been broken, but that he had been badly bruised.

CAMBRIDGE AUCTIONEER'S CLAIM. 19th July 1929

"Settlement in Full" Plea Fails.

REFUSAL TO "PAY AGAIN."

An order for payment in 14 days was made by his Honour Judge Farrant at Cambridge County Court on Wednesday, after a defendant, whose plea of "settlement in full" had failed, had refused to "pay again," and declared that he would rather go to prison.

The plaintiffs were Messrs. A. T. Grain and Son, auctioneers and valuers, Rose-crescent, Cambridge, who claimed £15 3s. for professional services and travelling expenses from D. W., of Swavesey.

Mr. Grafton Pryor, instructed by Mr. S. J. Peters, appeared for the plaintiff, and stated that the claim was for professional services rendered by Messrs. Grain for inspecting certain fields of pasture and arable land at Swavesey in May, 1923, and for other professional services in connection with a case at Suffolk Assizes. Defendant, Mr. Pryor explained, was involved in a civil action at Suffolk Assizes in 1923, and through his solicitors, Messrs. W. J. and J. G. Taylor, he employed the plaintiffs, and the present claim was for fees arising out of that action. In October, 1923, Messrs. Taylor rendered defendant an account of £103 4s. 4d., but that did not include plaintiff's fees. He understood that Messrs. Taylor reduced their claim and accepted £85 in full settlement of their account without prejudice to the plaintiff's claim.

Mr. John Goodchild Taylor, partner of the firm of W. J. and J. G. Taylor, of Cambridge and Newmarket, said plaintiffs' claim was quite in order, and was not included in Messrs. Taylor's account.

Defendant said he did not employ Messrs. Grain at all – he employed Messrs. Taylor.

Mr. Allan Bailey Mills, accountant in the employ of Messrs. Grain, said the amount of £15 3s. 2d. was due from the defendant, and the account had been sent to defendant on numerous occasions, and defendant had never disputed it until proceedings were commenced. Plaintiffs' instructions were originally received from Messrs. Taylor, but W. himself conducted Mr. Grain over the fields.

Defendant said that when he paid Messrs. Taylor's account he asked if everything connected with the case was on the bill, and Mr. Taylor replied "Yes." Witness said he wanted to settle everything, and would give them a cheque for £80 in full settlement. Mr. Taylor refused this, but eventually agreed to accept a cheque for £85 in full settlement of everything.

His Honour looked at the receipted bill, and pointed out that the receipt was in respect of the "above bill of costs." It referred specifically to the bill of costs.

Defendant said that should include everything connected with the case. He asked Mr. Taylor, "Does that settle everything?" and he replied "Yes."

Witness did not employ Messrs. Grain. He repeatedly asked Mr. Taylor if the bill settle everything, and he said "Yes."

Defendant called a witness named Eastman, who said he was present with defendant in Messrs. Taylor's office when defendant said he would pay £85 in settlement of the whole case, and that "would finish the whole matter."

Afterwards, as they were going downstairs at Messrs. Taylor's office, defendant said to witness, "Thank God, that's all done with."

His Honour found that Messrs. Taylor's account did not include plaintiff's claim, and gave judgement for the plaintiffs for the amount claimed, with costs.

Defendant said he had a wife and eight children and could not afford to pay. He had paid once and was not going to pay again. He would go to prison rather.

His Honour said there would be an order for payment in 14 days.

OBITUARY. 26th July 1929

Swavesey has lost one of its oldest inhabitants by the death of Mr. Edward Bridgeford, who passed away at Frere Cottages at 3 a.m. on Wednesday, aged 87 years. He was the last of a long-lived family, his brother, Mr. John, being over 90, his brother James an octogenarian, and his sister, Mrs. Betsey Holmes, 89 at the time of their respective deaths. The funeral will take place at Swavesey parish church, where Mr. E. Bridgeford had been a sidesman for about 30 years, at 3 p.m. to-day (Friday).

LITTLE WHITE RIBBONERS. 26th July 1929

A happy party of little White Ribboners assembled in the beautiful grounds of the Manor, by the kind invitation of Mrs. J. Norman, on Thursday week, and after an enjoyable tea played games on the lawn, and revelled in the swings provided for their benefit, while their mothers and friends sat beneath the shady trees and enjoyed a chat. Later some of the little ones entertained the company by singing and reciting, and then came the crowning event of the evening – the bran tub. At the close, Mrs. Aldred proposed a vote of thanks to Mrs. Norman for her greatly appreciated hospitality.

PARISH COUNCIL. 26th July 1929

The quarterly meeting of the Parish Council was held at the Memorial Hall on Monday evening, the following Councillors being present: Mr. C. H. Parish (vice-chairman), who presided, Messrs. W. Burton, C. Dean, J. Linford and W. Twist. The clerk (Mr. P. Godfrey) reported that he had heard nothing from the District Council respecting the resolution passed by the Parish Meeting on April 24th, in which the District Council were requested to examine the Market-street drain and other drains under their charge, and put them in order so that the Parish Meeting might be in a position to decide what steps should be taken in regard to the Market-street pond. In reply to questions the Clerk said his letter forwarding the resolution had not even been acknowledged, and as far as he was aware nothing had been done in the matter. Mr. Linford remarked that he had been informed that the matter had been left to Mr. A. Day, sen., but it was pointed out that according to the report of the District Council meeting on April 26th, which appeared in the local papers, the matter had been referred to the Swavesey representatives, of whom Mr. Day was one, and the Sanitary Inspector to inspect and report. After some discussion it was decided that Messrs. Dean and Linford should interview the Swavesey District Councillors and ascertain what had been done. The audited accounts of the Council for the year ended March last were presented by the Clerk, who also read a letter from the St. Ives Fire Brigade Committee, stating that the Town Council had purchased a Dennis fire engine and equipment, and had re-organised the Fire Brigade, and that the committee were prepared to render any assistance in the district should help be needed. The Clerk also read a circular from the Ministry of Health showing how the Local Government Act, 1929, affected Parish Councils. Mr. Twist enquired who was responsible for the repair of the wall at the corner of Hog Pasture, and, after various opinions had been expressed, the Clerk said he would look up the point and report at the next meeting. During a discussion respecting the dangerous condition of the footbridge leading to Church Green, it transpired that the gate way had been obstructed with willow poles. It was agreed that Messrs. W. Burton and Twist should inspect the bridge and report to the Council.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TREAT. 2nd Aug. 1929

A very happy time was spent in the Vicarage grounds on Thursday week by the children attending the parish church Sunday School, on the occasion of their annual summer treat.

A SLIGHT MISTAKE. 2nd Aug. 1929

Some years ago it was recorded that a field gate had been inadvertently "painted" with treacle instead of creosote, and now the story is current in the village that a man when instructed by a prominent tradesman last week to tar his yard, inadvertently used creosote, and did not discover his mistake until he had emptied the barrel. He appears to have noticed that the "tar" seemed to flow rather more freely than usual, but attributed this to the very hot weather.

THE LATE MR. E. BRIDGEFORD. 2nd Aug. 1929

There was a large attendance of friends and villagers at the parish church on Friday afternoon for the funeral of Mr. Edward Bridgeford, whose death at the age of 87 years was announced last week. The body was met at the churchyard gates by the Vicar, who officiated, and, preceded by Messrs. C. F. Banks and Harry Wells (churchwardens) and Messrs. J. Cain, C. Dean and W. H. Key (sidesmen), was borne into the church by four other sidesmen, Messrs. A. C. Garner, F. Hemington, W. Kester and E. J. Linford. The principal mourners were Mrs. Bridgeford (widow), Mrs. T. Howlett (only child), Mr. and Mrs. A. Payne (nephew and niece), Mr. Peacock, Earith, Mrs. Charles Bridgeford, March (nieces). The late Mr. Bridgeford, as stated last week, had been a sidesman at Swavesey Church for about 30 years, and among the beautiful floral tributes was a wreath from the Vicar, churchwardens and sidesmen. Messrs. R. Mitham and Sons were the undertakers.

VISIT OF LONDON SCOUTS. 9th Aug. 1929

A section of the 15th Willesden Scouts, who are camping by the river on Mr. A. Day's land, under the command of Scoutmaster Boshier, M.B.E., and A.S.M. Mitchell, on Sunday evening, attended church parade at Bethel Baptist Church, and were joined by the 1st Swavesey Boys' Brigade, under the command of Lieut. Wright. The church was crowded, and the very bright service was conducted by the Rev. T. B. Field, who gave an address upon "Consecration." The two Scoutmasters assisted by reading the lessons. Previous to the service Mrs. Field entertained the Scouts to tea at Rutholme.

THE CHURCH CLOCK. 9th Aug. 1929

A correspondent writes: May I, through the medium of the "Press and News," call the attention of the authority responsible for its upkeep to the fact that the clock in the tower of the parish church has been out of action for at least a fortnight. It may not be realised how much the villagers depend on that clock, as it is the only reliable public clock in the parish. Many are the complaints of people on their way to the railway station, that when they look up at the tower they find the hands of the clock day after day pointing at 12.20. It is to be hoped the necessary repairs will be effected without further delay.

BAND OF HOPE CONFERENCE. 9th Aug. 1929

A divisional conference of the Cambs. Band of Hope Union was held on Thursday week by kind permission of Mrs. J. Norman, on the lawn at the Manor House, representatives from the various local Bands of Hope, to the number of 30, being present. The meeting was presided over by the Rev. T. B. Field. Dr. Wood, President of the Union, gave an interesting address upon the need of temperance teaching at Sunday Schools, Girls' and Boys' Brigades, etc. Rev. G. Bird, Mr. D. Moore (secretary), Mrs. Moore and Mr. Starke also spoke. A hearty vote of thanks was accorded to Mr. J. Norman, who generously provided tea for the company, and who gracefully replied.

PARISH COUNCIL. 9th Aug. 1929

A special meeting of the Parish Council was held at the Memorial Hall on Friday evening, when there were present: Mr. C. W. H. Cole (chairman), Messrs. P. Burton, W. Burton, C. Dean, F. Hephew, J. Linford, C. H. Parish and W. Twist, with the Clerk (Mr. P. Godfrey). Mr. Dean reported that he and Mr. Linford had interviewed Mr. A. Day, sen., one of the Swavesey representatives on the District Council, in order to ascertain whether the drain in Market-street and other drains in the parish had been examined in compliance with the resolution passed by the Parish Meeting on April 24th, and that Mr. Day had told them he did not think he ought to give them any information, as he had not yet sent his report to the District Council, but that Mr. Day had eventually informed them that he and his colleague, or colleagues, had inspected Market-street drain, and were satisfied that there was no leakage. During the discussion that ensued the Chairman said he thought that the result of the inspection should be officially communicated to the Parish Council by the R.D.C., but it was generally felt that there ought to be no further delay in deciding what should be done in regard to Market-street pond, and on the motion of Mr. Linford, seconded by Mr. Twist, it was unanimously agreed that the pond should be cleaned out as soon as possible, the question of providing a new fence for financial reasons being left in abeyance for the present. The Council decided that the Church Green footbridge should be brought into a proper state of repair, and Messrs. W. Burton and Twist were delegated to see the work carried out as reasonably as possible. Some conversation ensued as to who was responsible for the upkeep of the gate, or stile, leading from the bridge to Church Green, but no decision was arrived at.

SWAVESEY SUCCESS. 9th Aug. 1929

Record Breaking Show and Sports.

Although the Swavesey and District Horticultural Society's annual show and sports is only a seven-year-old institution, it has gone from strength to strength, and it can now claim to be one of the best events of its kind in the district.

This year's venture, held in the Manor Field, Swavesey, through the kindness of Mr. A. Watts, was an unqualified success, and all records were broken. Not only was there a larger crowd, but the entries, both in the show itself and in the sports, were “up” on previous years, and delightfully fine weather capped the happy situation.

There was a large increase in the entries in the vegetable section, particularly in the potato classes, and the judges (Messrs. W. J. Unwin, Histon, and George Hart, Willingham) declared that the general quality of the exhibits compared most favourably with the larger shows in the county. The fruit was not as good as it might have been, on account of the dry season, and the flowers were rather disappointing, but the vegetables were excellent. The cup given by Mr. Walter Dodson for the best varied collection of vegetables went to Mr. C. W. Elliott.

The sports, which grow every year in popularity, attracted an unprecedented number of entries, and some keen racing was seen. Contestants came from all over the district, and even as far away as King’s Lynn, while one competitor hailed from the United States! It was unfortunate that C. Careless, of Over, was unable to compete for the Coe silver challenge cup, as, had he won it, he would have claimed its ownership, having secured it both in 1927 and 1928. He was not eligible to compete, however, having moved out of the district. The cup was won by H. P. Burton, a Swavesey man and an amateur rider who has won many trophies. Another competitor was S. G. Scott, the well-known skater.

Musical selections were rendered during the afternoon and evening by the Cambridge Town Silver Prize Band, under the conductorship of Mr. R. E. Austin, the band playing for the open-air dancing, which was enjoyed up till 9 o’clock. An adjournment was then made to the Memorial Hall, where dancing was kept up until midnight.

The officials this year took their luncheon in a marquee on the ground, the practice in other years having been to adjourn elsewhere. The President, Mr. R. C. Cole, was in the chair, and he took the opportunity of thanking the judges, who were among the guests, and all officials concerned. The hon. general secretary (Mr. P. Godfrey) and his indefatigable helpers are to be congratulated on the result of their efforts.

List of show officials in the newspaper.

The 15th Willesden Scouts, who are camping at Swavesey, rendered first aid to S. Wright (Swavesey), who collapsed in a walking event, and J. Coe (Reach) who fell in the cycling handicap final.

Among the competitors in the veterans’ race was Mr. T. Osborne, of Girton, who is 81. The prizes were distributed by the President.

Appended is the prize list.

WOMEN’S INSTITUTE. 23rd Aug. 1929

At the monthly meeting of the Women's Institute, held in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday week, Miss Elsdon gave a demonstration of rug making, which was much appreciated. A jelly competition, won by Mrs. Marriott, and community singing concluded the meeting.

FOR ADDENBROOKE'S. 23rd Aug. 1929

The annual house-to-house collection in aid of Addenbrooke's Hospital, which has recently been made in the village under the auspices of the County Organisation Fund, amounted to £16 11s. 6d. Mesdames Aldred, Beaumont, Cooksey, J. Dean, F. Hemington, W. Thorp and Miss F. Gaunt were the collectors.

RURAL COUNCIL MEETING. 23rd Aug. 1929

The Vice-Chairman (Mr. F. Kirby) presided at the monthly meeting of the Rural District Council held at St. Ives Workhouse on Friday. The other members present were: Messrs. W. I. Hemington and J. Scambler. A letter was received from the Cambs. County Council forwarding a copy of the scheme proposed to be made for discharging the functions transferred under Part I of the Local Government Act. Over Parish Council wrote forwarding a copy of a resolution that had been passed to them requesting the Council to provide an adequate water supply in the village. The Clerk (Mr. G. D. Day) was directed to reply stating that the East Hunts. Water Co. held a monopoly for the district, and that they were taking steps to provide a more adequate supply. When that was forthcoming the Rural Council hoped to be able to make satisfactory arrangements. Mr. E. Williams wrote complaining that the clock at Swavesey had stopped, and the matter was referred to Mr. C. H. Ingram, of St. Ives. The Chairman produced the District Auditor's report, in which he stated that the accounts had been found satisfactory.

ACCIDENT. 30th Aug. 1929

Mr. George William Laverack, of Church-end, while gathering fruit in Mr. William Burton's orchard on Monday evening, fell from a plum tree and was somewhat seriously injured. After being seen by Dr. Fraser, he was taken by car to Addenbrooke's Hospital, where it was ascertained that he had sustained a fractured arm, and he was detained.

DEATH OF MR. GEORGE MITHAM. 30th Aug. 1929

We have to announce the death of Mr. George Mitham, carpenter and wheelwright, of Middle Watch, Swavesey, who succumbed to an attack of pneumonia and pleurisy on Sunday afternoon, after three or four days' illness.

Mr. Mitham, who was 83 years of age, leaves two sons. His wife died about four years ago. The funeral took place yesterday (Thursday) afternoon at Swavesey parish church.

BOY SCOUTS. 30th Aug. 1929

Between 30 and 40 lads attended a meeting in the National School on Tuesday evening, called to consider whether a troop of Boy Scouts should be formed in the village. The Vicar (the Rev. C. F. Stebbing), who presided, supported by Dr. Fraser, in a brief introductory address emphasised that the proposed troop would be entirely undenominational, and as such, under the rules, there would be no church parades. Mr. C. Wood (headmaster of the school) and Mr. P. Banks (an old scout) also spoke. The lads unanimously decided that a troop should be formed, and a committee, consisting of the Vicar, Dr. Fraser, Messrs. Wood, Banks and C. R. Vincent, was appointed to carry out the necessary preliminary arrangements.

A RELIC FROM FLANDERS. 30th Aug. 1929

Mr. H. G. Key, while on the recent British Legion pilgrimage to the battlefields in Flanders, visited Doight, and in a small, and beautifully kept, burial ground there discovered the grave of a Swavesey man, Pioneer Walter Coulson, of 315 Construction Company, R.E., who died of wounds on 2nd October, 1918. The caretaker of the burial ground gave Mr. Key a rough peg-shaped piece of wood with metal name plate attached, which originally marked the grave, and which has been replaced by a head-stone. The following inscription is cut on the plate: "W. R. 22,909. Pioneer W. Coulson, No. 1 Platoon, 315 R.C. Coy., Royal Engineers. From his comrades." On it there is also a roughly cut heart transfixing with an arrow. The relic has been handed to Pioneer Coulson's widow.

BRIDGE REPAIRED. 6th Sept. 1929

PLAGUE OF FLIES. 6th Sept. 1929

Dense clouds of green flies descended on Swavesey last Friday morning and drove along the streets, to the great discomfort of motorists, cyclists and pedestrians. About mid-day the troublesome insects moved off, apparently making their way towards Over.

FOXES v. PARTRIDGES. 6th Sept. 1929

A Swavesey sportsman, writing last Saturday, says: "We have been talking for weeks past about shooting prospects in September, where the coveys of partridges lay, and so forth, but my dreams of good sport have been dispelled, as last night, after I had retired to my bedroom in the middle of the village, I heard the well-known bark of a fox. Men working in the fields report that this district is overrun with foxes, which are becoming quite bold. Poultry runs have been raided with disastrous results, and partridges are said to have practically disappeared. Yet the Cambridgeshire Hunt never, or hardly ever, pays Swavesey a visit."

ACCIDENT TO CHILDREN. 6th Sept. 1929

Three small boys, two of them sons of Mrs. Budge, of the Council Houses, Boxworth End, and the other a visitor named Kester, had a very narrow escape from serious injury, if not death, on Thursday afternoon in last week, when, mounted on bicycles, they rode out of Mr. Cole's rick yard and ran into a passing motor lorry laden with granite. The driver, Mr. Harold Allgood, of Elsworth, was fortunately proceeding very steadily at the time, and jamming on his brakes, swerved to the right, narrowly escaping contact with two cottages. Both of the Budges were knocked over and their cycles smashed, and one of the boys was unconscious when picked up. It was at first thought he had been seriously injured, but no bones were broken, and in a few days he had recovered from the shock and slight concussion. Young Kester and his cycle escaped injury.

THE LATE MR. GEORGE MITHAM. 6th Sept. 1929

The funeral of Mr. George Mitham, wheelwright and carpenter, whose death on August 25th, at the age of 83 years, has already been announced, took place on Thursday week at Swavesey Parish Church, the Vicar, the Rev. C. F. Stebbing, officiating. The mourners included Messrs. Harry and Ernest Mitham (sons), Misses A. and F. Abrams and Mrs. A. Webb (step-daughters), Mr. E. Thorpe (grandson), Mr. and Mrs. G. Nicholson (brother-in-law and sister), Mrs. Morris, Miss A. Mitham (sisters), Mr. A. Webb (son-in-law), Mrs. E. Mitham (daughter-in-law), Misses Maud and May Mitham (nieces).

THE HARVEST. 6th Sept. 1929

Very small acreage of arable land in the village. Estimated yields: Wheat, 4½qrs. per acre, very fair crop; barley, good, 5 qrs.; hay, practically none worth cutting; seeds, lucerne, very light, about 15 cwt. per acre; peas, good crop, about 4 qrs. per acre; beans (winter), very thin owing to frost; potatoes (early), very fair yields; main crops, doubtless, will be small. Roots are exceptionally good; have grown well considering the drought. The prospects for cereals are better than last year. – C. W. H. Cole.

Upwards of £5,000 was raised by the fund during the year 1927-8, a fine example of the workers' enthusiasm for their hospital. It is hoped that as many as possible will attend the meeting to hear the many benefits explained by the Chairman (Mr. A. T. Potter) and Hon. Secretary (Mr. E. J. Papworth). The local arrangements are in the hands of Mr. H. Whitehead.

LOCAL BAKER'S SUCCESS. 13th Sept. 1929

PARISH COUNCIL. 20th Sept. 1929

A special meeting of the Parish Council was held at the Memorial Hall on Monday, the following members attending: Mr. C. W. H. Cole (chairman), Mr. C. H. Parish (vice-chairman), Messrs. P. Burton, C. Dean, F. Hepher, J. Linford, P. Parish and W. Twist, with the Clerk (Mr. Prime Godfrey). Mr. Twist reported that the large accumulation of mud had been satisfactorily cleared from the Market-street pond at a total cost of £10 10s., viz., contract for clearing out the mud £7, and £3 10s. for carting most of it away. Mr. Twist further reported that the Church Green footbridge had been repaired at a cost of £3 5s. The councillors generally expressed satisfaction that both these matters had been attended to so promptly, and the Chairman thanked the committees charged with the supervision of the work. On the motion of Mr. C. H. Parish, seconded by Mr. Linford, it was unanimously agreed that a precept of £35 should be issued on the rating authority for the expenses.

SWAVESEY RURAL COUNCIL. 20th Sept. 1929

Swavesey Water Charges.

Mr. J. Frohock (chairman) presided at the monthly meeting of Swavesey Rural District Council, held at St. Ives, on Friday. There were also present Messrs. F. Kirby (vice-chairman), W. F. Hemington and R. Norman.

The Accounting Officer produced a letter from the East Hunts. Water Company stating that they were prepared to provide half-inch meters, inspect and keep them in repair, read them each quarter, and supply the Council with the readings, at a rental of 5s. per quarter for each meter, subject to six or more meters being hired, and also to fix and make the necessary connections, including the provision of a small underground brickpit with iron cover, and an extra stopcock at a cost of 30s. to 35s. each, provided two or three are put in at the same time. The committee recommended that the company's offer be accepted, and that water be supplied to the following by meter: A. Day, Mill Farm; W. J. Hephher, High-street; A. L. Parish, Middle Watch; R. Williamson, High-street; A. J. Freestone, Boxworth End; A. and J. Parish, High-street; Mrs. Page, Taylor's-lane. The committee directed that further information be obtained as to the number of separate services used by Mr. Hephher and Mr. Williamson. The revision of charges for the supply of water to farms had also been considered, but no decision had been arrived at.

The Vice-Chairman, in proposing the adoption of the report, said the committee had been compelled to adjourn, because they could not deal with the supplies for the cottages and the farms.

The report was adopted.

SANITARY INSPECTOR RESIGNS.

Mr. F. G. Reynolds wrote resigning his post as Sanitary Inspector.

DRINK AFTER HOURS. 27th Sept. 1929

Swavesey Licensee Fined by County Magistrates.

CAMBRIDGE MEN SUPPLIED.

The licensee of the New Inn, Swavesey, R. A. C., who has been at the New Inn only a short time, was fined £2 by the County Magistrates last Saturday, for supplying four persons with intoxicating liquor at 11.10 p.m. on Saturday September 12th. – He pleaded guilty.

His Honour Judge H. G. Farrant was in the chair.

P.C. Bell, of Boxworth, said that at 11 p.m. on September 12th he was on duty in the Huntingdon-road, when he saw a motor car with lights on standing outside the New Inn, Swavesey. A few minutes later another car came towards the Swavesey-road. The car pulled up outside the New Inn. A man got out and walked to the door of the inn, returned to the car, and then he and three others went into the inn. Witness went up to the inn, and through the window saw three men and a woman sitting in the taproom in the dark. The licensee came into the room with four glasses – three glasses of beer and one of stout. Witness went in and asked the landlord what he meant by having these people here, and defendant replied, "I am sorry. They just called for a drink. I ought not to have done it."

In a statement to the magistrates, defendant said that he was very sorry that it had happened. It took him on the spur of the moment, and as he had only been in the house for a short time, he hoped the Bench would deal leniently with him.

A fine of £2 was imposed, and the Bench hoped that he would be more careful in the future.

CAMBRIDGE MEN FINED.

A. C., of 87, King-street, Cambridge, and C. H., J. R. H. and L. H., all of 81, King-street, were summoned for consuming intoxicating liquor at the same place and date. – All defendants pleaded guilty.

P.C. Bell repeated the evidence of the previous case, and a fine of 12s. 6d. was imposed in each case.

CHURCH CAUSEWAY. 27th Sept. 1929

FOR THE BLIND. 27th Sept. 1929

The Geranium Day collection on behalf of the National Institute for the Blind, which took place on Saturday, produced the satisfactory sum of £3 3s. 6d. Mrs. Gamble, Miss K. Banks, Miss E. Page and Miss J. Willson were the collectors.

WORKERS' HOSPITAL FUND. 27th Sept. 1929

A meeting called to consider the question of forming a local branch of the Cambridge and District Workers' Hospital Fund was held at the Memorial Hall on Thursday evening in last week. The Rev. T. B. Field presided, and with him on the platform were Messrs. A. T. Potter, G. W. Chapman, E. J. Papworth (chairman, vice-chairman and hon. secretary respectively of the fund), and Mr. H. Whitehead (stationmaster at Swavesey). A letter was read from the Vicar of Swavesey (Rev. C. F. Stebbing), regretting that owing to a previous engagement he could not be present, and expressing his cordial sympathy with the object of the meeting. After addresses by Messrs. Potter, Papworth and Chapman, a resolution, proposed by Mr. C. Savage, and seconded by Mr. W. Symonds, was carried unanimously that a branch of the fund should be established to comprise the six parishes in the Swavesey rural district, and that a committee, consisting of representatives from each of the villages, with power to add to their number, be appointed, but when the meeting proceeded to elect the committee a member of the audience inquired whether representatives of all the villages were present. It was then ascertained that only Boxworth and Swavesey were represented, and as regards the former, Mr. R. Mailer suggested, as a preliminary step, that a meeting should be held in that village. Eventually, on the proposition of the Chairman, the following were appointed a committee to obtain the co-operation of the other parishes and to report to another meeting to be held as soon as possible: Mrs. Field, Mrs. Walter Thorp, Rev. C. F. Stebbing, Mr. W.

Pontefract, Mr. S. F. Mitham, Mr. C. Savage and Mr. P. Banks, with the Rev. T. B. Field as chairman and Mr. Whitehead as hon. secretary. The proceedings concluded with a vote of thanks to Messrs. Potter, Chapman and Papworth.

The villages in the district are Willingham, Longstanton, Over, Swavesey, Fen Drayton, Dry Drayton, Childerley, Conington and Knapwell.

AN INTERESTING RECORD. 4th Oct. 1929

A correspondent writes: "It may be of interest to some of your readers to know that at the present time there are at least 82 persons (35 men and 47 women) residing in the parish of Swavesey who are 70 years of age and upwards, 16 of whom are over 80. Many of them are still working, Mr. Chas. Burling, an octogenarian blacksmith, for instance, shoeing horses every day. As the population of the parish was returned at 830 at the 1921 census, this means that 10 per cent. of the inhabitants have attained the venerable age of 70 years or more."

PRIMITIVE METHODISTS. 4th Oct. 1929

The harvest festival was held at the Primitive Methodist Chapel on Sunday, the service being conducted by the Rev. J. J. Hindes reading the narrative. Miss Jude was the organist, and the Rev. J. J. Harrison presided. At the close the gifts of vegetables and fruit were sold, the proceeds, with the collections, being devoted to the Trust funds. The meetings of the Sisterhood connected with the chapel will commence on Thursday, Oct. 17th.

Montagu Coulson (18), a milkman employed by Messrs. A. Day and Sons met with a serious accident last Friday afternoon, which may result in the total loss of his sight. He was driving cows for milking in Mow Fen when his stick broke and part of it struck his right eye. Not only did he suffer intense pain, but was rendered sightless as he had lost the other eye when a little child. The lad lay helpless and unattended for some time, but eventually was taken home, where he was seen by Dr. Fraser, who ordered his removal to Addenbrooke's Hospital, where he is still detained.

SWAVESEY CHILD'S DEATH. 4th Oct. 1929

Sad Story of Collapse after Operation.

THE INQUEST.

The sad circumstances of the death of a young Swavesey Girl, who died in Addenbrooke's Hospital after an operation for appendicitis on Sunday, were related to the Borough Coroner (Mr. G. A. Wootten), at an inquest held in the Hospital on Wednesday. The girl's name was Shirley Heather Timbrell, of 7, School-lane, Swavesey. She was four years of age, and was an only child. A verdict of "Death from misadventure" was returned by the Coroner, who referred to the case as a very sad one.

John Reginald Timbrell, father of the deceased, of 7, School-lane, Swavesey, said that previous to last Saturday his daughter had excellent health, and they had never had a doctor for her. At about 11 p.m. on Saturday the child complained of pains, but she went off to sleep at about 3 a.m. on Sunday, and slept peacefully until about 9 a.m. Witness's wife and hour later, ascertained that the child's temperature was 103. In consequence of that witness sent for Dr. Fraser at about 12 o'clock, and he diagnosed the trouble as appendicitis. Dr. Bowen was sent for, and took the child to Addenbrooke's Hospital at about 7.30 p.m.

ACUTE APPENDICITIS.

Dr. William Edward Masheter, house surgeon at the Hospital, said that deceased was examined at about 8 p.m. on Sunday, and found to be suffering from acute appendicitis. Dr. Fraser would not have been able to see whether it was acute or not.

The Coroner: Perhaps it would have been better if the child had been removed to hospital earlier?

Witness: This child came within 24 hours, and the majority of the cases were 48 hours or over.

Continuing, witness said that the operation was made the same day by Dr. Bowen. Witness was very surprised at the death. There was a general enlargement of the glands all over the body. Death was due to status lymphaticus, which caused the child not to respond in the way witness expected her to.

The Coroner returned a verdict of "Death from misadventure," the cause of death being a collapse from the anaesthetic.

He added that the operation was performed by a very eminent surgeon in Dr. Bowen, and everything was done to save the child. It was a very sad case, particularly as she was an only child, and he desired to express his sincere sympathy with the parents.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH, SWAVESEY. 4th Oct. 1929

Pastor's Ministerial Jubilee and Harvest Thanksgiving.

The harvest thanksgiving services, combined with the celebration of the ministerial jubilee of the Pastor, Rev. T. B. Field, drew very large congregations to Bethel Baptist Church, Swavesey, on Thursday in last week, including representatives of Mr. Field's former churches in London, Crewe, Ashwater and Cheddar.

The Rev. C. T. Allen, of Cottenham, preached in the afternoon, after which tea was served to nearly 150 people. Immediately following the tea a meeting was presided over by the Pastor, addresses being given by Revs. A. Hawkins (Great Yarmouth) G. E. Bird (Over), F. Whitbourn (Fenstanton) and J. K. Thorpe (Cottenham). Mr. Bray contributed a concertina solo.

MANY CONGRATULATIONS.

At the evening gathering the church was crowded to capacity. The Rev. H. G. Baker, ex-President of the Cambs. Baptist Association, who presided, brought the good wishes of that body through a telegram from Dr. Spear, the secretary, and Mr. J. Day reported that letters and telegrams of congratulation had been received from Sir. W. Hodgson, M.D., Dr. and Mrs. Field, of Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Dawson, of Crewe, Revs. Dr. Hughes, W. Fullerton, Carey Bonner, R. L. Child, G. Jones, H. W. Batstone, E. A. Carter, A. C. Miller, R. S. Latimer, the Cambs. Band of Hope Union, Spurgeon's College, Mr. and Mrs. J. Miles, Mr. W. and Miss Scipeo, Messrs. C. Philo and W. E. Ford. Letters were read from Rev. E. F. Allworthy (vicar of Histon), and from the following churches where Mr. Field had ministered: Ashwater and Appledore, Devon, Bacup (Lancs.), Crewe, Shepherd's Bush and Kensal Rise (London), and Clayton (Yorks), Mr. A. Townsend (Ealing), Revs. R. C. Griffin (area superintendent), and C. A. Linnington (Hornsey Rise).

Addresses were given by Mr. F. C. Bray (Ashwater), Mr. S. Allen (Cheddar), Mr. E. C. Walker (Crewe), Mr. R. Eatwell (London), Mr. J. W. Payne, Revs. E. P. Blackaby, W. Mildred and J. Williams.

The Pastor, in replying to the many expressions of goodwill, said he closed 50 years' pastoral life on June 30th last, and during the long period he had enjoyed the happiest relations with all his churches, and hoped, if it was God's will, to work on, as he had no thoughts of any immediate retirement.

During the meeting Mr. Bray contributed another solo, and the choir, assisted by several Cambridge friends, gave an admirable rendering of an anthem, Messrs. G. E. Canham and J. W. Williams acted as organists. Among others present were the Rev. O. C. Austin, who, owing to another engagement, could not stay to speak, Messrs. F. Kirby and J. M. Taylor.

The church was beautifully decorated, and the tea sumptuously provided by ladies of the church.

The harvest thanksgiving services were continued on Sunday by the Pastor, the gifts in kind being subsequently sent to Addenbrooke's Hospital.

A substantial gift was made to Mr. Field as a token of esteem.

PARISH CHURCH. 11th Oct. 1929

The harvest festival at the Parish Church on Thursday, 3rd October, opened with a celebration of Holy Communion at 7.30 a.m. There was a large congregation at evensong, when the special preacher was the Rev. Lawrence Browne, of Cambridge, and the music included the Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis (Clare) and Barnby's anthem "O Lord, how manifold." The church was effectively decorated, the flowers being exceptionally beautiful, but the fruit and vegetables, though excellent in quality, were far from being up to the average in regard to quantity, owing, no doubt, to the drought. On Sunday, when the festival was continued, there was a children's flower service in the afternoon, the young people's gifts of fruit, flowers, eggs, etc. being afterwards sent to St. Ives Infirmary. Notwithstanding the wet evening, a large congregation was present at evensong, when the pulpit was occupied by the Rev. A. W. Sale, rector of Cogenhoe, Northants. The collections throughout the festival, except that on Sunday evening, were in aid of Addenbrooke's Hospital, and amounted to £8 4s., 10s. more than last year. The gifts of fruit, vegetables, etc., have also been forwarded to Addenbrooke's.

These half-yearly collections are arranged by the Parish Council.

CATTLE FEEDING. 8th Nov. 1929

Mr. Boutflour's Instructive Lecture at Swavesey.

At the first meeting for the winter season of the Swavesey and District Agricultural Discussion Society on Friday, when "Cattle Feeding" was discussed after a most instructive lecture by Mr. R. Boutflour, several points were made clear by the lecturer, including the following:

A full-sized dairy cow of the large breeds can very rarely deal with more than 33lbs. of dry matter daily. The dry matter referred to includes not only the dry meal and cake fed to the animal, but also the dry matter contained in all her food, including roots, hay, straw, etc. No cow can deal with 33lbs. of indigestible dry matter daily, such as shredded leather. The dry matter that she should be asked to deal with must be digestible, or nearly so.

Roots are quite unnecessary unless indigestible foods be fed, such as straw, bad hay, late made hay, and inferior cakes and meals. It would pay dairy farmers to grow sugar beet instead of roots. Dairy cows must have an almost unlimited supply of good water.

MILKING OF COWS.

If it is not possible to milk heavy yielding cows three times daily, they should be milked at hours as far apart as possible, and not more than a yield of 30lbs. of milk at any one milking should be aimed at and fed for accordingly.

All cows should be fed a balanced ration of $3\frac{1}{2}$ lbs. of digestible cake and meal per gallon of milk, in addition to a suitable ration of hay. About 20lbs. of good hay per day is as much as is necessary for any cow at any time. As the ration of cake and meal increases according to the yield of the cow, so the ration of hay should be cut down until a very heavy yielding cow is only receiving 3lbs. of hay per day. All allowances of food should be fed three times daily, and the very heavy yielding cow should have the allowance of hay in a small handful of 1lb. three times daily. All cows will eat more than necessary, and must be prevented from doing so if a heavy yield of milk is desired.

When cows are tied up for the winter, short straw should be kept behind them and no straw allowed in front. Sawdust and peat moss litter is very useful in place of straw.

When being exercised in winter cows should be kept on the move and not allowed to consume any straw to be picked up in the yards.

When a cow is fed more food than she is capable of digesting she actually digests less than the amount she is capable of digesting, and down comes her yield of milk. In the spring few cows eat more than 130 to 150 lbs. of young grass in a day, which amount contains sufficient dry matter for a cow yielding three or four gallons of milk. Beyond that yield she should be fed a correct ration of cake and meals and her hours of grazing should be limited.

IMPORTANCE OF MILK RECORDING.

All dairy farmers should join their local milk recording society and feed their cows according to the recorded yield, discarding the cows which do not respond to the feeding.

Without careful milk recording, good management can hardly exist, and no one should complain of financial loss through dairying who takes no trouble and does not encourage his stockmen to be accurate and careful in the management of his cattle, food and dairy.

Mr. Boutflour advised the dairy farmers present that through the milk recorders employed by the Cambs. Milk Recording Society the county agricultural organisers, Messrs. J. C. Leslie and R. Sayce, would always be pleased to advise members and instruct their cowmen as to the most economical feeding of the cows according to the foodstuffs available on the farm, and the current market price of the foods necessary to complete the balanced ration.

In addition, it was pointed out that the Cambs. Society had arranged the charges for the current year so that practically all milk producers in the district could afford to become members and take advantage of the services provided by the society, the charges being, for the current year, almost without exception the lowest made by any county milk recording society in England operating officially under the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries.

The meeting was exceptionally well attended. Mr. Mailer, C.C. (Boxworth) presided, supported by Ald. Dr. J. W. Ellis, Mr. B. Pearson, C.C. (Milton), Mr. Fred Kirby (Over), Mr. C. W. H. Cole (Swavesey) and others.

SERVICE OF REMEMBRANCE. 15th Nov. 1929

Ex-Service men, about 30 in number, assembled at the school at 2.15 p.m. on Sunday, under the command of Mr. R. Barwell, and headed by the standard of the Swavesey and District Branch of the British Legion, borne by Mr. T. Savage, marched to the Memorial, where a service was conducted by the Rev. T. B. Field, pastor of Bethel Baptist Church. The service included a lesson (Revelations vii, beginning at verse 9) read by Dr. Fraser, the recital of the names of the men of the district who fell in the war by Mr. H. H. Berryman (hon. secretary, British Legion), after which the "Last Post" was sounded by Mr. Barwell and two minutes' silence was observed. An address was given by Mr. Field on gratitude, remembrance and sacrifice. The hymns "O God our help in ages past," "The supreme sacrifice," "When I survey the wond'rous Cross" and "Fight the good fight" were sung during the service which concluded with the National Anthem. A collection in aid of Earl Haig's Fund amounted to £1 15s. 8d.

A half muffled peal was rung on the bells of the parish church before the evening service, which, notwithstanding the rough weather, was attended by a good congregation. Thirty-six ex-Service men met at the churchyard gate, and led by Mr. Charles Savage, carrying the British Legion standard, marched into the church, where seats had been reserved for them. The service opened with the hymn "O God our help" sung in procession, and after the third Collect and the singing of Arkwright's "O valiant hearts," the Vicar, who officiated, read the long roll of the men of Swavesey who served in the war. In his sermon the Vicar, who took "God save the King" as his text, made a special reference to the appeal for Earl Haig's Fund. After the Blessing the National Anthem was sung and the "Last Post" sounded the service concluding with "Onward Christian soldiers" sung as a recessional. The collection, which amounted to £3 5s., was devoted to Earl Haig's Fund.

On Armistice Day there was a celebration of Holy Communion at the parish church at 7.30 a.m., and immediately preceding the two minutes' silence the tenor bell was tolled 26 times, the number of Swavesey men who made the supreme sacrifice. Mattins followed the silence. On and around the Memorial Cross in the churchyard were many beautiful wreaths, chiefly of white flowers, including a large wreath of laurel and poppies from the Swavesey members of the British Legion.

FATAL CRASH. 22nd Nov. 1929

Swavesey Man's Death.

Arthur Kester. Aged 21, School-lane, Swavesey, who was injured in a collision near Ely on Monday, died in Addenbrooke's Hospital.

He was returning from his work at the Beet Sugar Factory shortly after 8 a.m. on his motor cycle and was carrying a pillion rider, when he was involved in a collision in the Prickwillow-road.

Salter, the Chairman introduced Col. F. M. Stratton (chairman of the Cambs. and Isle of Ely County Committee), who before presenting the cup and medals, gave an instructive address on the work of the Legion and the need for every ex-Service man to join. He also explained why it was necessary that the seven years' time limit for ex-Service men should be abolished. Col. Stratton then handed the cup to the captain of the team, Mr. T. Savage, who, in returning thanks, spoke of the admirable way in which the team had hung together, and said they would do their best to retain the cup next year. Medals were presented to the following

Col. Stratton congratulated the branch on the progress that was being made, and expressed the hope that it would be maintained. A vote of thanks to the Colonel, proposed by Dr. Fraser, and seconded by Mr. P. Lee, was carried unanimously, and three hearty cheers were given on the call of the Chairman. COLLISION IN FOG. 29th Nov. 1929

Fatal Accident After Night Work.

SWAVESEY LAD'S DEATH.

The story of how a motor cyclist with a pillion rider, crashed into the rear of a steam lorry shortly after 8 a.m. on November 18th during a fog, was told at an inquest at Addenbrooke's Hospital on Saturday. The deceased was Arthur Kester (21), of Swavesey, a checker-in at Ely beet sugar factory, who was driving the motor cycle, and he died on Wednesday. The inquest was held by the Borough Coroner (Mr. G. A. Wootten), who sat with a jury, Mr. P. W. Fyson being the foreman. A verdict of "Accidental death" was recorded.

"A GOOD DRIVER."

James Kester, a smallholder, Council Houses, Swavesey, identified deceased as his son. His hearing, eyesight and general health were good and he was a teetotaler. He had served about two years in the Royal Air Force, in the mechanical stores department, and while there purchased a motor cycle. He had had it about 18 months, and was a very good driver. Deceased commenced work at the beet sugar factory at Ely towards the end of September, and had to go to and fro on the motor cycle.

"I TRIED TO MISS IT."

Witness saw him last Sunday evening at about 7 o'clock, when he was going to work, as he was on night duty. Next morning, at about 10.30 witness received information about the accident, and went to Addenbrooke's Hospital. His son was just conscious. He saw him again the following day, when his son told him that he was riding on the near side, following the roadside, and all at once he saw a lorry. There was, he said, a thick bank of fog. "I tried to miss it, dad, but I could not do it," he added. He also told witness that he left hold of his handlebars as quickly as he could and tried to throw himself off the machine, but could not.

In reply to a jurymen, witness said deceased did not mention whether there was a light on the back of the lorry.

PILLION RIDER'S STORY.

Frank Richard Allen (24). Lodging at 46, Lynn-road, Ely, a sample clerk at the beet factory, said he was leaving the factory at about 8 a.m., as he had been on the night shift and was riding pillion with deceased. Kester was going to drop him at Ely and go on to Swavesey. The road was very slippery and frosty in places, and previous to the collision they had skidded as they passed out from the factory gate. Although they had fallen off neither were hurt. They went along the Prickwillow road, and were going at about 20 miles per hour when the accident happened.

The Coroner: Rather fast in a fog, was it not?

Witness: The fog was not as thick all along.

How far could you see in front of you? – Fifty or sixty yards.

How far could you see just when the accident happened? – You could not see anything just then.

Do you think deceased was going too fast? – No.

Witness said they ran into a thick bank of fog and immediately saw a lorry just in front, and the next he knew was that he was on the road. He did not think he was unconscious. They did not see the lorry before because of the fog and the steam from the lorry, and in his opinion that was the cause of the collision. He did not notice a light on the rear of the lorry.

“NOT TOO FOGGY.”

Herbert Andrew Joselyn, Lynn-road, Ely, steam lorry steersman, said he, and the driver of the lorry, had been to the beet sugar factory with a load, and were returning empty.

The Coroner: Was it foggy at the time?

Witness: Not so foggy as it was at the first part of the morning.

How far could you see in front of you? – I should say 100 yards with lights on.

Could you swear there was a light on the back? – When we left the factory.

This steam lorry, does it throw out much smoke? – At times it does.

Would that make much of a smoke screen? – No.

Witness added that they were travelling at about four or five miles per hour, and the smoke would go behind. They were on the near side of the road, about a foot from the pathway.

A SLIGHT KNOCK.

They felt a slight knock at the back of the waggon, continued witness, and they decided to stop. They went to the back of the lorry, but could not see anything. They then saw a motor cycle, deceased and the pillion rider on the road. Deceased was on the path, and the pillion rider sitting on the edge of the path.

The impact caused the number plate of the lorry to be bent upwards. Witness agreed that the smoke from the lorry could be mistaken for fog at the back. When the Coroner asked witness if something could not be done to make the lorries consume their own smoke, witness did not reply. He could not suggest anything that would stop the smoke dropping down on the road and obscuring the lorry.

The Coroner: You do say there was a considerable amount of black smoke at the back?

Witness: Yes, sir.

And you do say that if that had not been anyone could have seen 50 yards? – Yes, sir.

In reply to a question by a juryman, witness said he thought the impact put the rear lamp out. It was warm when they stopped.

P.C. Bolton, stationed at Ely, said that at about 8.30 a.m., he received information about an accident and went to the spot. He saw deceased on the path being attended to by Dr. Davies, and the pillion rider was sitting on the edge of the path with an injury to the forehead. The motor cycle was on the near side and had a smashed head lamp, and bent number plate, front mudguard and forks. The steam wagon was standing on the side of the road about 25 yards ahead. On the roadway there was a skid mark resembling a scratch, which was seven feet long. He conveyed deceased to hospital in the Ely ambulance. If they were going 20 miles per hour in the fog he would consider it rather fast.

CAUSE OF DEATH.

Dr. Isaacs, of Addenbrooke's Hospital, said deceased was admitted at about 10.35 a.m., and was semi-conscious. He had a broken neck and broken skull. It was quite obvious that a considerable amount of force would have been needed to have caused the two injuries. Hyper pyrexia or abnormally high temperature was primarily the cause of death, followed by a broken neck.

"ACCIDENTAL DEATH."

The jury returned a verdict of "Accidental death," and exonerated the driver of the waggon from blame. They expressed sympathy with the relatives, as also did the Coroner.

LUGGAGE OF LIFE. 6th Dec. 1929

At the meeting on Monday evening of the Young People's Fellowship connected with Bethel Baptist Church, the Rev. J. K. Thorp, of Willingham, gave an interesting lecture on the "Luggage of Life." The Rev. T. B. Field presided.

AN EARLY PASSENGER. 6th Dec. 1929

A Swavesey girl, who travels regularly five days a week to school in Cambridge by the first up train leaving Swavesey at 8.23 a.m., surprised railway officials yesterday morning by arriving at the station shortly after 7 o'clock. When told the time, she remarked: "Our clock must be fast. I thought it was rather darker than usual this morning." She then returned home.

VICAR'S BEREAVEMENT. 6th Dec. 1929

The Vicar, Rev. C. F. Stebbing, was suddenly called away to Norfolk on Sunday morning in consequence of the death of his father, but before he left he conducted the usual mid-day service. The children's service in the afternoon was taken by Mr. Edward Williams, and two students from Westcott House, Cambridge, officiated at Evensong, one of whom, Mr. Temple Lang, preached the sermon.

NURSING ASSOCIATION. 6th Dec. 1929

The audited accounts of the Swavesey, Over and Fen Drayton Nursing Association for the year ended 31st October, 1929, show that the receipts amounted to £184 2s. 2½d., viz., subscriptions and donations £97 7s. 6d., from other sources £86 14s. 8½d., and the expenditure to £205 10s. 0½d. The committee, while thanking all who have helped so liberally in the past, trust that the Association will be still better supported in the coming year. The nurse, it may be mentioned, paid 3,131 visits during the year.

CONCERT AT BETHEL. 6th Dec. 1929

A correspondent writes: "Those who might have come to Bethel Chapel on Thursday evening in last week, but did not, are to be pitied. They missed a musical treat. Before a small, but appreciative audience the choir of St. Andrew's-street Baptist Church, Cambridge, gave a fine rendering of Maunder's "Bethlehem." (Soloists in newspaper). The Rev. T. B. Field, who presided, expressed regret at the smallness of the audience. He thought this might have been due to the fact that our Parish Council have not yet seen their way to enable others to see their way about the village at night – by providing street lights. Perhaps, before we pass into another century, this amenity will be forthcoming.

BAND OF HOPE. 13th Dec. 1929

At a well-attended meeting of the Bethel Band of Hope on Monday, Mr. C. Day gave an address. Readings were also given by Miss Easter and Mrs. Field, and several recitations by the members. The Rev. T. B. Field presided.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP. 13th Dec. 1929

The members of the Young People's Fellowship on Monday enjoyed a special literary treat when the Rev. E. P. Blackaby, of Willingham, gave a lecture upon Tennyson's "In Memoriam," deducing from it many useful lessons. Hearty thanks were accorded to the lecturer. The Rev. T. B. Field occupied the chair.

WIND AND WATER. 13th Dec. 1929

No very serious damage has been done by the gales in Swavesey. A number of slates have been ripped off a house near Turn Bridge, and the roofs of other houses and buildings have suffered. During the violent squall about 2.30 p.m. on Sunday the down signal post at the railway station collapsed, and in various parts of the village wireless masts were wrecked, and tiles, slates and corrugated roofing blown off. All land near the river is flooded, and there is a considerable amount of water in Cow Fen, adjoining the L.N.E.R. line.

WORKERS' HOSPITAL FUND. 13th Dec. 1929

The formation of a branch of the Cambridge and District Workers' Hospital Fund to cover the Swavesey Rural District Area, was carried a step further at a meeting held at Swavesey Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening, under the presidency of the Rev. T. B. Field, when the following were elected to form the committee: Boxworth, Messrs. T. Day and J. Mailer; Conington, Mr. R. Scambler; Fen Drayton, Messrs. E. Smart and E. J. Warboys; Lolworth, Mr. J. Bentley; Over, Messrs. A. Allen and Herbert Mustill; Swavesey, Messrs. T. Savage and H. Unwin. Mr. H. Whitehead, of Swavesey, is the hon. secretary of the branch.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 13th Dec. 1929

The annual meeting of the Women's Institute, held on Tuesday in the Memorial Hall, was well attended. The President and Secretary presented their reports and the Treasurer her accounts for the year, which showed a balance of just over £4. The election of the committee which followed, resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Fraser; Vice-president, Mrs. Aldred; secretary, Miss Banks; treasurer, Miss Cole; committee, Mrs. Banks, Mrs. Freestone, Mrs. F. Hemington, Mrs. W. Keston, Mrs. Marriott, Mrs. F. Martin, Mrs. Canham, Mrs. C. S. Hephher, Miss D. Hephher and Miss D. Godfrey. While the voting was proceeding, singing and games were enjoyed, and Mrs. Tansley, a V.C.O., gave an enlightening talk on the origin and work of Women's Institutes, for which she was accorded a hearty vote of thanks. Mr. W. Thorp and Mr. Pontefract, who acted as tellers, were accorded a hearty vote of thanks.

CHURCH REPAIR FUND. 13th Dec. 1929

The interior of the Memorial Hall presented a festive appearance on Thursday afternoon in last week, when the annual sale in aid of the Parish Church Repair Fund was opened by Mrs. Parker, of St. Ives. The Rev. J. F. Cooksey, who briefly introduced Mrs. Parker, expressed the sympathy of those present with the Vicar, who was absent owing to the death of his father. The stalls and competitions did a brisk trade during the afternoon, and the Christmas tree was a great attraction to the children. In the evening the hall was again filled for an entertainment, which included a play, entitled "The Crimson Cocoonut," in which the performers were Dr. Reid, Miss M. Barwell, Dr. Fraser, Messrs. R. Barwell, S. Mitham, and H. Topham. Mr. Sydney Pratt, of Cambridge, also mystified the audience with his wonderful conjuring tricks, and Mr. J. S. King was loudly encored for his amusing songs. The concluding item was a duologue by Misses Cole and E. Dodson, entitled "A strange relation." Winners of the competitions were announced during the interval, and included: Plum pudding, Mrs. Scate; Christmas cake, Mrs. W. Hepher, Mrs. Prime, Mrs. C. Dean; box of chocolates, Mrs. H. Key; afternoon tea cloth, Miss Daisley; smelling bottles, Miss K. Banks; handbag, Mrs. Scate; pincushions, Master R. Mitham. The total amount taken was £49 1s. 0½d.

SWAVESEY RURAL COUNCIL. 13th Dec. 1929

Swavesey Water.

Mr. J. Frohock presided at the monthly meeting of Swavesey Rural District Council, held at St. Ives on Friday. There were also present: Mr. F. Kirby (vice-chairman), Messrs. W. I. Hemington, A. Day, F. Stanton and R. Norman.

Firstly the Over drainage scheme had a prolonged discussion.

A letter was received from Swavesey Parish Council enclosing the report of the committee appointed by the District Council to revise the water rate books, etc.

Mr. A. Day: They are very careful men at Swavesey – sometimes a little too careful. What they do say is, don't take 25 per cent. if you can help it.

Mr. H. Meeks (assistant clerk): The only question referred to the committee was the consideration of charges for more than one service. The committee was asked to report to the Council where it existed in the parish. The report does not cover that; it covers everything bar that.

Mr. Day said that several who ought to be on the rate book were not on.

Mr. Meeks said one case was reported where two families lived in one house. In that case the water charges should be doubled.

The Clerk: That cannot be helped. It may often happen that a tiny cottage paying a few shillings a week may consume more than a mansion. It is not a question of how much he uses the water, but what is the size of the premises. If there are two families it makes no difference.

The Vice-Chairman: Supposing there is a tap for one cottage, and he permits two or three neighbours to go to the tap?

The Clerk: That always wants watching. They are subject to penalties if they do that – stealing water. The essential thing was to point out to the collector that everyone who used water was to be charged.

It was decided that the present charges should stand, and that bath and car charges should be 10s. per annum. The arrangements recommended by the committee were adopted.

A SWAVESEY DRAIN.

The acting sanitary inspector, Mr. G. G. Yeandle, gave the approximate cost of laying a surface drain at Black Horse-lane, Swavesey, and the Swavesey representative was given power to act.

SHARE-OUT CLUB. 20th Dec. 1929

The annual distribution of the surplus funds of the Rising Sun Sick Benefit and Share-out Club took place yesterday evening, when every member received 19s. 4d. The total receipts for the year from all sources amounted to £72 1s. 6d., and the sum paid in sick benefit to £20 18s. 8d.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 20th Dec. 1929

A largely attended meeting was held on Monday evening at Bethel Baptist Church, when Miss Monica Farrell, of the Irish Church Mission, gave a lengthy and interesting address on "Why I left the Church of Rome." The story of her conversion was most thrilling, as she detailed the steps by which she was led to see the truth. The Rev. T. B. Field, who presided, moved a vote of thanks to the lecturer, which was seconded by Mr. J. Day, supported by Mr. W. Daisley, and heartily carried.

THE CHURCH BELLS. 20th Dec. 1929

A correspondent writes: - It is understood that a movement is on foot to get the grand peal of bells re-hung at the Swavesey parish church. After several years of practically no ringing of one of the best peals of six in the county this is good news to campanologists, if it should be true. In the annals of change ringing Swavesey has figured prominently, as recorded by Peals Boards of long ago, which are in the belfry. In their present state it is impossible to ring the bells properly or without the possibility of serious damage being done. There is a good team of ringers at present in the village who would be glad to give their services on Sundays and on other occasions.

FOOTBALL CLUB. 20th Dec. 1929

As the result of the whist drive in the Memorial Hall on the 12th inst. and of the Christmas prize distribution, which took place the same evening, the finances of the Swavesey Football Club have been put on a satisfactory footing, as the net proceeds from the prize distribution amounted to £13 5s. 6d., and from the drive £2 7s. 6d., making a total addition to the club funds of £15 13s. Fifteen tables were in play for the whist, the following being the prizewinners: Ladies, Mrs. F. Burton, Mrs. E. Oakman, Mrs. G. Oakman; gentlemen, Mr. A. Ansell, Mr. H. Bentley, Mr. F. Causer.

SCHOOL CONCERT. 20th Dec. 1929

The school concert, which was held in the school on Tuesday evening, was a great success. The school was filled with what must have been nearly, if not quite, a record crowd, and financially the venture gave one of the best results obtained, so the juvenile actors are assured of a good Christmas party. To add to the gaiety of the occasion, Mr. Sidney Pratt, the Cambridge conjuror, came over specially to exhibit his well-known skill. The young people did so excellently that it would be very hard to choose one item before another. If any deserved special mention, the two infant fairy plays were excellent, both in regard to dress and acting. The various talks, introduced by Eric Williamson, was another well done item. The songs of the upper school girls earned deserved applause; in fact all must be heartily congratulated on the good work done. The dressing, which was undertaken by Miss Scott and Mrs. Wood, was excellent. The entertainment concluded with the laughable farce, "The Haunted House," performed by Messrs. F. C. and L. Wood and Misses W. and J. Wood. This brought down the house, all the parts being very effectively played by their several actors. The annual Christmas party will be held this afternoon at 3.30 p.m., when the juvenile actors and actresses will reap the benefit of their exertions.

MEMORIAL HALL. 27th Dec. 1929

Nineteen tables were in play at the whist drive organised by the Memorial Hall Committee of Management on the 19th inst., and the following were the prizewinners: Ladies – Mrs. H. G. The net proceeds from the drive and from the annual prize draw that took place the same evening amounted to approximately £26.

CHRISTMAS AT CHURCH. 27th Dec. 1929

The services at the Parish Church on Christmas Day were as follows: Holy Communion, 6 a.m., 7.30 a.m., and mid-day (choral, E. V. Hall's service); Matins 10.30 a.m., and Evensong, without sermon, 3 p.m. The music at Evensong included Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis (Smart in D), the anthem "Behold I bring you good tidings" (Goss), and carols. The collections throughout the day, which as usual were for the Church of England Waifs and Strays Society, amounted to £4 8s. Good congregations attended all services, the communicants numbering 130, a record for Christmas Day. The bells rang merry peals before the 6 a.m. celebration and Evensong.

AN ANCIENT CLUB. 27th Dec. 1929

A correspondent writes: "Few people in Swavesey, I venture to think, realise that one of their village clubs has had a continuous existence of something like 250 years. I refer to the Stock Club, which was established during the latter half of the 17th century. Owing to the unfortunate destruction of the earliest records the precise date of the formation of the club is not known, but it is known that it was established at the White Horse Inn, and that its meetings have been held without a break at that ancient hostelry ever since. The 'Rules, Orders and Regulations' now operating were revised on July 4th, 1836, and were reprinted with certain amendments in November, 1905."

SWAVESEY WOMAN'S DEATH IN U.S.A. 27th Dec. 1929

Many of our older readers in Swavesey and district will regret to learn that Mrs. Elizabeth Gifford, widow of the late Mr. George Gifford, has died at Baptist Hospital, Memphis, Tenn., U.S.A. Three weeks before her death she fell while in Calvary Episcopal Church, where for 25 years she had been "choir mother" and a devoted worker, and this fall appears to have brought about paralysis from which she succumbed. "Mother" Gifford, as she was affectionately called by hundreds of people in Memphis, was a daughter of the late John and Caroline Covell, of Swavesey, and she was born in the village 69 years ago. Her husband, a native of the Hemingfords, worked for several years for Mr. W. H. Key, the well-known Swavesey baker, who, happily, is still alive and fairly active, notwithstanding the burden of 80 odd years. Mr. and Mrs. Gifford left Swavesey for the United States in 1882, and four years later went to reside at Memphis. Mrs. Gifford, whose husband died in 1910, is survived by her only son, Mr. Frank C. Gifford, of 1600, Harbert-avenue, with whom of late years she had lived, and by three brothers, Messrs. Charles and William Covell, both of Memphis, and Mr. Joshua Covell, of London. She revisited her native village a few years ago.

CAROLLERS HELP HOSPITAL. 3rd Jan. 1930

A party of Swavesey and Fen Drayton songsters sang carols in the streets of Swavesey last week, half of the village being visited on Monday evening and the remainder on Christmas Eve. A collection in aid of Addenbrooke's Hospital, made at the time by Messrs. A. C. Hephher and A. Hawkes, resulted in £7 15s. 7½d. being raised, and this sum, added to the amount collected by the party when Fen Drayton was visited on December 21st (£3 5s. 4½d), made a total contribution to the Hospital maintenance fund of £11 1s.

THE GALE. 17th Jan. 1930

No very serious damage was caused in the village by Sunday night's gale. At the railway station a number of slates were ripped off the stationmaster's house, and a section of the surrounding wooden fence was carried into the roadway leading to the yard. The Vicarage narrowly escaped serious damage by a large elm tree that was uprooted in the garden, and at the Priory a big branch torn from a tree fell on the house. On Monday morning a shed on a smallholding at Boxworth end was found more or less wrecked several yards from its original position, with the tools, table, etc., that had been in it scattered in various directions. The asbestos roofing of the Memorial Hall rattled ominously, but it is believed that no slates were actually dislodged. The fact that one slab near the ridge at the High-street end of the building fell a short time ago – it has not been replaced – taken in conjunction with the rattling on Sunday night and during previous gales, would appear to indicate that an overhauling of the roof is needed.

TREATMENT OF FRUIT TREES. 17th Jan. 1930

Lecture on Spraying & Pruning at Swavesey.

The first lecture of the second series arranged by the Swavesey and District Agricultural Discussion Society was given in the Schools on Friday evening by Mr. A. T. Paskett, to a large attendance from Swavesey and neighbouring villages. Council R. Mailer presided.

The subject of the lecture was of great interest to the district, viz., “Spraying and Pruning of Fruit Trees.”

Mr. Paskett first impressed on the audience that to make fruit growing pay the fruit must be clean, that is, free of scab and marks from pests and diseases, and they must be of first-class quality, as second and third-rate fruit would not pay for carriage. Science, he said, had done a great deal during the last few years in preparing washes that would destroy the eggs of most pests, but there was no wash that was a cure-all.

Tar distillate washes were now being largely used to keep trees clean, but some growers had complained that a lot of the apples fell last year with maggots in. This was caused by the apple saw fly, that laid its eggs late in the spring, which tar washes could not control, nor would they control the caterpillar from the tortrix moth or the codling moth, or mildew and scab, the black marks that are found on many apples. For this fungoid disease lime-sulphur washes must be used just before flowering time.

PRUNING OF TREES.

With regard to pruning, young trees only required pruning to make a shape or frame of the tree. Strong growing varieties like Bramleys and Newtons required very little pruning; in fact, a large number of trees in the county of this type would have carried more fruit years ago if they had not been pruned at all.

Where trees will not grow, Mr. Paskett said, they wanted to be pruned severely, and where they were growing very fast and making big growth, little or no pruning, but an occasional thinning out should be done. It should always be remembered that wood buds are formed in one year, but for fruit buds it takes two years' growth, and if most of this surplus wood is removed annually there are only wood buds left.

SUGGESTION FROM OVER.

Mr. Ingle, in proposing a hearty vote of thanks to the lecturer, said they had learnt a great deal that night about fruit growing, and he would like to ask if a similar lecture could be given to the fruitgrowers at Over. If Mr. Paskett could come he could guarantee a good attendance of fruitgrowers in the district.

Peppercorn. Mr. H. H. Berryman acted as M.C.

CHURCH MEETING. 24th Jan. 1930

The annual parochial church meeting, held in the Schoolroom on Friday, was fairly well attended. The principal business was the presenting of the various church accounts, which were duly passed. The Vicar, who presided, announced that the Council had accepted a tender for the repair of the roof of the south aisle of the church, and that it was hoped the work would be commenced in April. The funds for this object had, he said, been satisfactorily increased during 1929, but there was still need for more help. The following were elected members of Church Council for the ensuing year: Mr. C. Banks (treasurer), Mrs. Banks (secretary), Mrs. Cooksey and Mrs. Banks (representatives to Ruri-Decanal and Diocesan Conferences); members of Church Council: Mrs. Fraser, Mrs. C. S. Hephher, Messrs. reported that he had received from the Hall Management Committee £34 0s. 7d., the half-year's instalment due in repayment of the loan on the building, with interest, and that he had remitted this sum to the Public Works Loan Board. In reply to a question the Clerk stated that the debt on the hall had been reduced by regular payments to about £250. The Chairman said he had received a complaint respecting the dangerous condition of the gate, fence, and footpath at the entrance to Church Green from the main road. After some discussion, in the course of which it was stated that the gate and a portion of the fence had been thrown into the big drain, it was unanimously agreed that the District Council should be asked to have the gate, fence, and path repaired as soon as possible.

AIRSHIP OVER SWAVESEY. 24th Jan. 1930

Fascinating Object in the Fog.

The R100, which on Thursday made a long flight from Cardington, during which she encountered much fog, was seen as a fleeting but fascinating object over the Swavesey district. Apparently, the airship did not pass directly over Cambridge, unless she was screened by a high bank of fog.

Emerging from the mist like a spectre of the sky, the giant vessel attracted admiring attention from those villagers who saw her as the sun glinted on her silvery nose, which, approaching head-on, was turned into the semblance of a full moon. She circled round the locality before disappearing in the fog in the direction of St. Ives.

Among the most enthusiastic of the spectators were a crowd of school children who counted themselves lucky to be at play at the time. They shouted with delight at the sight of the airship.

It was during to-day's flight that the R100 attained a speed of 81½ miles an hour – a world's record for airships.

It was decided that this year's show and sports should be held on Thursday, 7th August, and that Mr. A. T. Paskett and Mr. George Hart should be asked to act as judges of the horticultural exhibits. Mr. Bryan Stubbings' concert party, the Versatiles, gave an excellent entertainment at the Memorial Hall on Thursday week under the auspices of the local branch of the British Legion, but unfortunately the audience was not quite as large as on the occasion of the party's previous visit last June. Mr. Newman, baritone, sang well, and both his items were encored. Mr. Leslie North, a newcomer to the party, soon made himself at home, and besides singing popularly, he played the banjolin, banjolele and violin. Miss Mabs Brinkley was as entertaining as ever with her songs at the piano, and she also did yeoman service as accompanist. The two comedians, Mr. Sidney Clover and Mr. Bryan Stubbings soon had the audience laughing, their one-act drama, when Mr. Stubbings appeared from the back of the hall as a chocolate seller, being especially effective. Their well-known marionette act also caused roars of laughter. The concerted items were excellent, that in which the band appeared in weird uniforms, with Mr. Stubbings as conductor, being greatly to the liking of the audience.

DOGS AS FIRE ALARM. 7th Feb. 1930

£350 LOSS.

But for the barking of dogs, four stacks on a Swavesey farm would have burnt out unwitnessed in the early hours of Tuesday.

As it was, those who were aroused had to watch the total destruction of the property, situated in an isolated spot, with no water available.

About 2 a.m., Mr. William Savage, jun., who lives with his father at the Council houses, Boxworth End, was awakened by the barking of dogs. On looking out of the window he saw a blaze in the direction of Mr. C. W. H. Cole's farm at Swavesey. From some unknown cause, four stacks – one of wheat, one of barley and two of peas and beans, standing in Tippler's Drove – had become ignited and were burning fiercely.

Mr. Savage gave the alarm, and several men were soon on the scene, including three constables, but they were unable to do anything for the reason stated.

The loss of the stacks is estimated at £350.

The majority of the members desired to keep a pig, and accordingly 20 young pigs were distributed on the following afternoon. The remainder of the members will keep poultry and will, in the course of the next few weeks, each receive a dozen of day-old chicks.

Mr. R. Mailer, Boxworth, was appointed president, while the office bearers, who are members of the club, are: Chairman, Ken Williams; vice-chairman, Leslie Skinner; secretary and treasurer, Wilfred Parish; club leader, J. Mailer, Boxworth.

The purchase of pigs was made by the following gentlemen kindly agreeing to lend the club a sum of money free of interest until such time as the pigs are sold: Mr. Stanton, Lolworth; Mr. Evison, Fen Drayton; Mr. Mailer, Boxworth; and Mr. Cole, Swavesey.

A WELL-DESERVED TESTIMONIAL. 14th March 1930

At the close of evensong at the parish church last Sunday, practically the whole of the unusually large congregation assembled at the western end of the building, when a presentation was made to Mr. Edward Williams, the parish clerk and sexton, who is leaving this country for Australia, where he will go into training with the view of eventually taking Holy Orders. In making the presentation, on behalf of the congregation, the Vicar spoke of Mr. Williams' devoted service to the church. He knew, he said, that they were losing a very good clerk. Mr. Walter Thorp, a former churchwarden, speaking as one who had known Mr. Williams since he was a little child, referred in eulogistic terms to the very keen interest he had always taken in everything connected with the church. As a small boy, said Mr. Thorp, Edward Williams had been the constant companion of his father, who held the office of clerk and sexton for many years, and he was never happier than when he was doing something in, or for, the church. He had been exceptionally well qualified for the post he was relinquishing, as in addition to being an excellent clerk, he had been a ringer, a singer, and deputy organist. Mr. Williams, in thanking the subscribers for their gift, said his decision to train for ordination dated from about 1920, but circumstances arose then which rendered it necessary for him to abandon the idea for a time. He thanked the Church Council for appointing his brother (Mr. Dennis Williams) to succeed him, and concluded by expressing the hope that if ever the bells were re-hung they would not be allowed to go away to be re-cast. The presentation consisted of two theological books and a cheque with which to purchase more books in Australia. Mr. Williams is leaving Swavesey this afternoon, and he will sail from Tilbury Docks to-morrow in the Orient liner Ormonde. His destination is St. James' Clergy House, Wickham, Newcastle, N.S.W. He was only 16 when on the death of his father in 1911 he was appointed clerk and sexton, an office that had then been held by members of his family for at least 100 years. He joined the Army in 1915 and served with the Suffolk Regt. on the Western front until in February 1918, he obtained a commission and was posted to the Northants Regt. He is still on the Territorial Reserve of Officers.

MYSTERY FIRES. 14th March 1930

Second Swavesey Outbreak in Five Weeks.

WARNING BY DOGS.

Another serious stack fire on a Swavesey farm – the second within five weeks – has given rise to a theory that an incendiary may be responsible for the outbreaks. In each case the origin of the fires remains a mystery.

Despite Monday's steady rain, fire destroyed two large stacks last night at Friesland Farm, between Swavesey village and Fen Drayton, owned by and in the occupation of Messrs. R. Mitham and Sons.

Mr. J. Ivatt, a horsekeeper residing in a cottage on the farm, gave the alarm after he had been roused from bed about 10 p.m. As in the case of the previous fire, it is believed that the barking of dogs caused him to investigate. He discovered that both the stacks – one comprising ten tons of wheat straw, and the other three or four tons of bean straw – were alight.

Messrs. E. J. Mitham and R. Mitham, jun., together with farm hands, P.S. Keep, P.C. Brooks and P.C. Bullen, were soon on the scene. In the circumstances, however, nothing could be done to save the stacks, but a clover seed stack about 20 yards away escaped owing to the efforts of the employees and other helpers, who covered it with a rick cloth and kept it wet with water from a pump, the only available source of supply. A 30-rung ladder and a rake could not be rescued. Fortunately, they were situated about 50 yards from the farm buildings, or the outbreak might have had far more serious consequences.

The damage, estimated at £40, is covered by insurance.

It will be recalled that on February 4th four corn stacks on an outlying part of Mr. C. W. H. Cole's farm at Swavesey were destroyed by fire. The cause of that conflagration was not cleared up and remains equally a mystery with that of the present case.

The County Police are pursuing inquiries.

The second carnival dance, arranged by Miss Queenie Spolton, in aid of the funds of the Memorial Hall, which took place on March 20th, was quite as successful as her first venture. The hall was gaily decorated, and Len Dean and his Syncopators provided an excellent programme of music. Mr. B.

Activities on behalf of Addenbrooke's Hospital are now much to the fore at Swavesey. Towards the Building Fund Target of £200, £60 has already been subscribed, and on Monday next a public meeting is to be held in the Memorial Hall to decide what action shall be taken during the forthcoming feast. Last year, in addition to the parade on Feast Sunday, a draw was organised and took place at a whist drive, and Mr. Cecil Symonds kindly gave the proceeds of a cinema entertainment during Feast Week. The committee were thus able to hand over to the hospital the sum of £113.

DROVE LETTING. 4th April 1930

By direction of the District Council, the annual letting by auction of the Swavesey droves took place at the White Horse Inn on Monday evening. The herbage of the County Council roadsides was not offered this year. The droves realised £4 18s., against £5 8s. in 1929, and £6 16s. 6d. in 1928. The herbage of the Recreation Ground, offered under instructions from the Parish Council, was let for £2 5s., 5s. less than last year. HOSPITAL PARADE. 11th April 1930

At a public meeting held in the Memorial Hall on Monday evening, the Rev. T. B. Field presiding, supported by the Vicar (the Rev. C. F. Stebbing), Dr. Fraser and Mr. H. W. Whitehead (hon. secretary), it was decided that a parade in aid of Addenbrooke's Hospital Maintenance Fund should take place as usual on Feast Sunday (1st June). Last year's officials and committee were re-elected, and it was agreed that the same bands should be engaged, and that the Vicar should preside at the meeting after the parade, and the Rev. T. B. Field at the meeting in the evening. A suggestion by Mrs. C. S. Hephher that this year's effort should include a fancy dress parade on Feast Monday was referred to the committee.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 11th April 1930

There was a good attendance at the monthly meeting of the Women's Institute on Tuesday, when the President was in the chair. Miss Banks gave an interesting report of the first of the group meetings, held at Over, and potatoes were distributed to the members who had applied for them, and who hope to enter for the potato competition later in the season. Mr. Milner, of Cottenham, gave a good practice in community singing, and was accorded a hearty vote of thanks. The stall did good business. A proposition was brought forward for collection of eggs for Addenbrooke's, and Mr. G. E. Canham kindly offered to convey the eggs to Cambridge. Games then brought the evening to a close. Mrs. Aldred was the hostess, assisted by several helpers.

THE REV. J. B. PAYNE. 11th April 1930

His friends in Swavesey and district will be glad to learn that the Rev. J. B. Payne, son of Mrs. Payne, of Boxworth End, and the late Mr. James Payne, who has recently undergone an operation for appendicitis, is out of hospital and is making a good recovery. Mr. Payne, who it may be remembered, was appointed minister of Beulah Baptist Church, Bexhill-on-Sea, a year or so ago, was, however, unable to be present on the 2nd inst., when a new two manual organ was opened in the church which during the thirty years of its existence had the unique distinction of being the only place of worship in the town without an organ. The service of dedication was conducted by the Rev. Charles Brown, D.D., of London. The organ cost £1,200, all but £120 of which had been raised before the opening. This sum was materially reduced at an organ recital in the evening, and an unnamed benefactor undertook to be responsible for the balance still needed.

MEMORIAL HALL. 11th April 1930

A concert party from Fenstanton gave an interesting entertainment on April 3rd at the Memorial Hall. There was a large audience. The programme, which had been prepared by Mrs. Whitbourn and Mrs. Gray, consisted of songs, duets, dialogues and sketches, in which all the performers, both children and adults, did well. The Rev. F. Whitbourn took the chair, and introduced the various items. (Programme in newspaper). The accompanists were Mrs. Whitbourn, Mrs. Richards and Miss J. Royston. At the close, Mr. Berryman and Mr. Prime Godfrey expressed to the visitors the thanks of the committee of the hall, to whose funds the proceeds were devoted.

CAMBS. A.A.A. 18th April 1930

The athletic outlook in the county was regarded with satisfaction generally at the annual meeting of the Cambs. County A.A.A., at the Eagle Hotel on Monday.

“In reviewing the 1929 season,” reported the hon. sec., “we can look back with a certain amount of satisfaction on the work done and the progress made. We felt that we are slowly but surely stimulating interest in athletics in the county, and we also feel that we have provided the means for some of our local athletes to reach a higher standard of proficiency than they would otherwise have done.”

It was noted with pleasure that the Swavesey meeting was to be held under A.A.A. Laws this year.

ADVERT. 18th April 1930

ANNUAL PARISH MEETING. 18th April 1930

Considering the importance of the business to be dealt with the attendance at the annual Parish Meeting, which was held at the Memorial Hall on Monday evening, was far from satisfactory. Mr. C. W. H. Cole (chairman of the Parish Council) presided, supported by the Clerk, Mr. P. Godfrey. Others present included, Ald. Dr. J. W. Ellis, Messrs. A. Day and R. Norman (district councillors), Messrs. C. Dean, J. Linford, C. H. Parish, and W. Twist (parish councillors), Messrs. T. C. Heasman, P. Lee, W. Parish, E. Prior and C. Wood. After the accounts of the Parish Council and Galon's Charity had been presented by the Clerk, the Chairman stated that the important matter for consideration that evening was an application by the parish of Over for the extension of the Swavesey public water supply to that parish. Over had, he said, offered to pay a rent of £20 per annum for the wayleave, and there would be no difference in the present pressure of water in Swavesey, as there would be a tank at Over from which the supply for that village would be drawn. Some arrangement would, however, have to be made to extend the main from the railway station, its present terminus, to the boundary of Over parish. After considerable discussion the following resolutions were passed: (a) That the parish of Over be allowed the use of the Swavesey water mains at a rental (proposed by Mr. R. Norman, seconded by Mr. Heasman); (b) that Swavesey should lay the main from the station to the parish boundary at Over bridge, but that Over should pay interest on the money expended (proposed by Mr. Heasman, seconded by Mr. Twist); (c) that a rental of £35 per annum be charged the parish of Over for a wayleave through the Swavesey mains from Conington bridge to Over bridge (proposed by Dr. Ellis, seconded by Mr. A. Day).

PRIMITIVE METHODISTS. 25th April 1930

A faith tea was provided by members of the Sisterhood and friends at the Primitive Methodist Church on Easter Monday. In the evening a service of song was rendered by the St. Ives Sisterhood, Mrs. W. Savidge reading the narrative. Miss Vineall occupied the chair, and Miss Jude presided at the organ. The proceeds of the tea and collection have been divided between the Circuit and Swavesey Sisterhood Funds.

PAST AND PRESENT. 25th April 1930

The football match between teams representing past and present players, respectively, which took place on the Recreation Ground on Good Friday morning, resulted in a win for the present eleven by nine goals to two. A collection was taken in aid of Addenbrooke's, but, unfortunately, owing to the inclement weather, the spectators were few in number.

PARISH CHURCH. 25th April 1930

The services at the parish church on Good Friday were as follows: Mattins and ante-communion 10.30 a.m.; addresses on "The Words from the Cross" by the Vicar 1 – 3 p.m.; evensong and sermon 6.30 p.m. The church was beautifully decorated with spring flowers, etc., for Easter Day. There were celebrations of Holy Communion at 6, 7.30 and 11.15 a.m. (choral); Mattins was at 10.30 a.m., and evensong at 6.30 p.m. All the services both on Good Friday and on Sunday, were well attended, and the number of communicants was quite up to the average for Easter Day. Peals were rung on the bells between 5 and 6 a.m. and again before evensong.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 25th April 1930

The annual Good Friday social tea at the Bethel Baptist Church was attended by about 80 persons, who did full justice to the excellent meal that was provided. A very well attended service was held afterwards, when the Rev. C. S. Boulton, of Haddenham, preached an excellent sermon from the text "Ought not Christ to have suffered these things" (St. Luke xxiv., 26). On Easter Sunday the 6th South Essex Company of the Boys' Brigade marched from Lolworth, where they were encamped, and attended the morning service, being met on the way by the 1st Swavesey Company, under the command of Lieut. S. Wright. Capt. C. Stanton gave an address and Lieut. New gave an admirable rendering of a solo. The Pastor, Rev. T. B. Field (captain of the Swavesey Company), conducted the service and also gave an address.

PARISH COUNCIL. 25th April 1930

The annual meeting of the Parish Council was held at the Memorial Hall on the 17th inst., when there were present: Messrs. P. Burton, W. Burton, C. W. H. Cole, C. Dean, F. Hephew, J. Linford, C. H. Parish, P. Parish and W. Twist, with the Clerk, Mr. Prime Godfrey. Mr. Cole and Mr. C. H. Parish were unanimously re-elected chairman and vice-chairman respectively for the ensuing year. The accounts of the Council for the year ended March 31st were presented by the Clerk and approved, and with reference to a communication from the County Council it was decided to reply that the Parish Council had no objection to offer to the suggested amalgamation of the parish of Fen Drayton with Swavesey, nor to the inclusion of Swavesey in the North-Western District. The Chairman announced that only one tender had been received for the collection of unburnable rubbish this month, and in October, viz., from Mr. P. Godfrey at £3 10s. each collection. The tender was accepted. A letter was read from the secretary of the Hospital Parade Committee inviting the Council to attend the parade on Feast Sunday, and the subsequent meeting, and it was agreed that the secretary should be informed that as many of the councillors as possible would attend. Letters from the Cambs. Rural Community Council were then considered. These had reference to various points in the Local Government Act, 1929, which affected parish councils, and also to the building of new, and the reconditioning of old, houses. Mr. Linford called attention to the disappearance of the notice board on the Recreation Ground prohibiting the dumping of rubbish in or near the pond, and other councillors pointed out that a similar notice board that had been erected in Market-street was also missing. Mr. Twist asked that the stretcher presented to the parish by the Red Cross authorities after the war, which had been stored on his premises, might be removed, and it was decided that in future it should be kept at the Memorial Hall.

NURSING ASSOCIATION. 2nd May 1930

The Treasurer of the District Nursing Association has received a very welcome donation of £7 5s. from the Over Women's Institute.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 2nd May 1930

The Rev. T. B. Field, L.Th., who has been pastor for nearly five years of Bethel Baptist Church, has resigned his charge, which will take effect in March, 1931. During the time he has held office, the church, and its branches, have flourished, and a branch mission has been established at Lolworth.

DANCE. 2nd May 1930

The Memorial Hall on April 24th was gaily decorated for the dance, organised by Miss Queenie Spolton, and an enjoyable evening was spent by all present. Frank Royston's band provided a capital programme of music, and Mr. Percy Watts was a popular M.C. Prizes were won by the following, Mr. Brown (Cambridge) acting as judge: Fox-trot, Miss N. Mustill (Swavesey) and Mr. T. Knights (Fenstanton); waltz competition, Miss E. Seamark (Willingham) and

Mr. B. Richards (Fenstanton); spot dance, Miss Huddleston (Dry Drayton) and Mr. Whybrow (Swavesey); statute dance, Miss Ivy Huddleston (Dry Drayton) and Mr. H. Bridgeford (Swavesey). The proceeds were in aid of the Memorial Hall Fund.

BRITISH LEGION. 9th May 1930

Eleven tables were in play at the whist drive which took place at the Memorial Hall on May 1st, under the auspices of the Swavesey and District branch of the British Legion. The prizewinners were: Ladies – Mrs. D. Williams, Miss K. Banks, Miss V. Savidge, Miss E. Day, booby Mrs. J. Prior. Gentlemen – Mr. Cole (Over), Mr. F. Causer, Mr. T. C. Heasman, Mr. H. Whitehead, booby Mr. B. Prime, knock-out, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Culpin. Mr. H. H. Berryman acted as M.C. The net proceeds amounted to £3 8s.

UNNECESSARY WASTE OF WATER. 9th May 1930

A ratepayer writes: “The water main that runs through the village burst on Friday in Middle Watch, at the end of Gibraltar-lane. Cottages nearby were flooded, and water poured along the high road in a stream, similar to that in Trumpington-street, Cambridge. The water supply, I understand, is under the control of the Swavesey Rural District Council, and both of the representatives of this parish on that body live near where the burst occurred, yet nothing was done to repair the burst occurred, yet nothing was done to repair the damage until Monday afternoon, and in the meantime thousands of gallons of water, for which the parish has to pay, had run to waste. May I ask the District Council whether the recent increase of the water rate has not been very largely, if not entirely, due to the delay in attending to these bursts, which happen so frequently, and what steps they propose to take to protect the admittedly overburdened ratepayers.”

CAMBS. FLYING OFFICER’S WEDDING. 9th May 1930 BARWELL – HAY.

There was a large crowd at St. Paul’s Church, Peterborough, on May Day for the marriage of Flying Officer Philip Reginald Barwell, of the Central Flying School, Wittering, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Barwell, of Swavesey, and Miss Mary Elizabeth Hay, second daughter of Dr. W. P. Hay, M.B., and Mrs. Hay, of 555, Lincoln-road, Peterborough.

The Rev. Canon A. F. Maskew, vicar of St. Paul’s officiated and during the service, which was fully choral, the hymns “How welcome was the call” and “O Father, all creating” were sung. The organist played appropriate music while the guests were assembling and during the signing of the register. The church was beautifully decorated with spring and hot-house flowers.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was daintily attired in a gown of parchment faille with a gold wreath and a parchment tulle veil. She also wore a string of pearls (the gift of the bridegroom) and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

She was attended by three bridesmaids, Miss Jean Hay (her sister), Miss E. M. Walker (a friend), and Miss Marjorie Barwell (sister of the bridegroom), all of whom wore long green-printed chiffon gowns, primrose yellow linen hats and green crepe de chine shoes. They carried posies of primroses and wore gold chains set with pearls, the gift of the bridegroom. Flying Officer G. W. Tuttle was best man.

While the ceremony was in progress a formation of aeroplanes from Wittering circled round the church, and six of the bridegroom's brother officers acted as a guard of honour outside the building, as also did the company of Girl Guides with which the bride had been actively connected.

The reception was held in the Fitzwilliam Rooms at the Angel Hotel, and later the happy couple left by car to pick up a trailer caravan at Swavesey, travelling thence to Cornwall, where the honeymoon is being spent. The bride's travelling dress was of hyacinth blue frisca, with beige hat and shoes.

The wedding presents were very numerous.

THE VILLAGE INSTITUTE. 16th May 1930

The committee at a meeting held on Monday evening decided that after this week the Institute, including the billiards room, should be closed until Monday, 1st September.

BURST WATER PIPE. 16th May 1930

The engineer in charge of the water main at Swavesey writes: "In answer to the letter from 'Ratepayer,' which appeared in the 'Press and News' last week, I should like to point out a few facts which he does not appear to know. In the first place the burst did not occur until Saturday morning, and not on Friday as stated; the burst was in a service pipe and not in the main and was no larger than a piece of wheat; there were no houses flooded, and the pipe was repaired first thing Monday morning and not in the afternoon. A hole that size could not let 'thousands of gallons' run to waste, as he states."

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 16th May 1930

The Girls' Life Brigade on Tuesday gave an interesting demonstration, under the guidance of Capt. Mrs. Isgrove and Lieut. H. Dodson. The Rev. G. E. Bird occupied the chair, supported by the chaplain, Rev. T. B. Field. The programme consisted of physical exercises, figure marching, songs and humorous sketches, which were much enjoyed by the good company present. Certificates were awarded to several members for good conduct during the year, and to the senior girls for elementary first aid. A pleasing feature of the evening was the presentation of a book to Lance-Corpl. Winnie Godfrey, who had been elected by the girls as the most useful member of the company during the year.

SWAVESEY HOSPITAL ACTIVITIES. 16th May 1930

Good progress continues to be made towards the completion of the £200 target which the inhabitants of the village undertook, for £80 has already been subscribed. The effort is remarkable, as with the exception of the amount raised at the first meeting and the collection at the Good Friday football match, the money has been contributed by the weekly house-to-house method. With regard to the Maintenance Fund, the Feast Sunday parade bids fair to be a greater success than ever this year. Cottenham Salvation Army and Cambridge People's Mission Silver Bands have promised their services, while the various bodies connected with the village are co-operating in making the parade a memorable one. To further augment the collection a whist drive and draw is being organised for Feast Thursday.

FLIES. 16th May 1930

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening, Mrs. Fraser occupying the chair, and a fairly good number of members being present. Mrs. C. S. Hepher, delegate to the Spring Council meeting, presented her report, after which Dr. F. Robinson gave an interesting talk on "Flies," for which he was accorded a hearty vote of thanks, on the proposition of Mrs. Aldred. Another feature of the meeting was the well-laden gift stall, in charge of which was Miss Nicholls. Many and varied purchases were made, and £1 6s. 7½d. was added to the much-needed endowment fund. A buttonhole competition entered somewhat shyly, was won by Mrs. G. Howlett. Charades, greatly enjoyed by all present, brought the evening to a close. Mrs. Aldred and her usual band of willing helpers were in charge of the excellent refreshments.

FOOTBALL CLUB. 23rd May 1930

A general meeting of the Football Club, called by the hon. secretary, Mr. Henry A. Holmes, was held at the Memorial Hall on the 15th inst., to enable him to hand over the books, as he is leaving the village. Mr. Holmes, it may be mentioned, in addition to having been a useful forward, has been a great asset to the club in many other ways. At the beginning of the season, when he took over the secretaryship, the club was in urgent need of funds, but, undaunted, he faced all difficulties, and when he presented his accounts last week he was able to report that, while the expenditure had amounted to £28 0s. 6d., the receipts totalled £35 10s., leaving a balance in hand of £7 9s. 6d. On the proposition of Mr. L. Day (hon. assistant sec.), Mr. Holmes was heartily thanked. A vote of thanks was also accorded Mr. R. Seekings (late secretary) for his services to the club. Before the proceedings terminated it was decided that the annual meeting should be held on July 17th.

PRESENTATION TO RAILWAYMAN. 23rd May 1930

Mr. Henry A. Holmes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Holmes, Market-street, Swavesey, who entered the service of the G.E. Railway Co. in 1916, and for the last 6½ years has been clerk at Swavesey Station, has been transferred to a similar position at Bramley, near Leeds. On Saturday morning he was presented with a handsome oak striking clock by the members of the staff at Swavesey station, the permanent way men, and the fruit agents and principal traders using the station. In making the presentation the Stationmaster (Mr. H. Whitehead) spoke in terms of warm appreciation of Mr. Holmes' services, and in the name of his colleagues and other friends, wished him every success in his new sphere of work. These sentiments were cordially endorsed by Mr. A. E. Clarke (head clerk), Mr. W. Kester (signalman), and Mr. L. Webster (plate-layer), and Mr. Holmes suitably responded. Mr. Holmes, who left Swavesey on Wednesday, will be succeeded by Mr. W. Chapman, of Bramley.

DEATH OF OLDEST INHABITANT. 23rd May 1930

Swavesey has lost its oldest inhabitant by the death, at the age of 88 years, of Mrs. Mary Ann Day, who passed away after a brief illness on May 15th, at 2, Third-avenue, Walthamstow, the residence of her son, to whom she was paying a visit. Both she and her husband, the late Mr. William Day, belonged to old Swavesey families, Mrs. Day being a daughter of Mr. Joseph and Mrs. Ann Thorp, and last surviving member of their family. In addition to her son, she leaves two daughters to mourn their loss. The funeral took place at Swavesey Cemetery on Monday afternoon. The Rev. T. B. Field, Pastor of Bethel Baptist Church, officiated, and during the service the hymn "Safe in the arms of Jesus" was sung. The immediate mourners were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Day (son and daughter-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown, Southall, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Norman, Swavesey (sons-in-law and daughters), Miss R. Thorp, Mrs. W. Coulson (cousins). Many old friends and neighbours assembled at the graveside to pay a last tribute of respect and sympathy. There were no flowers by request. Messrs. R. Mitham and Sons, Swavesey, were the undertakers.

SWAVESEY DISTRICT COUNCIL. 30th May 1930

Protest Against Proposed Absorption.

OVER WATER SUPPLY.

Mr. J. Frohock presided over the monthly meeting of Swavesey Rural District Council, held at St. Ives on Friday, when there were also present: Messrs. F. Kirby, W. I. Hemington, R. Norman and J. Scambler.

The Clerk reported the receipt of a communication from the Cambs. County Council enclosing a proposed scheme for the absorption of the Swavesey district into a new district to be called the north-western district. According to the scheme, Fen Drayton would be added to Swavesey; Over would remain as it is; Boxworth would take in Lolworth and Childerley, and Conington and Knapwell be combined with Elsworth.

Mr. Kirby said he thought the members of the Swavesey Council had carried out the duties of their office exceedingly well, efficiently and economically. He believed the best interests of the district would be served by the Council continuing in office.

OVER WATER SUPPLY.

Mr. Prime Godfrey, Clerk to the Swavesey Parish Council, wrote stating that at a parish meeting held on April 14th to decide the granting of way leave to the parish of Over through Swavesey water mains, the following resolutions were passed:

- (a) That the parish of Over be granted way leave through Swavesey water mains at a rental;
- (b) That the parish of Swavesey should lay main from Swavesey station to Over bridge, and that the parish of Over should pay interest on the money expended upon the work;
- (c) That the parish of Over be charged a rental of £35 per annum for the way leave through Swavesey water main from Conington bridge to Over.

NO AGREEMENT.

Consideration of these resolutions was deferred until Monday, when a special meeting was held at the Clerk's office at St. Ives between Messrs. Kirby, Hemington and Norman (representing the District Council), and the Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the Swavesey Parish. No representative of the Over Parish Council attended.

There was a prolonged discussion, but no agreement was reached.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 30th May 1930

An exchange of pulpits took place on Sunday evening last between the Rev. A. C. Miller, of Godmanchester, and Rev. T. B. Field.

PARTICULAR BAPTIST CHAPEL. 30th May 1930

The large congregations which filled the Particular Baptist Chapel for the anniversary services on May 22nd included visitors from London, Bedford, Godmanchester, St. Ives, Chatteris, Southill, Fenstanton, Oakington, Over and Stapleford. The special preacher was Mr. Pack, of Tunbridge Wells. Between the services there was a public tea, at which upwards of 120 persons were present. The collections in aid of the Chapel Fund were most satisfactory.

90TH ANNIVERSARY. 30th May 1930

The 90th anniversary of the founding of Bethel Baptist Church was celebrated on Thursday week, when eloquent sermons were preached by the Rev. R. Smith, A.T.S., of Wisbech (Moderator of the County Baptist Association), whose subject in the afternoon was "The impotent man," and in the evening "The hen and chickens." The congregations were good, especially in the evening, friends coming from Over, Longstanton, Cambridge, Needingworth, Girton and other places. Between the services 90 persons sat down to a well-provided tea.

WOMEN CONSERVATIVES. 30th May 1930

At the annual meeting of the Swavesey Women's Conservative and Unionist Association held in the school on Friday, Mrs. Banks in the chair, the following were elected to serve on the committee for the ensuing year:- Mrs. J. Cain (chairman and treasurer), Miss Beaumont and Miss Paine (joint secretaries), Mrs. and Miss Banks, Mrs. W. Thorp, Mrs. B. Prior, Mrs. Pettitt, Mrs. Cooke, Mrs. E. J. Mitham, Mrs. Hemington, and Mrs. H. Culpin. On the proposition of Mrs. Cain, seconded by Mrs. E. J. Mitham, it was agreed that the member's subscriptions to Mrs. Pashlar's testimonial should be augmented from the funds to the amount of a guinea, and on the proposition of Mrs. Banks, seconded by Mrs. Cain, that the contribution towards the Gogs Fete should be in the form of a donation of 10s. It was also decided that a garden meeting should be held at the end of July to enable Mrs. Pashlar to introduce the new organising secretary, Miss Sperling, to the committee.

THE FEAST. 6th June 1930

The annual village feast has been celebrated this week. On Sunday the services at the Parish Church were well attended, especially that in the evening. In accordance with custom the collections were in aid of Swavesey National School. On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday Market-street was occupied by stalls, cocoanut shies, swinging boats, Manning's roundabout, etc., but the attendance of the public was far from being up to the average of bygone years. Three cricket matches were played, Hilton being entertained on Monday, Fen Drayton on Tuesday, and Lolworth on Wednesday. Two dances were arranged by the Memorial Hall Committee of Management. That on Monday evening was a complete failure, but on Tuesday the Hall was crowded, and the dance, both from the financial and the social point of view, was a great success. Kemp's band was in attendance both evenings.

HOSPITAL PARADE. 6th June 1930

Notwithstanding the heavy rain during Saturday night and on Sunday morning and the generally unfavourable weather conditions, the third annual parade, in aid of Addenbrooke's Hospital Maintenance Fund, on Feast Sunday, was as great a success as its predecessors. The procession started from Boxworth End shortly after 2 p.m. At the head were the Secretary of the Organising Committee (Mr. H. Whitehead) and P.C. Brooks. Then in succession came the Cottenham Salvation Army Band, members of the Committee, Messrs. C. W. H. Cole (chairman), C. Dean and Prime Godfrey, clerk (representing the Parish Council), Mr. R. Norman, sen. (representing the District Council), members of the V.A.D., Boys' and Girls' Brigades, Mothers' Union, the Sisterhood, and the B.W.T.A. (with banner), and a nursing wagon, in which were nursed and patients, some of the latter being in cots, and some were heavily bandaged, but all looked remarkably healthy. District Nurse Cottrell was the nurse in charge, Jean Wood the assistant nurse, and Gerald Prior, Freddy Walker, Desmond Nicholls and Jean Walker the patients. The Cambridge People's Mission Band preceded a muster of the British Legion, followed by representatives of the Women's Institute, Horticultural Society, Hockey, Cricket and Football Clubs, and of the National Deposit Friendly Society. Waggons and a motor car packed with Sunday School children brought up the rear. The procession made its way through the village, halting at Longstanton's road end and the Memorial Hall, and also at Market-street on returning to the recreation ground, where a meeting was held. The Vicar of Swavesey (Rev. C. F. Stebbing) presided, and with him on the extemporised platform – a van lent by the local representative of Messrs. Greene, King and Co., Ltd., and a lorry – were Mr. W. H. Head (secretary-superintendent, Addenbrooke's Hospital), Mr. F. Kirby (vice-chairman, Swavesey R.D.C.), Mr. G. Hart and Mr. Harry Smith (Willingham), Mr. C. S. Gifford (Cottenham), Rev. T. B. Field, Dr. Fraser, Mr. Cole and Mr. Godfrey. After a few introductory remarks by the chairman, in course of which he mentioned that a letter had been received from Mr. R. Mailer, the County Council representative for the district, regretting his inability to attend, Mr. Head spoke of the urgent needs of the hospital, its beneficent work, and its various departments, and he emphasised the fact that the doctors, some twenty in number, all gave their services, by night as well as by day, without remuneration. Addenbrooke's needed £30,000 per annum to keep going, whereas in 1929 its income from all sources fell short of that amount by upwards of £1,000. During 1929 79 patients from Swavesey had been treated, viz., 31 in-patients and 48 out-patients, and they had cost the hospital £222 6s. Subsequent speakers included Mr. Hart, Dr. Fraser, Mr. Kirby and Mr. H. Smith. The last-named concluded his address with his customary appeal for £1 and 10s. notes, starting the ball rolling with a couple of £1 notes from his wife and himself, and he succeeded, with the material assistance of a £5 note from a gentleman in the audience, in raking in £22, £7 more than he netted last year. Mr. S. F. Mitham, as one who had recently undergone an operation, said he owed Addenbrooke's a debt of gratitude he could never repay. He could not speak too highly of the doctors, and as for the nurses, they were "really lovely." Mr. Gifford, who followed, said he was out for shillings, and would not be satisfied with fewer than 200. Accompanied by Mr. Smith he went round the crowd hat in hand, and, although he did not capture the number he set out to get, he obtained 173. A cordial vote of thanks to the speakers, proposed by the Rev. T. B. Field, concluded the meeting.

PARISH CHURCH. 13th June 1930

Good congregations attended the services at the parish church on Whit-Sunday. At evensong the choir gave a creditable rendering of the anthem "Come, Holy Ghost" (Dowland).

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 13th June 1930

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held on Tuesday at the Memorial Hall, Mrs. Fraser presiding over a good attendance of members. A roll call of "Limericks" was very amusing, but the outstanding feature of the evening was a talk on the League of Nations by Mrs. Murray, who deputised for Mrs. Anderson Scott. She was accorded a hearty vote of thanks. Refreshments having been served by the hostesses, Mrs. Kester, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Marriott and Mrs. Laverack, a game of musical parcel (won by Mrs. E. Prior) and other games brought the evening to a close.

HOSPITAL PARADE RESULT. 13th June 1930

Including the collection on Sunday, June 1st, when the parade took place (£64 17s.), and the proceeds from the whist drive and draw on June 5th, a collection at the cricket match, and the takings at a concert during the winter (£12 13s.), the total sum raised for Addenbrooke's Maintenance Fund by the Sunday Parade Committee amounts to £96 7s. The following were the prizewinners at the whist drive: Ladies – Mrs. Fraser, Mrs. J. Culpin, booby Mrs. Hone; gentlemen – Mr. E. Melbourne, Mr. E. Webb, booby Mr. Northrop. Fifteen tables were in play. Mr. H. H. Berryman acted as M.C.

DEATH OF A LITTLE CHILD. 13th June 1930

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wood, of the School House, have sustained a sad loss by the death of their youngest child, Harold, who succumbed to an attack of bronchial pneumonia, on Thursday evening in last week. He was two years of age. The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon at the parish church, the Vicar, Rev. C. F. Stebbing, officiating. The mourners included Mr. and Mrs. Wood (father and mother), Charles, Stanley, Lionel and Winnie Wood (brothers and sisters). Four school girls, Mabel Godfrey, Florence Kester, Joyce Lee and Nora Peppercorn bore the little coffin to the grave. There were numerous floral tributes. Messrs. R. Mitham and Sons were the undertakers.

COSMOPOLITAN FAIR. 13th June 1930

Swavesey Church Repair Fund.

£150 GRANT.

Swavesey has a fine old church, which, unfortunately, is in urgent need of repair, and for the purpose of effecting these repairs the sum of £1,600 has to be raised.

Of this £1,228 has already been collected, and in order to bring the amount nearer to the necessary sum, a fete was held in the grounds of the Vicarage yesterday afternoon and evening, through the kindness of the Vicar (Mr. Stebbing).

The organisers hit upon the happy idea of holding a cosmopolitan fete, in place of the usual garden party, and the results show that the extra effort was well spent.

A BLAZE OF COLOUR.

The lawn of the garden was transformed into a blaze of colour, as most of the helpers were dressed to represent various nationalities, and large flags hung from above the stallholders' heads, making the fete indeed a cosmopolitan fair. Even at 3 o'clock, when the fair was opened, quite a large number of people were present, and as time went on new arrivals came along and enjoyed themselves in the shade of the trees, or on the lawn in the brilliant sunshine.

OPENING CEREMONY.

At the opening ceremony, which was performed by Mrs. Bowen, of Cambridge, the Vicar intimated his pleasure at seeing the people there and at having Mrs. W. H. Bowen to open the fete. He also read a letter from the Diocesan Board of Finance, allowing Swavesey a grant of £150 towards the repairs to the church.

Mrs. Bowen, who was accompanied by Mr. Bowen, declared the fair open, and congratulated the inhabitants of Swavesey on having raised so much money, and also on having voluntarily increased their target towards Addenbrooke's Hospital from £170 to £200. If everybody continued to work so heartily and with so much good will, they would soon have all the money they required, both for Addenbrooke's and for the church.

At the conclusion of her short speech Mrs. Bowen was presented with a bunch of flowers by little Miss Joan Hephher.

THE ENTERTAINMENT.

There was plenty of entertainment for everybody. In the early afternoon a fancy dress parade was arranged for the youngsters, and two performances of a pastoral farce, entitled "Poor Old Sam," were excellently given, the performers being Miss Barwell, Miss E. Dodson, Miss Paine, Mr. S. Mitham and Mr. Topham. In addition to the many other attractions in the shape of side stalls, which sold everything from soap to cigarettes, raffles, putting, throwing the penny on the squares, and other amusements, selections of popular music were played in the afternoon by the St. Ives Band, who also played for dancing during the later part of the evening.

A long list of Stalls, stall-holders, competitions and side-shows is in the newspaper.

ADDENBROOKE'S BUILDING FUND. 20th June 1930

Miss E. L. Dodson, treasurer of the Swavesey Target Fund, asks us to announce that the £100 mark has been reached this week. Thus half of the sum the parish of Swavesey undertook to raise for Addenbrooke's Building Fund is in hand.

PERSONAL. 20th June 1930

The Rev. Arthur Beaumont, M.A., of Emmanuel College, Cambridge, youngest son of the late Mr. Henry Beaumont, who for over 40 years was headmaster of Swavesey National School, was ordained priest in Blackburn Cathedral on Trinity Sunday. He is curate at St. Silas, Blackburn.

A BUDDING AIRMAN. 20th June 1930

Lionel Wood, third son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wood, The School House, Swavesey, has passed the entrance examination for Royal Air Force apprentices, being placed sixth in a long list of candidates. He is a pupil at the Cambridge and County High School for Boys.

SWIMMING CLUB. 20th June 1930

At the annual meeting of the Swavesey Swimming Club, held in the Memorial Hall on Friday, the Secretary reported a balance in hand of £2 3s. 9½d., after paying for a new spring diving board and a ladies' dressing shed, the latter built by members of the club. The officers for 1930 were elected as follows: chairman, Mr. F. F. Norman; hon. sec. and treasurer, Mr. F. Aldred; committee, Misses S. Daintree, M. Mustill and P. Willson, Messrs. K. Williams, L. Day, E. Parish, H. Bridgeford, J. Sutton and G. Chapman.

BETHEL SUNDAY SCHOOL. 20th June 1930

Services in connection with Bethel Sunday School anniversary were held on Sunday, the preacher in the morning and evening being Mr. Sutton, of Earith. In the afternoon the flower service was conducted by Pastor J. K. Thorpe, of Willingham. At this there was special singing by the scholars and passages of Scripture were recited. Certificates were also presented to the collectors for the native preachers and to the candidates who passed the Sunday School Union Scripture Examination. The collections, which amounted to just over £5, were for the Sunday School Funds, flowers and eggs being sent to St. Ives Infirmary.

IS IT A RECORD? 20th June 1930

A campanologist writes: Visiting the church I noticed a Peal Board dated 1828, when the Swavesey youths rang a peal in seven methods, viz., Court Bob Minor, College Single Bob, Oxford Single Bob, Court Single Bob, Fulbourn Surprise, Plain Bob Doubles, and one other unreadable. The band at that period was: James Hephher, John Dodson, Robert Webster, William Crisswell, Phillip Dodson, John Richman, Samuel Thorp, John Williams, Berry Dodson, Robinson Mitham. The bells at present want re-hanging, which could be done without their removal to a foundry. They are a fine peal, and worthy of the noble church.

COSMOPOLITAN FAIR. 20th June 1930

The following were the winners of competitions, etc., at the Cosmopolitan Fair in aid of the Parish Church Repair Fund, a report of which appeared in our last issue: - Hidden treasure (Mr. H. Berryman in charge), 1 Miss D. Savage (10s.), 2 and 3 Mr. C. F. Banks (2s. 6d. and 2s.), 4 Miss D. Hephher (1s.); clock golf, 1 Mr. Brooks, 2 Mr. G. Wright; dinner, Dr. Fraser (sold subsequently by auction, realising 19s.); cake, Mrs. Beaumont; rug, Mrs. C. S. Hephher; mystery, Mrs. T. Froment; tea cosy, Mr. Allen; box of biscuits, Mrs. Walter Thorp; weight of Vicar and Mrs. Stebbing, Mrs. R. Coles; Mrs. J. Prior's mystery, Master R. Mitham; gate entrances, Mr. Alfred Hawkes; half tea service, Mrs. J. Ding. The gross takings amounted to £79 5s. 3½d., and the expenses to £8 8s., leaving a net profit of £70 17s. 3½d. Last year over £85 was raised, but this amount included special donations totalling £15 10s.

VICAR LEAVING SWAVESEY. 27th June 1930

The Rev. A. C. Vidler, having announced his decision to resign the living of Tewin, Herts., in October, the Master and Fellows of Jesus College, Cambridge, who are the patrons, have agreed to appoint the Vicar of Swavesey, Rev. C. F. Stebbing, to the benefice when vacant. The living of Swavesey is also in the gift of Jesus College. Mr. Vidler will be remembered as Vicar of Swavesey from 1895 to 1912, when he left Cambridgeshire on being appointed Rector of Tewin. His old parishioners at Swavesey will be glad to learn that he proposes to take up his residence in Cambridge. Mr. Stebbing will probably be leaving Swavesey sometime in November.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TREAT. 27th June 1930

The children of Bethel Sunday School had their annual treat on Thursday week. Tea was provided in the schoolroom for the young people at 4.45, and was followed by the adults' tea at 5.30. Later, the children trooped to the meadow adjoining the chapel, kindly lent by Mr. A. Day, jun., where young and old spent a thoroughly enjoyable evening. There were swings for the tiny tots, and sports and games for the others, whilst parents and friends sat around surveying the frolics of the youngsters and recalling the days when they, too, raced or scrambled for sweets. Mrs. Isgrove kept up her generous custom of providing each scholar with a free ice cream. At the close of the day, tired but happy, the boys and girls went home, wishing that school treats were held more frequently than once a year.

SWAVESEY R.D. COUNCIL. 27th June 1930

Byeways Expenditure.

The monthly meeting of Swavesey Rural District Council was held at St. Ives on Friday morning, Mr. Frohock (chairman) presiding. Others present were: Messrs. Kirby, Hemington, Stanton, Day and Scambler, with the Clerk (Mr. G. L. Day).

The treasurer's balance was reported as £308 2s. 6d. on the general account, and £19 15s. 6d. on the housing account.

The Clerk brought forward a resolution from Grimsby Rural District Council which, he said, did not concern them very much, being intended for such Councils as belonged to the Rural District Councils' Association. The Swavesey R.D.C. was not a member of that Association. The resolution was mainly a protest against the curtailing of the Council's powers by the Government.

It was decided that the resolution lie on the table.

BYEWAYS' ACCOUNT.

The following letter was received from the Accounting Officer:

"I have to draw attention to two accounts in connection with the Swavesey byeways, amounting to £38 5s. 6d., which are now presented for payment, and report that there will now be a debit balance on the byeways account amounting to £60 17s. 1d., of which approximately £50 has been expended since 1st April last.

So far as I have been acquainted with the position, it does not appear practicable, yet, to make a byeways rate, and it would appear to be a matter for the Council's consideration as to whether they will cease to incur expenditure on the byeways until it is decided how such expenditure is to be met. As the matter now stands, expenditure for the time being has to be met out of the Council's general funds, and the Council are in the position that they cannot at present recover it.

The matter was discussed, and on the proposition of Mr. Day, seconded by Mr. Kirby, it was decided to call a meeting of the owners and occupiers of the Swavesey allotted land, who were affected by the byeways rating, on July 29th.

In consequence of considerable reductions in Mr. Hagger's duties as surveyor, it was decided to reduce his salary by one-half, to which Mr. Hagger agreed.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 4th July 1930

At the evening service at Bethel Baptist Church last Sunday the Sunday School scholars repeated several of their anniversary hymns, to the evident delight of the large congregation. Mr. J. W. Williams presided at the organ, and the preacher was the pastor, Rev. T. B. Field.

SUNDAY MOTOR CYCLING. 4th July 1930

"There was a time," writes a correspondent, who subscribes himself "Nemo," "when this village was a Sunday paradise, when no other sounds were heard to disturb the serenity of the day than the birds carolling in the trees, or the lowing of the cattle in the fields, but of late a change has come over the scene, and our village street seems to have become an unlicensed motor track, and pedestrians of all ages have little security from being the victims of this modern form of juggernaut. Then these riders have the bad taste to be on the 'war path' when the people are going or returning to their several places of worship. We ask why the Lord's Day be used by these 'intrepid charioteers'? We must be charitable, since they have no Thursday or Saturday half-holiday, or long week-day evenings, and, moreover, no doubt they are anxious to exhibit their skill before the most respectable people of the parish. Why does not the local Parish Council take action?"

THE MOTOR CYCLE NUISANCE. 4th July 1930

A correspondent writes: Residents of Swavesey, those possessing motor cycles excepted, have long been denouncing with more or less vigour the reckless pace at which motor cyclists ride up and down the village, and not only do they complain of the excessive speed, but also of the terrible noise they make. Denunciation, no matter how emphatic, is useless unless backed up by action, and action is just what the harassed residents shirk. Some of them say that the Parish Council should adopt measures to abate the nuisance, but the councillors, it is understood, are of opinion that they have no power to interfere. But surely as the body directly representative of the parish they have the right to bring the matter before the authority that can take effective steps to stop the nuisance. Why should the lives and limbs of adults and children be endangered? Why should sick people, little children and those who are endeavouring to get rest after a hard day's work be disturbed late at night and in the early hours of the morning by motor cyclists noisily careering through the village, or by engines left running while the riders are engaged in conversation? Then, again, is it reasonable that youths should be allowed to try what pace their machines will do up and down the main street on Sunday mornings?

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 11th July 1930

There was a good attendance at the meeting of the Women's Institute, held in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday. As it was member's night, the President handed over the reins to Mrs. Laverack, who with several other members had arranged the programme for the evening. A competition for the best bunch of flowers from the member's own garden, kindly judged by Mr. W. Thorp, was won by Miss K. Banks. Mrs. Banks was in charge of the stall, and although there were not quite so many articles for sale, those on view were soon disposed of. Songs were sung, and a reading by Mrs. Lavarack caused much amusement. After refreshments, the members adjourned to Mrs. Banks' garden, where a pleasant time was spent with games, etc., and at the close a hearty vote of thanks was accorded Mrs. Banks, on the proposition of Mrs. C. S. Hepher. Mrs. Aldred, Mrs. Laverack, Mrs. Shepperson, Mrs. Marriott, and Mrs. Martin were the hostesses.

THE LATE MRS. OAKMAN. 11th July 1930

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Ann Oakman, wife of Mr. Edward Oakman, whose death after about ten days' illness occurred on July 4th, took place at Swavesey parish church on Tuesday afternoon. The Rev. J. F. Cooksey officiated. The mourners included: Mr. E. Oakman (husband), Mr. and Mrs. G. Crouch (son-in-law and daughter), Mr. and Mrs. G. Oakman (son and daughter-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. C. Brand, Mr. and Mrs. D. Neal (brothers-in-law and sisters), Mr. and Mrs. A. Fuller (brother and sister-in-law), Messrs. C. and G. Fuller (brothers), Miss D. Fuller and Mrs. S. Nunn (nieces), Mrs. H. Oakman (mother-in-law), Messrs. A. and J. Oakman (brothers-in-law), Mrs. A. Oakman, Mrs. P. Bangler, Mrs. R. Cattell and Mrs. J. Oakman (sisters-in-law). The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. E. Mitham, Middle Watch, Swavesey. The late Mrs. Oakman, who was 53 years of age, leaves one son and one daughter.

NURSING ASSOCIATION FETE. 11th July 1930

The charming grounds at Swavesey Manor, kindly lent by the Rev. J. F. Cooksey, were the scene of a charming fete in aid of funds of the Swavesey, Over and Fen Drayton Nursing Association yesterday afternoon and evening. The fete was opened by Mrs. Bond, of Longstanton, who gave a pleasing and encouraging address. A feature of the fete was the baby show, in which a bonnie array of babies was judged by the County Medical Officer (Dr. F. Robinson) and Miss Bills, superintendent of the Cambs. and Isle of Ely Nursing Association, who made their awards as follows: Under six months – 1 Joy Daphne Dodson, 2 Alex Roy Careless, 3 Keith Norman. Over six months – 1 Brian William Hepher, 2 Jessie May Kester, 3 Nora May Smart. Special prize, Arthur John Walker. The general arrangements were under the direction of Mrs. Cooksey. The various stalls, side-shows and competitions are listed in the newspaper. Very enjoyable features were a sketch, "Neighbours in Gooseberry Court," given by the Misses Cole, Dodson and Payne, and a children's play, "The Toys that Came Alive," presented by Miss Scott and 14 little girls of the Swavesey School.

LAST WEEK'S FETE. 18th July 1930

In continuation of our report in last Friday's "Independent Press" of the garden fete at Swavesey Manor in aid of the District Nursing Association, we give a list of the winners of the competitions, etc., viz., candle lighting (prize, thermos flask given by Mrs. G. Burling), Miss Joyce Willson; clock golf (cycle lamp given by Mrs. Fraser), Mr. H. Moyne; mystery parcel (given by Mrs. W. Kester), Mrs. James Norman; doll (given by Miss Beaumont), name not guessed, and on being drawn for was won by Mrs. B. Thorp; weight of cake (given by Mrs. Cooksey), Mrs. Whitehead; feeling competition (prize given by Miss K. Banks), Eric Williamson; weight of fowl (given by Mrs. Cooksey), Miss Rose Gaunt, who subsequently sold it and handed over the sum realised to the funds. The beautiful bouquet, which was presented by Miss Phyllis Godfrey to Mrs. Bond, who opened the fete, was given by Mrs. Banks, and it should be mentioned that the admirable performances of the sketch "Neighbours in Gooseberry Court," by Misses Cole, E. Dodson and Paine, and that of the children's play, "The Toys That Came Alive," by 14 little girls of Swavesey School, were greatly appreciated and heartily applauded. The excellent performance of the children reflected great credit on Miss Scott, who had trained them. The net proceeds from the fete, including donations £5 13s., amounted to £43 7s., about £3 more than the sum realised by last year's fete.

BETHEL BAND OF HOPE. 1st Aug. 1930

A party of 68 persons, including adults and young folks from Swavesey joined the excursion to Clacton arranged by the County Band of Hope Union on Thursday week. A most enjoyable day was spent, the weather on the whole being good. The Rev. T. B. Field and Mrs. Field accompanied the Swavesey contingent.

UPKEEP OF BYEWAYS. 1st Aug. 1930

A meeting called by the Rural District Council, of "owners and occupiers of the Swavesey byeways, to consider the future rating and upkeep of the byeways" was held at the Memorial Hall on Tuesday afternoon. About twenty payers of the existing byeways rate attended, some of whom are neither owners nor occupiers of the byeways. Mr. A. Day, sen., a District Councillor, presided, supported by Mr. G. D. Day of St. Ives (late Clerk of the R.D.C.), and Mr. G. A. Harrison (collector). After considerable discussion, in which Mr. R. Mitham, sen., Mr. W. Daisley, Mr. W. Parish, the Chairman, and others took part, Mr. C. Wood moved a resolution that no action be taken in the matter. Dr. J. W. Ellis seconded, but the Chairman did not put the proposition to the meeting, and eventually Mr. Daisley proposed as an amendment that the meeting be adjourned until Tuesday, August 12th, at 6 p.m. This was seconded by Mr. W. Parish, and carried by about 12 votes to 7.

INTERESTING WEDDING AT SWAVESEY. 1st Aug. 1930 JOHNSON – BARWELL.

There was a large attendance at the parish church of St. Andrew, Swavesey, on Saturday afternoon, at the marriage of Mr. Oscar Ernest Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Johnson, “Gransett,” Latham-road, Cambridge, and Miss Marjorie Barwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Barwell, The Old House, Swavesey.

The Rev. C. F. Stebbing, vicar of the parish, officiated, assisted by the Rev. J. Selwyn Sharp, a former vicar, now rector of Rattlesden, Bury St. Edmund’s. The service was choral, and included Psalm cxxi and the hymns “Through all the changing scenes of life” and “Now thank we all our God.”

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a charming dress of cream satin beaute, a wreath of orange blossom, and a Limerick lace veil, which belonged to her great-grandmother, and was lent by her aunt, Miss Barwell. This formed a train. Her three bridesmaids, Misses Mary and Cynthia Johnson (sisters of the bridegroom) and Miss Joy Stebbing, were attired in dainty dresses of green tulle with linen straw hats and shoes to match, and they carried Victorian posies of mixed flowers. Mr. Bernard Matthew was best man.

The reception after the ceremony was held in the garden of The Old House.

HARVEST. 1st Aug. 1930

Not many cereals are grown in this district, and the heavy arable land suffered greatly through the amount of rain in the month of May. Estimated yields per acre: Wheat, 3½qrs.; barley, 4 qrs.; oats, 5 qrs.; hay (an exceptionally heavy crop), high lands, 1½ tons, low lands, 2 tons; peas (not many grown), 4 coombs per acre; beans, a fair crop, 4 to 4¼ qrs.; mangolds, rather small; sugar beet, not much grown and yield less than previous year. Strawberries, a short season and poor prices; other soft fruits, a fair crop, but doubtful whether will pay for picking. What with the poor yields and falling prices, agriculture in this district will not last much longer. Owing to the poor prices obtained by the producers, townspeople should be having very cheap food. – C. W. H. Cole.

SWAVESEY’S DOUBLE EVENT.

Good Fruit at Annual Show.

ATTRACTIVE SPORTS.

G. W. Martin’s Cycling Successes.

Swavesey's eighth annual show and sports, which drew large crowds to the Manor Field yesterday, more than maintained the reputation secured by its predecessors, the Horticultural Society collaborating with the Athletic Association to provide a programme full of interest.

This was the first year of the Association's affiliation to the Amateur Athletic Association and the National Cyclists' Union and an attractive series of events, including many well-known cycling and flat competitors, was provided. Among those competing were D. S. Horn, the 25 miles' N.C.U. champion, C. W. Horn, the Eastern Counties champion, R. C. Arnold, the Cambs. sprint champion, and W. Orange, the Cambs. "quarter" and "half" champion. In the ladies' events members of the Middlesex Athletic Club took part.

RESULTS BY AMPLIFIER.

The results were announced from an amplifier installation by Messrs. H. B. Cheesewright, of Sutton, who also gave a musical programme, alternating with the selections of the Cambridge Town Silver Prize Band.

The prizes were presented by Mr. R. C. Cole (President of the Horticultural Society) and dancing took place to the music of the band, an adjournment being made eventually to the Memorial Hall, where Hal Kemp and his colleagues took up the music until midnight.

Among the visitors during the day was Captain Briscoe, M.P., who is a vice-president of the Society. He spent considerable time in the horticultural tent and also witnessed some of the sports events.

THE EXHIBITS.

The entries on the horticultural side were well up to the average. In the members' section the apple classes were particularly well supported, and in the cottagers' section the potato entries were notably large.

Mr. A. T. Paskett, the County Agricultural Adviser, and Mr. George Hart, of Willingham, were the judges, and they were well pleased with the general standard of the show.

Apples, both cooking and dessert, were of a higher quality than in previous years, and the vegetable classes were very good. Here again the quality and staging was excellent. Onions, carrots, runner beans and marrows were outstanding, while sweet peas were good. There were some fine exhibits among the redcurrants, while both Rivers and Czars in the plum classes were worthy of praise.

CUP WINNERS.

The most successful exhibitor was Police Sergt. Brooks, who signalled his last year at Swavesey – he retires shortly – by 21 firsts, 9 seconds and 10 thirds, thereby securing the cup given by Mrs. R. C. Cole, the wife of the president for the highest number of points. Mr. Brooks' nearest rival was Mr. T. Day, of Boxworth, who secured 12 first, 11 seconds and 9 thirds, and won the cup given by Mr. W. Dodson for a collection of vegetables.

An interesting corner of the horticultural tent was that occupied by Mr. Harry Seamark, the Willingham bee expert, who showed a swarm of bees under glass and displayed bottle and comb honey. He also ran a competition for guessing the weight of about 7lbs. of honey, the honey going as the prize to the nearest competitor.

THE SPORTS.

Winners and officials listed in newspaper.

MUSICAL SUCCESSES. 8th Aug. 1930

At the recent Schools Examinations of the Associated board of the Royal Academy and Royal College of Music, held at Cambridge, the following pupils of Miss E. M. Naylor, of Over, were successful:- Grammar of Music, Division II (full marks), Grace Thorp; Primary, Pianoforte, Joan Hepher.

SCOUTS' CAMP. 8th Aug. 1930

The 15th Willesden Troop of Scouts have again selected Swavesey for their fortnight's camp, Mr. A. Day having placed the Mow Fen at their disposal. On Saturday, under the command of Scoutmaster Boshier, M.B.E., and Assistant Scoutmaster Mitchell, the party were welcomed by their honorary chaplain, Rev. T. B. Field, and directed to their destination. Five tents were speedily erected and matters arranged for their comfort. On Sunday evening they attended church parade at Bethel Chapel, and hope to do so next Sunday.

ACCIDENT. 8th Aug. 1930

Mr. George Brooks, of Black Horse-lane, met with an unfortunate accident on Tuesday evening. He was starting from his home on his bicycle when, owing probably to a wheel striking the grass verge, he overbalanced and fell heavily to the ground, pitching on to his shoulder. He was assisted into the house, and after Dr. Fraser, who was called in, had rendered first-aid, he was taken to Addenbrooke's Hospital, where it was found that while no bones had been broken, Mr. Brooks' shoulder had been dislocated. He was promptly attended to, but was allowed to return home.

HOME RE-VISITED. 8th Aug. 1930

Mr. Frank Day, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Day, who has been re-visiting his native village while on a three months' holiday from Canada, left Swavesey on Tuesday to look up other members of the family in and around Manchester, prior to sailing from Liverpool. Mr. F. Day was the youngest of four Swavesey young men who went to Canada about 23 years ago. All served with the Canadian Forces during the war, Harry Beaumont being killed in action not long after he landed in France in 1915. Lawson Hephner, another of the party, obtained a commission in the R.F.A., and before the war ended, was awarded the M.C. He is still in British Columbia. Mr. Day until recently was engaged in farming, but about 18 months ago, he was appointed postmaster at Rockwood, Ontario, and he has since then become a Justice of the Peace. He says he is kept well informed as to happenings in Cambs., as for years past a copy of the "Independent Press" has been sent to him every week.

WEDDING. 8th Aug. 1930

There was a large attendance of relatives and friends from Chatteris and Cambridge, as well as from Swavesey and the surrounding district, at the marriage of Mr. Harry Clarence Bishop, son of Mrs. Henry Carter and the late Mr. Thomas Bishop, and Miss Irene Beatrice Norman, daughter of Mr. Tom Norman, of Chatteris, and the late Mrs. Norman, which took place at Swavesey Parish Church on Saturday afternoon. The Vicar, Rev. C. F. Stebbing, officiated. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a pretty dress of white art silk with veil and orange blossom, silver shoes and stockings, and she carried a shower bouquet of red carnations. She was attended by five bridesmaids, Miss E. Norman (sister of the bride), Miss W. Knightley (cousin of the bride), and Misses Sylvia, Joyce and Rosie Carter (sisters of the bridegroom). Misses Norman and Knightley were attired in green art silk, with cape collars, black picture hats and shoes to match dresses. They carried bouquets of pink carnations. The three small bridesmaids wore frocks of lemon art. silk and head-dresses of silver leaves. Two of them carried bouquets of white sweet peas and the third a basket of roses. Mr. L. S. Bishop (brother of the bridegroom) was best man. After the ceremony a reception was held in the Memorial Hall, where about 150 guests were entertained, the festivities being kept up until midnight. The toast of the bride and bridegroom was proposed by Mr. R. Barwell, in whose employ the bridegroom has been for the past twelve years, and in doing so he spoke in terms of warm appreciation of Mr. Bishops' faithful work. The presents were numerous and useful, and included a large cooking stove from Mr. Barwell.

SCOUTS' CAMP. 15th Aug. 1930

The 15th Willesden Scouts, who are in camp in Mow Fen, attended the service at Bethel Baptist Church on Sunday evening. Rover Scout Speechley sang a solo, and Rover Scout Hardy read the first lesson. The Rev. T. B. Field conducted the service and also gave an address upon the words, "Follow Me." Although the weather was very stormy, there was a good congregation. Yesterday Mrs. J. Norman very kindly entertained the troop to tea at the Old Manor, and to-morrow they return to London, having fully enjoyed their stay amid Swavesey's healthful breezes.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 15th Aug. 1930

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held on Tuesday evening in the Memorial Hall, the President occupying the chair. There was a good attendance of members. It was agreed to have a social in September in the President's garden to augment the funds. Mrs. C. S. Hephher presented her report of the recent Council meeting of the County Federation. This was followed by community singing, which members very much enjoy. After refreshments had been served by Mesdames Aldred, Banks, Marriott, Martin and Miss Banks, Dr. Fraser gave an instructive talk on "Food and the Housewife's Budget," for which he was accorded a hearty vote of thanks.

THE BYEWAYS. 15th Aug. 1930

Mr. A. Day, sen., who was supported by Mr. G. D. Day, clerk of the Rural District Council, again occupied the chair at the adjourned meeting of the owners and occupiers of the Swavesey byeways, which was held in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening. After a good deal of discussion Mr. Ezra Day moved that a committee of nine or eleven men be appointed to attend to the byeways, and this was carried by 13 votes to four. The Chairman then proposed, and Mr. W. Parish seconded, that the committee should consist of nine members, and the following were elected: Messrs. A. Day, jun., D. Williams, E. Day, W. Burton, H. Ellwood, H. Parish, B. Hodson, W. J. Hephher and W. I. Hemington. During the proceedings a letter was read from Mr. C. W. H. Cole, chairman of the Parish Council, who was unable to be present owing to illness, suggesting that if each owner and occupier cleaned out his own ditches and kept his hedges cut down along the byeways, very little more need be done. Whatever was required should, however, be carried out by the owners and occupiers themselves, and he (Mr. Cole) would undertake to keep the portion belonging to him in order. The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks to Mr. G. D. Day for his assistance.

A LETTER FROM SWAVESEY. 15th Aug. 1930

We hope the Robin Cot Fund will be a greater success in the future. I see Uncle Cyril go home every evening, and I always say ‘Tweet, Tweet.’ – Yours faithfully, Mary Mitham.”

I shall have to ask Uncle Cyril about this, Mary. I hope he says “Tweet, tweet” too! Thank you very much for the contribution to the Cot Fund.

Kitchin, of Castor, near Peterborough, which took place yesterday morning at Swavesey parish church. During the service the hymn “Lead us, Heavenly Father” was sung, Mr. G. W. Thoday, of Over, presiding at the organ. The bride, who was given away by her father, was attired in a dainty dress of green figured georgette, with hat to match, and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Her bridesmaids, Miss Betty Day (sister of the bride) and Miss Monica Kitchin (sister of the bridegroom) were in apricot silk marocain, with black hats trimmed to match the dresses. They carried bouquets of roses. Mr. T. Brooks, of Elton, Peterborough, was best man. The reception after the ceremony was held at the bride’s home, and later the happy couple left by car for South Devon, where the honeymoon is being spent. The presents were numerous and useful.

ACCIDENT TO A CHILD. 29th Aug. 1930

Frank Parish, 4 years of age, youngest child of Mr. Isaac Parish, farmer, of Fen Drayton, was seriously injured when he fell out of a four-wheeled van at Swavesey station on Tuesday afternoon. He had accompanied his father, who had taken a load of fruit for despatch by rail. The van had been emptied when the horse suddenly moved on, and the little fellow, who was standing towards the back of the vehicle, was pitched out. He was conveyed home as quickly as possible, and was examined by Dr. Grove, who happened to be close at hand, and the doctor, finding that the boy had sustained a fracture of the femur, advised his removal to Addenbrooke's Hospital, where he was taken without delay and detained.

VILLAGE COLLEGES. 29th Aug. 1930

TO THE EDITOR.

Sir, - In his letter in the "Independent Press" last week, Councillor A. R. Fordham explained that the Village Colleges, of which that at Sawston is to be the prototype, are not to be colleges in the sense ordinarily understood by the word, but merely schools embodying a new experiment to fit boys and girls for a country life and to make the village a more interesting place to live in.

Now this is beautiful on paper, but how will it work out in practice? For instance, if the proposal of the Education Committee is carried out, how can a college at Willingham make village life more interesting in Swavesey, Boxworth, Fen Drayton or Lolworth, some of the parishes whose adults and older children are included in the Willingham area? Willingham is on the outskirts of the area, and cannot by any stretch of imagination be deemed a centre of village life in that widespread district. And does Mr. Fordham, with his knowledge of village life, really believe that adult villagers will go miles after their day's work to seek further education?

Was not a promise given that before these colleges were established, or at any rate before their respective positions were fixed, parents should be consulted? Has this been done in any single instance in the whole of the county?

At Whittlesford, it is true, the managers of the school – not the County Education Committee – called a meeting of parents, and at that meeting, according to the newspaper report, various objections were raised by parents to the proposal to send their children to Sawston Village College.

We villagers will be glad if Mr. Fordham will give us some information on these points. There are other questions we should like to ask him, but these will suffice for the present. – Yours, etc.,

VILLAGER.

Swavesey, 27th August, 1930.

HOSPITAL COLLECTION. 5th Sept. 1930

The annual house-to-house collection for Addenbrooke's Hospital, which has recently been made in the village under the auspices of the County

Organisation Fund, realised £16 18s. Mesdames Aldred, Beaumont, Cooksey, C. Dean, F. Hemington and Walter Thorp and Miss Gaunt were the collectors.

AN OFFENSIVE DRAIN. 5th Sept. 1930

The stench arising from the large open drain, which passes under the main road near the church, has been very offensive this week. The nuisance is caused by a sewer, which serves a considerable part of the village, emptying itself into the drain within a few yards of the road. The water in the drain is frequently stagnant, and when this is the case the sewerage has little or no chance of getting away towards the river. Complaint is also being made of the stench from the same sewer at the Cow Fen end of Market-street. It is understood that the attention of the local District Councillors has been called to the nuisance in so far as Market-street is concerned, but whether the District Council is taking any remedial steps has not transpired. A few years ago an inspector of the Ministry of Health visited Swavesey, and made certain suggestions respecting the sewer.

FALL FROM A LADDER. 5th Sept. 1930

Accident to Carpenter in Swavesey Church.

An unfortunate accident happened on Tuesday afternoon at Swavesey Parish Church to Mr. P. W. Mills, a carpenter in the employ of Messrs. John Thompson and Sons, Ltd., the well-known builders of Peterborough, who for some time past have been engaged in the repair of the roof of the south aisle.

Mr. Mills, a heavy man, was ascending a ladder when his foot appears to have slipped, and he fell with his legs twisted about three feet on to the stone floor.

The other carpenters, who hastened to his assistance, seeing that one of his legs had been seriously injured, sent for Dr. Fraser, who after putting the limb into splints, ordered Mr. Mills' immediate removal to Addenbrooke's Hospital.

On inquiry at the hospital on Wednesday, it was ascertained that Mr. Mills was fairly comfortable. His injuries consisted of a compound fracture of the leg and a dislocated shoulder.

ADVERT. 12th Sept. 1930

ONE TON LORRY FOR HIRE. Furniture, removals, etc. Any distance, Estimates – Jas. Prior. 'Phone 3.

WOMEN CONSERVATIVES. 12th Sept. 1930

By kind permission of Mrs. Cook, a garden meeting of the local branch of the Women's Conservative Association was held at Brooklands on Wednesday, to enable members to meet the new County Organising Secretary, Miss Sperling. After tea (provided by the committee), Mrs. Cain (chairman of the branch) introduced Miss Sperling, who spoke for a few minutes, chiefly on the recent by-election at Bromley and on the coming Empire Conference. Mrs. Pashlar, the retiring secretary, who was also present, urged the members to make fresh efforts for the Conservative cause.

ANTIQUITIES OF THE COUNTY. 12th Sept. 1930

An enjoyable evening was spent at the monthly meeting of the Women's Institute, held in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday. Mrs. Fraser presided, and there was a very good attendance of members. The proceedings opened with the singing of "Jerusalem," after which it was agreed that Mr. F. Aldred should be the conductor and Mrs. Spolton pianist for the community singing practices in preparation for the competition to be held later in the year. A good entry of "vegetables from members' own gardens" was judged by Mr. W. Thorp, who, after much deliberation, awarded the prize to Mrs. Banks. Tea having been handed round by Mrs. Aldred and her usual helpers, an interesting lantern lecture on "Antiquities of our County" was given by Dr. Palmer. This was thrown open to the public, and there was a very appreciative audience. At the close Mr. W. Thorp proposed a vote of thanks to Dr. Palmer and to Mr. C. Symonds, who kindly lent and manipulated the lantern.

GARDEN PARTY. 12th Sept. 1930

A very pleasant evening was spent at Mrs. Fraser's on Thursday, September 11th. The Women's Institute arranged a garden party to augment their funds, and started off with a tea served at little tables arranged on the lawn. Various competitions were held on the lawn, too, one – a skipping competition – being very amusing, calling forth a good deal of energy. This was won by Mrs. Martin, who far out-skipped anyone else. Guessing the length of string in a jar was won by Mrs. Kester. The potato race, too, caused a good deal of fun, and was won by Miss Stebbing. Walking along a tape looking through opera glasses was another cause of merriment and skill, and was won by Miss Fraser. The competition, the highest number of pins picked up by scissors, was won by Mrs. D. Godfrey. A small whist drive was held, and the winners were: ladies, Mrs. Fraser, gentlemen, Mrs. Stebbing; lucky number, ladies', Mrs. Joyce, ditto, gentlemen, Nurse Cottrell; ladies' booby, Master J. Fraser. At the end of the whist drive Dr. Fraser kindly auctioned the remainder of the refreshments, Mrs. Stebbing proposed a hearty vote of thanks to Dr. and Mrs. Fraser for so kindly lending their garden, and for making the evening such a success. The members and friends then joined in the National Anthem, which brought the evening to a close.

SWAVESEY R.D. COUNCIL. 19th Sept. 1930

Question of Assistance for Cleaning Drains.

Mr. Frohock (chairman) presided over the monthly meeting of Swavesey Rural District Council, held in the Board Room of the St. Ives Poor Law Institution on Friday morning. Others present were Messrs. Kirby, Scambler, Day, Norman and Johnson, with the Clerk (Mr. G. D. Day) and the Sanitary Inspector (Mr. G. Yeandle).

The Clerk reported the balances in hand to be £269 6s. 6d. on the general account, and £18 16s. 6d. on the housing account.

PUBLIC DRAINS.

A lengthy discussion took place on the question of applying to the Ministry for assistance in the clearing out of public drains in the various parishes under the jurisdiction of the Council.

Members present gave particulars of the various drains, together with the estimated length and work required to be done. It was felt that owing to the present depression in agriculture, some assistance should be given.

Instructions were given the Clerk to apply for Government assistance on the lines suggested.

The Water Rate Collector wrote asking for the amount to be charged Mr. A. L. Parish, of Swavesey.

Mr. Day said that Mr. Parish was prepared to pay £3 per annum.

The Clerk said that sum was very small. It meant a cost to the parish of £3 a year.

Mr. Scambler said his supply, which was through a meter, cost him £15 a year.

Mr. Day said they were now in the midst of collecting the first rate under the new assessment. They raised the water rate 25 per cent. on all assessments.

The decision was that Mr. Parish should pay the 25 per cent. extra, plus £3.

A letter was received from the auditor calling attention to the necessity of increasing Mr. Shaw's bond as water rate collector and collector of rents. The present bond was for £25.

It was agreed to make the amount £50.

THE LATE MR. P. METCALFE. 26th Sept. 1930

We have to record the death of Mr. Philip Metcalfe, a member of an old Swavesey family and a well-known thatcher, who passed away at 55, Earl-street, Edgeware-road, London, W., on the 18th inst., within two days of completing his 90th year. His life was spent in Swavesey until 15 years ago, when he left the village with his niece, Mrs. W. Thurbon, and her husband, and with them he resided until the end. He was greatly respected in the village. For many years he was a sidesman at the parish church and secretary of the Shepherds' Club, and the Stock Club. He never married. The body was brought from London by road early on Wednesday morning, and until the funeral, which took place at the parish church in the afternoon, was rested in a building in Market-street on the site of the house (since burned down) in which he was born and lived for 75 years. The Vicar, Rev. C. F. Stebbing, officiated. The mourners were: Mr. and Mrs. W. Thurbon, Mr. J. Metcalfe, Mrs. Cole, Mr. Fred James, Mrs. Mortlock, Mr. Dennis Metcalfe, Mrs. W. Spolton, Mr. Gifford Metcalfe and Mr. W. Thurbon, jun. (nephews and nieces).

NATIONAL SAVINGS. 3rd Oct. 1930

That the village children are taking a keen interest in the Swavesey School Savings Association, which was started last March, is shown by their regular weekly contributions. There are already 55 members. Mrs. Wood (hon. secretary) will be pleased to give advice to any parents who wish their children to join, and they may be interested to know that sums as small as one penny are taken.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 3rd Oct. 1930

Harvest thanksgiving services, combined with the celebration of the Pastor's fifth anniversary, were held on Thursday week at Bethel Baptist Church. The special preacher in the afternoon was the Rev. W. Mildred, of Girton, and in the evening the Rev. C. H. Wooster, of Waterbeach. Seventy persons attended a public tea between the services, at which the Rev. E. P. Blackaby, of Willingham, made a happy speech, congratulating the Pastor and people upon the happy relationship which existed, and feelingly mentioned the prospective closing of Mr. Field's ministry. The services were continued on Sunday, sermons being preached morning and evening by the Pastor. A special young people's gathering was held in the afternoon, when Mr. Blackaby gave an interesting address, and the children brought in 111 eggs and gave an offering of 10s. 6d. for Addenbrooke's. The congregations were good at all the services, and especially on Sunday evening, at which service Mrs. Watt gave an excellent rendering of a solo and the choir of the Te Deum. Mrs. Field and Mrs. Watt sang a duet at the afternoon gathering. The organists were Miss Coulson and Messrs. Canham and J. W. William. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers, and there was a bountiful supply of fruit and vegetables, generously given by various friends. All gifts in kind were subsequently sent to Addenbrooke's Hospital. An event of great interest took place during the evening service, when Mr. Pontefract, in the name, and on behalf of the Young People's Fellowship, presented Mr. K. Williams, who is leaving Swavesey for Chelmsford, with a Bible as a token of their appreciation of his services as secretary.

TARGET FOR ADDENBROOKE'S. 10th Oct. 1930

The sum of £153 has now been raised towards the target of £200 which the people of Swavesey agreed to aim at as their contribution to Addenbrooke's Hospital Building Fund. With the exception of comparatively small amounts collected at a meeting when Major Wallington gave an address, and at a football match on Good Friday, this sum has been entirely derived from weekly house-to-house collections.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 10th Oct. 1930

When the Band of Hope re-opened for the winter session on Monday 31 new members were enrolled, and the following officers were chosen for the ensuing year: President, Rev. T. B. Field; vice-president, Mrs. Field; treasurer, Mr. Pontefract; secretary, Mrs. A. J. Norman; programme secretary, Mrs. Ivatt, who with Mrs. Godfrey, sen., and Miss B. Savage, will form the committee. Later the same evening the Young People's Society commenced its winter programme, when the President, Rev. T. B. Field, gave an address on "Some famous women." The officers for the ensuing season are: vice-president, Miss B. Savage; treasurer, Mr. Pontefract; secretary, Mrs. G. E. Canham. An interesting programme has been arranged.

VILLAGE INSTITUTE. 10th Oct. 1930

There was only a small attendance at the annual meeting of the Institute on Friday. The chair was taken by Mr. S. Clark. The report and balance sheet were presented by the secretary, Mr. C. Wood, the latter showing an increased balance in favour of the Institute. Both were unanimously adopted on the motion of Mr. L. Brooks. The officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Mr. W. A. Bignell; chairman, Mr. S. Clark; hon. secretary and treasurer, Mr. C. Wood; committee, Messrs. N. Thorp, A. Hawkes, R. H. Cole, and A. Aldred; caretaker, Mr. E. Prior. The Institute is running only one team in the Billiards League, and of this Mr. A. Hawkes was elected captain, with Messrs. S. Clark and R. H. Coles as selection committee. Mr. Lee informed the members that owing to the poor support given to him last year he did not propose to continue his boxing classes. The meeting closed with a vote of thanks to the hon. secretary and treasurer, who in reply appealed for an increased membership of the Institute.

PARISH CHURCH. 10th Oct. 1930

The harvest festival at the parish church on Thursday, 2nd October, opened with a celebration of Holy Communion at 7.30 a.m. There was a large congregation at evensong when the special preacher was the Rev. C. G. Poynder, rector of Boxworth, and the music included the Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis (Smart) and Stainer's anthem "Ye shall dwell in the land." The church was effectively decorated by the usual band of ladies. There was a profusion of beautiful flowers, but the gifts of fruit and vegetables, though excellent in quality, were not up to the average of some previous years in regard to quantity. On Sunday, when the festival was continued, there was a children's flower service in the afternoon, the young people's contributions of fruit, flowers, eggs, etc., being afterwards sent, as usual, to St. Ives Infirmary. A large congregation was present at evensong, when the pulpit was occupied by the Rev. C. Carleton, rector of Castor, Peterborough, and Thursday's music was repeated. The collections throughout the festival, except that on Sunday evening, were in aid of Addenbrooke's Hospital (Maintenance Fund), and amounted to £6 6s., nearly £2 less than last year. The gifts of fruit, vegetables, etc., have also been forwarded to Addenbrooke's.

WEDDING. 10th Oct. 1930

The marriage of Miss May Thorp, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Thorp, Grosvenor House, Swavesey, and Mr. Charles J. Jellings, of Willingham, eldest son of Mrs. Jellings and the late Mr. W. Jellings, took place at noon on Saturday at the parish church of St. Andrew, Swavesey, the vicar, the Rev. C. F. Stebbing, officiating. The service was choral, and included the hymns "How welcome was the call" and "Thine for ever." The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a pretty dress of green georgette, with hat to match, and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations. She was attended by her sisters, Misses Clara and Ivy Thorp, who were attired in pink satin, with black hats. They carried bouquets of white chrysanthemums. Mr. R. W. Etchells, of Weybridge, was best man. The wedding breakfast and reception were held at Grosvenor House, about forty guests being present, and later in the day Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Jellings left for the South Coast, where the honeymoon is being spent. The presents were numerous and useful, and included a full dinner service, coffee set and an oak biscuit barrel from the office staff of Messrs. Chivers and Sons, where the bride had been employed, and a full tea service from Mrs. M. Cole and Son, of Willingham, the bridegroom's employers.

RESTORATION OF THE CHURCH. 17th Oct. 1930

The Bishop of Ely will dedicate the new roof of the south aisle of the parish church on Sunday, October 26th, at 3 p.m. The village has already raised £1,200 towards the cost of the repairs, but some hundreds of pounds are still required to discharge the remaining debt. Photographs of the new roof will be found in our picture page this week.

FRIENDS' MEETING HOUSE. 17th Oct. 1930

For the harvest thanksgiving services on Sunday afternoon and evening, and on Monday, the Friends' Meeting House had been tastefully decorated. The services were conducted by Sisters Chipperfield and Sharp, students from Emmanuel Missionary Training College, who are in charge of the Meeting House, and on Sunday, Brother Eric Smith, of the same college, was the special preacher. On Monday evening Sister Chipperfield gave an interesting address on the parable of the wheat and tares (St. Matthew xiii). All the services were well attended, and the congregations joined heartily in the singing of the harvest hymns.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 17th Oct. 1930

Community singing conducted by Mr. F. Aldred, proved the most enjoyable part of the programme at the monthly meeting of the Women's Institute on Tuesday. After the usual business, while waiting for the arrival of Miss Elsdon, a roll-call was taken on "Hobbies," members suggesting such admirable ways of passing time as mending trousers, doing nothing, and washing, although a good many admitted that they had no hobby. After Miss Elsdon had given her demonstration on "Inexpensive Christmas presents," for which she was accorded a hearty vote of thanks, refreshments were served and a round table conference took place respecting next year's programme. Mrs. K. Banks was in charge of the stall, and by the sale of pictures, books, and articles of clothing, succeeded in netting 19s. 6d. Mrs. Martin came out first in the potato competition, her one tuber producing potatoes 7lbs. 6oz. in weight. Mrs. Marriott and Miss Cole gave an excellent performance of a little sketch, entitled "Making the Best of Things." The President announced that she would be glad of gifts for the produce stall on Cambridge Market, the proceeds from which would go to Addenbrooke's Hospital. The evening was brought to a close by community singing, members trying over the songs to be sung in the forthcoming county contest.

AGRICULTURAL DISCUSSION SOCIETY. 17th Oct. 1930

The annual meeting of the Swavesey and District Agricultural Discussion Society was held in Swavesey Schools on Friday evening. The chair was taken by Mr. R. Mailer (Boxworth), and Mr. McMillan (County agricultural organiser) was present. The election of officers resulted in the following being appointed: President, Mr. R. Mailer; vice-presidents, Dr. J. W. Ellis, Messrs. C. W. H. Cole (Swavesey), F. Kirby (Over), F. Stanton (Lolworth); secretary and treasurer, Mr. C. Wood (Swavesey); committee, Messrs. E. Webb, P. Watts, B. Barker, R. Doggett (Over), J. Mitham (Lolworth), T. Johnson, jun. (Fen Drayton), J. Scambler (Conington), S. L. Swann (Longstanton), H. Hounsell (Willingham). It was decided that the meetings should be held fortnightly, the first being on October 31st, and that there should be four before Christmas and five after. Mr. McMillan announced that the following would be the speakers: Mr. Macintosh, of Reading, on "Value of home grown feeding stuffs for cows"; Mr. Paskett, on "Fruit growing"; Mr. H. Robinson (county poultry instructor), on "The care of winter layers"; Mr. Hunter on "Malting barley"; Mr. Carslaw on "Is it worthwhile to keep accounts." On the 27th February, the Society will close for the season with a debate on Protection and Free Trade in agriculture.

MEMORIAL TREES. 17th Oct. 1930

There are no doubt many people in Swavesey to-day who are ignorant of the fact that the cedar trees at each end of the Swan pond and in Market-street, are memorials of an historic event. They were the gift of the late Mr. Thomas William Dunn, who resided at The Old House in Black Horse-lane from 1897 until Michaelmas, 1901, and were to be a memorial of the death of Queen Victoria. Mr. Dunn, on leaving Swavesey, went to live at Milton, and here he passed peacefully away last week in the 94th year of his age. On Saturday, Feb. 2nd, 1901, the day on which Queen Victoria was buried, four cedars of Lebanon were planted, those at the Swan pond by the then Vicar of Swavesey (Rev. A. C. Vidler) and his daughter, Miss Helen Vidler, respectively, and the two in Market-street by the late Mr. T. W. Carter and the present Chairman of the Parish Council (Mr. C. W. H. Cole) then a small boy. All these trees died, and in the following autumn Mr. Dunn provided fresh cedars of Lebanon, but they declined to flourish. Undeterred by these failures on Nov. 2nd, 1902, Mr. Dunn came over from Milton, and in the presence of the Vicar and the schoolchildren, who were accompanied by their headmaster, the late Mr. H. Beaumont, he superintended the planning of fresh trees, and declared his intention to visit the village for seven years, if necessary, for the purpose of replanting, as he did not despair of getting trees that would grow. The following trees were then planted: Cedars of Lebanon at the Swan pond, and Cedrus Glauca in Market-street. Both the trees at the Swan pond died, and were replaced by Mr. Dunn in March, 1904, and in March, 1905, he replanted one of the Cedrus Glauca. All are now alive, and those at the Swan pond have become beautiful trees. It may be mentioned that the heavy iron fences surrounding the trees were also the gift of Mr. Dunn.

“NOT PRACTICABLE” 17th Oct. 1930

Swavesey Council and Ministry's Proposals

DRAINAGE SCHEME.

The Swavesey Rural District Council, who have had in view a scheme relating to drains in their area, have decided not to proceed with the proposals on a scale such as anticipated.

This has been the outcome since the Council applied to the Ministry for assistance. The Ministry, functioning as the Unemployment Grants Committee, are prepared to help if 75 per cent. of the labour employed in the scheme is composed of ex-Service men, varied, however, in certain circumstances.

The total number of men employed on the work must normally include not less than 50 per cent. of men drawn from areas selected by the Ministry of Labour, is what is stipulated. In special cases, however, the committee might consider schemes for grants on the “transfer” basis, notwithstanding that the proportion of labour proposed to be transferred does not reach 50s.

As will be seen from the report of the discussion which took place at the Council's monthly meeting at St. Ives yesterday, it was felt that the Ministry's proposals are not practicable.

“BURDEN ON FUTURE AUTHORITIES.”

The Clerk (Mr. G. D. Day) said that if the scheme was proceeded with and a grant was made by way of a loan, the amount of the total cost would be 75 per cent. of the interest and sinking fund charges on any loan raised to meet the approved expenditure for the first half up to 15 years, and 37½ per cent. in the same way for the remaining 15 years. That was to say, the money would be borrowed for the first half of the period from the Ministry, and the balances of 25 per cent. and 62½ per cent, respectively would have to be found by the district. The money would have to be borrowed on loan probably from the Public Works Loan Board.

He was unable to say what amount of money would be required for the purposed of the scheme. So far as the parishes of Fen Drayton and Conington were concerned the estimated cost was £440, but that sum did not include the 10s. per chain, the estimated expense at Over or at Swavesey. He supposed that the Council might take it that that amount would certainly be doubled by these two parishes, Over and Swavesey.

Mr. F. Kirby: More than doubled. Swavesey would take the full amount easily. Mr. Kirby thought that the drains at Swavesey would run somewhere into a distance of about five miles. Thinking it over in the first instance, the Council could get money on loan, but, unfortunately, the drains would require doing out before the period allowed expired, and would be a burden on authorities in the future. To get 75 per cent. ex-Service men would mean that the Council would have to go out of the district to obtain this amount of labour. That, however, would mean that they would be on the Council's hands, and he did not think the Council would be able to accommodate them.

Whilst anxious to get some assistance, he thought that the stipulations contained in the committee's proposals put up a barrier, and the Council knew that the imported labour would cost double that to be obtained locally. He thought that the Council would have to drop the scheme, and do the best they could with their own labour, which meant that men would have to be obtained from the farms.

MOTION NOT TO PROCEED.

Mr. Kirby moved that after due consideration of the question, and having received a communication from the Ministry the Council do not proceed with the scheme.

Mr. Mailer seconded the proposition, which was carried.

The Council decided to double the amount of labour required for attending to brooks during the next year, and the Surveyor (Mr. Hagger) was granted a sum of £500 to carry out the work.

The Council did not entertain the offer of the Workmen's Housing Association, Ltd., London, to build houses in the district, since there is no immediate need for dwellings.

He was curate of St. Peter, Croydon, from 1912, until 1927, when he went as a S.P.G. missionary to Nandgal, Madras Diocese, subsequently becoming Vice-Principal of the college there. DEATH OF MRS. GEORGE CLARKE. 24th Oct. 1930

Swavesey has lost another old inhabitant – the third within three weeks, all of whom were over 80 years of age – by the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Clarke, wife of Mr. George Clarke, who passed away, after a long and very painful illness, on Sunday evening. Born 84 years ago, the daughter of the late Mr. Thomas Smoothy, of Great Wratting, Suffolk, she had lived in Swavesey for 44 years, and during that time had been mainly responsible for the management of three public houses, "The Cricketers," "The Harry Smith," and "The Little Rose," of which her husband was licensee. All these houses have been closed. Since their retirement about seven years ago the old couple have been living in Middle Watch. In days gone by, as many of our readers in and around Swavesey will remember, Mrs. Clarke was noted for the admirable way in which she catered for cricket club luncheons and teas and other functions. In addition to her husband, with whom much sympathy is expressed, she leaves two sons and four daughters. The funeral took place at Swavesey parish church yesterday afternoon.

PARISH COUNCIL. 24th Oct. 1930

The quarterly meeting of the Parish Council was held at the Memorial Hall on Monday evening, when there were present: Mr. C. W. H. Cole (chairman), Messrs. W. Burton, F. Hepher, J. Linford, C. H. Parish and P. Parish, with the clerk, Mr. P. Godfrey. The committee appointed to inspect the fire engine house reported that the wall was in bad condition, and that they had instructed Mr. E. Mitham (Middle Watch) to shore it up with timber baulks. The clerk was instructed to write to the owner of the land adjoining the footpath leading to Fen Drayton, and request him to cut the side of the hedge as it was encroaching on the path. A deputation from the Over Parish Council, consisting of Mr. P. J. Watts (chairman), Mr. F. Kirby and Mr. Ingle Hemington, attended to discuss the question of the rental of the wayleave through Swavesey main for the supply of water for the parish of Over. The deputation stated that they would only offer £20 per annum plus 5 per cent. per annum on the money expended by the parish of Swavesey in extending the main from Swavesey station to Over bridge. After considerable discussion the deputation agreed to call a parish meeting of the parishioners of Over to discuss what amount of rental they would be willing to pay the parish of Swavesey for the use of the main, and to inform the Swavesey Council accordingly.

YOUNG LIFE WEEK. 24th Oct. 1930

In common with thousands of Baptist Churches, Young Life Week was observed at Bethel Baptist Church last week. On Monday, after a well-attended Band of Hope meeting, the Rev. O. C. On Tuesday evening Sister Sharp, of the Friends' Meeting House, addressed the Girls' Life Brigade on "False and true balances"; on Wednesday Mr. H. Rodwell, of Great Shelford, gave an earnest address upon "The call, fall and restoration of Peter." On Thursday, the crowning evening, when the chapel was nearly filled with an enthusiastic audience, the tri-jubilee of the founding of Sunday Schools was observed. The Pastor, Rev. T. B. Field, who presided, and Mr. T. Palmer (secretary of the Cambs. Sunday school Union) gave short addresses, Mr. J. Johnson, of Cambridge, followed with an interesting address on "Robert Raikes." Mr. B. Prior and Mr. J. Payne were presented with long service certificates awarded by the National Sunday School Union, the former having been a Sunday School worker for over 50 years and still continues, and the latter having served for 45 years. Recitations were given by K. and J. Jacklin, A. Northill, and D. Nicholls (Sunday School scholars), the Girls' Life Brigade gave an effective dialogue, and Sister Chipperfield sang a solo, and before the meeting concluded the teachers presented each scholar with a Robert Raikes medal. Berryman) presented his annual report, in course of which he stated that six new members had been enrolled, two members had left the district, and one (Mr. T. S. Johnson) had died. All present here rose and stood in silence for two minutes as a tribute to the memory of their deceased comrade. SWAVESEY PARISH CHURCH. 31st Oct. 1930

Dedication of the South Aisle Roof.

THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

There was a large congregation yesterday afternoon at Swavesey parish church when the new roof of the south aisle was dedicated by the Bishop of Ely.

Some 17 years ago the roof of this old church, one of the largest in the county, was found to be in a bad condition owing to the ravages of the death watch beetle. In 1914 a commencement was made with the south aisle, and that portion over the chantry at the eastern end had been completed under the superintendence of Mr. E. E. Bowden, of the Society for the Protection of Ancient Buildings, when the work had to be suspended on the outbreak of war in August of that year. Prior to this many repairs had been carried out on other portions of the fabric.

After the war the roof of the nave was taken in hand, also under the supervision of Mr. Bowden. Then came another period when nothing could be done in consequence of lack of funds.

The Rev. C. F. Stebbing, on his appointment to the living in 1922, continued the efforts of his predecessor, Rev. J. Selwyn Sharp, and early this year sufficient money had been raised to justify the south aisle roof being again taken in hand, and this time the work was entrusted to Messrs. John Thompson and Sons, Ltd., of Peterborough, the well-known firm of church builders, under the supervision of the diocesan architect. It was found that the roof was in a worse state than anticipated, that little of the old timber could be used, and that, therefore, the cost was greater than it was hoped it would be. The sum of £1,200 was in hand, but something like £400 more is needed. And the north aisle roof is in more or less urgent need of attention.

DEDICATION SERVICE.

The service on Sunday afternoon opened with the hymn "Angel voices, ever singing," sung in procession. Preceding the Bishop were the Rev. A. C. Vidler (Vicar of Swavesey, 1895-1912). Rev. C. G. Poynder (Rector of Boxworth), the Rural Dean (Rev. A. C. Hair, Rector of Willingham), and the Vicar (Rev. C. F. Stebbing).

The order of service included the Lesser Litany, the Lord's Prayer, Versicles and Responses, Psalm xlviii, and the Lesson (St. John ii, 13-22), read by the Rural Dean.

During the singing of the hymn "Praise my soul, the King of Heaven," the choir, clergy, and the Bishop proceeded to the west end of the south aisle, where the Bishop solemnly dedicated the new roof.

On returning to the chancel, the Bishop entered the pulpit and gave an address, after which a collection was made for the Church Repair Fund, the service concluding with the Blessing, pronounced by the Bishop, and the recessional hymn, "Glorious things of Thee are spoken."

THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

The Bishop preached from the text "Then the people rejoiced, for that they offered willingly because with perfect heart they offered willingly to the Lord, and David the King also rejoiced with great joy." (I. Chronicles xxix., 9).

That was a great day in the history of the Jewish people. David had completed the task of collecting the material necessary for the building of the first permanent temple. The people rejoiced, not only that this work was completed, but that they had offered willingly and with a perfect heart.

Responsibility had similarly been laid on the parish of Swavesey to undertake the work of restoration on a large scale, and that day they were dedicating the finished work, completed at a cost of £1,600.

The Bishop pointed out that the fabric of the church took them back some six or seven hundred years, and that this generation had the advantage of a church built by their forefathers. He could well believe that when it was first known in the parish that this restoration was necessary, some might have said it was hard that the work should be laid on the present generation after so many years of immunity. Now he was sure that there was no one in the church that afternoon who was not thankful that he or she had had the privilege of completing the work. They had made the church safe for generations to come, and it would be recorded for all time that the parishioners of 1930 had restored the south aisle roof. That was something to be thankful for, and he himself would like to thank them.

Continuing, the Bishop urged his hearers to make a definite act of self-dedication, and to pray that people would be gathered together in the church with a desire to worship and serve God.

Their thankfulness on that day was combined with a certain sadness. While they were thankful that their vicar had been able to see the work completed, they were sad to realise his ministry among them was nearly at an end. He asked them to pray for him in his future work and also for his successor. He (the Bishop) knew their new vicar, and was glad to say that he could regard the appointment with thankfulness and confidence. He begged them to be absolutely loyal to their new pastor; in that way they could best show their thankfulness to the vicar, who was leaving them.

AGRICULTURAL DISCUSSION SOCIETY. 7th Nov. 1930

The first meeting of the winter session of the Swavesey and District Agricultural Discussion Society was held in the School, Swavesey, on Friday, when Mr. J. A. McMillan (county agricultural organiser) gave a lecture on "The use of home-grown foodstuffs." He discussed the various ingredients of the common foodstuffs and their uses in the animal body, and proceeded to give illustrations of rations, using a proportion of home-grown cereals. There was an interesting discussion at the close of the lecture. Mr. R. Mailer, the chairman, intimated that at the next meeting, which would be held on Friday, November 14th, at 7 p.m. in Swavesey School, Mr. J. Mackintosh, of Reading University, would speak on "The feeding of dairy cows." He hoped that there would be a large attendance to welcome such an authority as Mr. Mackintosh. He further intimated that Mr. C. Wood, the secretary, would be glad to enrol new members of the society.

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY. 14th Nov. 1930

Ex-Service men, some 30 in number, assembled on the Recreation Ground at 2.45 p.m. on Sunday, under the command of Capt. R. Barwell, and headed by the standard of the Swavesey and District branch of the British Legion, borne by Mr. T. Savage, marched to the Memorial Hall, where a service was conducted by the Rev. T. B. Field, pastor of Bethel Baptist Church. During the service a portion of Scripture was read by Mr. C. Wood, and the Roll of the men who made the supreme sacrifice was recited by Mr. H. H. Berryman (secretary of the branch) after which the "Last Post" was sounded by Capt. Barwell. The Rev. T. B. Field gave an address, and the hymns "O God, our help in ages past," "O valiant hearts," "Eternal Father, strong to save," and "Stand up, stand up, for Jesus" were sung, the service concluding with the National Anthem. A collection for Earl Haig's Fund amounted to £2.

Before the memorial service at the parish church in the evening a half muffled peal was rung on the bells. An exceptionally large congregation attended, including about 40 ex-Service men, who paraded at the churchyard gates and, led by the standard bearer, marched into the church, where seats had been reserved for them. The hymn "O God, our help" was sung in procession, and after the singing of Arkwright's "O valiant hearts," the Vicar, who officiated, read the long Roll of the men of Swavesey who served in the war. In his sermon the Vicar made an urgent appeal for Lord Hague's Fund, to which the subsequent collection was devoted. After the Blessing the National Anthem was sung, and Capt. Barwell sounded the "Last Post," the service being brought to a close with "Onward, Christian soldiers," sung as a recessional. The collection amounted to £3 3s.

On Armistice Day (Tuesday) there was an early celebration of Holy Communion at the parish church, and immediately preceding the two minutes' silence the tenor bell was tolled 26 times, the number of Swavesey men who made the supreme sacrifice. A short service followed the silence. On and around the Memorial Cross in the churchyard were laid beautiful flowers, including a large wreath of laurel and poppies from the Swavesey members of the British Legion, and another of white chrysanthemums and red dahlias in memory of Joseph Barker Parish, who, desperately wounded a few days before, died on the 11th November, 1918.

REV. J. B. PAYNE. 14th Nov. 1930

Some of our readers will, no doubt, be interested to learn that an appreciative article on the career of the Rev. J. B. Payne appears in the November issue of "The Sword and the Trowel." Mr. Payne is a native of Swavesey, being a son of Mrs. Payne, of Boxworth End, and the late Mr. James Payne. When 17 years of age he left the village for Cambridge, and in 1903 entered Spurgeon's College, where he remained until 1908. He subsequently had charge of churches at Norwich, Leighton Buzzard, and Tunbridge Wells. Last year he received a call to Bexhill-on-Sea, and during his ministry there the congregations have much increased, a new organ has been installed and paid for, and other improvements are being carried out, amongst them a new baptistery.

WASTED WATER? 14th Nov. 1930

Great Increase in Consumption at Swavesey.

MILK REFRIGERATORS BLAMED.

An alarming increase in the water consumption in the parish of Swavesey has caused inquiries to be instigated by the East Hunts. Supply Company, and the matter has been taken up by the Swavesey Rural District Council.

In a letter to the Rural District Council, read at the meeting at St. Ives Workhouse on Friday, the company's secretary stated that during the last month the quantity of water taken had been more than double the previous average. This, he said, pointed to a serious waste or misuse, and he asked the Council to see that it received the attention it required.

INCREASE DURING SEPTEMBER QUARTER.

The reply of the Rating and Valuation Officer to the Company's letter was to quote the Company's account for the quarter ended Sept. 30th last, which was the highest for any period over seven years. The charges for the March, June and December quarters appeared to be fairly consistent. There was, however, a very large increase in the September quarter, 1927, and in the same quarter of the years following. As the increase in this particular quarter had been maintained for a period of four years, it appeared likely to be due to a leakage or waste. The only suggestion that he (the Valuation Officer) could offer was that it might perhaps be due to the installation of milk refrigerators.

The following chart of the volume of water taken in the September quarter clearly shows the increase: 1926, 904,000 gallons; 1927, 918,000; 1928, 1,235,000; 1929, 1,262,000; 1930, 1,354,000.

Thus the increase of the September quarter, 1930, over the September quarter, 1926, was 436,000 gallons.

MILK REFRIGERATORS.

The Clerk (Mr. G. D. Day) thought it was clear that the milk refrigerators were using a large quantity of water, for which they did not pay an adequate amount. It was for Swavesey to say whether they preferred to pay other people's rates or not.

Mr. A. Day, one of the Swavesey representatives, said they now had double the number of people taking the water. There were a number of people who had cars who were not willing to pay for the extra water.

The Clerk remarked that 1,354,000 gallons seemed an enormous consumption. It was decided to leave the matter in the hands of the Swavesey representatives to watch the consumption, etc., and report to the Council if necessary.

The analyst's report as to the conditions of the well on the premises of Mr. W. D. Isgrove, a baker, of Swavesey, showed that the water was temporarily safe for drinking purposes. The Council, however, thought that Mr. Isgrove should lay on a supply from the public mains.

REV. C. F. STEBBING'S FAREWELL. 21st Nov. 1930

The Rev. C. F. Stebbing, who has been appointed rector of Tewin, Herts., preached his farewell sermon at Swavesey parish church on Sunday evening. After the service the large congregation assembled at the western end of the church, where Mr. R. Barwell, representing the Parochial Church Council, presented Mr. Stebbing with a cheque for £14 11s. 9d., with which to purchase a memento from the parishioners of Swavesey. In course of a short speech, Mr. Barwell expressed the regret of the parishioners that Mr. and Mrs. Stebbing were leaving, as during the eight years they had been in Swavesey they had endeared themselves to all with whom they had come in contact. Mr. Stebbing's "untiring efforts to raise funds for church repair and for church heating," Mr. Barwell emphasised, "had been crowned with success, and the work had been done, and instead of being short of money to pay for the work, there was actually a sum of over £22 still in hand, which would be available to form the nucleus for a fund for other work that might be necessary." After the churchwardens, Messrs. C. F. Banks and H. Wells had spoken, Mr. Stebbing feelingly replied. The cheque was accompanied by a book containing the names of the 239 subscribers. – At the time the new roof of the south aisle was dedicated by the Bishop of Ely on October 26th, it was stated that although £1,200 had been raised, something like £400 more was needed to pay for the work. Since then Messrs. John Thompson and Sons, Ltd., of Peterborough, the contractors, have made a substantial allowance for old timber – hence the balance in hand of £22.

MYSTERIOUS FIRE OUTBREAKS. 28th Nov. 1930

Two Within Less Than a Mile.

ANXIETY AT FEN DRAYTON.

Mystery attaches to two outbreaks of fire which occurred shortly after midnight on Monday within three-quarters of a mile of one another.

The first was about 12.30 a.m. at Mr. Scambler's farm, Fen Drayton, and considerable damage was done to his property.

The premises involved consisted of several wheat, pea and oat stacks, barns and outhouses, but fortunately at the time of the outbreak all the animals were in the fields.

Not ten yards away from the outbuildings are three cottages and at one time, when the wind was carrying sparks all over the village, anxiety was felt for the safety of these. Indeed, the cottages were cleared at one time as a precaution.

The fire brigade were called out, under Sergt. Clague, and after several hours' work the fire was extinguished.

There is no doubt that but for the fact that everywhere was soaking as a result of the continual rain, other parts of the village might have been set alight by the falling sparks.

SECOND OUTBREAK.

While the brigade were still working on this fire, another outbreak was noticed about three-quarters of a mile away on the Swavesey-Fen Drayton road.

In this case four haystacks, belonging to Mr. William Daisley, Boxworth-end, Swavesey, were involved, but as they were well alight before the outbreak was noticed, and there were no buildings in the immediate vicinity, the brigade kept their efforts concentrated on the fire at Mr. Scambler's place.

We understand that the stacks were all insured.

PREVIOUS MYSTERY FIRES.

Mysterious stack fires have occurred at Swavesey and Fen Drayton on three previous occasions within the past 14 months. Five stacks belonging to Mr. Frederick Johnson at Fen Drayton were destroyed on 23rd September, 1929; four stacks, the property of Mr. C. W. H. Cole, at Swavesey, on 3rd February last, and two stacks at Messrs. R. Mitham and Sons' Friesland Farm, between Swavesey and Fen Drayton, on 10th March. All of these fires happened on a Monday night and in wet weather.

ADVENTURES OF A HOCKEY TEAM. 26th Dec. 1930

The Swavesey Ladies' Hockey team, who went to Great Staughton on Thursday in last week, after defeating the home club by three goals to one, had quite an exciting time on their return journey. One of the cars in which they were travelling broke down, whereupon the occupants pushed it up Hinchbrook Hill. At the top the engine appeared to be working properly, but when the ladies resumed their seats it again refused to go. Determined not to be beaten the ladies continued their journey pushing the car up the hills and one the level, and riding down hill, being assisted for part of the way by members of a football team. At the turning to Hemingford Grey a halt was called, and a telephone message was sent to Mr. Ben Thorp at Swavesey asking him to come to the rescue. He appeared in due course, and eventually home was reached. During the pushing operations one young lady discovered that she had lost her money, but after a prolonged search and a considerable expenditure of matches all the coins were found in the grass on the roadside.

THE NATIONAL SCHOOL. 26th Dec. 1930

The children attending the National School had a very happy time on Friday when they broke up for the Christmas holiday. The proceedings commenced at 3.30 p.m. with a sumptuous tea, the infants and Standard I being entertained by Miss Scott and Miss Branson in the infants' department, and the older children by Mr. C. Wood (headmaster), Mrs. Wood and Miss G. Thoday in the big room. In all about 140 youngsters were present with Dr. J. W. Ellis (a manager) and Miss Ellis. Mr. and Mrs. Bignell and Master Robert Bignell, who brought over a large and very welcome contribution of oranges, were also there, but had to leave early owing to the fog. After tea the little ones had a really good time in the infants' school. They sang, played games, sweets, oranges, etc., were distributed, and all were sorry when 6 p.m. arrived, and they gave lusty cheers for Miss Scott, Miss Branson and the other providers of the treat. In the big room the older children sang songs, and a performance was given of a little play entitled "The Uninvited Guest," written and produced by Jean Wood, the nine-years-old daughter of the headmaster, the principal parts being taken by Lily Hephher, Hilda Walker, Nora Peppercorn, Lucy Mitham and Elsie Dodson. The play, a very commendable effort for so young a child, was loudly applauded. Father Christmas (Aircraftsman Apprentice L. Wood), who had been visiting the Infants' School, then appeared, and after a walk round the room he proceeded to hand a gift to every child. Oranges, sweets, etc., having been distributed, hearty cheers, on the call of Dr. Ellis, were given for Mr. and Mrs. Wood and other teachers.

BETHEL Y.P.F. 2nd Jan. 1931

There was a large attendance on Monday evening at the annual social of the Young People's Fellowship connected with Bethel Baptist Church. The President occupied the chair, and Mrs. G. E. Canham was an ideal M.C. The musical programme included a pianoforte solo by Miss J. Williams, vocal solos by Miss Godfrey and Miss Coulson, recitations by Mrs. A. Prior and Miss G. Dodson, duet by Mrs. Canham and Miss Godfrey, and community singing. Excellent refreshments, interesting games, competitions, etc., all contributed to a most enjoyable evening.

CAROLS FOR ADDENBROOKE'S. 2nd Jan. 1931

A party of Swavesey and Fen Drayton carol singers toured Swavesey last week, half of the village being visited on Tuesday evening and the remainder on Christmas Eve. A collection in aid of Addenbrooke's Hospital, made at the time by Messrs. A. Hawkes and A. C. Hepher, resulted in £6 10s. being raised, and this sum, added to the amount collected by the party when Fen Drayton was visited on the previous Saturday (£2 6s.) made a total contribution to the Hospital Maintenance Fund of £8 16s., against £11 1s. collected by the party at Christmas, 1929. This drop in the contributions is no doubt due to the efforts that have been, and are still being, made in both villages on behalf of the Hospital Building Fund.

CHRISTMAS AT CHURCH. 2nd Jan. 1931

The services at the parish church on Christmas Day, all of which were conducted by the Rev. J. F. Cooksey, were as follows: Holy Communion 6.30 a.m., 7.30 a.m. and mid-day (choral), matins 10.30 a.m., and evensong 3 p.m., when the music included: Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis (Bunnett), the anthem, "The Prince of Peace" (Edwyn A. Clare) and carols. The collections throughout the day were devoted as usual at the Waifs' and Strays' Society. At Mattins a letter was read from the Rev. Finch, the newly appointed vicar, who has recently undergone an operation and is still in hospital, wishing all parishioners a happy and a holy Christmas. In pulling up the bells for the usual Christmas morning peal before the first celebration, the bolt of the second bell flew out, and consequently only five bells could be used. This mishap explains why no peal was rung later in the day.

WEDDING. 2nd Jan. 1931

The marriage of Miss Alice Ada Heasman, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Heasman, of the Rising Sun Inn, and Mr. Alfred James Culpin, second son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Culpin, of Swavesey, took place at the parish church on the afternoon of Boxing Day. The Rev. J. F. Cooksey officiated. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a charming gown of Venetian blue, trimmed with beige silk, and a hat to match, and she carried a bouquet of bronze and white chrysanthemums. Her bridesmaids, Miss Ethel Heasman (sister of the bride) and Miss Hilda Culpin (sister of the bridegroom), were attired in rose beige silk, with hats to correspond. Their bouquets were also of bronze and white chrysanthemums. Mr. Arthur Culpin (brother of the bridegroom) was best man. After the ceremony a reception was held at the Memorial Hall, where over forty guests were entertained. The presents were numerous and useful, and included a cheque from Mr. and Mrs. Dykes, the bride's late master and mistress, and a case of cutlery from Messrs. C.B. Warrington and Sons, Cambridge, and the bridegroom's fellow-employees.

A very successful social was held on January 1st, when 65 members of the Bethel Band of Hope and a number of their parents were entertained. Every child present received a gift at the hands of a mysterious Father Christmas, and refreshments and oranges were provided. The arrangements were admirably carried out by Mrs. A. J. Norman, Mrs. Ivatt, Miss Spearman, and Mr. Pontefract. Hearty thanks were accorded to all in the village who encouraged the songsters, whose efforts made the feast possible. On Monday evening, when the second half of the winter session commenced, Mr. G. E. Canham gave an interesting address. The Rev. T. B. Field presided, and among others who took part were E. and P. Smart and D. Ivatt.

SWAVESEY BY-WAYS. 9th Jan. 1931

Report on Ministry's Rating Award.

An important statement concerning the proposed rating of the Swavesey by-ways was made at the meeting of the Swavesey Rural District Council on Friday, and a small committee was appointed to consider the terms of the award.

Mr. J. Frohock presided, and there were also present: Messrs. F. Kirby (vice-chairman), W. I. Hemington, R. Norman and F. Johnson.

“OF EXTREME DIFFICULTY.”

The Clerk (Mr. G. D. Day) said he had been in communication with the Ministry with regard to the difficulties arising out of the report on the Swavesey by-ways, and he pointed out to them that the matter was one of extreme difficulty, and that repairs to bridges over these by-ways might become necessary at any time, and expense might be incurred. Until the work was done, the land would be cut off from communication altogether, and that would be a serious matter.

It would be seen under the terms of the award that the Council would not, if they decided to go on with the work, be able to recover from the owners and occupiers the cost of the work, owing to the peculiar terms of the award. Apparently, the only body upon whom the by-way rates could be levied would be the railway company, and that would obviously be unfair, and the Company would not stand that as they got no return.

The Ministry thought it quite likely there would be other cases that would come up, but this was the first they had had, and they would consider it. Whatever was done the Ministry would like to feel that this case would probably have to be a precedent. The only thing he could suggest was that the Ministry should make an order under one of the sections of the Local Government Act to say that where previously the award arranged for the expense to be recovered from particular persons, they should by the award give some alternative by which they were empowered to provide that the by-way rates should be made on the basis of some other valuation. He pointed out that apportionments would be necessary.

The Ministry's suggestion was that whereas the award made the valuations list for highway purposes, the list upon which the rate should be based, since that had gone and had been set aside, and on which rates were no longer paid, there should be substituted for that the Income Tax Assessment under Schedule A, where an apportionment was necessary.

The Clerk suggested that a committee should be formed, consisting of the Swavesey representatives on the Council, the Chairman of the Swavesey Parish Council, and Mr. Williams, to go through the award. Secondly, he proposed to write to the Ministry to say that a committee had been appointed, and asking their approval to a copy being sent to the Railway Company.

Mr. Kirby remarked that the matter was entirely one concerning Swavesey, and it was only for the Council to carry it into effect.

The proposals of the Clerk were adopted.

A roll-call of “Things I remember that are not seen now” brought some very witty replies. A practice of community singing for the competition was conducted by Mr. F. Aldred, and accompanied by Miss Queenie Spolton. The quarterly stall did a fair amount of business. The new tea committee performed their duties well. Several new members were welcomed, and there was a good attendance.

THE LATE MR. GEORGE CLARKE. 23rd Jan. 1931

The son of the late Mr. Joseph Clarke, he was born 77 years ago at Hilton, Hunts. He went to Swavesey about 45 years ago from Carlton, where he and his wife had been in the service of Mr. Lawsell Long. Until quite recent years he was an active worker for the Liberal Party, and in Swavesey took a keen interest in parochial affairs. He was the first clerk (unpaid) of the Parish Council, and for a considerable time a member, and for a short period was the Council's representative on Galon's Charity. He held various other public offices, and until his health failed was always ready and willing to render any service for the good of the community. Many of our local readers will remember the interest he took in the Cricket Club. He leaves two sons and four daughters. His wife died on October 19th last. The funeral will take place at Swavesey Parish Church on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

ADDENBROOKE'S BUILDING FUND. 23rd Jan. 1931

Swavesey has reached its target of £200 for Addenbrooke's Building Fund in less than 12 months. It was on February 5th last year that Major Wallington, organising secretary to the Building Fund, at a public meeting in the Memorial Hall stated that the sum required of Swavesey was £170, but the meeting unanimously agreed to increase the amount to £200. The arrangements were left in the hands of the Swavesey Feast Sunday Hospital Parade Committee, who decided to make weekly collections throughout the village, and with the exception of small amounts collected at the public meeting and at the Good Friday football match, the target has been attained in this way. The following ladies undertook the duty of collecting: Mrs. Banks, Miss Banks, Mrs. Canham, Miss Crouch, Miss G. Dodson, Mrs. Field, Mrs. Fraser, Mrs. C. S. Hephher, Mrs. E. J. Mitham, Miss Parsons, Mrs. Thixton, Mrs. Whitehead, and Miss Willson. The ready response, however, made their task an easy one, and great credit is due to one and all who combined to make the effort so successful in such a short time. The fund remains open for the present to enable further contributions to be made as desired. The duties of treasurer have been ably carried out by Miss Dodson, Mr. H. W. Whitehead being the organising secretary.

Between these items Miss Naylor sang a song and an amusing monologue was given by young Leonard Webster. At the close Mr. U. Thixton, in the absence of Dr. Fraser, who was unable to be present, proposed a vote of thanks to the entertainers, whose efforts had been greatly appreciated. The whole of the takings, amounting to £7 15s. 3d., have been devoted to the Nursing Association, as Mrs. Cooksey has very generously made herself responsible for all expenses.

Before the meeting closed, the Clerk announced that he had received a cheque for £32 14s. 6d. from the Memorial Hall Management Committee, being half year's instalment in repayment of the loan on the Hall and interest, and that he had remitted this sum to the Public Works Loan Board. The amount still owing, he added, was £192 18s.

DEATH OF CANON CYRIL HEPHER. 30th Jan. 1931

Some of our older readers in and around Swavesey will regret to learn that the Rev. Canon Cyril Hepher, of Winchester, died suddenly during the evening of Sunday, 18th inst. He had been in failing health for about 12 months, but was able to keep about, although he could not undertake any outside engagements, and as recently as St. Stephen's Day he was celebrant at the sung Eucharist in the Cathedral. He was a member of an old Swavesey family, and was the only son of the late Rev. John Hepher, and grandson of the late Mr. William Hepher. He was born 58 years ago in his father's vicarage, at St. John the Baptist, New Town, Leeds. Graduating from New College, Oxford, he was ordained in 1895 in the diocese of Southwell. In 1903 he was appointed Succentor of Newcastle Cathedral, being preferred three years later to the Vicarage of St. John the Baptist in that city. After going on a Mission of Help to New Zealand in 1910, and on a similar mission to Western Canada two years later, he was called in 1913 by Bishop Talbot to Winchester as Diocesan Missioner, and in 1916 was appointed a Canon Residentiary of Winchester Cathedral. As a mission preacher in all parts of the country he was a great force, and not only by his sermons, but by his writings, some of which have become standard works of reference for missionaries and teachers, he rendered great service to the Church. In addition to his widow, Canon Hepher has left four sons and three daughters. His body was laid to rest on Thursday week in the eastern garth of Winchester Cathedral.

Favourable reports were given from the Church Sunday School, Band of Hope, Young People’s Fellowship, and Girls’ Life Brigade, and financially the year had been a good one. Byeways and Water Consumption.

At the monthly meeting of the Swavesey Rural District Council on Friday, the Clerk (Mr. G. D. Day) reported with regard to the Swavesey by-ways that the Committee had met to consider the draft order from the Ministry, but no decision had been arrived at.

The order was taken away by Mr. C. H. Parish, the Clerk added, so that it could be considered by the Committee appointed by the owners and occupiers, but the Council had received no reply at present, neither had a reply been received from the Railway Company.

Mr. Alfred Day, sen., who was appointed the Council's representative on the Cambs. Guardians Committee for the ensuing year, stated that a meeting of the allottees in connection with the Swavesey bye-ways had not yet been held, but as soon as that had been done he understood that the Council would be communicated with.

INCREASED WATER CONSUMPTION.

The Clerk read a letter from the Accounting Officer with regard to the Swavesey water supply. The East Hunts. Water Co.'s account for water supplied during the quarter ended December 31st last, it was pointed out, amounted to £56 16s. This was £15 17s. above the amount for the corresponding quarter of 1929. The additional consumption was 307,000 gallons.

The Clerk remarked that 307,000 gallons of water seemed to be vastly excessive.

The Council took no action in the matter.

A letter was also received from Dr. Fraser, of Swavesey, stating that he was having the drain running beside his property cleaned out.

This was a matter in connection with a discussion at the previous meeting.

ALLEGED ARSON AT OVER. 20th Feb. 1931

Youth Committed for Trial.

BURSTS INTO TEARS.

Asked if he had anything to say before being committed for trial for setting fire to a stack of beans at Over, a 17-year-old youth at the Cambs. Divisional Court on Saturday burst into tears, and said, "I am guilty."

Defendant was S. W., 22, Askew-row, Swavesey.

The Chairman of the Bench was His Honour Judge Farrant. Supt. Allen prosecuted.

The owner of the stack, James Thoday, Field House, Over, a farmer, said he farmed land in Long Holme Drove, Over, and in one of his fields there he had a pea and bean stack, the produce of 5½ acres. He valued it at £20, and it was not insured.

“NOTHING LEFT BUT ASHES.”

He last saw the stack all right on the 26th January. On the 31st January, at five o’clock, he received certain information, and on the following morning he went there with P.C. Badcock. There was nothing left of the stack but ashes. He did not go down the previous day because he was told it was burnt out then.

He knew defendant. He had never worked for witness, and had no right in the field.

Walter Hemmington, Fen End, Over, a farmer, said he went down the Long Holme Drove on the 31st January. When he went down at 7.30 in the morning the stack was perfectly all right. He passed the stack again about 2 p.m.

Supt. Allen: How was it then? – There wasn’t any.

What had happened to it? – It was burnt down.

He did not see the defendant that day.

Sergt. Keep, Longstanton, said that on the 5th February, in company with P.C. Badcock, he interviewed defendant at Over. He made a statement which he afterwards signed: - “On Saturday, 31st January, I left the Potash Farm, Over Fen, at 12.45 p.m.

“I came home with William Whybrow and Arthur Palmer. Arthur Palmer was smoking. William Whybrow asked me if I dare set fire to Mr. Thoday’s stack. I said, ‘No.’ We came walking away home. I went to the stack and lit it when I got up to it. I only had one match. I lit it on the box, and then caught Whybrow and Palmer up again.

“William Whybrow asked me if I had lit it. I said, ‘Yes.’ Whybrow asked me if it was alight. I said, ‘Yes, it is going.’ He said, ‘You will get in trouble now,’ and I was afraid to tell anyone what happened.”

DEFENDANT’S MATCHES.

John William Wilson, Potash Farm, Over, a horsekeeper for Mr. Ingle Hemmington, said that defendant was a labourer employed on the same farm. He was working with witness on the morning of 31st January. He left the farm about a quarter past one.

Supt. Allen: Was he alone or with any other person? – Alone.

What time did Whybrow and Palmer leave? – Some time before. About a quarter to half-past 12, I should think.

Defendant was not smoking when he left the farm. He told witness he had four matches some time before that. He lit a cigarette some time during his work. He could not say whether defendant had any matches when he left the farm. He told witness he had one left in the morning.

The next witness to be called was Arthur Charles Palmer, the Admiral Vernon, High-street, Over, a farm labourer employed by Mr Ingle Hemmington, who said he left to go home about a quarter past 12 with Whybrow. Defendant was not with them. The stack was all right when they came past. He did not see defendant any more that day.

Supt. Allen: Have you ever dared him to set fire to that stack? – No, sir.

The Chairman: Have you at any time said to defendant, “Dare you set fire to that stack?” – No sir.

“NEVER SAID ANYTHING LIKE IT.”

William Whybrow, Fen End, Over, said he left off work between a quarter and half-past 12 with Arthur Palmer. The defendant was not with them. The stack was all right when they passed, and neither of them went into the field. He saw defendant at work in the morning and not since.

Supt. Allen: Have you ever asked defendant if he dare set fire to Mr. Thoday’s stack? – No sir.

Have you ever asked him if he lit it? – No, sir. I haven’t seen him only once since.

Defendant said Whybrow told him to set it on fire one day during the week.

Witness: I never said anything like that to the boy.

This concluded the case for the prosecution.

Defendant, asked if he had anything to say, burst into tears, and said, “I am guilty.”

Field, who presided, reported that there were 62 members enrolled, and that they had enjoyed a good season, which was largely due to Mrs. A. J. Norman, Mrs. Ivatt, Miss Joan Williams, and Mr. Pontefract, who had thrown themselves with great heartiness into the work. Mrs. Field (vice-president) distributed eleven prizes to those who stood highest as to parts taken in the programme, and Mr. and Mrs. D. AGRICULTURAL DISCUSSION SOCIETY. 6th March 1931

The final meeting of the Swavesey and District Agricultural Discussion Society on Friday took the form of a debate on Protection versus Free Trade in Agriculture. Dr. S. J. Fraser, who opened the discussion, spoke in favour of Protection. He pointed out England's prosperity of years ago, compared with the parlous condition of many industries to-day, especially agriculture. He dealt with the ideas of Cobden, which, he suggested, had never been carried out as Cobden intended, and had resulted in free imports, not Free Trade. From facts and figures Dr. Fraser pointed out Free Trade fallacies, and maintained that everyone must be convinced that Protection provides the only policy likely to reduce unemployment and make the country prosperous. Mr. Gray (Alconbury) replied for Free Trade. He reminded the audience of the prosperity we had achieved under Free Trade. The only protected portion of the community was Labour, which was protected by Government. This, he said, was the cause of unemployment, and until wages came down and trade unions were no longer dictators, the country would not be prosperous again. He gave many figures in support of his argument, adding that tariffs bred Socialism and instancing Canada and Australia as high tariff countries which were not prosperous. Mr. G. Wayman (Over) supported the Protectionist cause, and spoke about dumping. Mr. C. G. Tebbutt (Bluntisham) supported Free Trade, being in favour of individual effort and no Government interference. Others who took part in the debate were Messrs. Hounsell, Few, S. F. Mitham, C. W. H. Cole, Aubrey, Beck and Stanton. Mr. Gray summed up for Free Trade, and Dr. Fraser in favour of Protection. The resolution: "That this meeting of the Swavesey and District Agricultural Discussion Society is in favour of Protection in Agriculture," was then put by the Chairman (Mr. R. Mailer), and was carried by 28 votes for, to 5 against. Mr. McMillan (County Agricultural Organiser) moved a hearty vote of thanks to Dr. Fraser, Mr. Gray, and the other gentlemen who had attended, which was carried unanimously. Dr. Fraser and Mr. Gray suitably responded.

SWAVESEY RURAL DISTRICT COUNCIL. 6th March 1931

The monthly meeting of the Swavesey Rural District Council was held at the St. Ives Poor Law Institution on Friday morning, when there were present: Mr. J. Frohock (chairman), Messrs. F. Kirby (vice-chairman), F. Stanton, J. Scambler, R. Norman and W. I. Hemington, with the Clerk (Mr. G. D. Day).

A SWAVESEY COMPLAINT.

The Clerk read a letter from Mr. R. Williamson, of Swavesey, with respect to a demand he (Mr. Williamson) had received for water rate amounting to £1 17s. 6d. Mr. Williamson pointed out that when the water was laid on he gave notice that it was required for a period of only six months each year. The water was turned off from the main for six months of every year. He desired that the matter be taken up with the authorities.

The Clerk said it looked on the face of it that it was a reasonable position, consistent with the agreement at the time the water was laid on.

“There was nothing to prevent people being exempt from payment for a certain period if the water was cut off” the clerk informed Mr. Kirby. Mr. Williamson was paying on an assessment.

The Council decided to remit the sum of £1 17s. 6d. against the payment of which Mr. Williamson protested.

NEW VICAR OF SWAVESEY. 6th March 1931

The Rev. Charles Edward Oscar Finch, M.A., who was appointed vicar of Swavesey by the Master and Fellow of Jesus College, Cambridge, last October, but who has since had to undergo a serious operation, arrived in Swavesey on Monday evening, and on Tuesday was instituted by the Bishop of the Diocese in the chapel of the Palace at Ely.

His induction will take place at Swavesey Parish Church next Thursday at 3.30 p.m., the Rural Dean, Rev. A. Campbell Hair, acting for the Archdeacon of Ely (Bishop Price), who is ill.

Since the late Vicar, Rev. C. F. Stebbing, left Swavesey on being appointed rector of Tewin, near Welwyn, the services have been conducted by the Rev. J. F. Cooksey, whose ministry has been greatly appreciated.

Mr. Finch, who was a scholar of Jesus College, took his B.A. degree in 1911, and, after a period at Westcott House, was ordained deacon in 1912 and priest the following year. He was curate of St. Peter, Croydon, from 1912 until 1917, when he went as a S.P.G. missionary to Nandyal, Madras Diocese, subsequently becoming Vice-Principal of the college there. Bath, C. Anderson and W. Hannaford, and Miss J. Williams. At the annual business council which followed the meeting, the accounts showed a good balance in hand, and the report stated that a very good season had been experienced. Officers and committee for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Rev. T. B. Field; vice-president, Mrs. Field; treasurer, Mr. Pontefract; secretaries, Mrs. A. Norman and Ivatt; pianist, Miss J. Williams; who, with the following from the committee: Mrs. Godfrey, sen., Miss Savage, Mr. W. Chapman and Miss G. Payne. The officers, and especially the secretaries, were heartily thanked for their services.

DEATH OF MR. EZRA WILLIAMS. 13th March 1931

News reached Swavesey by cable on Monday of the death of Mr. Ezra John Williams, which occurred about midday on Sunday at his home in Glen Aplin, Queensland, after a long illness. Born 48 years ago, he was the eldest son of the late Mr. John Williams, coal merchant, who for 27 years was parish clerk of Swavesey, an office that has been held by members of the family for at least a century. Twenty-five years ago deceased went to Australia, and joined his brother-in-law in business in Sydney as marine store dealers, motor engineers etc. When his health began to fail he relinquished his business in Sydney and became proprietor of the hotel at Glen Aplin. Two of his brothers are in Australia, one of whom has been there for a long time. He leaves a widow and one son. The funeral, it is understood, took place on Wednesday. It may be of interest to mention that ever since Mr. Williams left England the "Press and News" has been sent to him every week, and more than one letter of appreciation has been received from him.

MEMBERS' NIGHT. 13th March 1931

There was a good attendance on Monday at members' night at the Women's Institute. Nurse Cottrell was in the chair, and Miss Freestone carried out the duties of secretary. During the business part of the proceedings the Girton W.I. resolution concerning the purchase of only humanely farmed furs was put to the meeting and carried by a large majority. A demonstration on fomentations and a talk on ointments, liniments, and simple first-aid remedies was given by Nurse Cottrell, after which a sketch entitled "Aunt Matilda's Collar," was well acted by Mesdames Marriott, Laverack, A. Whybrow, Ellwood, G. Froment and Melbourne, and Mrs. Budge, in wedding attire, sang a comic song, "There was I waiting at the church." Twenty members entered for the skipping competition, which was won by Mrs. F. Martin, who outskipped every other member by over 100 turns. After refreshments had been served, Miss Mitchell judged the community singing and gave many useful hints. Mesdames J. Coulson, Melbourne, G. Froment, W. Thorp, A. Whybrow, Misses Carrier and Freestone were the hostesses for the evening.

PARISH MEETING. 13th March 1931

About 30 parochial electors were present at the parish meeting, which was held at the Memorial Hall on Monday evening for the election of parish councillors for the ensuing three years. Mr. H. W. Whitehead was voted to the chair. As there were only nine nominations for the nine seats on the Council no voting was necessary, and the Chairman declared the following duly elected: Messrs. W. Burton, C. W. H. Cole, C. Dean, F. Hepher, C. H. Parish, P. Parish, J. Linford, C. Savage and A. P. Payne. At the annual assembly of the parish meeting which followed, the audited account of the Parish Council and also the accounts of Galon's Charity were read by the Clerk (Mr. P. Godfrey). Mr. A. P. Payne called attention to the wastage of water from the public water supply pipes, especially that caused by a serious burst which occurred about midday on Friday outside Dr. Fraser's gateway. Notice, he said, had been given to the engineer by 6 o'clock the same evening, but the engineer had informed the messenger that as Saturday was a short day he could not attend to the matter until Monday. In the meantime thousands of gallons of water, for which the overburdened ratepayers of Swavesey have to pay, had run to waste. Mr. Payne moved that the Clerk should call the attention of the District Council to the delay in attending to the burst and should state that the meeting strongly protested against the water supply being cut off from the village without previous notice. Mr. Linford, in seconding the motion, spoke of the frequent bursts in the supply pipes, and of the delay in having the repairs carried out. Mr. Wood: You have your remedy at the next District Council meeting. Mr. C. H. Parish stated that the engineer had been warned some time ago to be more prompt when called upon to attend to bursts. Another ratepayer was anxious to know whether the engineer's was a life job. The resolution was carried unanimously. Mr. B. Walker asked if some better arrangement could be devised for disposing of the sludge from the drain near Turn Bridge than throwing it on the path in front of the cottages. Mr. Wood said that when he was a member of the R.D.C. he had called attention to the unsatisfactory practice, and he added that it had been agreed that the drain should be concreted as far as Market-street. This, however, had not been done. On the motion of Mr. Savage, seconded by Mr. Walker, it was decided that a representation should be made to the District Council on the subject. A vote of thanks to Mr. Whitehead for presiding concluded the meeting.

SWAVESEY RURAL DISTRICT COUNCIL. 20th March 1931
INCLOSURE AWARD UNDER I. VIC., CAP. 6.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on the application of the Swavesey Rural District Council, the Minister of Health proposes to make an ORDER under Sub-section (2) of Section 83 of the Local Government Act, 1929, directing that the amount of any contributions levied by the Rural District Council in respect of the maintenance and repair of the ways, paths and roads referred to in the Inclosure Award made under the local Act, I. Vic., cap 6 (the Swavesey Inclosure Act of 1838), shall, as from the first day of October, 1929, instead of being proportionate to contributions to the repair of public roads, be proportionate to the amounts which the owners, tenants and occupiers of the lands in respect of which such contributions are payable would contribute to the general rate if sub-section (1) of section 67 of the Local Government Act, 1929, had not been passed, and the general rate were levied on the gross annual value for income tax purposes of such lands; provided that any apportionment of such value shall be made, and in any case where there is no such value the value shall be determined by the Rural District Council, or, in case of dispute, by arbitration. The order will have the effect (inter alia) of continuing the liability of occupiers of agricultural land and buildings to make contributions.

A draft of the proposed Order may be obtained at the Offices of the Clerk to the Swavesey Rural District Council, St. Ives, Hunts., on any week day prior to THURSDAY, the 16th proximo, during ordinary office hours.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that, in accordance with the requirements of sub-section (3) of section 83 of the Local Government Act, 1929, the Minister of Health will consider any objections or representations sent to him in writing before FRIDAY, the 17th proximo, by any person or body who will be affected by the Order. Any such objection or representation should be addressed to the SECRETARY, Ministry of Health, Whitehall, London, S.W.1, and a copy should be sent at the same time to the Clerk to the Swavesey Rural District Council, St. Ives, Hunts.

In the event of any objection being made and not withdrawn, an Order under the section cannot take effect unless it is confirmed by Act of Parliament.

The public meeting which is to be held at the Memorial Hall next Tuesday to decide whether there shall be a Hospital Parade on Feast Sunday this year, will commence at 8.30 p.m. instead of 8 p.m. as previously announced. “MOTHER’S BIRTHDAY.” 20th March 1931

An admirable rendering of the cantata “Mother’s Birthday” was given by the choir at Bethel Baptist Church on Sunday afternoon. The Rev. T. B. Field presided, Mr. J. W. Williams was the organist, and Mr. G. E. Canham gave the connective readings. The following were the soloists: Mrs. Canham, Miss D. Godfrey, Miss M. Parish, Mrs. Ivatt, and Mr. S. Godfrey. A collection for the Sustentation Fund realised £1 8s. 9d.

MOTHERING SUNDAY. 20th March 1931

The new Vicar introduced on Sunday in Swavesey the old custom of Mothering Sunday, and must have been gratified by the congregation which gathered in the afternoon, consisting of many families, father, mother and children. The service was bright and appropriate to the day. Three well-known hymns were sung, and also “Home, sweet home,” the solo being taken by Master E. Mitham, all the congregation joining heartily in the chorus. In his address the Vicar referred to mother in three aspects: “Mother love,” “Mother in the home,” and “Mother church,” and pointed out how much everyone owes to mother. He explained the meaning of the observance of Mothering Sunday, and how it should be kept. At the end of the service a collection was taken for the Church of England Waifs and Strays Society.

INDUCTION OF THE VICAR. 20th March 1931

There was a large and representative congregation at the Parish Church on Thursday afternoon in last week to witness the induction of the new vicar, Rev. C. E. O. Finch, by the Rural Dean, Rev. A. Campbell Hair, who acted for the Archdeacon of Ely (Bishop Price). The service – evensong as for the third collect – was taken by the recently appointed Rector of Girton (Rev. P. N. H. Palmer), the Rector of Rampton (Rev. F. Ingle) reading the first lesson and the Rural Dean the second. After the third collect the induction took place, verses of hymn “We love the place, O God” being sung, while the Rural Dean and the Incumbent made their way to the church door, the font and finally the altar. The Rural Dean also gave a short address. Other hymns included “Pleasant are Thy courts above” and “The Church’s one foundation.” A peal was rung on the bells before the service.

GIRLS’ LIFE BRIGADE. 20th March 1931

An excellent entertainment was given before a crowded audience on Tuesday by the Girls’ Life Brigade, under the competent leadership of the captain, Mrs. Isgrove, assisted by Lieut. Miss H. Dodson, and Sergt. Miss W. Godfrey, with Miss J. Williams at the piano. Two amusing dialogues, entitled “Aunt Millicent’s Way” and “Engaging a Housekeeper,” were given by the senior girls, and action songs, “The Fairy Dustman” and “Queen of Hearts” by the juniors. Other items included a pianoforte solo by Miss J. Williams, recitations by E. Dodson and G. Wright, vocal solos by M. Lee and J. Williams, and sleigh song chorus. The chaplain, Rev. T. B. Field, who presided, after heartily complimenting Mrs. Isgrove upon the success of her work, stated that he had been requested to retain office as chaplain as long as he remained in the village, and that he had consented to do so.

AGRICULTURAL DISCUSSION SOCIETY. 20th March 1931

The annual meeting of the Swavesey and District Agricultural Discussion Society was held in the school on Friday evening, Mr. C. W. H. Cole being voted to the chair, owing to the absence, through illness, of the president, Mr. R. Mailer. Mr. McMillan (County Agricultural Organiser) gave a record of the season’s activities, and said the attendance had been very satisfactory, working out at an average of 37. The accounts presented by the secretary-treasurer, Mr. C. Wood, showed a balance in hand of 7s. 6d., the receipts being £1 12s., subscriptions of 1s. each from 32 members, and the expenditure

£1 3s. for members' cards, and 1s. 6d. postage, a total of £1 4s. 6d. Mr. W. Thorp proposed, and Mr. E. J. Mitham seconded, a resolution that the society be continued, and this was carried unanimously. The following officers were elected: President and chairman of meetings, Mr. R. Mailer; vice-presidents, Messrs. C. W. H. Cole, F. Kirby, F. Stanton, Dr. Fraser, Dr. J. W. Ellis, Messrs. Ingle Hemington and C. Hard; secretary and treasurer, Mr. C. Wood; committee, Messrs. A. Day, jun., C. H. Parish (Swavesey), P. Watts, E. Webb, J. Barker (Over), H. Hounsell, T. Norman (Willingham), R. Doggett, J. Mitham (Lolworth), R. Lilley, J. Scambler (Conington). The summer outing was discussed, and it was decided to join with the Fulbourn Society and make the trip to Jealott's Hill, the Research Farm of Imperial Chemical Industries, on July 22nd, Mr. McMillan being left to make all necessary arrangements. The meeting closed with a vote of thanks to the secretary for his work during the season, and to the chairman who had not missed a single meeting, with a hope of his quick restoration to his usual good health.

NURSING ASSOCIATION. 27th March 1931

The treasurer of the Swavesey Women's Institute has handed to the treasurer of the Nursing Association the sum of £2 14s. 1½d., the proceeds of a social. The donation has been accepted with grateful thanks.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 27th March 1931

A pleasing incident occurred last Sunday at the close of the evening service at Bethel Baptist Church, when at a meeting of the Y.P.F., the Pastor, in the name of the members, presented Miss M. Coulson with a Bible in recognition of the valuable service she had rendered during the past two years as pianist on Monday evenings. Miss Coulson has taken a position at King's College School at Cambridge. Mr. Field intimated that he would preach his farewell sermon as Pastor next Sunday evening, when he will have completed 5½ years' ministry in Swavesey and nearly 52 years as a Baptist minister. He will be residing in the parish, and will be available for services whenever desired, but will not undertake another charge. For the next three months the pulpit at Bethel will be mainly supplied by students from Spurgeon's College, London.

THE HOSPITAL PARADE. 27th March 1931

A public meeting was held in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening to decide whether a parade should be held this year in aid of Addenbrooke's Hospital. Dr. Fraser occupied the chair, supported by Mr. H. Whitehead. Mr. Uriah Thixton proposed that there should be a parade, but that it should take place on a weekday during Feast Week. Mr. Jabez Day seconded. Mr. H. H. Berryman moved, and Mr. E. J. Mitham seconded, an amendment that the parade should be held on Feast Sunday as in previous years, and on being put to the meeting 26 voted for the amendment and 9 for Mr. Thixton's proposition. The following officers were elected: Secretary, Mr. H. Whitehead; treasurer, Miss E. Dodson; auditor, Mr. R. Barwell; committee (with power to add), Miss Banks, Messrs. P. Banks, H. H. Berryman, Rev. T. B. Field, Rev. C. E. O. Finch, Mrs. Fraser, Messrs. F. Hephher, C. S. Hephher, Mrs. C. S. Hephher, Messrs. A. W. Melbourne, E. J. Mitham, F. W. Pontefract, F. Prior, J. Prior, and Mrs. Whitehead. The Target Fund balance sheet was read. This showed that Swavesey's quota of £200 had been exceeded by £3 2s., viz., house-to-house collections £197 10s. 1½d., collection at inaugural meeting £1 13s. 8½d, football match 15s. 2d., and donation £3 3s. Dr. Fraser said that something like £500 had been raised in the villages in the Swavesey district, and he thought that a remarkable achievement. A letter from the Secretary-Superintendent of Addenbrooke's was also read, from which it appeared that for the year 1929 – 30 the contributions from Swavesey from all sources to the Hospital Maintenance Fund amounted to £137 0s. 3d., and that during that period 22 in-patients and 39 out-patients from the parish had been under treatment at an estimated cost of £158 16s. 5d.

PARISH COUNCIL. 27th March 1931

A meeting of the Parish Council was held at the Memorial Hall on the 19th inst., when there were present: Messrs. C. W. H. Cole (chairman), W. Burton, C. Dean, F. Hephher, C. H. Parish and P. Parish, with the Clerk (Mr. Prime Godfrey). After instructions had been given for the payment of the clerk's salary and certain other outstanding liabilities, Mr. Burton called attention to the work done by the caretaker in connection with the Council meetings, for which hitherto he had received no recompense, and also to the light and fuel supplied on those occasions by the Hall Management Committee. After a short discussion it was agreed to allow the committee of management 10s. to pay for the fuel, etc., and recompense the caretaker. It was also decided that tenders should be invited for the collection of unburnable rubbish in April and October; and that the herbage of the recreation ground should be let by Mr. Cyril Watts when he lets the herbage of the droves, etc., on Monday, March 30th, and that the resolution received from the Burwell Parish Council respecting the extension of the boundaries of the borough of Cambridge should be referred to the newly elected Council for consideration. The Chairman called attention to the urgent need for a letter posting box, and a machine for the supply of postage stamps at Boxworth End. The Post Office, he said, was a long distance away (about 1½ miles), and the people living at that end of the village were in consequence put to a great deal of inconvenience. Mr. P. Parish proposed that the Postmaster of Cambridge should be written to on the subject, and that he should be asked to have the additional postal facilities provided, his attention being specially drawn to the fact that owing to the erection of new houses the population in that part of the village had increased, and in all probability would increase still further in the near future. Mr. C. H. Parish seconded the proposition, which was carried unanimously.

PAROCHIAL CHURCH MEETING. 27th March 1931

The annual parochial church meeting was held in the School on Tuesday evening, about fifty electors being present. The Vicar, who presided, apologised for the meeting being held so late in the year owing to his illness, and he thanked the Rev. J. F. Cooksey for carrying on the work so well during his enforced absence. The church accounts, presented by Mr. Banks (churchwarden), showed a balance in hand of £20 17s. 8d., the collections for church expenses amounting to £112 1s. 4d. and the expenditure to £91 3s. 8d. In addition £37 11s. 11d. had been collected for work outside the parish. The Repair Fund Account, presented by Mr. Barwell, showed a balance in hand of £56 18s. 3d. Mr. Banks proposed the balance be invested, and after some discussion it was decided that the Church Council should do this in the best way possible. Mrs. Banks reported that under the duplex envelope scheme £8 5s. 9d. had been collected, and she gave the various amounts allocated and to what funds. The Vicar said the envelope collection should be used for church expenses, as it was the offering of the people for that purpose. After some discussion Mrs. Cooksey proposed the envelopes be continued, and this was carried. The Sick and Needy Fund Accounts were presented by the Vicar and here also a satisfactory balance of £7 4s. 4d. had accrued. The efforts on behalf of missions, Mrs. Banks said, had resulted in £22 10s. 2d. being raised for the S.P.G., £1 9s. for the Jerusalem Mission, and 18s. for the S.P.C.K. The Vicar remarked the churchwardens' accounts did not show these amounts. All monies going into the church should, he said, be shown in these accounts. Mr. S. F. Mitham, who dealt with the Thrift Club funds, reported an expenditure of £12 0s. 3d., Mrs. Banks adding that there was a balance in hand of £5. When the meeting came to the election of representatives on the Diocesan Conference, Mrs. Cooksey remarked that she was elected last year for three years. After some discussion as to whether the election was to fill a vacancy for one year or for the three years, the minutes were consulted and Mrs. Cooksey's contention was found to be correct. Mrs. Cooksey and Mrs. Banks therefore will continue to serve, and they were also re-elected representatives on the Ruri-decanal Conference. For the Church Council the following were nominated: Messrs. W. J. Hephher, B. Hodson, R. Barwell, F. Hemington, S. F. Mitham, and Mesdames C. S. Hephher and S. J. Fraser. As seven persons were nominated for six places an election was obviated by choosing the first six and allowing the Parochial Church Council to co-opt the seventh. The sidesmen were re-elected en bloc. After it had been decided to hold a garden fete in the summer, a vote of thanks to the Vicar for presiding concluded the meeting.

OBITUARY. 3rd April 1931

Her old friends in the Swavesey district will regret to learn that Mrs. Kate Pearce, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Thorp, of The Swan, Swavesey, died on Saturday at her home at Bellingham, Kent, after five days of intense suffering. She was 62 years of age. The funeral takes place this (Thursday) afternoon at Brockley Cemetery.

DROVE LETTING. 3rd April 1931

By direction of the District Council, the annual letting by auction of the herbage of the Swavesey droves took place at the White Horse Inn on Monday evening, the sum of £6 being realised, against £4 18s. last year, £5 8s. in 1929, and £6 16s. 6d. in 1928. The herbage of the Recreation Ground, offered under instructions from the Parish Council, was let for £2 2s. 6d., 2s. 6d. less than last year and 7s. 6d. less than in 1929. Mr. Cyril Watts, who was the auctioneer, also offered the grazing of three fields in Cow Fen, Middle Fen and Mow Fen respectively. Two of the fields were withdrawn, and the third sold for £2 per acre to Messrs. Johnson Bros., Over.

SCHOOL EXHIBITION. 3rd April 1931

An exhibition of work done by the school children during the year just ended was held on Monday afternoon from 3.30 p.m. to 7 p.m., all parents and others interested in the work of the children being invited to be present. A large number availed themselves of the opportunity, and the school was full all the time the exhibition was open. The handicraft and sewing was greatly admired, and every visitor seemed delighted with the work done in every direction of the school life of the children, from the tiniest of them all to the senior division. All expressed their pleasure at being able to see the ways in which school was now made a pleasure to children, and how very different everything was to the old days when they were at school.

B.W.T.A. 3rd April 1931

The annual meetings of the Swavesey branch of the N.B.W.T.A.U. were held in Bethel Schoolroom on Thursday, March 26th. Tea at 5 o'clock was followed by a well-attended public meeting, at which the Rev. T. B. Field presided, and Mrs. Blackaby, of Willingham, gave an interesting address on Freedom. Solos were sung by Mrs. N. Robinson, also of Willingham, and Mrs. Ivatt read a good report of the annual meetings held at Cambridge in February. At the business meeting satisfactory reports were presented by the secretary and treasurer, and officers were elected for the coming year as follows: Presidency, left open until the autumn; acting vice-president, Mrs. W. Savage; joint secretaries, Mrs. J. Day and Miss H. Dodson; treasurer, Mrs. W. Savage; committee, Mesdames Godfrey, sen., P. Godfrey, Smith, Melbourne, Coulson, Spearman, T. Savage, and Nicholls, and Miss G. Dodson; L.W.R. superintendent, Miss Easter.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 3rd April 1931

The Pastor, Rev. T. B. Field, concluded his 5½ years' pastorate at Bethel Baptist Church last Sunday. A very large congregation assembled in the evening to hear his last official sermon, which was from the text Acts xx., 27-32. In the course of his address Mr. Field thanked all who had loyally assisted him during his residence in the village, and gladly acknowledged the cordiality with which his people had worked with him. He was not leaving, he said, because of any disagreement, but that for the time God might spare him, he might have liberty to respond to other calls. At the close of the service Mr. J. Day feelingly voiced the people's goodwill by asking the Pastor to accept a cheque for £15. In responding, Mr. Field expressed his grateful appreciation of this quite unexpected gift, and assured the congregation that he would be glad to render any possible service within his power as long as he remained in the village. The same afternoon Mr. C. Day on behalf of the Bible Class presented Mr. Field with an electric cycle lamp and handsome leather notebook as a token of their goodwill towards him.

SWAVESEY RURAL COUNCIL. 3rd April 1931

Water Wastage Through Burst Pipes.

DAMP HOUSES.

A further complaint regarding the wastage of water in the parish of Swavesey was considered at the monthly meeting of the Swavesey Rural District Council, which was held at St. Ives on Friday morning.

Mr. J. Frohock was in the chair, and there were also present: Messrs. W. I. Hemington, R. Mailer, A. Day, sen. and F. Stanton, with the Clerk (Mr. G. D. Day), and the Sanitary Inspector (Mr. Yeandle).

DAMP HOUSES.

The Sanitary Inspector reported with regard to a room in a Council house occupied by Mr. Timbrell in School-lane, Swavesey. He said he had inspected several houses in the vicinity and had found that the interior dampness of the walls was caused chiefly by the blocking of the air bricks, mostly by gravel on the footpaths, and if the tenants kept the bricks clean the walls would no doubt in time dry out again. It was useless doing any work until the bricks had dried out.

Mr. A. Day said it was only about three years since the Council had new floors put in Mr. Timbrell's cottage. They had never complained about the dampness before.

TO LIE ON THE TABLE.

A letter from the Swavesey and Over Women's Institutes asking the Council to adopt Clause 9 of the Ministry's model by-laws dealing with the humane killing of animals, was allowed to lie on the table.

WATER WASTAGE AT SWAVESEY.

The Council also considered a resolution passed at the annual parish meeting at Swavesey, protesting against the great waste of water in the parish caused by the delay in repairing bursts in the public supply pipes, and asking that the water should not be cut off during repairs without due notice being given. A further resolution also desired that the mud thrown from the brook opposite Turn Bridge cottages should be kept clear from the path and placed on the opposite side of the brook.

Mr. A. Day said there was always running water from the spring, though when there was a burst in the pipes there was a certain amount of wastage.

After discussion it was agreed that a copy of the resolution should be sent to Mr. Chevill, the engineer, and also that when a further burst in the pipes occurred he should be immediately informed.

The Clerk stated that apparently the latter course had not been adhered to in the past.

It was further agreed that the Sanitary Inspector should investigate the complaint respecting the depositing of mud in front of Turn Bridge cottages.

PRISONER IN TEARS. 3rd April 1931

Stack Firing at Over.

When S. W., of Over, a 17-year-old labourer, was brought into the dock on a charge of setting fire to a stack of beans and peas at Over on January 31st, he burst into tears.

Mr. Grafton Pryor (instructed by Messrs. S. J. and S. T. Miller) prosecuted, and prisoner pleaded guilty.

Mr. Pryor said prisoner was employed as a farm labourer, and on January 31st, for no apparent reason, he went to a farm belonging to Mr. Thoday, a farm on which he had no business and on which he was not employed, and there quite deliberately set fire to a stack of beans and peas.

The stack was entirely consumed and damage to the extent of £20 was done. Apparently prisoner had no grudge against the farmer. He appeared to be somewhat feeble-minded, but when tackled he made a clean breast of the matter.

"I came home," he told the police, "with W. W. and A. P. A. P. was smoking. W. W. asked me if I dare set fire to Mr. Thoday's stack. I said 'No.' We came walking away home. I went to the stack and lit it when I got up to it. I only had one match. I lit it on the box, and then caught W. and P. up again.

"W. W. asked me if I had lit it and I said 'Yes.' W. asked me if it was all right. I said 'Yes, it is going.' He said, 'You will get in trouble now,' and I was afraid to tell anyone what happened."

OTHERS NOT IMPLICATED.

Both the young men P. and W. were bound over to appear at that court, but he was instructed that there was no ground whatever for the suggestion that either of them was in any way implicated.

The Chairman: I think they both denied it on oath? – Yes, sir, and I believe the police are also quite satisfied in the matter.

Dr. Frank Robinson, county medical officer of health, said he had known the boy from his school medical reports, had interviewed him, and the parents, and had received information from his employers.

He was regarded as a backward child at school, and the general opinion of his employers was that he was a willing worker, but requiring a good deal of supervision. The general view was that he was easily led by others, and did not associate much with boys of his own age, because he had been made their butt.

"FEEBLE-MINDED AND EASILY LED."

On his own examination he had no hesitation in making up his mind that he was a feeble-minded boy, easily influenced by others. He believed that the act of burning had rather a fascination for the feeble-minded.

He suggested that prisoner should be sent to the Dungates Institution, Sussex, where there was, he had ascertained, a vacancy.

Asked if he had anything to ask the witness, prisoner again burst into tears, and said, "Have I got to be sent away?"

The Chairman: You have got to go away, I'm afraid.

Supt. Allen said that there was no question as to P. or W. having instigated him to this. In fact prisoner had told witness so himself.

The Chairman said the Clerk had pointed out that if the lad was sent to a home the County Council would not be liable to pay unless he were certified as mentally defective.

After some discussion of the legal point involved, the case was put back until the afternoon, and when prisoner was brought back he was bound over.

The Chairman (His Honour Judge Farrant), addressing the prisoner, said he had pleaded guilty to committing a very serious offence. In view of all the circumstances they were going to bind him over for two years in his own recognisances of £10 and his father in a similar amount. During that time he would be under the probation of Pastor C. J. Bird, of the Manse, Over.

MR. F. J. BEALES. 10th April 1931

Our readers in the Swavesey district will, no doubt, be interested to learn that Mr. F. J. Beales has been elected a member of the Walsoken Urban District Council. Fourteen candidates were nominated for the eleven seats, and the poll resulted in Mr. Beales coming out sixth. Mr. Beales, it will be remembered, succeeded the late Mr. W. Perry as stationmaster at Swavesey, and he held the position until November, 1921, when he was promoted to the stationmastership of Wisbech. He retired from the railway service two or three years ago.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 10th April 1931

The annual Good Friday tea and service took place on Friday last, when about 70 persons partook of the social meal, at which Pastor Smith, of London, gave a brief address. The service which followed was well attended, the preacher being Rev. J. K. Thorpe, of Willingham, who delivered an interesting sermon from the words "Nigh unto the city." Good congregations attended the Easter Day services, when the ex-pastor, Rev. T. B. Field, officiated. A number of boys from the camp at Lolworth attended the morning service, and two of their officers read the lessons. Mr. W. Chapman assisted at the evening service.

PARISH CHURCH. 10th April 1931

The services at the parish church on Good Friday were as follows: Mattins and Table Prayers 10.30 a.m., Litany and meditation on some of the Seven Words from the Cross 1 – 3 p.m., children's service 6 p.m., evensong and sermon 7 p.m. The church was beautifully decorated with spring flowers, etc., for Easter Day. There were celebrations of Holy Communion at 6 a.m., 7.30, and 11.15 a.m. (choral), Mattins was at 10.30 a.m., children's service at 3 p.m., and evensong at 6.30 p.m. Peals were rung on the bells between 5 and 6 a.m., and again before Mattins and evensong. All the services on both days were well attended, and the number of communicants was quite up to the average for Easter Day.

CARNIVAL DANCE. 10th April 1931

A successful carnival dance was held in the Memorial Hall on Saturday last, under the management of Mr. James Prior, assisted by Mrs. Walter Thorp and Mrs. J. T. Pettett, who catered admirably for the large number who attended. The real carnival spirit was predominant throughout the evening. The winners of prizes were as follows: Lucky spot, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jellings; correct carnival example, Miss M. Anderson and Mr. S. Culpin; veleta, Miss E. Utteridge and Mr. Robert Smith. Mr. Prior acted as M.C. throughout the evening, and Jack Vivian's Prize Band provided the music. The hall was most effectively decorated by Mr. and Mrs. Pettett. Half the net profits have been devoted to Addenbrooke's Hospital, and half to the Hall Fund.

It was agreed to have another egg collection for Addenbrooke's Hospital, under the supervision of Mrs. Canham. Miss B. Banks did brisk trade at the quarterly stall, many useful articles being brought by members. A sandwich competition (made to a given recipe), judged by Mr. Isgrove, was won by Mrs. C. S. Hephher. Visible man's buff and musical arms formed the social part of the evening. Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Berryman and Mrs. Budge were the hostesses.

The annual meeting of the local auxiliary of the Bible Society took place on Wednesday at Bethel Baptist Church, the Rev. T. B. Field (local secretary) occupying the chair. The Rev. H. J. Friends who desire to help so great a work were urged to take boxes, which might be obtained from the local secretary. A vote of thanks was accorded the speaker, on the motion of Mr. J. Day, seconded by Mr. A. Day. A collection was taken for the society, and boxes were brought in by Masters G. Laverack and D. Canham.

There was a large attendance at the social arranged by Mrs. and Mr. C. S. Hephher in aid of the Cricket Club, which was held in the Memorial Hall on Thursday week. A well-varied programme included several competitions, which were won as follows: Ladies' ankle competition, Miss Joyce Turner; drawing tail on donkey (blindfolded), Mr. J. At the close of the enjoyable evening a vote of thanks, proposed by Mr. L. Day, and seconded by the Rev. A. Beaumont, was accorded to all who had in any way contributed to the success of the effort.

PARISH COUNCIL. 17th April 1931

The first meeting of the recently elected Parish Council was held at the Memorial Hall on Wednesday evening, when there were present: Messrs. W. Burton, C. Dean, F. Hepher, C. H. Parish, P. Parish, A. P. Payne and C. Savage, with the clerk, Mr. Prime Godfrey. The first business was the election of chairman. The late chairman, Mr. C. W. H. Cole, was proposed for the office, but the Clerk stated that Mr. Cole had informed him that he was not prepared to act, and Mr. C. H. Parish, who had been vice-chairman was unanimously elected chairman, and Mr. C. Dean vice-chairman. The following were appointed members of the Memorial Hall Management Committee: Messrs. W. Burton, C. Dean, F. Hepher, P. Parish, C. Savage (Parish Council representatives) and Messrs. H. H. Berryman, F. F. Norman, F. W. Pontefract and Mr. Spolton. It was agreed that the whole of the Council should form the Fire Engine Committee, and Messrs. C. H. Parish, and A. P. Payne were elected the Council's representatives on the Board of Galon's Charity. The only tender received for the collection of unburnable rubbish in April and October was from Mr. P. Godfrey, who offered to do the work for £6, £1 less than last year. His tender was accepted unanimously. There was a short discussion respecting the Burwell resolution protesting against the extension of the boundaries of the Borough of Cambridge. Mr. Savage suggested that the Council should join in the protest, but on the proposition of Mr. Payne it was agreed that consideration of the question should be deferred for the present. The Parish Council accounts for the year ended 31st March, 1931, were read and passed. A letter was submitted from the secretary of the Hospital Parade Committee, inviting the Councillors to take part in the parade on Feast Sunday, and it was agreed that the clerk should reply that some of the Councillors would attend. Before the meeting closed the clerk read the following letter from the clerk of the Swavesey Rural District Council respecting the resolution passed at the annual parish meeting, calling attention to the bursts in the public water supply pipes, and to the unsatisfactory method of disposing of the sludge from the drain at Turn Bridge: "I read your letter to the Council, and was instructed to write to the engineer, and the water rate collector was instructed to give notice should it be necessary at any time for the water to be cut off. With regard to Turn Bridge brook cleansing, the Surveyor agrees that the sludge should in future be thrown on the opposite side of the brook to that of the cottages, and expressed regret that the workmen employed were not familiar with the neighbourhood to realise this. The Council understand that the position of the drain is somewhat awkward for cleansing."

DANCE. 24th April 1931

The inclement weather on Saturday evening did not prevent a good company from attending the dance held in the Memorial Hall to augment the prize fund of the annual horticultural show and sports. The Over Dance Orchestra provided an excellent programme of music, which kept the dancing going with a rare zest. Mr. P. J. Watts was an indefatigable M.C., the refreshment were in the capable hands of Mrs. Turner, Mrs. C. S. Hephher and Mrs. H. W. Whitehead, and the general arrangements were carried out by Messrs. C. S. Hephher and H. W. Whitehead.

GROUP CONFERENCE. 24th April 1931

The spring conference of the Over group of Women's Institutes was held in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday, Mrs. Fraser presiding, supported by Miss Warrington (secretary of the County Federation), Mrs. Vinter (treasurer County Federation), the Presidents and Convener of the group. A large number of members from Over, Swavesey and Willingham were present. The proceedings opened with the singing of "Mine ain countree," after which reports of work during the last six months were read by the secretaries of the institutes, and Mrs. Vinter gave the county news and a concise statement of the finance of the Federation, Miss Warrington following with an interesting talk on "The Federation: past, present and future." She was accorded a hearty vote of thanks, on the motion of Mrs. Edwards, seconded by Miss G. Smith. Refreshments were also served by Swavesey members, who were also responsible for the entertainment. This consisted of games, community singing, dancing and an amusing sketch, "Valentine's Day" well acted by Mrs. Laverack and Mrs. Marriott. At the close a cordial vote of thanks was accorded the Swavesey W.I., on the proposition of Mrs. R. Smith (Over) seconded by Mrs. Clark (Willingham).

CONCERNING PUBLICHOUSES. 24th April 1931

A correspondent writes: As there is often discussion respecting the number and names of the publichouses that used to exist in the parish of Swavesey, perhaps the following information obtained from old records may be read with interest. In 1820 there were seven publichouses fully licensed under an Act of Parliament passed, or at any rate operative, during the reign of George III., viz., "The Swan with Two Necks" (or more properly "Two Nicks"), "The Chequers" at Church End, "The White Horse" and "The George and Dragon" in Market-street, "The Black Horse" in High-street, "The Blue Bell" in Middle Watch, and "The Rose and Crown" at Boxworth End. Under a subsequent Act the following houses were licensed, some of them bringing the total number up to 21: "The Golden Lion" at Church End, "The Bird in Hand" and "The Railroad Hotel" in Taylor's-lane, "The Little Rose," "The King William IV," "The Sir Harry Smith," "The Sun" and "The Cricketers" in High-street, "The Middle Watch" and "The Green Man" in Middle Watch, "The Wheatsheaf," "The Black Bull" and "The Red Lion" at Boxworth End, and "The New Inn" on the Cambridge-Huntingdon road (built after the Enclosure Act, 1841). All have now been closed with the exception of "The White Horse," "The Sun," "The Blue Bell" and "The New Inn."

Williams (only child), Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Williams, Brisbane (brother and sister-in-law), and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Abraham, Brisbane (brother-in-law and sister-in-law), Mr. Edward Williams (youngest brother), although also in Queensland, was unable to attend as the distance he would have had to travel would have made it impossible for him to arrive in time. As already stated, Mr. E. J. Williams was the eldest son of the late Mr. John Williams, of Swavesey. He went to Australia 25 years ago, and from 1905 to 1920 was a partner in the firm of Messrs. Abraham and Williams, marine store dealers, motor engineers, etc., at Sydney, New South Wales. When his health began to fail he became proprietor of the hotel at Glen Aplin, and his death occurred suddenly while he was away from home at Southport. His wife and son were present. of three Masonic lodges, president of the N.S.W. Benevolent Society (two years), secretary of the Commercial Travellers' Association of Australia (two years), member of the N.S.W. SWAVESEY RURAL COUNCIL. 1st May 1931

Ald. J. Frohock Re-elected Chairman

THE RATE FIXED

The annual meeting of the Swavesey Rural District Council was held at the Poor Law Institution, St. Ives, on Friday morning. There were present: Mr. J. Frohock (in the chair), Messrs. F. Johnson, R. Mailer, F. Stanton, A. Day, and W. I. Hemington, with the Clerk (Mr. G. D. Day).

Mr. J. Frohock was again elected chairman for the ensuing year.

The Clerk said Mr. Frohock had been chairman of the Council since its formation and a member of the Local Government Board prior to that. He (the Clerk) had received a letter from Mr. F. Kirby (vice-chairman), who was lying ill, expressing his appreciation of the Council's good wishes, and stating that he hoped soon to join his colleagues in the work of the Council.

It was unanimously agreed, on the proposition of the Chairman that Mr. Kirby should be re-elected vice-chairman, and that a letter should be sent to him.

THE RATE.

The Clerk reported that at a special meeting on April 20th general and special rates for the several parishes comprised with the rural district were fixed as follows: Boxworth, Conington, Fen Drayton and Lolworth, each 4s. 1d in the £ for general rate; Over, 4s. general and 1s. special rate; Swavesey, 4s. 5d. general rate and 1d. for additional items.

SWAVESEY BY-WAYS.

The Clerk further reported that the time for receiving objections to the draft order in relation to the Swavesey by-ways had expired, and that no objections had been received. He had accordingly written to the Ministry and asked for a sealed copy of the order.

The County Accountant had written, the Clerk said, stating that a cheque for £15 12s. 1d. had been forwarded to the treasurer, being the grant in respect of the Sanitary Inspector. The net amount realised from the letting of the Swavesey by-ways, roadsides, and droves amounted to £5 7s.

THE CEMETERY. 8th May 1931

At their meeting on Monday, the Trustees of Swavesey Cemetery decided to open a building fund for the erection of a small chapel in the cemetery, so that funeral services can be held under cover. This convenience will be much appreciated, especially during the winter months. Mr. H. H. Williams, of High-street, has been appointed hon. treasurer of the fund.

SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION. 15th May 1931

Of the 14 candidates from Bethel Sunday School who sat for the Sunday School Union Scripture examination in March, 11 passed, seven gaining 1st class certificates and four 2nd class. One of the Union prizes was also secured.

On Tuesday evening, with Capt. Mrs. Isgrove in the chair, these certificates were presented by Miss Easter, who also gave an interesting address. ANNUAL HOSPITAL EFFORT. 15th May 1931

The Swavesey Feast Sunday Hospital Parade Committee are holding their fourth annual parade on Sunday next, when collections throughout the day will be made in aid of Addenbrooke's Hospital. The Somersham Town Band are kindly giving their service during the afternoon and evening. During the earlier part of the week a series of "Daily Mail" push-ball matches has been arranged to take place in the evenings, culminating in the final for the Challenge Cup on Wednesday at 7 o'clock. A good number of teams have signified their intention of competing, including two teams of ladies. The effort will be brought to a close on Thursday with a whist drive in the Memorial Hall, when the push-ball challenge cup will be presented to the winning team.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 15th May 1931

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held on Monday, the President occupying the chair and a good number of members being present. It was decided that the outing to Bourneville by bus should take place next Wednesday, and it was announced that 1,370 eggs had been collected by members, for which a letter of appreciation had been received from Mr. Head. After a short report by Mrs. Banks on a lecture by Miss Armes on the craft exhibition which is to be held in 1932, Dr. Fraser, who kindly filled in the gap left by the absence of Miss Nicholls, gave an instructive talk on "Skin and its functions and infectious diseases." The roll-call on favourite dinners brought many varied menus. Mrs. Cain and Mrs. Carrier were the hostesses.

CHURCH BELLS. 15th May 1931

Now that the repair of the south aisle roof of the church has been completed, the members of the Parochial Church Council are turning their attention to the bells, which are sadly in need of repair. At a well-attended meeting held in the schoolroom last Wednesday evening arrangements were made for a garden fete to be held in the Vicarage grounds in July in aid of a fund for that purpose. When so many willing helpers meet together to exchange ideas, the result seems bound to be very successful, and an interesting afternoon, with improvements in the old features and the addition of attractive new ones. Mr. Wood kindly promised to be responsible for entertainments. The Vicar having expressed his disapproval of raffles and lucky numbers, the meeting decided by a large majority to dispense with anything of the kind this year, but there will be numerous interesting competitions and novel side-shows.

TWO ACCIDENTS. 22nd May 1931

As Mr. H. H. Williams, of High-street, was returning home about 10.30 p.m. on Sunday his car came into collision when near Bethel Chapel with another car driven by Mr. Harry Lawrence, of Papworth. Both cars were damaged, but none of the occupants was injured. On Monday evening, Mr. Stanley Lawrence, son of Mr. Harry Lawrence, was riding his motor cycle very slowly between the backs of the feast stalls and the cottages in Market-street, when Mary Rooke, aged 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rooke, Askew-row, ran from between the stalls into the motor cycle. She was knocked down, and, unfortunately, her right leg was broken below the knee. The child was taken into Mrs. John Williams' house near by, and, after being attended to by Dr. Fraser, was conveyed by car to Addenbrooke's Hospital, where she was detained.

THE FEAST. 22nd May 1931

The annual village feast has been celebrated this week. On Sunday the services at the parish church were well attended, especially that in the evening, when the music included the anthem "The Lord is loving" (Garrett). On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Market-street was occupied by stalls, cocoanut shies, swinging boats, Manning's roundabout, etc., and in the evenings push-ball matches were played on the Recreation Ground. The competition attracted many entries. In the final L. Carter's (Over) team defeated Godfrey's (Swavesey) team by two points to nil. A competition for ladies ended in the Swavesey Hockey Club team defeating Over by two points to nil. The proceeds, which amounted to £7 6s., will be handed to the Hospital Sunday Fund.

DEATH OF AN OLD INHABITANT. 22nd May 1931

Swavesey has lost another old inhabitant by the death of Mr. Charles Crisp, who passed away on the 14th inst. after five months' painful illness. Born 78 years ago, the son of the late Mr. William Crisp, of Swavesey, he was for a long period a hay dealer well known in Cambridge and the surrounding district. He leaves a widow and one daughter. The funeral took place at the Parish Church on Monday afternoon, the Vicar (Rev. C. E. O. Finch) officiating. The mourners included Mrs. C. Crisp (widow), Mr. and Mrs. F. Prior, (son-in-law and daughter), Mrs. Butterworth, Mrs. E. J. Linford, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hodson, Mr. and Mrs. G. Burling, Mr. and Mrs. B. Hodson, Mr. and Mrs. E. Smart, Mr. and Mrs. C. Prime (nieces and nephews), Miss H. Poulter (sister-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. J. Green, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Warboys (brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law). Messrs. R. Mitham and Sons were the undertakers.

HOSPITAL PARADE. 22nd May 1931

The fourth annual parade in aid of Addenbrooke's Hospital Maintenance Fund was held last Sunday (Feast Sunday). The weather was dull and cold, and threatening clouds hovered overhead, but fortunately the rain held off. The procession started from Boxworth End shortly after two o'clock. At the head were Mr. W. H. Whitehead (hon. secretary) and other members of the organising committee, representatives of the Parish Council, Mr. R. Mailer (County Councillor for the division) and P.C. Badcock. They were followed by the Somersham Town Band, and then in succession came detachments of V.A.D.'s, Boys' and Girls' Brigades with banners, B.W.T.A. (with banner), British Legion (with standard), members of the Hockey Club (in their bright coloured frocks) and the Cricket and Football Clubs, representatives of the National Deposit Friendly Society (with banner), and of other village societies. At the rear were the Sunday School children, the smaller ones riding in wagons. With them was the Parish Church children's banner. The procession made its way through the village to the swan pond, halting on the way at Longstanton Road's end and the Memorial Hall, and also at Market-street on returning to the Recreation Ground, where a meeting was held. The Vicar of Swavesey (Rev. C. E. O. Finch) presided, and with him on the extemporised platform were Mr. W. H. Head (secretary-superintendent of Addenbrooke's Hospital), Mr. R. Mailer, Dr. Fraser, Mr. H. Smith (Willingham), Mr. C. Dean and Mr. Prime Godfrey (Parish Council representatives). The Rev. T. B. Field, who had been in the procession, was unable to remain for the meeting, owing to ill-health. After a short introductory address by the Chairman, Mr. Head spoke of the urgent needs of the hospital and how its beneficent work had extended. In 1766, when the hospital was founded, 129 patients were treated, whereas in 1930 the in-patients numbered 4,175 and the out-patients 12,289. Last year the expenditure amounted to £32,600, which meant that the cost of running the hospital worked out at 1s. a second, or £3 an hour. Including legacies the income totalled £31, 794, rather more than £600 less than the expenditure. During 1930 22 in-patients and 39 out-patients from Swavesey were treated at a cost of just under £160, and the hospital received from the village about £130. Mr. Head then proceeded to refer to the contributory scheme. The average weekly contribution, he said, would be 2d., and this would entitle patients to free treatment, whereas non-contributors would have to pay. Dr. Fraser and Mr. H. Smith also spoke, the latter making his usual forceful appeal for £1 and 10s. notes. Starting with £1 from himself and another £1 from his wife he succeeded in raking in £13, and this sum was increased to £18 by a £5 note handed in on behalf of Mr. John Warboys. A drum-head collection also brought in £2 0s. 1½d. The band played selections during the meeting and also gave a concert on the Recreation Ground after the church and chapel services in the evening, when short addresses were given by the Vicar and Dr. Fraser. The total sum collected during the day amounted to £51 1s. 1d., viz., collectors' boxes £31 0s. 11½d., Mr. Smith's collection £18, drumhead collection £2 0s. 1½d. To this sum will be added the proceeds from the push-ball matches and from a whist drive held yesterday.

The large congregations attending the anniversary services at the Particular Baptist Chapel on Thursday in last week included friends from neighbouring villages and from Cambridge, St. Ives, Godmanchester, Huntingdon, Chatteris, and Bedford. Parish, Miss M. Parish, Mrs. J. W. Parish, Mrs. J. Linford and Mrs. Frost. The collections were devoted to the Chapel Fund.

THE LATE MRS. C. HEPHER. 29th May 1931

After a long and very trying illness, Mrs. Ann Hepher, widow of the late Mr. Charles Hepher, of High-street, passed away in Addenbrooke's Hospital on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Hephher, who was in her 73rd year, was a daughter of the late Mr. James Coulson, a well-known Swavesey blacksmith. Of her family of three sons, only the youngest is living, the other two having made the great sacrifice in the war, her eldest son being reported "missing, believed killed" in April, 1917, and the second desperately wounded in September, 1918, died two months later in hospital at Wimereux. The funeral will take place at Swavesey parish church at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The Feast Sunday Hospital Parade Committee brought their effort for Addenbrooke's this year to a close on Thursday week, with a whist drive in the Memorial Hall, at which 20 tables were in play. The prizewinners were: Ladies, Mrs. C. S. Hephher, Mrs. H. Culpin, Mrs. C. Dean, Miss W. Williamson; gentlemen, Mr. J. Tasker, Mr. W. Savage, Mr. C. Unwin, Mr. P. Prime; knock-out, Miss K. Banks and Mr. B. Prime. Mr. H. H. Berryman officiated as M.C. During the evening Dr. Fraser presented the push ball challenge cup to L. Carter's (Over) team.

PRIMITIVE METHODIST CHAPEL. 29th May 1931

A very pleasant time was spent at the Primitive Methodist Chapel on Whit-Monday, when a Faith tea was given by the Sisterhood. The Rev. Harrison and many friends from St. Ives sat down and did justice to the excellent repast provided. The programme for the enjoyable social that followed included solos by Mr. Kester, Mrs. Kester, Mrs. Ivatt and Mrs. Haslop, recitations by Denis Ivatt and Ronny Smith, a reading by Mrs. Ivatt, choruses by the Sisterhood, and a capital recitation by Mrs. W. Savage, who occupied the chair. At the close Mr. Harrison thanked all who had contributed to the success of the effort, which had resulted not only in clearing off the debt, but leaving money in hand. Mrs. Ivatt had charge of the arrangements, being ably assisted by Mrs. Kester.

The monthly meeting of the Swavesey Rural District Council was held at the Poor Law Institution, St. Ives, on Friday morning. There were present: Messrs. J. Frohock (chairman), F. Kirby (vice-chairman), A. Day, sen., F. Stanton and W. I. Hemington, with the Acting Clerk (Mr. G. L. Day).

MEDICAL OFFICER'S REPORT FOR 1930.

The report of the Medical Officer and the Sanitary Inspector for 1930 showed that the area of the district was 14,445 acres and the population (estimated) 2,830. There were 38 births during the year, of which 24 were males, and this was a birthrate of 15.0 per 1,000 of the population, compared with 16.3 for the whole of England and Wales.

Twenty-seven deaths were registered, being at the rate of 10.6 per 1,000, the corresponding rate for England and Wales being 11.4. Fifteen deaths, or 55 per cent. were of persons over 65; nine were due to malignant disease. Of children under one year there were two deaths.

Progress was being made towards the abolition of ashpits, ash heaps and privy vaults. It would be better, it was suggested, if the larger villages were provided with sanitary carts. All ponds had been inspected and where necessary instructions had been given for cleaning.

VERY HEALTHY YEAR.

The Medical Officer said it had been a very healthy year. There had been no deaths from infectious disease or tuberculosis, and the children under one year were quite satisfactory.

HOUSING SATISFACTORY.

The Vice-Chairman said he noticed that according to the report there were six houses that were reasonably unfit for habitation.

The Sanitary Inspector (Mr. G. G. Yeandle) said there were a number of houses where minor repairs were necessary, and these had been carried out after the tenants had been spoken to.

The Vice-Chairman said he was pleased to see so many noughts under the heading of "housing." It showed that the district was in a very satisfactory condition.

SWAVESEY BYWAYS ORDER.

The Clerk read a letter from the Ministry of Health enclosing copies of the Order which had been made with reference to Swavesey byways. He also reported that instructions had been given to the Surveyor of taxes to prepare a list of schedule A assessments, of which there were about 700. The cost would be £1 15s.

COUNCIL HOUSES.

The Clerk also submitted a statement showing the amount of rent and rates payable by tenants of Council houses for the ensuing six months, viz: Conington, rate portion 3s. 1d., amount payable monthly £1 2s. 7d.; Boxworth End, Swavesey, 3s. 4d. and £1 5s.; School-lane, Swavesey, two houses, 5s. 4d. and £1 17s. 10d., four houses 5s. 4d. and £2, two houses, 5s. 4d. and £2 2s. 2d.; Over 6s. and £2 0s. 8d.

Including the collections on Feast Sunday and at the push-ball matches, and the proceeds from the whist drive on May 21st, the gross amount raised by the Hospital Parade Committee was £65 18s. After payment of expenses the sum of £59 0s. 3d. is available for Addenbrooke's Maintenance Fund. A detailed balance sheet will shortly be on view at the Post Office.

Owing to the sudden illness of her father, the bride was given away by her brother, P.C. Jethro Linford. She wore a pretty dress of ivory suede georgette, trimmed with silver lace, a silk veil and orange blossom, and she carried a sheaf of lilies. The bridesmaids, Miss Bessie Linford (sister of the bride) and Miss Florrie Symonds (sister of the bridegroom) were attired in figured ninon, with black hats, and they carried bouquets of lemon roses and fern. They wore strings of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom. Mr. Albert Lambert was best man. The reception after the ceremony was held at the bride's home. The presents were numerous and useful, and included a cheque from Dr. and Mrs. Bowen, the bride's late employers, a silver cruet from Mr. and Mrs. F. Kirby, the bridegroom's employer, gold cuff links from the bride to the groom, and a gold wrist watch from the bridegroom to the bride.

THE EARTHQUAKE. 12th June 1931

Many people in the village were startled by the earth tremor early on Sunday morning, and some of them, it is reported, came out of their houses with flashlights to ascertain what was the cause, or the result, of the disturbance. No material damage, however, was done.

PRIMITIVE METHODISTS. 12th June 1931

There was a special Camp Day in connection with the Primitive Methodist Chapel last Sunday, open-air meetings being conducted in Market-street and on the Recreation Ground by the Rev. Harrison (circuit minister) and friends from St. Ives. In the evening there was a "Love Feast" in the chapel, at which Mr. H. Garner, the ex-boxer, was the speaker.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 12th June 1931

The 91st anniversary of the founding of Bethel Baptist Church was celebrated on Thursday week. The special preacher at the services in the afternoon and evening should have been the Rev. Dr. Norman Dunning, of Cliff College, Sheffield, but he was unable to be present owing to the death of his wife at the beginning of the week. His place was taken at very short notice by the Rev. Lomax Mackenzie, of Trinity Church, Huntingdon, whose eloquent addresses were greatly appreciated. In the afternoon he based his sermon on the second verse of the 3rd chapter of the 1st epistle of St. John, and in the evening took as his text "Upon this rock I will build my church" (St. Matthew xvi, 18). The congregations were good, especially that in the evening, many friends coming from neighbouring villages. The public tea at 5.15 p.m. was also well attended, and the collections throughout the day for church funds were satisfactory.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 12th June 1931

"Electricity in the home" was the subject of an interesting talk by Mr. Francis at the monthly meeting of the Women's Institute on Monday. He compared the present system with the old, and instanced the various uses and advantages to which electricity can be put. Mr. Francis was accorded a hearty vote of thanks, on the proposition of Mrs. J. Cain. Mrs. C. S. Hepher then presented her report of the annual meeting of the N.F.W.I., after which Mr. U. Thixton judged a competition for the best window plant, awarding the prize to Mrs. C. S. Hepher. Subjects for winter classes were discussed, household jobbery and drama being the most popular, and arrangements were made for a garden party to be held later in the month in Mrs. Fraser's garden. Country dancing, for which Mrs. Budge presided at the piano, brought the pleasant evening to a close. The hostesses, in conjunction with the usual ladies, were Mrs. Cooke and Mrs. J. Coulson.

NURSING ASSOCIATION FETE. 12th June 1931

Owing to other attractions in the district there was a smaller attendance than usual at the annual garden fete in aid of the Swavesey, Over and Fen Drayton Nursing Association, which was held on Thursday last in the beautiful grounds of Swavesey Manor, by kind permission of the Rev. J. F. Cooksey. The proceeds, approximately £36, were also slightly less than last year, and this was unfortunate, as the association is in need of increased financial support. A prominent feature of the fete has hitherto been a baby show, but this had to be abandoned, as not enough infants born in the three parishes had been entered. The opening ceremony was gracefully performed by Miss Owen, of Ipswich, to whom a bouquet, given by Mrs. Banks, was presented by Nurse Cottrell. The stalls, sideshows, competitions, etc., were under the charge of the following: New work stall, Mesdames J. Norman, C. Dean and Aldred; jumble stall, Mesdames Chew and Taylor; pound and produce stall, Mesdames G. Burling and H. Ellwood; sweets, Misses G. and E. Dodson; gift stall, Mrs. Banks; refreshments, Mesdames J. T. Daintree, H. H. Berryman, W. Kester, B. Hodson, Misses Ethel Garner and Peggy Robertson; ices, Mrs. Lee; Japanese washing, Miss Banks; clock golf, Mrs. Fraser, who gave the prize, which was won by Vic Wilderspin; gramophone, Misses Yvonne and Joyce Lee; candle lighting, Miss Edna Page (prize given by Miss Crouch, won by Eric Williamson); bran tub, Mrs. Jellings; Miss Cox was in charge of the doll given by Miss Beaumont, the cost of which, including the clothes, had to be guessed. The doll was secured by Mrs. C. S. Hephher. A cake, given by Mrs. Cooksey, the weight of which had to be guessed, was taken round by Misses A. Wilderspin and N. Mustill. This was won by Miss R. Gaunt, after a draw with three other ladies. Popular items in the day's programme were provided by Swavesey school children and Over Girl Guides. The Swavesey children, under the supervision of Mr. C. Wood (headmaster), with his daughter Jean as producer and stage manager, gave admirable performances of a pretty little play.

SCHOLARSHIPS. 19th June 1931

As a result of the recent examinations held by the Cambs. Education Committee, Jean Wood has been awarded a County Minor Scholarship, tenable at the Cambridge and County High School for Girls, and Nora Peppercorn and Robinson Mitham free studentships at the School of Arts and Crafts. They are pupils at Swavesey National School.

NURSING ASSOCIATION. 19th June 1931

The garden fete at Swavesey Manor on June 4th resulted in £37 7s. being raised for the Swavesey, Over and Fen Drayton Nursing Association. A notable and most welcome visitor during the afternoon was the greatly respected vicar of Swavesey from 1895 until 1912. He was accompanied by his elder daughter.

HOME FROM AFRICA. 19th June 1931

Mr. Christopher Day, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Day, who has been working at Bie, Angola, Portuguese West Africa, in connection with a medical mission for the past eight years, has come home on furlough, accompanied by his wife and little son. They are now paying a visit to Swavesey. Mr. Day, who is in excellent health, has received a hearty welcome from his relatives and many old friends in the village and surrounding district.

SWAVESEY RURAL COUNCIL. 26th June 1931

Revision of County Districts

The monthly meeting of the Swavesey Rural District Council was held at St. Ives on Friday. The Chairman (Mr. J. Frohock) presided, and there were also present: Messrs F. Kirby (vice-chairman), W. I. Hemington, R. Norman and J. Scambler.

The Acting Clerk (Mr. G. L. Day) reported that the treasurer's balance on the general account was £735 4s. 5d., housing account £20 5s. 9d., and rating account £922 5s.

REVISION OF DISTRICTS.

A letter was also read from the Cambs. County Council with regard to the revision of the county districts, together with a copy of the report which had been sent to the Ministry showing the alterations that were considered desirable.

The Clerk said the proposal was that they should go into another district, and there would be only four representatives on the Council instead of eight as at present.

Mr. Kirby thought four members would be quite sufficient.

MEMORIAL HALL. 26th June 1931

There was a poor attendance at the dance in the Memorial Hall on Saturday, and the proceeds, which were for the Hall Maintenance Fund, were negligible. The Over Dance Band provided the music.

BETHEL SUNDAY SCHOOL. 26th June 1931

The services at Bethel Baptist Church last Sunday had special reference to the anniversary of the Sunday School. The preacher in the morning and evening was Mr. Blunt, of Spurgeon's College. During the afternoon service, which was conducted by Pastor J. K. Thorpe, of Willingham, portions of Scripture were recited by some of the children, and prizes and certificates were presented to the successful candidates in the Sunday School Union examination held in March. Two boys also received certificates for collecting money for native preachers. Special hymns were sung throughout the day.

PARISH COUNCIL. 26th June 1931

A meeting of the Parish Council was held at the Memorial Hall on Monday evening, when there were present: Mr. C. H. Parish (chairman), Messrs. W. Burton, C. W. H. Cole, C. Dean, P. Parish, A. P. Payne and C. Savage. Arising out of the minutes the Clerk (Mr. Prime Godfrey) stated that the quantity of unburnable rubbish collected recently was even larger than on previous occasions. The Clerk also reported that the footbridge leading from the Cow Fen end of Market-street to Church Green had completely fallen in. On the proposition of Mr. Cole it was decided that a new bridge should be provided, well creosoted wood only to be used, and that Messrs. G. Mitham and Sons, and Messrs. R. Mitham and Sons be invited to tender for the work. Messrs. Burton and Dean and the Clerk were authorised to deal with the tenders and have the work put in hand as soon as possible. After Mr. A. L. Parish had been re-appointed the Council's representative on the board of the school managers, a letter was read from the Postmaster of Cambridge regretting that the Council's request for a posting box at Boxworth End could not be complied with as there was already a box in Middle Watch within about 650 yards. The Council considered that the refusal was unreasonable, and it was agreed that further steps should be taken in the matter.

FOR THE HOSPITAL. 3rd July 1931

Mr. Cecil Symonds, of Over, who gave an excellent film display at the Memorial Hall last Friday evening, has handed the whole of the proceeds, amounting to £3, to the hon. secretary of the Swavesey Feast Sunday Parade Committee (Mr. H. Whitehead) for transmission to Addenbrooke's Hospital.

SCHOOL TREAT. 3rd July 1931

Bethel Baptist Sunday School treat was held on Thursday week, when 75 children enjoyed a good tea in the schoolroom, after which a very happy evening was spent in the field adjoining the chapel, by kind permission of the superintendent, Mr. A. Day, jun. The customary games and races were entered into heartily by the older scholars, whilst the juniors availed themselves of the swings which were provided for their benefit. Mrs. Isgrove regaled the children with ice creams, and Mr. Canham supplied sweets for the scrambles. The singing of the Doxology and a prayer brought the happy evening to a close.

W.I. GARDEN PARTY. 3rd July 1931

A most enjoyable time was spent at the party in Mrs. Fraser's garden on Thursday week. Tea was served at 4 p.m., and there were many competitions, which caused a deal of amusement. A whist drive added to the pleasure of the evening although this had to be held indoors owing to the chilly weather. Mrs. Banks and Mrs. Freestone kindly undertook the duty of gatekeepers. Competitions were won by the following (names of ladies in charge in brackets): Egg and spoon race (Miss D. Godfrey), Miss K. Banks; fish pond (Miss Freestone), Mrs. S. Hepher; balls in pail (Mrs. Berryman), Mrs. Key; pegs on line (Mrs. A. Whybrow), Mrs. C. S. Hepher; potato race (Miss Banks), Mrs. Marriott; clock golf (Mrs. Lee), Rev. C. E. O. Finch; weight of cake (Nurse Cottrell), Nurse Cottrell; weight of chocolates (Miss K. Banks), Mrs. J. Cain; nail driving (Mrs. Aldred), Miss K. Banks; mystery parcel (Mrs. Canham), Mrs. W. Kester. The prizewinners at the whist drive were: Ladies – Miss Banks, Mrs. Fraser, booby Mrs. Marriott; gentlemen – Mrs. Sheldon, Dr. Fraser, booby Mrs. Brown (playing as a gentleman), highest score at half-time Miss D. Godfrey. All the prizes were provided by the members. The arrangements for tea were in the capable hands of Mrs. W. Kester, Mrs. Marriott, Mrs. Melbourne, Mrs. Martin and Mrs. G. Froment, while Mrs. C. S. Hepher and Miss Banks were in general charge of competitions, etc. The members greatly appreciated Dr. and Mrs. Fraser's kindness in lending them the garden for the party.

BRITISH LEGION RALLY. 10th July 1931

Thirty members of the Swavesey and District branch of the British Legion, accompanied by friends, the party numbering between 50 and 60 in all, journeyed in motor cars and two motor buses to Newmarket on Sunday, to attend the great Rally of the East Anglia area of the Legion.

ANOTHER BURST. 10th July 1931

A pipe in connection with the public water supply burst in High-street on Saturday and flooded the roadway. When the defect was attended to on Monday residents complained that notwithstanding the resolution passed at the annual Parish Meeting in March, a copy of which, it is understood, was sent to the engineer by the Rural District Council, no notice was given that the water would be cut off for some hours. Considerable inconvenience was, therefore, caused.

THE PECKOVER VAN. 10th July 1931

The Peckover van made its first appearance in Market-street, Swavesey, the purpose being to illustrate the benefits of total abstinence from alcohol from both economical and physiological points of view. The van was in the charge of Mr. and Mrs. D. Moore, of the County Band of Hope Union, and during its stay attracted many to inspect the exhibits. Unfortunately the weather was unsettled, but a brief meeting was held, at which the Rev. T. B. Field gave a short address. One thing was evident, viz., the absence of local abstainers, who ought to have backed up the effort.

SUNDAY EXCURSION. 17th July 1931

One hundred passengers booked from Swavesey station on Sunday morning by the special half-day excursion to Skegness. Except during a very severe storm in the afternoon a very pleasant time was spent.

SCHOOLBOY CRICKET. 17th July 1931

The cricket match between Swavesey and Willingham schoolboys, played at Swavesey on the 9th inst., resulted in a win for the home eleven, Swavesey boys scoring 28 runs and Willingham boys 16.

LOST ON THE ROAD. 17th July 1931

Two Swavesey men taking a 14 stone pig in a motor lorry to Cambridge market on Monday morning were greatly surprised when they were told by the driver of another lorry which overtook them that they had dropped the pig a considerable distance behind. They at once turned back in search of the animal, and after going something like two miles they eventually found it in the ditch by the side of the road. As it was injured by the fall it was taken on to Cambridge – not to the market for sale, but to a butcher for immediate slaughter.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 17th July 1931

At the monthly meeting of the Women's Institute on Monday, an interesting lecture on a holiday in the Tyrol was given by Mr. W. P. Baker, in course of which he showed some excellent pictures of the places he had visited. Mrs. Banks, in a few well chosen words, thanked Mr. Baker for his very pleasant talk. Mr. Paskett's gardening notes were then read, and were much appreciated. Miss K. Banks was in charge of the quarterly stall and did fairly good trade. A roll call on "My favourite vegetable" clearly showed the popularity of the green pea. Refreshments, followed by community singing brought the evening to a close.

BAND OF HOPE EXCURSION. 24th July 1931

A large contingent from Swavesey, consisting of 60 children and 37 adults, joined the Cambs. Band of Hope excursion to Skegness at Swavesey station yesterday morning.

IMPROVED POSTAL FACILITIES. 24th July 1931

It is understood that Capt. R. G. Briscoe, M.P., has informed the Parish Council that the question of providing a letter posting box at Boxworth End has, on his representation, been reconsidered by the authorities of the Post Office, and that a box will shortly be placed in that part of the village.

MUSICAL SUCCESSES. 24th July 1931

In the examination held recently at Cambridge by the Trinity College of Music, London, Miss Q. Spolton passed the senior division (pianoforte) and George Laverack the intermediate division (violin). Miss Spolton is a pupil of Miss Teversham, and Master Laverack of Mr. A. W. R. Jones.

SCHOOLBOY CRICKET. 24th July 1931

The return match between Swavesey National and Willingham Council schools, which was played at Willingham on Tuesday, resulted in the crushing defeat of the home eleven. Batting first, Willingham were dismissed for 16 runs. When Swavesey had scored 25 for four wickets (Denyer 17 not out), the Willingham lads and their umpire retired from the field, too tired or too disheartened to continue the game.

SWAVESEY R.D. COUNCIL. 24th July 1931

Water and Drainage Matters.

The monthly meeting of the Swavesey Rural District Council was held on Friday at St. Ives Union, the members attending being: Mr. F. Kirby (in the chair), Messrs. Day, Mailer and Stanton, with the Clerk (Mr. G. D. Day).

The Clerk reported that the treasurer's credit balances were as follows: General account, £655 1s. 8d.; housing account, £38 10s. 2d.; rating account, £779 12s. 9d.

The Clerk reported the receipt of a letter from Mr. Paine, of School-lane, Swavesey, stating that the water supply was out of order.

The Rate Collector (Mr. J. Bullen) said Mr. Paine obtained water without difficulty, but there was a noise in the pipe.

The Chairman: Does it make a noise when he is not drawing water?

The Rate Collector: It doe at night. I think it occurs mostly when he turns off the water. He gets plenty of water and the pipe serves its purpose.

The Council took no action in the matter.

FOOTBALL CLUB. 31st July 1931

The annual meeting of the Football Club was held in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday, when the following officers were elected for the ensuing season: President, Dr. S. J. Fraser; vice-presidents, Rev. T. B. Field, Rev. A. Beaumont, Major O. Papworth, Messrs. H. Blinkhorn, C. F. Banks, R. Barwell, F. W. Pontefract, J. Parish, W. D. Isgrove, B. Thorp, G. E. Canham, C. Northrop, H. Whitehead, E. Day, A. L. Parish, J. Mustill, W. Spolton, A. J. Willson, D. Wilderspin and E. Thixton; captain, S. Godfrey; vice-captain, J. Sutton; hon. sec., H. Bridgeford; treasurer, A. Hephher. The satisfactory announcement was made that the club has a balance in hand.

SCHOOLBOY CRICKET. 31st July 1931

In a letter to the head teacher of Swavesey National School, Mr. A. Hounsell, head teacher of Willingham Council School, takes exception to what he describes as “a most unwarrantable slur on the sportsmanship” of the Willingham team in our report last week of the cricket match between Willingham and Swavesey school boys. He says: “The facts are these. When the Willingham score had been well passed by the Swavesey boys I consulted with the other umpire as to the possibility of concluding the match, as the weather was very threatening, and I wanted to avoid the chance of your boys having to cycle home in the wet. Another reason was that I had an important engagement at 4.15, and after discussing these matters with your very efficient umpire, we both agreed to conclude the match. The boys had nothing to do with this decision, and to say they were too tired and too disheartened to carry on is to cast (in my opinion) upon them a nasty slur which is neither true nor deserved.” – It may be observed, adds our Swavesey correspondent, that play had only been in progress about an hour when the game was concluded by the umpires. At that time the Willingham boys had been dismissed for 16 runs, and the Swavesey lads had replied with 25 for four wickets. There was therefore a possibility that the remaining Swavesey wickets might have fallen cheaply, and that if a second innings had been played a different result would have been recorded.

CROP NEWS. 31st July 1931

Wheat an average crop, about 3½ qrs. per acre. Barley very little grown, a light crop owing to wet in the month of May; yield 4 qrs. per acre. Beans very few grown, about 3½ qrs. per acre. Potatoes a fair crop, especially the earlies. A good crop of roots, especially the sugar beet, which should yield a good percentage of sugar if plenty of sunshine. A fair crop of soft fruit, but not much top fruit. An abundant crop of hay, which, however, will barely pay for harvesting if sold. This is a very poor district for arable farming, which is not surprising when good wheat is sold for less than 30s. per qr. On the whole the crops are rather better than last year, but it is doubtful whether the farm balance sheets will show a profit. – C. W. H. Cole.

ADDENBROOKE'S HOSPITAL. 7th Aug. 1931

The annual house-to-house collection for Addenbrooke's Hospital, which has recently been made in the village under the auspices of the County Organisation Fund, realised £18 4s. 9d., £1 6s. 9d. more than in 1930. Mesdames Beaumont, Cooksey, C. Dean, F. Hemington, Misses Bessie Day and F. Gaunt were the collectors. The eight villages comprised in the Swavesey district, of which Mrs. Cooksey is the vice-president, viz., Childerley, Conington, Dry Drayton, Fen Drayton, Knapwell, Over, Swavesey and Willingham, have this year contributed £76 15s. 1d. to the hospital through the County Organisation Fund.

WEDDING. 7th Aug. 1931

The Vicar, Rev. C. E. O. Finch, officiated at the marriage at the Parish Church on Monday of Miss Evelyn May Prime, youngest daughter of Mrs. D. Prime of High-street, Swavesey, and the late Mr. David Prime, and Mr. Arthur William Baker, son of the late Mr. William Baker, of Great Abington. The bride, who was given away by her youngest brother, Mr. Stanley Prime, was charmingly attired in white silk celanese, with veil and orange blossom, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations. She was attended by five bridesmaids, Miss Mary Prime (sister of the bride) and Miss Elsie Houghton, both of whom wore dresses of peach silk and black crinoline hats, and carried bouquets of pink carnations, and by three little maids, a cousin of the bride and two nieces of the bridegroom. They wore very pretty ankle-length frocks of forget-me-not blue ray de chine, and white mob caps, and carried posies of sweet peas. Mr. J. Andrews (brother-in-law of the bridegroom) was best man. After the ceremony a reception was held at the Memorial Hall, where about forty guests were entertained. The happy couple, who were the recipients of many useful presents, will reside at Babraham.

SWAVESEY SHOW. 7th Aug. 1931

Notable Athletes and Cyclists.

HORTICULTURAL AWARDS.

An excellent programme of sports proved a very popular feature of the ninth annual show and sports arranged by the Swavesey and District Horticultural Society and Athletic Association, and held in the Manor Fields yesterday.

The uncertain weather which has been so predominant of late appeared to detract very little from the attendance in the afternoon, while in the evening there was the usual large after-tea influx of visitors.

A splendid display of colour greeted the eye on entering the large horticultural marquee, and all through the afternoon a steady stream of people surged between the tables, pausing now to admire the beauty of the roses, now to comment upon the size of some of the vegetable exhibits.

The cup given by Mr. Walter Dodson, for the best collection of vegetables, was won by F. Parrish, Over, while G. Bath won the "Amateur Gardening" medal for the best exhibit in the show.

CONTINUOUS SPORTS.

After seeing the exhibits, everybody made their way across the ground to line the large sports track, where a practically continuous programme of cycle and athletic races, which included some notable entries, was kept up from three o'clock until the dancing started in the evening.

All through the afternoon a running programme of music was kept up by loudspeaker equipment provided by Messrs. Cheesewright, of Sutton, and this also provided music for dancing.

Arrangement for both sporting and horticultural sides of the show were carried out by the officials who made such a success of last year's function, and Mr. R. C. Cole, J.P. (the President), again proved himself an enthusiastic supporter. In addition, Mrs. Cole helped materially to stimulate interest by presenting two cups, both to be won outright – one for the exhibitor with most points in the horticultural section and the other for the athletic meeting.

SWAVESEY CHURCH BELLS. 7th Aug. 1931

Garden Fete for Their Restoration.

The leaden sky and ominous clouds early on Thursday morning in last week, following the heavy down-pour of rain during the previous 24 hours, gave every promise of bad weather for the annual garden fete in the grounds of Swavesey Vicarage, but happily before the proceeding opened in the afternoon the sun was shining, and for the rest of the day the weather was on its best, or approaching its best, behaviour.

The attendance, however, was not so large as usual, visitors from neighbouring towns and villages being very few in number. This may have been due partly to the uncertain state of the weather and partly to the inadequate publicity given to the fete. Among the few visitors was the Rev. A. C. Vidler, whom his old parishioners were only too glad to welcome amongst them again. He was accompanied by his elder daughter, Miss Vidler.

OPENING CEREMONY.

In introducing Sir Frederick Hiam, the High Sheriff for the County, who performed the opening ceremony, the Vicar, Rev. C. E. O. Finch, apologised for the absence, owing to illness, of Mrs. Finch. The proceeds of that day's undertaking would, he said, be devoted to the fund which was being raised to put the Church bells in condition to be rung again, and for this a lot of money was needed. He expressed appreciation of the hard work the people of the village had put in to ensure the success of the fete, and on their behalf warmly thanked Sir Frederick for coming to help them.

Sir F. Hiam, in course of his brief speech, said that as years ago he had been in Swavesey for skating, he was not totally unacquainted with the village. He wished the fete every success, and hoped that they would very soon be able to have their bells in fit condition to be rung once more.

After Sir Frederick had declared the fete open, Jean Wood gracefully presented him with a bouquet.

In addition to stalls, side-shows, competitions, etc., the attractions included a ladies' cricket match, and two performances of a pastoral play entitled "The Capture of Spring," in which 27 school children (24 girls and three boys) took part. The children on whose training their headmaster, Mr. C. Wood, had been engaged for some weeks, were admirable, their singing especially being excellent; the dresses, designed and made by Mrs. Wood and Miss Branson, were most effective; and the setting, arranged by Mr. Wood on the tree-surrounded lower lawn was entirely appropriate. Miss Gertrude Thoday was the pianist. The two performances added £4 12s. to the day's takings.

STALLS AND SIDE-SHOWS.

The well-stocked stalls were under the charge of the following: Work stall, Mesdames Barwell, Cooke, C. Dean and Pettitt; refreshments, Mesdames Cooksey, W. Thorp, J. T. Daintree, H. H. Berryman, D. Williams, Misses Cole, G. Dodson and Ethel Garner; produce, Mesdames W. Kester and Martin; handkerchiefs, Mesdames Brown and Fraser; sweets, Misses K. Banks and Betty Day; jumble, Mesdames Meads and C. Walker; soap, Mesdames G. Burling and H. Ellwood and Miss Banks; cigarettes, Mrs. C. S. Hepher; crockery, Mesdames Harry Wells, E. J. Linford and E. J. Mitham; ice cream, Mrs. and Miss Lee; bran tub, Mrs. Cain and Miss Beaumont.

Side-shows were superintended by: Museum, Mr. D. Williams; shooting gallery, Mr. H. Prime; cricket match, Mrs. E. J. Mitham and Miss Williamson; Chinese washing, Mrs. W. J. Hephher; clock golf, Mrs. Fraser, Miss Paine and Mrs. Burleigh (winners Dr. Fraser and Victor Wilderspin).

COMPETITIONS.

The following had charge of the competitions, the names of the winners being given in brackets: Guessing weight of a dinner in basket, Mrs. Whitehead (won by Mrs. Fraser); skipping, Misses G. Hephher and Prior (Miss J. Wilderspin); weight of cake, Misses Wilderspin and Carrier (Mrs. H. Wilderspin and Mr. Lose); picking up pins, Misses Page and Wilderspin (Miss J. Smith); postcard jig-saws, Misses M. and C. Wells (Miss G. Thorp); ping pong, Mrs. G. Howlett (Mr. W. J. Hephher); animal race, Mrs. Banks and Miss Cole (Mr. F. Aldred and Miss G. Thorp tied with Mr. L. Day and Miss W. Godfrey); film titles, Mrs. H. Prime and Mrs. Jellings (Miss Page); lengths of tape, Miss J. Willson (Mrs. Cooksey); halfcrown in bucket, Misses Daisley and G. Froment; pennies on square, Mr. H. H. Berryman; kum bak, Miss Banks.

The Chatteris Band played during the afternoon, and also for dancing in the evening.

The general arrangements were in the hands of Mrs. C. F. Banks, hon. secretary of the Parochial Church Council, the Churchwardens, Messrs. C. F. Banks and Harry Wells, assisted by sidesmen, being in charge of the gate.

The net proceeds amounted to £66 4s. 1½d., about £4 less than last year, when the fete was in aid of the Church Roof Repair Fund.

MEMORIAL CROSS. 14th Aug. 1931

The large cross in the churchyard, on which the names of the men of Swavesey who died in the war are recorded, has been cleaned this week by two members of the British Legion, Messrs. F. F. Norman and J. A. Turner.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY. 14th Aug. 1931

The prizes won at the Swavesey and District Horticultural Society's Show last week were distributed at the Memorial Hall on Wednesday evening. Mr. T. Day, of Boxworth, received the handsome cup given by Mrs. R. C. Cole, wife of the President, for the competitor who gained the most points in the show.

BOXWORTH END LETTER BOX. 14th Aug. 1931

The letter posting box for which the Parish Council applied at the request of the residents at Boxworth End, has now been fixed to a telegraph pole on the main road near Rose and Crown-lane, and collections are being made on week-days by postmen at 1.15 p.m. and at 6.35 p.m. by the driver of the mail van from Cambridge. There will be no collection on Sundays. It will be remembered that when the Parish Council applied in the spring for the erection of a box, the Post Office authorities, after some delay, replied that the request could not be complied with. The Council were not satisfied with this reply, and they decided to ask Captain R. G. Briscoe, M.P., to intervene in the matter. This he did, with the result that a box was provided very speedily.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 14th Aug. 1931

Owing to the weather, the members of the Women's Institute were again unable to avail themselves of Mrs. Banks' kind invitation to her garden, at their monthly meeting on Monday. After the usual business, Mrs. C. S. Hephner presented her report of the Summer Council meeting at Cambridge, and then the Matron of the Papworth Village Settlement gave her lantern lecture, for which part of the hall had been reserved. The lecture was very interesting, and was greatly appreciated. Mrs. Berryman proposed a vote of thanks to the Matron and Mrs. Banks thanked Mr. C. Symonds for so ably manipulating his lantern. Members then proceeded to the other part of the hall for refreshments, and the sweets' competition was judged, Mrs. W. Symonds being declared the winner. The sweets were then auctioned and brought in 4s. 4d. to augment the sick fund. Musical parcels (won by Mrs. Marriott), and an enjoyable game of round tag, brought the evening to a close. Mrs. Freestone, Mrs. Froment and Miss G. Froment were the hostesses.

SWAVESEY RURAL COUNCIL. 21st Aug. 1931

Conferences Respecting Housing and Water.

NEW TREASURER.

The monthly meeting of the Swavesey Rural District Council was held at the Poor Law Institution, St. Ives, on Friday morning, there being present Mr. J. Frohock (in the chair), Messrs. Stanton, Hemington and Johnson, with the Clerk (Mr. G. D. Day).

The Clerk reported that the treasurer's balances were £590 7s. 7d. and £50 16s. (on housing).

PAYMENT OF PRECEPTS.

A letter was read from the Cambs. County Council as to payment of precepts and suggesting that they should be paid in eight instalments.

The Clerk said the suggestion was that sums of money for the rating authority under the precept be demanded in future in eight instalments. At present the Council paid in four instalments. The idea of the County Council was, of course, to get money and to get it quicker. He thought that he should reply that the R.D.C.'s arrangements had been made on the existing basis, and if there was an alteration fresh arrangements would have to be made, which would mean an increase in the rate.

It was agreed that the Clerk should write as suggested.

RURAL HOUSING.

Another letter from the County Council had reference to rural housing and the desirability of a conference between members of their committee and representatives of the Rural District Council.

The Chairman and Mr. Stanton were appointed representatives to this conference.

WATER SUPPLY.

A third letter was read from the County Council suggesting that a conference should be held in the autumn with regard to water supplies.

The Clerk said as far as Swavesey was concerned there was a water supply, but Over had none. There was an adequate supply at Lolworth, and the main went through Conington. Boxworth and Fen Drayton were not catered for so well.

The Chairman was appointed the Council's representative in this matter.

The L.N.E.R. has wrote (sic) as to a supply of water for locomotives at Swavesey, stating that it was not necessary for the pipe to go under the railway line because the pump could be placed at the south end of the level crossing.

This matter was left with Mr. A. Day, sen., one of the Swavesey representatives, to consult with the railway company's representatives.

HUMANE SLAUGHTERING.

The Swavesey Women's Institute sent a letter stressing the importance of the humane slaughtering of animals in the district.

It was pointed out that the humane killer was used in the Swavesey district, and so long as that was the case the Council thought they could not see their way to make it compulsory for reasons stated on previous occasions.

The resignation of Mr. J. M. Parker as treasurer was received and Mr. W. B. Carter was appointed his successor.

THE DISTRICT NURSE. 21st Aug. 1931

From Monday next, August 24th, the district nurse will be living at Mr. Harry Prime's house in High-street, Swavesey.

The small party of holiday makers, including two or three children with spades and pails, who had assembled on the platform of Swavesey station shortly before 8 a.m. on Wednesday, with the intention of going to Clacton by the

L.N.E.R. excursion, were greatly surprised when the train ran through the station without stopping to pick them up. Fortunately the 8.23 a.m. ordinary train to Cambridge goes on to Ipswich, so by travelling by that train and changing at Ipswich and Colchester they were able to get to Clacton about five minutes after the excursion. Some of the party saw the Graf Zeppelin on its way to London, though at the time they did not know it was the famous German airship.

INAPPROPRIATE NAMES. 21st Aug. 1931

A correspondent writes: "In the list of Secretaries of Football Clubs in last week's 'Press and News' I noticed that the address of the Swavesey Secretary was given as '5, New Town.' May I inquire whether the District Council gave this title to the group of six Council houses at Boxworth End, and, if not, who did, and on what authority? There has already been re-naming of roads in the village, presumably by irresponsible people – for instance, Station Road for Church End, and Priory Road for Dodson's Lane – and if the practice is to be extended to groups of houses built by a public authority, I venture to suggest that it is about time it was stopped. A dictionary defines a town as a collection of houses larger than a village; how, then, can six small cottages forming an integral part of a fairly large village – not separated from it – be designated a town? As regards the two roads mentioned, the second (the road from the school to Fen Drayton), it is true, leads to a modern house named 'The Priory', which was built on the site of an old farm house (Dodson's farm, I believe), whereas it is understood the ancient Swavesey Priory was situated on the north side of the church, at the extreme northern end of the village. And as to 'Station Road,' could a more commonplace name have been found. Furthermore, does not the naming of streets and roads come within the purview of the Parish Council?"

AN EXHAUSTED RACING PIGEON. 28th Aug. 1931

A blue checker racing pigeon fell exhausted in the yard at the back of the Rising Sun inn about four o'clock on Monday afternoon. Its rubber ring bore the mark F 730, and the metal ring N.U.R.P., 31 H.P.L. 73. A wing feather was stamped very indistinctly, "Hendon (?) Park, H. 8, T.D.C. -----ood (Cricklewood?) Ave., N.W." The landlord, Mr. T. C. Heasman fed and cared for the bird, and on Wednesday, when it was fit to fly again, released it at 8.30 a.m. after inserting a note under the rubber ring stating where it had been found. After flying about the village for an hour or two the bird returned to the Rising Sun, and there it remained.

THE LATE MR. J. WEBB. 28th Aug. 1931

The funeral of Mr. John Webb, whose death at the age of 77 years occurred at Highfield Farm, Swavesey, on August 16th, took place at the cemetery on Thursday week. The Rev. T. B. Field officiated, and during the service the hymn "There is a gate that stands ajar" was sung. The immediate mourners were Mr. G. Spearman, Mrs. F. Hepher (Lolworth), Mr. G. Spearman, jun., Mrs. Spearman, Mr. J. Spearman, Mrs. Lambert, Mrs. J. Froment, Misses L. and W. Spearman (nephews and nieces). The funeral arrangements were carried out by Messrs. George Mitham and Sons. Mr. John Webb was foreman at Highfield Farm for about 16 years for the late Mr. W. W. Warner and the late Mr. J. B. Ellis and subsequently occupied a similar position with the late Mr. Francis at Longstanton. He had been in failing health for the past two years, and about 19 months ago returned to Highfield Farm to reside with his nephew, Mr. G. Spearman, sen.

INAPPROPRIATE NAMES. 28th Aug. 1931

A communication in most admirable typescript has reached us from a correspondent who failed to furnish his name and address, both of which are required, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith. Our rule is to ignore anonymous communications, but as in this instance the subject appears to be of some public interest, we make an exception and publish the letter. The anonymous correspondent writes: "'Sandy Lane' begs to make the following retort to a correspondent in the 'Press and News' of the 21st inst.: Does this correspondent consider himself well cultured in mentioning in connection with the address 'New Town' the name of one individual only? Would it not have been better to have been less offensive and used the address 'New Town' collectively, rather than have this whole matter reflecting on the Football Club secretary? I have no idea what title the District Council have given to the six Council houses at Boxworth End, and would like to suggest that the responsible people have the necessary signboards affixed in the several divisions of the main road through the villages and all other roads, streets, etc. Does the average person in the village realise where Church End, High-street, Middle Watch and Boxworth End commence and finish? I might add that signboards are affixed in other villages in this district, viz.: Dry Drayton and Cottenham, and as this is a fairly large village I venture to make what would no doubt be a very welcome suggestion. It might be pointed out that neither of the blocks of Council houses erected in the past few years have been numbered. What more can one do than either number or name them themselves? Commonplace names we do not mind, but we do think it is the duty of the Parish Council to give residents in this village some idea of where they really do live. No doubt, if it is considered necessary, they will name or number the two blocks of Council houses, at their expense. Swavesey, 24th August."

WEDDING. 4th Sept. 1931

The marriage of Miss Sally Daintree, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Daintree, of Swavesey, and Mr. Reginald C. Wilderspin, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Wilderspin, of Madingley, took place at Swavesey Parish Church yesterday afternoon. The Vicar, the Rev. C. E. O. Finch, officiated. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in a dress of ivory charmeuse satin with a veil and orange blossom. She also wore a drop pearl necklace and brooch, the gift of Mrs. Harding, of Madingley Hall, and carried a bouquet of red roses. She was attended by two bridesmaids, her sister, Miss Florence Daintree, and Miss Kitty Markell, both of whom were attired in pretty dresses of green figured ninon with hats to match. They carried bouquets of coffee coloured roses. Mr. E. L. V. Mapey, of Shelford, was best man. After the ceremony a reception was held at the Memorial Hall, and later the happy couple left by car for Bournemouth, where the honeymoon is being spent.

INAPPROPRIATE NAMES. 4th Sept. 1931

"The only part of 'Sandy Lane's' retort to my communication headed 'Inappropriate Names' in the 'Press and News' of August 21st, with which I am immediately concerned," writes C.R.V., "is his suggestion that I was lacking in culture in mentioning in connection with the address 'New Town' the name of one individual only. The first and only intimation I had had that this group of Council houses had been named 'New Town' was in the list of Secretaries of Football Clubs published in the previous week's issue of the 'Press and News.' I was careful to avoid saying anything that would suggest that the F.C. Secretary, whose name I did not mention, was in any way responsible for naming the houses. In fact, if what I have been told is correct, quite another individual was the author of the inappropriate title. The District Councillors, I venture to think, ought to give each group of houses erected under their auspices a distinctive name. We have Council houses all over the County. Why label them as such? Are there no old names in Swavesey that could be perpetuated. As regards the rest of 'Sandy Lane's' letter, the Parish Council will no doubt take his suggestions into consideration at their next meeting. In the meantime will someone kindly divulge where in the parish of Swavesey Sandy Lane is to be found, or is it a new name for an old road or street?"

TELEPHONE. 11th Sept. 1931

It may be of interest to some of our Swavesey and Over readers to know that a telephone has been installed at the house of the police constable in Church End, Swavesey.

NEEDLEWORK. 18th Sept. 1931

In connection with the needlework competition organised by Horrockses, four children, Hilda Walker, Lucy Mitham, Joan Wilderspin and Avery Wagstaffe, obtained cash prizes.

BILLIARDS LEAGUE. 18th Sept. 1931

The annual meeting of the Swavesey and District Billiards League was held in the Memorial Hall, Swavesey, when only a few representatives were present. It was decided to continue the League on the same lines as before. Five different teams have now signified their intention of competing in the League, three of them running "A" and "B" teams, and fixtures will shortly be arranged for the coming winter. The hon. treasurer reported a favourable balance in hand, larger than the preceding year, which was considered very satisfactory.

WEDDING. 18th Sept. 1931

The wedding took place at Welwyn, Herts., on Saturday, of Gladys Lilian Knight, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Knight, and Thomas Daintree, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Daintree, of Swavesey. The bride, who was given away by her brother (Mr. V. J. Knight) wore a dress of powder blue georgette and a beige hat. She was attended by one bridesmaid (Miss Joyce Sibley, of Wimbledon, who wore apricot georgette and a black hat) and a page, Master Philip Knight. Mr. B. Daintree was best man. A reception was held at the bride's home, and the honeymoon is being spent at Eastbourne.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 18th Sept. 1931

There was a large attendance of members on Monday evening, when the President was in the chair. Two delegates were chosen to attend the programme conference in Cambridge next week. It was also decided to run a social towards the end of October for W.I. funds. The ever useful garden notes from Mr. Paskett were read by the secretary. After the business, the President spoke in a few well-chosen words of her departure from the village, which all members were very sorry to hear. Mrs. Aldred (vice-president) then presented Mrs. Fraser with a blouse case, handbag and small album, containing the names of subscribers, as a small token of the appreciation of her services to the Institute. She will be greatly missed, both because of her genial manner and her great willingness to help in all ways, both great and small. A lantern lecture showing the intricacies of the London Underground, was much enjoyed, for which members were indebted to Mr. U. Thixton and Mr. C. Symonds for kindly lending and working his lantern. Mrs. Marriott proposed a hearty vote of thanks to these two gentlemen, and was supported by Mrs. Laverack. Tea was then served by the usual competent ladies, assisted by Miss D. Godfrey, Miss G. Hephher and Mrs. C. S. Hephher. Much amusement and originality was brought forth by "A child's funny sayings," and the game competition – jumbled villages – was won by Miss Cole.

PARISH CHURCH. 25th Sept. 1931

It is announced that the Right Rev. Bishop Price (Archdeacon of Ely) will preach at evensong at the parish church on Sunday.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP. 25th Sept. 1931

The inaugural meeting of the 1931-32 session of the Young People's Fellowship took place on Monday, when the Rev. E. P. Blackaby, of Willingham, gave an interesting lecture upon "Animal friendship." The Rev. T. B. Field presided. Thanks were accorded to the speaker, on the motion of Messrs. Pontefract and G. Day. The speaker next Monday is Mr. Field, whose subject will be "Wanted, a man."

ADDENBROOKE'S CONTRIBUTORY SCHEME. 25th Sept. 1931

The interest shown in the contributory scheme for Addenbrooke's Hospital was apparent when Major Wallington addressed a crowded audience at the Memorial Hall. The Vicar (the Rev. C. E. O. Finch) occupied the chair. Major Wallington, in his opening remarks, thanked the people of Swavesey for their magnificent response to the appeal for the Building Fund, when £170 was asked for, but in less than 12 months over £200 was subscribed. The Hospital authorities, he said, much appreciated the effort. He then thoroughly explained the rules of the new scheme in detail, pointing out that everyone could join, and that with a minimum of 2d. a week any amount could be contributed, either weekly, monthly or yearly, payments to be in advance. Several questions were put to the speaker and answered. On the proposition of Mr. C. Savage, seconded by Mr. A. P. Payne, it was agreed that Mr. H. W. Whitehead should be hon. secretary. The following were then elected to serve upon the committee: Messrs. John Parish, A. Turner, H. Unwin, Rev. C. E. O. Finch, Miss Banks, Mrs. T. Savage, Mrs. W. Thorp, Messrs. E. J. Mitham, F. Hephher, F. Prior, S. F. Mitham, and H. H. Berryman. The meeting closed with a vote of thanks to Major Wallington. The committee are rapidly completing the necessary arrangements to ensure the smooth running of the scheme, and have arranged to canvas the whole village, explaining the details at each house, leaving contribution cards, and instructing each household where contributions may be paid. The following members of the committee have agreed to receive contributions at their own homes: Mrs. T. Savage, Mr. W. Thorp, Messrs. A. Turner, F. Prior, H. H. Berryman, H. Unwin, J. Parish and E. J. Mitham. The committee have chosen the Vicar to be their chairman and Mr. S. Mitham to act as treasurer.

THE CHURCH BELLS. 25th Sept. 1931

We have received the following letters respecting the bells of Swavesey parish church: - "Sir, I think it is high time that the attention of Swavesey people was drawn to the question of the church bells, concerning the repairing of which a perfunctory notice has appeared in the Parish Magazine. It is, perhaps, not generally known that when asked for particulars of the meeting a member of the Church Council evasively replied that 'he wasn't at liberty to say,' yet this same person found the atmosphere of the hairdresser's shop in a neighbouring village so congenial that Over people were given full particulars. Unfortunately, Swavesey people were present. Now, sir, the facts are these. A meeting of the Church Council was held, and it was decided that Messrs. Taylor, of Loughborough, should be given the contract. Unfortunately, this resolution did not fall in with the preconceived notions of certain members of the Council, one of whom stated that he would resign if Messrs. Taylor were given the contract, and a second meeting was held. At this meeting the contract was given to Messrs. Gillett and Johnston, of Croydon. Messrs. Taylor, it may be mentioned, said there was no necessity to remove the bells; Messrs. Gillett and Johnston say it is essential that the bells should be removed to a foundry. If the bells only need re-hanging, why take them to the foundry? Does the Council imagine that they will return with the same lovely tone as that with which they went? Why was not the opinion of the ringers asked before a meeting was held? How many of the Council know anything about bells or bell-ringing? Assuming that the church people will be asked to pay for the bells, why was not their opinion anent the removing of the bells invited? Finally, to add insult to injury, a councillor asked a villager the question: 'If we have the bells done, is there anyone in Swavesey who can ring them?'

Yours, etc., Lucilius."

ADDENBROOKE'S HOSPITAL. 2nd Oct. 1931

Dr. Hart, who has taken over Dr. Fraser's practice this week, and Mrs. W. D. Isgrove, of High-street, have been added to the local Hospital Contributory Scheme Committee. Mrs. Isgrove has consented to receive contributions in her district.

WANTED, A MAN. 2nd Oct. 1931

At the meeting of the Bethel Young People's Fellowship on Monday, the Rev. T. B. Field gave an interesting lecture on "Wanted, a Man," for which, on the proposition of Mr. Pontefract, seconded by Mr. W. Chapman, he was accorded a hearty vote of thanks. The chair was occupied by Miss Savage.

THE CHURCH BELLS. 2nd Oct. 1931

We have received the following further letter respecting the bells of the parish church: "Sir, - Might I through the medium of your excellent paper heartily thank 'Lucilius' for his enlightening letter? He, at least, has the courage of his convictions. If, however, he thinks that he can rouse Swavesey people up to take any action, I am afraid he is doomed to disappointment. The amount of talk going on is enormous, but what action is forthcoming? Is the village afraid of its own Church Council? Wake up, Swavesey, and do something. Don't wait until the bells have been removed under your nose. - Yours, etc., Ichabod."

BRITISH LEGION. 2nd Oct. 1931

The annual dinner of the Swavesey and District branch of the British Legion, which was held in the Memorial Hall on Saturday, was a very happy and successful function, the company including visitors numbering about fifty. Mr. R. Barwell, chairman of the branch, presided in the absence of the President (Mr. W. A. Bignell), from whom a letter was received regretting his inability to be present. After full justice had been done to the excellent repast provided by Mr. T. C. Heasman, and the toast of "The King" had been duly honoured, the remainder of the evening was devoted to music and social enjoyment. The programme included songs by Messrs. P. Lee, H. G. Topham, R. Scambler, E. Smith, R. Barwell, G. Prior, W. J. Hepher, G. Holmes and J. Townsend, war-time yarns by Mr. W. Nicholls and war-time choruses. During an interval the Chairman, in course of a brief speech, referred to the approaching departure from Swavesey of Dr. Fraser (vice-president), and spoke in terms of warm appreciation of his many services to the branch, and he asked him to accept a cigarette cabinet as a farewell gift from the members. Mr. H. H. Berryman (hon. secretary) added his tribute of appreciation. Dr. Fraser, after thanking the members for their gift, which, he said, he should greatly value, gave various reminiscences of his experiences during the war. The proceedings concluded with a vote of thanks to Mr. Heasman and his assistants, the visitors who had contributed to the entertainment, the accompanist (Mr. Raymond Thoday), and to Mr. Lee for arranging the programme.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP. 9th Oct. 1931

At the meeting of the Young People's Fellowship connected with Bethel Baptist Church on Monday, Miss Easter read an interesting paper on "The gifts which all Christians possess and the need for utilising them to the utmost." She was accorded a hearty vote of thanks on the proposition of Miss Savage and Mr. Day. Rev. T. B. Field presided. Next Monday the Rev. G. Bird will be the speaker.

PARISH CHURCH. 9th Oct. 1931

The harvest festival at the parish church on Thursday week opened with a celebration of Holy Communion at 7.30 a.m. There was a large congregation at evensong, when the music included the Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis (Clare) and the anthem "Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem" (Maunder). The Vicar preached. The church was beautifully decorated by ladies of the congregation with flowers, corn, etc., which, with the gifts of fruit and produce, were subsequently sent to Addenbrooke's Hospital. On Sunday, when the festival was continued, there was a children's flower service in the afternoon, the young people's contributions of flowers, fruit, eggs, etc., being forwarded, as usual, to St. Ives Infirmary. A large congregation attended evensong, when the pulpit was again occupied by the Vicar, and Thursday evening's music was repeated. The collections on Thursday and on Sunday morning and afternoon were for Addenbrooke's Hospital. They amounted to £6 6s. 6d., sixpence more than last year. On Sunday evening the offertory was devoted to church maintenance.

SWAVESEY R.D. COUNCIL. 16th Oct. 1931

Water Supply Questions Considered.

The monthly meeting of the Swavesey Rural District Council was held at St. Ives on Friday morning, there being present: Mr. J. Frohock (chairman), Messrs. A. Day and Stanton, with the clerk, Mr. G. D. Day.

The Clerk stated that the treasurer's balances were: General account £768 11s. 5d., housing account £79 8s. 7d., rating account £273 0s. 1d.

SWAVESEY WATER MAIN.

The Clerk said he had an interview with Mr. Day with regard to laying the water main at Swavesey, which was a special charge to the parish. The Swavesey representative thought that it was necessary to carry the main under the railway line, as previously arranged. He (the clerk) therefore wrote to the Railway Company accepting the terms, and saying that the Council would be responsible for the expense of supervising the work, and to the Insurance company informing them of the fact that labourer would be required temporarily.

Mr. Day said that the water main had been connected up and the company were ready to go under the line. A point the Council would have to consider was the desirability of extending the main up to those people who had made application for it.

The Clerk: You are perfectly entitled to extend it as far as you like. It is a matter which concerns Swavesey parish. If the Swavesey representatives think the expense justifiable they are perfectly entitled to continue the main into the parish.

The question of further extension of the main was deferred until the next meeting.

A SWAVESEY DITCH.

Mr. C. F. Banks, of Swavesey, wrote to the Council with respect to the parish ditch, which separated Mr. Barwell's property from the Council field and his (Mr. Banks') grass land. He stated that the ditch had been cleaned out as far as Mr. Barwell's boundary, and asked for the work to be continued for another 200 yards to clear the sewerage, as at present the mud was above the outlet.

The Surveyor (Mr. Haggart) said it was the duty of the Council to clear out the ditch. They had cleaned it out before.

The Clerk was instructed to write to say that the matter would be dealt with as soon as practicable.

The Accounting Officer (Mr. B. Mason) presented a statement showing the amount of rent and rates payable by tenants of Council houses in the various parishes for the ensuing six months. The statement was as follows: Conington, rate portion 3s. 1d., amount payable monthly £1 2s. 7d.; Swavesey (Boxworth End), 3s. 2d. and £1 4s. 10d.; Swavesey (School-lane) two houses 5s. 1d. and £1 17s. 7d., four houses 5s. 1d. and £1 19s. 9d., two houses, 5s. 1d. and £2 1s. 11d.; Over, 5s. 7d. and £2 0s. 3d.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY. 16th Oct. 1931

Bethel Schoolroom was crowded on Monday evening for the meeting of the Young People's Society, when the Rev. G. E. Bird, of Over, gave an interesting address on "Certainties" illustrated by the life of Faraday. Thanks were accorded to the speaker on the motion of Mr. G. E. Canham, seconded by Mrs. Savage. The Rev. T. B. Field occupied the chair. Mr. Batstone, of Histon, is expected next week.

THE ART OF RECITING. 16th Oct. 1931

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held on Monday, Mrs. Aldred (vice-president) in the chair. After the usual business an interesting talk on "The art of reciting" was given by Mrs. Jackson, L.C.M., for which she was accorded a vote of thanks, on the proposition of Mrs. C. S. Hepher, seconded by Miss Cole. Mrs. Jackson also judged the competition for the best plate of bread and butter, awarding the prize to Miss Cole. Miss K. Banks was in charge of the stall, which did fairly good business. Nominations were taken for the new committee for 1932, and a round table conference was formed to discuss items for next year's programme. The meeting concluded with community singing, in preparation for the coming contest. Mrs. Peter, Miss G. Hepher and Mrs. G. Howlett were the hostesses.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 16th Oct. 1931

Good congregations were present at the harvest thanksgiving services which were held at Bethel Baptist Church on Thursday in last week. The special preacher was the Rev. W. Lomax Mackenzie, of Trinity Church, Huntingdon, whose address in the afternoon was based on the miracle of the loaves and in the evening on the text, "Sow them among the nations" (Zachariah x., 9). The chapel was nicely decorated, although, owing to the general shortage, the contributions of flowers, fruit and vegetables were not as large as in previous years. The public tea between the services was well attended. The services on Sunday also had special reference to the harvest. The collections throughout the festival were devoted to church funds, the gifts of fruit, vegetables, etc., being subsequently sent to Addenbrooke's Hospital.

PARISH CHURCH. 16th Oct. 1931

Recent efforts to improve the efficiency of the Sunday School received a strong impetus from the visit, during the week-end, of the Rev. J. D. Stewart, director of religious education in the Diocese of Ely. He conducted a devotional afternoon for Sunday School teachers on Saturday in the church, his addresses being based on the life of vocation to which St. Paul was called, with its example and inspiration for those who give their service in the Sunday School. There followed in the evening a talk and discussion on children's worship, and ways of leading the little ones to make their religion a real part of their life. Several visitors from Over and Boxworth availed themselves of the opportunity of re-dedicating and increasing the value of their work amongst young people. Mr. Stewart watched the classes of the Sunday School at work at 9.45 on Sunday morning, and has made valuable suggestions. His sermon in the evening was preached from the text, "A threefold cord is not quickly broken," and he stressed, in particular, the need of parents, teachers and children working together in regard to religious development.

WEDDING. 23rd Oct. 1931

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Josephine Enfield Carrier, daughter of Mr. Josiah Carrier, and Mr. Alfred George Prime, son of the late Mr. David Prime, took place at Swavesey parish church on Saturday afternoon, the Vicar (Rev. C. E. O. Finch) officiating. The bride was given away by her father. Her pretty dress of ivory petal crepe de chine was trimmed with orange blossom, and she wore a veil and wreath and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. She was attended by two bridesmaids, her sister, Miss Violet Carrier, and Miss Mary Prime (sister of the bridegroom), both of whom were attired in bronze satin, with hats to match, and carried bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums. They also wore bronze necklaces, the gift of the bridegroom. Mr. Stanley Prime (brother of the bridegroom) was best man. The presents were numerous and useful, the bride's gift to the bridegroom being a gold albert, and the bridegroom's to the bride a gold expanding wristlet watch. The happy couple are spending their honeymoon at Pinner, Middlesex.

PARISH COUNCIL. 23rd Oct. 1931

The quarterly meeting of the Parish Council was held at the Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening, when there were present: Mr. C. H. Parish (chairman), Messrs. W. Burton, F. Hepher, P. Parish, A. P. Payne and C. Savage, with the clerk (Mr. Prime Godfrey). Arising out of the minutes, Mr. Burton reported that the special committee appointed to arrange for the repair of the footbridge leading from Market-street to Church Green had received tenders for the work from Messrs. R. Mitham and Sons (£5 17s. 6d.) and from Messrs. George Mitham and Sons (£3 14s. 6d.). The committee accepted Messrs. G. Mitham and Sons' tender, and the work had been done satisfactorily. With regard to the letter posting box at Boxworth End, the erection of which was due to the kindly intervention, at the request of the Parish Council, of Capt. Briscoe, it was stated that the box provided by the Post Office authorities was not large enough to take with safety the numbers of letters frequently posted there. The application for a stamp machine had been refused, but a licence to sell stamps had been granted to Mr. Crouch. A letter was read by the clerk from Mr. H.

A. E. Wright, of "Madeline," Ramsgate-road, Broadstairs, stating that his father, Mr. Alfred Jonas (Fred) Wright, before his death last January expressed his wish that a permanent memorial of his parents, the late William and Mary Wright, both natives of, and life-long residents in, Swavesey, should be placed somewhere in the village, and he had suggested that it should take the form of a public seat. He (Mr. H. E. Wright) asked that if the proposal met with approval, the Council should select a suitable site for the seat. On the motion of Mr. Payne, seconded by Mr. F. Hepher, it was agreed that Mr. Wright should be informed that in the opinion of the Council a suitable place for the seat would be on the grass verge of the high road between the church bridge and the swan pond, but that the sanction of the County Council would have to be obtained. The only other business was the appointment of Mr. William B. Carter, of Lloyds Bank, St. Ives, as treasurer of the Council, in succession to Mr. J. M. Parker, who had resigned.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHAPEL. 30th Oct. 1931

Miss Savage (vice-president) occupied the chair.

HOCKEY PLAYER HONOURED. 6th Nov. 1931

Swavesey hockey players will be interested to learn that at the Kent County women's hockey trial, played at Folkestone last Saturday, Miss Marjorie Scard was again chosen to represent East Kent at left wing, the position she filled last year. Tea, coffee and biscuits were served during the interval. There was a good attendance, the room being quite full.

STACK FIRE. 6th Nov. 1931

Another mysterious fire took place in the parish of Swavesey during Saturday night. About midnight a cyclist returning home along the Fen Drayton-Swavesey-road noticed that an isolated stack belonging to Mr. A. L. Parish was alight. He immediately gave the alarm, but as no water was available nothing could be done to subdue the outbreak, and the whole of the stack, which contained about 10 tons of new hay, was destroyed. The stack, it is understood, was insured.

AGRICULTURAL DISCUSSION SOCIETY. 6th Nov. 1931

The winter session of the Swavesey and District Agricultural Society should have been opened last Friday evening, with a lecture by Mr. J. A. McMillan (county agricultural organiser) on the use of home-grown foods. MISSION WORK IN CHINA. 4th Dec. 1931

A lantern lecture was given on Thursday week by Miss Townsend, who for the last thirty-two years has been working in China with the Church of England Zenana Mission. The Schoolroom was well filled, and her account of the Mission's work amongst the women of the province of Fukien, where she had been stationed, was listened to with the greatest attention. The slides showed some beautiful scenery, the enjoyment of which, alas, must be spoilt by the ever-present possibility of bandit. Of particular interest was a picture of "the bird's nest," the Mission orphanage for little girls who have been abandoned by their parents and left to die, an occurrence sadly common in China. Miss Townsend hopes to return next February, though her old school at Dong Kau is now in the hands of bandits. The lantern was kindly lent for the occasion by Mr. Symonds, of Over.

The social evening which was held in the Memorial Hall on Saturday, with the object of raising money to provide matting for the billiard room proved a great success. Songs were contributed by Miss Y. Lee, Miss J. Lee, Miss I. Holmes and Mrs. Bishop, all of which were received with great applause. Other popular items were the sketches, "The Lost Ticket" by Miss Lucy Key, and "Our Herbert's in the River" by Miss Q. Spolton and Mr. Stanley Prime, both being admirably acted. Messrs. S. Prime and A. Kester also caused much fun when they appeared as Orientals (latest type). Miss Q. Spolton (piano), Mr. Sutton (violin) and Mr. H. Unwin (drums) provided music for dancing. Mrs. W. Kester had charge of the excellent refreshments, and Messrs. A. E. W. Melbourne and A. Garner were efficient M.C.'s. Mr. P. Lee (treasurer) submitted the balance sheet, which showed a small sum in hand, and the secretary (Mr. H. H. Berryman) presented his annual report, in course of which he stated that ten new members had been enrolled, and four had left the district. The members were congratulated, he said, on the way in which they had turned out for the rallies and dedication of standards in the county. No claims for relief had been received during the twelve months, but two cases of sickness had been helped. Both the balance sheet and the report were adopted, and a hearty vote of thanks were accorded the treasurer and secretary. The following officers were elected for the ensuing twelve months: President, Dr. Hart; vice-presidents (subject to their consent), Rev. A. F. Royston and Mr. Stinton (Swavesey); chairman, Mr. R. FILM DISPLAY. 11th Dec. 1931

The meeting of the Band of Hope, in conjunction with the local branch of the B.W.T.A., was held in Bethel Baptist Church on Thursday week, when a good audience assembled to welcome Mr. and Mrs. David Moore, and their programme of moving pictures. After the Rev. T. B. Field had offered a hearty welcome to the visitors, the audience followed with deep interest the story which suggested the picture of "Hope," by Geo. Frederick Watts. Mrs. Moore showed a picture of Mammon, and deplored the fact that the gambling spirit was so rife in the land. She appealed for purer motives in getting of money, and pleaded for the removal of all stumbling blocks from the pathway of the child, the hope of the race. A scientific film of great educational value was described by Mr. David Moore. This showed the narcotic effect of alcohol, and how, in the words of Professor Sir German Sims Woodhead, to whose memory the film was shown, "a man cannot do his best if he takes alcohol." The pictures of the Skegness excursion gave great delight, as many members of the audience saw themselves on the screen. Pictures were also shown of beautiful Cornwall, a garden party in Christ's College, and the colleges in their winter mantle of snow. The Rev. T. B. Field, in thanking the visitors, said that owing to his pending removal to Crewe, it would be the last time he should preside for Mr. and Mrs. Moore, but he wished them God-speed in the splendid work they were doing. The local arrangements were carried out by Mr. Pontefract.

SALE OF WORK, ETC. 11th Dec. 1931

The sale of work which was held in the Memorial Hall on Thursday week, in aid of the fund for the repair of the bells of the parish church, was a great success. The Vicar, in course of a short introductory address, explained the object of the fund for which the sale was organised, and he asked all present to tell their friends that the bells need not go away unless the people really wished it, but both firms who had been in the running for the repairs spoke of the much better facilities for doing the work at their foundries at less expense, than bringing the necessary machinery to the church. The Vicar also stated that the reason the estimate of one firm was being entertained by the Church Council was because it was much below that of the other firm, and he had every reason to believe they would do their work well. He thanked the many helpers for their work, and then introduced Mrs. Cane, of Willingham, who, in a happy little speech, declared the sale open. Business then was quite brisk at the many stalls. The Rural Dean was among the visitors, and his presence was much appreciated. The hall had been tastefully decorated.

Froment, Whybrow and Miss Lee; the second "Our Herbert" (by request), was again ably performed by Miss Q. Spolton and Mr. Stanley Prime. Latest songs were sung by Mrs. H. Bishop, Misses Lee and Miss Renie Holmes; an old-time song by Mr. James Prior, who was accorded a great ovation, and humorous songs by Messrs. W. J. Hepher and P. Lee. The music was supplied by the new orchestra, those taking part being Mrs. Budge, Miss Spolton and Mr. "Bobbie" Adams (pianists), Messrs. J. Sutton and A. Anderson (violinists) and Mr. Harry Unwin (jazz band operator). A vote of thanks was given Miss Spolton for so kindly leaving the beautiful decorations up from the previous social, the artists, Mrs. Berryman and assistants for the refreshments, and for all others who helped to make the evening such a success. Mr. Barwell also gave an address on the good work of the British Legion. The total receipts were £5 4s., which amount will be added to the funds of the branch.

THE CHURCH BELLS. 8th Jan. 1932

The following letter, dated 15th November, has reached the “Press and News” from Edward Williams, who prior to his leaving England for Australia nearly two years ago was clerk and sexton at Swavesey Parish Church, an office held previously by his father and other members of his family without a break for upwards of 100 years: “I have read with interest several letters that have appeared in your columns respecting the bells of Swavesey Church. I do not want to pass any remark on them, except that I hope the Parochial Church Council will not make the grave error of having them recast. But I must reply to a remark made about the ringing of them, referred to in your edition of 25th of September, 1931. ‘Lucilius,’ writing about a conversation says: ‘A councillor (I presume he means a church councillor) asked if the bells are rehung is there anybody in Swavesey who can ring them?’ As far as I am aware no one has answered the question, but I can say that at the time ‘Lucilius’ wrote his letter there was not a team of ringers living in Swavesey who could ring a full peal of 720 changes. Although that is the case, it must not be thought that the Swavesey youths have not the intelligence; or that they are not willing to learn; or that there is no one in the village who could and would teach them; but the condition of the bells has been so bad, that it has not only been a physical strain on the ringer, but very dangerous. Very few full peals have been rung on the bells for the past 20 years, but that is not to say the spirit is dead. Ringers from neighbouring villages have in times past been glad to go to Swavesey for instructions, and they have gone away and developed the art planted by the Swavesey ringers. Nor does it stop in the near surroundings, for I am 13,000 miles away and I have done my best to arouse interest in the art of campanology with a set of handbells I brought with me. Perhaps the despondent enquirer would be glad to know that there is a team of men in Rockhampton, Queensland, who can now ring half a peal on right hand bells, not one of whom four months previous to my writing this letter had ever seen a handbell or had any idea of ringing.” Mr. Williams is now in training for Holy Orders at St. Francis College, Nundah, Brisbane.

THE CHURCH BELLS. 15th Jan. 1932

Mr. Dennis Williams, clerk and sexton at Swavesey Parish Church, has received the following interesting letter from the Rev. A. C. Vidler, who was vicar of Swavesey from 1895 to 1912, and rural dean of North Stowe 1908-12: "I read with much interest your brother Edward's letter about the Swavesey bells, which appeared in the 'Cambridge Independent Press' last Friday, and I can remember the time when a peal of 720 changes was rung before the six o'clock service on Christmas morning. Your father was then the leader of the ringers, and they always rang a peal both at Christmas and Easter before the service at 6 a.m. – always trying for the 720 changes, and often succeeding. Your father used to milk his cows, go home to change and get to church by five o'clock. There are not many records which exceed this, I imagine, for enthusiasm about bell ringing."

MODERN WAYS IN AFRICA. 15th Jan. 1932

The 60th annual missionary tea in aid of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts took place in the School on Wednesday evening. Peckham, F.R.A.S., F.Z.S., who gave a lantern lecture on "Modern ways in Africa and elsewhere." He contrasted the work of missions to-day with that of thirty years ago and earlier, and by means of slides showed what was being achieved in mission hospitals, schools and churches. An enthusiastic lecturer, Mr. Peckham aroused the interest of his audience; he emphasised the many privileges English churchmen possessed, and urged all to be unselfish and to assist Christian missions abroad by their prayers and increased personal effort. The collection taken during the evening, and the contents of the missionary boxes amounted to £3 8s. 4½d.

CAMBRIDGE FIRM'S PROSECUTIONS. 22nd Jan. 1932

Conviction and Dismissal.

Two men, formerly employed by Messrs. J. A. Sturton, Ltd., wholesale grocers, of Cambridge, appeared at the Borough Police Court on Friday on charges relating to the unauthorised despatch of 17s. worth of bacon from the firm's premises.

The defendants were F. P., Albion House, Swavesey, who was charged with stealing the bacon while in the employ of the firm, and A. B. C., Russell-street, Cambridge, formerly a traveller for Sturton's who was charged with receiving the bacon, knowing it to have been stolen.

The Bench – with the Mayor (Ald. W. L. Raynes) presiding – took the cases together.

P. elected to be dealt with summarily and pleaded guilty.

DIRECTOR'S EVIDENCE.

Charles Bond, a director of the firm of J. A. Sturton, Ltd., said defendant had been employed as a warehouse hand by the firm up to Saturday, January 2nd.

As a result of a communication made to him by another director, he called for a search of the books of the firm. It was discovered that there was no entry relating to the parcel produced.

Witness interviewed a driver named Skipp, and then interviewed defendant. At first he would not answer any questions, and then he said he believed the parcel contained a coat or apron belonging to Mr. C., who was leaving their employ.

Witness visited the house of C., where he saw the parcel and the contents produced, and took possession of it.

Alfred Lionel Skipp, van driver, Mawson-road, Cambridge, said he loaded his van at the firm's premises with parcels, including one given him by defendant for delivery to Mr. C. at Russell-street.

P.C. Davidson spoke to visiting P. at Swavesey and inquiring about some bacon which had been delivered to C. Defendant asked, "Are they going to make a case of it?" On being told that the matter had been reported to the police, P. said "I will tell you."

Witness then read a statement, in which defendant explained that he knew C. as a traveller for Messrs. Sturton, who was under notice to leave. On December 31st, while he (P.) was in the warehouse, C. came in. He (defendant) expressed the hope that he would soon get another job and would not starve. C. then said “What about a bit of bacon?” P. replied, “I will see what I can do.”

CASE AGAINST TRAVELLER.

He went to the provision department and took pieces of gammon and back bacon, put them in a carton and addressed them to C. “I received nothing from C. for this parcel,” added P., “and I made no arrangement for any money for same. I did it to do him a good turn.”

Defendant added in court that he was very sorry for what he had done.

The Court then heard the case against C., for whom Mr. Henderson (Messrs. Taylor, Garrard and Henderson) appeared, and pleaded not guilty.

Evidence was given by Joseph Colin Sturton, managing director, who said that on Saturday, January 2nd, he went in company with Mr. Bond, to the house of C. C. had been employed by the firm as a traveller and had left their employ that day.

C. answered the door, and witness said: “Mr. C., a parcel has been left at your house, without a trace of any entry, and I should be glad if you will tell me what it contained.”

C. took him in the house and witness asked him to produce it. He opened it in his presence, and it contained two pieces of bacon. Witness asked him if he had packed it himself, and he said “No, but P. said he was sending me a parcel.”

Defendant said, “I hope you won’t prosecute me, as it makes me a receiver.”

Mr. H. E. F. Pateman (on the Bench): How long had C. been in your employ? – About seven or eight years.

Mr. Few: Was he leaving through redundancy? – The directors decided they had no further use for his services.

In answer to Mr. Henderson, witness said that when he saw it the parcel was unopened. Two parcels were sent out that day without invoices.

“MISCONSTRUED MY WORDS.”

P.C. Davidson said that when he interviewed C. on January 6th defendant described P.’s statement as “not quite right,” and asked, “Are they going to make a case of it?” Witness told him that he would be proceeded against, whereupon defendant made a statement. He described how Mr. Colin Sturton asked him to open a parcel in his presence, and whether he had asked P. to send it. He (defendant) answered “No,” but, since recollecting the affair, remembered their conversation. When P. and he were talking, there were other persons within hearing. He thought he passed the remark to P., “I hope I won’t starve,” and P. laughed it off. Until Mr. Sturton asked for the parcel he (defendant) forgot about the incident.

In the witness-box, C. said that on January 1st he went to King's Lynn for the firm and returned next day. His wife told him that a parcel had been left, but as he had been busy with the accounts he took no notice. Later he asked the lorry driver about the parcel, which he had at no time ordered. Nothing was said about bacon, and witness's remark was: "Nothing will see me starve." He had sufficient confidence in himself to get a job, and, subject to the decision of the court, he would get another job.

In reply to the Chief Constable, defendant said the conversation at the warehouse was "purely business." He denied making any reference to bacon. P. misconstrued the meaning of his words.

BENCH'S DECISION.

After a retirement, the Mayor announced, in the case of P., that there were no previous convictions, and defendant would be dealt with relatively leniently. He would be bound over for twelve months in the sum of £10, with one surety of £10.

Mr. Sturton, remarking that he bore neither of the defendants ill-will, undertook to become surety for P., though he could not take him back into his employ.

Addressing C., the Mayor said; "The Court have paid every attention to the evidence which has been put forward, and the circumstances connected with this case are full of suspicion. As there is a certain conflict of evidence, and the rule is that if we are not absolutely satisfied as to the evidence of guilt, you have the benefit of the doubt, therefore the case will be dismissed. Let it be a serious warning."

The following were nominated as fit and proper persons to hold the office of Parish Constable during the ensuing twelve months: Messrs. C. J. Shepperson (the present constable), B. Hodson, G. Burling and C. Eason. The Clerk read a letter from the County Council stating that no objection would be raised to the erection of a suitable seat by Mr. Wright on the grass verge of the high road opposite Church Green, provided the site was approved by the County Surveyor and subject to certain conditions. The Clerk was instructed to communicate with Mr. Wright in the matter. After the Clerk had been authorised to pay all salaries, etc., due for the year ending 31st March, the Chairman said he had been asked by parishioners to bring the question of the withdrawal of a resident police constable from the village before the Council. In the subsequent discussion, several Councillors spoke of the inconvenience caused by the absence of a constable, and reference was made to the possible dangers that might result and to numerous lightless bicycles ridden about the streets after dark. It was decided that a letter should be sent to the Chief Constable urging the necessity for a resident constable in the village. With regard to the Church Army Van, which has been standing on the Recreation Ground since the beginning of last week, the Chairman said the Vicar had seen him in the matter, and he had told the Vicar that he (the Chairman) could not give the necessary permission, but that he would bring the matter before the Council. Unfortunately, the meeting of the Council could not be held as soon as he had expected. In the circumstances the Council agreed to allow the van to remain on the Recreation Ground for the remainder of this week. The presentation was made by the Vicar, who in a few well chosen words expressed the regret of all at Miss Scott's leaving, and in handing to her the present, a beautiful clock with Westminster chimes, hoped it would remind her of her days at Swavesey. Miss Scott, in reply, thanked all for the present, and said how happy she had been at the school. The headmaster (Mr. C. Wood) expressed his regret at Miss Scott's leaving, thanked her for the work she had done, and wished her success in her new sphere. SWAVESEY R.D. COUNCIL. 4th March 1932

Rearrangement of Districts.

The monthly meeting of the Swavesey Rural District Council was held at St. Ives on Friday. Mr. J. Frohock was in the chair, and there were also present: Messrs. F. Kirby, Hemington, Stanton, Johnson, Day, Norman, and Scambler, with the Clerk (Mr. G. D. Day).

The Council first discussed Boxworth water supply.

THE COUNCIL'S "FINALE."

With regard to the proposed absorption of districts, the Clerk reported the receipt of a letter from the County Council stating that when a change was made in the nature of absorption of the Swavesey Council it would not come into effect until April 1st next year. The County Council had also written respecting the review of county districts, the Clerk stating that the Ministry of Health appeared to have now decided to confirm the absorption, which would come into effect next year. The Swavesey district would go partly into Chesterton and partly into Caxton districts. He had received formal notice of this, but the Council would have a little “breathing space” before the change was made.

RAIL v. ROAD.

A circular letter from the L. and N.E. Railway Company, together with a copy of a statement submitted to the Ministry of Transport, asking for action to be taken to balance fairly the trade between motor transport and the railway, was explained by the Clerk. He said the railway companies were hard pressed at the present time. Railway traffic had decreased and motor traffic on the road was taking a portion of what was left of the companies’ business. They felt they were under a grievance and had submitted their case to the Ministry. That, the Clerk added, was as far as the Council was concerned in the matter.

RE-LAYING THE RAILWAY. 18th March 1932

“Some excellent British workmanship was witnessed between Swavesey and St. Ives on Sunday,” writes a correspondent, “when the Morris tracklayer was at work. Like a huge crane, this machine picks up lengths of track, some 60ft. long, and has what might be termed two runners which take the lengths of lifted track and place them on the wagons made specially for that purpose. On their return journey these runners bring new track, and what takes hours to accomplish by hand power is done in minutes by this machine. Some idea of the great saving can soon be estimated when it is known that this machine did in about four hours, with 33 men assisting, what it would take 150 men to do in 12 hours. Great credit is due to Inspectors Woodbine and Westland for the way in which they handled the men. Not a minute was lost, and everyone seemed cheerful. Among those present were the chief engineers from London and Cambridge, Mr. Morris, of the tracklayer firm, also the inventor. Much local interest was aroused, there being visitors from St. Ives, Fen Drayton, Swavesey and Over. One item of special interest was the ‘closing up’ of the road, how the metals were cut in a few seconds, holes drilled in, plates fastened, and the train going over to test in less than 15 minutes. Visitors to the scene must come to this conclusion – that although we hear a lot of what is done in America, British workmanship is, after all, second to none.”

DEATH OF MR. T. METCALFE. 22nd April 1932

It was with sincere regret that the people of Swavesey received the news on Saturday that Mr. Thomas Metcalfe had passed away that morning at the residence of his sister, Mrs. J. Mortlock, in Cambridge. Born 66 years ago, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Metcalfe, he was a member of an old Swavesey family. For some years he carried on the business of tailor in the village, and in February, 1898, was appointed Sub-Postmaster, in succession to the late Mr. John Rogers, and he held the appointment until he retired on 30th April, 1926, after 28 years' service. Some time ago he slipped on some frozen snow outside his house in High-street, and in falling fractured his thigh. From this injury he never recovered. After a time, owing to the illness of his wife, he was removed to his sister's house in Cambridge. The funeral took place at Swavesey on Wednesday afternoon. The cortege was met at the churchyard gates by the vicar (Rev. C. E. O. Finch), the Rev. J. F. Cooksey, and the choir. During the service the hymns "Jesus lives! No longer now" and "Christ will gather in His own" were sung, Mr. G. H. Skeeles presiding at the organ, and the Nunc Dimittis was chanted as the mourners left for the grave in the churchyard. The Rev. J. F. Cooksey said the committal prayers. The principal mourners were: Mrs. J. Mortlock (sister), Mr. Dennis Metcalfe, Whittlesford, Mr. S. J. Metcalfe, Mr. and Mrs. W. Spolton, Mr. B. SWAVESEY STACK FIRES. 22nd April 1932

Sunday Morning Blaze.

During the early hours of Sunday morning six stacks of hay, clover or lucerne, and also a partly cut stack, in separate fields on either side of Scotland Drove, Swavesey, were destroyed by fire.

Scotland Drove runs from the main Cambridge-Huntingdon road to Rose and Crown-lane, a road leading from Boxworth-end, Swavesey, to Fen Drayton.

Starting from the Rose and Crown-lane end of the drove, the following stacks were destroyed: Left-hand side – two stacks, containing about 22 tons, belonging to Mr. Bert Hodson, of Swavesey. Then missing a field, a stack belonging to Mr. Ezra Day, of Swavesey, and in a field nearer the main road a stack and part of another belonging to Mr. Harold Dodson, of Swavesey. On the right-hand side of the drove two stacks, the property of Mr. Christopher Britton, of Hilton. A stack of hay, belonging to Mr. Walter Johnson, of Friesland Farm, Huntingdon-road, in an adjoining field, was not touched.

The blaze lit up the neighbourhood, the stacks burning fiercely, despite the large amount of rain which had fallen on Saturday.

The police were quickly on the scene and continued active throughout Sunday. Those present included Supt. Allen, Sergt. Keep, P.C. Bell (Boxworth) and P.C. Draper (Swavesey).

MAN IN COURT.

An occasional court was held at the Cambs. Police Station on Monday, before Mr. H. F. Cook, when J. K., 1 Council Houses, School-lane, Swavesey, was charged with maliciously setting fire to a stack of hay, the property of Bert Hodson, at Swavesey, on April 17th.

Supt. Allen stated that he received information of stack fires at Swavesey, and on visiting the scene saw six stacks on fire. He returned to the County Police Station, where prisoner was in custody.

SWAVESEY R.D. COUNCIL 29th April 1932

Rate for Ensuing Half-Year.

The annual meeting of the Swavesey Rural District Council was held at St. Ives on Friday. There were present: Messrs. J. Frohock (chairman), F. Kirby (vice-chairman), W. I. Hemington, A. Day, F. Stanton, R. Mailer, H. Norman, with the Clerk (Mr. G. D. Day).

Mr. Frohock was re-elected chairman, a position he has held since the inception of the Council, and Mr. Kirby was re-appointed vice-chairman.

THE RATE.

The Rating Officer (Mr. B. Mason) presented the rate for the ensuing half-year. He said the actual net amount in the £ would be higher this year, but in the next half-year it might be possible to make a reduction. These reductions, however, were very difficult to make, because they did not know quite what was coming along. Last year the Council had to spend £100 on the maintenance of patients in the Isolation Hospital.

The seal of the Council was affixed to the rates as follows: Boxworth, Conington and Lolworth 4s. 8d., Fen Drayton 4s. 7d., Swavesey, 4s. 9d., Over 4s. 11d.

Mr. Kirby observed that in five parishes there was a charge of half-a-crown for the insurance of parish constables, and in five other parishes there was a charge of 9s. 6d. He wondered why Lolworth was omitted.

The Rating Officer said there never had been a parish constable appointed for Lolworth.

Mr. Kirby: What is the 9s. 6d. for in respect to the other parishes?

The Rating Officer: For court fees.

RAIN THROUGH THE ROOF.

Mr. Norman asked if there had been complaints at Swavesey about rain getting into the houses at the Boxworth end of the village.

The Chairman said complaints had been made.

Mr. Kirby said there was no doubt that the roofs of the houses were not linked over enough. If the trouble caused by the rain got very serious the houses would have to be re-roofed.

The matter was left in the hands of the Swavesey representatives to investigate.

HELPING ADDENBROOKE'S. 29th April 1932

The collection of eggs made recently in the village by members of the Women's Institute resulted in 1342 being sent to Addenbrooke's Hospital.

Mr. G. E. Canham kindly conveyed them to Cambridge.

WOMEN CONSERVATIVES. 29th April 1932

The annual meeting of the Swavesey branch of the Women's Unionist Association was held at The Priory on April 20th. There was a fair attendance. The following were elected officers for the coming year: President, Mrs. Banks; chairman, Mrs. Cain; secretaries, Miss Beaumont and Miss Paine; treasurer, Mrs. Cain; committee, Miss Banks, Mrs. Berryman, Mrs. Cooke, Mrs. E. J. Mitham, Mrs. Pettitt, Mrs. Prior, and Mrs. W. Thorp. The Treasurer reported a balance in hand of £2 5s. 10d. Miss Sperling (County Organising Secretary) gave an instructive address on current politics, for which she was accorded a hearty vote of thanks.

FOOTBALL CLUB. 29th April 1932

A successful social was held in the Memorial Hall on Saturday, in aid of the Football Club. The attendance was good, and the excellent programme arranged by Mrs. C. S. Hepher was well carried out. Songs were sung by Miss Ingle (Over), Mrs. Bishop, Mrs. C. S. Hepher, and Mr. Anderson. Master George Laverack played violin solos, and Mrs. Laverack gave a recitation. The music for dancing was provided by Mrs. Budge (piano), Messrs. J. Sutton and Anderson (violins), and Mr. H. Unwin (drums). Mrs. E. Mitham, Mrs. Berryman and Mrs. Turner were in charge of the refreshments, and Mr. C. S. Hepher officiated as M.C. At the close of an enjoyable evening Mr. A.

Hepher, on behalf of the club, proposed a vote of thanks to all who had so kindly helped to make the social such a success. The gross receipts amounted to £5 7s. 4d.

WEDDING. 29th April 1932

The marriage of Miss Grace Linford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jethro Linford, and Mr. Arthur Bullen, of Over, took place at the parish church on Saturday, the vicar, Rev. C. E. O. Finch, officiating. The bride, who was given away by her father, was attired in a pretty dress of shell pink crepe suede, with veil and orange blossom, and she carried a bouquet of lilies and pale pink carnations. She was attended by her niece, Miss Joan E. Wright, who wore a dress of red silk with head-dress of gold leaves, and carried a bouquet of red and cream carnations. Mr. Steward Hilton Johnson (cousin of the bridegroom) was best man. A reception was held after the ceremony at the bride's home, and later the happy couple left for their honeymoon, which is being spent in London. The presents were numerous and useful, and included a handsome cheque from Dr. and Mrs. Bowen, of Cambridge.

STACK FIRING CHARGES. 29th April 1932

Sequel to Sunday Outbreaks.

CAMBRIDGE COURT STORY.

Four charges of maliciously setting fire to stacks at Swavesey on April 17th were preferred at the Cambs. Divisional Court on Saturday. It was stated that six stacks, to the total value of £234, were destroyed on that date.

Prisoner was J. K., of School-lane, Swavesey, and he was defended by Mr. M. C. Henderson (Messrs. Taylors, Garrard and Henderson).

The first witness was George Sapsford, of Comberton, a Fellow of the Institute of Highway Engineers, and at present improvement surveyor to the Cambridge County Council. He said that on April 22nd he went with P.S. Keep to Scotland-drove, Swavesey, and saw the burnt residue of six stacks. Witness gave details of the location of the stacks, and put in an ordnance map.

In reply to Mr. Henderson he said he would consider the green part of Scotland-drove atrocious for cycling.

Re-examined by Supt. Allen, he said he would expect to find a bicycle filthy if it were pushed down the wet part of the drove.

Harold Dodson, of King-street, Over, a milkman, said his father was the owner of a hay stack in Scotland-drove, Swavesey, valued at about £40.

Evidence of the value and position of the other stacks was given by Ezra Day, Dairy Farm, Swavesey; Frederick Askew, Buckhurst Hill, Essex; and Bert Hodson, of Market-street, Swavesey.

James William Scott, of 74, Humberstone-road, Cambridge, a photographer, produced photographs of a left boot and of casts of boot prints, which were also shown in Court.

“SAW FLAMES.”

P.C. Draper said that on the night of April 16th he was on duty at Swavesey. At 11.45 p.m. he was at the New Inn, and from there went to the school, next door to which prisoner lived, and to the memorial. He did not meet anybody. He returned later, the same way, and had got as far as the Ramper-road turning when he received information, in consequence of which he cycled down Rose and Crown-lane towards Fen Drayton. He saw flames on the left, which afterwards proved to be down Scotland Drove.

Just before reaching Scotland Drove, however, he noticed a bicycle being ridden towards him without a light. When the cycle got nearer witness recognised the rider as the prisoner. Witness shouted to him to stop, but the prisoner merely said “Good night, sir,” and rode on. Witness turned round, rode after prisoner, and caught him up in about 150 paces.

“When I got to the side of him,” said the witness, “we both got off. By now the fires were showing plainly, and he must have seen them. I said ‘You can’t do this, where is your light?’ He said, ‘I am sorry; I know it is a poor light..’

“I told him I should report him, and he said ‘All right, mister.’ It was 12 55 a.m. at that time, and prisoner, who smelt of drink, seemed slightly intoxicated. I noticed that his bicycle was very muddy and that the prisoner’s hands were very muddy. His jacket and trousers also had wet mud on them, and his boots were wet and muddy.”

“CAME OFF HIS BIKE.”

Witness added that when asked where he got the mud from, prisoner replied: “I came off my bike. I often do when I have had a pint or two.” Witness asked, “Do you know anything of this lot?” and pointed to the fires. Prisoner said “No, I have just come from Fen Drayton.”

Witness went on to say that when asked where he had been, prisoner replied “Round about, and at St. Ives.” He (prisoner) said he had not passed anyone going the other way (towards Fen Drayton). He had just come out to meet his folks, who had been to a dance at Fen Drayton, and was just having a ride round. He was going to call at his poor old mother’s.

Prisoner then said, “I’ll be getting home now,” but witness said “Don’t go yet. The sergeant will soon be here, and he may want to see you.” About that time, 1 a.m., P.C. Bell arrived, and asked what was the matter.

P.C. Bell then said, “Do you know anything of that?” (pointing to the fire). Prisoner replied, “No, I don’t, I was just having a ride round, like I often do at nights.” Prisoner then turned to witness and said, “You often see me at nights, don't you?" Witness replied "Yes, between 10 p.m. and 11 p.m., but you always have your dog. Where is it to-night?" Prisoner said he had not brought it with him.

P.C. Bell asked where prisoner had been, and prisoner answered, "I have been to Cambridge." Witness remarked that prisoner had told him St. Ives.

AFTERNOON'S EVIDENCE.

Continuing his evidence in the afternoon, P.C. Draper stated that P.C. Bell asked prisoner if he would make a statement as to his movements that night. Prisoner replied: "I am making no ----- statement. I have a perfect right to be on the King's highway, and you have no ----- right to stop me. I am going home."

Witness added that he put his bike down and stepped in front of prisoner, saying: "You will wait a little bit longer; the sergeant will soon be here." Prisoner declared he was going home, saying he was not frightened of the ---- police force, and would fight any man on it. Prisoner turned to P.C. Bell and said, "You are a cunning -----, you are. You are one of Brooks' ----- pals."

Prisoner also said to witness: "As for you, Draper, you are a ----- fool, a half-brained -----, to accuse me of this, you having to live in this village too."

MATCHES FOUND ON PRISONER.

After further conversation, at about 1. 45 a.m., Sergt. Keep arrived, and questioned prisoner as to whether he had any matches. Prisoner handed over a box, after which he was taken to the Police Headquarters. There he was searched, and on him was found another box of matches, muddy, and containing two matches. One of those matches had wet mud on it.

When cautioned and charged with the offence, prisoner made the statement: "I have nothing to say whatever, and know nothing about them (the fires)."

The time then was 3. 32 a.m. – winter time.

Prisoner was wearing a black felt hat, and there were seven grass seeds adhering to it. There was wet mud at the back of prisoner's boots, which were studded with Blakeys of two sizes, four rows to the sole of each boot.

Witness stated that he went back with Sergt. Keep to Swavesey and took possession of prisoner's bicycle, which had been left in a yard. Witness examined the machine and the lamp, and found mud and grass in the front forks, mudguard and frame. There was some oil in the lamp.

Witness later went with P.S. Keep and P.C. Bell to Scotland Drove, and noticed footprints similar to prisoner's, leading from Huntingdon-road to the fields where the fires were, and in the gateways leading to the fields. There were also tyre marks similar to those of the prisoners' bicycle.

"TOOK FOOTPRINTS."

“On 17th and 18th,” continued witness, “I went with Supt. Allen, Sergeant Keep, and P.C. Bell, and on the 19th, with Supt. Allen and Sergt. Keep, and assisted in taking impressions of the footprints in the fields and gateways where the fires were. They also took impressions of the cycle tyre marks, which could be traced practically continuously from the Huntingdon-road end of the drove to the Rose and Crown-lane and the other end. Near Rose and Crown-lane the tyre track of the bicycle turned towards Swavesey – the direction in which witness had stopped prisoner.

Further replying to Supt. Allen, witness said in some places there were boot prints near the tyre marks.

The zig-zag boot studs on prisoner’s right boot were similar to the marks near the cycle tyre marks.

Witness stated that at headquarters prisoner told them he did not smoke during the day, but chewed tobacco, and liked to smoke late at night in bed.

At this point the Chairman announced that the magistrates had heard sufficient evidence to justify a remand for a week.

Prisoner was accordingly remanded in custody until next Saturday.

CAMBS. LABOURER FOR TRIAL. 6th May 1932

Sequel to Stack Fires.

LENGTHY HEARING.

Story of Footprints in a Drove.

J. K., of School-lane, Swavesey, was committed for trial at the Assizes by the Cambs. Divisional Bench on Saturday, after an adjourned hearing lasting about 5½ hours. He was charged with four offences of arson.

Mr. M. C. Henderson (Messrs. Taylors, Garrard and Henderson) appeared for the prisoner.

STUDED BOOTS.

John Brown, 12, Aylestone-road, Cambridge, manager of Messrs. Freeman, Hardy and Willis, Market-hill, Cambridge, said that on April 26th he was shown a pair of boots (produced), and they were Army boots, known to the trade as the “B 5.” When bought they were bradded, and witness would say that, from their present condition, they were worn from three to six months before the large studs were added. In his opinion the large studs were put in by a boot repairer.

Some of those studs fell out, owing to the condition of the soles, and were replaced by very much smaller studs, put in by an absolute novice. Considering the irregularities of the studs and their different size, it would be impossible to find another pair of boots studded in the same manner.

Witness stated that he had compared the photographs of the boot and boot prints (produced), and was certain they were exact copies of the sole and studs of the left boot.

P.C. DRAPER CROSS-EXAMINED.

Following the evidence of this witness, Mr. Henderson commenced his cross-examining of P.C. Draper, which was deferred from last week.

He stated, in answer to the first question, that when he first saw prisoner, he (prisoner) was 350 yards away from nearest burning stack.

In reply to further questions, witness said he did not know that prisoner had a stack in his own field, and had never seen prisoner in his own field.

FOOTPRINTS COVERED WITH TWIGS.

Witness first saw the footprints in Scotland Drove at about 6 a.m. on Sunday morning. To his knowledge, nobody else had been along the drove at that time, and the footprints he had seen were the only ones there at the time. He took the footprints on Monday and Tuesday morning, having covered them with twigs to preserve them.

Questioned about his conversation with prisoner, witness said prisoner did not tell him he had been to Cambridge, or that he had been to his field.

Re-examined by Supt. Allen, witness said that if prisoner had cycled home as he had said he would have passed witness. But he did not do so. Witness had no light when he met prisoner, having turned it out on entering Rose and Crown-lane.

When the Court resumed after the lunch adjournment, P.C. Bell went into the box to give evidence. At 11.35 p.m. on April 16th, he said he was cycling on duty on the Huntingdon-road towards the King William IV. When, near Cat's Hole Drift, he met the prisoner cycling towards the New Inn. Prisoner had an oil lamp on his bicycle which gave a dim light. Witness looked round to see whether prisoner would turn towards Swavesey, but owing to the darkness and the rain witness could not see.

"I proceeded to the King William IV.," continued witness, "and left that place at 12.35 a.m., going towards the New Inn. At the end of the Lolworth Plantation, I noticed a fire to the right of Fen Drayton. I rode as fast as I could, and then, when at Soldier's Drift, I noticed a second fire in the same direction. When at the New Inn I saw the third fire a little farther away. I cycled down to Swavesey, turned down Rose and Crown-lane, where I saw P.C. Draper standing with the prisoner.

"P.C. Draper said, 'I have just stopped this man for riding a bicycle without a light.' I asked prisoner where he had been, and he replied 'I have been to Cambridge.' P.C. Draper said, 'You told me St. Ives.' I asked the prisoner what time he left Cambridge, and he said, 'When the pubs shut.' I asked where he had been since then, and he replied, 'Home, but there was no one at home, so I went to Fen Drayton to a dance to meet my wife and children.

"NO THIRD DEGREE."

"I asked him which way he had come back from Fen Drayton, and he said, I did not go any farther than the Plough corner." Witness added that he asked prisoner if he knew anything about the fires, and prisoner replied, 'No.' Prisoner also declared that he had not been up Scotland Drove, saying, "If I had I should not ----- well tell you, and you have no right to ask me that question under the third degree.

Witness told prisoner it was his (witness's) duty to question any person or persons that he met on the road near a fire.

P.C. Bell gave further evidence of the conversation between prisoner, P.C. Draper and himself, and of Sergt. Keep's arrival. When the sergeant came, witness fetched a car, and prisoner was conveyed to the County Police Station. Witness went back to the scene of the fire and waited for P.S. Keep and P.C. Draper.

They searched the drove for footprints, which they found from one end to the other. There was also the mark of a bicycle tyre on the left-hand side of the drove as far as the first fire; there the marks crossed over the gateway entrance, into the field where the first fire was. There was a mark on the grass where a bicycle had been lying, and footprints over the gate to the first fire, and also to the second fire, which was in the adjoining field.

"FOOTPRINTS FROM FIRE TO FIRE."

Footprints could be traced from the second fire to the next fire, and on the opposite side of the drove were the prints of bicycle tyres, where it had been leaning against a gate. They traced the same prints of a cycle tyre as far as Rose and Crown-lane. On the 17th and 18th casts of the footprints and the tyre marks were taken.

Replying to Supt. Allen, witness said the footprints and tyre marks were all fresh, and there were no other marks down the drove. He noticed there was some irregularity in the stud marks in the right foot print, and also in the right boot (produced). There were three zig-zag marks in the print and in the studs of the boot. In the left footprint there was the mark of large and small studs alternately, and there was a similar irregularity in the left boot (produced).

When witness first saw prisoner, he smelt strongly of drink, but was not actually drunk.

"HEARD SOMEONE SHOUTING."

P.S. Keep was the next witness. He spoke to going to Swavesey after receiving certain information. In Rose and Crown-lane he heard someone shouting, and recognised the voice as that of the prisoner. There then followed the conversation described by the other police witness. Witness added that he noticed prisoner's clothing, boots and bicycle were very muddy, and when asked the reason for that, prisoner replied that he had fallen off his bicycle two or three times.

After further talk witness said to prisoner, "I suspect you of firing those stacks, and shall detain you on suspicion." Prisoner said, "On suspicion?" and witness answered, "Yes, at present." When told he would have to go to the police station, prisoner said he would not come, and would fight all the ----- police force. He continued to threaten to fight them, and near the Swavesey main road said: "I am going to take my bicycle to my people." He was told that he could not do that, and that the police would look after his bicycle. Prisoner then said: "I am going to take the bike to my mother's house."

Prisoner was permitted to do that, but when he called out to his sister to open the door she called out, "No, don't you know you have nearly killed your mother now?" Prisoner was then taken to the police station, where he was searched, cautioned, and charged. He was found to have another box of matches containing two matches, one of which had wet mud on it. The inside of the box also had wet mud on it, and the prisoner's boots (produced) had a lot of mud on the back.

There were a number of hay seeds in prisoner's hat, another witness found wet mud and grass sticking to prisoner's bicycle.

Percival James Watts, Sycamore Farm, Over, an insurance inspector, stated that he was at a social at Fen Drayton on April 16th, and left at about midnight in his car. He returned homewards, and by the junction of School-lane and Rose and Crown-lane stopped his car. Shortly afterwards he noticed a fire, apparently in Scotland Drove.

He watched the fire for several minutes and then noticed another fire. That was at about 12.40 a.m., and he then drove down to Boxworth End, Swavesey, passing nobody on the road. Later, he saw P.C. Draper and received a communication from him, as a result of which he (witness) informed Sergt. Keep.

WHAT THE CYCLIST SAW.

Arthur Reginald Bullen, King-street, Over, clerk, said that after leaving the social at Fen Drayton at about 12.10 a.m., he cycled as far as Swavesey. He reached Swavesey School at about 12.35 a.m., and did not meet or overtake any pedal cyclist or pedestrian between Fen Drayton and Swavesey School. Near St. John's Farm, however, a car overtook him and stopped to pick up some people, but it passed him again in School-lane.

Near to the junction of Rose and Crown-lane and School-lane he saw another car, stationary.

Arthur William Benjamin Adams, a smallholder, of Fen End, Over, said he attended a social at St. Ives on April 16th and returned home through Fen Drayton. On reaching St. John's College Farm he stopped to give a lift to some ladies he knew who were walking by the side of the road. They were Mrs. Kester (wife of the prisoner), her two daughters, and Mrs. Oakman. Witness drove as far as prisoner's house, arriving at about 12.20 a.m., where the ladies all got out of the car.

Witness declared that he did not see the prisoner on the road that night.

This concluded the case for the prosecution.

Mr. Henderson said that prisoner did not desire to give evidence or to call any witnesses, and prisoner was committed for trial at the next Assizes for the county. Mr. Henderson said the plea was not guilty, and prisoner reserved his defence.

Prisoner made application for bail, and this was granted in his own recognisance of £50 and two sureties of £50 each.

He was, however, unable to find the sureties, and was remanded in custody.

DANCE. 13th May 1932

There was a very large attendance at the dance arranged by the committee of management, which was held in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening. The Nibs' Dance Band provided an excellent selection of music, and a most enjoyable time was spent. The proceeds were in aid of the Hall Fund.

THE FEAST. 13th May 1932

The annual village feast has been celebrated this week, and has attracted large numbers of visitors, particularly on Sunday, when the parade in aid of Addenbrooke's Hospital took place, and on Tuesday evening. On Sunday the services at the parish church were: Holy Communion 6.45 and 8 a.m., Mattins and sermon 10.30 a.m., and evensong 6.30 p.m., when the music included Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis (Edwyn A. Clare) and Elvey's anthem, "Rejoice in the Lord." All of the services were well attended, especially that in the evening. On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday Market-street was occupied by stalls, Manning's roundabout, swinging boats, etc. Three cricket matches were arranged to be played on Manor Field. Swavesey defeated a March and Whitemoor eleven on Monday by 52 runs to 14. On Tuesday the match between Swavesey and Over for the Swavesey Hospital Challenge Cup took place, and was won by Swavesey by one run. Scores: Swavesey 29, Over 28. A charge of 3d. was made for this match, the sum realised £2 9s. 8d., being added to the amount collected for Addenbrooke's Hospital at the parade on Sunday. On Wednesday, when Boxworth were the visitors, the match had to be abandoned owing to rain. Other festivities included a dance in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening, the latter under the auspices of the local branch of the British Legion.

SWAVESEY HOSPITAL PARADE. 13th May 1932

A vigorous reply to the allegations of "poaching" made against Addenbrooke's Hospital came from the Secretary-Superintendent (Mr. W. H. Head) on Sunday afternoon, when he addressed a meeting at the Swavesey Hospital Parade.

Considerable interest was shown in the event, and a good crowd followed the procession from Boxworth End into the village. On the green several hundreds more assembled for the meeting. Headed by members of the committee, and heralded by the Somersham town band, the procession marched through the village, the collectors working busily the whole time.

The procession consisted of members of the British Legion, Women's Institute, Girls' Brigade, National Deposit F.S., Parish Council, the cricket and football clubs, the Sunday Schools and a decorated nursing waggon.

Short halts were made at the Longstanton turn, the recreation ground, the Memorial Hall and Market-street.

THE MEETING.

At the meeting on the recreation ground the Vicar (the Rev. C. E. O. Finch) presided, and was supported by Mr. W. H. Head, Mr. J. Prior, Mr. H. Smith, Mr. R. Mailer and others.

In introducing Mr. Head, the chairman said he heard that there were some, particularly the young people, who were getting behind with their 2d. a week contribution. Both from the commonsense and the charitable point of view he would urge them to keep up their contributions week by week.

Mr. Head opened his remarks by thanking the committee for holding that parade, and by expressing the hope that other villages which had not yet made up their minds to have a parade this year, would emulate Swavesey's example and carry on as usual. If the hospital had to depend only on weekly contributions the weekly rate would have to be 4d. instead of 2d., and he therefore appealed to all who organised entertainments for the hospital to continue to do so.

NOT CONFINED TO CAMBS.

Mentioning that part of last year's deficiency in maintenance had been paid off by nearly £3,000 in legacies, he pointed out that they could not depend on legacies, and they must get the money from people in the surrounding districts. He recalled that the hospital was not confined to this county only, because the Act of Parliament decreed that it should take patients from any town or county in England.

They tried to get money from the surrounding district which used the hospital, and because of that the hospital had been accused of "poaching." "The fact is," he declared, "that we are trying to get money from places outside Cambridge from which patients are sent to the hospital, I have never heard of adjoining hospitals grumble at our taking in patients; I cannot see why the people of Cambridge and Cambridgeshire should pay for hospital treatment for patients from other counties. All parts use the hospital and I think all parts should give towards it."

STILL WANT HELP.

Alluding again to the £800 deficiency of last year, which had to be wiped out by drawing on the capital, he stressed the fact that the hospital still wanted help, despite the fact that the contributory scheme was going so well.

Paying a tribute to the Workers' Hospital Fund, he said the hospital would have been in "Queer-street" but for their help. Partly owing to the contributory scheme, and partly to the Building Fund the receipts from Hospital Sundays fell by £1,267. They were all the more grateful, therefore, to the Workers' Hospital Fund, which had paid in £2,267 more than the previous year.

Mr. Head spoke briefly of the Building Fund, and said that the work on the extensions is going on apace. The big X-ray department, provided for by an extra anonymous donation of £5,000 is being built and the new block for the children's ward is to be opened by the Duke and Duchess of York in July. The quarters for the servants and nurses are also being extended as, when the other extensions are completed, there will be 315 beds, instead of just over 200.

Mr. J. Prior, who also addressed the meeting, referred to Swavesey's raising of £200 in under 12 months, and mentioned that not one per cent. had fallen out of the contributory scheme once it commenced.

RED CROSS SOCIETY. 20th May 1932

By the sale of flags in the Swavesey district on Thursday week £15 10s. was raised for the British Red Cross Society.

HOSPITAL PARADE. 20th May 1932

The net amount realised by the parade on Feast Sunday and the cricket match on Tuesday was £26 11s., and this sum has been duly forwarded to Addenbrooke's Hospital. The committee who carried out the arrangements consisted of Rev. C. E. O. Finch (chairman), Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hepher, Messrs. Pontefract, H. H. Berryman, C. Savage, P. Banks, F. Prior, F. Hepher, A. W. Melbourne, E. J. Mitham, J. Prior, Miss Banks, Mrs. Whitehead, Miss E. Dodson (treasurer), and Mr. H. W. Whitehead (hon. secretary). Last year's effort resulted in £65 18s. being raised for the Hospital.

BRITISH LEGION. 20th May 1932

For the social and dance on Thursday week the Memorial Hall was packed, thus proving the great popularity of these social events run by the Swavesey branch of the British Legion. A good programme of dancing was arranged, interspersed with songs and monologues. Those taking part in the vocal half of the evening's entertainment were Mesdames Hind and H. Bishop; the Three Bobs; Messrs. James Prior, H. Topham, H. Cole and P. Lee. The music for dancing was provided by Mrs. Budge (piano), Mrs. H. Bishop (banjolele), Messrs. Joe Sutton and A. Anderson (violins) and H. Unwin (jazz set). The draw took place at the interval, the prizes being very widely distributed. The proceeds were: Draw £14, social £7, making a total of £21 to be allocated to the club fund. At the conclusion all present, including those who so kindly helped to make the evening such a success by providing the programme and the refreshments, were warmly thanked by the M.C., Mr. Lee, for their support.

RED CROSS SOCIETY. 27th May 1932

Good congregations attended the anniversary services which were held at the Particular Baptist Chapel on Thursday afternoon and evening in last week, friends being present from Cambridge, Oakington, Longstanton, St. Ives, Fenstanton, Godmanchester, Chatteris and Barford, Beds. Mr. Seth Pack, of Tunbridge Wells, was the special preacher. The public tea between the services was also well attended.

PARISH COUNCIL DEFIED. 27th May 1932

Our local correspondent writes: Notwithstanding the publicity which has recently been given to the by-law prohibiting wheeled vehicles on the Recreation Ground, a motor car and a motor cycle combination were parked there while cricket practice was in progress last Friday evening, and at the close of play the motor cycle and sidecar, carrying, in addition to the driver, three or four young men, was driven at racing pace round the green. A parish councillor, who was passing by, reminded the young men that wheeled vehicles were not allowed on the green, but was met with the retort that the notice board which the Parish Council had recently ordered to be put up had not been erected, and, further, that the Church Army van had been permitted to stand there. The young men, however, overlooked the fact that the Church Army van was drawn on the green in ignorance of the by-law, and that the Council, in the special circumstances gave permission for it to remain for a few days.

SWAVESEY WATER WASTAGE. 27th May 1932

Farmers Blamed for Heavy Increase.

The enormous increase in the quantities of water supplied to the Swavesey rural district during the past quarter was the subject of a discussion at the meeting of the District Council at St. Ives on Friday. The members present were Messrs. J. Frohock (chairman), F. Kirby, W. I. Hemington, A. Day, J. Scambler, R. Mailer, F. Stanton and R. Norman.

The question of the water supply arose on a letter from the Accounting Office with reference to the East Hunts. Water Company's account for the quarter ended March 31st. A total of 1,603,000 gallons of water were used at a cost to the Council of £80 3s. The company's accounts for the corresponding period last year was less. The Accounting Officer stated that he understood the increase to be due to loss of water through the bursting of a main.

“SOMEONE WASTING WATER.”

The Water Rate Collector (Mr. E. Bullen) said there was a burst in the main on Easter Monday, but he understood from Mr. Chevill, the engineer, that the loss of water was not great. The actual loss was, however, a large one, because the account was £32 more than the amount which he collected for water. Someone in the village was wasting water. Some of the farmers in Swavesey must apparently leave the water taps running for weeks on end.

The Chairman: And they don't pay for it.

The Collector: Some people are grumbling about the farmers. They think they are paying for the farmers' water, and you can't wonder at it. The cottagers have no reason to waste the water. They think it is the farmers.

Mr. Mailer: Why should the farmers have cause to waste the water?

The Collector said they did it by leaving the taps running. He thought some sort of notice ought to be given to show people the extent of the increase. Over half a million gallons of water had been wasted.

The Council agreed to put up notices in the village calling attention to the wastage of water, in the hope that this would remedy matters.

BIRTH AND DEATH RATE.

The Medical Officers' report for the district for 1931 showed a total of 33 births, this being a rate of 13.7 as compared with a rate of 15.8 for England and Wales. There were 34 deaths, a rate of 14.1. The same rate for the whole country was 12.3. The population of the district was 2,405.

Dr. W. R. Grove, speaking on the report, said for the past six years the death and birth rate had been practically the same, which, of course, meant that the birth rate was not increasing. The great majority of the young men went into the towns, and the population was maintained by the immigration of older people.

The report was adopted, with thanks to Dr. Grove.

“PARISH COUNCIL DEFIED.” 3rd June 1932

“L.D.” writes: With reference to the paragraph under the above heading in the Swavesey news last week, I would like to draw your local correspondent's attention to the fact that the Parish Councillor who reminded the young men of the by-law prohibiting wheeled vehicles on the Recreation ground, rode up to the offenders himself on a wheeled vehicle on the evening of May 20th. How can the Council expect the young men to obey the by-law if a councillor himself breaks it?

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 3rd June 1932

The 92nd anniversary of the founding of Bethel Baptist Church was celebrated on Thursday in last week, the special preacher in the afternoon and evening being the Rev. J. Wilson, D.D., of Woolwich Tabernacle, who also gave a short address on the Discipleship Campaign at the public tea between the services. The excellent congregations at both services included many friends from all parts of the surrounding district. The financial result of the anniversary was also satisfactory.

WEDDING. 3rd June 1932

The Ven. Dr. Knowles (Archdeacon of Huntingdon) and the Rev. F. H. George, R.D. (rector of Brampton, Hunts.) officiated at the marriage of Mr. Albert John Daintree, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Daintree, of Swavesey, and Miss Kathleen Mary Markell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Markell, which took place at Brampton parish church yesterday. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore an ankle length dress of ivory satin, with veil and wreath of orange blossom. She was attended by Miss G. Williams, who was attired in rose beige crepe de chine, with a golden headdress. Mr. Tom Daintree (brother of the bridegroom) was best man. The reception after the ceremony was held in the small schoolroom.

BRITISH LEGION. 3rd June 1932

A successful and well attended social and dance, arranged by the local branch of the British Legion, was held in the Memorial Hall on Thursday week. The programme consisted of dances and songs, the following providing the vocal items: Mrs. Budge, "Home"; Mrs. R. Bishop, "You" and "Somebody loves you"; the Misses Lee, "Daisy bell"; Mr. Topham, "Apple Dumpling"; Mr. H. Cole, "When we went to School together"; and Mr. Lee, "In the twi-twi-twilight" and "Come and cuddle me." The music for dancing was supplied by Mrs. Budge (piano), Messrs. Sutton and Anderson (violins) and Mr. Harry Unwin and friend (jazz set).

PENAL SERVITUDE FOR ARSON. 3rd June 1932

Swavesey Man Sentenced.

CAMBS. ASSIZE STORY.

Police Evidence of Career.

Sentence of three years' penal servitude was passed on J. K., of Swavesey, by Mr. Justice Roche at the Cambs. Assizes on Friday. He was charged with setting fire to two stacks of hay, value £100, the property of Frederick William Askew; two stacks of hay, value £40, the property of Bert Hodson; a stack of hay to the value of £50, the property of Ezra Day; and a stack of hay to the value of £40, the property of John Dodson, at Swavesey, on April 17th.

Mr. Gerald Howard (instructed by Messrs. S. J. and S. T. Miller) appeared for the prosecution, and Mr. Grafton Pryor (instructed by Messrs. Taylors, Garrard and Henderson) for the defence.

Kester pleaded not guilty to the charges.

Case for the Prosecution.

Details of the various stacks were given by Harold Dodson, of King-street, Over; Ezra Day, of Dairy Farm, Swavesey; Frederick William Askew, of Buskhurst Hill, Essex; and Bert Hodson, Market-street, Swavesey.

CONSTABLE'S STORY.

P.C. Draper, stationed at Swavesey, said that at 11.45 on the night of the 16th he was on duty in uniform at the New Inn. He had his bicycle and went from there to the Swavesey Memorial Hall past the school. He reached the Hall about 20 past 12. He waited there, and on the way back met Mr. Watts, who was in a car.

As a result of what he said, witness went in the direction of the fires. He turned his lamp out as he entered Rose and Crown-lane. While going along there he saw the flames on the left, and before reaching Scotland-drove he met prisoner.

Prisoner was cycling towards him without a light on his bicycle. Witness shouted to him, "Where's your light? Stop." Prisoner cycled on, so he rode after him and caught him up.

Mr. Howard: At that time, was it easy to see those flames or not? – Yes, sir. You could see them plainly.

Witness said: "You can't do this. Where's your light?" and prisoner replied, "I'm sorry. I know it is a poor light." When told he would be reported, prisoner said; "All right, mister." Prisoner was very muddy and smelt of drink. His hands were covered with mud, and his jacket and trousers also had wet mud on them. The bicycle was also very muddy. Witness said: "You are in a mess; where did you get that lot from?" and prisoner replied, "I came off my bike. I often do when I've had a pint or two."

Pointing to the fires witness said: "Do you know anything about that lot?" and prisoner answered: "No. I've just ridden from Fen Drayton." When asked where he had been that night, prisoner said: "Oh, round about and at St. Ives." Witness then asked, "Did you pass anyone going the other way?" to which prisoner replied, "No, I didn't. I have just been to Fen Drayton to meet my friends, who have been to a dance there."

"MY SERGEANT MAY WANT TO SEE YOU."

Prisoner was going to move away, when witness said: "Don't go yet; my sergeant will be here shortly and may want to see you." P.C. Bell then arrived and said: "Hello, what is the matter?" Witness told him that he had just stopped prisoner for riding without a light, and P.C. Bell said; "Do you know anything about those?" pointing to the fires. Prisoner said he had been having a ride round, and turning to witness, asked if he often saw him riding at night. Witness said he did, but between 10 and 11 o'clock, and he generally had his dog with him, although he had not got it that night. Asked by P.C. Bell if he would make a statement, prisoner said: "I'm making no statement. I've a perfect right to be on the King's ----- highway." He made to go home, but witness stood in front of him.

When Sergeant Keep arrived, prisoner gave him a box of matches. He was taken to the police station and searched, another box of matches being found. One of the matches in it was wet.

“I KNOW NOTHING ABOUT THEM.”

When charged and cautioned, prisoner said: “I’ve nothing to say whatever,” and added, “only I know nothing about them.” Some seeds were found on the crown of his hat.

At 6 a.m. on the following day witness went to Scotland-drove and saw the track of a cycle and footmarks. The cycle track which was on the left side of the road, turned by the first stack into the gateway. Further on it turned again into the gateway by the second stack.

The Judge: Is there any track of a bicycle in any of these fields? – Only in the third fire.

Having left Askew’s stacks, the tracks went over the gate. It looked as though the bicycle had been rested on the inside. There were a few footprints and not many were discernable. The tracks went on into the main road, and turned in the direction of Swavesey.

On the 17th and the following day witness went with Supt. Allen and other officers to the drove and took impressions of the footprints. The surface of Scotland-drove was very muddy.

In answer to Mr. Pryor, he said K. was slightly intoxicated when he saw him. Though he was muddy he did not appear to have fallen off his cycle.

Mr. Pryor: Did he tell you he had taken some hay from a stack on his holding at Catshole-drove? – No, sir.

Is it a fact that at Catshole-drove he has some hay? – There is a small stack on his holding. I don’t know whether it belongs to him or not.

He is a man who often rides about at night? – I have often met him at 10 or 11 o’clock.

Often after 10? – Not often after 11.

At this point the court adjourned for lunch.

“CYCLING WITH A DIM LIGHT.”

When the court resumed after lunch, P.C. Herbert Bell, stationed at Boxworth, was the first witness. He stated that while cycling towards Cambridge, near Catshole-drove at about 11.35 p.m. on April 16th, he met prisoner. He (prisoner) was cycling towards Huntingdon and had a dim light. Witness could not say whether prisoner turned towards Swavesey by the New Inn.

After going as far as the King William IV. Inn witness started back, and shortly afterwards noticed a fire, and later two other fires, in the direction of Scotland-drove. Witness cycled as fast as he could towards Swavesey, and met prisoner with P.C. Draper. When asked where he had been, prisoner replied:

“At Cambridge.” Asked when he left, he said, “When the pubs shut.” Prisoner added, in further reference to his movements, that he went home after leaving Cambridge, but finding no one at home, went to Fen Drayton to meet his wife and children from a dance. Prisoner said he had gone no further then the Plough corner, and had not noticed the fires. He had not been up Scotland-drove.

In reply to cross-examination by Mr. Grafton Pryor, witness said he remained on duty in Scotland-drove from the time prisoner was taken to the police station to the next morning, and during that time no-body else came into the drove. When it was light he covered various footprints in the drove with twigs and sticks.

In reply to his Lordship, witness said the footprints led from the Huntingdon-road end towards Rose and Crown-lane.

P.S. Keep, stationed at Longstanton, was the next witness. He said he saw prisoner with P.C.’s Bell and Draper in Rose and Crown-lane. Prisoner told witness that he knew nothing about the fire, but had been to meet his folks from Fen Drayton. He said he did not meet them, but must have just missed them.

“COAT AND HANDS MUDDY.”

Mr. Howard: Did you notice anything about his appearance? – His coat, hat and hands were very muddy. When I asked how they got muddy he said he had fallen off his bicycle.

Witness asked prisoner if he had any matches, and he produced a box, which was somewhat muddy.

“After a conversation with P.C. Draper,” said witness, “I said to prisoner, ‘I suspect you of firing those stacks, and I shall detain you on suspicion.’ I told him he would have to come with me to the police station.”

Prisoner was taken to the police station and when searched was found to have another matchbox, containing two matches in his possession. One of those matches was covered with mud.

FOOTPRINTS IN SCOTLAND DROVE.

Witness went on to give details of the footprints and the cycle tyre track in Scotland Drove. The footprints, he said, went into the field where Mr. Day’s stack was situated, and also where Mr. Dodson’s stack was. The cycle appeared to have been rested against the gate of Mr. Day’s field. The cycle track continued down to Mr. Askew’s stacks, and by the track were similar footprints to those in the first fields.

The track and footprints went down to Mr. Hodson’s stacks, where there were marks showing that a bicycle had rested against the inside of the gate. After that the cycle tracks could be traced to the end of the drove, where they turned right to Swavesey.

Witness added that on the three subsequent days casts were taken of the footprints and the tyre tracks.

His Lordship: Does the tyre mark correspond with those which would be made by the tyre on the bicycle, produced? – Yes, sir.

Witness then produced casts of footprints taken by the stacks.

In reply to further questions by Mr. Howard, witness said the footprints of which cast were taken were the only fresh set in the drove, and there were no other tyre marks.

Questioned by Mr. Pryor, witness said the grass was growing in all the fields. Two and a half days elapsed before the two casts were taken. During that time there had not been any rain, and the footprints had dried a great deal. He protected the footprints with bushes and anything he could find. The boots were of an ordinary type used by men of prisoner's position.

James William Scott, of 74, Humberstone-road, a photographer, spoke to going to the County Police Station and taking photographs of the casts and soles of the boots.

“IRREGULARITY OF THE STUDS.”

Evidence was then given by John Brown, manager for Messrs. Freeman, Hardy and Willis, who said the boots were Army boots. The large studs had been added since the boots were new. He did not think there was another pair of boots in the country like those, because of the irregularity of the studs. He had compared the cast and the sole of the left boot, and in his opinion they were identical.

Witness was questioned by Mr. Pryor, and one answer caused laughter from the public at the back of the court.

His Lordship remarked: “If there is so much noise there will be nobody in court. There seem to be a number of Cambridge people who do not know how to behave in a court of law.”

Arthur William Benjamin Adams, of Over, said he had been to St. Ives in his car, and came back by Fen Drayton and Swavesey. He left Fen Drayton about a quarter past 12, and picked up four ladies and drove them to prisoner's house. He did not see anybody on the road. He passed two cyclists about a hundred yards from School-lane.

Percival James Watts, an insurance inspector, of Over, said he had been to a party at Fen Drayton and left about 12. He stopped his car at the end of School-lane and later saw some fires. He first saw them about half-past 12, and drove into Swavesey. He did not see anybody on a bicycle.

Arthur Reginald Bullen, of Over, said he had been to a party at Fen Drayton, and rode back through Swavesey. He did not overtake any cyclists.

This concluded the case for the prosecution.

THE DEFENCE

THE PRISONER GIVES EVIDENCE.

Prisoner then went into the witness-box and said that on April 16th he had been to Cambridge and had several drinks. After he left one publichouse he went to others and had more. He set out to cycle home about 11 o'clock. His condition was "pretty normal," and he was not drunk.

He went to his holding to get some hay to take home to the goat. He remounted his cycle and went home, where he fed the goat. His wife and daughters had gone to a dance at Fen Drayton, so he rode in that direction. At the end of School-lane he turned to Fen Drayton. Thinking he had missed his wife and daughters he decided to turn round, but skidded and was thrown off. Wondering if his wife had gone home the Rose and Crown-lane way, he went there and saw P.C. Draper.

"I SWEAR I DID NOT."

Mr. Pryor: You've heard the suggestion made against you that you set fire to the six stacks. What do you say to that?

Witness: I never did set fire to those stacks. I swear by Almighty God in this court those fires were never set alight by these hands.

Mr. Howard: What were you doing riding with your light out? – My light went out when I fell and my hands got all wet, and I could not light it because my hands were wet and the matches got wet.

That road is tarred. – Not very well.

You say you got all that mud on your clothes from the tarred road? – Yes.

This is the bicycle you were riding that night? – Yes.

These were the boots you were wearing? – Yes.

Did you see the fires? – Yes, after I turned back from the Old Plough corner.

Further replying to Mr. Howard, he said that the grass and mud came on his bicycle as he went into his garden.

Witness denied telling P.C. Draper that he had been to St. Ives.

Mr. Pryor, addressing the jury, said the nearest that prisoner was seen to the stacks was a quarter of a mile.

Commenting on the evidence that nobody visited the fires, Mr. Pryor said it was somewhat strange to find an event where six stacks were on fire in groups that nobody had the curiosity to go and see whether they could assist in saving any of those stacks. It was improbable in the extreme that nobody went near the stacks during the whole of the time they were blazing. If anybody did go near they would leave footprints. It was usual in such cases that some cause like a grievance or malice was advanced, but that had not been done. Although there might be suspicion and lots of it, he submitted that there was no evidence on which to find prisoner guilty.

After a retirement of 25 minutes the jury returned a verdict of guilty.

PRISONER'S CAREER.

Supt. Allen, who was then called, said that prisoner was a native of Swavesey, he was fifty years of age and was a small-holder. He had been discharged from the Army with ignominy.

His Lordship: In war time? – Long before the war. About 30 years ago.

He had been convicted 17 times, witness continued, with 24 offences on two charges of inflicting grievous bodily harm, 12 charges of assault, one of malicious damage, and twice for threats. He was last charged with being drunk and disorderly and assaulting the police. He could only suggest that the present offence had been committed from general malicious intent. He was a good workman, but on the least possible occasion he became most violent.

Asked if he had anything to say, prisoner said, "My conscience is clear as far as the charge is concerned. The police are malicious towards me."

His Lordship remarked that it would have been more to prisoner's credit if he had said he was sorry for what he had done. The jury had quite properly found him guilty, and he agreed with that verdict. Prisoner would go to penal servitude for three years.

79 TODAY. 10th June 1932

Alderman Dr. J. W. Ellis, "Father" of the County Council, is 79 years of age to-day.

SCHOLASTIC SUCCESS. 10th June 1932

Lucy Mitham, elder daughter of Mr. R. Mitham, jun., a pupil at Swavesey National School, has been awarded a free studentship at the Arts and Crafts School, Cambridge.

RECREATION GROUND. 10th June 1932

"A Parishioner" writes: With reference to L.D's letter in last week's "Press and News," I should like to ask whether the Parish Councillor who reminded the young men that wheeled vehicles are not allowed on the Recreation Ground is the only member of the Council who has been guilty of a breach of the by-law. Further, may I inquire when the notice board ordered by the Council about two months ago will be erected?"

LOCAL SUCCESS AT COUNTY SHOW. 10th June 1932

A team consisting of three members of the Swavesey Young Farmers' Club were successful in winning the Alderman Jackson Cup for stock judging at the County Agricultural Show held at Wisbech on 2nd June. The team consisted of Messrs. E. P. Parish, S. J. Wright and W. Parish, and was successful by a margin of 15 points over the next best team which was composed of competitors from Milton. E. P. Parish won first prize in the individual judging scoring a total of 180 points out of a maximum of 200. It is all the more notable in that he is only 12 years of age, and was competing in a class open to those up to 24 years of age.

EASTERN COUNTIES' BUSES. 10th June 1932

Some inconvenience is caused by the Eastern Counties' buses between Cambridge and St. Ives passing through Swavesey occasionally before the scheduled time. Swavesey is a long village, and apparently the only recognised "stop" is at the local agent's shop at Church End, about a mile and a half from Rose and Crown-lane, Boxworth End, where the buses turn off for Fen Drayton. It is suggested that there should be three "stops," viz., at the Agent's, the Memorial Hall in High-street, and at Rose and Crown-lane turning. These "stops," if adopted, would probably often obviate stoppages to pick up and set down passengers at other points en route.

BRITISH LEGION. 17th June 1932

The Swavesey branch of the British Legion held another of their popular socials on Saturday. A large number of people were present, and a very enjoyable programme was provided by the committee. The following were those taking part in the programme: - Mrs. H. Bishop, the Misses Lee, Mr. H. H. Cole, and Mr. P. Lee (vocal items), with Mrs. Budge, Messrs. J. Sutton and A. Anderson, Mr. Unwin and a friend (dance band). The proceeds amounted to £5 16s. 6d. It is hoped to have another social shortly, this being the unanimous wish of those present.

FRUIT BOTTLING. 17th June 1932

Miss Hassall, of Cambridge, gave an interesting demonstration on how to bottle fruit by various methods, at the June meeting of the Women's Institute on Tuesday evening. There was a good attendance of members and one visitor. A considerable amount of business was got through, including arrangements for visiting the Flower Show at Papworth, and for a garden party on June 28th. Mrs. Hephew and Mrs. Marriott gave reports of the annual N.F.W.I. meeting at the Albert Hall and of the Summer Council meeting at Cambridge, which they had attended as delegates. Miss K. Banks was presented with a certificate gained at the Homecrafts Exhibition. She also won a prize kindly given by Miss Cole for the best jar of home-made marmalade. The exhibits in this competition were afterwards sold for the benefit of sick members of the W.I.

SWAVESEY WATER WASTAGE. 24th June 1932

R.D.C. Find a Remedy.

More was heard about the water wastage at Swavesey at the monthly meeting of the Rural District Council held at St. Ives on Friday. The members present were: Messrs. J. Frohock (chairman), F. Kirby, W. I. Hemington, R. Norman and A. Day.

Figures obtained from the East Hunts. Water Company showed that during the month ended April 30th, 56,000 gallons of water were consumed, whereas for the corresponding period last year the total was 34,000 gallons. The corresponding cost of the water was £26 16s., and £17 respectively, an increase over last year of £9 10s. The figures for May were not available, but it was understood that there had been a decrease in the wastage.

Mr. Kirby said the only remedy to stop the wastage was to have meters installed on the farms.

The Clerk said that would be a very expensive matter, as the meters cost about £6 each.

Mr. Bullen, the water rate collector, said he went to a field on the Fen Drayton-road, Swavesey, and examined the taps. The tank was full and the water was running over, and it was difficult to reach the tank.

Mr. Day said it was probably the fault of the workpeople, and not the farmers, in failing to turn the taps off.

The Council decided to inform the engineer that any case where repairs were necessary he should receive instructions to carry them out, failing which the offender should be reported.

COUNCIL HOUSE DEFECT.

A complaint was received from a tenant of a house in School-lane, Swavesey, stating that a pipe between his and the next house was not connected to a drain, and as a result of the fall of water from the two roofs his garden resembled a pond. He asked that the repairs should be carried out in the autumn and not during the summer, as he did not wish his garden to be disturbed.

It was left to the water rate collector to see that the work was carried out in the early autumn.

COUNTY SCHOLARSHIP. 24th June 1932

Betty Culpin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Culpin, of High-street, a pupil at Swavesey National School, has been awarded a County Minor Scholarship, tenable at the Cambridge and County High School for Girls.

OBITUARY. 24th June 1932

A telephone message reached the village on Thursday week, announcing the death that morning at Purley, Surrey, of Mr. Joseph Metcalfe, a member of an old Swavesey family. He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Metcalfe, and brother of Mr. Thomas Metcalfe, for many years the local sub-Postmaster, who died in Cambridge on April 16th last.

NURSING ASSOCIATION FETE. 24th June 1932

Notwithstanding the somewhat smaller attendance due no doubt to the cold and dull day, the takings at the annual garden fete in aid of the Swavesey, Over and Fen Drayton Nursing Association, held on Thursday week in the beautiful garden of Swavesey Manor (kindly lent by the Rev. J. F. Cooksey) amounted to £34 1s. 3½d. (about £3 less than last year), and as all expenses had been borne by people interested in its welfare, the whole of this sum went to the Association. The fete was opened by Mrs. Peeling, better known to Swavesey people as Miss Ella Cole, elder daughter of the late Mrs. W. C. Cole, the original president and a keen supporter of the Association. Mrs. Peeling made a brief but graceful speech, and was presented with a beautiful bouquet, given by Mrs. Banks, by little Pamela Ladds, of Over. The stalls, side-shows, competitions, etc., were under the charge of the following: Useful work, Mesdames J. Norman and C. Dean; fancy and jumble, Mesdames Aldred and Chew; sweets, the Misses Dodson; pound and produce, Mesdames Burling and W. Thorp; ice creams, Mrs. Lee; refreshments and teas, Mrs. J. Dean, Mrs. J. T. Daintree, Mrs. Berryman, Miss P. Williams and helpers; clock golf, Miss Cole, who gave the prize which was won by Mr. H. Moyne; Chinese washing, Miss Banks; bran tub, Miss P. Parish. Competitions – Cost of doll, dressed and given by Miss Beaumont, Miss Cole (won by Mrs. H. G. Key); weight of cake, given by Mrs. Cooksey, Misses Doris and Mable Godfrey (won by Mrs. E. J. Mitham and Miss P. Willson); candle lighting, Miss Freestone and Mrs. Jellings (won by Mr. H. Moyne); coin in water, Mrs. Cooke (not won); counting beads, Miss K. Banks (prize given by Mrs. Banks, won by Mrs. W. J. Hepher; ping pong balls in pail, Miss Parsons (won by Miss K. Banks); pins on cushion, Mrs. W. Kester (prize given by Mrs. C. S. Hepher, won by Mrs. H. G. Key); darts, Mr. F. W. Pontefract (won by Mr. W. J. Hepher); bowls, Mr. Uriah Thixton (won by him); egg and spoon race (prize given by Miss Beaumont), won by Mrs. Geo. Prime. A baby show, under the management of Nurse Claydon, was a feature of the afternoon's proceedings, and for this eleven babies were entered. Dr. F. Robinson (County Medical Officer) and Miss Graham (Lady Supt., Cambs. Nursing Association) officiated as judges, their awards being as follows: One to nine months, 1 Avis Sutton (Over), 2 Marjorie Isgrove (Swavesey); 9 to 18 months, 1 George David Hendry (Swavesey), 2 Keith Roger Garner (Over); 18 months and over, 1 John William Symonds (Over), 2 Gerald L. Cogman (Fen Drayton). All of the babies exhibited, Dr. Robinson announced, would be awarded certificates. There were also children's races, kindly arranged by the Misses Burleigh, who kindly gave the prizes. In the evening a variety entertainment, organised at very short notice by Miss Elsie Dodson, was a great attraction. The programme included songs by Mrs. Hind, violin solos by Master Laverack, monologue by Miss E. Dodson, and an amusing sketch entitled "The New Servant," capably acted by Mrs. Marriott and Mrs. Laverack. A gramophone, in charge of which were the Misses Lee, provided music during the afternoon.

SCHOOL TREAT. 1st July 1932

The children attending Bethel Sunday School had their annual summer treat on Thursday week. The proceedings started with a sumptuous tea in the schoolroom, to which 55 young people sat down. They afterwards adjourned to Mr. A. Day's field, where a thoroughly enjoyable evening was spent.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 1st July 1932

The Sunday School anniversary was celebrated at Bethel Baptist Church on Sunday, the services in the morning and evening being conducted by the Rev. E. Milnes, of Broadstairs. In the afternoon there was an egg and flower service, at which Mr. G. Milnes officiated, and recitations and special singing were rendered by the scholars. The Rev. E. Milnes presented certificates and prizes to the children, who sat for the Sunday School Union Scripture examination last March, and also certificates to collectors for native preachers. Miss Joan Williams presided at the organ.

WATER WASTAGE. 1st July 1932

A correspondent writes: From the report in last week's "Press and News," the Rural District Council would appear to hold the farmers responsible for the serious wastage of water at Swavesey. No doubt some of them, or their employees, have been to blame, but are they the only people in the parish who have been guilty of wasting water from the East Hunts. Company's supply? I venture to suggest that if an inspection were made of fittings at private houses defects, resulting in a waste of water, would be discovered – defects that could be remedied at practically no expense. A new washer can be obtained for about a penny.

DEATH OF AN OLD SOLDIER. 1st July 1932

Some of our older Swavesey readers will no doubt remember Mr. Alfred (Fred) Bowd, son of the late Mr. Tom Bowd. He was born in the village 82 years ago, and died early last month at his home in Muswell Hill, London. Enlisting in the Royal Artillery in 1867, when he was 17, he served in three campaigns – the second Afghan war, the Egyptian campaign, being present at the battle of Tel El Kebir, and the South African War, during which he was at Mafeking with Methuen's Horse. Mr. Bowd saw Sir George White win the V.C. in 1879, when, as Major White, he took part with his regiment, 92nd Highlanders, in the advance on Kabul. Finding that the artillery and rifle fire failed to dislodge the enemy from a fortified hill, Major White led the attack in person, himself shooting the enemy commander. This act so intimidated the rest that they fled, and the position was taken. Mr. Bowd twice volunteered for service in the Great War, but was refused on account of his age.

GARDEN SOCIAL. 1st July 1932

There was a good attendance of members of the Women's Institute and their friends at the garden social, which was held on Tuesday in the beautiful grounds of The Priory, by invitation of Mrs. Banks. A gift stall was under the charge of Mrs. Cooke and Mrs. Howlett, and a jumble stall of Mesdames S. and R. Hephher and Mrs. Williams. There was also a concert, the programme for which included songs by Mrs. H. Asplin and Mrs. C. S. Hephher, a recitation by Mrs. Laverack, and pianoforte duets by the Misses Hephher. Competitions were won by the following: Clock golf, Rev. C. E. O. Finch; pegs on line, Mrs. Martin; musical chairs, Miss Gaunt; smelling bags, Mrs. C. S. Hephher; weight of cake, Mrs. H. G. Key; weight of eggs, Mrs. W. Thorp; ankle competition, Mrs. G. Prime; mystery parcel, Mrs. Peppercorn; box of chocolates, Miss C. Prior; egg and spoon race, Mrs. G. Prime. All the prizes were given by members of the W.I., also the excellent refreshments which were ably managed by Mrs. W. Thorp, Mrs. Laverack, Mrs. G. Froment, Mrs. Martin and Miss E. Freestone. At 7.30 p.m. there was a whist drive, for which Miss Banks officiated as M.C. The prizewinners were: Ladies, Mrs. Jellings, Mrs. C. S. Hephher; gentlemen, Mrs. Banks, playing as gentleman, Mr. C. S. Hephher; most fives, Mrs. H. G. Key. The net proceeds of the very pleasant afternoon and evening amounted to over £7.

ARSON CHARGE SEQUEL. 8th July 1932

Swavesey Man's Appeal.

APPLICATION REFUSED.

In the Court of Criminal Appeal on Monday, J. K. applied for leave to appeal against his conviction at Cambs. Assizes and sentence of three years penal servitude on a charge of arson at Swavesey.

K. was not represented in court and did not appear.

Giving the judgement of the court, Mr. Justice Swift said K. was found guilty at Cambridge Assizes of setting fire to four stacks of hay. On April 16th, shortly after midnight, a man named Watts saw six stacks of hay on fire at Scotland-drove. He met a police constable and told him of what he had seen and the officer went towards the stacks, turning out his bicycle lamp before he went. As he approached the fire he met K. riding away from the direction of the stacks. There was no light on his bicycle.

“CONSTABLE GAVE CHASE.”

The constable called on him to stop, but he went on and the constable gave chase. When he came up with K. the constable found that the bicycle was muddy and had hay on it. When he asked K. whether he knew anything about the fire he said he did not. On his being taken into custody a wet and muddy box of matches was found on him. He was also found to be wearing boots which were studded in a peculiar manner and the police traced imprints of bicycle tyres and prints of boots similarly studded near to the hay stack.

K., added his Lordship, gave evidence denying that he had anything to do with the fire, but the jury thought that he had and he was convicted. In 1924 K. was convicted of unlawfully wounding, and he had been sixteen times summarily convicted. “We think,” the judge concluded, “that the conviction was clearly supported by the evidence, and we do not think the sentence of three years penal servitude was too long for the very serious offence of which he was found guilty.

The application was therefore refused.

YOUNG FARMERS' CLUB. 8th July 1932

A joint meeting of the Swavesey Young Farmers' Club and the Swavesey and District Agricultural Discussion Society was held in the School on Wednesday. During the proceedings the Ald. Jackson Cup for stock judging was presented to the successful team by Mr. R. Mailer (chairman of the Agricultural Discussion Society). The members of the successful team were: E. E. Parish, S. J. Wright and W. Parish.

BRITISH LEGION. 8th July 1932

Another successful social and dance was held by the Swavesey branch of the British Legion on Saturday evening. The Memorial Hall was packed to overflowing, which proves the great popularity of these Legion functions. The programme was, as usual, a very good one, and says much for the enterprising committee, who are working in perfect harmony. A little more variety was introduced this time. Prizes were offered for the lucky spot dance, the statue dance, and a competition for the best turn given by anyone present. The lucky spot dance was won by Miss F. Kester and Mr. Joe Sutton; the statue dance by Mr. A. Kester and partner, and the best turn competition by Ernie Whybrow, who sang "Show me the way to go home," and was given a great ovation. The dance music was played by the Crackjack's Band, and the refreshments were ably served by Mesdames Berryman, Turner and T. Savage. Mr. Lee was the indefatigable M.C., and Mr. Berryman, cashier. The gross receipts were £5 5s. 1d. This makes the sixth social held by this go-ahead branch this year, and the total gross receipts up to date from these alone now amount to the useful sum of £32 2s. 3d., plus £14 12s. 7d., obtained from the draw.

SWAVESEY LAND DISPUTE. 13th July 1932

Action at Huntingdon County Court.

His hon. Judge H. G. Farrant at Huntingdon County Court yesterday (Tuesday) adjourned until August 9th an action between Swavesey parties over a disputed piece of land, after they had failed to reach an agreement in the court.

The plaintiff, William Daisley, is the owner of a dwelling house, premises and a close of pasture land at Swavesey, and the defendants, Messrs. William Parish and John Wallis Parish, owners and occupiers of orchard land which abuts the property of the plaintiff.

The plaintiff alleges that on or about January 14th the defendants trespassed upon his hedges and ditches, cut down a small part of the hedge, affixed wire thereto and obstructed the plaintiff's right of way over and along the ditches. He claimed £1 damages for trespass, a declaration that the hedges and ditches separating the land of the plaintiff from the land of the defendants are the property of the plaintiff, and an injunction restraining the defendants from trespassing on the hedges and ditches and obstructing the right of way.

Before hearing any part of the case, his Honour together with counsel, namely Mr. Martin O'Connor (for the plaintiff) and Mr. S. L. Elborne (for the defendant) went to inspect the property and, having done so, he had a private discussion with the parties. A further talk with counsel brought no satisfaction in the way of a settlement, and his Honour adjourned the case until August 9th.

SCHOOL CRICKET. 15th July 1932

The cricket match between Over Council School and Swavesey National School, played at Over on Friday, resulted in a win for the home eleven by 20 runs to 15.

BRITISH LEGION RALLY. 15th July 1932

Twenty members of the local branch of the British Legion from Swavesey, Boxworth and Lolworth attended the great East Anglia Area Rally at Bury St. Edmunds on Sunday. Some of the men were accompanied by their wives, and with friends the party altogether numbered 39.

ADDENBROOKE'S HOSPITAL. 15th July 1932

The amount received by the Swavesey Hospital Aid Committee, under the Contributory Scheme, during the quarter ended 30th June, was £32 4s. 6d., bringing the total contributions for the nine months during which the scheme has been in operation up to £121 7s. 2d.

AN INTERESTING ANNIVERSARY. 15th July 1932

Mr. G. J. Paine celebrated the 89th anniversary of his birthday on Thursday week by giving a garden party at his residence, Wayside, in School-lane, to which he invited a number of the older villagers. On the following day he entertained a party of his young neighbours to tea at the Swiss Cafe, Fenstanton.

SWAVESEY WATER SUPPLY. 22nd July 1932

Reports More Satisfactory.

Reports of a more satisfactory nature were received in connection with the Swavesey water supply at the monthly meeting of the Rural District Council at St. Ives on Friday. The members present were: Messrs. J. Frohock (chairman), F. Kirby, W. I. Hemington and F. Stanton, with the Clerk (Mr. G. D. Day).

A letter from the engineer stated that he had examined the water taps on various premises and fields at Swavesey as instructed and he reported two cases – Fletcher, of Fen Drayton-road, Swavesey, and Johnson, College Farm, Fen Drayton.

The Clerk said he had written to Mr. Hawkes, the owner of the land, in respect of the case of Fletcher, and also to Johnson asking him to have the necessary work done by Mr. Chevill or some other engineer.

Figures in respect of water obtained for the East Hunts. Company showed a substantial decrease during the last two months. During April the consumption of water was 536,000 gallons, while during both May and June 237,000 gallons, a decrease of 299,000 gallons.

Mr. Kirby: There have been one or two letters in the “Cambridge Independent Press” and no doubt it has made people a little more careful.

SCHOOL HOLIDAYS. 22nd July 1932

The village school will break up this afternoon for the summer holidays, and will not be re-opened until Monday, September 5th.

A BIG DISAPPOINTMENT. 22nd July 1932

A correspondent writes: Can any reader of the “Press and News” tell me whether farthings have ceased to be coins of the realm, or, if not, have recently been excluded from the “coppers” which are deemed to be legal tender up to one shilling. Shopkeepers, no doubt, have the right to refuse to serve customers, no matter whether they tender “Bradbury’s” or farthings in payment, but it was a big disappointment to a little child the other day when he found that two farthings would not purchase a ha’porth of sweets.

A HOUSEWIFE’S BUGBEARS. 22nd July 1932

The President, Mrs. C. S. Hepher, occupied the chair at the monthly meeting of the Women’s Institute on Tuesday week, when the outstanding feature of the evening was a demonstration on the boning of fowls by Mr. Robinson (county poultry instructor). This was most interesting, and on the proposition of Miss D. Banks, a hearty vote of thanks was accorded to Mr. Robinson. A roll call on “The job I most detest” brought forth many of the bugbears of the housewife's life. The rest of the evening was devoted to country dancing, which was greatly enjoyed.

SCHOOL TREAT. 22nd July 1932

The children attending the Parish Church Sunday School were given their annual treat on Thursday week. The proceedings opened with a short service in the church, after which the young people did full justice to an excellent tea on the Vicarage lawn. They then adjourned to the Manor Field for cricket, races and games, the smaller children after a time returning to the Vicarage grounds for other amusements. Shortly before 8 o'clock all assembled on the lawn for the presentation of the prizes by Mrs. Finch, and when this was over the children, after giving round after round of lusty cheers, dispersed for home, tired but happy.

THANKS FROM AUSTRALIA. 22nd July 1932

Mr. Edward Williams, who left Swavesey two or three years ago for Australia, and is now in training for Holy Orders at St. Francis College, Nundah, Brisbane, writes: "I should be greatly obliged if I may be permitted, through your columns, to thank the anonymous donor, or donors, who so thoughtfully sent me in March two lots of English Church literature and also a small bundle of "Punch." The parcels bore the Swavesey postmark. The 'Press and News' of which I receive a copy every week, keeps me in touch with home events, and I can assure you that I read the paper with great interest. Although Australia is to a large extent made up of people from England or of people descended from English stock, it is surprising how little news concerning the old country is given in Australian papers. Hence one reason for my appreciation of the 'Press and News.'"

SWAVESEY CHURCH FETE. 22nd July 1932

Dedication of Bells To-morrow.

AMUSEMENTS AND SIDE-SHOWS.

To-morrow afternoon Bishop Price is to dedicate the new bells in Swavesey Church. Yesterday, appropriately enough, a fete in aid of the Bell Repair Fund was held in the Vicarage grounds. As last year the Parochial Church Council, who were responsible for the organisation of the function, arranged an attractive programme of amusements, and the Somersham Town Band enlivened the afternoon proceedings with musical selections, besides playing for dancing later.

The Vicar (Rev. O. Finch) presided at the opening ceremony, which was performed by Mr. C. F. Johnston, and was supported by members of the Church Council. After being introduced by the Chairman, the opener made a short speech, in the course of which he alluded to the history of Swavesey bells. He was thanked cordially by Harry Wells, and the vote of thanks was seconded by Mr. Will Hepher.

Among the numerous diversions for visitors was a children's fancy dress parade, the judges being Mrs. Honey, of Houghton, and Miss Francis, of Longstanton. Miniature concerts in the afternoon and evening also proved very popular, and the artistes were Mrs. Hind, Mr. R. Thoday, and Mr. H. Topham (songs). At each of the concerts a sketch, "Housemaids in a Fix, was presented, the performers being Mr. S. F. Mitham, Mr. J. Mitham, Misses E. L. Dodge and Burleigh.

In the early evening the scholars of Cambridge Technical School presented a play, "Sally's Peppermints," also with great success.

About 100 children and adults joined the Cambs. Band of Hope excursion to Skegness at Swavesey station yesterday morning.

SCHOOLBOY CRICKET. 29th July 1932

The return cricket match between Swavesey and Over Schools, played in heavy rain on Swavesey Recreation Ground on Friday, was won by Over by 52 runs to 44.

AIRCRAFTSMAN WOOD. 29th July 1932

Air Apprentice Stanley Wood, second son of Mr. C. Wood, headmaster of Swavesey National School, who passed out at Halton Camp on Tuesday as an aircraftsman, has been posted to No. 19 Fighting Squadron, R.A.F., at Duxford. He arrived in Swavesey on Wednesday on three weeks' leave, bringing with him the Barrington-Kennett inter-wing cricket trophy medal, presented to him the previous day as a member of the winning XI.

LAST WEEK'S FETE. 29th July 1932

The following were the winners of the competitions at the fete which was held on Thursday week in the grounds of Swavesey Vicarage in aid of the Church Bells Fund: - Shooting gallery, Mr. Joyce; length of string, Mrs. H. G. Key; quoits, Mr. Brudenell; weight of dinner, Miss Williamson; basket of fruit, Miss C. Thorp; weight of cake, Mrs. Hard; clock golf, Mrs. Hard and Mr. A. Godfrey; rabbit, 1 Mrs. Banks, 2 Mr. P. Banks; ping pong, 1 Mrs. Key, 2 Mr.

Brudenell; hat making, Mr. S. Prime and Mrs. Smith; farthings in bran, Mr. P. Banks. The day's effort resulted in over £70 being added to the Bells Fund.

PARISH COUNCIL. 29th July 1932

The quarterly meeting of the Parish Council was held at the Memorial Hall on Monday evening, when there were present: Mr. C. H. Parish (chairman), Messrs. W. Burton, C. W. H. Cole, C. Dean, F. Hephher, J. Linford, P. Parish, A. P. Payne, and C. Savage, with the Clerk, Mr. Prime Godfrey. The accounts of the Council, the Clerk said, had been audited by the Public Auditor, who passed them as correct. Mr. Linford reported that the repairs to the roof of the fire engine house, ordered by the Council at the previous meeting, had been carried out at a cost of 12s. 2d., including labour and materials. Mr. Cole asked whether Mr. C. Savage, a Councillor, had been employed to do the work, and, if so, whether that was in order. The Chairman replied that no doubt it was wrong in principle. Mr. Cole then moved that the money should be repaid to the Council. He did not, however, desire that Mr. Savage should lose the money, and after considerable discussion the matter dropped. With regard to the notice board prohibiting wheeled vehicles on the Recreation Ground, Mr. F. Hephher said that Mr. E. Mitham, of Middle Watch, had had the order for some time, and he understood the board would be put up very shortly. The Clerk announced that a cheque for £30 15s. 4d., the half-yearly instalment in the repayment of the loan on the Memorial Hall, had been received from the Hall Management Committee, and that this sum had been remitted to the Public Works Loan Board. This repayment reduced the amount owing on the loan to £110. The Chairman mentioned that the stile leading from the Recreation Ground to Brickhill Drove had been broken, and that he had tied it up temporarily with wire. This led to a discussion on the stiles and footpaths in the parish, but eventually it was agreed that the stile should be repaired.

SWAVESEY BELLS. 29th July 1932

Re-dedication After Re-hanging.

A RINGERS' FESTIVAL.

At a simple service the old peal of six bells of Swavesey parish church was re-dedicated on Saturday afternoon by the Right Rev. Bishop Price, assistance bishop of the Diocese, in the presence of a large congregation, amongst whom were ringers from far and near.

The service opened with the dedication of the bells, and for this the Bishop, Clergy and Choir proceeded from the choir vestry to the West (or tower) end of the nave. The hymn "We love the place, O God" having been sung, the Bishop on the formal request of the Vicar (Rev. C. E. O. Finch) solemnly dedicated the bells and all work carried out in connection therewith. A short peal was then rung by the Swavesey ringers, and the Bishop, Clergy and Choir moved on to the Chancel for the remainder of the service, which included the 84th and 150th psalms, a Lesson read by the Rural Dean (Rev. A. Campbell Hair) prayers said by the Vicar and hymns. The Bishop also gave a short address. After the Blessing the service concluded with the hymn "Now thank we all our God." The Vicar of Over (Rev. F. G. Weston) was present in addition to the clergy already named.

Mr. C. Johnston, head of the firm of Messrs. Gillett and Johnston, who was unavoidably absent, was represented by Mr. W. Dyer, who had carried out the work.

THE BELLS.

The bells, which have been in the church for about 180 years, have been 8th turned so as to give a new striking place for the clapper, and have been re-hung in the latest modern method on a steel and iron frame with ball bearings, which lessen the work of the ringers very considerably. Beyond the turning they have not been interfered with in any shape or form, as they have been fitted by Messrs. Gillett and Johnston, the well-known bell-founders of Croydon, Surrey, to whom the work was entrusted, with the firm's pattern of cannon retaining the headstock. A new floor has also been laid under the bells which makes their tone more pleasant in the church.

All the work on the bells has been done in the church. It may be of interest to mention that on the tenor bell are the names of John Warham, Vicar of Swavesey from 1731 to 1754, and Berry Dodson, the donor.

MANY METHODS RUNG.

In addition to a good muster of the Swavesey ringers, including the following, who rang the round during the service: H. G. Key 1, E. Prior 2, B. Hodson 3, T. Froment 4, F. Hemington 5, R. Mitham, jun., tenor, ringers were present from Buckden, Cambridge, Chatteris, Cherryhinton, Harlow (Mr. G. Dent, District Ringing Master, Essex Association), Histon, Oakington, Over, Springfield, Chelmsford, Sutton, Somersham, Trumpington, Willingham.

At the close of the service, tea was provided for the ringers in the Vicarage, after which Mr. F. Warrington (Over), acting on behalf of the Swavesey Captain, Mr. B. Hodson, selected the following representative band for the opening touch of Stedman Doubles: Miss K. Willers (Trumpington) 1, G. Dent (Harlow) 2, E. Runter (Springfield, Chelmsford) 3, A. J. Abrams (Chatteris) 4, F. Warrington (conductor) 5, W. Dyer (Croydon Bell Foundry), tenor. Everyone was very pleased with the "go" of the bells, their action being described as "perfect."

Ringin was kept up continuously until 9.20 p.m., the methods rung including Plain Bob, Woodbine, Kent, Cambridge Surprise, London Surprise and rounds for the beginners. A great day was brought to a successful conclusion by the 1st 720 peal on the bells in their present form by the following: R. Smith 1, B. Hodson 2, D. Adams 3, F. Warrington (conductor) 4, Mr. Ginn 5, R. Mitham 6.

SWAVESEY SHOW. 5th Aug. 1932

Big Crowds at Show

FINE SPORTS PROGRAMME

Horticultural Entries Down.

Brilliant sunshine drew several thousand spectators from all parts of the country to the Manor Field, Swavesey, yesterday afternoon and evening. The occasion was the annual show and sports arranged by the Swavesey and District Horticultural Society and Athletic Association, and a lengthy programme of sports, with many well-known names among the competitors, and a comprehensive list of horticultural classes, were the attractions. A popular feature again was the really excellent musical programme given by Messrs. Cheesewright.

The sports track was in good condition, despite the weather of late, and some interesting and thrilling races, both cycle and athletic, were seen. In the horticultural section, although numbers showed a decrease on last year, a good display of fruit and vegetables was shown.

As before the popular president of the Society (Mr. R. C. Cole) came down from Blackpool, with his wife, who presented two silver cups to be won outright at the show. One cup was for the exhibitor with the highest number of points in the horticultural section, and the other for the winner of the flat race for men over 35.

After the conclusion of the sports there was dancing on the field and also in the Memorial Hall.

HORTICULTURAL ENTRIES.

In the horticultural section the numbers showed a decrease on last year, both from the point of view of exhibitors and their entries. The average standard, was, however, much about the same, except in the flower classes, which were decidedly poor. Potatoes, carrots, peas and beet were about the best classes in the members' section, but certain of the apple classes, raspberries and tomatoes were poor. Bramley's Seedlings, however, had such a good entry among the apples that the judges decided to award an extra prize. The Lord Derby class, too, had a particularly large number of entries.

Gooseberries and cucumbers were classed as fairly good, while marrows also came up to average. In the cottagers' classes things were much about the same, and the agricultural classes did not meet with the success that could have been wished for.

The judges in the horticultural section were Messrs. A. T. Paskett and George Hart. Other officials who were responsible for the show were as follows: Chairman of committee, Mr. C. W. Hines; vice-chairman, Mr. H. W. Whitehead; hon. general secretary, Mr. Prime Godfrey; joint treasurers, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hephher; sports secretary, Mr. L. B. Carter, Over, and various sub-committees.

THE PUBLIC WATER SUPPLY. 5th Aug. 1932

Although the burst in the public water main in High-street was attended to with commendable promptitude on Tuesday, the users of water in the area affected were put to considerable inconvenience through the water supply being cut off from about noon until 4 p.m. without any warning being given.

FOOTBALL CLUB. 5th Aug. 1932

At the annual meeting of the Cricket (sic) Club held at the Memorial Hall on Thursday week it was decided to rung two teams during the forthcoming season and to enter the 1st eleven for the Cambs. League Minor Cup and Cottenham Nursing Cup competitions, and the second eleven in the Histon and district League. Messrs. A. Hephher and S. Godfrey intimated that they were unable to again accept office as treasurer and captain respectively, the announcement being received with much regret, as both had rendered valuable services to the club. The following officers were appointed: Hon. secretary, S. J. Wright; treasurer, H. Bridgeford; captain, 1st eleven, W. Kester; vice-captain, J. Sutton; captain 2nd eleven, O. Walker; vice-captain, D. Sutton. Mr. Jack Mustill, the old Cambridge soccer Blue, was elected President.

FUNERAL. 5th Aug. 1932

The funeral of Mr. Leonard Kester, son of Mrs. Kester, of Boxworth End, and the late Mr. James Kester, who passed away last Friday, after a long and painful illness borne with great patience, took place on Monday afternoon, the Rev. J. Harrison, of St. Ives (Primitive Methodist Circuit minister) conducting the service at the house and also officiating at the interment in the cemetery. The chief mourners were: Messrs. Frank, Charles and Fred Kester (brothers), Mrs. Waling and Mrs. W. Coulson (sisters), Mesdames C., J., and F. Kester (sisters-in-law), Mr. F. Waling (brother-in-law), Mr. F. Coulson (nephew), Miss Kester Waling, Mrs. Duce, Misses F. and M. Kester (nieces). Deceased, who was 59, worked for 30 years at Highfield Farm under the late Mr. W. W. Warner, the late Mr. J. B. Ellis, and Mr. R. Ellis Long, and later for two years at the Hill Farm, under Mr. R. Norman, and four old fellow employees, Messrs. E. Dodson, E. Prior, W. Savage, and G. Spearman, bore him to the grave.

SWAVESEY LAND DISPUTE. 12th Aug. 1932

Neighbours in Court Action.

A SECOND ADJOURNMENT.

The adjourned Swavesey case arising out of a dispute over certain property came up for hearing at the Huntingdon County Court on Tuesday. Only part of the evidence was, however, given and the case was again adjourned until the next court. The parties concerned were W. D., the plaintiff, and Mr. P. and J. W. Parish, the defendants.

The plaintiff is the owner of a house, premises and pasture land at Swavesey, and the defendants are the owners and occupiers of land which abuts the plaintiff's property. Plaintiff alleges that on or about January 14th, 1932, the defendants trespassed upon his hedges and ditches, cut down a small part of the hedge and fixed wire thereto, and obstructed his right of way over and along his hedges and ditches. Plaintiff therefore claimed £1 damages for trespass; a declaration that the hedges and ditches separating the land were his property, and an injunction restraining the defendants from trespassing on the hedges and ditches and obstructing the right of way.

Counsel were Mr. Martin O'Connor (instructed by Dr. S. J. Peters, M.P.) for the plaintiff, and Mr. S. L. Elborne (instructed by Messrs. Maule, Sons and Winter) for the defendants.

EARLY CIRCUMSTANCES REVIEWED.

Mr. O'Connor said that in 1908 Mr. D. purchased the Rose and Crown Inn at Swavesey and a field belonging to it. He was a man who had owned agricultural land previously. The field had been cleared prior to the sale and the plaintiff saw on all sides adjoining what was now defendant's property the excavated earth which had been dug up in cleaning the ditches and had been thrown round the roots of the hedges and on to the banks of the land which plaintiff purchased. Up to that time all these ditches were recognised as the property of the plaintiff's predecessors in title. Within two years of plaintiff taking possession he cleaned up all the ditches and threw the excavated earth on to his land.

At that time the defendant's land was in the occupation of a man named Worboys, and D.'s land was in the occupation of a man named Osborne.

From the time of purchase by the plaintiff in 1908 up to 1932 he cleaned the ditches every eighteen months all through. In 1932 some arguments arose about the trespass of chickens from the property of one of the defendants. Plaintiff complained about this. He went to cut his hedge and clean his ditch for the purpose of keeping the land drained and at one part of the work which he was doing the defendants objected. As a result of that objection the plaintiff thought it best to have the matter determined by the court. The dispute having begun the defendants put wire on their side of the ditch, leaving the ditch between the wire and the hedge. Subsequently they altered the position of the wire, bringing the wire right up against the hedge and inside the ditch, attaching the wire to plaintiff's trees and hedges, and cut down part of the hedge.

The question was: Had the defendants the right to bring this wire and attach it to the hedge and also cut down part of the hedge? Mr. D.'s land was private property for two hundred years before the award and defendants gave no notice to their predecessors in title that this land had been dealt with.

“PLAINTIFF’S PROPERTY.”

Peter Bovill Grain, a surveyor, of Cambridge, said he had inspected the hedges and ditches in question at Swavesey. There was strong evidence that soil had been taken from a ditch and placed on the sites of the whole of the hedges. The hedge in dispute was a younger hedge than the others. There were trees in one of the hedges over one hundred years old. He had no doubt whatever that one of the ditches had been excavated and he was certain that the soil had been thrown on to Mr. D.'s property. From his inspection of the spot he was of the opinion that the hedges and ditches belonged to Mr. D.

PLAINTIFF’S EVIDENCE.

W. D., the plaintiff, said he bought the Rose and Crown Inn with the adjoining property in 1908 and pulled down the inn and built a private residence. He examined the property minutely when he purchased it. The hedges had been trimmed by the vendor and the ditches dug out, the soil being thrown into the hedges as was customary. From that time he cleaned the ditches every eighteen months or two years and there was never any interference in the work. He found that on one occasion one of the defendants had interfered with one of the ditches and he told him he had no right to do it. Defendant said the water was standing there and he had let it off. He assured defendant that the boundaries belonged to him (plaintiff) and defendant promised he would not meddle with them again.

In December, 1931, he had trouble with poultry trespassing on his land and he found one of the defendants. Plaintiff said there was a host of chickens on his property and they must be kept off. Defendant said he knew they had been there and he would endeavour to keep them off. He said he intended to put up some wire, and he told defendant he must not interfere with the ditch when erecting the wire. On January 4th, 1932, the senior defendant appeared when plaintiff and his son had been cutting the hedge and he asked: "Do you think that hedge (meaning the one on the south) is your property?" Plaintiff replied "I do not think so, because I know it is." He repudiated this interference. On the following day he was cutting the hedge again and the senior defendant came up and said "Can you give proof that that hedge is your property?" He replied "Can you give me proof that the property you have purchased is yours?" I paid him in his own coin," plaintiff added.

With that remark defendant became angry and pushed plaintiff, saying "You get off here. I will show you whose property it is." He told defendant to cease interfering with him, and the other defendant prevailed upon him to stop. The junior defendant said "If he will do what he has not business to do he must take the consequences." Plaintiff said he was not going to quarrel and went on cutting the hedge, with the assistance of his son and an employee. The senior defendant said "You continue until you are finished and we will begin."

The defendants erected wire three or four feet from the edge of the boundary on the three sides near their fruit trees. About January 14th they fixed strands of wire from their trees across plaintiff's ditch around one of his trees, and then a knitted wire was conveyed across the ditch and attached to the tree. Plaintiff nailed some boards to the tree on the other sides of the strands of wire to prevent his cattle breaking through the weakened hedge. He then went to his solicitors in Cambridge and charged trespass against the defendants.

"AN AWKWARD PRECEDENT."

Mr. Elborne asked plaintiff if he was right in saying that the only dispute between the parties was over the younger of the three hedges and a shallow ditch.

Plaintiff: The dispute between us is that my title is being assailed.

He had been on defendant's property scores of times to clean the ditch. He objected to defendant's chickens straying on his property because it created an awkward precedent.

Counsel intimated that the case could not possibly be concluded that day and his Honour Judge Farrant asked to hear the evidence of Walter Burton, an employee of the plaintiff.

Burton, who lives at Fen Drayton, said he had cut the hedges and dug the ditches for several years. He lived in the fields twenty years ago when defendant's property belonged to Mr. Warboys. He did not work for Mr. D. before the defendants took the adjoining property. He had helped him to do the ditches and hedges and had put the dirt from the ditches into the hedges of Mr. D.'s land. About ten years ago he heard P. say "When are you coming to cut that hedge, Mr. D., because it is damaging my fruit trees?" All the time he was with the plaintiff he had never known the defendants to touch the hedges or ditches.

During a lengthy cross-examination by Mr. E., a letter written by Burton to Mr. D. with reference to the matter in dispute was read and Burton admitted that the plaintiff was present when he wrote it.

Mr. Elborne: Did he tell you what to write?

Burton: No, not all of it. (Laughter.)

Before adjourning the case until the next court, his Honour suggested that Mr. O'Connor might recall the plaintiff into the witness box at the next hearing.

COOKING AND POETRY. 12th Aug. 1932

The activities of the Women's Institute are very varied, and last Tuesday's meeting was a good example. After business verses on the W.I. written by members, were read and judged by Miss Naylor, of Over, who awarded the prizes as follows: 1st Miss Banks, 2nd Mrs. W. Thorp. Then Mrs. Humphrey, of Arrington, gave an interesting demonstration on "Supper dishes," which was much enjoyed. An amusing round game brought the meeting to a close.

CAMPANOLOGY. 12th Aug. 1932

By kind permission, six members of the Ely Diocesan Association of Ringers rang the first full peal on the Parish Church bells on Saturday, the festival of the Transfiguration. The band stood as follows: - G. Whybrow, treble; 2 E. J. King, 3 F. C. Ginn, 4 M. Ginn, 5 A. J. Ginn, F. Warrington (conductor) tenor. The peal contained 5,040 changes in the Cambridge Surprise Method, being seven different 720's, and occupied 3 hours. Mr. E. J. King, who hails from London, is a regular Sunday service ringer at St. Giles', Camberwell. The bells recently rehung were rung with much ease.

OBITUARY. 12th Aug. 1932

Mr. James Coulson, son of the late Mr. Thomas Coulson, died at his home in Boxworth End early on Monday morning, aged 68 years. Some years ago he injured his leg through slipping off the step of a ploughing tackle engine, and since then has been in Addenbrooke's Hospital several times, leaving that institution for the last time only a week before his death, when as nothing more could be done for him, he returned home. He leaves a widow, four sons and four daughters. The funeral took place yesterday at the parish church.

PARISH CHURCH. 12th Aug. 1932

The Vicar, Rev. C. E. O. Finch, and his family, are having a month's holiday in Yorkshire, where it is hoped the moorland air will complete his son's restoration to normal health and strength. The services at the parish church are being taken by the Rev. J. F. Cooksey, of Swavesey Manor.

NOTICE. 19th Aug. 1932

The Blacksmith's and Shoeing Business of the late Mr. Charles Burling will continue to be carried on by his son, George Burling.

A DANGEROUS BRIDGE. 19th Aug. 1932

A local fisherman writes: "I have made inquiries, but cannot learn who is responsible for the upkeep of the bridge which crosses 'Webb's Hole.' The bridge is in a most dangerous condition, the footboards are rotten and in places completely crumbled away, and unless repairs are made an accident will happen in the very near future. I am not very heavy, but I dare not cross the bridge without holding fast to the handrail as a safeguard."

A SUMMER "SOCIAL." 19th Aug. 1932

There was a good attendance at the "Summer Social," arranged by Miss Queenie Spolton, which was held at the Memorial Hall on Saturday evening. The programme included the game of musical parcel, which was won by Mr. S. Wright, jun., and plenty of dancing, the music for which was provided by the Super Four Dance Band: Miss Q. Spolton (piano), Mr. H. Unwin (drums), and Messrs. J. Sutton and A. Anderson (violins). Miss B. Scarge also assisted at the piano. Miss C. Prior and Mrs. Pettitt were in charge of the refreshments, and Mr. A. E. W. Melbourne officiated as M.C. The proceeds were for the Band Funds.

THE LATE MR. J. COULSON. 19th Aug. 1932

The funeral of Mr. James Coulson, whose death at the age of 68 years was reported last week, took place at the parish church on the 11th inst., the Rev. J. F. Cooksey officiating. The mourners were: Mrs. Coulson (widow), Mr. T. H. Coulson (son), Mrs. Butcher, Miss K. M. Coulson (daughters), Mr. and Mrs. C. Lyon (son-in-law and daughter), Mr. George Coulson, London, (brother), Mrs. E. Bull, Mrs. R. Bedford (sisters), Mrs. W. Coulson (grandson), Mrs. O. Duce (niece). Other friends also attended. There were several beautiful floral tributes. Messrs. George Mitham and Sons were the undertakers.

THE LATE MR. CHARLES BURLING. 19th Aug. 1932

By the death of Mr. Charles Burling, who passed away on Thursday week after a short illness, Swavesey has lost another old and highly respected inhabitant. The son of the late Mr. William Burling, of Over, he was born in that village 79 years ago. When a lad he was apprenticed to a blacksmith at Sutton, and afterwards followed his trade at Needingworth and Longstanton and subsequently at Swavesey, where he worked for the late Mr. J. Rule, whose business he purchased 46 years ago and carried on until his death. Ten days before the end he was at work. Beyond being parish constable for many years, Mr. Burling held no public office, nor did he take an active part in parish affairs. The death of his wife early last January, after a married life of more than half a century, was a great blow to him. He leaves an only son, his other child, a daughter, having died when quite young. The funeral took place at Swavesey parish church on Monday afternoon, the Rev. J. F. Cooksey officiating. The principal mourners were: Mr and Mrs. George Burling (son and daughter-in-law), Mr. J. Burling (brother), Mrs. Green, Mrs. H. Dobson (sisters), Mr. and Mrs. F. Burling, Mrs. Prior, Needingworth, Mr. W. Gaunt, Mrs. Butterworth, Mrs. E. J. Linford, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hodson, Mr. and Mrs. B. Hodson (nephews and nieces). The funeral arrangements were carried out by Messrs. R. Mitham and Sons.

SWAVESEY RURAL DISTRICT COUNCIL. 19th Aug. 1932

The Clerk (Mr. G. D. Day) reported that the balance of the general account was £31, on the housing account £88, and on the rating account £1,134.

The L. and N.E. Railway Company had written agreeing to the assessment of £351 with regard to the Swavesey by-ways, subject to an adjustment when the railway assessment authority had finally determined the value.

Other business concerned Boxworth and Over.

BAKER'S SUCCESSES AT SANDY SHOW. 26th Aug. 1932

At Sandy show yesterday, Mr. W. D. Isgrove, baker and confectioner, High-street, Swavesey, was awarded first prize for currant cake, third prize for sultana cake, and third prize for slab cake.

TWO IMPROVEMENTS. 26th Aug. 1932

Both anglers and bathers are most grateful to the authority responsible for so thoroughly cutting the weeds in the River Ouse at Swavesey. An improvement has also been effected at the bathing place by the erection of an additional diving board higher than that already in use.

ACCESS TO THE RIVER. 26th Aug. 1932

A correspondent writes: In reply to the local fisherman who asked in last week's "Press and News" who is responsible for the bridge at Webb's Hole, which he said is in a dangerous condition, I would suggest that the Swavesey R.D.C. are (unless I have been misinformed) responsible for the banks and public drains in the parish, it is only reasonable to assume that they are also liable for the upkeep of the bridge. Moreover, I believe, the Council repaired it some years ago. But for a long time past the R.D.C. appear to have been lax – to put it mildly – in looking after the bridges and other ways of getting to the river. How many of the old rights of way between the village and the Ouse are now available to the public? Where are the stiles? The remains of some may be found overgrown by hedges. How much is left of the footbridge over Covill's drain on the right of way to Holywell Ferry, and is it possible to get to Overcote across Middle Fen, as in days gone by? These are a few questions that might with advantage be put to the rural district councillors by people who are interested in preserving the amenities of village life – the Rural Community Council for instance.

A SUCCESSFUL SOCIAL. 2nd Sept. 1932

A good number of people attended the social arranged by Miss Spolton, which was held last Saturday in the Memorial Hall, in aid of the funds of the "Super Four" Dance Band, who supplied music for dancing, of which the evening's programme chiefly consisted. Owing to the illness of the drummer (Mr. H. Unwin), the band was somewhat depleted. Songs were also contributed by the Misses Lee and Mr. H. Cole. Miss C. Prior and Mrs. Pettitt were in charge of the refreshments, and Mr. A. E. Melbourne officiated as M.C.

ACCESS TO THE RIVER. 2nd Sept. 1932

"Fair Play" writes: "While admitting that there is a great deal of truth in what a correspondent said last week about the gradual disappearance of ways of access to the river, I cannot help thinking that he is rather unfair in suggesting, as I infer he does, that the Swavesey Rural District Council are mainly responsible for the present state of things. The local representatives on the Council have been re-elected unopposed time after time, and this surely could not have happened if the ratepayers had been dissatisfied with the way in which they were looking after the interests of the parishioners generally. Very few residents are interested in fishing, and as for evening rambles by the river, is it not far better for parents to take their children along the high-roads, where they can have plenty of fun, combined with exercise, dodging motor cars, omnibuses, lorries and motor cycles? Bathers are not entitled to special consideration for are not baths provided in the new Council houses? And, moreover, swimming is a dangerous pastime – more especially now a higher diving board has been provided, which every mother careful of her offsprings' safety should discountenance.”

SUNDAY TRIP TO SKEGNESS. 9th Sept. 1932

The 55 passengers who booked from Swavesey station on Sunday by the L.N.E.R. excursion to Skegness were given the opportunity of spending many hours by the sea. The train left Swavesey at 10.40 a.m., and did not get back again until after midnight.

CYCLES IN CHURCHYARD. 9th Sept. 1932

In a note in this month's North Stowe Deanery Magazine recording the proceedings of a recent meeting of the Church Council, the Vicar says: “The Council asked me to make it known through the magazine that bicycles must not be left in the churchyard all day long while their owners go about their business. Will offenders please note?”

THE LATE MR. T. R. PAYNE. 9th Sept. 1932

The funeral of Mr. Thomas Robert Payne, eldest son of Mrs. James Payne, of Boxworth End, Swavesey, and the late Mr. James Payne, took place at Bedford Cemetery on Aug. 31st. Deceased, who some years ago took a business in Bedford, had recently been in failing health, and he passed away on August 28th at the age of 56. In addition to his widow, he leaves a son and a daughter to mourn their loss. The mourners included: Mrs. Payne (widow), Miss M. Payne (daughter), Mr. F. Payne (son), Mrs. J. Payne (mother), Mr. A. P. Payne (brother), Miss Woodruff (sister-in-law).

BILLIARDS LEAGUE. 9th Sept. 1932

The annual meeting of the Swavesey and District Billiards League was held in the Memorial Hall, Swavesey, on Thursday week, the following clubs being represented: Swavesey, Somersham and Fenstanton. The accounts presented by the treasurer (Mr. H. J. Culpin) showed a balance in hand of £1 5s. 11d., and were passed without discussion. On the election of officers for the forthcoming season Mr. C. Wood read a letter from Mr. W. A. Bignell stating that he wished to resign the presidency of the League. After some discussion it was resolved to ask him to reconsider his decision. Mr. G. J. Jacobs and Dr.

Hart were elected vice-presidents, subject to their acceptance. Mr. G. Green (Fenstanton) was elected chairman, and Mr. Harding (St. Ives) vice-chairman. Mr. Wood announced that he was unable to continue as secretary of the League and Mr. R. Coles (Swavesey) was appointed in his place. Mr. H. J. Culpin was re-elected treasurer. A discussion took place respecting running the League on the aggregate number of points scored, instead of two points per game as hitherto, and it was decided to refer the question to the teams concerned. A few minor alterations having been made in the rules, the meeting closed with a vote of thanks to Mr. Wood for his services as secretary since the foundation of the League.

WEDDING. 16th Sept. 1932

The marriage of Miss Ruby Williams, of Swavesey, and Mr. Kenneth William Goodman, of Fen Drayton, took place quietly at St. Ives on Saturday.

STRICT BAPTIST CHAPEL. 16th Sept. 1932

Harvest thanksgiving services were held at the Strict Baptist Chapel yesterday afternoon and evening, when Mr. J. Kemp, of Luton, was the special preacher. The collections were divided between the Cause and the G.S. Poor Relief Society. There was a public tea between the services.

FOOTBALL CLUB. 16th Sept. 1932

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the social which was held in the Memorial Hall on Saturday, in aid of the Football Club. A local band, known as "The Crackerjacks," played a capital selection of music for dancing, and at intervals much appreciated songs were sung by Mrs. H. Bishop and Mr. H. Cole. Mr. C. S. Hepher acted as M.C., and Mesdames A. Turner and G. Oakman were in charge of the refreshments. At the close, on the proposition of Mr. A. Hepher, a hearty vote of thanks was accorded to all who had contributed in any way to the success and enjoyment of the evening. The takings amounted to over £4.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 16th Sept. 1932

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held on Tuesday, the President (Mrs. C. S. Hepher) occupying the chair. There was quite a good attendance of members. During the business proceedings two delegates were appointed to attend the forthcoming programme conference, and arrangements were made for the vegetable competition to be held at the group meeting on Tuesday next. Miss Cole (treasurer) presented the quarterly accounts, which showed a good balance in hand. The outstanding feature of the evening was an interesting demonstration on fancy stitching by Mrs. Hind, in course of which some beautiful work was shown. A hearty vote of thanks to Mrs. Hind, proposed by Mrs. Aldred, and seconded by Mrs. Cain, was carried amid applause. After this a round table conference was held to discuss subjects for next year's programme, and tea was served by the tea committee, augmented by Mrs. Aldred and Mrs. A. Whybrow. A roll-call on "My grandmother's reaper" and a game, "Fill in the gap," brought the meeting to a close.

HUSBAND & WIFE'S DIFFERENCES. 16th Sept. 1932

Lodger Who Intervened.

SWAVESEY "SCENE."

A "scene" between a husband and wife and the intervention of a lodger led to the husband being locked out of his mother-in-law's house at Swavesey on August 31st. There was a sequel at the Cambs. Divisional Court on Saturday, when the lodger summoned the husband.

Defendant was G. L., a labourer, of Fen Drayton, and he was summoned for assaulting W. D., Askew-road, Swavesey, at Swavesey, on August 31st. A plea of not guilty was entered.

Complainant, in evidence, said he was a labourer lodging at Askew-road, Swavesey. On August 31st he was just in the house having tea, after coming home from work. Mrs. L., who was the daughter of his landlady, Mrs. N., was not there, but her husband (the defendant) and baby were.

A few minutes later Mrs. L. came for her baby to put it in the pram outside the back door. Her husband stood there, and started bullying Mrs. L. They started fighting, and Mr. L. threw his wife to the ground. She lay there practically unconscious, and Mrs. N. remarked that they had better get her inside.

Witness picked Mrs. L. up after a minute or two, and Mr. L. began threatening him. He (defendant) threatened to kill witness, and so witness and the others locked themselves in the house. The crowd outside of between 20 and 30 people still kept making a noise, and Mrs. N. said she had better fetch the policeman. She went out the front door with her other daughter, V., and her son C. After they had gone witness bolted the front door and remained inside with Mrs. L. and the baby.

LADDER AGAINST WINDOW.

While witness was in the house a ladder was brought and placed against the back bedroom window of the house. Defendant came up the ladder with a stick and poked the stick about in the window. He then went down the ladder and the crowd went round to the front. They forced open the front room window, and defendant stood in the window with the stick in his hands, saying, "Where is my wife? Let my wife out."

Witness replied that he would let her out, and then, opening the front door, went out himself. As he got outside defendant struck him across the face and the head with his fists. Witness did not retaliate, but went away.

Replying to the defendant, witness denied that he had ever previously locked the door against defendant whilst with Mrs. L.

M. M. L., wife of the defendant, High-street, Fen Drayton, gave evidence that her husband knocked her down and she remained unconscious for two hours. She also described seeing her husband strike D. with his fist.

Cross-examined, witness agreed that she did bite defendant on that day. She did not go home with him because she was frightened of him.

Mrs. E. N., mother of the previous witness, also gave evidence.

A statement written by defendant was read to the magistrates by the Acting Clerk to the Court (Mr. H. F. Shaw). In the statement defendant said D. hit him on the jaw and he (defendant) hit him back. D. had always been a trouble to him.

The Chairman of the Bench (Col. L. Tebbutt) said the case should never have appeared before the court, but as defendant admitted striking D., he would be bound over for 12 months in the sum of £5. "We hope," added Col. Tebbutt, "that Mr. D. will not interfere between husband and wife. Their differences should not be decided by Mr. D., but by this court or another court."

SOCIAL. 23rd Sept. 1932

A social arranged by Miss Q. Spolton was held in the Memorial Hall on Saturday last. The attendance was quite good, but not quite up to the usual standard on account of similar attractions. Dancing was enjoyed to the music of the Super Four Dance Band, and the programme also included songs, which were well rendered by Mr. H. Cole, and imitations and impersonations by Mr. S. Prime. Miss C. Prior and Mrs. Pettitt were in charge of the refreshments, and Mr. A. E. W. Melbourne officiated as M.C.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 23rd Sept. 1932

Members of the Willingham and Over Institutes were entertained by Swavesey members at the group meeting held at Swavesey on Tuesday. There were over 100 members present, Mrs. Edwards presiding. Small reports of activities in the three institutes were given by the respective secretaries. During the business Mrs. Edwards was re-elected chairman and Mrs. C. S. Hephew convener for the ensuing year. Mrs. Newport Milson was warmly welcomed, and she gave an interesting account of institute affairs generally. Mr. Baker, well known to Swavesey members, gave an interesting talk on local history, bearing on the forthcoming pageant. Both speakers were accorded a hearty vote of thanks. A competition for the best collection of vegetables from one institute was won by Over. The prize for this was a charming cloth to be used at institute meetings. The judge for this competition was Mr. Cramp, who spoke of the excellence of the vegetables and also the arrangement. The vegetables were afterwards sold to augment the Group funds. The social part of the programme consisted of dancing, games and a well rendered sketch, entitled "Our Jumble Sale," all those taking part being members of the Swavesey W.I. Music for dancing was provided by Mrs. C. S. Hepher and Miss O. Coote. At the close of the meeting a very hearty vote of thanks was given Swavesey W.I. for the pleasant evening given to the visitors.

BARNARDO DAY. 30th Sept. 1932

The annual collection in the village in aid of Dr. Barnardo's Homes resulted in £2 1s. 6d. being raised. Misses Mary and Joan Mitham, Mary Shepperson and Myrtle Prior were the collectors.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 30th Sept. 1932

Members of the Women's Institute and a few friends, the party numbering about 20 in all, on Tuesday went by motor coach to Reading to pay a visit to Huntley and Palmer's Biscuit Factory. On their way they stopped at St. Albans, where they looked round the Abbey, and also at Windsor. At the latter place the party had a tour round the Castle, including the State Rooms. Home was reached about 9.30 p.m. – The Swavesey W.I. were placed first in their class for a Co-operative exhibit of bottle fruits at the recent Autumn Show in Cambridge.

THE LATE MRS. LETCH. 30th Sept. 1932

The death took place on Wednesday week of Mrs. Sarah Ann Letch, at the Manor, Swavesey, the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. Norman, with whom she has been living for the past eight years. Deceased was the widow of the late Mr. Humphrey Alfred Letch, of Toppersfield, and had lived for some time at Tiptree, Essex, prior to coming to Swavesey. The funeral took place on Saturday at the Over Cemetery, the Rev. G. E. J. Bird, of Watford, officiating. The immediate mourners were: Mr. H. Letch, Caterham (son), Mrs. J. Norman, Mrs. G. A. Smith, of Newark, and Miss A. Letch, Cambridge (daughters), Mrs. J. Letch (daughter-in-law), Mr. F. F. Norman (grandson). The polished oak coffin bore the inscription: "Sarah Ann Letch, died Sept. 21st 1932, aged 89 years." The funeral arrangements were carried out by Messrs. B. and W. R. Wayman, Over.

SUCCESSFUL SOCIAL. 7th Oct. 1932

The social evening organised by the local band, now known as the Blue Riviera, which took place in the Memorial Hall on Saturday, was a great success. Mr. C. S. Hephner acted as M.C.

Provision has now been made for special contribution cards to be issued to those persons whose income exceeds the limits, and who wish to become honorary members. Major Wallington has promised to attend the annual meeting of the branch, to be held on October 19th.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 7th Oct. 1932

Good congregations attended the harvest thanksgiving services at Bethel Baptist Church on Thursday week, when the Rev. Lomax Mackenzie, of Huntingdon, was the special preacher in the afternoon and evening. There was a larger company than usual at the public tea between the services. The festival was continued on Sunday, Mr. R. Garlick, of Spurgeon's College, conducting the services. The collections were devoted to church funds, the offerings of fruit, produce, etc., being sent to Addenbrooke's Hospital.

LATE REV. W. FISHER. 14th Oct. 1932

Funeral at Swavesey.

The funeral took place on October 6th of the Rev. William Fisher, M.A., (Cantab), who for 19 years was district secretary to the British and Foreign Bible Society, and for 20 years Rector of Kingham, Oxford, from which benefice he resigned owing to failing health in September, retiring to Cambridge.

The interment was at Swavesey Parish Church, the service being conducted by the deceased's son-in-law, the Rev. C. E. Finch, Vicar of Swavesey.

The chief mourners were: Mrs. Fisher (widow), Miss D. M. Fisher, Mr. J. M. Fisher, Mrs. Finch, Mr. and Mrs. Stafford, and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Fisher.

The deceased was in his 77th year.

SWAVESEY RURAL DISTRICT. 14th Oct. 1932

Rate Remains the Same.

At the monthly meeting of the Swavesey Rural District Council on Friday, Mr. J. Frohock presided, and there was also present: Messrs. F. Kirby, F. Stanton, and A. Day, with the Clerk (Mr. G. D. Day).

The Clerk reported the treasurer's credit balances to be: General account £259, housing £108, rating £358.

CHURCH COUNCIL'S APPLICATION.

A letter was read from the Swavesey Parochial Church Council with regard to repairs to the church clock, for which an account of nine guineas had been received, asking the Council to make a grant towards the improvements.

The Clerk said damage was done to the clock in removing part of the apparatus, and the Church Council were liable.

Mr. Kirby said if a grant was made it would be a charge on the public fund, and he wondered if the parishes would be agreeable.

The Clerk said it did not seem unreasonable to make a grant, and he suggested a sum of three guineas. It would, however, be a special charge on the parish.

Mr. Day thought that three guineas was a reasonable amount, and it was agreed that a cheque should be drawn.

Application being made, it was agreed to purchase six yards of gravel for the houses at Boxworth End, Swavesey.

A SWAVESEY DITCH.

The Sanitary Inspector (Mr. G. G. Yeandle) said complaints had been made by the tenants at Turnbridge, Swavesey, about the ditch there, and he had carried out an inspection. In his opinion the bank had become too heavy for the ditch, and was repeatedly falling in and choking it up. It either meant removing the bank or shoring it up, and that would be an expensive business. The bank was continually cracking and sliding into the dyke.

Mr. Day thought that nothing could be done except to clean the ditch out every two or three years.

The Inspector also thought it best to leave the ditch as it was and ask Mr. Hagger to keep a watchful eye on it.

THE RATE.

In presenting the rate for the half-year Mr. J. B. Mason, the accounting officer, said he understood that no further information had been received about the proposed amalgamation of Swavesey with Chesterton R.D.C. He believed that the Ministry generally gave six months' notice of these changes, so probably the amalgamation would not take place before March 31st. Working on that basis, the rates he proposed to make were the same for the last half-year, less a reduction of approximately 6d. to reduce the money in hand. During the past half-year the parish of Over had expended approximately £84 on a new sewer, incurring a special rate of 1s., and at Swavesey a rate of 4d. had been incurred, which was partly the penalty of water wastage.

Mr. Kirby said sometimes the water wastage could not be avoided.

The Rate Collector (Mr. E. J. Bullen) said the engineer inspected the pump at College Farm, Fen Drayton in April and tested the pipes. He estimated that the pump was losing 5,000 gallons a day.

Mr. Day wondered if it would be possible to have a periodical inspection of the pumps to avoid water wastage, and he was asked to confer with the Swavesey Parish Council with a view to the appointment of the engineer as inspector at a small salary.

The rate estimate was approved.

The collections on both days, except on Sunday evening, were as usual for Addenbrooke's Hospital, £6 8s., being realised. The flowers, produce, etc., used in the decorations, and the children's gifts,

The annual meeting of the Swavesey and District branch of the British Legion, which was held in the Memorial Hall on Monday, was well attended. Mr. P. Lee (treasurer) submitted the accounts, which showed a steadily increasing balance in hand, and the secretary (Mr. H. H. Berryman) presented his annual report, in the course of which he stated that five new members had been enrolled, two old members had left the district, and one had died. The members were to be congratulated, he said, on the way in which they had turned out to the rallies and the dedication of standards in the county. No claims for relief had been received during the 12 months, but three cases of sickness had been helped. Both the balance sheet and the report were adopted, and a hearty vote of thanks was accorded the treasurer and secretary. The following officers were elected for the ensuing 12 months: President, Dr. Hart; vice-presidents (subject to their consent), Rev. A. F. Royston and Capt. L. H. Swann (Lolworth); chairman, Mr. R. PARISH COUNCIL. 28th Oct. 1932

There was very little business for the parish councillors to deal with at their quarterly meeting held in the Memorial Hall on Monday evening, when there were present: Mr. C. H. Parish (chairman), Messrs. F. Hephner, J. Linford, P. Parish, A. P. Payne and C. Savage, with the Clerk, Mr. Prime Godfrey. After two or three small accounts had been passed for payment, including a claim for £3 15s. for income tax on the Memorial Hall, Mr. Payne called attention to an asbestos tile, or tiles, which had fallen from the roof of the Hall. It was stated that one tile had been replaced, but that owing to a misunderstanding another had not. This would, the Clerk said, be attended to without delay. Reference was also made to the cedar trees at each end of the Swan pond, the lower branches of which had recently been lopped by the County Road Authorities. The trees with two others in Market-street, had been planted as a memorial to Queen Victoria on the day of her funeral in January, 1901. The Chairman said the trees had been lopped without any reference to the Parish Council, to whose care they were committed. The Clerk announced that the family of the late Mr. Wright had decided not to erect a seat near Church Bridge, but, provided permission be granted, to place it in the cemetery. A short discussion respecting an overgrown hedge and ditch by the Constable's Rood, and certain by-roads in the parish more or less blocked by overgrown blackthorn hedges, matters over which the Chairman said the Council had not control, concluded the meeting.

Mr. Smith, who is a Conservative, was first returned to the Council in 1929, after having been narrowly defeated at the election held three years' previously.

SOCIAL. 4th Nov. 1932

Considering the unpleasant evening, the attendance at the social in the Memorial Hall on Saturday was very gratifying. The Super-Four Dance band provided an excellent selection of music for dancing. Musical parcels were won by Mrs. S. Wright (ladies) and Mr. J. L. Kester (gentlemen). Refreshments were supplied under the management of Miss C. Prior and Mrs. Pettitt, and Mr. A. E. W. Melbourne officiated as M.C. The proceeds were in aid of the band funds.

Royston, rector of Lolworth, who served in the war with the Cambs. Regiment. The lesson, Ecclesiasticus xlv. ("Let us now praise famous men") was read by Captain L. Swann (Lolworth), and the roll of the men of Swavesey, Boxworth, Conington, Fen Drayton and Lolworth who made the supreme sacrifice was recited by Mr. H. H. Berryman, after which the "Last Post" was sounded by Captain Barwell. An appropriate address was given by the Rev. A. F. Royston, and the following hymns were sung: "O God, our help in ages past," "God of our fathers" (Kipling), "O, valiant hearts" and "Fight the good fight," concluding with the National Anthem. After the usual refreshments, all of which were given by members, a beautiful birthday cake, decorated with roses and fern in W.I. colours, was cut and handed round, and this was the gift of the President, Mrs. C. ONE MAN MEETING! 11th Nov. 1932

Swavesey R.D. Council Comedy.

The Swavesey Rural District Council has had dwindling attendances at its monthly meetings for some time past, but the appearance on Friday of only one member, Mr. F. Kirby (the vice-chairman) was a happening without precedent in its history over nearly forty years.

Fortunately Mr. Kirby had no intricate matters to deal with, and what little business there was the Clerk (Mr. G. D. Day) said would be confirmed at the next meeting. Both seem to sense the slight humour of the situation, for when at the outset the Vice-Chairman asked to whom he was to appeal to verify the correctness of the minutes, the Clerk aptly replied, "Yourself, sir."

THE TRANSFER TO CHESTERTON.

A letter from the Clerk to the Cambs. County Council intimated that the Ministry of Health had practically agreed to the scheme for the merging of Swavesey with Chesterton, but gave no information as to when the actual transfer would take place. So far as the valuation was concerned, the District Council was instructed to proceed with this work as though no transfer was contemplated.

Mr. Kirby said the County Council were apparently still in the dark as to what was to happen.

RATING ARREARS.

The Rating Officer (Mr. J. B. Mason) stated that for the half-year ending September the outstanding arrears of rate amounted to £151 8s. 8d. Since that date £32 16s. 9d. had been collected, leaving a sum of £118 11s. 11d. outstanding. He had given seven days' final notice in some cases and in others had seen the ratepayers as to rates unpaid.

The Clerk said the only course open for the Council was to take proceedings to enforce the payment of the arrears.

Referring to a list of defaulters, the Chairman remarked: I cannot understand some of these names being down here. It is ridiculous. There are some, however, who are deserving of sympathy.

The Clerk: Not all of them. There is Christ College, for instance.

The Rating Officer said the general rates were 4s. 3d. for Boxworth, Conington, Lolworth and Swavesey, 4s. 2d. Fen Drayton, 3s. 8d. Over, and special rates of 1s. at Over and 4d. at Swavesey.

CHORAL CLASS. 18th Nov. 1932

In the other four villages £6 12s. was raised, making with the collections at the remembrance services at Swavesey on Sunday, Nov. 6th, viz., Memorial Hall in the afternoon £1 12s. 6d., parish church in the evening £2 9s. 6d., a total contribution of £18 17s. 2d. to Earl Haig's Fund.

SOCIAL AND DANCE. 18th Nov. 1932

The social and dance arranged by the Super Four Dance Band, which was held in the Memorial Hall on Saturday, was quite a success. The attendance was good in spite of the fact that this was the third social of the week, and the weather on Saturday night was unpleasant. The programme consisted of popular songs by Mr. H. Cole, and also plenty of dancing, the music for which was supplied by the Super Four (Miss Q. Spolton piano, Mr. H. Unwin drum, Mr. J. Sutton cornet, and Mr. A. Anderson violin), with Mr. C. Cole (ukulele). Miss C. Prior and Mrs. L. Whybrow (Over) were in charge of the refreshments, and Mr. A. E. W. Melbourne officiated as M.C. The proceeds were in aid of the band funds.

BRITISH LEGION. 18th Nov. 1932

A very successful social and dance was held on Saturday evening in the Memorial Hall, under the auspices of the Swavesey and District Branch of the British Legion. The hall was filled to its fullest capacity, but in spite of this a most enjoyable time was spent. The programme consisted of dances, interspersed with vocal items by Mesdames Hinds and Bishop, the Misses Lee and Messrs. Topham and P. Lee. A special feature of the evening was the singing of war period songs, the choruses of which were lustily sung by all present. The dance music was supplied by the Blue Riviera Dance Band, and the refreshments were served under the capable management of Mesdames Berryman, Turner and T. Savage. During the evening thanks were tendered by the M.C., and to all who had helped by attending and supporting the branch. The net proceeds, which amounted to £4, go to the general funds of the branch.

AGRICULTURAL DISCUSSION SOCIETY. 25th Nov. 1932

There was a good attendance at the opening meeting of the winter session of the Swavesey and District Agricultural Discussion Society on Friday, when the subject for discussion was the report of the Re-organisation Commission for Pigs and Pig Products. Mr. McMillan opened the discussion, and many of the members took part in the debate which followed on breeds of pigs suitable for various pig products. After the debate the winter's programme of discussions was announced, and the next meeting was fixed for this evening. Before the Discussion Society met a meeting of the Young Farmers' Club was held. The number of members attending was disappointing, but it was decided to continue this year, with pigs as before.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY. 2nd Dec. 1932

The balance sheet in connection with this year's show and sports, which was presented by the joint treasurers, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hepher, at the meeting of the Swavesey and District Horticultural Society, held recently in the Memorial Hall, showed that the expenditure had exceeded the receipts by about £13. The balance sheet was passed, but it was decided to arrange a dance or social in the near future with the view of wiping off some of the deficit.

SOCIAL EVENING. 2nd Dec. 1932

A successful and enjoyable evening was spent at the social and dance which took place in the Memorial Hall on Saturday, the room being comfortably filled. At the annual meeting of the workers in the District Nursing Association, held to go through the accounts and hand to the treasurer the subscription for the year beginning November 1st, 1932, it was announced that as a result of strenuous efforts in the three villages, there was a balance from last year of £37 8s. 9½d., whereas in the five previous years there was a deficit amounting in all to £61 11s. 2d. The subscriptions, donations etc., totalled £94 12s. 6d., and receipts from other sources, such as the Over Town Lands Trustees, socials, carol singing, whist drives, fancy dress parade and dance, Over Church harvest thanksgiving, garden fete, public assistance grant for old age pensioners and those in receipt of Poor Law relief, Ministry of Health for maternity services, etc., amounted in all to £102 8s. 10d., making the total receipts £197 1s. 4d. The expenditure was £159 12s. 6½d., leaving a balance in hand of £37 8s. 9½d. The accounts have been duly audited. The nurse during the year paid 3,106 visits.

WRONGFUL REMOVAL. 2nd Dec. 1932

Whybrow v. Crisp. – This was a claim by Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Whybrow against Marshall Crisp for damages for wrongful removal of certain corrugated iron fencing, plants, bulbs, rose trees and various other trees in a garden known as Mayleigh, Swavesey. Her claim was for the sum of £2 11s. 9d.

Mr. J. W. Winter, of Huntingdon, appeared for the plaintiff, and Major O. Papworth, of Cambridge, for the defendant, who was formerly the tenant of the house now owned and occupied by the defendant.

Defendant's was one of two houses, and Mrs. Whybrow stated that it was agreed two years ago to erect a partition between them. She supplied the wood for the posts and the door and Crisp paid for the corrugated iron. When defendant left his house he took the iron fence with him. She claimed that he had no right to take down the fence because he had given her a written agreement not to do so. A lot of the plants and trees in the garden were found to be cut down when defendant left the premises.

William Whybrow, the plaintiff's husband, also gave evidence as to the damage done to the fruit canes and rose trees. The fence was put up at the wish of Mrs. Crisp, and it was for defendant's benefit and to the disadvantage of the neighbours on the other side.

Covell Bishop, of Askew-road, Swavesey, a labourer, said he dug the garden after plaintiff went into the house. He found nothing in the garden only rubbish that had been buried. There were a few raspberry canes cut down, there were no rose trees or bulbs and there was no fence.

Richard Jacklin, Dean's Cottages, Swavesey, said he went to the garden at Mayleigh Cottage about three years ago, and the garden was then in a very good state. Mr. Smith was the tenant then. He did not see the garden during the tenancy of Crisp.

DEFENDANT'S EVIDENCE.

Defendant said he left plaintiff's house in January. He was the tenant before Mrs. Whybrow purchased it. The fence was put up in 1930. Plaintiff bought the wood for the fence and he bought the iron sheets, which he took away when he left. He always maintained that when he left the house the fence would go. He did not take away any of the canes, trees, bulbs or plants. He merely took the fence because he had paid for it.

Mrs. Crisp said nothing was taken away from the garden when defendant left the house, only the fence which her husband had paid for. The fence was put up because of a little unpleasantness between them and their neighbours.

Cross-examined, Mrs. Crisp said a note was brought to her from Mrs. Whybrow asking her to consent to the fence remaining if she and her husband left the house. She signed the paper, but her husband did not see it. Plaintiff told her several times she would not turn her out of the house.

Miss Latimer, of New-square, Cambridge, said she stayed with defendant when he moved from Mrs. Whybrow's house. He did not take any of the trees and plants from the garden. Mr. Crisp did not want anything that was not his. His Honour said he was not satisfied that defendant was responsible for the removal of the trees, plants and shrubs, but found that he was liable to compensate the plaintiff in respect of the removal of the iron fence. He awarded plaintiff a guinea damages.

SWAVESEY DISPUTE CASE.

In the case D. v. P., relating to a dispute over the ownership of certain hedges and ditches at Swavesey, His Honour heard the final arguments on the part of counsel, and reserved his judgement until another Court.

SUPER FOUR DANCE BAND. 9th Dec. 1932

Another successful social and dance was held in the Memorial Hall on Saturday under the auspices of the Super Four Dance Band, when a good crowd spent an enjoyable evening. The band provided an excellent selection of music for dancing, and Mr. H. Cole contributed two of his popular songs. The refreshments were supplied under the usual management. Mr. A. E. W. Melbourne acted as M.C. The proceeds were in aid of the Band Funds.

MOVING PICTURES. 9th Dec. 1932

Under the auspices of the B.W.T.A.U. and the Band of Hope, an excellent programme of moving pictures was given by Uncle David and Aunt Flossie, of the Band of Hope Union, in Bethel Baptist Church on Thursday week. Members of the B.W.T.A. were keenly interested in the garden party at Magdalene College, as many friends were featured in the film. The Skegness excursion was lived over again, the excitement being the greatest when Swavesey friends appeared on the screen. Mrs. Moore stressed the importance of making new homes temperance and Christian, and urged young people with matrimonial intentions to build on the right foundations. The meeting was arranged by Miss Gwen Payne and Mrs. Allpress, and the vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Moore was moved by the President, Mrs. Aldred.

SUDDEN DEATH. 9th Dec. 1932

While on the way to the railway station to catch the 8.42 a.m. train on Saturday, Mrs. Maria Bird, aged 66, of Boxworth End, collapsed near the Vicarage gateway. Mr. H. J. Culpin, who was a short distance behind, seeing that she had fallen, hastened to her assistance, but beyond placing her in as comfortable a position as possible, he found he could do nothing. Leaving her, therefore, in the charge of others who had come up, he went to Mr. Hind, who lives nearby, and asked him to convey Mrs. Bird in his car to Mr. and Mrs. Isgrove's (her son-in-law and daughter) in High-street. This he did, after telephoning for Dr. Hart. As Dr. Hart unfortunately was not at home, Dr. Cane, of Willingham, was also telephoned for, but the former soon arrived, followed very quickly by Dr. Cane. They could do nothing, for Mrs. Bird had passed away. The sad occurrence was reported to the Coroner, who decided that an inquest was not necessary, as Dr. Hart was able to certify that death was probably due to heart failure. Mrs. Bird was the widow of the late Mr. Joseph Bird, of Wednesbury, Staffordshire. For the past 11 years she had resided in Swavesey, where she soon made many friends, and was greatly respected. A large number of Swavesey friends, as well as many from the surrounding district, attended the funeral, which took place at the cemetery on Tuesday afternoon. The Rev. E. P. Blackaby, of Willingham, officiated. The immediate mourners were Mr. J. Bird (son), Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Isgrove (son-in-law and daughter), and Mr. G. Bird (grandson). There were several beautiful floral tributes. Messrs. R. Mitham and Sons carried out the funeral arrangements.

INTERESTING WEDDING. 9th Dec. 1932

There was a large congregation at Swavesey parish church on Wednesday afternoon to witness the marriage of Miss Elsie Vera Williamson, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williamson, and Mr. Philip Arthur Banks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Banks, of The Priory. The Rev. C. F. Stebbing, rector of Tewin, Herts., officiated, assisted by the Vicar of Swavesey, Rev. C. E. O. Finch. The service was choral, and included the hymns "How welcome was the call" and "O Father, all creating," and Mr. G. H. Skeeles who presided at the organ, played the Bridal March from Lohengrin (Wagner) as the bride entered the church, and Mendelssohn's Wedding March at the close of the service. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a charming ankle-length gown of turquoise ring velvet, with picture hat of perfect tone in soleil velour, and she carried a bouquet of golden roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Doris Williamson (sister of the bride), Miss Kathleen Banks (sister of the bridegroom) and Miss Dorothy Bradford (cousin of the bride) were attired in ankle length chrome panne velvet gowns with coatees to match and hats of French felt to tone. Their bouquets were of bronze chrysanthemums, the chief bridesmaid also carrying a muff with a Victorian posy attached. All wore diamante clips, the gift of the bridegroom. Mr. Sidney Banks was best man.

As the happy couple left the church a merry peal was rung on the bells, and other peals followed during the afternoon. The reception after the ceremony was held at the Dorothy Cafe, Cambridge, where about 100 guests were entertained, and later Mr. and Mrs. Philip Banks left by car for an unknown destination for their honeymoon, the bride wearing a marron French silk cordaline model gown trimmed with white and brown hand embroidery, a brown felt hat appliqué design in autumnal tints to tone, and a musquash coat. The presents were numerous and useful, and included a silver gong from the Swavesey Hockey Club, of which the bride was a member for many years.

SALE OF WORK AND CONCERT. 9th Dec. 1932

The annual Christmas sale in aid of church funds was held on December 1st in the Memorial Hall, which had been tastefully decorated with flowers and evergreens, and presented a most attractive appearance. Owing to the regrettable absence of the Vicar, through illness, Mrs. Finch, in a bright little speech, declared the sale open, and the various stalls were soon busy. The refreshments were capably managed by Mrs. Cooksey, whose principal helpers were Mesdames J. Dean, W. Thorp, Berryman, J. T. Daintree, Hodson, C. Walker and R. Gleaves. The other stalls were: Produce and Christmas presents – Mesdames Finch and C. Hephher; work, plain and fancy – Mesdames Banks, Barwell, Cooke, C. Dean, Levett and Pettitt; china – Mesdames E. J. Linford, E. J. Mitham, H. Wells; gifts – Misses Daisley and G. Froment; sweets – Misses C. Dodson and Page; Sunday School – Misses Banks and B. Day. Competitions were run by Mrs. W. J. Prior, counting game (won by Mrs. C. Hephher); Mrs. Lee, farthings in bran (won by Miss L. Cox); Miss Daisley, length of tape (won by Mrs. H. Carter). Miss B. Day made a large profit on the sale of photographs of the Vicar. In the evening a very good concert was arranged, and the large audience greatly appreciated every item, both serious and comic, awarding many encores. The play by small children, “The Fairy’s Gift,” was much enjoyed and the 12 performers reflected great credit on their trainer, Mrs. C. Hephher. Others taking part in the concert were: Mrs. W. Hind, who as well as singing and reciting acted as accompanist; Miss E. Few (Willingham), Mr. R. Thoday (Over), Mr. Jack King, comedian, Cambridge, and Swavesey Quartette. The net proceeds of the day’s effort amounted to £30 4s.

SWAVESEY R. D. COUNCIL. 9th Dec. 1932

Valuation Question: Water Inspector Appointed.

The Rev. C. G. Poynder took his seat on the Swavesey Rural District Council on Friday as the new member for Boxworth, and was welcomed by the Vice-Chairman (Mr. F. Kirby), who presided in the absence of Mr. Frohock. The other members present were Messrs. F. Stanton, A. Day, R. Norman and J. Scambler, with the clerk (Mr. G. D. Day).

The clerk said the treasurer's credit balances were: General account £250; housing £42; rating £589.

The Accounting Officer (Mr. B. Mason) said some time ago he reported that he had written to the Cambs. County Council with regard to the change over to Chesterton as affecting the valuation, and the reply received was that the County Council did not know on which date the valuation would take place. At the same time he wrote to the Cambs. Assessment Committee, and received a reply stating that the matter had been referred to the County Valuation Committee. No reply had yet been received from the Valuation Committee, and it seemed to him that the Rural District Council would have to decide what course it would pursue.

The Council discussed the matter at length and decided to ask for fresh returns from owners of property in the district.

The Clerk asked the Accounting Officer if he had any information about the change over to Chesterton.

The Accounting Officer: Nobody seems to know anything about it. The whole matter seems to be in the air so far as the County Council is concerned.

WATER INSPECTOR APPOINTED.

A letter from Mr. H. W. Chevill, the Council's engineer, was read with regard to his appointment as water inspector at Swavesey.

The Council agreed to appoint Mr. Chevill at a salary of £5 a year.

Mr. Stanton said he thought £5 was a reasonable sum.

Mr. Day: Yes, so do I. I think he should save us £25.

A letter from Mr. A. W. Melbourne, of School-lane, Swavesey, asking for a load of gravel for his paths, was received. It was decided to leave this matter to the parish representatives.

DEATH OF MRS. C. WOOD. 16th Dec. 1932

The sad news that Mrs. Winifred Wood, wife of Mr. Charles Wood, headmaster of Swavesey School, had passed away on Wednesday morning, was received in the village with great regret, and sincere sympathy is expressed with her husband and five sons and five daughters. Mrs. wood, who would have been 43 years of age had she lived until Christmas Day, had been ill for a long time, and had borne her sufferings with most exemplary patience and fortitude, always thinking of others and never of herself. The annual meeting of the Women's Institute was held in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday. The President, Mrs. C. The secretary gave an interesting report of the year's work, and the treasurer read the accounts, which showed a satisfactory balance in hand. Mrs. Banks, who attended as a member of the County Executive Committee, gave a short talk on Institute work. A competition for the best iced Christmas cake was judged by Mr. Isgrove, who awarded the prize to Mrs. Aldred. Then followed the election of the new committee, for which Mr. Pontefract and Mr. F. Aldred acted as tellers. After refreshments had been served by the tea committee, games and dancing were much enjoyed by all the members, Mrs. Hind kindly playing for the dancing. The following are the officers for the coming year: President, Mrs. C. Hephher; vice-president, Mrs. Banks; treasurer, Miss Cole; secretary, Miss Banks; committee, Mesdames Aldred, Canham, Elwood, Freestone, Laverack, Lee, G. Prime and W. Thorp, Misses K. Banks and D. FUNERAL OF MRS. C. WOOD. 23rd Dec. 1932

There was an exceptionally large attendance of villagers, including many old pupils, and of friends from neighbouring parishes at the funeral on Friday of Mrs. Winifred Wood, wife of Mr. Charles Wood, headmaster of Swavesey School. Mrs. Wood, who would have been 43, had she lived until Christmas Day, was a native of Derbyshire, and before her marriage she was a teacher at St. John's C. of E. School, Ripley, and at Codnor Park Infants' School, both in the same county. Soon after their marriage Mr. Wood was appointed headmaster at Swavesey, and from 1911 until her breakdown in health Mrs. Wood was an assistant teacher in the school, except for about three years during the war. Not only was she the right-hand of her husband in the school, but she took a leading part in organising the children's entertainments, always designing and making the costumes, etc. All this in addition to bringing up her large family. She was also one of the founders of the Swavesey Ladies' Hockey Club, and in her younger days one of the keenest players. The service at the church and at the grave in the churchyard was conducted by the Vicar (Rev. C. E. O. Finch). The principal mourners were Mr. C. Wood (husband), Messrs. F. included Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis (Bunnett), and the anthem "Goodwill to men" (Clare). The collections throughout the day were devoted to the Church of England Waifs and Strays Society, and the gifts of toys, books, etc., brought by the children in the afternoon were sent to the Harvey Goodwin Home, Cambridge. All services were well attended, the communicants numbering 133 against 104 last year. The church was effectively decorated with evergreens, flowers, etc.

CHILDREN'S SOCIAL. 30th Dec. 1932

The fourth event in the series of social arrangements made by the Parochial Church Council took the form of a "social" for children under 14 years of age, and if the amount of noise is a sign of enjoyment the children must have had a really topping time, for the committee found it very difficult to make themselves heard. The only time they were quiet was while they watched the performance of "The Fairy's Gift," which was repeated by special request. The cast was the same as when it was originally given at the concert on December 1st, except that Miss Jean Woods' part was taken by Miss Verna Smith. The rest of the evening was spent in dancing, games and competitions, all of which were much enjoyed. The winners of the competitions were: Balloon race, Ruby Wilderspin, Norman Lee; potato race, Billy Prior, Joan Hepher, Mary Mitham, Annie Northill; peas and macaroni, Verna Smith, Joan Hepher, Edward Brasher, Percy Wright; musical parcel, Kathleen Carrier, Allan Lee. A COLLISION. 6th Jan. 1933

An alarming accident, fortunately not attended by serious consequences, occurred on Saturday at the junction of Market-street and High-street, when a float which was being driven from Cow Fen came into collision with a motor milk lorry belonging to Mr. Keith Wright, which was proceeding along High-street. Both shafts of the float were broken, and one of them ran through the handles of a perambulator in which were some children, badly bruising the arms of one child. Two little boys in the float were also thrown out into the road.

COUNCIL MEETING. 6th Jan. 1933

Swavesey Rural District Council's last meeting of the old year at St. Ives on Friday, was attended by Messrs. F. Kirby (vice-chairman), W. I. Hemington and F. Johnson. Day) reported that the treasurer's credit balances were £127 on the general account, £875 on the rating account, and on the housing account a debit of £44. He further reported that £100 from the repairs account had been invested in 3½ per cent. Conversion Stock as instructed at the last meeting, and that this had purchased £101 17s. 11d. worth of stock. Notice had been received from the Ministry of Health of payment to the treasurer of £139 Exchequer grant.

NEW YEAR'S EVE SOCIAL. 6th Jan. 1933

The Swavesey and District Branch of the British Legion held a very successful social in the Memorial Hall on Saturday evening. There was a very large attendance; in fact, the largest yet known in connection with these events. The excellent and well-varied programme consisted of dancing, including the twilight waltz, and vocal items by Mesdames Hinds, H. Bishop, and the Misses Lee. Other items had been arranged, but owing to the dance numbers being encored several times, it was impossible in the time to carry out the full programme. The dance music was supplied by the Blue Riviera Dance Band. The refreshments were under the care of Mesdames Berryman, Turner, Pettitt and Mr. Turner; the doorkeeper was Mr. Berryman, and the M.C. Mr. Lee, who, together with the Hon. Secretary, was responsible for providing such a good programme. During the evening there was a competition for a box of chocolates, the lucky number being drawn in favour of Mrs. James Prior. The door receipts were £5 17s. 2d., the refreshments yielded 11s. 9d., and the box of chocolates 8s. 2d. profit. After allowing for expenses, the useful sum of £4 10s. has been carried to the Branch funds.

There was a good attendance, one new member, Miss Elsie Thorp, being welcomed. The Outing Fund was re-opened, and Mrs. Laverack was appointed delegate to the county meetings. Arrangements were also made for members' night. A competition – the most words made out of the letters of "Institute" was won by Miss Proud, the prize being given by Mrs. Banks (V.P.). The rest of the evening was spent in dancing and games, "vacant chair" being a general favourite.

MISSIONARY TEA. 13th Jan. 1933

A large number of parishioners attended the annual Epiphany missionary tea, which was held in the schools on Wednesday evening. After tea Brigadier-General H. K. Woods, D.S.O., spoke on behalf of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts. In his address, which was illustrated by beautiful lantern slides of village life in North India, he spoke of the self-sacrificing work of Christian missionaries among plague-stricken villagers; also of the erection of churches, and the work among the isolated tribes. He specially emphasised the fact that the Christian religion gives the power to bind the native states in India and Africa to the Mother Country, and so prevents political disturbances. At the close the Vicar thanked General Woods for his interesting and enlightening address.

TITHE AND THE PARSONS. 13th Jan. 1933.

“Clergy Should Help Payers”

Game, the organiser in the Cambs. branch of the National Tithepayers’ Association, at a meeting held in the Swavesey Memorial Hall on Monday night. The meeting, which was well attended, was held under the auspices of the Cambs. branch of the National Tithepayers’ Association.

Mr. C. Cole was in the chair, supported by Mr. H. W. Game (organiser, Cambs. branch of the National Tithepayers’ Association) and Mr. A. M. McGregor (Cambs. delegate to the National Tithepayers’ Association).

“IF WE HAVE TO SMASH YOU.”

At the commencement, Mr. A. M. McGregor drew the meeting’s attention to a notice which had been put up before the meeting commenced. It was headed “Tithe,” and went on “Christmas messages delivered on Wednesday, 21st December 1932. ‘We are determined to get this tithe if we have to smash you. . . . I shall do my utmost to make you suffer for it.’ To farmers in Eltham, Kent, who protested against the plundering of their farms by persons who own no part of the freehold of the farms, and who have never contributed a penny of capital or rendered any service to the industry.”

The incident referred to, said the speaker, occurred at a tithe sale at Eltham, which was reported lately in the Press. It arose out of tithe due to Merton College, Oxford.

Mr. McGregor went on to give a short history of tithe. It was at the start more or less a charge upon the land, the revenue from which was largely used for the relief of the aged, sick and suffering. This continued until the time of Henry VIII., who broke with the Pope and did away with the power of the Roman Church. H. appropriated some of the tithe for his own use and gave the rest to his courtiers and favourites.

The next change was in the reign of Queen Anne, who during her reign instituted Queen Anne’s Bounty. She gave her share of the tithe to the Established Church. In 1836 the tithe was commuted, money being given in place of produce, and the amount depending on the price of the produce. Another change was made in 1896, and a further one in 1918, which fixed tithe at £109 3s. 1d. per £100 commuted value in 1836 for the following seven years.

“INJUSTICE.”

In 1925 another Tithe Act was passed, “probably one of the greatest injustices ever imposed upon British agriculture.” It established tithe on a basis which was a totally wrong basis to go on. The speaker did not think there would be any argument that prices in 1933 were anything like the prices in 1925. Owing to the fall in prices of agricultural produce, the Act had become iniquitous. Requests to discuss the matter had been met with blank refusals. The 1925 Act fixed the amount to be paid irrespective of what prices could be obtained for farm produce.

“We have had the Press behind us,” said the speaker, “and the Press of this country is not in the habit of taking up unjust causes. It has put our case in the plainest language, and the best language that it is possible to put it, before the British public. Our case is unanswerable. It is well known that the 1925 Act is iniquitous and unjust.” Why were the tithe-owners afraid of putting their case before the public? It was because in reality they had no case.

There were the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, who included among their numbers the Prime Minister, the Lord President of the Council, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, and other Government officials. Tithepayers went to the Government and said they had a grievance. “Are they the proper body to have an unbiased opinion of our cause?” asked the speaker. “Is it fair to ask them to judge when they are sitting on the body which is compelling us to pay? Are they unbiased judges?”

QUEEN ANNE’S BOUNTY.

Dealing with Queen Anne’s Bounty, Mr. McGregor said that in a lot of cases, for their own benefit, they had granted remission. But in the view of the Association this remission was absolutely useless, because it was not legal. Queen Anne’s Bounty had no authority or right to grant remission, and yet to save the question being re-opened and to try and quieten down the agitation, they had granted remission. It was nothing more nor less than charity. The Association did not want charity. It demanded an alteration of the 1925 Act. That was what it stood for. That Act was a burden. No one in this country was prepared to go on to a public platform and argue the justice of its cause.

Tithe, said Mr. Game in his speech, was a relic of the dark ages, when a man could not call his soul his own. Tithe put people to mind of the late Russian Government, when Church and State ruled everybody. Could one wonder that Russia had no religion to-day? The people had had too much of it. What was the cause of the French revolution? Tithe was.

COMING TO A FIGHT.

It looked to-day as if it was coming to a fight between the Church and agriculture. There was no justice in tithe. The fight to-day was Right against Might, Poverty against Wealth, against vested interests.

One paper printed it that before the last Government and present Government took office a secret treaty was made that the tithe should not be touched.

The tithepayers to-day had public sympathy and opinion behind them. But titheowners said that tithepayers were tilting against windmills, for the owners were too firmly entrenched. But right and the will of the people would prevail. In the speaker's opinion the parsons should take up the fight for justice for the tithepayers.

A London daily paper had given the advice some time ago, "Stop that tithe war before it commences." But that advice had not been taken. The Tithepayers' Association was receiving applications for meetings to be held all over Britain.

PARSONS SHOULD FIGHT FOR JUSTICE.

The parsons were letting invaluable time fritter away. The sooner they came forward to fight for justice for the tithepayers the better for them.

Ignorance was not the cause, for he knew of some land being let tithe-free at 4s. per acre. The adjoining land had got 3s. 6d. tithe on it. The landowner could not keep the house, building, gates, etc., in repair for 6d. an acre, for that was what it came to.

The National Church Defence League had sent round a circular in defence of tithe, saying that it was a gift to the ancient Church. But take the fenland, in the days of the ancient Church that land was under water. The plea that it was a gift of the ancient Church was all bunkum, for had a man ever paid tithe willingly?

It had been said that tithe would be redeemed in 85 years. What would those present say if someone asked them to buy spectacles for their great-grandchildren? To make the money for the redemption in 85 years the tithepayers would have to grow £1,300,000,000 worth of produce. By that time they would have to grow 40 thousand million pounds worth of produce to pay the tithe due in the meantime.

TITHE AND ESTATES.

A daily paper had published an article on the disappearance of the squire in England. Although the writer had not mentioned the fact, tithe was helping to break up the estates. A certain landowner near Cambridge had sold a thousand acres, and the speaker had been told that it had been sold to get rid of the tithe on it.

"A letter has appeared in the daily Press about some of the statements I made at Cottenham," went on Mr. Game. "If I have said anything that is wrong I am prepared to apologise, as every Englishman is prepared to do. But until that is proved I am not inclined to do so. I quoted at that meeting some of the hard cases, men whose circumstances I knew, men who, like me, have got their backs against the wall and are fighting.”

Questions were then invited, and answering one of these, Mr. McGregor said that the Association was not out for the confiscation of tithe. Their argument was that the stabilisation of tithe in 1925 was iniquitous.

A vote of thanks to the speakers was given.

INEQUALITIES OF SWAVESEY RATE. 3rd March 1933

“People Complaining Bitterly.”

Mr. A Day took the chair at the monthly meeting of the Swavesey Rural District Council at St. Ives on Friday, the other members present being: The Rev. C. G. Poynder, and Messrs. F. Stanton, F. Johnson and R. Norman.

The Clerk (Mr. G. D. Day) stated that the treasurer's credit balances were £48 on the general account and £993 on the rating account. The housing account showed a debit of £20.

A letter from Messrs. Greene, King and Sons, of Bury St. Edmund's, with regard to a water supply to the New Inn, Swavesey, was read.

The Clerk said previous applications had been made in 1926 and 1928, when the Council informed Messrs. Greene, King and Sons that they did not contemplate extending the existing mains, as the cost was prohibitive, but that they had no objection if they wished to lay a supply from the main.

The Clerk said he assumed that the Council would again reply in these terms and he was directed to do so.

SWAVESEY BY-WAYS RATE.

The Clerk stated that the Swavesey by-ways rate had not yet been made, and he thought it desirable that he should communicate with the rate collector (Mr. G. Harrison).

The Chairman said people in the parish were complaining bitterly because nothing had been done for four years.

Mr. Stanton: There are a few who pay this money and a great portion who don't pay a penny.

Mr. Stanton added that he knew cases where one man was only paying 2d., and another poor man was paying 6s. 6d.

The Clerk: There are all sorts of inequalities. The basis of principle upon which the rating was done was that the Enclosure Commissioners had to allot certain unallotted land in the parish of Swavesey, and they set out these by-ways, and those persons to whom the award was made had to keep them in repair. There are all sorts of inequalities, and you cannot avoid it.

Mr. Stanton: Then all I can say is that it ought to be altered and a general rate made for the whole of the parish.

The Clerk: You cannot alter; you have to accept the position.

It was agreed that the Clerk should write to the rate collector informing him that the matter should be attended to at once.

BETHEL Y.P.F. 3rd March 1933

There was a good attendance at the meeting of Bethel Fellowship on Monday evening, and an enjoyable time was spent. Mr. Cyril Day gave a helpful address, and the chairman, Mr. W. Next week the Fellowship will be addressed by Mr. W. Coles, of Cottenham.

SOCIAL EVENING. 3rd March 1933

Hephher, and the winners of prizes in competitions were Mrs. Hind, Mr. A. Anderson and Mr. L. Day. At the close the Vicar thanked the committee and helpers for their successful work. Mr. C. S. DEATH OF MRS. PHILIP COOKE. 3rd March 1933

We have to record the death of Mrs. Martha Cooke, widow of the late Mr. Philip Cooke, who passed away after a few days illness at her residence, "The Brooklands," in Market-street, on Saturday morning. She came to Swavesey about 16 years ago, when her husband, who had farmed at the Woolpack Farm, Hemingford Grey, had to retire from business in consequence of ill-health. He died on January 24th, 1920. At Swavesey Mrs. Cooke, notwithstanding her advancing years – she was 80 when she died – took a keen interest in all that concerned the parish church and in organisations for the benefit of women. Her body, enclosed in a plain oak coffin, rested in the parish church on Monday night, and at 8 a.m. on Tuesday there was a celebration of Holy Communion. A large congregation was present at the funeral in the afternoon, at which the Vicar, Rev. C. E. O. Finch, officiated. During the service the hymns, "O God, our help in ages past," and "We love the place, O God," were sung, the Nunc Dimittis chanted, and Mr. G. H. Skeeles, the organist, played appropriate music. On being borne from the church to the churchyard, the coffin was preceded by the choir and the churchwardens, Messrs. Harry Wells and W. J. Hephher, the latter carrying their wands of office. She was laid to rest in the grave in which her husband was buried thirteen years ago. The mourners were: Mrs. Law (sister), Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Trapps, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Nicholls, Mrs. M. M. Ruddock, Mrs. C. A. Holmes, Mrs. B. Plevey (nephews and nieces) and Mr. J. Dowell (brother-in-law). There were several beautiful floral tributes. Messrs. R. Mitham and Sons were the undertakers.

SWAVESEY LAND DISPUTE. 10th March 1933

Stay of Execution Ordered.

HIGH COURT ECHO.

What has become known locally as the Swavesey land dispute was mentioned in the Divisional Court (consisting of the Lord Chief Justice, Mr. Justice Humphreys, and Mr. Justice Goddard), on Monday, when Mr. Martin O'Connor (instructed by Mr. S. J. Peters, Cambridge) applied for a stay of execution on behalf of the plaintiff, Mr. W. D., of Rosedale, Swavesey, who is appealing against the judgement of His Honour Judge Farrant, delivered at the Huntingdon County Court on Jan. 26th last.

Mr. S. L. Elborne (instructed by Messrs. Maule, Son and Winter, of St. Ives) appeared on behalf of the defendants, Messrs. W. and J. W. P., of Swavesey, to oppose the application.

Addressing the Court, Mr. O'Connor said that at the conclusion of the judgement his junior applied for a stay of execution, which the learned judge refused. The application for a stay was renewed to his Honour at Peterborough by the solicitor for the plaintiff on Feb. 7th, but despite the fact that plaintiff offered to pay into Court, or to the defendants' solicitors, the full amount of the defendants' taxed costs, such costs to remain in court pending the result of the appeal, or if paid to the defendants' solicitors, payment to be made on an undertaking by the solicitors to return the costs in the event of the success of the appeal, the learned judge of the County Court still refused to grant a stay.

Mr. O'Connor drew the attention of the Court to Order 59, Rule 14, of the Rules of the Supreme Court, and informed their lordships that the attention of the learned judge of the County Court had been directed to this rule at Peterborough.

After hearing Mr. Elborne in opposition to the application, the Lord Chief Justice said that the Court ordered a stay of execution on the terms that the costs be paid to defendant's solicitors on their personal undertaking to return the same in the event of the appeal proving successful. His Lordship said this was the practice invariably followed, and was in accordance with Order 59, Rule 14, of the Rules of the Supreme Court.

The Swavesey and district branch of the British Legion held their annual dinner in the Memorial Hall on Wednesday evening. The company, numbered 45 ex-Service men and visitors. At the commencement, Mr. Barwell, who presided, asked for a silence in memory of those members who had passed away, and particularly Mr. Tom Heasman, who had always been very keen in the affairs of the branch, and who had previously supplied the branch with the annual dinners. An excellent menu was provided by the caterers, Messrs. Matthew and Son, of Cambridge. After the tables had been cleared, vocal items were rendered by Messrs. Topham, E. Smith, Townsend, Barwell, Cole and Lee. Mr. Raymond Thoday was at the piano. Mr. Nicholls obliged with recitations and yarns, and war-time choruses were lustily sung by all present. During the evening a short survey of the work done at the Area Conference in Cambridge was given by Mr. Barwell. The toasts included "The King" and "The Over Branch." In responding for the latter, Mr. P. J. Watts stressed the work of the secretaries of the branches, and asked all members to bear with them and help them. Mr. Berryman (secretary of Swavesey branch), who replied, dealt with the work of the branch and the wonderful team spirit which prevailed among the members of the committee. The enjoyable evening was brought to a close about 11 o'clock with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and the National Anthem.

NEW HATS FOR OLD. 17th March 1933

In spring, new hats have an attraction for most women, and the members of the Women's Institute are no exception to the rule. When Madame Danby from Cambridge came to the monthly meeting on Tuesday to give a demonstration on re-modelling hats, she was listened to with great attention, and several members produced hats which needed renovation. Mrs. C. S. Hepher presided over the meeting, two new members were welcomed, Mrs. Wright and Miss Abram, and one visitor was present. An outing to Windsor was decided on, and Mrs. Banks was elected as delegate to the National Federation annual meeting. After refreshments had been served, dancing was enjoyed, Mrs. Hepher playing the pianoforte accompaniment. During the evening sympathetic reference was made to the death of Mrs. Cooke, who had been an active member since the formation of the branch. The competition – the largest number of articles packed into a matchbox – produced a large number of entries, the prize given by Mrs. Lee being won by Mrs. Melbourne with 104.

88 TO-DAY. 24th March 1933

Mr. William Henry Key, who was born on the 24th March, 1845, is 88 years of age to-day. He is in fairly good health, but, of course, not as active as he used to be, although he can still do light work in his garden. During the many years he has lived in Swavesey he has held nearly every public office in the parish, among them those of churchwarden, parish councillor, school manager, feoffee of Galon's Charity, and member of the Parochial Church Council. From most of them, owing to advancing years, he has retired.

PAROCHIAL CHURCH MEETINGS. 24th March 1933

There was a good attendance at the annual Vestry and Parochial Church Meetings, which were held at the School on Monday evening, the Vicar occupying the chair. The churchwardens, Messrs. Harry Wells and W. J. Hepher, were re-appointed, as also were the sidesmen and the representatives on the Diocesan and Ruri-decanal Conferences. The Parochial Church Council were re-elected, Mr. S. F. Mitham taking the place of Mr. Banks, who had retired. All accounts were passed as satisfactory, and it was announced that during the past year over £70 had been raised for missionary work. It was decided that the next money-raising effort should be for the electric lighting of the church, and that the proceeds from the garden fete on July 20th should be devoted to that object.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP. 24th March 1933

The closing meeting of Bethel Young People's Fellowship was held on Monday, a most enjoyable time being spent. The programme included recitations by Mr. E. Dodson, Mr. W. Savage, and Mrs. A. of choruses. The gathering was addressed by the chairman, Mr. W. Chapman, who also voiced the thanks of the Fellowship to all who had helped to make the Session such a success. Messrs. Carter, C. Day, and J. Day also briefly spoke. During the evening the opportunity was taken of presenting Mr. Canham with a copy of Redemption Hymns, as a mark of appreciation of his greatly valued services to the Fellowship.

BRITISH LEGION. 24th March 1933

An enjoyable evening was spent at the Memorial Hall on Tuesday by members of the Swavesey branch of the British Legion, their wives and families. The programme was a good one, and included dancing for the adults, one for children only, also games under the capable management of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hephner. Songs were sung by Mrs. Hinds (who sang two war-time favourites, the choruses of which were taken up by all the company), Messrs. Harry Cole and Lee. Refreshments were plentiful, thanks to the efforts of Mesdames Berryman, Turner, Pettitt, T. Savage, and Miss Vera Savidge. The music for dancing was supplied by the popular Blue Riviera Dance Band. This was the first social to be arranged for members only, and it is hoped that it is the forerunner of others. Members from Boxworth and Lolworth were picked up by motor and taken home at the finish. This was much appreciated.

DEATH OF A CHILD. 24th March 1933

Much sympathy is expressed in the village with Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Wagstaff in the sad loss they have sustained by the death of their 14-years-old daughter, Avery Jane Wagstaff, who passed away on March 14th after seven weeks' illness. There was a large attendance at the funeral, which took place at the parish church on Saturday afternoon. Members of the Girls' Life brigade, under Mrs. Isgrove, headed the procession from the house to the churchyard, where they lined up on each side of the path to the porch. In the church were the Sunday School children, with two of their teachers, Mrs. E.J. Linford and Miss F. Daisley. During the service, which was taken by the Vicar, Rev. C. E. O. R. Mitham and Sons carried out the funeral arrangements.

Miss Mitchell's grass offered after the drove letting realised from 35s. to 20s. per acre. This was also lower than last year.

FEAST SUNDAY PARADE. 7th April 1933

A public meeting was held in the Memorial Hall on Monday last to decide whether a parade should be held as usual on Feast Sunday. The Vicar, Rev. C. E. O. Finch, occupied the chair, supported by Mr. H. W. Whitehead. About forty parishioners were present. After much discussion it was decided that the parade should be held, and the proceeds divided between Addenbrooke's Hospital and the District Nursing Association. The officers elected to carry out the arrangements were: Chairman, Rev. C. E. O. Finch; hon. secretary, Mr. H. W. Whitehead; hon. treasurer, Miss E. Dodson; committee, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hephher, Messrs. H. Hephher, C. Savage, F. Prior, F. W. Pontefract, H. H. Berryman, J. Prior, H. Prime, Miss Banks, Mrs. Whitehead, and Mrs. Cooksey. An interesting lecture on spring subjects was given in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening by Mr. K. V. Cramp (county assistant instructor in horticulture) at the monthly meeting of the Women's Institute. The President, Mrs. C. S. Hepher, was in the chair, and about forty members were present, a new member, Mrs. Williamson, being welcomed during the evening. Great interest was shown in Mr. Cramp's remarks, and numerous questions were asked. A roll call, "The funniest thing in my life" brought some very amusing stories, and games of dumb charades and subject and object were enjoyed by all. After refreshments, Mrs. Budge kindly played for dancing, which is always popular.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 21st April 1933

The usual tea was held on Good Friday in connection with Bethel Baptist Church, a moderate number of people being present. There was, however, a good attendance at the service which followed. This was conducted by Pastor P. H. Crees, of Over, who gave an earnest address on the "Centurion's Testimony." The preachers at the chapel next Sunday will be Mr. O. THE ODOURS OF SWAVESEY. 21st April 1933

"Anti-Odour" writes: - "There seems to be in Swavesey a steady increase in the foul odours that come from rotting meat, offal and certain drains, and if nothing is done about it soon conditions will be much worse in the hotter weather. Why should we have to put up with this when we have a sanitary inspector whose job it is to prevent nuisances of this kind? It is regrettable to think that with many people Swavesey has a reputation for smells, and yet how easily could the situation be altered if only the Parish Council saw fit to exercise a little of its authority in this direction."

PARISH CHURCH. 21st April 1933

The services at the parish church on Good Friday were as follows: Matins, Litany and Ante-Communion 10.30 a.m., addresses on the Words from the Cross by the Vicar 1 – 3 p.m., children's service 6 p.m., evensong and sermon 7 p.m. The collections were for the Jerusalem Mission. The church was beautifully decorated with a profusion of spring flowers, etc. for Easter Day. There were celebrations of Holy Communion at 6 a.m. (choral), 7.30 a.m. and 11.15 a.m. (choral). Matins was at 10.30 a.m., baptisms at 3 p.m., and evensong at 6.30 p.m. The music included Hall's setting for the mid-day celebration, and at evensong Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis (Bennett) and the anthem "Christ being raised from the dead" (Hall). The collections throughout the day were, in accordance with custom, devoted to an Easter offering for the Vicar. All services on Good Friday and on Easter Day were well attended, the communicants on Sunday totalling 154, six more than the previous record number for the festival. The recently re-hung bells were rung before the 6 a.m., mid-day and evening services.

SWAVESEY DISTRICT COUNCIL. 21st April 1933

Mr. F. Kirby Elected Chairman.

Ald. Jacob Frohock, who had been chairman of the Swavesey Rural District Council since its formation 38 years ago, has ceased to hold the office. Originally, he represented the parish of Lolworth, and after he left that village to reside in Cambridge, he was co-opted chairman year after year, until at the annual meeting of the Council last Friday, Mr. Fred Kirby, an Over representative, who had been vice-chairman for a long period, was elected to succeed him.

It was felt that by relieving him of the duties of chairman, Ald. Frohock would escape the physical strain entailed by journeys from Cambridge in order to attend the meetings of the Council at St. Ives. He was not present last Friday.

Mr. F. Kirby's election was proposed by the Rev. C. G. Poynder and seconded by Mr. F. Stanton. Mr. J. Frohock did not attend the meeting. Mr. W. I. Hemington was elected vice-chairman.

A tribute to Ald. Frohock for his long and faithful service to the Council was paid by his successor, and it was agreed to send him a letter recording the Council's appreciation of the conscientious manner in which he had acted as chairman for so many years.

HOME FROM AUSTRALIA. 28th April 1933

Mr. George Dean, youngest son of Mrs. Dean and the late Mr. J. W. Dean, arrived home on Sunday from Australia, where he has been for some years. He paid his last visit to this country in 1925.

While an engine was shunting some trucks on a siding at the railway station about 6 o'clock on Monday evening two wheels of the tender ran off the metals. A breakdown gang from Cambridge was soon on the scene and replaced the tender.

A SUCCESSFUL EVENING. 28th April 1933

The social evening on behalf of Women's Institute funds held on Saturday evening in the Memorial Hall was a great success. Dancing to music supplied by the Blue Riviera Band formed the greater part of the programme. Songs were sung by Mrs. Budge, the Misses Lee, and Mr. W. J. Hephew, and there were amusing games and competitions, the winners in the latter being Miss D. Branson and Mr. A. Turner (sewing on button), Miss W. Godfrey and Mr. L. Day (balancing). The takings amounted to £4 14s. 9d.

ACCIDENT. 28th April 1933

Mr. Leonard Day, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Day, the Dairy Farm, Swavesey, when motor cycling home from his work in Cambridge on Monday evening came into collision with a motor car in the Huntingdon-road near the seed testing station. Seeing that he was somewhat seriously injured, a lady motorist, who was passing by at the time, kindly conveyed him to Swavesey, where he was attended to by Dr. Hart. In addition to concussion and shock, it is understood his injuries include cuts on his forehead, necessitating stitches, and bruises and abrasions on his back, leg and arm.

APATHETIC PARISHIONERS. 28th April 1933

The only Local Government electors at the annual Parish Meeting, held in the Memorial Hall on Monday evening, were the nine members of the Parish Council and the Clerk, Mr. Prime Godfrey. Mr. C. H. Parish occupied the chair. After the audited accounts of the Parish Council for the year ended 31st March, 1932, and the accounts of Galon's Charity had been read, Mr. A. Payne called attention to the serious inconvenience caused to householders by the frequent cutting off of the public water supply without notice. The engineer, he said, after previous complaints, had been instructed by the Rural District Council to give warning, but this he had failed to do. Only that day people at Boxworth End had been without water for about four hours. The Chairman confirmed all that Mr. Payne had said, but admitted that there were certain difficulties in carrying out the instruction. The Clerk pointed out that from the letter from the R.D.C. the Water Rate Collector was the official to give the notice. Eventually it was decided to again call the attention of the R.D.C. to the matter. Before the meeting closed reference was made to the letter which appeared in the "Press and News" last week respecting the unpleasant odours in the village.

PARISH COUNCIL. 28th April 1933

The annual meeting of the Parish Council was held at the Memorial Hall on Monday evening, when there were present: Messrs. W. Burton, W. H. Cole, C. Dean, F. Hephew, J. Linford, C. H. Parish, P. Parish, A. P. Payne, and C. Savage, with the Clerk, Mr. Prime Godfrey. Mr. C. H. Parish and Mr. C. Dean were unanimously re-elected chairman and vice-chairman respectively. The Clerk announced that after deducting the auctioneer's charges, the sum of 3s. 9d. had been realised for the herbage of the Recreation Ground. A councillor suggested that another method of letting the herbage should be adopted in future, and it was agreed to consider the question at a later meeting. The accounts of the Council for the year ended 31st March, 1933, which had not yet been before the Government auditor, were read and approved, and a precept for £15 for expenses of the Council was issued on the Rating Authority. Mr. C. Savage said he wished to again call attention to the misuse of, and the damages to, the buildings and other property belonging to the Council around the Memorial Hall. After some discussion, it was agreed that a meeting of the Hall Management Committee should be held immediately to go into the matter.

MISSIONARY EXHIBITION. 5th May 1933

Various articles, illustrative mainly of the domestic life, dress, etc., of the natives of Australasia, India, China and Japan, were on view at the exhibition which was held at the school on Friday evening and on Saturday in connection with the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts. Children attired in native costumes added interest to the exhibition, as also did the lectures on missionary work in the different countries by Mr. W. Butt, who was in charge. Another feature was a stall at which the publications of the S.P.G. could be purchased. This was under the charge of the Misses Banks. The exhibition was open on Saturday morning for children.

By direction of Mr. C. F. Banks, the following feeding grass from date to 11th October next was sold by auction by Mr. Cyril Watts on Monday evening: 5a. 1r. 1p., in Dovehouse Close, School-lane – Mr. R. Williamson, at 35s. per

"CHILDREN IN THE POLICE COURT." 12th May 1933

This was the title of a most interesting and enlightening address given by Mrs. Hartree, of Cambridge, at the monthly meeting of the Women's Institute on Tuesday evening in the Memorial Hall. There was a good attendance, Mrs. C. S. Hephher (President) occupying the chair. Mrs. Hartree was listened to with great interest, as she spoke of the changes in procedure in the courts and related personal experiences of her work in helping women and children who had to appear. She was accorded a hearty vote of thanks on the proposition of Mrs. Finch. Miss Banks handed in her resignation of the secretaryship, and Mrs. W. Hind was unanimously elected in her place. Mrs. Laverack gave an excellent report of the Spring Council meeting. A competition for the best article made from an old woollen stocking was won by Miss C. Prior, Mrs. Hartree kindly acting as judge. Two new members, Mrs. Smith and Miss Jacobs, were welcomed during the evening. The social half-hour was spent in games, the members who had attended the spring Council meeting at Cambridge teaching the other members new games they had learnt there, and the "finish up" was a couple of dances, for which Mrs. Hind presided at the piano.

'PLANE CRASH AT SWAVESEY. 12th May 1933

Pilot's Fortunate Escape.

AFTER LOSING BEARINGS.

A pupil pilot, whose name is given as William Thompson, of Peterborough, had a fortunate escape from serious injury yesterday afternoon when the aeroplane in which he was flying solo crashed in Manor Farm, Swavesey.

He was taken to Addenbrooke's Hospital and detained with a broken ankle and injuries to the face.

The machine was one belonging to the training depot at Northampton, and the pilot was returning there at the time of the crash. When passing over Swavesey, says our Swavesey correspondent, he lost his way. He dropped down close by the station in an endeavour to find his position. In avoiding one belt of trees he collided with another belt which he failed to notice, and crashed almost on the railway line.

Railwaymen rushed to his assistance, and he was taken to Dr. Hart in Mr. W. Hind's milk van, which happened to be passing at the time. After being attended to he was taken to hospital.

During the afternoon Capt. Thorne, of the Northampton depot, arrived at Swavesey by air and inspected the damaged machine. It is estimated that the amount of this damage is about £500.

Police were still keeping an eye on the machine last night.

RED CROSS DAY. 19th May 1933

The sum of £3 was collected in the village for the British Red Cross Society last Friday by the following ladies: Misses G. and E. Dodson, Mrs. C. S. Hephner, Miss Banks, and Mrs. G. Prime.

MOTHERS' UNION. 19th May 1933

At the monthly meeting of the Swavesey Branch of the Mothers' Union on May 11th, the members presented the enrolling member, Mrs. Cooksey, with a handsome table and embroidered linen cloth as a token of their love and esteem. Mrs. Cooksey greatly appreciated the gift.

CRICKET CLUB. 19th May 1933

The whist drive which was held in the Memorial Hall on Thursday week for the benefit of the Cricket Club was poorly supported by the members, only seven tables being occupied. The prizewinners were: Ladies, Miss M. Silk, Miss Symonds, Over; gentlemen, Mr. A. Hawkes, Mr. R. Brooks; carrying prizes, Miss Proud and Mr. A. Holmes; knock-out, Miss Q. Spolton and Mr. F. Causer. Mr. Berryman acted as M.C., and the refreshments were in the hands of Mrs. Turner and Mrs. E. J. Mitham. The net proceeds amounted to £1 15s. 6d.

CURTAILED WATER SUPPLY. 26th May 1933

Swavesey R.D. Council and Parish Complaints.

At the monthly meeting of the Swavesey Rural District Council on Friday morning a letter was read, written on behalf of Mr. J. Frohock, who was formerly chairman, tendering his sincere thanks to the Council for their kind support in the past. Mr. Frohock regretted that he was obliged to resign, owing to his advancing years, and stated that he was pleased to hear that the Council had elected his friend, Mr. Kirby, in his place.

The members of the Council present were: Mr. F. Kirby (chairman), Rev. C. G. Poynder, Mr. R. Norman, and Mr. F. Scambler.

WATER SUPPLY.

A letter from Swavesey Parish Council was read, stating that complaints had been made by people in the village that the water supply had been cut off in the mains by the engineer without any notice being given, whereupon great inconvenience was caused to the users of the water. They asked the Council to give instructions to Mr. Chevall, the engineer, to give notice when he intended to turn off the water.

The Deputy Clerk (Mr. G. L. Day) said Mr. Chevall had replied to this letter, pointing out the difficulty of giving notice when bursts in the mains occurred, and he (the Clerk) had written to the Parish Council explaining that in the case of a burst it was inevitable that the water should be turned off immediately for a period of two hours to enable repairs to be carried out.

Mr. Norman said if they had to let people know that the water was to be turned off it was quite obvious that more water would be wasted through delaying the repairs.

The Chairman said when there was a burst in the pipes there must be a little inconvenience to people using the water. He did not think the Council could deal with the matter any further.

The Council confirmed the action of the Clerk in replying to the Parish Council, and agreed to take no further action in the matter.

RECEIVING ATTENTION.

The Chesterton R.D.C. wrote to state that their attention had again been drawn to the holding up of water in their area, which was due to the state of the main brook adjoining the parish of Longstanton, in the Swavesey area. They asked that the matter should be attended to in order that the water in the Chesterton ditches could be released.

The Deputy Clerk said this matter was now being dealt with by the Surveyor.

EMPIRE DAY. 26th May 1933

Special lessons bearing on the Empire were given throughout the school on Empire Day, chiefly on the value of the Empire to the Mother Country and how the different units were bound together, with their varied products, etc., and the recent methods and means employed to make the bonds of Empire more clearly knit.

PARTICULAR BAPTIST CHAPEL. 26th May 1933

The anniversary services at the Particular Baptist Chapel on Thursday afternoon and evening in last week were well attended, the congregations including friends from Cambridge, Oakington, St. Ives, Fenstanton, Godmanchester, Chatteris, and Barford, Beds. Mr. Seth Pack, of Tunbridge Wells, was once again the special preacher. As usual, there was a public tea between the services.

A SUGGESTED IMPROVEMENT. 26th May 1933

A Parish Councillor writes: "May I suggest to the County Road Authorities that while the roadway between High-street and the station was being tarred and re-surfaced this week a great improvement might have been effected at very small cost if the short stretch of road on the Causeway side of the Swan pond had been similarly treated. This little bit of road is used by pedestrians far more than the main road on the other side of the pond, and the improvement I suggest would, I know, be greatly appreciated by a large number of people.

FEAST WEEK ARRANGEMENTS. 26th May 1933

The sixth annual parade will take place in the village next Sunday (Feast Sunday) afternoon, the procession, headed by the Somersham Town Band, leaving Boxworth End at 2.15 p.m. At 3 p.m. a meeting will be held on the Recreation Ground, at which addresses will be given by Mr. W. H. Head (Secretary-Superintendent, Addenbrooke's Hospital) and Mrs. Mellish Clark (hon. sec. Cambs. County Nursing Association), and at 8 p.m. there will be a concert by the Somersham Town band. Collections will be taken throughout the day for Addenbrooke's Hospital and the District Nursing Association. The following cricket matches are announced: To-morrow (Saturday), Swavesey II v. Over II (Milton League); Monday, 5.30 p.m., Ladies v. Gentlemen; Tuesday, 3 p.m., Swavesey v. Over, for the Swavesey Hospital Cup; Wednesday 6 p.m., Swavesey II v. Boxworth. On Tuesday evening a dance, arranged by the Hall Management Committee, is to be held in the Memorial Hall.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 2nd June 1933

Very good congregations assembled to hear the Rev. W. L. McKenzie at the Bethel Chapel anniversary on Thursday week, and were amply repaid by the excellent messages of the preacher, which were full of warmth and vigour. There was a moderate attendance at tea. There was also a good attendance at the services on Sunday and at the open-air meeting in Market-street in the evening. Next Sunday morning the preacher will be a student from Cambridge, and in the evening Mr. A. D. Rayner. Undergraduates will again hold an open air service in Market-street at 8 p.m.

THE FEAST. 2nd June 1933

That hardy annual, the village feast, has been held this week, and once again has attracted large numbers of visitors, particularly on Sunday, when there was a parade in aid of Addenbrooke's Hospital and the District Nursing Association, and on Tuesday evening. On Sunday the services at the parish church were: Holy communion 8 a.m., mattins and sermon 10.30 a.m., and evensong at 6.30 p.m., when the music included Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis (Bennett), and the anthem, "Lift up your heads" (Hopkins). All services were well attended, especially that in the evening. Not only were the bells rung by the local ringers before all the services, but after evensong, by permission of the Vicar, a band of visiting ringers, all of whom are members of the Diocesan Association, rang a well-struck peal of 720 changes in the Cambridge Surprise method. The peal occupied 24 minutes and the following were the band: G. L. Perkins 1, A. W. T. Ginn 2, F. G. Gleaves 3, M. Ginn 4, C. Robinson 5, F. Warrington (conductor) 6. On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday Market-street was occupied by stalls, Manning's roundabout, swinging boats, etc. Other attractions included four cricket matches, on the Recreation Ground, and a dance on Tuesday evening in the Memorial Hall.

THE PARADE. 2nd June 1933

The sixth annual hospital parade took place on Sunday (Feast Sunday) afternoon, under most favourable circumstances so far as the weather was concerned, and if the financial result was not quite as good as in previous years the sum collected exceeded expectation. This year for the first time the proceeds were to be divided between Addenbrooke's Hospital and the Swavesey, Over and Fen Drayton Nursing Association. The procession, which was headed by the Somersham Town Band, left Boxworth End about 2.15 p.m. Prominent features in it were the exceptionally large muster of members of the local branch of the British Legion, with their standard, representatives of the Women's Institute with their banner, schoolchildren, the younger ones riding in wagons, and last, but certainly not least, a prettily decorated lorry, in which were four bright and happy little mites, Dorothy Prior, Joan Clark, Olive Nightingale and John Prior, two of whom were in a cot. The district nurse, Miss Claydon, rode with them. After parading the village from end to end, with halts at intervals, the procession returned to the Recreation Ground, where a meeting was held. There was a large attendance of villagers and visitors from far and near. On the improvised platform were the Vicar of Swavesey (Rev. C. E. O. Finch), who presided, Mrs. Mellish Clark (joint hon. secretary, Cambs. County Nursing Association), Mr. W. H. Head (secretary-superintendent, Addenbrooke's Hospital), Mr. R. Mailer (County Councillor for the district), Mr. H. Smith (Willingham), Mr. C. Dean (vice-chairman, Parish Council), Mrs. Whitehead, and Miss E. Dodson (treasurer of the Parade Committee). Mr. H. W. Whitehead (hon. secretary, Parade Committee), who acted as marshal, was in charge of the general arrangements. Mr. Head prefaced his speech by stating that the hospital had no objection to sharing the proceeds of the day's efforts with the Nursing Association, which in fact, was an important auxiliary of the hospital. He then proceeded to explain why Addenbrooke's was in urgent need of financial support in spite of the large amount of money received from the contributory scheme. The hospital continued to increase in size, for instance there were now 267 beds against 190 last year. Before resuming his seat Mr. Head mentioned that during the past 12 months 55 patients from Swavesey had received treatment at the hospital, viz., 15 in-patients and 40 out. Mrs. Mellish Clark followed with an interesting address on the District Nursing Association movement, which, she said, was started in Liverpool by Mr. Rathbone about 60 years ago, and had now spread all over the country. In Cambridgeshire at the present time there were only four villages without the services of a district nurse.

He retired from practice a few years ago, but continues with great regularity to attend the meetings of the County Council, of which it is understood he is the "father," and also meetings of the Standing Joint Committee. He still retains a keen interest in cricket and is often to be seen at important matches at Fenner's.

FEAST SUNDAY PARADE. 9th June 1933

The collections in connection with the Feast Sunday Parade amounted in all to £28 12s. 3d., viz. After payment of expenses £25 8s. 2d. remained for division between Addenbrooke's Hospital and the Swavesey, Over and Fen Drayton Nursing Association, the sum of £12 14s. 1d. being allocated to each of these institutions.

WEDDING. 16th June 1933

The marriage of Miss Ethel Heasman, younger daughter of the late Sergt.-Major T. C. Heasman, R.A., and Mr. Harold Bridgeford, took place at St. Ives on Saturday morning. The bride was attired in grey, with hat to match, while the bridesmaids, her cousins, Misses Nellie and Renie Batchelor, wore dresses of floral ninon. The wedding was very quiet, owing to the recent death of the bride's father. The presents were numerous and useful.

"BREAKAGES." 16th June 1933

This was the title of an interesting demonstration given at the Memorial Hall at the monthly meeting of the Women's Institute on Tuesday. Mr. Chadwick, of Cambridge, was the lecturer, and he was listened to with much attention as he showed how to repair household breakages of various kinds. Mrs. E. Mitham proposed a vote of thanks to Mr. Chadwick, which was seconded by Mrs. Shepperson. About 35 members were present. Mrs. C. S. Hephher presided and Mrs. Hind, the new secretary, carried out her duties in a very efficient manner. The social half-hour was devoted to games and dancing.

TOURIST RINGERS. 16th June 1933

A Leytonstone, London, company of bellringers on a holiday tour visited the parish church on Saturday, and, by permission of the Vicar, Rev. C. E. O. Finch, rang two short peals on the bells. The party were met by Mr. B. Hodson, the local ringers' captain, who states the ringing was of the highest order. Southwell and Ipswich Surprise was rung. Several members of the company visited Mr. F. Warrington (Central Branch Secretary, E.D.A.), who was on signalling duty at the station close by. Several prominent ringers were among the party, including Mr. E. J. Butler, secretary Essex Association, S.E. Division, and Mr. W. J. Nevard, who, in spite of his 73 years, still rings peals of 5,000 changes, which take an average of three hours' continuous ringing.

OBITUARY. 16th June 1933

While on a visit to his cousin, Mr. Jabez Day, of Wallman's-lane, Mr. Charles Wilderspin was taken seriously ill last Friday morning. His condition became worse during the day, and about 10 p.m. he passed away. He had been in ill-health for the last 18 months. He belonged to an old highly-respected Swavesey family, and was born 65 years ago, being the son of the late James and Hannah Wilderspin. The funeral took place at the cemetery on Tuesday afternoon, Pastor W. Camps conducting the service. The hymn "Rock of Ages" was sung at the graveside. The mourners were: Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Wilderspin (brother and sister-in-law), Mr. Alfred Day, sen., Miss Bessie Day, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Day, Mr. and Mrs. Jabez Day, Mr. Alfred Day, jun., and Mr. Geo. Howard Day (cousins). The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. E. Mitham, Middle Watch, Swavesey.

SWAVESEY A HEALTHY DISTRICT. 23rd June 1933

But Birth Rate Low

The comparatively low birth-rate and heavy death-rate in the Swavesey Rural District during the past year was the principal factor dealt with by the Medical Officer (Dr. W. R. Grove) in his annual report to the Rural District Council on Friday.

The members present were Mr. F. Kirby (chairman), the Rev. C. G. Poynder, Messrs. W. I. Hemington, R. Norman and F. Stanton.

Dr. Grove said the birth-rate for the district was very low, but in a small population it varied considerably. The birth-rate was half what it was two years ago, while the death-rate was extremely high. Seventy per cent. of the deaths were old people, 28 persons out of 41 being over 65 years of age. The actual number of deaths on one year was 52 per 1,000 of the population; the previous year it was 121 per 1,000.

HEALTH OF DISTRICT GOOD.

The Chairman considered that the health of the district was good, and it was gratifying to know that the infant death-rate was so small. It was rather remarkable that 70 per cent. of the deaths were of people over 65 years of age. There were some old people at Over, but Swavesey was remarkable for its old people.

SCHOOLBOY CRICKET. 23rd June 1933

The cricket match between Swavesey and Willingham schoolboys played on the Recreation Ground on Saturday morning, was won by the home team by 37 runs. Scores; Swavesey 63 (A. Turner 30), Willingham 26.

COUNTY SCHOLARSHIP. 23rd June 1933

Desmond Nichols, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Nichols, Boxworth End, has been awarded a County Minor Scholarship, tenable at the Perse School, Cambridge. He is a pupil at Swavesey National School.

OLD PEOPLE'S TEA. 23rd June 1933

The tea arranged by the Women's Institute for the old people of the village, which was held in the Memorial Hall on Thursday week, was greatly appreciated. The Vicar, Rev. C. E. O. Finch, invited by the committee, sat down with the guests, and all seemed to be very happy. After the excellent tea, games and singing occupied the time until friends from Oakington came to entertain. This part of the evening was most enjoyable, as the concert was non-stop for an hour, and each item was applauded to the echo. The Vicar, in a few well-chosen words, thanked the members for the enjoyable evening they had provided, and the President (Mrs. C. S. Hepher) suitably responded.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY. 30th June 1933

Good congregations attended the Sunday School anniversary services on Sunday at Bethel Baptist Church, the preacher in the morning and evening being a student from London. Mr. H. Starte, late of Swavesey, now a missionary in the Congo, was the special speaker in the afternoon, at which service two of the scholars recited. Next Sunday's services, which will commence with a prayer meeting at 7.30 a.m., are to be taken by Mr. A. Tilling, of All Nations' Bible College, London.

NURSING ASSOCIATION FETE. 30th June 1933

Notwithstanding the rain which seriously affected the attendance and eventually led to an early close, the takings of the annual garden fete in aid of the Swavesey, Over and Fen Drayton Nursing Association, held on Thursday week in the grounds of Swavesey Manor (kindly lent by the Rev. J. F. Cooksey) amounted to £30 13s. 0½d., only £3 8s. less than last year. As all expenses had been borne by people interested in its welfare, the whole of this sum, which included £4 17s. 6d. in donations, went to the Association. The proceedings were opened by Mrs. Hart, who in a brief but graceful speech spoke of the useful work done by the Association, and wished the day's venture every success. Mrs. Hart, who was accompanied by her husband, Dr. Hart, was presented with a beautiful bouquet, given by Mrs. Banks, by little Pamela Ladds, of Over. The stalls, side-shows, competitions, etc., were under the charge of the following: New work stall, Mesdames J. Norman, C. Dean and Aldred; jumble stall, Mrs. W. J. Hephher; book stall, Mesdames G. Burling and W. Thorp; ice creams, Mrs. Lee; sweets, Misses Dodson; refreshments, Mesdames J. Dean, Berryman, B. Hodson, W. Kester, Misses R. Gaunt, Day, Vera Smith and Margaret Wagstaff; clock golf, Miss Cole and Mrs. Burleigh (prize given by Miss Cole, won by Rev. C. E. O. Finch); candle lighting, Mrs. Leslie Godfrey (prize given by Mr. Lee, won by Mrs. W. Thorp); Chinese washing, Miss D. Banks; bran tub, Miss Polly Parish; doll dressed and given by Miss Beaumont (name not guessed), Miss L. Cox; weight of cake, given by Mrs. Cooksey, Miss Doris Godfrey (won after a draw by Mr. C. Walker); darts, Mr. U. Thixton (prize given by Mrs. Cooksey, won by Mr. Cyril Wagstaff); pins in cushion, Miss K. Banks, who gave the prize, won by Miss D. Godfrey. The proceedings were enlivened by selections on a gramophone in charge of which were Misses Y. and J. Lee. As usual, a baby show, organised by Nurse Claydon, was a feature of the afternoon's proceedings. For this Dr. F. Robinson (County Medical Officer) and Miss Graham (Supt. Cambs. Nursing Association) officiated as judges, their awards being as follows: One to six months, 1 Richard Bert Walker (Swavesey), 2 Douglas William Ingle (Fen Drayton), 3 Albert Alan Leggett (Over); 6 to 12 months, 1 Audrey Maria Symonds (Over, 2 Christine Lilian Papworth (Over); 1 – 2 years, 1 Marjorie Isgrove (Swavesey), 2 Ann Joan Sutton (Over), 3 Ruby Watson and John Shepperson (both Swavesey). All babies entered were awarded certificates by Dr. Robinson. An entertainment which was to have been given in the evening by the Over Girl Guides, under the management of Miss Gertrude Thoday, had, much to the general regret, to be abandoned. Messrs. C. Dean and F. W. Pontefract were in charge of the gate.

ADDENBROOKE'S HOSPITAL. 7th July 1933

During the quarter ended 30th June, the contributions paid in to the Swavesey Hospital Aid Committee amounted to £35 3s. 7d., bringing the total contributions for the first nine months of the year up to £108 6s. 1d.

Through the kindness of the president of the Women's Institute, Mrs. C. S. Hepher, the children of the members had a most enjoyable party in her garden on Wednesday week. After a sumptuous tea with unlimited strawberries and cream, the youngsters played games on the lawn and the varied sports which followed provided nearly every child with a prize. Members of the Committee helped to give the children a really good time.

VISIT OF ASSOCIATION RINGERS. 7th July 1933

With the permission of the Vicar, Rev. C. E. O. Finch, six members of the Ely Diocesan Association of Ringers rang a full peal of 5,040 changes in 2 hours 55 minutes on the bells of the parish church on Wednesday. Those taking part were: S. Murphy 1, W. Seekings 2, A. J. Abrams 3, F. W. Lack 4, M. Ginn 5, F. Warrington (conductor) 6. The peal consisted of 720 each of Double Oxford, Cambridge Surprise, Woodbine, Oxford and Kent Treble Bob, Oxford Bob and Plain Bob.

THE THREE ESSENTIALS. 7th July 1933

By the arrangement of Mrs. Nichols, secretary of the Bethel Band of Hope, the Three Essentials Exhibition, opened on the village green, and was quickly surrounded by the lively children, who kept the lecturers busy for nearly two hours. There were keen competitions with the reaction time apparatus and the target practice machine, which drew attention to the slowing of nervous responses after alcohol, leading to accidents, especially with quickly moving machines like motor cars.

DEDICATION OF LEGION STANDARD. 7th July 1933

Prior to service in the parish church last Sunday afternoon, at which the standard of the Swavesey and District branch of the British Legion was dedicated by the Bishop of Ely, a 720 peal of Bob Minor was rung by: George Hodson 1, B. Sir William Birdwood will be found on another page.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE GARDEN PARTY. 7th July 1933

In ideal weather, the garden party held on Tuesday afternoon in the garden of the Vice-President (Mrs. Banks) was a great success. Tea was served in the shade of the beautiful trees and afterwards the stalls and competitions were well patronised. There was also an excellent concert, the programme including songs by Mrs. Hind, Rev. C. E. O. Finch and Mr. W. J. Hephner, and monologues by Miss King (Over) and Mrs. Laverack. An outdoor whist drive proved very popular, Mr. H. H. Berryman kindly undertaking the duties of M.C. The prize-winners were: Ladies – Mrs. H. G. Key, Mrs. W. Thorp, booby Miss E. FEAST SUNDAY PARADE. 7th July 1933

A meeting of the Feast Sunday Parade Committee was held on Monday for the purpose of receiving the statement of accounts, the Rev. C. E. O. Finch occupying the chair. The treasurer (Miss Dodson), in presenting the accounts, explained that the amount collected on Feast Sunday was £26 13s. 8d., and at the cricket matches £1 18s. 8d., making a total of £28 12s. 4d. The expenditure included: Conveyance of band £2 10s., printing, etc., 14s. 2d., leaving £25 8s. 2d. to be divided between Addenbrooke's Hospital and the local Nursing Association. A letter from Mr. W. H. Head was read, in which he stated that "the handsome sum raised is a proof that the people of Swavesey have the welfare of the Hospital at heart, and we are glad to have this practical expression of their appreciation of its work." The committee then passed a resolution that a hearty vote of thanks be accorded to the Somersham Town Band, who gave their services, to Mr. Harry Smith, the genial extractor of bank notes, to Mr. John Warboys, of Higham's Park, for his continued and generous support, and to the collectors who worked very hard to crown the efforts of the Parade Committee. It was decided that a letter of thanks be sent Miss Banks, who has been a member of the committee since the inception of the parades, and who is shortly leaving this country, for her valued assistance year by year. The committee expressed appreciation of the large number of British Legion members who joined the parade. The meeting closed with a vote of thanks to the chairman, secretary, and all others who had assisted in the parade.

SWAVESEY LEGION CEREMONY. 7th July 1933

Bishop of Ely's 20th Dedication

WHAT STANDARD STANDS FOR.

"I think that this is the twentieth standard that I have had the honour of dedicating in this neighbourhood in the last year or two," said the Bishop of Ely at Swavesey on Sunday, when he performed for the Swavesey and District Branch of the Legion the ceremony which he has so often carried out before.

Before the dedication service the Legionaries (there were about two hundred of them) assembled at Boxworth End in the field kindly lent by Mr. E. Day. In addition to members of the Swavesey branch, under Mr. H. H. Berryman, there were also Legionaries from Cambridge, Longstanton, Willingham, Histon and Impington, Coton, Prickwillow, Madingley, Over (Cambs.) and Coggleshall, and in addition representatives from the Cambridge Women's Section. The Cambs. and Isle of Ely standard was also carried in procession. All standards except that of Swavesey, which was carried by Mr. T. Savage, were unfurled. There were two bands, those of the Cambridge and Littleport British Legion branches.

Major W. N. Philips acted as parade marshal.

INSPECTION

Before marching to the church, the parade was inspected by Field Marshal Sir William Birdwood, Bart., G.C.B. It then proceeded to the church, headed by the Littleport Band. At the churchyard, Captain R. Barwell, of the Swavesey branch, laid a wreath on the memorial. The members then proceeded into the church, which was packed out.

The Bishop of Ely was assisted by the Vicar of Swavesey, the Rev. C. E. O. Finch, and the Rector of Lolworth, the Rev. A. F. Royston, who is chaplain of the branch. The hymns were led by the Cambridge Band. During the service a collection, which amounted to £5 11s. 4d. was taken for branch funds. After the service, Bandsman F. Sayers sounded the "Last Post" and "Reveille," and Major W. N. Phillips recited "They shall not grow old." Then the parade left the church, and in the presence of a large crowd, Field Marshal Sir William Birdwood took the salute outside the Memorial Hall. On reaching the green, the parade dismissed, after Major Phillips had congratulated the Swavesey branch and thanked other branches for coming.

Among those present were Lieut.-Col F. J. M. Stratton (chairman of Cambs. and Isle of Ely County Committee), Mr. W. A. Diver (county secretary), who acted as M.C., Col Hancock, Dr. Robert Ellis (county vice-chairman), Admiral Weekes (chairman, Cambridge branch) and Ald. Dr. J. W. Ellis.

HAZARDED THEIR LIVES.

The Bishop took as his text "Men that have hazarded their lives." That, he said, was the very highest recommendation that the church of Jerusalem could give to the four men who were being sent out on a difficult mission.

People were hazarding their lives every day, and we could not help admiring those who did so, even though the motive for their acts differed in the worth of their motive.

There were those who risked their lives for sport, or through travelling in unknown places or in the preparation of a cinema film. When we were looking at the picture quite comfortably watching the feats performed before our eyes we did not always remember fully the risks which those who carried out the performances at which we shuddered ran, nor did we know how many had been killed in the making of the film.

There were those who risked their lives for another, and in addition those we did not always remember, our own countrymen, who, for the sake of the Gospel, went out to all parts of the world, and sometimes spent years in a country whose climate did not suit white people and laid down their lives for the glory of God.

At the present occasion, those in the church were thinking of the people who risked their lives to save their countrymen in the Great War.

STANDARD AS A SIGN.

One of the great objects of the British Legion was to see that those who were dependent upon the men who made the great sacrifice were not forgotten and were not allowed to suffer. The dedication of the standard was not in the least necessary for actually carrying out the beneficial work of the Legion, but the standard was very useful because it was an outward sign of something unseen. It stood for something of supreme value which it was not possible to forget or undervalue.

“The standard represents to us loyalty to the King, fellowship with one another, remembrance of those who were of our company but who have gone to another and higher service,” said the Bishop. “It stands for union and fellowship and loyalty and service. These are the unseen things it represents. Because the standard represented all the British Legion stood for, the members looked on it as something they wanted to connect closely with God, so it was brought into His house, as a sign that the movement they belonged to was one of service to God and man.

“I think that this is the twentieth standard that I have had the honour of dedicating in this neighbourhood in the last year or two,” went on the Bishop. “I do not think one can perform this act too often. I like to see members and members of the congregation meet together time after time crowding out the parish church in order to witness the dedication of a standard of the British Legion.”

The day before he was in Exeter Cathedral during the celebrations of the eighth hundred year of its foundation. There was a procession round the cathedral in which two hundred flags were carried. “I was delighted to see that the last few dozen of the banners that were carried in that great procession were British Legion banner,” said the Bishop.

Sunday are: In the morning Dr. Basil F. C. Atkinson, and in the evening Mr. Gordon Davis, both of Cambridge.

FUNERAL. 14th July 1933

The funeral of Mrs. Ada Norman, wife of Mr. Robert H. Norman, of Gibraltar-lane, who passed away on July 5th after three months' illness, aged 69 years, took place at the cemetery on Friday. The Rev. P. H. Crees, Baptist minister, Over, officiated, and during the service the hymn, "Safe in the arms of Jesus" was sung. The principal mourners were Mr. R. H. Norman (husband), Mr. F. Squires (son), Mr. and Mrs. H. Beaumont, Mr. and Mrs. L. Jeffs (sons-in-law and daughters). Messrs. R. Mitham and Sons were the undertakers.

NOTABLE BIRTHDAY PARTY. 14th July 1933

Mr. G. J. Paine, of Wayside, School-lane, who attained the great age of 90 years last Friday, celebrated the notable event by inviting a number of the old people and other villagers with whom he came in contact to a garden party at The Old House, the residence of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. Barwell. A sumptuous tea was provided in the house, after which a very pleasant time was spent in the garden, where the guests were entertained to a concert, etc., by wireless, and songs by the octogenarian, Mr. John Wilderspin. On Saturday Mr. Paine entertained a party of grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 14th July 1933

An interesting lecture on "Hygiene, past and present" was given by Miss Nicholls at the July meeting of the Women's Institute in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening. Starting with the time of Moses, Miss Nicholls explained the laws of hygiene, down to the present day. Numerous questions were ably answered by the lecturer, and a hearty vote of thanks was accorded to her at the close. The business included arrangements for an outing to Norwich, where Messrs. Colman's mustard factory is to be visited. There were numerous entries for the competition for the best darn done in five minutes, the prize being awarded to Mrs. G. Prime. An interesting little ceremony took place when the President (Mrs. C. Hepher) presented to Miss D. Banks, who is shortly leaving for Australia to be married, a beautiful wallet, inscribed with her initials in gold, and containing a sum of money subscribed by all the members of the Swavesey W.I., as a token of their appreciation of her work as secretary. Miss Banks thanked the members, and told them she should always remember the happy times she had spent with them. Mrs. Banks gave a bright report of the annual N.F.W.I. meeting in London, which she had attended as delegate. After refreshments the rest of the evening was spent in a singing game.

PARISH COUNCIL. 14th July 1933

The quarterly meeting of the Parish Council was held at the Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening, the following members being present: Messrs. C. H. Parish (chairman), W. Burton, C. W. H. Cole, C. Dean, F. Hepher, J. Linford, A. P. Payne and C. Savage, with the Clerk (Mr. Prime Godfrey). Arising out of the minutes it was reported that the repairs and improvements outside the Memorial Hall, which had been discussed at the previous meeting had been satisfactorily carried out by the Management Committee. The Clerk read a letter from the agent of the owner of a house in Market-street respecting the condition of the pond, which, he said, was prejudicial to the selling or letting of the property. Mr. Payne proposed, and Mr. Dean seconded, that no action be taken. An amendment moved by Mr. Linford and seconded by Mr. F. Hepher, that the matter be referred to the Parish Meeting to be held later in the evening, was, however, carried by the casting vote of the Chairman. The question of the extension of the Swavesey water mains to the parish of Over was discussed. A letter was read from Mr. C. Wood intimating that he had resigned the librarianship of the local branch of the County Library, and it was agreed to ask the Women's Institute to take over the work. Correspondence with the Performing Rights Society and the Cambs. Rural Community Council respecting the performance of copyright music in the Memorial Hall was referred to the Hall Committee of Management.

PARISH MEETING. 14th July 1933

Owing perhaps partly to the thunderstorm, there was a very small attendance at the Parish Meeting on Tuesday evening, which had been called specially to consider the question of the extension of the Swavesey water mains to the parish of Over. Mr. C. H. Parish (chairman of the Parish Council) presided. Arising out of the minutes of the annual Parish Meeting, letters were read from the Clerk of the District Council respecting the complaints which had been made that the engineer when repairing bursts, etc., had cut off the water supply without first giving notice to the users. It was stated that as the result of inquiries the R.D.C. was satisfied that the engineer was doing his best in somewhat difficult circumstances to meet the convenience of the users of the water. The Chairman then explained what had taken place at a meeting of representatives of the District Council, and of two parish councils in regard to the question of extending the water main to Over. Mr. F. Kirby (chairman of the R.D.C.), he said, had stated that he was in a position to offer £20 for the wayleave and 5 per cent. interest on the cost of the extension of the mains to the Over boundary, and that the R.D.C. had decided to override any objection of the parish of Over to the payment. After some discussion the meeting agreed to accept Mr. Kirby's offer. The complaint respecting the Market-street pond, referred to the Parish Meeting by the Parish Council, was considered, and in view of the large expense that would be incurred if the pond was filled up it was decided that no action be taken in the matter. During the discussion one parishioner remarked that the pond was practically in the same condition at present as it was when the property was bought only a short time ago.

SWAVESEY FETE. 21st July 1933

Excellent Weather.

The fine weather yesterday afternoon was propitious for the annual fete at Swavesey, which was held in the garden of the Vicarage.

The lawn was gay with brightly decorated stalls and the summer dresses added even more colour to the scene. The music of Somersham band made a pleasant background during tea, which was served on the lawn, and in addition to the numerous competitions there were races in the evening, and after a charming little play, "The Butterfly Queen," had been performed by Swavesey children, dancing.

The fete was opened by Mrs. C. F. Stebbing, of Tewin, who, in a short and happy speech, said how pleased she was to be among friends.

The Vicar of Swavesey was in the chair, supported by the churchwardens and members of the Church Council. Mrs. Stebbing and her husband, he said, needed no introduction. It was delightful to have old friends with them again. There were two things for which he was grateful to them: for training Swavesey people in fetes and other public functions and for going away from Swavesey so that he could come!

Mr. Harry Wells proposed a vote of thanks, which was seconded by Mr. W. Hephher, and the Rev. C. F. Stebbing also spoke.

The stallholders were as follows: Refreshments, Mrs. Cooksey, Mrs. Dean, Mrs. Berryman, Mrs. Hodson, Mrs. R. Mitham, Mrs. Daintree, Mrs. Day and Misses J. Day, M. Wagstaff, Claydon and Gaunt; work stall, Mesdames Banks, Barwell, Pettitt and Levell; cigarettes, Mrs. W. Hephher; produce, Mrs. W. Kester; handkerchiefs, Mrs. Finch and Mrs. C. Hephher; china, Mrs. H. Wells, Mrs. E. Mitham and Mrs. Linford; gift stall, Miss Daisley and Miss Froment; soap, Mrs. Melbourne and Mrs. Arnold; Sunday School stall, Miss Banks.

Side-shows: Chinese washing, Mrs. Skeeles; Aunt Sally, Mr. B. Hodson; bran tub, Mrs. Cain; ice creams, Mrs. Lee; buttonholes, Misses J. and L. Key; test your knowledge, Mr. Williams and Mr. Hawkes.

Competitions: Clock golf, Mrs. Burleigh; shooting gallery, Mr. H. Prime; weight of doll, Miss C. Prior; weight of dinner, Mrs. Whitehead; cake, Miss Wilderspin; ping-pong balls, Misses Lee; hands, Mrs. Mitham and Miss Day; paper hats, Miss Page and Miss J. Wilson; obstacle race, Mrs. Hind and Miss Wilson.

The results of competitions were not available on going to press, but will be published next week.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR. 21st July 1933

PIGS MARKETING SCHEME.

Sir, - I think there are a lot of people puzzled as to what to do in the above scheme, as both large and small farmers, also the Farmers' Union representative, have asked my advice; but I, too, have a doubt whether this will act. I know a lot of farmers who sent their pigs to bacon factories have now ceased, as have also some of the factories' own shareholders.

I am a pig feeder, and am connected with some of the biggest pig feeders in the country, and wonder about the dead weight basis of these pigs and whether they will be satisfied with the bacon weights, also the grading. I should like to know who will look after the interests of the feeders as I know a lot of them have been very dissatisfied with bacon factory weights. If the farmers of this country had a scheme to buy pigs on the live weight bases and were graded by a practical butcher and feeder, I think it would be better, and also to regulated the foreign imports. Will the feeders still lose the condemned pigs, or part of the condemned pigs? – Yours, etc.

ROBERT WILLIAMSON,

Swavesey, July 18th, 1933.

SCHOOL CRICKET. 21st July 1933

The return cricket match between Over and Swavesey Schoolboys, played at Over last Friday, resulted in a win for the Swavesey team. Scores: Over, 1st innings 23 runs, 2nd innings 12; Swavesey, 1st innings 32, 2nd innings 15 for 6 wickets. In Eric Parish, Swavesey has a young bowler of great promise. In the second innings he took eight wickets for six runs, after capturing four in the first innings.

THE COLCHESTER RALLY. 21st July 1933

Thirty-two members of the Swavesey and District branch of the British Legion took part in the great East Anglia Rally at Colchester on Sunday. Capt. R. Barwell was in charge, and Mr. T. Savage was the standard bearer. With wives, children and friends, the party, which in all numbered 101, left Swavesey at 7.30 a.m. in three motor buses for Clacton, where two happy hours were spent before proceeding to Colchester. A small Boxworth child went astray and had to be broadcast as "missing." On being recovered she declared that she would like to get lost in Colchester again, as she had met with such generous and hospitable treatment at the police station. Twenty-seven passengers, all from Over, travelled to Colchester from Swavesey station by the special train run by the L.N.E.R.

SCHOOL TREAT. 21st July 1933

The children attending the parish church Sunday School, about 70 in number, were given their annual summer treat on Wednesday week. After a short service in the church and an excellent tea in the grounds of the Vicarage, the youngsters adjourned to Manor Field for races, games, etc. Later in the evening the smaller children returned to the Vicarage for more games and a sweets' scramble, while the older ones remained on Manor Field for a cricket match. Before the prizes were distributed a presentation from the school was made to Miss Banks, one of the teachers, who is leaving Swavesey to be married in Australia. This consisted of three engravings of different views of Ely Cathedral. Mrs. Finch, the vicar's wife, was also presented with a bouquet of carnations by Joan Clarke, the youngest child in the school. During the evening chocolate biscuits kindly provided by a friend, were distributed, and on leaving for home every child was given two packets of sweets.

SOCIAL. 28th July 1933

The Blue Riviera Band's social at the Memorial Hall on Saturday evening was a great success. In addition to dancing, for which the band provided an excellent selection of music, the programme included songs by Mr. Harry Cole, Mr. Midge Jackson, and Miss Hayden. A lucky number competition for a bottle of port was won by Mr. S. Wright.

THE CHURCH FETE. 28th July 1933

Banks driving Miss J. Willson and Miss D. Williamson. A popular feature of the fete was the charming little play "The Butterfly Queen," two admirable performances of which were given by schoolchildren, for whose training Mr. C. Wood (headmaster), Miss G. Thoday and Miss H. Silk (assistant teachers) were responsible. At the close of the evening prizes were distributed by Miss Banks, after which she was presented by the Vicar with a cheque for £4 from the church workers as a wedding gift, and a small token of their appreciation of her services rendered so freely and ungrudgingly during the whole of the time she had lived in Swavesey.

FOOTBALL CLUB. 4th Aug. 1933

The annual meeting of the Football Club was held in the Memorial Hall on Thursday week, when there was a fair attendance. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: - President, Mr. F. J. Mustill; vice-presidents (subject to consent), Rev. C. E. O. Finch, Rev. A. Beaumont, Messrs. Blinkhorn, F. W. Pontefract, E. Day, B. Thorp, R. Barwell, G. E.

SWAVESEY SHOW AND SPORTS. 11th July 1933

Entries Down, But More Cyclists.

RIDER BREAKS COLLAR-BONE.

Adverse Effect of Heat.

Once again this year – for the eleventh time in succession to be exact – glorious weather favoured Swavesey show and sports, which were held on Manor Field, by kind permission of Messrs. J. Johnson and Sons.

The sun proved to be something of a double-edged blessing, however, for on account of the recent hot weather the number of entries in some cases were very much down, and, furthermore, the dry grass was partly the cause of a rather serious accident to L. B. Carter, the well-known Over racing cyclist.

The adverse effect of the heat on the entries was particularly noticeable in the plum classes, growers being unwilling to exhibit on account of the poorness of the crop. On the other hand, apples were good and beetroot very good. The marrow classes, too, were well supported, and the standard high, the same thing applying to the potatoes.

Another cause of fewer entries was the fact that the harvest has come earlier this year.

The Dodson Cup, given for the best collection of vegetables, was won by Mr. F. Parish. This is the third year in succession he has earned the right to hold it, but owing to the fact that it is a challenge cup he has not won it outright.

Many hundreds came and enjoyed the show, and the sports programme. Dance music was played after the sports were over, and the amplifying apparatus through which it was played, was also used to render musical selections during the afternoon, and as a means of announcing the results. A dance in the Memorial Hall, at which Hal Kemp and his band played, was held in the evening.

The interest which the President and his wife take in the show was indicated by the fact that Mrs. R. C. Cole has presented some cups for competition.

At the presentation of the prizes one speaker referred to the good luck of the society in having as their president Mr. R. C. Cole, who, he said, not only kept in touch with all the doings of the society, but was most liberal in his subscription and always ready with suggestions.

THE OFFICERS.

The officers were as follows:

President, Mr. R. C. Coles, J.P., ; chairman, Mr. C. W. Hines; vice-chairman, Mr. H. W. Whitehead; hon. general secretary, Mr. Prime Godfrey, Market-street, Swavesey; joint treasurers, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hephher, Market-street, Swavesey; sports secretary, Mr. A. Carter, Over; hon. auditor, Rev. C. E. O. Finch; Finance Committee, Messrs. F. W. Pontefract, R. Asplin, J. Culpin, C. W. Hines, F. F. Norman, P. J. Watts, G. Wayman, H. W. CAMBS. CYCLIST'S DEATH. 18th Aug. 1933

Lorry Inspected by Jury.

INQUEST ADJOURNED.

Evidence of identification only was given at the inquest on Friday evening on Ronald Arthur Cannell, of the New Inn, Swavesey, who was killed in a collision between his cycle and a six-wheeled motor lorry on Thursday afternoon. The proceedings lasted only a few minutes, and the inquest was then adjourned for three weeks.

The County Coroner (Mr. Jasper Lyon) conducted the inquest at the New Inn with a jury. Mr. Prime Godfrey was elected foreman of the jury, and the Chief Constable (Mr. W. Varney Webb), together with Sergt. Keep watched the proceedings on behalf of the police. Mr. C. Henderson appeared for the relatives of the deceased. The driver of the lorry was in court, but was not called upon to give evidence.

Following the short hearing, the jury retired to inspect the motor lorry involved in the accident.

Evidence of identification was given by the father, Richard Aves Cannell, licensee of the New Inn. He identified the body as that of his son, Ronald Arthur, aged 19 years and 10 months. His son lived at home and was employed as a bookseller by Messrs. Heffer and Son at Petty-cury. He was quite all right when witness last saw him on the Thursday, and his health was quite good.

The Coroner: Was his eyesight good? – Witness: Very good; also his hearing. He had been riding a bicycle for the past 12 years.

Replying to a member of the jury, witness said his son rode a push-cycle.

Mr. Henderson: Was he used to this road? – Witness: Yes; he has been up and down it at least twice daily, except Sunday, for the past five years.

The Chief Constable: Did he wear spectacles? – No, he had good eyesight.

This concluded witness's evidence. It was formally read over to him by the Coroner, and signed.

The Coroner intimated then that at that stage that was as far as he intended to go. The inquest would be adjourned for three weeks. He also voiced his sympathy with the relatives.

Mr. Varney Webb remarked that he had the lorry there if the jury would like to see it. The foreman thought they would, and the Coroner ordered the sergeant to see that they went alone without anybody else, not even the driver of the lorry.

The inquest was then formally adjourned.

MEMBER OF '99 ROWING CLUB.

Cannell was well-known as one of the most promising members of the '99 Rowing Club and had rowed in the third boat for some time.

Finch, officiated at the marriage at the parish church on Tuesday afternoon of Miss Clara Thorp, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thorp, of Grosvenor House, Swavesey, and Mr. Walter Wayman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wayman, of New Wimpole. The bride, who was given away by her father, was attired in beige georgette, with had to match, and she carried a shower bouquet of red and white roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Ivy Thorp (sister of the bride) wore a dress of green silk and a cream picture hat. She carried a bouquet of cream roses. FUNERAL OF RONALD CANNELL. 18th Aug. 1933

There was a large congregation at the parish church on Monday afternoon at the funeral of Mr. Ronald Arthur Cannell, whose tragic death was reported last week. The service, at which the Vicar, Rev. Heffer and Sons; President, officers and members of the '99 Rowing Club; colleagues of third boat, '99 Rowing Club. The funeral arrangements were carried out by Messrs. A ONE-MAN MEETING. 18th Aug. 1933

Swavesey Council Comedy.

Mr. F. Kirby (chairman) was the only member present at Friday's meeting of the Swavesey Rural District Council, and in the absence of a quorum it was agreed to transact the business and confirm it at the next meeting, a procedure which is becoming quite a common feature.

OVER WATER SUPPLY.

The Clerk (Mr. G. D. Day) reported the receipt of a further letter from Mr. H. W. Mustill regarding the Over water supply.

Mr. Kirby said he had heard nothing from the Parish Council since the last meeting and did not know whether they were desirous of going on with the scheme. It was the Parish Council's idea originally to form a private company, but this would mean employing an engineer and sinking a bore.

Further business concerning complaints against bathers in Over, and Boxworth water supply were discussed. (Full details in newspaper).

THE RHYTHM RASCALS. 25th Aug. 1933

The dance held in the Memorial Hall on Saturday was a great success, over 130 dancers attending. An excellent programme of old and new dance music was supplied by Billy Bishop and his Rhythm Rascals.

A VISIT TO NORWICH. 25th Aug. 1933

The annual outing arranged by the Women's Institute last week was well patronised, about thirty members and their friends leaving Swavesey by a private coach on Thursday morning. After a most enjoyable drive they arrived at Norwich about 11 a.m., and spent the morning in seeing the various places of interest in the beautiful city. In the afternoon a visit was paid to the factory of Messrs. J. and J. Colman, where the party was shown over many parts of the buildings, seeing the processes of making mustard, rolled oats, etc. A sumptuous tea, provided by the firm, was followed by an interesting cookery demonstration, and on leaving each visitor was given a large package of samples of the various products of the factory. The return journey was also very pleasant, the weather during the whole of the day being all that could be desired.

He returned to Swavesey the same evening and is progressing favourably.

DEATH OF MR. A. T. SCARD. 1st Sept. 1933

When playing for the St. George's, Ramsgate, Cricket Club on Saturday Mr. Anthony Thomas Scard, of 84, King-street, Ramsgate, dropped down dead at the crease after hitting a boundary. The match was abandoned. Prior to his going to Ramsgate about September, 1919, Mr. Scard carried on a successful business as baker and confectioner in High-street, Swavesey, for a number of years, and during that time took a keen and active interest in all matters appertaining to the welfare of the village. He was a parish councillor, a member of the church choir, a playing member of both the cricket and football clubs, a successful angler, a swimmer, and, being the possessor of an excellent tenor voice, was in great request for entertainments, concerts, etc., in the organisation of which he usually took a leading part. At Ramsgate he played for St. George's C.C., and belonged to the Wesleyan C.C., and in winter he used to referee a football match every Saturday. He was also a member of the choral and operatic societies and of the debating society. Mr. Scard, who was 55 years of age, was in the best of spirits when he left home to play for the St. George's Club on Saturday, and to die with his pads on and a bat in his hand was, it is stated by one who knew him well, the death he would, if he could, have chosen. Sincere sympathy is expressed in Swavesey with Mrs. Scard and her family in their bereavement. The funeral took place at Ramsgate on Wednesday.

SWAVESEY CYCLIST'S DEATH. 1st Sept. 1933

Sensational Sequel Expected.

ANOTHER INQUEST ADJOURNMENT?

Sensational developments are expected as a sequel to the fatality on the Huntingdon-road on August 10th, when a young cyclist collided with a motor lorry and was killed instantly.

The cyclist was Ronald Cannell, aged 19, of the New Inn, Swavesey, and the lorry with which he collided was being driven towards Cambridge by Mr. Edward Taylor, of 14, Abbey-lane, Stratford, London.

The inquest was opened on August 11th and adjourned until September 1st, after evidence of identification only had been called. When the inquest was resumed, the County Coroner (Mr. Jasper Lyon) ordered a further adjournment until sometime after the next Assizes for Cambridgeshire, “in view of certain other proceedings.”

As reported in the “Cambridge Daily News” at the time, the lorry driver, it was understood, did not know there had been an accident until another motorist who had witnessed it caught him up and informed him of the fact.

At the first hearing of the inquest a splinter of wood 16 or 18 inches long and two or three inches thick lay on the table in front of the Coroner and the jury.

This report is followed by the following:

LORRY DRIVER IN COLLISION.

Motor Cyclist's Leg Injury

A lorry, driven by a man named Edward Taylor, of 14, Abbey-lane, Stratford, London, overturned on the London – Newmarket-road near Six Mile Bottom Station, when it came into collision with a motorcycle combination on Friday morning. Goods being conveyed by the lorry were strewn all over the road.

The motor-cycle was being driven by Henry James Hardwick, of 4, Primrose Villa, Wootton-road, Gaywood, King's Lynn, aged 21 or 22, believed to be a petty officer in the Royal Navy at Chatham. It is understood that he was returning to Chatham from Lynn when the accident happened.

He sustained injuries to one hand and to one thigh. The Cambridge Borough Police Ambulance conveyed him to Addenbrooke's Hospital where he was detained. The lorry driver escaped unhurt.

A striking coincidence of the accident is that one of the police officers who went out with the ambulance is a next door neighbour of an aunt of Hardwick's who lives at Ross-street.

EXCURSION TO SKEGNESS. 8th Sept. 1933

Seventy passengers booked from Swavesey station by the L.N.E.R. buffet car excursion to Skegness on Sunday, and in addition a party, 32 in number, organised by Mr. P. Lee, travelled to the same seaside resort by motor coach.

It was announced that teams had been entered from Somersham, St. Ives, Huntingdon, Fenstanton and Swavesey. It was decided to revert to the original system of scoring, i.e., two points for each game won instead of two points for each match; also that both teams concerned in a match should send in result within 48 hours, and failing this that a fine of 1s. should be imposed.

MARRIED IN AUSTRALIA. 8th Sept. 1933

Mrs. John Williams, of Market-street, on Monday received a cable message announcing that the marriage of her youngest son, Rev. Edward Williams, and Miss Dorothy M. A competition for the best six cooked potatoes was won by Mrs. Carrier. Tea, community singing and a dance finished up the evening.

TEWIN CHURCH. 22nd Sept. 1933

There must be many Swavesey people, writes a correspondent, who would like to know something about Tewin Church, seeing that two vicars of Swavesey, the Rev. A. C. Vidler and the Rev. C. F. Stebbing, during recent years have left the village to become rectors of the Hertfordshire parish. Mr. Vidler, who was rector of Tewin from 1912 until 1930, when he was succeeded by Mr. Stebbing, has published a booklet in which he gives an interesting account of the history of Tewin, its ancient church, part of which there is reason to believe is a Norman restoration of an earlier Saxon church wall, its monuments and its churchyard. Considerations of space do not allow me to go into details, but mention should be made of the tomb in the churchyard of Lady Ann Grimston, who died at Tewin House in 1713, to which a well-known legend has been applied. "This tomb," to quote from the booklet, "bears an inscription which may be translated, 'This tomb must not be opened through all eternity' – an inscription always interpreted as a defiance of the truth of the Resurrection. The heavy iron cover of the tomb is, however, broken by the roots of a tree, and hence the ease with which the legend has been applied to such a tomb as this. The legend as connected with Lady Anne Grimston does not seem to have been heard of till about 1840, and all records of Lady Anne, belonging to her family, bear testimony of her piety and charity."

MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE. 29th Sept. 1933

Lorry Driver for Trial.

SWAVESEY LAD'S DEATH.

Edward Taylor, 14, Abbey-lane, Stratford, London, the driver of the lorry which, on August 10th, was in fatal collision with Ronald Arthur Cannell, of Swavesey, was committed for trial on a charge of manslaughter, heard at a special sitting of the Cambs. Divisional Bench to-day (Friday).

Mr. E. E. G. Robey (from the office of the Director of Public Prosecutions) appeared to prosecute, and defendant was unrepresented. Mr. M. C. Henderson was in court to hold a watching brief for the late Mr. Cannell's family.

CYCLIST'S SOMERSAULT.

Mr. Robey, outlining the circumstances of the accident, said that Mr. Cannell was cycling on the Huntingdon-road, close to the grass verge. Approaching him was a two and a half ton lorry, driven by defendant, at about 20 miles per hour. The point of collision was on the defendant's wrong side of the road. A witness saw the cyclist turn a somersault into the air, and before a doctor arrived Mr. Cannell died from his injuries. A splinter of wood on the off-side of the lorry frame was picked up on the road.

In a statement to the police, Taylor said he saw a cyclist jump on his bicycle on his (defendant's) near side. He swerved the lorry to the off-side, so that the cyclist could keep coming up on the near side. Then the cyclist "shot round the front" of him and he (Taylor) did not know he had caught the lad until he was stopped and told.

Evidence in proof of a road plan was given by Mr. E. E. Russell, surveyor, of 263 Cherryhinton-road, Cambridge, who said that the road at the spot had little camber and presented no difficulty of vision to traffic.

Mr. Ian F. S. Rudd-Clark, proprietor of a riding establishment, of Hutton Park, Brentwood, who on the morning of August 10th was driving into Cambridge on the Huntingdon-road, said the lorry was well ahead of him when he first noticed it. The cyclist, though approaching, was also some distance from the lorry at first. Witness did not see the cyclist mount his machine, but he was riding very close to the grass.

"SUDDENLY SWERVED TO OFF-SIDE."

When witness saw the lorry suddenly swerve over to the off-side, he wondered what the driver could be doing, as there appeared no reason for his action. "The cyclist disappeared from my sight," he went on, "and the next thing I saw him flying through the air. He fell on the grass. The lorry driver crossed over to his near side and carried straight on."

Mr. Rudd-Clark said that he then increased his speed and overtook the lorry. The driver pulled up, and witness remarked, "You were driving on the wrong side and have knocked a man off his bicycle. Why didn't you stop?" Taylor, in a dazed sort of manner, repeated the words, "Driving on the wrong side." Witness returned to the cyclist with Taylor on the running-board of his car, and another man on the lorry also accompanied him.

Defendant now denied that he made any mention of driving on the wrong side of the road.

"BUNDLE OF BASKETS."

Mr. Frederick Sparrow, Public Assistance officer, of 29, Roseford-road, Impington, who was also motoring on the Huntingdon-road, said he was following Mr. Rudd-Clark and the lorry. He saw no approaching traffic, but he was nearly half a mile away from the lorry when he saw it swerve. Witness thought the lorry was a fruit vehicle, and saw what he thought was a bundle of baskets shoot off from the back of the lorry, which continued after regaining its proper side.

On reaching the spot witness found a bicycle and a man, who appeared to be asleep. He (Mr. Sparrow) continued on, looking for the baskets, with the intention of catching up the lorry. He then concluded that the object which flew off was the man he had passed, so he returned to find that the cyclist, lying eight feet from the road, was seriously injured. As far as witness could recollect, the only words the lorry driver used were: "Is the man badly hurt?"

Mr. Rudd-Clark telephoned for an ambulance.

POLICE SERGEANT'S EVIDENCE.

P.S. Keep, stationed at Longstanton, stated that as a result of a telephone message, he went to a spot on the Cambridge-Huntingdon road. When he got there he saw the body lying on the South side of the road on the grass verge. Taylor arrived shortly afterwards.

Witness 'phoned for a doctor, and after the doctor had examined the body, witness removed it to the New Inn, Swavesey. He knew the deceased, Ronald Arthur Cannell, quite well.

Witness saw a cycle on the grass verge about six paces from where the body lay. He also saw a lorry standing on the nearside of the road, facing Cambridge. The vehicle was a 2½ ton Bedford. The road surface was dry and good. He examined the lorry to see what damage was done. There was a grid in an upright position behind the driver's cabin. It was wider than the cabin. A piece of wood on the off-side of the grid was missing. Witness searched back along the road to find the missing piece of wood and found it 19 yards on the Cambridge side of where the body lay.

The damaged part of the grid was about seven feet high from the road. There was a graze mark on the off-side front mudguard. It looked fresh.

When witness examined the bicycle produced he found that the right handle was dented and bent back, and the brake lever was bent up. The right pedal crank was slightly bent inwards towards the chain. The seat was twisted.

DEFENDANT'S STATEMENT TO POLICE.

Witness took down a statement from the defendant, who signed it. In this defendant said he was proceeding along the main road towards Cambridge, when he saw a cyclist jump on his cycle on his (Taylor's) near-side. He (Taylor) swerved across to the off-side, so that the cyclist could continue to come up on the near-side, but the cyclist shot round in front of the lorry. He did not know he had hit the cyclist until told by another man. His speed was not more than 25 miles an hour.

Medical evidence was given by Dr. A. S. Cane, of Willingham, who spoke of receiving a telephone call, as the result of which he went to a spot on the Huntingdon-Cambridge road. A man lying there was obviously dead.

Witness later made a more detailed examination and found that there was a fracture of the base of the skull, dislocation of the neck, and a series of severe bruising the whole way down the right side. There was a small punctured wound on the right shoulder. As far as witness's examination was made, no other bones, bar the skull, were broken.

Unconsciousness must have been instantaneous, and death must have followed in two or three minutes.

P.S. Woolsey gave evidence of interviewing Taylor on September 13th at West Ham. He told him that he had a warrant for his arrest on a charge of manslaughter. He read the warrant over to him and cautioned him. He replied: "I don't wish to say anything." Witness took him to the County Police Station, Cambridge, the same day, where he was charged with the offence. He made no reply.

Defendant did not desire to call witnesses, give evidence, or make any other statement beyond what he had said to the police, and he was committed for trial at the next Assizes.

He asked for legal aid, and was advised to apply at the Assizes.

Bail was granted in defendant's own surety and that of his father.

One of the gates across the L.N.E.R. line at Swavesey station was broken about 8.50 a.m. on Friday by the engine of a heavy coal train which over-ran the up home signals. The other gate was saved by the prompt action of one of the porters, Mr. Few, who managed to swing it clear just before the crash occurred. No one was injured, and fortunately no vehicle was crossing the metals at the time. The gate was temporarily repaired during the day.

SOCIAL. 6th Oct. 1933

An enjoyable social was held in the Memorial Hall on Saturday evening by the Swavesey and District branch of the British Legion. There were about 100 present, and all were enthusiastic about the programme which was provided. It would have been much better, but owing to illness it was found at the last moment that some good items had to be cut out. Vocal items by Mrs. Hind and Mr. Lee were much appreciated. The dance music was provided by the Blue Riviera Dance Band. After the interval choruses from 50 years of songs were played by Mrs. Budge at the piano, and led by Mr. Lee, the company joining heartily in the singing. The refreshments were in the capable hands of Mesdames Berryman, Turner, and Pettitt, and Miss Vera Savidge. Not only did she describe in detail what she had learnt, but showed actual specimens which she had done to illustrate her talk. She was accorded a hearty vote of thanks. Next Miss Gaskell gave a demonstration of household jobbery, showing how to make and mend many things in the home. Members were deeply interested, and many questions were asked. Miss Gaskell's entertaining way of talking made the demonstration unusually attractive. A roll call of "Where I would like to live and why," which brought out varied ideas, and a couple of dances, which satisfied the energetic members, closed a very enjoyable evening.

PARISH CHURCH. 13th Oct. 1933

The harvest festival at the parish church commenced on Thursday week with a celebration of Holy communion at 6 a.m. A large congregation attended evensong at 7 p.m., when the special preacher was the Rev. The R.D.C. grant would be 2s. 2d., leaving a net rate of 4s., which was a penny less on the parishes than in the previous half-year. Over had a special rate of 6d. to meet expenses of extending sewers, but there was no special rate in the other parishes.

The net rate was fixed as follows: - Boxworth, Conington, Fen Drayton, and Lolworth, 4s.; Over, 3s. 9d.; Swavesey, 4s. 2d.

Further business concerned Over and Boxworth water supplies.

CAMBS. CRASH SEQUEL. 13th Oct. 1933

Driver on Reduced Charge.

"NOT GUILTY"

Judge and Cyclist's Movements.

Shortly before the luncheon adjournment at the Cambs. Assizes yesterday, Mr. Justice Horridge and a jury began the trial of a London lorry driver who was charged as a sequel to the accident on the Huntingdon-road on August 10th, when Ronald Arthur Cannell, of Swavesey, was killed in a collision.

The prisoner, Edward Taylor, aged 18, had been committed for trial on a charge of manslaughter, but following submissions to the Judge yesterday, Taylor now appeared on a charge of driving to the public danger.

Taylor was represented by Mr. R. Gresham Cooke.

Mr. C. R. Havers, in opening the case for the prosecution, stated that the accident occurred about 1.45 p.m. on August 10th. At the time visibility was good, and the road was straight for at least half a mile. The cyclist, Mr.

Cannell, was the only other person near the lorry at the time, but there were witnesses in cars following at a distance.

Evidence in proof of plans of the road was given by Mr. Eric Ellis Russell, surveyor, of 11, Chesterton-road, Cambridge.

MOTORIST'S EVIDENCE.

Mr. Ian F. S. Rudd Clarke, a teacher of riding, of Hutton Park, Essex, said he was driving a car towards Cambridge on the Huntingdon-road about 1.30 p.m. on August 10th. When he first saw the bicycle the lorry was about a quarter of a mile ahead of him. The cyclist was on the left-hand side of the road, close to the grass verge. When the lorry approached within 30 or 40 yards of the cyclist, it swerved across the road and witness could not then see the cyclist.

Counsel: What was the next thing you saw? – Witness: A man being thrown from the cycle through the air. He fell on to the grass on his near-side.

What did the lorry do? – It pulled gradually over to its near-side and proceeded towards Cambridge.

What did you do? – I increased the speed of my car and caught the lorry up in about 400 yards. As I drew alongside, the driver pulled up and I saw two other men with Taylor on the front of the lorry.

“SHAKEN AND NERVOUS.”

Mr. Rudd Clarke added that when he told Taylor about the accident, he repeated the words “On my wrong side?” He seemed to be very shaken and nervous. He returned with witness and another man to the scene of the accident, and the cyclist was removed by ambulance.

In cross-examination, witness said his car was an open two-seater, rather high, and his speed was about 30 m.p.h. at the time.

Replying to the Judge, witness said that the cyclist was on his correct side when the lorry swerved.

“SWERVED VIOLENTLY TO OFFSIDE.”

Frederick Sparrow said that about 1.45 p.m. on August 10th he was driving a car towards Cambridge. In front of him was the car driven by the last witness, and in front of that was a lorry. The lorry was on its near side, but soon afterwards swerved violently to its offside. The lorry continued on its off side for a very short way and then returned to the near-side. Witness saw what he took to be a bundle of baskets raised from the back of the lorry and fall on the grass verge.

Witness went on and then noticed a cycle lying partly on the road and partly on the grass verge and a man whom he thought to be asleep on the grass about eight or nine feet from the cycle. Witness stopped to see if he could render any assistance. He heard Taylor say “Is the man badly hurt?”

“GRID BROKEN ON OFFSIDE.”

P.S. Keep, stationed at Longstanton, said he arrived on the scene of the accident about 2.35 p.m. and found Cannell lying on the grass verge apparently dead. He examined the lorry and found the grid behind the driver's cabin was broken on the offside, and on searching the roadway he found the missing piece of the grid lying just on the grass verge, about 19 yards from where the body was lying. There was a slight mark on the offside mudguard of the lorry.

Witness took a statement from Taylor in which he said the cyclist got on his machine and shot round in front of the lorry and he did not know that he had caught him until the car driver stopped him.

His Lordship told the jury to find Taylor not guilty of manslaughter. There was nothing to show that the cyclist did not swing in front of the lorry.

The jury accordingly returned a verdict of "Not guilty."

The prosecution tendered no evidence upon the second charge and prisoner was accordingly discharged.

THE COUNTY LIBRARY. 27th Oct. 1933

We have received the following communication from the Swavesey Women's Institute: "In last week's paper appeared an announcement of the closing of the local branch of the County Library, with the information that the Parish Council, with whom rests the appointment of a new librarian in succession to Mr. Wood, had decided to delegate the duties to the Women's Institute. As this appears to have been decided some time ago, surely the Council should have informed the officers of the Women's Institute what was expected of them, so that the question could be put before the members."

PARISH COUNCIL. 27th Oct. 1933

There was very little business for the Parish Council to deal with at their quarterly meeting held at the Memorial Hall on Monday. The following councillors were present: Mr. C. Parish (chairman), Messrs. W. Burton, C. W. S. Cole, F. Hephher, Jethro Linford, P. Parish and A. P. Payne. The Clerk, Mr. Prime Godfrey, reported that he had received an application from the churchwardens to purchase the street lamp which until recently had been on a house in Church End, but was now no longer used for street lighting. It was wanted for erection in the churchyard. The Chairman pointed out that the lamp could not be sold, and the Council therefore decided to lend it to the churchwardens. Replying to a question by Mr. Cole, the Chairman explained that before permission was recently given to a visiting missionary to draw a living caravan on the Recreation Ground he (the chairman) obtained the consent of most of the councillors. He did not think it necessary to call a special meeting of the Council to deal with the matter. He was, however, surprised later to see a tent on the ground as well as the caravan. With regard to the collection of unburnable rubbish, Mr. Burton said he thought one collection a year would be sufficient, and he proposed, and Mr. Linford seconded, a resolution to that effect. The proposer and seconder voted for the resolution and the rest of the councillors against it. Mr. Cole then moved that there should be three collections in two years, and that the next should be made in February or March next, weather permitting, or as soon after as possible. This was seconded by Mr. P. Parish and carried nem. con.

Berryman) presented his annual report, in the course of which he stated that during the year five new members had been enrolled, two old members had left the district, and one had died. The members were to be congratulated, he said, on the way in which they had turned out to the rallies and the dedication of standards in the county, especially at the dedication of the Branch's own standard, which had proved a huge success. Two claims for relief had been received during the 12 months, but one loan and a gift had been made in necessitous cases. Both the balance sheet and the report were adopted. A hearty vote of thanks was accorded the chairman (Mr. R. Barwell), the treasurer, and the secretary. The following officers were elected for the ensuing 12 months: President, Capt. L. H. TURN BRIDGE DRAIN.

The Sanitary Inspector (Mr. G. C. Yeandle) reported with regard to Turn Bridge Drain, Swavesey. He said he had been to the spot two or three times and found it difficult to make up his mind as to what he should do. It was such an appalling place. The existing drain was beyond repair, and he thought it was useless to waste money on it. It was a problem to know what to do. He had thought of extending the drain on to the opposite bank.

The Chairman said the only solution seemed to be to do away with the existing drain along the bank of the brook and carry it across against the bridge to the other side, and put in a new drain for part of the way.

It was agreed to refer the matter to the Swavesey representatives and the Sanitary Inspector, with power to act.

Other business concerned Over and Boxworth water supplies.

The funeral at the parish church on Saturday of Alfred Robinson (Bobbie) Mitham, only son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Mitham, jun., whose death at the age of 17 years was announced last week, was attended by an exceptionally large number of villagers and friends. The lad having been one of the junior ringers, a full peal of bells was rung muffled before the service instead of the tenor being tolled. As the mourners entered the church the organist, Mr. G. H. Skeeles, played "O rest in the Lord" and during the service the 23rd Psalm was chanted, and the hymn "How bright these glorious spirits shine" was sung. The Vicar, Rev. C. E. O. Finch, officiated both in church and at the grave in the churchyard. The mourners were: Mr. and Mrs. R. The following hymns were sung: "O God, our help in ages past," "O Valiant Hearts," and "All people that on earth do dwell," the service concluding with the National Anthem. A collection was taken for Earl Haig's Fund, £1 13s. being realised. Mrs. C. S. Hepher presided at the piano.

The large congregation at evensong at the parish church included 30 ex-Servicemen, all of whom, except three who were in the choir, paraded with their standard at the churchyard gates and marched thence into the church. During the service the roll of the men of Swavesey, Boxworth, Conington, Fen Drayton and Lolworth who made the supreme sacrifice was read by the Vicar, who also preached. The following hymns were sung: "The Son of God goes forth to war" (processional), "How bright these glorious spirits shine," "O Valiant Hearts," "For all the saints who from their labours rest," and "Hark! The sound of holy voices" (recessional). Other music included: Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis (G. J. Bennett) and the anthem "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace" (C. L. Williams). Before the business commenced the Chairman made sympathetic reference to the death of the Chairman of the Council, Mr. J. Frohock. He had been chairman since the inception of the District Council and attended regularly to the business. Mr. Kirby expressed the sympathy of the Council and instructed the Clerk to send a letter to the relatives.

The Council stood for a moment in silence.

CONDEMNED AND REPARABLE HOUSES.

The Medical Officer (Dr. W. R. Grove) attended to present a report on his investigation into the housing conditions of the district. He explained that the Council, in common with many others, had been allowed a period of five years in which to build new houses to replace those that required demolishing and improve other dwellings. In company with the Sanitary Inspector (Mr. Yeandle) he had been over the area and had decided which houses ought to be condemned and which ought to be improved.

The Medical Officer reported on houses in Lolworth, Boxworth, Conington, Fen Drayton, Swavesey and Over. Swavesey parish had eight houses at Askew-road which required improving, the two cottages at the Green Man had been condemned, and also two in Wallman's-lane and three in Market-st., leading from Wallman's lane.

The Clerk expressed the Council's thanks to the Medical Officer and the Sanitary Inspector for their report.

There was further business concerning Over and Boxworth water supplies.

FIRE THREATENS TWO COTTAGES. 5th Jan. 1934

Midnight Outbreak at Swavesey.

Occupants of two cottages removed furniture from them when their houses were threatened by flames from a blazing barn at Swavesey early on Tuesday morning.

The barn was on Mordaunt House Farm, Swavesey, which is occupied by Mr. Ernest Henry Day, a farmer, and is owned by Mr. Herbert Wilderspin, of the same village.

The outbreak was first noticed at about midnight by Mr. Throssell, of Elsworth, who was passing through the Middle Watch, Swavesey. He gave the alarm and the Cambridge Borough Fire Brigade turned out under P.S. Clague.

ICE BROKEN FOR WATER.

They were hampered by fog and rain, and on arrival had to break half-an-inch of ice before they were able to obtain water. The fire had obtained a good hold on the barn and outbuildings, and the two cottages near by occupied respectively by Messrs. E. Bath and S. Gray, being threatened, the occupants removed the furniture from them.

The Brigade was unable to save the barn, which contained hay, an oil engine, a mill, and other agricultural implements, but they kept the cottages from being seriously burnt. Slight damage was done to the back of both and also the roof of one of these buildings, and Mr. Bath has had to remove temporarily to Chester House close by. The outbuildings at the back of three other cottages owned by Mr. Wilderspin were destroyed, with most of their contents, including bicycles, wheel barrows, a mangle, etc.

The Brigade returned at about 5.30 a.m.

An interesting film of Palestine was shown, accompanied by an illuminating lecture. Perhaps the item which gave greatest pleasure to the juvenile portion of the audience was "Yarmouth Suits All." Many of the boys and girls lived over again happy hours spent at last year's outing, as they witness scenes from it upon the screen. A short film was also shown of the London Temperance Hospital, giving some idea of the splendid work it is doing.

The completed report of the Medical Officer and Sanitary Inspector on the housing conditions in the district was considered, and after a lengthy discussion the Council appointed Mr. W. A. Lee as architect for the houses to be built at Over in the first year of the Ministry's five-year scheme. These new houses will replace those that are to be demolished.

The Chairman read a list of likely sites for the new houses, and these will be viewed by the parish representatives in order that a scheme can be made.

It was stated that the parishes of Swavesey and Fen Drayton will be dealt with in the second year, which will be 1935.

REVIEW OF COUNTY DISTRICTS.

The Chairman said he attended at Cambridge on December 20th, a conference to consider a review of county districts.

The Chairman of the Conference, Mr. Kirby said, stated that the Ministry proposed to constitute three rural districts in Cambridgeshire – the Borough of Cambridge, Newmarket and the remainder of the county. The feeling of the conference was strongly against this, and the Chairman then suggested that two districts should be formed, but the conference did not approve of that. One district for the whole county did not find favour either. He (Mr. Kirby) was strongly in favour of three rural districts outside the Borough of Cambridge, and he moved a recommendation to that effect, the districts to comprise Newmarket, Chesterton and Swavesey, and South Cambridgeshire. His recommendation was carried, but it had yet to be approved by the Ministry. The feeling of the conference was very strongly expressed. The Council approved of the decision of the conference.

After business was finished Mr. W. Hepher took the chair and expressed the regret of all at the departure of the Vicar and Mrs. Finch. Mr. Whitehead, Mrs. C. Hepher and Mrs. Banks supported with expressions of appreciation and affection. Mr. Harry Wells then, on behalf of the parishioners, presented Mr. Finch with a beautiful grandmother clock in walnut case, with Westminster chimes, also a cheque for £2 11s. 6d., and a small leather bound book containing the names of subscribers. Mr. Finch said he found great difficulty in expressing what he felt. Both he and Mrs. Finch thanked the people most sincerely and would always remember the happy times they had spent at Swavesey. He spoke of the willing services of the people for their church, and hoped they would give the new vicar as warm a welcome as they had given him. On Wednesday Mr. Finch left for Kings Stanley, Gloucestershire.

This was followed by the junior drill display and ribbon dance. Later in the programme a display of more advanced drill was given by the seniors. Two plays by the juniors, "Daisy Pots" and "The Gipsy's Treasure," were much enjoyed, and the seniors showed much ability in "The Cricket Match," a comedy of school life. Capt. Isgrove and Lieut. The annual meeting of the Swavesey and District Horticultural Society and Athletic Association, which was held at the Memorial Hall on Monday evening, was well attended. Mr. C. W. Paskett, who had acted as judge at the society's shows, and all present stood in silence for a few minutes. Mr. C. S. Hephner, one of the joint treasurers, then presented the financial statement, which showed a deficit of £31 5s. 11d. on the year's working, leaving a balance of £41 to the credit of the society at the bank. The accounts having been passed, the Chairman spoke of the financial position of the society and considerable discussion ensued. Mr. C. Haddow proposed that in order to curtail expenses the first prizes for horticultural exhibits should be reduced to the level of second prizes and that no third prizes be awarded. Mr. H. Unwin moved as an amendment that first prizes should be 3s. as before, second prizes 1s., and that no third prizes be given. The amendment was carried. The question as to whether there should be a show this year was then raised. The Chairman proposed that the show be not held, but an amendment that it should take place was carried. After this the election of officers for the ensuing year was proceeded with. Mr. R. C. Cole was re-elected president. Mr. H. W. Whitehead was elected chairman in place of Mr. C. W. Hines, who declined to stand, and Mr. P. J. Watts was appointed vice-chairman. W. Hines, the late chairman, for their services, the meeting was adjourned sine die.

The programme was a good one, and deserved better support. Vocal items were contributed by the Misses Lee, Mr. Harry Cole, and Mr. Lee, and the Night Hawks' Dance Band supplied a tip-top selection of music, which was much appreciated. The refreshments were served by Mesdames Berryman, Turner and Pettitt, with Mr. Turner as cashier. Mr. Berryman was in charge of the door, and Mr. Lee was M.C.

Mrs. Maltby, who would have been 70 had she lived until Feb. 27th, had been suffering from bronchitis for some considerable time, but she managed to keep about until last Friday, when her condition rapidly became worse and worse, and her heart failing, she passed peacefully away on Monday as stated. It was decided (1) to issue a precept for £20 on the Rating Authority for expenses of the Council during the ensuing year, and (2) to invite tenders for the collection of unburnable rubbish, the tenders to be sent to the Chairman on or before Feb. 14th. Mr Payne called attention to the wastage of water from the public supply through the neglect of individual users; and he moved that the engineer be written to on the subject. The motion was seconded, and on being put to the vote, was carried unanimously.

No trace could be found of two paths which had not been used for many years. It was decided to issue a precept on the Chesterton R.D.C. for £32 during the 12 months ending 31st March, 1935. With regard to the disposal of unburned rubbish, the Chairman stated that Mr. A. L. parish was not prepared to allow his pond to be again used as a dumping place unless the Council undertook to cover the rubbish with earth. After some discussion, it was unanimously agreed that this should be done.

SWAVESEY MAN'S AFFAIRS. 2nd March 1934

Bankruptcy Court Disclosures.

OVER £1,000 DEFICIT.

At Peterborough Bankruptcy Court on Friday, before the Registrar (Major S. G. Cook), the public examination was heard of J. P. (43), of Ferrars-road, Huntingdon, lately residing and carrying on business in Swavesey, carpenter and house furnisher. Debtor had lodged a statement of affairs which disclosed gross liabilities £1,868 0s. 3d., liabilities expected to rank for dividend £1,026 0s. 10d., net assets £22 15s. 9d; deficiency £1,003 5s. 1d.

In examination by the Official Receiver (Mr. J. L. Wilkinson, Cambridge) debtor said he served an apprenticeship as a carpenter and builder, and as soon as he was out of it he set up in business at Swavesey as a carpenter and furnisher, also going in for pig-rearing. Later he added ironmongery to his general store and dealt in sawn timber. He was successful right up to the time he was called up for the Army in 1917. He served in India till he was demobilised at the end of 1919, and while he was away his sister managed the business.

£319 BORROWED FROM MOTHER.

When he returned his business was sound, but he needed to buy more stock, and borrowed £319 from his mother, which had not been repaid, and there was a year and a half's interest owing.

Under the will of his grandfather he inherited a house, buildings and two acres of land, and out of the income from it he had to pay annuities of £20 to his grandmother, £7 to his mother, and £5 to his sister. Early in 1932 he mortgaged the property for £800, because he needed more capital to carry on with and pay his debts, although he was not being pressed at that time. He was unable to pay the annuities last year. All the money he raised had gone into his business. His principal trade lay in the furnishing.

He estimated that he had lost £500 on the pigs. To a small extent he had engaged in the antique furniture trade, his best deal in that line being one in which he made £50. He had not done any antique dealing since the slump came two or three years ago, since when there had been plenty of sellers, but no buyers. He did not think he had been getting behind in his business for more than two years at any rate, not seriously so.

“RESORTED TO A SALE.”

There came a time when he had some rather severe pressure from creditors, and in order to raise money quickly he resorted to a sale by auction. That was held on September 21st last, and in order to “build it up” he bought a lot of stuff. The sale, which was not a good one, realised a little over £300, which was not sufficient to enable him to pay his debts in full, as he owed a considerable amount to trade creditors in addition to the loan from his mother. The Official Receiver : Would it not have been the honest thing to have filed your petition then, so that everyone could share alike? – I did not look at it so at the time.

Do you agree now? – As things have turned out it would have been better.

Debtor agreed that he paid some creditors and not others. He was compelled to pay for the goods which he bought to build the sale up with. He hoped that he would take more money later on to pay everyone. He agreed that the books he had kept were hardly adequate, but he did not have a great deal of time.

AN ITEM OF £550.

Debtor was asked to explain an item of £550 shown in the bank book as having been paid on January 22nd, 1930, and said that it was in respect of goods sold, and eventually he said it was a cheque paid to him by an Ipswich firm of furnishers for goods he bought and supplied to them. He said he had always used a car in his business, and bought one in September last for £52, with licence, and sold it for £26.

He attributed his failure to depression in the furniture trade and losses on pig breeding. He said that he first realised he was bankrupt at the end of last year. The Official Receiver: But you come here owing over £1,000, does it seem conceivable that you did not realise till then that you had not got sufficient to pay everyone in full? – Yes, but of course part of that money was on mortgage.

But £730 of it represents trade goods? – Yes.

WIFE AND FURNITURE.

Debtor said the furniture in the house belonged to his wife.

The Official Receiver: You are a furniture dealer, how comes it to belong to Mrs. Prior? – She has purchased it from different people, not all from me.

Why should a furniture dealer's wife purchase furniture: it does not seem conceivable? – She paid me for it and holds receipts.

I want some evidence that it is genuinely hers, if she will make a statutory declaration and produce evidence that it is hers I will admit the claim, but not until! – Her pass book shows what she has paid.

Debtor was closely questioned as to transactions he had had with Messrs. French, millers, of Cambridge, and said he had goods from them for pig feeding. He did not think he had told French's that his Swavesey business was a successful and profitable one. They called on him and they knew him previously and could see for themselves. He did not tell them that his premises were free from charges of any sort – they never asked him. Neither did he remember telling them that he had had the place valued and it was worth £2,000.

The Official Receiver: I am quoting statements from their letter, did you tell them that? – Not that I know of.

Did you tell French's that you had purchased a site at Peterborough, on which you were going to have premises erected? – Yes.

Had you bought a site at Peterborough – My wife had, I did not buy it.

And you tell them you had bought it? – I can't remember.

Or don't want to? – O told him we were proposing to go to Peterborough.

“NEGOTIATIONS FELL THROUGH.”

Debtor said that negotiations were entered into for the purchase of some land and buildings at Star-road, Peterborough, for £250, but his wife did the negotiating and signed the contract. The negotiations had fallen through.

The Official Receiver: They say “He said he had purchased a site at Peterborough and was having convenient premises built there, from where he would still be able to trade with us and bring us more customers.” You had not purchased it, your wife was to purchase it, but the negotiations fell through? – Yes.

Did you continue to get pig food from French's on your promise to pay when the pigs were sold? – Yes.

Did you ever pay them? – I have not paid them any.

The Official Receiver: It is not exactly honest to make a promise and not keep it. If you had filed your petition as you should have done, everyone would have shared alike.

The examination was adjourned to 23rd March.

THE NEW VICAR. 9th March 1934

The Rev. C. C. Dickson, who has recently been appointed Vicar of Swavesey, in succession to the Rev. C. E. O. Finch, arrived in the village on Wednesday, and will take the services at the parish church next Sunday. His institution will take place at Ely Cathedral on Friday, 23rd March.

A letter was also read from the president, Mr. R. C. Cole, suggesting that instead of being affiliated, the sports should be restricted to the villages in the district, as was the case when the show was first held. After a long discussion the meeting was adjourned sine die, pending the appointment of a general secretary and the raising of a guarantee fund.

The meeting of the Swavesey Rural District Council at St. Ives on Friday was the last that will be held, for at the end of this month Swavesey will be merged with Chesterton and the new Chesterton R.D.C. will be constituted.

There were natural regrets in the passing, and they were voiced by the Chairman (Mr. F. Kirby), who has been a member of the Council since its inception. "We were only a small body," he said, "and we knew each other personally. We knew also the needs of the district we served. The work in the past has been pleasant, in fact it has been a joy to meet fellow members and the officers of this Council. I regret the passing of the Swavesey R.D.C., but it was inevitable.

Mr. Kirby expressed his appreciation of the services of the members and of the Clerk and other officers. As a District Council they had worked amicably together and had done their best for the ratepayers and all concerned.

The Clerk (Mr. G. D. Day), on behalf of the officers, said he was very grateful to the Chairman for the kind words he used.

The Surveyor (Mr. Hagger), who is one of the oldest servants of the Council, also thanked Mr. Kirby and the members for the kindness shown to him.

The Council proceeded with the business of increasing the Clerk's salary, matters concerning Over water scheme, and housing.

ALLEGED THEFT FROM INN. 30th March 1934

Cambs. Man Sent for Trial.

Money stated to have been missed from the New Inn, Swavesey, was the subject of a charge brought against a Cambs man at the Cambs. Divisional Court on Saturday.

Accused was Frederick Harry Hewish, of Hilton-road, Fenstanton, aged 48, and he was charged with stealing from the dwelling-house of Richard Aves Cannell, at Swavesey, on March 21st, six £1 notes and four 10s. notes, the moneys of Mr. Cannell.

LICENSEE'S STORY.

Richard Aves Cannell, licensee of the New Inn public-house, Swavesey, said that about 8.30 p.m. on March 21st the prisoner came to his house. He was supplied with a small glass of stout and a packet of cigarettes. At the time accused stood just inside the passage at the entrance to the taproom.

Witness was called away to supply petrol, and went outside the front door. He went back into the house to change a ten shilling note, and went to his petrol cash-box, which he kept on a shelf just inside the cellar. On witness taking the cash-box down the lid fell off and to his surprise all the notes had disappeared. There was about one pound's worth of silver and copper remaining in the box. The notes that had been in would come to about £8.

He found a £1 note on the cellar floor, and someone else handed him £3 10s.

Prisoner had gone when witness found that the money was missing. Witness made a communication to his son, Leslie Aves Cannell, who left the house and went in the direction of Fenstanton. He later returned with the prisoner. The prisoner said: "I'm very sorry, landlord; I don't know what made me do it. I hope you'll overlook it this time." He handed witness £3 10s. in notes.

Witness telephoned for the police.

The £4 10s. in notes produced were those found by witness or handed to him. Witness believed that the £8 made up by these two sums was what he had lost from the cash-box.

Witness knew the prisoner as a customer.

"YOU'RE THE MAN."

Leslie Aves Cannell, a clerk, of the New Inn, Swavesey, stated that in consequence of a communication made to him by his father on March 21st he went towards Fenstanton in a car. Approximately a mile along the road witness saw the prisoner, who was cycling fairly quickly towards Fenstanton.

Witness got out of the car and asked accused if he had just come from the New Inn. He replied that he had. Witness asked Hewish if he would return to the New inn, and he said that he would. He cycled back in front of the car, which was driven slowly behind him.

Witness took the prisoner to the living room, where his father was.

Witness's father said to the prisoner: "Yes, you're the man," and prisoner replied, "Here's your money," and gave him some notes screwed up in his hand. Witness subsequently counted them and found they amounted to £3 10s.

P.C. Yeomans, stationed at Boxworth, spoke of going to the New Inn, Swavesey, on the day in question, in consequence of a telephonic communication. He was handed the notes produced by Mr. Richard Aves Cannell.

Witness arrested the prisoner and cautioned him. He said, "I didn't think I took all that. What I took I brought back. I kept it in my hand." Witness escorted him to the County Police Station, where he was charged and cautioned.

He made and signed a statement, in which he said: "I thought there was £3 10s. I brought them back just as I took them. I'm sorry, that's all."

Accused now said that he went in to have a drink, and had no intention of taking the money. He took it "on the spur of the moment." If he were given another chance he would not do it again.

He was committed for trial at the next County Quarter Sessions.

PARISH COUNCIL. 30th March 1934

A meeting of the Parish Council was held on Tuesday evening to consider the difficult question of the disposal of the unburnable rubbish. It was reported that Mr. A. L. Parish would not allow his pond to be used any longer unless the rubbish was well covered with earth, and it was considered that the cost of doing this would be prohibitive. After some discussion, on the proposition of Mr. A. P. Payne, seconded by Mr. C. Savage, Messrs. C. W. H. Cole and C. Dean were delegated to interview Mr. Parish with a view to ascertaining whether there was any possibility of coming to an arrangement with him. On the motion of Mr. J. Linford, seconded by Mr. F. Hephher, it was unanimously agreed that the herbage of the Recreation Ground should be let by tender this year, the tenders to be sent to the Clerk, Mr. Prime Godfrey, on or before 7th April. It was also decided that the question of the re-appointment of the captain and sub-captain of the fire engine should be included in the agenda of the next meeting of the Council. The following councillors were present at the meeting: Messrs. C. H. Parish (chairman), C. W. H. Cole, C. Dean, F. Hephher, J. Linford, P. Parish, A. P. Payne and C. Savage.

OLD FOLK ENTERTAINED. 30th March 1934

Mr. Walter Thorp writes: - A nice form of Lenten self-denial was carried out by the members of the Women's Institute by giving a tea and concert to villagers of 70 years of age and over, at the Memorial Hall on March 22nd. Cars were kindly lent by Mr. G. Burling, Mr. Dean and Mr. W. Hephher, to convey all those who wished to ride. On our arrival at 4.15 we received a cordial welcome and then sat down to a sumptuous tea, which we all thoroughly enjoyed. Later, there was an excellent concert, for which the W. I. President (Mrs. C. S. Hephher) was an indefatigable M.C. The programme, entirely provided by local talent, included a pianoforte solo by Lily and Joan Hephher, songs by Mrs. Hind, Lily Hephher, and Mrs. C. S. Hephher, monologue by Mrs. Marriott, recitation by Alan Lee, violin solos by George Laverack, sketches by Miss Warboys and a friend, and by Mrs. Laverack, Mrs. Melbourne and Mrs. Marriott, gave "My Grandmother went to Parish," and various items by Leonora Key, Joan Hepher and other children, concluding with a song tableau in which Mrs. Hind took the principal part. At the close an octogenarian guest proposed a hearty vote of thanks to the W. I. and the entertainers, and the whole of the company seconded it most heartily.

DEATH OF A NONAGENARIAN. 30th March 1934

Swavesey has lost one of its oldest inhabitants by the death of Mr. William Evans, who passed away on March 20th, after three week's illness. He was the son of Mr. Thomas Evans, and was born at Bluntisham, Hunts., 91 years ago. A gardener by profession, most of his working life was spent at Haywards Heath, Sussex. The funeral took place on the following Saturday, the service, which very appropriately, was held in the Friends' Meeting House, being conducted by the Rev. A. FURNITURE FROM BOXES. 6th April 1934

This was the title of a most interesting demonstration given by Mr. Chadwick at the monthly meeting of the Women's Institute on Tuesday evening in the Memorial Hall. In the absence of the President through illness, Mrs. Banks (vice-president) took the chair, and there was a good attendance of members. After routine business, arrangements were made for an outing in May to Messrs. Lyons, Cadby Hall, Kensington, and for a jumble sale. Mr. Chadwick's demonstration, in which he showed how to make a numerous articles of furniture – from a sideboard to a chicken coop – out of grocery boxes, occupied most of the time, and he was accorded a hearty vote of thanks, proposed by Mrs. Canham. Mr. Chadwick also kindly judged the competition for the best article made from a half-sieve, the prize being awarded to Mrs. Warboys for an attractive "Humpty," Mrs. Hind's entry being a close second. It was agreed that the Somersham Town Band be engaged, and that two cricket matches, at which collections would be made for the Parade Fund, should be arranged for Feast Week, viz.: Ladies v. Gentlemen, on Monday, and Swavesey v. Over (for the Hospital Cup) on Tuesday.

SWAVESEY'S NEW VICAR. 13th April 1934

Induction of the Rev. C. C. Dickson.

A large congregation assembled in Swavesey parish church on April 5th to witness the Induction of the new vicar, the Rev. C. Cecil Dickson, M.A., Hon. C.F.

After the Third Collect at Evensong, the Induction proper commenced, Canon Campbell Hair, the Rural Dean, reading the mandate and conducting the new vicar to the various parts of the church, as laid down in the Order of Service.

The Rural Dean, who spoke on the text, "Brethren, pray for us," laid stress on the very important part the prayers of the parishioners played in the life of a vicar, and asked those assembled never to forget that fact.

The service was fully choral, and included the Embertide hymn, "O Thou Who Makest Souls to Shine" and "The Church's One Foundation."

At the conclusion of the service the ringers rang a welcoming peal on the beautiful bells, which have lately been restored.

Among the clergy present to join in welcoming the new vicar were the Rector of Lolworth, the Vicar of Over and the Vicar of Oakington, while apologies were received for enforced absence from many other clergy of the Deanery.

The new Vicar, who took his degree at Jesus College, Cambridge, started his clerical career as curate of Leeds parish church, and after that at Plumstead. During the Great War he volunteered as a Chaplain to the Forces, and as such served with the 198th Infantry Brigade for over a year in the line, and was then, early in 1918, transferred to General Headquarters, British Armies in France, in Montreuil-s-mer. On demobilisation he became Vicar of Shooters Hill and Chaplain to the Brook Fever Hospital, while latterly he has been Hon. Chaplain to Cambridge House, the University Settlement in Camberwell, and officiating at Emmanuel Church there.

In 1932 he married Miss Doris Mary Clarence Smith, the second daughter of Sir Clarence Smith, J.P., D.L., of Wilmington Manor, Kent, and the late Lady Smith.

The officers whose appointment had not been proceeded with at the previous meeting were elected as follows: Vice-presidents, re-elected (subject to their consent), with the exception of two or three who had left the district; joint treasurers, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hepher; hon. general secretary, Mr. Prime Godfrey (Swavesey) who consented to continue to act after considerable pressure had been brought to bear on him; sports secretary, Mr. Andrew Carter (Over); finance committee, re-elected, with the exception of Mr. G. Wayman, who declined to stand; horticultural committee, re-elected, Mr. Frank Parish (Over) taking the place of Mr. G. Wayman; sports committee, re-elected, Messrs. K. Doggett, A. E. W. Melbourne and McDowell taking the places of Messrs. L. Cannell, A. Thompson and R. Robinson. It was decided that the show and sports should be held on Thursday, 9th August; that Mr. W. J. Unwin, Mr. G. Hart and Mr. Cramp (County Horticultural Adviser) should be asked to act as judges of the horticultural exhibits; and that the sports should be affiliated.

MISSIONARY SALE OF WORK. 13th April 1934

The effort on behalf of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, held in the Schoolroom on Wednesday afternoon, from 3 to 7 o'clock, was a great success. The Vicar, Rev. C. C. Dickson, made a short opening speech, after which the two stalls – a work stall, under the charge of Mrs. E. J. Linford and Miss R. Thorp, and a gift stall, in the charge of Mrs. Scate and Miss Daisley – did a brisk trade. Mrs. C. S. Hepher, Mrs. Burling, and Mrs. Lee, who were to have helped at these stalls, were unavoidably absent. The Rev. T. Galley, vicar of Oakington and Ruri-decanal Secretary for the S.P.G., gave two interesting talks on Africa. Much interest was displayed in a collection of curios from foreign lands, all kindly lent by local people. This was in the charge of Mrs. Banks. Miss K. Banks and Miss B. Day were responsible for the production of a missionary play, "A Call from India," and are to be congratulated on the excellent performance, which was enjoyed by all those present. Those taking part were Misses L. and M. Mitham, J. and G. Melbourne, V. and J. Smith, L. and J. Hephher, O. and J. Prior, S. Froment, A. Whitehead, L. Key, M. Shepperson, and B. Culpin, all of whom acted their parts exceedingly well. Competitions were arranged by Mrs. E. J. Mitham and Nurse Cottrell, the prizes being won by Mr. Leonard Day and Miss Banks. An excellent tea was provided, those in charge of the arrangements being Mrs. Harry Wells (who was responsible for originating the whole idea), Miss G. Froment, and Mrs. E. Prior. Mr. Harry Wells and Mr. L. Day gave valuable assistance at the doors. The takings amounted to over £15, and there were no expenses. Mr. E. Prior and Mr. E. J. Linford kindly helped in preparing the rooms.

CRICKET CLUB. 20th April 1934

There was a very good attendance at the Cricket Club social, held in the Memorial Hall on Saturday evening. Mr. C. S. Hephher acted as M.C. Songs were contributed by Mr. H. Cole and Mrs. H. Bishop. Dance music was provided by Billy Bishop's Rhythm Rascals. Mrs. Turner and Miss D. Godfrey catered for the refreshments.

PARISH COUNCIL. 20th April 1934

The first meeting of the newly elected Parish Council was held at the Memorial Hall on Monday evening, all the members, except one, being present. Mr. C. H. Parish was re-elected chairman, and Mr. C. Dean vice-chairman. Messrs. C. W. H. Cole and the Clerk (Mr. Prime Godfrey) were nominated to serve on the Assessment Committee (if needed), and Messrs. C. H. Parish and B. Hodson were appointed feoffees of Galon's Charity and Mr. A. Parish as school manager. Mr. Dean gave a report of his interview with Mr. A. L. Parish respecting the rubbish dump, and after various suggestions had been made, the Clerk was instructed to make further inquiries with a view to the disposal of the rubbish, and Messrs. Cole and Dean were authorised to deal with the matter. Only one tender was received for the herbage of the Recreation Ground, viz., from Mr. C. H. Parish for £1. This was 15s. more than last year, when the herbage was let by auction, and the tender was unanimously accepted. The captain and sub-captain of the fire engine were re-appointed, but as the engine is rarely, if ever, used, it was decided to ask the captain to accept a reduced salary, as his duty now consists mainly in taking charge of the standpipes, keys, etc. The accounts of the Council for the year ended the 31st ult. were read by the Clerk. They showed that the expenses incurred by the Council during the 12 months amounted to only £17. The reappointment of the committee of management of the Memorial Hall was briefly discussed, and, after an explanation by the Clerk, it was decided that the present committee should continue to act during the short period which would elapse before the loan had been paid off. Before the meeting concluded Mr. F. Hepher called attention to the dilapidated condition of the fence of the pond in Market-street, and after some discussion Messrs. Burton, C. Dean and R. Mitham, jun., were appointed a committee to inspect the fence and report to the next meeting.

JUMBLE SALE. 27th April 1934

A successful sale, organised by the committee of the Women's Institute, was held in the Memorial Hall on Monday afternoon. Mrs. W. Hind, the energetic secretary, was in charge, assisted by members of the committee, and the early buyers found some really good bargains. The financial result was very satisfactory.

EGGS FOR HOSPITAL. 27th April 1934

The annual collection of eggs for Addenbrooke's recently made under the auspices of the Women's Institute, resulted in 1,434 being sent to the hospital, and a letter of thanks and appreciation has been received by the President (Mrs. C. S. Hepher) from the Secretary-Superintendent. The collectors were Mrs. E. J. Mitham, Mrs. J. Froment, Mrs. G. Froment, Miss E. Thorp, Miss G. Hepher, Mrs. Peppercorn, and Mrs. Marriott. CHURCH FETE. 27th April 1934

A meeting was held in the Schoolroom on Tuesday evening to make arrangements for the annual fete in aid of church funds. The object this year is the electric lighting of the church, and a good number of people met to plan an interesting afternoon to help that object. Strong committees were formed, and given fine weather the event, which is to take place on the second Thursday in July, seems likely to keep up, or even add, to the reputation Swavesey has earned in the county for having fetes which are really worth while.

CHURCH WORKERS ENTERTAINED. 27th April 1934

An enjoyable gathering took place at the Vicarage on Wednesday afternoon, when the new Vicar (Rev. C. C. Dickson) and Mrs. Dickson were "at home" to the members of church organisations, the clergy of the deanery and their wives being also invited. The Parochial Church Council provided an excellent tea, which was enjoyed by nearly 60 people. Among those present were Canon and Mrs. Hair (Willingham), Rev. and Mrs. Walker (Impington), Rev. C. G. and Mrs. Poynder (Boxworth), Rev. F. G. and Mrs. Weston (Over), also the members of the Council with their wives and husbands, sidesmen and wives, choir, ringers, Sunday School teachers and other church workers.

COOKERY DEMONSTRATION. 27th April 1934

At a special meeting of the Women's Institute on Monday in the Memorial Hall, a novel and interesting entertainment was given. This was the showing of a special cookery demonstration film by a representative of Messrs. George Borwick and Sons, Ltd., the baking powder manufacturers. The demonstrator was Miss E. Craig, who is well known to most housewives, and the clear and interesting explanations given by the lecturer, Miss B. Clegg, made it a thoroughly useful lesson in cookery. Two entertainment films were also shown, and the whole meeting was much enjoyed by the members and their friends who were present. At the conclusion Mrs. Banks proposed a hearty vote of thanks to Miss Clegg and to Messrs. Borwick's.

WEDDING. 27th April 1934

The Rev. H. D. Atkinson (vicar of Buckden, Hunts.) and the Rev. C. C. Hepher and the late Mrs. Hepher, of Swavesey, and Mr. Walter Edwin King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Edward King, of Buckden. The service was choral and included the hymns "Lead us, Heavenly Father," and "Love Divine all Love excelling." Mr. N. Archer (organist at Buckden Church) presided at the organ. The bride, who was given away by her father, was attired in white crepe de chine, with veil and orange blossom, and she carried a shower bouquet of pink and white carnations and fern. She was attended by four bridesmaids, Misses Phyllis Hepher (niece of the bride) and Freda Hodge (cousin of the bridegroom), who wore dresses of pale pink crepe de chine with wreaths of pink daisies, and carried posies of mixed flowers, and Misses Ethel Prime (cousin of the bride) and Winifred Knightley, who were in pale green crepe de chine with silver wreaths. They carried shower bouquets of pink and white carnations and fern. Mr. Robert King (brother of the bridegroom) was best man.

The following scholars gained certificates of merit – May Kester, Kate Carrier, Joan and Olive Prior, Verna Smith.

ACCIDENT TO A CHILD. 4th May 1934

Joan Mitham, the 11-years-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Mitham, whose foot was injured by a motor car conveying guests to and from a wedding at the parish church on Wednesday week, is progressing favourably. She was attended to by Dr. Hart, and on his advice was taken on the following day to Addenbrooke's Hospital, where it was found that three bones had been broken. She was allowed to return home, but is still under hospital treatment.

GROUP MEETING. 4th May 1934

A happy evening was spent on Monday, when the Memorial Hall was crowded for the spring group meeting of the Over, Swavesey, and Willingham Women's Institutes. Mrs. Edwards (president of Over W.I.) occupied the chair, supported by Miss Cook (president of Willingham W.I.) and Mrs. Hepher (president of Swavesey W.I.). Miss Warrington was also present. After excellent reports by the three secretaries of the activities of their institutes during the past six months Mrs. Hopkinson, a member of the executive, gave the county news. An interesting talk on organised marketing was given by Mrs. Studdert, who explained many difficulties with regard to marketing schemes. Miss Cook, supported by Mrs. Aldred, proposed a hearty vote of thanks to Mrs. Hopkinson and Mrs. Studdert. A competition, something new from something old, judged by Mrs. Hopkinson, was won by Mrs. B. Wayman (Over) with a cot cover made in wool from old socks, the prize being a lemonade set. The entertainment by Swavesey members consisted of song, tableaux, a monologue by Mrs. Marriott, and dances, for which Mrs. Hind played the accompaniment. At the close of the meeting a vote of thanks to Swavesey W.I. was proposed by Mrs. Edwards and seconded by Mrs. Askew (Willingham), to which Mrs. Hephher suitably responded. The refreshments were in the hands of Mrs. Lee and her body of helpers.

FLOWERS FOR THE NILE. 11th May 1934

A local grower recently sent a consignment of flowers to market, and received in return from the salesman a document with the word "Nil" written in the space in which the profit realised by the grower is usually entered. Showing the document to a friend, the grower remarked, "What do you think of this? They have sent my flowers to Egypt!"

FEAST WEEK ARRANGEMENTS. 11th May 1934

The seventh annual parade, this year in aid of Addenbrooke's Hospital and the Swavesey, Over, and Fen Drayton Nursing Association, will take place next Sunday (Feast Sunday). The procession, headed by the Somersham Town Band, will leave Boxworth End at 2.15 p.m., and at 3 p.m. a meeting will be held on the Recreation Ground, at which addresses will be given by Mr. W. H. Head (Secretary-Superintendent, Addenbrooke's Hospital), Mr. H. Smith, of Willingham, and others. The Somersham Band will also give a concert on the Recreation Ground at 8 p.m., or, if wet, in the Memorial Hall. Two cricket matches have been arranged, viz., Swavesey 1st XI v. Wimblington, on Monday and Swavesey 2nd XI v. Lolworth, on Wednesday, and it is hoped that a match for the Swavesey Hospital Cup will also be arranged for the Tuesday afternoon. In the evening there is to be a dance at the Memorial Hall, under the auspices of the Hall management Committee.

ST. DUNSTAN'S 11th May 1934

There was a good muster of members of the Women's Institute at the Memorial Hall on Tuesday for their usual monthly meeting. The President (Mrs. C. S. Hephher) took the chair. Arrangements were made for outings to Cadby Hall and to the County Fair, and also to help in the cancer campaign in Empire week. Mrs. Banks, the delegate to the annual meeting, read the agenda with the recommendation of the County Committee. After this visitors were admitted and a number of people of both sexes availed themselves of the opportunity to hear Mr. Richardson, a war-blinded soldier from St. Dunstan's, who gave an excellent talk on the work done there to help the unfortunate men who lost their sight in the Great War. An excellent display of articles made by blind men was shown, and many orders taken for their work. A hearty vote of thanks, proposed by Mrs. Banks, was accorded to Mr. Richardson. After refreshments, the rest of the evening was spent in playing games. Mrs. Freestone, Mrs. Godfrey, Miss D. Godfrey, Mrs. Heasman, Mrs. Key, and Mrs. Lee were the hostesses.

FALL FROM CYCLE. 11th May 1934

Swavesey Man's Fractured Ankle.

William Perry, of Council Houses, Swavesey, fractured his ankle in an accident in the village on Monday morning.

He was returning from Willingham on his cycle. He had a box of cheeses on the front of the machine. Near the station he fell off his bicycle into a ditch. Sustaining a fractured ankle, he was removed to Addenbrooke's in the police ambulance and was detained.

CRICKET CLUB. 18th May 1934

There was not such a good attendance at the Cricket Club Social last Saturday evening as at the previous social run by the Club. Dance music was supplied by Billy Bishop's Rhythm Rascals, and songs were contributed by Mrs. H. Bishop and Mr. H. Cole. Mrs. E. J. Mitham and Miss D. Godfrey catered for the refreshments.

THE FEAST. 18th May 1934

The Village Feast has been held this week, and once again has attracted many visitors from far and near, particularly on Sunday, when the annual parade in aid of Addenbrooke's Hospital and the District Nursing Association took place. On Sunday the bells of the Parish Church were rung from 6.15 until 6.45 a.m., when there was a choral celebration of Holy Communion. Mattins was at 10.30 a.m., and Evensong, with sermon, by the Vicar at 6.30 p.m., the music at the latter service including Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis (Bennett), and an anthem, "Lift up your head" (Hopkins). There was a large congregation at each service. The collections throughout the day were for Addenbrooke's Hospital and the Nursing Association, and will be added to the money raised in connection with the parade. On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Market-street was occupied by stalls, Thurston's Jollity Farm, cocoanut shies, etc. Other attractions included three cricket matches on the Recreation Ground and a dance on Tuesday evening in the Memorial Hall.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 18th May 1934

Services in celebration of the 24th anniversary of Bethel Baptist Church were held on Thursday, May 10th. A good congregation gathered in the afternoon to hear an inspiring sermon on the subject of the Christian Church by the Rev.

M. Flint, of Redhill Tabernacle. After the service a company of over 80 sat down to an excellent tea in the schoolroom. A large congregation, almost filling the body of the church, attended in the evening, when Mr. Flint was again the preacher. On Sunday special discipleship campaign services were held. The evening service was conducted by the pastor (Rev. A. Tilling), and the address was given by Mr. Peter Marrow, of Magdalene College, Cambridge, Mrs. Unwin being the soloist. Later an open-air meeting was held in Market-street. The arrangements were in the hands of the C.I.C.C.U., and seven Cambridge University students were the speakers. The preacher next Sunday (Whit-Sunday) will be the Pastor.

THE PARADE. 18th May 1934

The seventh annual parade took place on Sunday (Feast Sunday) afternoon, under the most favourable conditions so far as the weather was concerned, and if the financial result was not as good as on the occasion of the first parade, it was only a few shillings less than the sum realised in 1933. For the second time the proceeds are to be divided equally between Addenbrooke's Hospital and the Swavesey, Over and Fen Drayton Nursing Association. Marshalled by Mr. R. Barwell, the procession, headed by the Somersham Town Band, left Boxworth end about 2.15 p.m. Prominent features in it were a large number of members of the local branch of the British Legion with their standard, members of the Parade and Hospital Aid Committees, representatives of the Parish Council, Women's Institute and National Deposit Friendly Society, two waggon loads of school children and a gaily decorated lorry representing a hospital ward. On it rode five small patients, Roy Godfrey and Joan Mitham, both of whom are or have quite recently been under treatment at Addenbrooke's for fractured bones, Lily Hephher, Eric Froment and Jean Walker. With them was the district nurse, Miss Claydon. The lorry had been decorated by Mrs. C. S. Hephher, Mrs. Whitehead and Nurse Claydon. Mr. C. Savidge was the driver. After parading the village from end to end the procession returned to the recreation ground, where a meeting was held. On the improvised platform were the Vicar of Swavesey (Rev. C. C. Dickson), who presided, Mr. W. H. Head (secretary-superintendent, Addenbrooke's Hospital), Mr. H. Smith (Willingham), Rev. A. Tilling (Bethel Baptist Church) and Mr. C. Dean (vice-chairman of the Parish Council). Mr. Head, in course of his address, after referring to the Building Fund, spoke in some detail of the additions that had been made to Addenbrooke's, and of the difficulty that had been experienced in keeping things going without interfering with the work of the hospital. Before the additions were made, Mr. Head said, Addenbrooke's had 180 beds, whereas by next week there would be 320 actually in commission. In 1933 there had been 4,891 in-patients (422 more than in 1932) and 12,339 out-patients against 11,319 in the previous year. The income of the hospital last year amounted to £16,025, viz., maintenance fund (contributory scheme), £29,443, investments £3,602, other sources £12,980. The expenditure totalled £43,887. The average cost of each in-patient was £7 6s. 4½d., or £2 19s. 9½d. a week, and of each out-patient 8s. 6d. With regard to the balance in hand from last year, Mr. Head reminded his hearers that as the hospital increased in size, so would the cost of maintenance become larger. During the past year 25 in-patients and 44 out-patients from Swavesey had received attention at Addenbrooke's, and the cost of their treatment had exceeded the amount received from Swavesey through the Contributory Fund. Among other matters, Mr. Head spoke of the paying wards for middle class people in connection with which an insurance scheme had been established, and he concluded with an appeal for whole-hearted support for the Nursing Association, which was such a valuable auxiliary of the hospital. The Rev. A. Tilling and Mr. H. Smith also spoke, the latter making his usual effective appeal for money. Producing a £1 note he called for more, and one was promptly forthcoming from Mr. R. Barwell. Mr. S. F. Mitham (a grateful patient) and Mr. C. Dean followed with 10s. notes. Another £1 note, handed in on behalf of Mr. P. J. Watts (County Councillor for the district) and a £5 note from Mr. John Warboys, brought Mr. Smith's collection up to £9, and a drum collection realised £1 4s. 6d. Before the meeting concluded Mr. Barwell, in a short speech, called attention to the number of village organisations not represented in the parade, and expressed the hope that next year there would be a more satisfactory attendance. The band played at intervals during the proceedings, and also gave a concert on the recreation ground after the evening services. The collectors, who were busily engaged during the afternoon and evening, succeeded in netting £15 15s. 6d., making the total taking for the day £26. The following comprised the Parade Committee: Rev. C. C. Dickson (chairman), Mr. H. W. Whitehead (hon. secretary), Miss E. Dodson (treasurer), Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hepher, Messrs. H. H. Berryman, C. Savage, F. Prior, F. W. Pontefract, A. W. Melbourne, E. J. Mitham, A. Turner, F. Hepher, H. Prime, Miss Banks, Mrs. Whitehead, Mrs. Cooksey and Nurse Claydon. Collectors: Messrs. J. Mitham, H. Whitehead, jun., L. Day, A. E. W. Melbourne and Mrs. C. S. Hepher.

On the recent flag day £16 7s. 7d. was collected for the British Red Cross Society in the Swavesey division, which comprises the villages of Conington, Fen Drayton, Lolworth, Longstanton, Over, Swavesey and Willingham. Of this sum £8 will be paid into the Red Cross Fund at Barclays Bank, and £8 retained for use in the division and 7s. 7d. for expenses.

STRICT BAPTIST CHAPEL. 25th May 1934

Good congregations, which included friends from other churches in the district, attended the anniversary services at the Strict Baptist Chapel on Thursday afternoon and evening in last week. Mr. Patterson, of Norwood, was the special preacher. There was also an excellent attendance at the public tea between the services. The collections were in aid of church funds.

FEAST SUNDAY PARADE. 25th May 1934

The collections in connection with this year's Feast Sunday parade amounted in all to £27 11s. 6d., viz., Sunday £26 1s. 6d., collections at cricket matches £1, and donation from Mrs. Thurston 10s. After payment of expenses (band £2 10s., printing 13s.), £24 8s. 6d. remained for division between Addenbrooke's Hospital and the Swavesey, Over and Fen Drayton Nursing Association.

A special visit will be paid to Bethel Bible Class next Sunday afternoon by Mr. Peter Marrow, of Cambridge University.

The house-to-house collection on behalf of the British Empire Cancer Campaign organised by the committee of the Women's Institute, resulted in the satisfactory sum of £8 15s. 3d. being forwarded to the authorities. Those responsible for collecting were: Mrs. Banks, Miss Banks, Mrs. Canham, Miss Cole, Mrs. Freestone, Mrs. C. Hepher, Mrs. Hind, Mrs. Laverack, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Melbourne, and Mrs. E. J. Mitham.

CRICKET CLUB. 1st June 1934

At a meeting held on Monday the question of the financial position of the Cricket Club was discussed, as some heavy expenses had been incurred during the past season or two for matting, new bats, balls, etc. It was agreed that the club should arrange social functions during next winter, and the hope was expressed that the public would give more generous support financially to the club at matches during the remainder of the season than had been the case recently.

W.I. OUTING. 1st June 1934

Members of the Women's Institute had an enjoyable outing on Friday, when a party of 32, including the President, two Vice-Presidents, and the Secretary, paid a visit to Messrs. Lyons' factory at Kensington. A start was made at 7.30 a.m. from the Memorial Hall in a private bus, and, favoured with fine weather, the drive through the beautiful country was most pleasant. On arriving at Cadby Hall the party was conducted round various parts of the factory, seeing the processes of making Swiss rolls, cakes, pastries, etc. After lunching in the restaurant attached to the factory, the members separated, and chose their own ways of spending the afternoon, meeting for the return journey at 7 o'clock. The route home was quite different from the morning drive, and all agreed that they had had a most enjoyable time.

DANGEROUS FOOTPATHS. 1st June 1934

A correspondent writes: The Country road authorities are now kerbing the ill-defined footpath of the high road near the church, where recently a schoolgirl was injured by a motor car. This will be a great improvement, as hitherto it has been a matter of difficulty to know where the road ends and the path begins, and moreover the kerb ought to be a protection for the pedestrian. Another place in the village where a kerb is urgently needed is where the Fen Drayton road joins the main road at the school. At this point motor vehicles coming from and going to Fen Drayton, in their hurry to get round the corner frequently run over the footpath, almost grazing the iron railings of the school yard. Children are exposed to grave danger not only at the corner, but along the stretch of road in front of the school, and few motorists take any notice of the "School" warning signs.

SCHOLASTIC SUCCESS. 8th June 1934

Annie Northill, a pupil at Swavesey School, has succeeded in gaining a County Minor Scholarship.

FREE STUDENTSHIPS. 8th June 1934

The following children attending Swavesey Church of England School have been awarded free studentships tenable at the Cambridgeshire Technical School: Walter Isgrove, Gladys Melbourne, Mary Shepperson.

BETHEL BIBLE CLASS. 8th June 1934

There was a very good attendance at the Bethel Bible Class last Sunday, when an excellent address on "Seeking the Lost" was given by Mr. P. Marrow, of Cambridge University. Choruses bearing on the subject were sung after the address.

DEATH OF REV. T. B. FIELD. 15th June 1934

His many friends in Swavesey heard with deep regret that the Rev. Thomas B. Field had passed away on Saturday at his residence, 50, Samuel-street, Crewe. He was pastor of Bethel Baptist Church, Swavesey, from October 1st until the end of March, 1931, when he retired from the active ministry and went to live at Crewe. The funeral took place in London.

OBITUARY. 15th June 1934

Mr. John Wilderspin, of High-street, passed away shortly before noon on Wednesday, aged 86 years. He was a native of Swavesey, but left the village as a young man for London, where for many years he was employed as a gateman at the L. and N.W. railway goods yard in Whitecross-street. On his retirement some years ago he returned to Swavesey. The funeral will take place to-morrow at the parish church.

TRIO OF MISHAPS. 15th June 1934

A rare accident occurred at the Hill Farm, Huntingdon-road, on Monday, when Mr. John Ansell, of Lolworth, sustained spontaneous fracture of the femur as he was getting into a motor car. After first-aid had been rendered he was conveyed to Addenbrooke's Hospital. At the same farm on Tuesday morning Mr. John Payne, when proceeding to work, was suddenly taken seriously ill and was taken to Addenbrooke's as speedily as possible. On Monday Phyllis Hepher, the eight-years-old daughter of Mr. George Hepher, jun., while playing with other children on the Recreation Ground, fell and the heavy cricket roller ran over her hand. She also was taken to Addenbrooke's Hospital, but was not detained.

RUSH BASKETS. 15th June 1934

Members of the Women's Institute were deeply interested in a demonstration of rush basket making, given by Miss Greenwood, of Hemingford, at the monthly meeting on Tuesday. Several charming baskets made entirely of rushes were on view, and Miss Greenwood gave a most practical lesson in how to make them. She was accorded a hearty vote of thanks, on the proposition of Mrs. E. J. Mitham. In addition to the usual business, an entertaining account of the annual meeting at the Albert Hall was given by Mrs. Banks, who had attended as delegate, and Mrs. Aldred, who was unavoidably absent, sent an excellent report of the Spring Council meeting at Cambridge, this being read by Mrs. Hind. A good exhibition of "What I have learned to make at Institute" gave an idea of the many useful activities of members. A posy of real flowers kindly brought by Miss Greenwood was raffled, Mrs. C. S. Hepher, the president, being the winner. Games and community singing, conducted by Mrs. Hind, were enjoyed after refreshments. Mrs. H. Prime, Mrs. Hind, Mrs. Martin and Miss G. Hepher were the hostesses for the evening.

FEAST SUNDAY PARADE. 15th June 1934

At the meeting of the Feast Sunday Parade Committee, held for the purpose of receiving the statement of accounts, the Rev. C. C. Dickson presiding, the Treasurer (Miss E. Dodson), in presenting the accounts, explained that the amount collected on Feast Sunday was £26, and at the cricket matches £1 0s. 6d., a donation of 10s. by Mrs. Thurston making a total of £27 11s. 6d. The expenses were: Conveyance of band £2 10s. and printing 13s., leaving the sum of £24 8s. 6d. to be divided between Addenbrooke's Hospital and Swavesey, Over and Fen Drayton Nursing Association. A letter of appreciation from the Secretary-Superintendent of the Hospital (Mr. W. H. Head) was read. The committee passed a resolution that a vote of thanks be accorded to the Somersham Town Band, who kindly gave their services; to Mr. Harry Smith, the genial extractor of bank notes; to Mr. John Warboys, of Hingham's Park, for his continued and generous support; and to the collectors who worked hard to second the efforts of the committee. It was decided that appreciation was due to the members of the British Legion for again turning out in good numbers for the parade. The meeting closed with a vote of thanks to the Chairman, the Secretary (Mr. H. W. Whitehead), and to all others who contributed in any way to the success of the parade.

THE LATE REV. T. B. FIELD. 22nd June 1934

The funeral of the Rev. T. B. Field, pastor of Bethel Baptist Church, Swavesey, from October 1st, 1925, until the end of March, 1931, took place at Willesden new cemetery, London, on Wednesday week. On his retirement from the active ministry, Mr. Field went to live at 50, Samuel-street, Crewe, where he passed away on June 9th, aged 76 years.

NURSING ASSOCIATION FETE. 22nd June 1934

The annual fete in aid of the funds of the Swavesey, Over and Fen Drayton Nursing Association was held on Thursday week in the grounds of Swavesey Manor, by kind permission of the Rev. J. F. Cooksey. Fortunately the weather was fine until towards the end, and the total takings, the whole of which went to the Association, amounted to £31 16s. 4½d., all expenses having been borne by people interested in its welfare. The proceedings were opened by the new Vicar of Swavesey, Rev. C. C. Dickson, who in course of a short speech, spoke of the usefulness of the Association and of the urgent need for extra endeavours to raise money to enable it to be carried on. After his speech Mr. Dickson was presented with a buttonhole by little Phyllis Hepher. The stalls, side-shows, competitions, etc., were under the charge of the following: New work stall, Mesdames J. Norman, C. Dean and Aldred; jumble stall, Mrs. Chew; sweets, the Misses Dodson; pound and produce stall, Mesdames Burling and Walter Thorp; useful stall, Mrs. Banks and Miss Cole; ice cream and lemonade stall, Mrs. Lee; refreshments, Mesdames J. Dean, H. H. Berryman, B. Hodson, Misses P. Williams and R. Gaunt, assisted at tea time by Misses Y. and J. Lee, Margaret Wagstaff, Vera Smith and Mavis Fox. Competitions – Chinese washing, Mrs. W. J. Hepher; candle lighting, Mrs. J. Cain (prize given by Mrs. Cooksey, won by Miss G. Thorp); clock golf, Mrs. Dickson and Mrs. Burleigh (prize given by Mrs. Dickson, won by Miss Cole); bran tub, Miss Pollie Parish; doll (given by Miss Beaumont) Miss Cox (won after a draw by Mrs. S. F. Mitham); cake (given by Mrs. Cooksey), Miss Doris Godfrey (won after a draw by Miss Y. Lee). As usual, a baby show, organised by Nurse Claydon, was a great feature of the afternoon's proceedings. For this Dr. F. Robinson (County Medical Officer of Health) and Miss Graham (Lady Superintendent, Cambs. Nursing Association) officiated as judges, their awards being as follows: Under 6 months, 1 Douglas Roy Adams (Over), 2 Reginald Leslie Symonds (Over); 6 to 9 months, 1 Roger Godfrey (Swavesey), 2 Jean Anne Smart and John Brooks (Swavesey); 9 months and over, 1 Audrey Marion Symonds (Over) and Margery Mary Isgrove (Swavesey), 2 Richard Thomas Hard (Fen Drayton), 3 Albert Leggett (Over). Thirteen babies were entered, all of whom received certificates. Other attractions included a capital entertainment arranged by Miss E. Dodson, the programme consisting of songs by the Rev. C. C. Dickson and Mrs. Hind, an admirable recitation by Miss Easter, and an amusing sketch well played by Misses Florence Warboys and Mary Johnson, of Fen Drayton. Some games had been arranged for the evening, but unfortunately a heavy shower of rain stopped them. Messrs. C. Dean and U. Thixton were in charge of the gate. Mr. F. W. Pontefract, who rendered valuable assistance in the work of preparation, was unable to be present at the fete, but sent a donation. A noticeable feature of the grounds was the splendid display of roses around the lawn.

A RAILWAY FAMILY. 22nd June 1934

A native of Swavesey, where his father was stationmaster for thirty-three years, Mr. Stanley W. Perry took charge of Guyhirn station last week. He has many friends in Cambridgeshire, and during his railway career, which commenced at the age of fifteen with an appointment as clerk, has spent happy years at Wimblington, Longstanton, Foxton, Six-Mile-Bottom, Godmanchester, March and Sutton. A member of the Essex Yeomanry, he served for 18 months in France. At Gezacourt his horse was shot from under him and he was wounded. After the war he returned to the railway, and for the last 12 months has been stationmaster in charge of the Six-Mile-Bottom station. Mr. Perry is a member of a family that has been very prominently connected with the railway. At one time his grandfather and two uncles were all stationmasters on the Great Eastern section of the L.N.E.R. His father was a gate-lad at the age of eight, and stationmaster at 21.

BRIDGE AT OVERCOTE? 22nd June 1934

From time to time the question of opening up another link between the Isle of Ely and Cambridgeshire by making up the soft roads between Willingham and Aldreth and replacing the iron bridge across the Old West by a modern structure, has been under consideration. Recently attention was again focussed on the matter when the Isle of Ely County Council approached the Cambs. County authority to ascertain their views as to the possibility of bringing such a scheme into operation. The question has yet to be considered by the Cambs. Roads and Bridges Committee, whose report will, no doubt, be before the County Council at its next meeting.

In the meantime another project which is being freely discussed is the necessity for connecting up the counties of Huntingdon and Cambridgeshire by the construction of a bridge across the river at Overcote, and it would seem to me that in considering the Aldreth scheme the County Committee would be well advised to have in mind the possibility of being asked to move in this other matter, at no distant date. I realise that one is not an alternative to the other, but of the most important there is no doubt. On either side of the river at Overcote we have a hard metalled road. Over the river there was at one time a privately owned draw bridge. I do not know whether this is still in use, but the last time I was down there it had been drawn on to the side, and the only means of getting across the river was in a punt. Of the convenience of a bridge at Overcote there can be no two opinions, and of its needs little doubt. A direct communication between the villages on this side of the river with St. Ives and its important market would be opened up, and the long journey round by Fenstanton or Earith obviated. Apart from this it would be good financial business for at present the Swavesey-Over road is unclassified; with a bridge at Overcote it would almost certainly qualify for a grant from the Ministry.

B.W.T.A. 29th June 1934

The Little White Ribboners' annual tea took place in Bethel Schoolroom on Thursday week. It was to have been held on the Manor lawn, by kind permission of Mrs. Norman, but owing to the weather the arrangements had to be altered. Between 50 and 60 mothers and children sat down to tea, which was provided by members of the committee, and in the evening some of the little ones entertained with recitations and games were played, a very happy time being spent. On Wednesday, 22 members of the Swavesey Branch of the B.W.T.A. went by charabanc to the garden party at Cambridge, held in Emmanuel College grounds.

UNTIDY STREETS. 29th June 1934

A correspondent writes: Can anything be done to induce customers of the travelling fish merchants who visit the village to refrain from littering the streets with the greasy paper in which their fish and chips have been wrapped? This is especially noticeable on Sundays after the motor-propelled cookshop has visited the village on the previous night, and it must be disheartening for the roadmen who have left the streets clean and tidy for the week-end. Other contributors to the general untidiness are those people who throw down wrappers of cigarettes, biscuits and sweets, fragments of orange peel, empty match-boxes, etc. Perhaps the Women's Institute will kindly take the matter in hand?

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 29th June 1934

Sunday School anniversary services were held on Sunday at Bethel Baptist Church, Mr. Oliver, of All Nation's College, being the special preacher for the day. The Pastor presided at the children's service in the afternoon, when an address was given by Mr. Oliver, and several of the scholars recited. Mr. Parsons (examinations secretary for Cambs.) presented certificates to the successful candidates in the recent Sunday School Union Scripture examination. He also presented a special prize of a beautifully bound Bible to Roy Godfrey "for courage and perseverance under difficult circumstances." Mr. Canham presided at the organ throughout the day. Over 120 eggs have been sent to Addenbrooke's Hospital as the result of the children's collection.

CHILDREN'S PARTY. 29th June 1934

Through the kindness of the President, Mrs. C. S. Hepher, the children of the members of the Women's Institute had a very enjoyable party on Tuesday afternoon. Assisted by members of the committee, Mrs. Hepher received about 50 children in her garden, and they sat down to a sumptuous tea with strawberries and cream. Afterwards games and sports on the lawn gave all the youngsters a happy time; parents and friends who came to look on also joined in some of the races. Hearty cheers for the hostesses were given at the conclusion of the evening. The winners of prizes were: Mesdames E. Mitham, Marriott, Coulson, Crouch and Miss Banks (ladies' races), and the following children: J. Smith, L. and M. Key, N. and A. Lee, M. and R. Shepperson, J. and S. Hepher, C. and J. Walker, E. and B. Whybrow, A. Walker, N. Canham, H. and R. Oakman, J. Budge, J. Prior, K. Carrier, O. Nightingale.

SCHOOL TREAT. 6th July 1934

Bethel Sunday School annual treat took place on June 28th. About 80 children and friends sat down to tea in the schoolroom, after which swings, games and rides were enjoyed in Mr. A. Day's field. The little ones were charmed with rides on the pony which puts in its appearance upon treat evenings, and enters into the spirit of the game.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE GARDEN PARTY. 6th July 1934

In spite of threatening weather, there was a good attendance at the garden party held at the Priory on Thursday afternoon in last week, and fortunately no rain fell during the time. Tea was served in the drive near the house, and afterwards games and competitions took place on the lawn, and many of the visitors enjoyed a walk round the gardens. An excellent concert was given at 6 o'clock, the performers being Mrs. C. S. Hephher, Mrs. W. Hind, Miss L. Hephher, Miss Yvonne Lee, and Misses Mabel and Elsie Godfrey. The last three took part in an amusing sketch, entitled "Katie's Way." At 7.30 there was a whist drive, and this was arranged in the greenhouse, as the weather was unsettled. Refreshments were served in the interval. Mr. C. S. Hephher acted as M.C. at the whist drive, and Miss Cole as gatekeeper. The stallholders were: Jumble, Mrs. R. and Mrs. S. Hephher, and Mrs. Smith, gifts, Mrs. Coulson and Mrs. Peppercorn. Competitions were under the charge of the following: Clock golf (won by Mr. C. S. Hephher), Miss G. Froment; ringing stakes (won by Mrs. G. Froment), Miss K. Banks; harpooning corks (won by Miss L. Hephher), Mrs. W. J. Hephher. A mystery parcel was won by Miss Cole, and Mrs. Whitehead guessed the weight of a tea (given by Mrs. W. Hind). Refreshments were in the charge of Mrs. Lee, assisted by Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Melbourne, Mrs. Laverack, Mrs. Freestone, Mrs. G. Froment, Mrs. Harry Wells, and Mrs. E. J. Mitham. The winners at the whist drive were: Ladies, Mrs. Banks, Mrs. Whitehead; gentlemen, Mr. W. J. Hephher, Mrs. W. Hind (playing as gentleman); carrying prize, Miss K. Banks. At the conclusion, Mrs. C. S. Hephher, who presented the prizes, thanked Mr. and Mrs. Banks for the use of their garden. The proceeds amounted to £6 14s. 7½d.

SWAVESEY FARMER'S DEATH. 13th July 1934

Sudden Passing of Mr. Ezra Day.

While hurrying after some cattle on the Swavesey-Longstanton road about 10 o'clock on Sunday morning, Mr. Ezra Day, farmer, of the Dairy Farm, Swavesey, collapsed opposite the cottages near Soldier's Drove. He was seen by Mr. Ernest Dodson, the occupier of one of the cottages and members of his family, who rendered what assistance they could. Dr. Hart was sent for, but on his arrival within a few minutes Mr. Day had passed away.

Mr. Day, who had been in indifferent health for some time, succumbed to an attack of angina pectoris.

He was the second surviving son of the late Mr. George Day, and was born 63 years ago at Swavesey. As a young man he farmed at Fen Drayton, removing to Addington, Northants, where he remained until he returned to Swavesey some years ago. At Addington he took an active part in local affairs, and was a member, and for some time chairman, of the Rural District Council.

In addition to his widow, a daughter of Mr. W. H. Key, of Swavesey, Mr. Day leaves one son and two daughters.

THE FUNERAL.

There was a large attendance of villagers and old friends at the funeral, which took place at Swavesey parish church on Tuesday afternoon. The Vicar, Rev. C. C. Dickson, officiated.

The mourners were: Mrs. E. Day (widow), Mr. Leonard Day (son), Mr. and Mrs. E. Kitchin (son-in-law and daughter), Miss Betty Day (daughter), Mr. W. H. Key (father-in-law), Mr. Alfred Day, sen., Mr. and Mrs. J. Day (brothers and sisters-in-law), Miss Bessie Day, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Day, jun., Mr. Cyril Day, Mr. George Day, Mr. Alfred Hawkes (nephews and nieces), Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Key (brother-in-law and sister-in-law), Mrs. W. F. Gleaves, Mrs. J. Hawkes (sisters-in-law). Mrs. A. Day, sen. (sister-in-law) and Miss Emma Day (sister) were unable to attend owing to ill-health.

There were a large number attending from the village.

ROBIN HOOD'S RETURN. 13th July 1934

School Children in Romantic Play.

A play by the school children was a pleasing feature of Swavesey Church fete, held yesterday afternoon and evening at the Vicarage. This year the play was "Robin Hood and Maid Marian," and it was charmingly performed by the young actors and actresses.

The opening ceremony was performed by Mrs. Lewis Walker, the Vicar (Rev. C. C. Dickson) presiding, supported by members of the Church Council.

In the course of her remarks Mrs. Walker alluded to the installation of electric light in the church, for which object the fete was being held. Some of the folks might ask, she said, why they should change to electric lighting. But they were living in modern times, and electricity would be very helpful in the winter months. She mentioned that over £200 was required, of which over £100 had already been raised, and she urged everyone to help the cause in every way possible. Many had obviously spent weeks of preparation for the fete, but she hoped they would all empty their pockets and purses before going home.

Mr. Harry Wells (people's warden) moved, and Mr. W. J. Hephher (vicar's warden) seconded, a vote of thanks to Mrs. Walker, after she had been presented with a bouquet.

THE ENTERTAINMENT.

Visitors to the fete found a wealth of attractions to entertain them, in the shape of sidestalls and competitions, sports for adults and children, and dancing. The Somersham Town Band provided popular selections of music in the afternoon and also played for the dancing in the evening. The sports attracted good entries, as did a paper hat competition.

Undoubtedly the most ambitious event in the fete was the short play, admirably presented by the school children, under the guidance of Mr. C. Wood (headmaster) and Miss Gertrude Thoday, the latter also acting as accompanist. The evergreen favourites, Robin Hood and Maid Marion, delighted the audience. Those taking part were: Alan Lee (Robin Hood), Jean Wood (Maid Marian), Percy Wright, Henry Oakman, Eric Wood, Cyril Wagstaffe and Ernest Whybrow (the Merry Men), Ralph Wilderspin, Mary Shepperson, Stella Froment, D. Spolton, F. Hodson, C. Prime, J. Swainston, S. Carrier, J. Smith, G. Swainston, Mr. Rooke, M. Key, Marion, Marjory and Margaret Wood, Mary Mitham, Freda Pilgrim, Donald Froment, Lennie Key and Joan Prior.

THE HELPERS.

The stall and competition holders were as follows: Refreshments, Mrs. Cooksey, Mrs. W. Thorp, Mesdames Berryman, J. T. Daintree, Hodson, R. Mitham, jun., the Misses Lee, Gaunt, Wagstaff, Ivy Hodson, Peggy Williams, M. Fox; china, Mrs. Harry Wells, Mrs. E. J. Linford, Mrs. F. J. Mitham; sweets, Misses K. Banks and B. On Friday last Mr. and Mrs. David Moore (Uncle David and Aunt Flossie) visited the Recreation Ground with an exhibition of beautiful pictures. A happy crowd of boys and girls, and some older people, listened to an interesting talk by Mr. Moore, who after speaking of the pictures in detail, dealt with the value of milk, compared with intoxicating drinks.

WOMEN CONSERVATIVES. 13th July 1934

The annual meeting of the Swavesey branch of the Women's Conservative Association was held at the Priory on Wednesday. The President, Mrs. Banks, occupied the chair. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. Banks; treasurer, Mrs. Cain; joint secretaries, Misses Beaumont and Paine; committee, Mesdames W. Thorp, B. Prior, Pettitt, E. J. Mitham, Berryman and Hind. It was agreed to send a donation of £1 towards the Gogs fete, and that a garden meeting should be held during the first week in September.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 13th July 1934

There was quite a good attendance at the monthly meeting of the Women's Institute on Tuesday, considering the many activities in the village. The President, Mrs. C. S. Hephher, was in the chair. Mrs. Lee gave a short report of the recent Group Committee meeting that she had attended. By far the most interesting feature of the evening was a talk by Mrs. Newport Willson on her cruise to South Africa, enhanced by the showing of photos of many interesting places and people she had visited. A hearty vote of thanks was accorded Mrs. Willson, on the proposition of Mrs. Canham. A competition for the best dyed article was won by Mrs. Laverack with a bed-quilt originally white, dyed deep pink at the small cost of 4d. During the social half-hour there was a recital of gramophone records lent by members. Mrs. Lee and other hostesses served excellent refreshments, which were much enjoyed. The President was heartily congratulated on her success at the Cambridge Horticultural Show last week, when she gained 95 per cent points of her exhibit of roses in the W.I. section and was placed first.

The bouquet was presented to Mrs. Lewis Walker by Miss Joan Mitham. The net proceeds of the fete amounted to £47 13s.

SCHOOL TREAT. 27th July 1934

The children attending the Parish Church Sunday School were given their annual summer treat on Wednesday. After a short service in church full justice was done to an excellent tea in the Vicarage grounds, and later a happy time was spent with games, races, etc. There was also a cricket match between teams of boys captained respectively by Mr. W. J. Hephher (churchwarden) and Mr. H. W. Whitehead (vice-chairman of the Church Council). A long and well-varied programme of races had been arranged, but unfortunately owing to lack of space this week it is impossible to give the results. The prizes, including consolation prizes for non-winners, were distributed by Mrs. Dickson for whom and the Vicar hearty cheers were given, after which the National Anthem was sung. On leaving every child was given sweets and cake.

Dean, F. Hephher, B. Hodson, P. H. Lee, R. Mitham jnr., and P. Parish, with the Clerk, Mr. Prime Godfrey. Arising out of a reference in the minutes of the previous meeting to the collection of unburnable rubbish, Mr. Cole proposed that a letter be sent from the Council to Mr. A. L. Parish thanking him for allowing the rubbish until the last collection to be dumped in ponds on his land. Mr. P. Parish seconded the proposition which was carried unanimously. The Clerk made the welcome announcement that the last instalment of the loan on the Memorial Hall had been paid to the Public Works Loan Board, whereupon the Chairman moved, and Mr. Cole seconded, a vote of thanks to the committee and all others whose efforts had resulted in the Hall not becoming a burden on the rates. This was also carried unanimously, and Mr. Godfrey replied on behalf of the Committee. It was decided to call the attention of the County Surveyor to the condition of the back of the Market-street pond where the road is breaking away and is a public danger. Before the meeting concluded a discussion took place respecting the future management and control of the Hall, and eventually Mr. Burton and Mr. Godfrey were deputed to make certain inquiries in the matter and report to the next meeting of the Council.

SWAVESEY SHOW AND SPORTS. 10th Aug. 1934

Drought Has Its Effect.

STRONG RACE PROGRAMME.

Although from a horticultural standpoint Swavesey show and sports yesterday failed to reach the usual high level, an excellent sports meeting had been arranged, and the many visitors to the Manor Field found plenty to interest and thrill them. The weather, fortunately, proved kind, though the cyclists racing found that the strong wind made hard work on part of the circuit.

The show was arranged with the usual thoroughness, and the three judges in the horticultural classes, Messrs. C. V. Cramp, G. Hart and Unwin, completed their selections with such celerity that by the time the gates were opened all the exhibits had the awards marked. As a result the congestion in the tent was very greatly relieved.

As has been stated many times this year with other shows, the prolonged drought was sadly reflected in the number and quality of the entries, and in all classes it was decided to limit the prizes to two. Carrots were the only outstanding class, where, surprisingly enough, some remarkably fine, clean specimens were to be seen. Beet and onions were fairly good, while the same might be said of the floral classes, although there was an exceptionally fine single geranium shown.

FRUIT CLASSES.

Dessert apples were poor, but cooking varieties were of a reasonable size, and quite good quantity. Plums, too, were shown in good numbers, but were also very much on the small side. Raspberries, in common with only too many other classes, were only shown by one exhibitor.

The popular wife of the President, Mrs. R. C. Cole, again presented her cup for the exhibitor securing the most points, while Mr. Cole, of course, lent the society his invaluable assistance. Mr. Prime Godfrey (hon. secretary) ably undertook charge of the organisation of the show, and was well backed up by the following other officials: Mr. H. W. Whitehead (chairman), Mr. P. J. Watts (vice-chairman), Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hephher (hon. joint treasurers), Mr. Andrew Carter (sports secretary) and a large number of members of the committee.

Apart from the exhibits and the lengthy sports programme, there was the music provided through an amplifier all the afternoon and an open-air dance was held on the ground in the evening.

Full list of prize-winners in the newspaper.

THE SPORTS.

The sports provided one of the main features of the day's proceedings. Large numbers of entries were received, making it necessary to run preliminary heats in almost all the events.

The cycling races were responsible for a few thrills, and some good races were witnessed. Both C. W. Horn, the Eastern Counties' champion, and R. M. McMeekin, the Suffolk champion, were riding.

The holder of the mile Town and County championship was unable to defend his title, as he was injured in an accident in the morning. The race went to L. B. Carter.

The President, Mr. R. C. Cole, before presenting the prizes, thanked the officers for the able way in which they had arranged the sports. Great thanks were due to the officers of the society, and especially to the hon. secretary, Mr. Prime Godfrey, and to Mrs. C. S. Hephher and Mr. A. Carter, the joint hon. treasurers.

A vote of thanks to Mr. Cole was proposed by Mr. P. J. Watts.

Full list of results in the newspaper.

DANCE. 17th Aug. 1934

The Memorial Hall was crowded on Thursday evening in last week for the dance which followed the Swavesey and District Horticultural Society's Show and Sports, no fewer than 196 people paying for admission. An excellent programme of dance music was provided by Hal Kemp's Band, from Cambridge. Messrs. H. W. Whitehead and R. Hendry were in charge of the door.

A STREET IMPROVEMENT. 17th Aug. 1934

The work of continuing the kerbing of the footpath from High-street to the corner of School-lane has been completed this week. This much-needed improvement will render the corner less dangerous as hitherto motor vehicles turning into or out of School-lane have frequently run over the ill-defined footpath, almost shaving the iron fence of the School playground, and on more than one occasion children have narrowly escaped serious injury if not worse.

PICKLES AND PRESERVES. 17th Aug. 1934

The quarterly meeting of the Parish Council was held in the Memorial Hall on Monday evening, the following members being present: Mr. C. H. Parish (chairman), Messrs. W. Burton, F. Hepher, B. Hodson, P. H. Lee, R. Mitham, jun., and P. Parish. Arising out of the minutes of the July meeting, the Clerk (Mr. Prime Godfrey) read a letter from the County Surveyor stating that there was no immediate danger of the edge of the road by Market-street pond crumbling away, but it would be kept under observation. The Council therefore decided to take no further action in the matter for the present. The Clerk reported that, as instructed by the Council, he had an interview with Messrs. G. D. Day and Sons, solicitors, of St. Ives, respecting the future management of the Memorial Hall. He had since received the following letter from Messrs. Day: "A Parish Council, like other local authorities, must do some of its work by committee, and there is no reason at all why a Parish Hall Committee should not be appointed by the Council to manage the affairs of the Hall. We think it would be as well that they should be appointed 'with power to act in all ordinary matters connected with the management of the Hall.' The effect of such an appointment would not be to delegate the Parish Council's powers to the committee, as there is no statutory or other power for the Parish Council to delegate its powers, but the committee so appointed would have to keep and enter minutes of its proceedings, and at each meeting of the Council produce its minute book and the Council, by giving the committee power to act, will have undertaken to confirm the actions of the committee, and a resolution at each meeting of the Council, so confirming the committee's proceedings should be passed. The proceedings of the committee would not bind the Council until so confirmed." After some discussion, Mr. Burton proposed that a committee be appointed to manage the Hall subject to the conditions laid down in Mr. Day's letter of 10th October. This was seconded by Mr. F. Hepher, and carried unanimously. A further resolution, proposed by Mr. Burton, and seconded by Mr. Hepher, that "the former committee be appointed to manage the Hall during the present Council's term of office" was also carried unanimously. A letter was read from Mrs. Banks, secretary of the Parochial Church Council calling attention to the fact that the clock on the church tower was striking four minutes before time and asking if the Council could do something in the matter. As the Council had no control over the clock, the Clerk was instructed to inform Mrs. Banks that she should communicate with the Chesterton R.D.C.

Mrs. Banks writes: "Referring to a paragraph which appeared in your issue of November 16th, may I point out that although the Women's Institute is responsible for organising the horticultural lectures which are being given on Monday evenings, it is not their policy to study themselves only, and in arranging these open lectures the committee were of opinion that they would be interesting to a large number of Swavesey people, and it surely obvious that there are more men than women interested in horticulture.”

At the October meeting a letter was read from the Church Council pointing out that certain repairs were needed to the clock, and asking if the Parish Council would do something in the matter. It was then decided that the Church council should be informed that the application should be addressed to the Chesterton R.D.C. At Monday's meeting a letter was read from the R.D.C. suggesting that the Parish Council, after obtaining an estimate of the cost, should get the necessary work done, and then send the account to the R.D.C., when the amount would be paid and charged against the parish as a special expense. After considerable discussion it was unanimously agreed, on the motion of Mr. Cole, seconded by Mr. Deane, that the Clerk to the R.D.C. should be seen with the view of ascertaining what evidence there is that the parish is responsible for the repair, etc., of the clock. With regard to the disposal of unburnable rubbish, the Clerk was authorised to invite tenders for a collection in March next providing a suitable dumping place had been found. Two minutes of the Hall Management Committee were submitted for confirmation. The first stated that the hall had been let for an indefinite period to the County Education Committee for five days a week (Mondays to Fridays) until 4 p.m., in order to provide accommodation for a number of school children, owing to the main building of the school having been condemned as unsafe. The second minute contained a revised scale of charges for the hire of the hall. Both minutes were confirmed.

Mrs. Hepher then presented Mrs. Banks with a work table, and Miss Banks with a travelling clock, both subscribed for by the members. Mrs. Banks suitably responded, saying that both she and her daughter thanked all the members for the presents, and the kindly thought which prompted them, and how sorry she was to have to leave them all, and the pleasure it had given her to work among them. They thanked God for having had them in their midst and wished them every blessing and happiness in their new home. Mr. W. J. Hepher and Mrs. Cooksey also spoke, and Mr. Banks briefly responded, thanking those who had made the presentation possible, and saying that he was sure his family would often think of their old friends in Swavesey. It was announced that Messrs. A. Day and Sons would find a dumping place for unburnable rubbish, and tenders for its collection during March were received from the following:- Mr. W. Kester, £3; MR. P. Godfrey, £4. After some discussion, Mr. Burton proposed, and Mr. Cole seconded, that the lower tender be accepted. When put to the Council, two members voted for the proposition and none against, whereupon the Chairman declared that Mr. Kester's tender had been accepted. Later a letter was read respecting the collection of unburnable rubbish at stated intervals by the R.D.C., but it was unanimously agreed that the Parish Council should continue the collection so long as there was a dumping place available. A communication from the County Council was also considered. This inquired whether the Parish Council had any suggestions to make respecting alterations in the fares or improvements in the service of the Eastern Counties Omnibus Company. Mr. Cole said he was of the opinion that the fare through the village should be reduced from 2d. to 1d., the fare charged originally. This was seconded by MR. Dean and agreed to. Other business included the appointment of Mr. B. Hodson as a trustee of Frere's Cottages, in the place of Mr. Jethro Linford, the nomination of Mr. C. J. Shepperson, B. Hodson, G. Burling and C. THE SCHOOL. 15th Feb. 1935

A correspondent writes: At the beginning of November last the main building of Swavesey Church of England School, which was erected in 1842, was condemned as unsafe, and several of the classes were hurriedly removed to the Memorial Hall. Over three months have gone by, but so far nothing appears to have been done either in the way of pulling down or repairing the building.

One chimney, I understand, was reported to be in such a precarious state that its immediate demolition was said to be necessary. Yet it is still standing, but if it should fall, the whole, or at any rate some of the brickwork, must come down into the playground, which is still used by the younger children. The fact that two separate buildings at some little distance from one another are being used, must be most inconvenient, and must interfere with the efficient working of the school. The teachers, I know, are doing their best. It was fortunate that there was such a building as the Memorial Hall to go to when evacuation of the old building was ordered, but it must not be forgotten that the hall is occupied for other purposes on several evenings in every week, and that on each of these occasions the school furniture, books, etc., have to be cleared away, and subsequently replaced. Then again, as a free view of the Hall is obscured on one side by the buildings and on the other by a wall, children scurrying out at playtime, or when school is over run grave risk of being knocked down by motor vehicles passing along High-street, where there is no speed limit, and, so far as the Hall is concerned, no "School" caution signpost. We have heard that meetings have been held or are going to be held, but surely in three months something definite could and should have been done.

CAMBS. BUTCHER FINED. 22nd Feb. 1935

Slaughtered Without Notice to Authorities.

A Cambs. butcher was fined £5 at the Cambs. Divisional Court on Saturday for slaughtering certain animals for human consumption without giving notice to the local authority.

Defendant was Robert Williamson, of Swavesey, and he pleaded guilty to the offence, which took place at Swavesey on January 1st. Mr. W. H. Kester (Messrs. Few and Co.) appeared for the prosecution.

The magistrates were his Honour Judge H. G. Farrant (in the chair), Mr. H. G. Gray, Mr. G. Hart, Mr. H. F. Cook, Mr. H. G. Spicer, Mr. F. Kirby and Mr. W. W. Pemberton.

Mr. Kester, addressing the Bench, said that the case was brought under Section A of the Meat Regulations Act 1924. On December 28th, about three days before the alleged offence took place, the defendant was served with a copy of the regulations, part of which stated that local authorities had to be given opportunity to inspect premises in order to safeguard the market. Defendant was informed on January 2nd. His instructions were not to ask for a heavy penalty, but they felt that the regulations should be brought to the notice of other butchers.

INSPECTOR'S EVIDENCE.

William Dewhurst, sanitary inspector to the Chesterton Rural District Council, said that on January 1st he went to Swavesey and found that slaughtering was taking place at defendant's premises. The Council had received no notice of this.

Questioned by the defendant, witness said that there was nothing particularly wrong with the meat.

In reply to Mr. Kester, defendant said that on December 5th he visited defendant's slaughter-houses and inspected 22 pigs and found two of them infected with tuberculosis in the head.

Similar evidence was given by Sidney Harkness, assistant sanitary inspector.

A fine of £5 was imposed, plus the costs.

BRITISH LEGION. 22nd Feb. 1935

The Swavesey and District Branch of the British Legion held a dance in the Memorial Hall on Saturday evening. S. Hepher was M.C., and the refreshments were served by Mesdames Berryman, Turner and Pettitt, and Miss V. Savidge. The annual meeting of the Swavesey and District Horticultural Show and Sports was held in the Memorial Hall on Wednesday evening. Mr. Whitehead was in the chair, and there was a fairly good attendance. The Treasurer gave a satisfactory statement of the efforts of the Social Committee, the profit from

The programme included two sketches, competitions, games and dances. The music was supplied by Claude Witham and his boys, this being their first appearance in public, and it was agreed that this band will, with a little more experience, be a very good combination. The following were the winners of competitions: Matchbox race – Miss A. Johnson and Mr. H. Unwin; orange derby, Miss L. Melbourne and Mr. E. Mitham; obstacle race, Miss K. Banks and Mr. D. Canham; cock crowing, which caused much amusement, Mr. Stan Prime, Mrs. E. Mitham and Mr. H. Unwin; donkey's tail, Mr. S. Ingle. The refreshments were served by Mrs. Melbourne and the committee. BRITISH LEGION. 1st March 1935

A very enjoyable evening was spent by the members, their wives and children at the annual social of the local branch of the British Legion, which was held in the Memorial Hall on Saturday. There was a very good attendance, especially from Lolworth and Boxworth, but the members from Swavesey were not so numerous as was expected. The programme was a varied one to suit everyone present, especially the children, and it was due to the energy of Mrs. C. S. Hephher that they had such a good time. The music for dancing was supplied by Billy Bishop and his Rhythm Rascals. The refreshments, which were kindly given by members' wives and friends, were served by Mesdames Berryman, Turner and Pettitt, and Miss V. Savidge, with the assistance of several other willing helpers. During the evening a humorous sketch entitled "Who's who" was given by Mrs. T. Froment, Mrs. E. Smart, and Mesdames H. and Geo. Prime. They were rewarded by hearty applause. The rest of the programme was composed of dancing, games for the children, and vocal items by Mr. Harry Cole. Thanks were tendered by Mrs. Hephher to the Branch Executive for providing such a jolly evening. Owing to the long distance which the outside members had to travel, an early start was reluctantly made for the return home, and the gathering was sorely depleted when they departed. Messrs. Barwell, C. S. Hephher and Topham very kindly provided their cars for the transport of the Lolworth and Boxworth folk.

OVERSEAS' MISSIONS AND HOME SCHOOLS. 8th March 1935

In this month's North Stowe Deanery Magazine there are two important announcements relating to Swavesey. The first is the statement that Swavesey's contributions last year to missions overseas amounted to £81 11s. 7d., nearly four times its quota. The second has reference to the future of the Church of England Day Schools established in the parish nearly a century ago. On this point the Vicar writes: "The managers of our Day Schools have, after much thought, and also the seeking of counsel from our Diocesan Education Committee and our Parochial Church Council, decided that owing to lack of funds to build a new school in place of the present one, which has been condemned as unsafe, and as there is no prospect of being able to raise the necessary money, which would run into hundreds of pounds, to ask the Local Education Authority to take over the responsibility of their administration. It is with extreme regret this has been done, and only because there is no alternative. As I write this, the transfer is in process of being completed, and I can only ask your prayers that everything may work together for good."

The members of the Women's Institute held their monthly meeting in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening. There was a very good attendance, and one new member was welcomed. Mrs. C. S. Hepher (president) was in the chair. After the usual business, Mrs. Pemberton, of Trumpington, gave an interesting talk on travel abroad, which was much appreciated. There was also

There was a good attendance at the meeting of the Bethel Young People's Fellowship on Monday evening, when an address was given by the secretary, who also sang, accompanied by Mr. W. Kester on his accordion. The members and their friends are looking forward to the annual rally this week-end, when the special speaker on Monday evening will be the Rev. W. Harold Tebbitt, the Area Superintendent.

BRITISH LEGION. 22nd March 1935

Notwithstanding the unfavourable weather, the dance held in the Memorial Hall on Saturday evening, under the auspices of the Swavesey branch of the British Legion, was a success. An excellent programme of music was supplied by Bass and his boys from St. Neots, and as this band is considered one of the best in the district, it was generally expected that the hall would have been full, but owing to the rain coming on when the dancers were getting ready, the attendance suffered. However, about 80 dancers attended. Mr. C. S. Hepher was M.C., and Mesdames Berryman, Turner and Pettitt, who were assisted by many willing helpers, were in charge of the refreshments. A small profit was made on the dance, and this has been added to the branch funds.

A SWAVESEY NONAGENARIAN. 22nd March 1935

Mr. William Henry Key will attain the great age of 90 years on Sunday. A son of the late Mr. Henry Key, baker, of Earith, Hunts, he was born in that village on March 24th, 1845. He migrated to Swavesey in 1870, and opened a baker's business, which he carried on with success until 1910, when he retired in favour of his son, and he went to live at Top Ley's Cottage, in Taylor's-lane – "Amen Corner," to give it its familiar name. Here he devoted himself to his garden and orchards. During his long residence in Swavesey Mr. W. H. Key has held many public offices. He was a churchwarden for 22 years, the first chairman of the Parish Council and a member continuously for many years, a Feoffee of Galon's Charity, trustee of the Fire Relief Fund Charity (Frere Cottages) and a school manager. A keen and active member of the Loyal Order of Ancient Shepherds at one time or another he filled every office in the Wheatsheaf (Swavesey) Lodge and was the only member of the Lodge to become Chief Shepherd of the Cambridge District. He is in fairly good health, and is still able to do a little light work in his garden.

WEDDING. 22nd March 1935

The marriage took place on Saturday at the parish church of Miss Ivy Thorp, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thorp, of Grosvenor House, Swavesey, and Mr. Richard Henry Brooks, youngest son of Mrs. Brooks, of Boxworth End, and the late Mr. W. G. Brooks, of Dry Drayton. The Vicar, Rev. C. C. Dickson, officiated at the service, during which the hymns "The Voice that breathed o'er Eden" and "Lead us, Heavenly Father" were sung. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a pretty gown of ivory georgette and lace, with veil and orange blossom, and she carried a bouquet of dark red roses and trailing fern. She was attended by two bridesmaids, Miss Florence Warboys (cousin of the bride) and Miss Gladys Sutton, who wore dresses of dark red suede with gold net caps and gold leaves, and carried bouquets of cream carnations and fern. Mr. C. C. Cooper, of Cambridge, was best man. After the ceremony a reception was held at Grosvenor House. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Brooks, who will reside at Madingley, were the recipients of about eighty useful presents. These include a gift from the bride's late fellow workers at Messrs. Chivers'.

PARISH COUNCIL. 22nd March 1935

A special meeting of the Parish Council was held in the Memorial Hall on March 14th to consider what steps should be taken with regard to the celebration of the King's Silver Jubilee. The following councillors were present: Mr. C. H. Parish (chairman), Messrs. W. Burton, C. W. H. Cole, C. Dean, F. Hephew, B. Hodson, P. H. Lee, R. Mitham, jun., and P. Parish. The Clerk (Mr. Prime Godfrey) read the circular letter from the Ministry of Health respecting the Jubilee and also a communication from the Women's Institute stating that the members would be glad to take their part in arrangements for its celebration. After some discussion it was unanimously agreed that a public meeting should be held on March 21st to decide what form the celebration should take, in what way the money needed should be raised, and to appoint committees to carry out the arrangements. A letter was also read from the Chesterton Rural District Council in reference to the Town and Country Planning Act, 1932, and after some discussion it was decided to reply that the Parish Council had no observations to make so far as Swavesey was concerned. An application was received from the Secretary of the Ladies' Hockey Club for permission to play matches on the Recreation Ground. It was agreed that she should be informed that her club were at liberty to use the ground, and in order to avoid clashing with other clubs, Messrs. C. H. Parish, F. Hepher and P. L. Lee were appointed a committee to manage the ground for sports.

MEMORIES OF SWAVESEY. 22nd March 1935

From the township of Eramosa, Ontario, Canada, comes this very interesting letter from Mr. Frank Day, who writes of happy memories of village life at Swavesey:-

Your reference in "The Passing Hour" to the pound at Swavesey, and to the late Mr. George Clarke, for many years Pindar and Lamplighter, recalls happy memories of village life in days gone by. My most vivid recollection of the pound is of hiding near the entrance as the school bell rang while I was playing truant some forty odd years ago. It was unfortunate that a spot so near the school should be chosen in which to hide, for I well remember crouching in fear of discovery near the Fire Engine building as the bell tolled forth its accusing note.

I have a more pleasant memory of hearing the school clock strike three as I wandered into the village through Boxworth End one morning, on a Blighty leave, after eleven years in Canada. The respected Headmaster of earlier days, the late Mr. Henry Beaumont, who also taught my father, I believe; the mistress of the infants' school, the late Miss Pook; and the genial lamplighter, Mr. Clarke, have all passed on.

The doctor remains I am glad to know, in the person of Alderman Dr. J. W. Ellis. As a boy I remember his criticisms of Radicals, boys, and other nuisances. But in the course of pleasant chats on later visits his opinions seemed to have mellowed, for about all he chided me for was for being a Canadian and for smoking too long a pipe.

THE POUNDS ACT IN CANADA.

In a reference to conditions in Canada to-day, Mr. Day adds:-

The Pounds Act has been in force in Ontario for many years, and is far from being a dead letter. Six weeks ago at the Council meeting for 1935 for the Township of Eramosa (a territory 12 miles long by 7 miles wide), the following were appointed Poundkeepers: - Henry Flewelling, Speedside; Harry Oakes, Oustic; John Weatherston, Everton; John Mitchell, Four Corners; Henry Barden, Eden Mills, and James McPherson, Rockwood.

One farmer found 27 head of cattle in his grain field last summer, and promptly drove them to the Poundkeeper, who released them to the owner after the charges were paid. The Act provides that where no owner can be found within a reasonable time, the cattle must be sold by auction, and the proceeds, after paying lawful charges, turned into township funds.

A dinner service, half a dozen tumblers, a Pyrex casserole and a fruit dish from his employers, Mr. and Mrs. Harding, of Madingley Hall, an Aladdin lamp from the head chauffeur and a cut glass celery vase from the indoor staff.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 29th March 1935

The anniversary services of the Young People's Fellowship were held on Sunday and Monday, the Baptist Union Area Superintendent, Rev. W. Harold Tebbit, being the special preacher. Good congregations were present, both morning and evening, on Sunday, Mr. Tebbit's addresses being both helpful and inspiring. The annual rally was held on the Monday evening, the President occupying the chair. Many visitors from surrounding societies were present, including Over, Willingham, Haddenham, Bourn and St. Andrew's-street, Cambridge. Mr. Tebbit was again the speaker. Taking as his subject "Debts We Owe," he gave much useful and helpful advice. A solo, "How lovely are Thy dwellings," was feelingly rendered by Mrs. Wolfe of Cottenham. The proceedings concluded with a supper, attended by well over 100 members and friends.

JUBILEE PLANS. 29th March 1935

The public meeting called by the Parish Council to decide whether the King's Silver Jubilee should be celebrated in the village, and if so what form the celebrations should take, was held in the Memorial hall on Thursday week, Mr. C. H. Parish (chairman of the Parish Council) presided. On the proposition of Mrs. C. S. Hepher (President of the Women's Institute) and seconded by Mr. S. Wright (hon. secretary, Football Club) it was agreed that the Jubilee should be celebrated. Alderman Dr. J. W. Ellis moved that there should be a tea for all school children up to 15 years of age and for Old Age Pensioners 70 years of age and over, that sports, for which prizes would be given, should be arranged, and that each child should be presented with a Jubilee mug. This was seconded by Mr. C. Walker and carried. The following were appointed a committee to collect subscriptions and to make the necessary arrangements: Mr. C. Wood, Mr. G. E. Canham, Mr. P. H. Lee, Mr. H. W. Whitehead, Mr. C. Dean, Mr. C. Walker, Mrs. C. S. Hepher, Mrs. Canham, Mrs. Berryman, Mrs. E. J. Mitham, Mrs. Turner and Mrs. W. Thorp. A further proposition was made by Mr. H. H. Berryman (hon. secretary, British Legion), and supported by Mr. F. W. Pontefract that the festivities should conclude with a bonfire.

PARISH CHURCHES OF CAMBRIDGESHIRE. 29th March 1935

No. 1. ST. ANDREW'S, SWAVESEY.

(Accompanied by photograph).

The parish church of Swavesey, dedicated to St. Andrew, is one of the largest in the county, and is a fine specimen of Early English altered considerably in Perpendicular times by insertions in the style of that period. It consists of a clerestoried nave, chancel and North and South aisles, each with a chantry at the Eastern end. In the Northern chantry the organ is placed, and that on the South side is used for week-day services, etc.

At the West end of the church a good deal of Early English work is conspicuous, the tower arches being of that period. There are three arches as the aisles are continued up to the level of the Western face of the tower, so that two of its arcades open North and South into them. In the tower is a peal of six bells, which quite recently have been quarter turned and rehung on a metal frame. The bell, which there is reason to believe is the oldest, bears no inscription and is not dated; another has an inscription but no date. Of the remainder three are dated 1753 and one 1755.

NOTICEABLE FEATURES.

Noticeable features in the chancel are the beautiful Decorated sedilia (three seats of unequal height) and a piscine on the South side, and two fine Early English arches leading to the South chantry, where there are also sedilia of four compartments, of the late Perpendicular period. The nave is notable for its twelve Perpendicular arches, six on each side, which are supported by very slender pillars.

In the South aisle are some remarkable windows, originally Early English lancets, single and of an unusually large size; each has been filled with 15th century tracery which has altered the design in a peculiar manner. The Perpendicular font at the West end of the South aisle has an octagonal basin supported on a heavy shaft.

There are no monuments of ancient date, but in the South chantry there is the striking monument to Lady Anne Cutt, of Childerley, which has only of recent years been discovered to be the work of the sculptor Nicholas Stone (1586-1647), master mason to James I and Charles I. The only stained glass are a few heraldic shields and some fragments worked into several of the windows.

RESTORATION.

The first restoration of the church in modern times took place in the late sixties of last century, and was carried out mainly at the expense of the Hon. Mrs. Dudley Ryder, the then Lady of the Manor. At that time the chancel and chantry screens were erected, stalls from an old design were provided for the clergy and choir in the chancel, and the nave and South aisle were re-seated with oaken benches, each with a quaint finial (all different) copied from those on the original benches, some of which are now in the North aisle.

Shortly before the war the roof of the South aisle and chantry was found to be in a dangerous state. This was taken in hand, and also various repairs to the fabric generally, but unfortunately only part of the roof could be attended to. After the war the nave roof, which had been attacked by the death watch beetle, was dealt with, and more recently the remainder of the South aisle roof.

STONE COFFINS.

Near the South porch door will be found parts of stone coffins, and coffin lids, and hanging on the wall near by are a list of the Priors and Vicars of Swavesey since 1272 and a water colour painting of the interior of the church as it appeared before the restoration in the sixties.

It is said that the cock which forms the weather vane on the tower has reference to Bishop Alcock, of Ely, who was the founder of Jesus College, Cambridge, the patrons of the living of Swavesey. There is also a carving of a cock on the credence box.

CHURCHES OF CAMBRIDGESHIRE. 5th April 1935

Without giving away any professional secrets, I may say that the launching of new features in a local newspaper is a matter which calls for the donning of the editorial thinking cap. When this solemn operation has been duly performed and the resultant brainwave translated into action, doubts may arise as to whether the idea is really being appreciated.

Readers will understand our sense of satisfaction, therefore, when I mention that there have already been intimations from several quarters that our “Parish Churches of Cambridgeshire” series has met with an encouraging reception and is likely to stimulate further interest as church after church comes under review.

Before I go any further, let me emphasise an important point. While the Editor will welcome any written facts about parish churches in the diocese – especially matters of interest usually overlooked – photographs should not be sent to the office. Our photographic department has been entrusted with the task of securing a new picture of each church described.

Incumbents of parishes have shown their readiness to co-operate in the production of the series, and to them we are especially grateful.

THE POINT OF VIEW.

A Fellow of the Royal Photographic Society writes to me in high praise of the view of Swavesey Church published in our pages last week. The picture however served to revive a very old argument among picture makers and picture sellers, namely, whether it is better to give an entirely new rendering of a well-known object than it is to give a familiar rendering.

The picture of Swavesey Church, says the writer, is a fine example of this oft-debated problem. The view shown us last week was a pictorial rendering in every sense of the word, and no better picture of the church could be obtained. Few people, however, have seen the church from this point of view, and it is quite possible that many Swavesey people would fail to name the church if no caption appeared. The usual view, one seen by a passer-by, is from the road, and thousands of people are familiar with it. Opinions differ as to the best way of rendering any scene obtainable from many standpoints, and the photographer of the church in question did well to give the most pictorial rendering of it, even though it be one few people are familiar with.

Photographers who know the churches of Cambridgeshire will, he adds, examine with particular interest other pictures which are to come along.

MOTHERING SUNDAY. 5th April 1935

Last Sunday being Mothering Service, children, on the invitation of the Vicar, took flowers to a special service at the parish church in the afternoon. These were presented at the altar, and after the service were laid by the children on graves of relatives in the churchyard. Many parents and friends were present.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP. 5th April 1935

An excellent finish to a most successful session was the general opinion of the members at the close of Monday's meeting of Bethel Young People's Fellowship. More members have been present week by week and a good work has been done. The speaker on Monday, Mr. Gordon Davies, of Cambridge, followed a good succession with an earnest address on the "Call of God." The secretary and pastor also took part in the meeting.

CRICKET CLUB. 5th April 1935

There was a good attendance at the social held in the Memorial Hall on Saturday, under the auspices of the Cricket Club. The entertainments for the evening included a solo by Mr. M. Ginn, and a sketch entitled "A Pretty Piece of Business." Prizes were won as follows: Spot dance, Mr. D. Wagstaff and Miss G. Wright; competition, Mr. A. Kester. Dance music was provided by Billy Bishop's Rhythm Rascals. Mrs. Turner and Miss D. Godfrey catered for the refreshments.

SUDDEN DEATH. 5th April 1935

While working in Mr. W. Parish's orchard in the Hale, Mr. Albert Payne looked over the hedge into Mr. Jabez Day's land, adjoining, and there saw Mr. Tom Young Mackness lying on the ground. On going to him he found that Mackness appeared to be dead, so he promptly fetched P.C. Shanks, and deceased's body was conveyed to his house in the village. As Dr. Hart, who had attended him for the last three years for cardiac trouble and bronchitis, was able to certify that death was due to heart failure, the Coroner decided that an inquest was not necessary. Born 79 years ago, the youngest son of the late Mr. Edward Mackness, of Knapwell, deceased served in the Royal Artillery for 22½ year at home, in India, and in South Africa. He fought in the Boer War, and was one of the men who pitched the tent in which General Cronje surrendered on Feb. 27th, 1900. On his retirement with a pension, he went to live with his sister, Mrs. Eason, at Swavesey, and after her death her daughter kept his house. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at the parish church.

THE LATE MR. T. MACKNESS. 12th April 1935

The funeral of Mr. Tom Young Mackness, whose sudden death was reported in our last issue, took place at the parish church on Thursday week, the Vicar, Rev. C. C. Dickson, conducting the service. PATCHWORK. 12th April 1935

Members of the Swavesey branch of the Women's Institute held their monthly meeting in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening, Mrs. C. S. Hepher (president) being in the chair. Two new members were welcomed. After the usual business an interesting demonstration on "Patchwork" was given by Mrs. Dunn. There was also an exhibition of foreign articles brought by members, the collection being very varied, representing many countries. Games and dancing followed, Mrs. H. Wells winning the mystery parcel, and Mrs. E. J. Mitham the cock-crowing competition. Mesdames Melbourne, E. J. Mitham, F. Martin, Marriott, and Miss Melbourne were the hostesses for the evening.

Mrs. Thixton presided at a well-attended public meeting at 7 p.m., when Miss Watson, of Newmarket, gave an interesting address on "Trade Marks," and Mrs. Laverack recited.

DANCE. 12th April 1935

The executive of the Swavesey and District branch of the British Legion held another of their popular dances in the Memorial Hall on Saturday evening. About 80 people attended. The dance music was supplied by Josephine and her Gipsy Dance Orchestra, who gave a lively and pleasing programme, including many of the old tunes. The Blue Danube Waltz was an especial favourite. Mr. C. S. Hephher officiated as M.C., and Mr. Berryman was on the door. The hall was gaily decorated with flags and festoons in red, white and blue. Mesdames Berryman, Turner and Pettitt, assisted by many others, took charge of the refreshments. The proceeds have been devoted to the branch funds.

DEATH OF MISS HAYES. 12th April 1935

Her old friends in Swavesey heard with great regret of the death of Miss Sarah Hayes, daughter of the late Mr. Stephen Hayes. Miss Hayes, after a life of great usefulness in Swavesey, left the village about nine years ago to reside with her nephew, Mr. E. H. Richardson, at Acton. She passed away on April 5th, aged 76. The funeral took place at Swavesey Cemetery on Monday afternoon, the service being conducted by the Rev. A. Tilling, Pastor of Bethel Baptist Church, of which she was a member for 40 years. The immediate mourners were: Mr. and Mrs. Richardson and their two daughters.

THE SILVER JUBILEE. 12th April 1935

A further public meeting to consider the celebration of the King's Silver Jubilee was held in the Memorial Hall on Thursday week. Mr. C. Wood (chairman of the General Committee elected at the previous meeting), who presided, explained the arrangements that had been made by his committee, and stated that about £10 of the sum raised by voluntary contributions remained to be allocated. After considerable discussion, it was decided, on the proposition of Mrs. C. S. Hephher, that £5 be devoted to sports for adults, and that with the rest of the money a meat tea should be provided for all adult residents, in addition to old people already arranged for. It was agreed that prizes in cash should be given. The following were appointed a committee to arrange and manage the sports: Messrs. Frank Hephher, S. F. Mitham, C. S. Hephher, S. Wright, D. Canham, L. Day, Stanley Godfrey, H. Unwin, Misses E. Parish, B. Day and P. Willson. Among other matters it was decided to ask the Parish Council to cut down briars and rough grass on the Recreation Ground, and that the bonfire of which Mr. H. H. Berryman will be in charge, should be lighted at 10 p.m. The meeting was well attended.

PARISH MEETING. 19th April 1935

Only seven local government electors took the trouble to attend the annual Parish Meeting which was held on Monday evening in the Memorial Hall. They were the Chairman, the Clerk and four members of the Parish Council, and Mr. Walter Thorp. The only business was the reading of the Parish Council accounts for the year ended 31st March, 1934(?), and the accounts of Galon's Charity.

PARISH COUNCIL. 19th April 1935

The annual meeting of the Parish Council was held at the Memorial Hall on Monday evening, the following councillors being present: Messrs. W. Burton, C. W. H. Cole, C. Dean, B. Hodson, P. H. Lee, R. Mitham, jun., C. H. Parish, and P. Parish, with the Clerk, Mr. Prime Godfrey. Mr. C. H. Parish was re-elected chairman and Mr. C. Dean vice-chairman. The accounts of the Council for the year ended 31st March, 1935, were read by the Clerk and approved. It was decided that tenders should be invited for the herbage of the Recreation Ground, the Chairman, Mr. B. Hodson, and Mr. R. Mitham, jun., being appointed a committee to deal with them. The clearance of brambles, rough grass, etc., from the Recreation Ground, asked for by the recent public meeting, was left to the Recreation Ground Committee, who were authorised to have the necessary work done. Mr. Burton suggested that seats be placed on the Recreation ground as a permanent memorial of the King's Silver Jubilee, the cost to be met by the money in hand in the Recreation Ground account. After considerable discussion Mr. Cole moved that two seats be obtained. This was seconded by Mr. R. Mitham. Mr. Burton proposed as an amendment that three 8ft. seats be purchased. Mr. Lee seconded, and on being put to the vote, the amendment was carried. Mr. Burton and the Clerk were empowered to obtain the seats, and it was agreed that the Council should meet on the Recreation ground to decide where they should be placed. The seats are to be fixed to concrete or sleeper bases.

RAILWAY CROSSING CRASH. 19th April 1935

Car's Night Accident at Swavesey.

One of the railway crossing gates at Swavesey Station was smashed by a small motor car shortly after 11 o'clock on Tuesday night.

The car, driven by Mr. Horace Norman, of Over, was proceeding towards Over, when it crashed into the gate and overturned, the wrecked portions of the gate falling on the top of the car.

Mr. Norman was able to extricate himself, and with the assistance of the signalman on duty and other men who came on the scene he was able to release the car from under the wreckage and get it on its wheels once again.

It is understood Mr. Norman was not injured, and that the car was not seriously damaged. The gate, however, was smashed in the centre and the metal stays badly bent and twisted.

After some delay, Mr. Norman was able to drive home.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 26th April 1935

The annual tea and meeting were held as usual at Bethel Church on Good Friday. A good company met at the tea, which was followed at 6.30 p.m. by the meeting. Many friends from a distance were present, including those from Over, Willingham, Girton, Knapwell, etc. The special preacher was an old friend of the church, in the person of the Rev. Robert Smith (late of Histon), who gave a striking and interesting address on the "Attractions and Repulsions of Christianity." Special Easter services were conducted on Sunday by the Pastor. Good congregations were present, particularly in the evening, when a baptismal service was held, three candidates being baptised by immersion by the Pastor.

MISSIONARY SALE. 26th April 1935

A sale of work in aid of Foreign Missions was held in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday. The Vicar, who, in the absence of the Rural Dean through illness, performed the opening ceremony, in course of his short address thanked all who had worked to make the sale possible. Houses on all sides were decorated and strings of flags, banners, balloons, and lanterns stretched across the streets. In Market-street, Mr. Brooks, of the White Horse, and Mr. Godfrey had electric illuminations on the fronts of their houses.

Before going in procession to the church for the service in the morning, the members of the various societies of the village lined up outside the Memorial Hall with their respective banners. There were representatives of the British Legion, Girl Guides, Girls' Life Brigade, the Sunday Schools, Mothers' Union and Women's Institute. The service, which was somewhat similar to that at St. Paul's Cathedral, was conducted by the Vicar, the Rev. A. Tilling (Baptist minister) reading the lesson. The proceedings in the afternoon started with the children's sports. These were thoroughly enjoyed by competitors and spectators, especially the balloon bursting race and the dog race, which caused much amusement.

KNOCKED DOWN BY MOTOR CAR. 17th May 1935

Mr. Walter Thorp, who is 83 years of age, met with a serious accident at his home, Grosvenor House, Boxworth End, shortly after ten o'clock on Sunday night. His son-in-law, Mr. J. C. Jellings, was driving a motor car into the garage when Mr. Thorp, who apparently had been opening the doors, stepped in front of the car which knocked him down and then crashed into the back of the garage. Mr. Freestone, who lives next door, heard the crash, and ran to the garage, and assisted Mr. Jellings to lift the car, while Mr. George Burling, another neighbour, pulled Mr. Thorp from underneath. On being taken into his house he was examined by Dr. Hart, who found that in addition to severe shock, several ribs had been broken. On the doctor's advice the Cambridge Borough Police ambulance was sent for, and Mr. Thorp was conveyed to Addenbrooke's Hospital, where he was detained. P.C. Shanks and P.C. Lane were promptly on the scene of the accident. On inquiry at the hospital yesterday it was stated that Mr. Thorp's condition was still critical.

SWAVESEY MAN'S DEATH. 24th May 1935

Unusual Accident in Garage.

NO BLAME ON SON-IN-LAW DRIVER.

The tragic death of an 83-years-old Swavesey man who was knocked down by a car at his home on May 12th was investigated by the Cambridge Deputy Coroner (Mr. W. R. Wallis) on Wednesday afternoon at Addenbrooke's Hospital.

Deceased was Walter Thorp, of Grosvenor House, Boxworth End, Swavesey. Evidence of identification was given by Mrs. Anne Thorp, widow of the deceased, of Grosvenor house, Boxworth End. Witness said her husband was 83 years old and a retired school teacher.

On Sunday, with her husband and daughter, she was driven by their son-in-law in their Austin Seven to Madingley. They returned at about 10 o'clock. There was a roadway to their garage from the main road and witness's husband got out of the car to open the gates there while the car stopped. He then went on to open the double garage gates which were about 12-14 yards away. He opened the doors and came outside to push them back.

Witness, at that time, was just going to close the road gates. Her son-in-law got back in the car to drive it in while deceased went back to move a bicycle in the garage which was in the way of the car. The car came from the front gates and went straight in. It was carrying ordinary lights at the time.

CAUGHT BY THE NUMBER PLATE.

Witness added: "I could not exactly see, but I think the car first caught him and knocked him down. I pulled the cycle away and got to my husband in front of the motor. We think it was the number plate that caught him."

His legs were under the car and his head and shoulders in front of the radiator. Two or three neighbours came and they got him to the house. He was taken straight away to hospital.

She saw him frequently there and he said more than once that it was an accident. He did not blame his son-in-law at all. The deceased said to her in the hospital: "I went back to move the bicycle out of the way. I wish I had not."

The garage was nine feet wide and there was ample room for a car to run in. It was rather in the dark. The lights of the car, she agreed, shone straight into the garage. She thought he got out of the ray of the light. Her son-in-law had not driven into the garage before.

DRIVER'S EVIDENCE.

Charles Joseph Jellings, 24, Millfield-crescent, Willingham, gardener, said that on Sunday, May 12th, he was driving the car back from Madingley, dropped his wife at Willingham and went on to Swavesey. Witness pulled up in front of the house and the deceased got out and opened the garage doors while witness opened the road gates.

In answer to the Coroner, who referred to Mrs. Thorp's evidence on the opening of the gates, witness said he was not very clear but he got out of the car.

Witness got back and drove the car 12-15 yards to the garage, which was in a straight line. When deceased opened the garage doors witness put the car in gear, but he thought he was out of the way. The side-lights were on and the head-lights off. Witness could not see into the garage, which was dark inside on the right-hand side.

"I had no idea the deceased was in the garage," said witness.

He had to accelerate to get in because of the slope and deceased appeared to come right in front of the car. Witness had no chance whatever to save him. Witness "only just caught him as he was going down" and did not feel any bump. When they stopped the number plate was on his chest. Witness thought that the deceased had gone to the back door of the house. He could not estimate his pace at the time but he was in low gear. Witness did not have to apply his brake until after he saw the deceased. It was the first time he had driven into the garage and the only difficulty was the slope. He had to accelerate to get over the slope.

Deceased did not speak until he reached the house. On the Monday at the hospital he said to witness: "I have been thinking about you all night – I know it was not your fault."

In answer to the Coroner, witness said the dark spot in the garage was about a yard wide.

Dr. Eric Norman Brockway, house surgeon, said deceased was admitted to Addenbrooke's suffering from broken ribs. He was conscious. He was getting on quite well until he contracted pneumonia on May 20th and died the same day. The cause of death was pneumonia following fractured ribs.

A verdict of "Accidental death" was recorded by the Coroner. He said it was quite clear from the deceased's statements to his wife and son-in-law he attached no blame to anybody.

“I consider,” the Coroner added, “there is no blame attached to the son-in-law and that it was a pure accident.” He expressed his sympathy with the relatives.

DEATH OF MR. WALTER THORP. 24th May 1935

FOOTBALL CLUB. 24th May 1935

The whist drive held in the Memorial Hall on Saturday, in aid of the Football Club, proved a success, but not through the attendance of the members, as the drive was very disappointing in that respect. Causer acted as doorkeepers. The prizewinners were: Mr. J. Norman (playing as a lady), Miss P. Sharp; gentlemen – Mr. H. King (Fen Drayton), Mr. D. Ginn (Over); knock-out Mr. J. Norman and Mr. S. Education Committee stating that as the Church School had now become a Council School, the Parish Council had to appoint two managers. Mr. A. L. Parish, and Mr. C. W. H. Cole were appointed. Another communication from Chesterton Rural District Council respecting overhead wires for electric lighting was discussed at some length, and eventually the Clerk was instructed to ascertain the grounds on which the R.D.C. objected to overhead wiring. An application from the Feast Sunday Parade Committee for permission to draw vehicles on the Recreation Ground for use at the meeting was granted. The Council agreed to support the Prince of Wales’ appeal on behalf of King George’s Jubilee Trust Fund, and Mr. P. H. Lee was appointed to receive contributions.

On Sunday the services at the Parish Church were well attended, an exceptionally large congregation being present at Evensong, when the choir sang Garrett's anthem, "The Lord is loving." The collections throughout the day were for Addenbrooke's Hospital and the District Nursing Association, and will be added to the money raised in connection with the parade. The bells were rung before the early morning service and again before Evensong. Representatives of the National Deposit Society, Mothers' Union and Women's Institute with their banners were followed by a decorated lorry (driven by Mr. C. Savage), representing a children's hospital ward. In the lorry rode the District Nurse, Miss Calydon, and her patients, Eric Savage, Sheila Hephher, Kathleen Williams, Audrey Prime and Neville Oakman. A waggon load of Sunday School children brought up the rear. After parading the village from end to end the procession returned to the recreation ground, where a meeting was held. On the improvised platform were the Vicar of Swavesey (Rev. C. C. Dickson), who presided, the Rev. A. Tilling (Baptist minister) and Mr. Harry Smith, of Willingham. Others present included Mr. Prime Godfrey (district councillor). The Chairman, after a few opening remarks, read a letter from Mr. W. H. Head (secretary-superintendent, Addenbrooke's Hospital) regretting his inability to be present, and giving some interesting information respecting the work of the hospital, and its income and ever-increasing cost of maintenance. The Rev. A. Tilling, in his address, appealed for support for the Nursing Association, which, he said, was a useful auxiliary of the hospital. At the opening ceremony, the Vicar Rev. C.C. Dickson explained that the windows required re-pointing and renovating in order to keep out the cold draughts in the winter and enable the congregation to get the full benefit of the heating apparatus installed seven years ago. Mr MacAlister, diocesan surveyor has estimated it would cost £50, and had suggested that it would be worthy of Swavesey and its grand old church if they could place in the centre panel of the east end the beginning of a stained glass window, which would cost about £100. The fete was opened by Mrs Hair, wife of Canon Hair of Willingham, who hoped that all would contribute liberally to such a worthy cause. Mrs Hair was presented with a bouquet afterwards by little Miss Kathleen Williams.

The business of the fete centred around the prettily arranged stalls devoted to the sale of fancy and useful articles, china, produce, refreshments, sweets, etc were tastefully grouped on the lawn. There were a great many sideshows and competitions, and the Sunday School children and Swavesey Girl Guides gave two pretty little plays in the hollow adjoining the lawn. LETTERS TO THE EDITOR. 3rd Jan. 1936

Penny a Mile – Any Day – Any Where,

Sir – When the L.N.E.R. reply to the letter from “Traveller” on 31st December, respecting the fare charged, perhaps an explanation can be given for another anomaly. Passengers to Cambridge from Godmanchester by train leaving at 8.1 a.m. can obtain workmen’s tickets, but those tickets are not issued at Swavesey station. to people who travel to work in Cambridge Day After Day by the same train. In short, why should a worker be able to get from Godmanchester to Cambridge and back for 1s 2½d, and a worker from Swavesey have to pay 1s 6d for a “cheap day” ticket? Yours etc, A. INQUEST DISCLOSURE. 24th Jan. 1936

A "verdict" of "Death from natural causes" was returned at the inquest, held on Friday, at Addenbrooke's Hospital, on Thomas Harden, of the Green Man Cottages, Swavesey. Deceased sustained a broken leg in an accident at Swavesey early this month. A post mortem examination revealed that the deceased would have died in the next few months, apart from any accident. Emma Jane Harden, Green Man, Swavesey, stated that she had lived with deceased all her life, and identified the body as that of her brother, Thomas Harden, aged 57 years, a farm labourer, employed by Mr Cole, of Swavesey. Witness last saw her brother on January 2nd, when he went to work. He was in fair health, with good eyesight and hearing. About two months ago he suffered from a fall off a cart. He did not complain of being injured, and went on with his usual work. Years ago the doctor had been called in when deceased had frozen fingers, and also on another occasion for some illness which she did not know. Witness knew nothing of the accident.

William Savage, Boxworth End, Swavesey, a farm labourer, stated that he was working with the deceased. Deceased was helping unpack bales from a two wheeled cart. A boy was standing on the cart pushing the bales from the front to the rear. The boy changed his position in the cart, and this upset the balance, so that a bale on the edge of the cart fell off, knocked the deceased down, and fell across his legs. Witness pulled the bale off the deceased and picked him up. He asked him if he could stand, and deceased said "I don't know." Witness said, "Can you stand on your left leg" and deceased could, but when witness said "Can you stand on your right leg?" deceased would have fallen but for support. Witness laid the deceased on some straw and fetch Mr Cole, his employer, who took the deceased in his car to the doctor. Deceased had always seemed in good health, but was not a big man. The bale which weighed about seven stone, fell about six or seven feet on to deceased.

Arthur Thomas Turner, Station Rd, Swavesey, a young farm labourer, stated that he was on the cart unloading the bales. He put one bale down and went to fetch another, and the cart tipped with his weight and the bale fell off, although he did not actually see it. Witness heard deceased call out and ran to the back and saw that deceased was on the ground and the bale had just rolled off. It had seemed to cover his head and shoulders.

Dr Searle, the house surgeon, stated that deceased was admitted conscious on 2nd January, and told him that the bale hit his head and shoulders and then his right thigh. On examination it was found that the top of the right thigh was broken, and this was reduced and set. On 7th January deceased became weaker and died very suddenly, on 14th January. A post mortem examination was made, and it was found that deceased had bronchial pneumonia, his kidneys were infected, and his bladder contained a large stone. Witness formulated the opinion that the deceased would have died within the next few months apart from the accident, but was hastened by the fractured femur. Deceased's death was due to natural causes.

A verdict of "Accidental Death" was returned at an inquest on a Swavesey cyclist at Addenbrooke's Hospital, this (Friday) morning. Deceased was William Francis Perry, aged 55, of 7, Council Houses, Boxworth End, Swavesey, a farm labourer.

Constance Eve Tyrrell, of 100, Newmarket Road, sister of the deceased, said that his eyesight and hearing were perfect, and his general health was good. He had been a cripple since a small boy, but that did not affect his cycling and he had been cycling for 40 years. He used that road every day.

Thomas Edward Kersey, a commercial traveller, gave evidence that he was driving a car about 4.45 p.m. from Huntingdon to Cambridge. As he approached the New Inn he saw the cyclist come into collision with a motorist. He saw only one cyclist and saw nothing of two riding abreast. The impact occurred on the left of the centre of the road and on the Cambridge side of the turning. Visibility was not particularly good as it was getting dusk. He thought the cyclist was on the turn at an angle to the road as though he was going to turn to Swavesey.

Cyril Frank Symonds, of Boxworth End, Swavesey, a machinist, stated that he was cycling towards the New Inn with a Mr Bedford. Witness was on the outside and they were occupying about two yard of the road. Perry was cycling behind. Witness heard a bang and then a car passed him with Perry on top of the bonnet and his cycle on the nearside wing. The car went seven or eight yard past witness before the cycle fell off and then, almost at once, Perry fell off. Witness estimated the speed of the car at about 35 m.p.h.. The driver pulled up after the man fell off, but did not stop until later. The impact occurred in the middle of the road. The car finished up on its nearside. When the car passed him he was only four or five yards from the Swavesey turning.

Both Perry and he (witness) were going to turn there, but witness had not given a signal. He could not say if Perry had.

P.C. Shanks said he arrived on the scene at 5.20 p.m. He saw the car on the Fenstanton side of the New Inn turn. The driver said he stopped five yards past the pool of blood in the centre of the turn, and drove the car out of the way. Witness asked him why he drove so far and he said. " To prevent another accident."

SWAVESEY PLATELAYER. 22nd May 1936

How a Swavesey man was knocked down and killed at Histon by an express travelling at 45-50 m.p.h. was described at an inquest held at the Railway View, Histon, yesterday. Deceased was Sidney Carrier, aged 49, of Mow Fen, Swavesey. He was the youngest son of the late Mr William Carrier of Swavesey, and had, since a young man, been employed by L.N.E.R. first as a platelayer and latterly as a ganger. He leaves a widow, one son and two daughters. Harry Smith, of Station Rd, Over, identified the deceased as his brother-in-law, of Mow Fen Swavesey, a platelayer on the railway. Witness last saw him alive on May 10th, when he seemed all right. Arthur Flatman Radford, of Oakington, a patrolman, said he saw Carrier about 2.30, between Histon and Oakington. He seemed all right then and in a good state of health. When he left witness he walked towards Histon on the down line. He was knocking keys in with a long-handled hammer.

Harry Wallis, of South Rd, Histon, a signalman at Histon station, said at 2.53 p.m., an express train passed from Cambridge to Kettering. After the train had gone he noticed an object in the down road. He tried to attract somebody's attention, but as he failed he went to the goods office to ask them to telephone to find out if it was a man on the line. He was told it was. In answer to Supt. Allen, witness said "he had seen a man on the down line, but he would have been facing trains on the up line. The engine was making a good deal of smoke which was blown on the other line, enveloping the man he had seen. The man would not have been able to see the express because of the bend and the goods train. The strong wind and the goods train would probably have drowned the sound of the express". Answering a juryman, witness said "the express driver whistled before reaching the crossing, but the smoke from the other train would have prevented him seeing the man on the line." Dr A.E. Moore, of Histon, stated that he examined the body at 3.20 p.m. on Wednesday, and found that it bore signs of the man having been knocked down by a train. Death was due to a fractured skull. The Coroner said it was a clear accident, and no one was to blame unless it was the man himself, who should have looked out for the trains. Verdict, Accidental death.

DANGER BY THE RIVER. 19th June 1936

A correspondent writes:- Will you allow me through the "Independent Press and Chronicle" to call the attention to the insecure condition of the hand rail on the sluice gates at the river end of Covill's Drain. When I went over quite recently I found that if any person put the slightest pressure on the rail it would have given way, and a fall into the water below might very likely have been fatal results. I do not know who is responsible for the upkeep of the gates, but the authority that is responsible ought to attend to the matter at once. One other question; When is the bridge over Covill's Drain going to be re-erected? The Parish Council in February decided that it was necessary that this should be done, but so far no steps have been taken to give effect to their decision.

The children leaving school found a good Samaritan in Mr John Parish, who took those living at Boxworth End home in his car, and entertained those who had to go to Fen Drayton, to tea until the rain ceased and they were able to cycle home.

CHURCH FETE. 17th July 1936

Owing to the heavy rain on Thursday afternoon and evening in last week, the annual church fete at Swavesey, which should have been held in the Vicarage ground had to be transferred to the Memorial Hall nearly half a mile away. As the Hall is occupied by the Council School until 4.30 p.m., it was not possible for the fete, minus many of its attractions to be opened until nearly six o'clock, about three hours after the advertised time. During the afternoon the Vicar, who was driven by Mr W.J. Hepher (churchwarden) in his car, armed with the public crier's bell, announced the transference of the fete to the hall. The opening ceremony was performed by Mrs Banks, late of The Priory, Swavesey, expressed her pleasure at once again meeting so many old friends. She hoped that in spite of all drawbacks, the effort would be a success. A variety of stalls, too numerous to list, were under the charge of the lady helpers. The competitions were well supported, but Aunt Sally, darts, and other games that had been arranged, could not be held owing to lack of space in the hall. Pupils of the Martini School, who should have given a performance during the afternoon, were asked not to attend, but a greatly appreciated display of country dancing was given by County High School Girls. The Somersham Town Band played an excellent selection of music during the early part of the evening, and later for dancing, which was kept up until 11 p.m. In distributing the prizes the Vicar took the opportunity of thanking the organisers and helpers for their effort, and all others present for their support. ,

Mr Hodson said the address at the meeting, on the powers, etc, of Parish Councils had been fully reported in the "Independent Press & Chronicle" and producing the paper. He suggested that the clerk should read it to the Council. An application by Mr George Oakman to hire the village pound, led to some discussion respecting the boundaries of Mr Oakman's property (formerly the Methodist Chapel), and the adjoining engine house and pound, the property of the Parish. It was eventually decided the Council should inspect the parish award at the Clerk's house, and then visit the property

The Clerk said he had not received a reply from the County Council regarding the footpaths and rights of way in the parish. Mr Burton then raised the question of the urgent need for a speed limit in the village. PARISH COUNCIL. 31st July 1936

A special meeting of the parish council on Monday evening was attended by Mr C. Dean, vice-chairman who presided, Messrs W. Burton, C.W.H. Cole, F. Hepher, B. Hodson, P.H. Lee and R. Mitham Jun. The clerk, Mr Prime Godfrey read a letter he had received from the County Council:-

Referring to your letter of the 9th instant, the County Council do not provide or maintain stiles in foot paths. Where a path is dedicated subject to the existence of a stile, the owner of the land is entitled to maintain the stile, but it is not for any local authority to do so. There appears to be some doubt as to the exact line of the footpath by the Navigation Drain. The path which is in use is at the top of the bank along the haling way. The barbed wire and bushes to which you refer are between the haling way and the drain, but even if they were removed, it would appear to be impracticable for anyone to walk across the place where they are, owing to the slope of the ground and liability to flooding. Do your Council suggests that there is a public footway between the haling way and the drain?. The footbridge across Covell's Drain is beyond repair and will be replaced. The Parish councillors were decidedly of the opinion that the public footpath was on top of the bank of the navigation drain. With regard to Mr G. Oakman's application to hire the village pound, now never used, the Parish Award was inspected, and the visit was paid to the property. After a prolonged discussion Messrs Dean, Hodson, and Mitham, was deputed to make certain further enquiries and report to the Council.

MEAT UNFIT FOR SALE. 11th Dec. 1936

Cambs Court Prosecution.

A Cambs butcher was fined at Cambs Divisional Court on Saturday for displaying for sale, unfit meat at his premises on October 30th.. . Penalties totalling £15.10s 6d were imposed. Defendant was Robert Williamson, of Swavesey. Defendant was summoned for exposing for sale a diseased bovine head that was unfit for the food of man at his premises. He was further summoned for not having notified the local authorities that the animal when slaughtered was diseased. The plea in each case was guilty. Eric Benjamin Newman, assistant sanitary inspector to the Chesterton R.D.C. said that on the 30th October he called at defendant's slaughterhouse and at the butcher's shop on the premises.

In the shop he discovered a bovine head and tongue badly affected by tuberculosis. The slaughter man said he did not notice the disease when slaughtered. Witness added that the tongue was still in the head. Had it been removed in the ordinary way at the time of slaughter the disease would have been found in the glands? Cross examined witness said he found no evidence of disease in other meat in the shop. Frederic Bennett, senior sanitary inspector to Chesterton R.D.C. gave evidence of seeing the bovine head, and said it was affected by tuberculosis. Normally, a cautious butcher would have examined the glands to see if they were infected.

Dr. A. Morgan, medical officer to the Council, said he found the head definitely affected. He thought any butcher with any interest should take some steps to see that the head was not diseased. Human beings could be affected from animals, he added, in reply to have further questions. Dr Peters said he appreciated that it was a serious case, but in mitigation he would point out that the defendant was not present at the time of the slaughter, but left it to his man, who had been with him for 12 years. The rest of the carcass was not affected by the disease. Superintendent Allen said defendant was fined £5 in 1935 for slaughtering animals without notifying the local authority. Defendant was fined £10 for exposing the unfit meat, and £2 for the second offence. He was also ordered to pay £1.10 shillings witnesses' fees and advocates fee of £1.11s 6d.

PARISH MEETING. 19th March 1937

They were told by the clerk Mr. Prime Godfrey that nothing could be done in the matter at that meeting, but that the question could be discussed at the Annual Parish Meeting to be held later that evening. As, however, only nine candidates were nominated for the nine seats on the council there was no voting, and the chairman declared the following duly elected. Messrs. W. Burton, C.W.H. Cole, C. Dean, F. Hepher, B. Hodson, R. Mitham Jr, C.H. Parish, A Payne, W. Spolton (new member). A vote of thanks was accorded the chairman on the proposition of Mr. C. H. Parish, seconded by Mr. C Dean.

Hepher called attention to the method of electing the parish council. The system of voting by show of hands, was she contended, not only obsolete but was objectionable in that it was not secret, and it was possible for an elector to record more votes than he was entitled to give. The election ought to be by ballot. The chairman explained that nothing could be done at present, and suggested that Mrs. Hepher should raise the question again towards the end of the period for which the new council had been elected. It would be necessary, he added for an application to be made to the County Council. Mrs. Hepher, however, maintained that steps should be taken at once, and she moved that the feelings of the meeting should be taken on whether the present system of election should be altered. This was seconded by Mr. Turner, and on being put to the meeting 29 voted for the motion and 12 against. 46 local government electors were present. The Rev. J. F. Cooksey called attention to the untidy condition of Market Street, and Mr.

C.S. Hepher moved that the County Council be asked to have the matter attended to.

Attention was also called in these columns in February to the northern end of the wall separating the churchyard from the main road, where the heavy stone, or concrete, cap and some of the brickwork had fallen off into the adjoining field. An amendment moved by Mr. Payne, and seconded by Mr. F. The football club's dance on Monday was more successful. For both, Claude Whitham's band provided a good selection of music. At the Parish Church on Sunday the special form of service in connection with the Coronation was used in the morning and evening service and at the latter service Hopkins anthem, "Lift up your heads" was sung by the choir.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 11th May 1937

Coronation in Swavesey. 14th May 1937.

For days before the Coronation, the people of Swavesey were busily engaged in adorning their houses and premises, and on Wednesday morning the village was gay with bunting, flags and other red white and blue decorations notwithstanding that some of them being of paper had suffered owing to rain and wind. At the Memorial Hall a flag staff, longer needed, had been erected, and from this proudly flew the Union Jack, and the front of the building was effectively decorated with the national colours. A prize of one guinea was offered by Mrs. C. S Hephher, President of the Women's Institute for the best decorated house, and this was awarded by Miss Pate, Luton, who acted as judge, to Mrs. George Brooks, of Blackhorse Lane. Mr. John Wilderspin, of Boxworth End, received a consolation prize. Both the White Horse and the Rising Sun inns were nicely decorated, the former gain the consolation prize given for country houses owned by Dale's Brewery. The children of 15 years of age received their souvenir Coronation cups and saucers at the hands of Mrs. James Norman on Tuesday afternoon. Coronation Day opened with a celebration of Holy Communion in the parish church at 7:30 am. At 9:30 am. members of the following village organisations with their standards or banners assembled at the Memorial Hall, and after being marshalled by Mr. H. H. Berryman marched to the Parish Church: British Legion, (Mr. Crowley) women's Institute, (Mrs. C. S. Hephher) Girl's Life Brigade, (Mrs. Isgrove) Church Sunday School, (Mrs. J. Linford and Miss G. Froment) Mothers Union, (Mrs. Cooksey) , Girl Guides, (Miss Willson). On arrival at the church the standards and banners were received at the altar by the Vicar, Rev. C. C. Dickson and Rev. A. Tilling, Baptist pastor. The authorised form of service was used. There was a good congregation. From 11 am to 2 pm the people had the opportunity of listening at the church to the broadcast of the ceremony in Westminster Abbey.

At 2 pm there were sports for children on the recreation ground under the management of Mr. C. Wood and Mr. Holloway, and these fortunately were concluded before the rain began to fall heavily.

At 4 pm, an excellent tea was provided in the Hall for all children, residents over 65 years of age, and the sports committee. Teas in two sittings, for other residents followed later. Owing to the rain the fancy dress parade took place in the Hall, the prize is being awarded by the judges, Mrs. Dickson, Miss Christmas, and Mrs. Tilling, as follows; John Prime, (Pirate) Alan Lee, (Nigger) Jill Feasey, (Mother Hubbard)

The day concluded with the broadcast of the King's address to the Empire in the hall, followed by a social which was kept up until midnight. A bonfire on the recreation ground was set alight at 10 o'clock and blazed furiously for some hours. The adult sports which had to be postponed would take place next Monday,

A SWAVESEY MYSTERY. 28th May 1937

From a correspondent with a sense of humour - and a grievance - I received the following note this week.

"Come to Swavesey and see something not discovered but found. In the distance that looks like part of ancient Rome sprung up on a piece of bog land. As you get closer to it, it looks like Julius Caesar's committee room where he used to entertain his councillors. But when you get opposite to it, it looks like a breeding place for silk worms and butterflies. It is worth anyone's time to see it, and it is a puzzle for a stranger to know what it is, unless he has been told to come and take a snap of the New School".

From our correspondent's caustic comments, it looks very much as if Swavesey has got a rival to the much criticised University library.

At the afternoon service there was a good congregation, when the address was based on Kings viii. 56. Over 80 friends were present at the tea which followed in the schoolroom. For the evening service, when the body of the church was nearly full, Mr. Ussher spoke on prayer, placing his remarks on St Luke xi. 2. The choir rendered me anthem, "O love the Lord". HOME FROM AUSTRALIA. 5th June 1937

Mr. James Smith Dean, eldest son of Mrs. J. Dean and the late Mr. J.W. Dean, who arrived in Swavesey from Australia on a visit to his mother on Saturday, received a hearty welcome from his old friends in the village. He has spent an adventurous life. When a lad he went to sea in 1893, as an apprentice on a sailing vessel, but not caring for a seaman's life, in 1898 he set out for South Africa, and during the subsequent war served with the Cape Mounted Rifles, and was wounded. After the war he again returned home, but soon went back and joined the South African Police, with whom he served until 1906. He then went to Australia, and immediately after arriving at Sydney casually met another Swavesey man, the late Mr. Ezra Williams. He married a young English lady who he had met in Australia, and in the following year he and his wife went to Western Australia. In 1915 he joined up for the Great War, and served with the 10th Australian light horse in Egypt, Palestine and Trans Jordan, until he was seriously wounded in the head in 1918, and was sent back to Australia and discharged as medically unfit. On recovery he carried on a successful bakery business at Cannington, Western Australia, but has now retired.

He is the father of the Cambs County Council, having been a member of that body since 1891, except for a short break between 1895 and 1898. He, however, has not the distinction of being Swavesey's oldest inhabitant.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 11th June 1937

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening, the president Mrs. C. S. Hepher occupying the chair. The proceedings opened with the song of the "Music Makers", after which arrangements were made for the annual garden party on June 22nd, when all members' children under the age of 14 years will be entertained to tea, followed by games, etc. It was also decided that the garden fete for WI funds should take place on June 29th, the President kindly offering the use of her garden for both parties.

The treasurer, Mrs. G. E. Canham, presented the monthly accounts, and also announced that as the result of the recent collection in Swavesey and Fen Drayton 1,649 eggs had been sent to Addenbrooke's Hospital. They had been very kindly conveyed to Cambridge by Mr. Canham. An excellent account of the spring Council meeting was given by Mrs J. Froment, after which Mrs. Clark gave an instructive demonstration of loose cover making. There were many entries for the knitting competition, Mrs. G. Prime winning the prize. Tea was served by the hostesses of the evening Mrs. Ding, Mrs. Freestone, Mrs. G. Froment and Mrs. Dickson. During the social half hour a competition,

At the meeting of the Coronations Celebrations Committee held in the Memorial Hall on Monday evening, Mr. Canham (hon. treasurer) presented the accounts, which showed that £36 5s. had been collected, and £34 7s. 1d. spent, leaving a balance of £1 17s. 11d., which, after some discussion, it was decided to offer to the Parish Council to provide a permanent memorial of the Coronation. Votes of thanks were passed to the treasurer, secretary and chairman, and also to all others who had in any way helped to make the celebrations a success. The statement of accounts has been posted in the Post Office window this week.

POSTAL ARRANGEMENTS. 18th June 1937

A correspondent writing yesterday morning states: It is rumoured in the village that there is to be a serious alteration to the postal arrangements in the district on and from Monday next, but so far there has been no official notification. For instance, it is said, that the day mail dispatch will be made at, or soon after, 10 a.m., instead of 1.15 p.m. as at present. We used to have a third delivery in the evening, but that was discontinued during the war, and never restored. Subsequently the night mail dispatch was made at 6.30 p.m., an hour earlier than previously. The earlier dispatch of the day mail will inevitably result in fewer letters, etc., being sent by it, and before long we shall be told that it is not a paying proposition, and therefore must be dropped.

FETE AT SWAVESEY. 18th June 1937

Nursing Association's Successful Effort.

For the first time for several years the annual fete in aid of the Swavesey, Over and Fen Drayton Nursing Association, in the grounds of Swavesey Manor (kindly lent by the Rev. J. F. Cooksey) took place on Thursday week in really fine weather, and as a result there was a large attendance, and the whole of the programme was carried out as arranged. There was, however, a sudden heavy rainstorm about 9.30 p.m., but by that time only a few people were in the grounds and they hurriedly left for home.

The fete was opened by Mrs. Weston, of Over, who in a short speech spoke of some of the difficulties with which the association had to contend, and appealed for increased support. She was presented with a bouquet by little Beryl Prime.

Before leaving for home the children gave three hearty cheers for Mr. and Mrs. Hepher for giving them such a happy ending.

DEATH OF MRS. H. G. KEY. 18th June 1937

The announcement about 11 o'clock last Friday morning that Mrs. Agnes Annie Key, wife of Mr. Henry George Key, baker, of High-street, had passed away suddenly, came as a great shock to the village. She had been ill for about six weeks, and the question of her removal to hospital had been under consideration. Her condition appeared to be improving until early last week, when she had a relapse, and on Friday morning an ambulance was sent for to convey her to Addenbrooke's Hospital, but shortly before its arrival the end had come. She leaves three daughters, for whom and for her husband sincere sympathy is expressed. Mrs. Key, who was 52 years of age was the younger daughter of the late Mr. John Williams, coal merchant, and for many years parish clerk of Swavesey. There was a very large attendance at the funeral which took place at the parish church on Tuesday afternoon. The cortege was met at the churchyard gates by the Vicar (Rev. C. C. Dickson), the choir and the churchwardens (Messrs. W. J. Hephher and Harry Wells). Forty-two members of the Women's Institute, with the president (Mrs. C. S. Hephher) and the vice-president (Mrs. G. E. Canham) lined the path to the church porch. The service was choral, and included the hymns "Thy way, not mine, O Lord" and "The day Thou gavest, Lord, is ended," the 23rd Psalm and the Nunc Dimittis. Mr. G. H. Skeeles was at the organ. The mourners were: Mr. H. G. Key (husband), Misses Lucy, Lenie and Mabel Key (daughters), Mrs. J. Williams (mother), Mr. D. Williams (brother), Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Canham, sang special music throughout the day. At the afternoon service the Pastor presided, and children took part, the programme including a trio by Sylvia Brickwood, Mary Parish and Jean Walker, and a solo by David Easter. The offerings throughout the day were the Sunday School funds.

CHESTERTON R.D.C. MEETING 2nd July 1937 SWAVESEY DRAINAGE.

The committee also reported the receipt of the following report from the Medical Officer on the general drainage of the parish of Swavesey:

“Broadly speaking, most of the drainage of Swavesey is discharged into the brook which runs round the west side of the village and eventually finds its way to the river.

“The drainage is laid in two sections in order to avoid cutting through the rise in High-street. One section commences near Wallman’s-lane and runs southwards down the High-street to the Turnbridge, where it is piped along the bank of the brook, ultimately finding its way to the main outfall near the church, as shown on the plan. The other section commences over the crest of the rise near Market-street and runs northwards, finally uniting with the first section near Church Bridge.

“The brook is in very bad condition, and is nothing more or less than an open sewer. It carries some sewage from the Middle-watch and School-lane neighbourhood, but undoubtedly, the worst feature is the extremely defective condition of the piped drain running along its bank. The drain is now practically useless, as nearly every joint is cracked or broken, allowing the contents to be discharged directly into the brook. This gives rise to serious nuisances, especially in the summer months when the brook contains very little water.

“At the time of inspection on the 20th May the brook from the Turnbridge to the end of Market-street was in a most offensive state.

“It appears to me that the only effectual manner of dealing with the state of affairs outlined above would be the provision of a sewerage and sewage purification scheme.”

The report was referred to the Sewage Disposal Sub-Committee for consideration.

THE RAILWAY STATION. 9th July 1937

The platforms at Swavesey Railway station, once drab and dreary, are now gay with flowering plants. Mr. Cox, who had not long before been appointed stationmaster, and some of his staff, introduced a few plots of flowering plants, but the effort was made rather too late in the season for any really effective result to be obtained. This year more plots have been added, each edged with old roof tiles, and all contain plants, most of which are in full bloom. This varied collection includes: Dwarf nasturtiums, burning bush (kochia), salvias, sweet Williams, larkspur, poor man's pepper, lobelia, lupins, scarlet flax, calendulas, pansies, ivy geraniums, antirrhinums and candytuft. Rambler roses are trained along the railings separating the up platform from the goods yard; nasturtiums planted in old fruit sieves cunningly fitted around the bases, will soon be climbing up the posts which support the platform roof. The shrubs on the down platform have been skilfully pruned, the lamp-posts have been repainted, and everything practicable done to make the station "spick and span." All the plants have, it is understood, been generously provided by Mr. Cox. Mr. W. E. Few, one of the porters, is the head gardener.

FOR W.I. FUNDS. 9th July 1937

The garden fete in aid of the funds of the Women's Institute, which was held last week at the residence of the president, Mrs. C. S. At 7 p.m., Miss Queenie Chapman's pupils gave a greatly appreciated display of dancing. During the evening there was a whist drive in the garage, and dancing for which Claude Whitham's band provided the music, was enjoyed on the lawn. About 10.30 p.m. the prizes won in competitions, etc., were presented by the President to the following: Farthings in bran, Mr. T. Froment; name of doll (Diana), Mrs. Canham; chocolates, Mr. J. WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 16th July 1937

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening. The President, Mrs. C. S. Hepher, in the chair. Before opening the meeting all stood in silence for two minutes in memory of a highly respected member, Mrs. Key, who had passed away since the last meeting. The proceedings began with the singing of "The Music Makers," after which the monthly letter was read by the secretary (Mrs. Laverack). Mrs. Canham (treasurer) presented her financial statement, which showed that the result of the garden party was most satisfactory, and Mrs. J. Froment gave an excellent report of the N.F.W.I. meeting in London, which she had attended as delegate. Miss Caister then gave an instructive demonstration on physical fitness, members joining in the exercises, which were much enjoyed, and she was accorded a vote of thanks. The roll-call "Why I belong to the W.I." brought some excellent answers. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. G. Froment, Miss G. Froment and Mrs. L. Godfrey. Games and dancing made a very pleasant social half-hour. The prize for the best window plant was awarded to Mrs. Warren. The produce stall did excellent trade. Mrs. C. S. Hepher was the accompanist for the evening. Before the close members were reminded of the N.F.W.I. coming of age celebrations on July 21st. It is hoped all members will try to be present.

GARDEN FETE. 16th July 1937

The annual fete in aid of church funds was held in the Vicarage ground on Thursday week, the opening ceremony being performed by Mrs. Ellis Long, wife of the lay rector. She was presented with a beautiful bouquet by little Ann Smart. The Somersham Town Band played an excellent selection of music during the afternoon and evening. Miss Emilie Lewis, who was present, also arranged a most enjoyable concert.

BUSES AND GROCER'S AFFAIRS. 16th July 1937

“Customers Taken From the Village”

SWAVESEY MAN'S LOSSES.

A Swavesey tradesman, in the course of his public examination at Peterborough Bankruptcy Court on Friday, attributed his failure largely to the introduction of bus services, which took his customers to the neighbouring towns of Cambridge and St. Ives, and to the traversing of the village by “shop vans” from neighbouring towns.

Debtor was Alfred John Willson (59), residing and carrying on business as a grocer at Swavesey, Cambs. He had lodged a statement of affairs which disclosed gross liabilities £613 14s. 4d., liabilities expected to rank for dividend £260 18s. 8d., net assets £28 9s. 1d., leaving a deficiency of £232 9s. 7d.

The examination was held before the Registrar (Major S. G. Cook), and was conducted by the Assistant Official Receiver (Mr. H. A. Ellam, Cambridge).

Debtor said that he was apprenticed to the grocery business and worked as an assistant for various firms until 1916, when he joined the Army. He was demobilised early in 1919, and again went to work as an assistant, earning about 50s. a week, with commission.

“BEGAN WITH CAPITAL OF £100.”

In March, 1925, he began business on his own account at Swavesey, with a capital of about £100, his savings. In 1913 he had purchased the house in which he resided. When he bought it, it had been damaged by fire at both ends. He paid £100 for the house, and spent about another £100 in having the damage made good, all the money coming from his savings. His grocery business proved satisfactory for the first few years, and his takings were round about £20 a week, of which 15 per cent. would be gross profit. About four or five years ago the business began to deteriorate, consequent upon the agricultural depression. Competition began to get very keen, with various stores sending out vans and calling from door to door, while buses began to run and customers went into the towns to shop.

“THE LAST STRAW.”

His chief suppliers had been Messrs. Johnsons, of St. Ives, and in 1929 he owed them about £367. He executed a mortgage deed in their favour, and they extended his credit. He did that, hoping that things would improve, but his takings continued to drop, and decreased by about 25 per cent. The starting of the bus services seemed to be about the last straw.

The Registrar: Do you find that bus services do cause great damage to these small shops in the villages?

Mr. Ellam: I am afraid they do, sir. This debtor alleges that the buses took people out of Swavesey into Cambridge and St. Ives, and they did their shopping there instead of at the local store. They take the opportunity of having a cheap day out and doing their shopping in some other town.

Debtor agreed that this was so.

In further examination, debtor said that various creditors began to press four or five years ago, and by early in June this year four executions had been levied by the High Bailiff. He then realised that it was impossible to carry on, and consulted his solicitor, who advised that a meeting of creditors be called. This was held at St. Ives, and the meeting suggested that he should file his petition, which he did.

Debtor said that he had only kept a book showing goods supplied to customers on credit; he had kept no cash book, while he had not used his banking account since June, 1934. He realised three years ago that he was insolvent, but kept on hoping for an improvement and paying off what he could from his accounts. The household furniture belonged to his wife, who bought it with her own money before and at the time of their marriage. All his money went in the house and business.

WEDDING. 23rd July 1937

The marriage took place at Swavesey parish church on Monday morning of Miss Queenie Ethel Spolton, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Spolton, High-street, Swavesey, and Mr. George Henry Gotobed, only son of Mr. George Young Gotobed, of Stretham. The Vicar, Rev. C. C. Dickson, officiated. The bride, who was given away by her father, was attired in oyster satin, with veil, and she carried a bouquet of salmon carnations and fern. She was attended by one bridesmaid, Miss E. Penny, who wore a dress of green moiré satin. Mr. William Gotobed (cousin of the bridegroom) was best man. The wedding breakfast, after the ceremony, was held at the residence of the bride's parents, and later Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Gotobed left by car for a short honeymoon at Clacton, the bride travelling in a blue two-piece suit with hat to match.

PARISH COUNCIL. 23rd July 1937

The quarterly meeting of the Parish Council was held at the Memorial Hall on Monday evening, when there were present: Mr. C. Dean (vice-chairman), who presided, Messrs. W. Burton, C. W. H. Cole, F. Hephher, R. Mitham, C. H. Parish, and A. P. Payne, with the Clerk (Mr. Prime Godfrey). Arising out of the minutes of the previous meeting, Mr. Burton reported that the iron fences protecting the trees in Market-street and on the Recreation Ground had been repaired by Mr. M. C. Culpin. A letter was read from Mrs. C. S. Hephher, hon. secretary of the Coronation Celebration Committee, asking for the Council's permission to erect three swings for the use of children on the Recreation Ground. On the motion of Mr. Payne, seconded by Mr. F. Hephher, permission was granted, subject to the position of the swings being approved by the Council. Messrs. Hephher and Payne were delegated to meet the representatives of the Coronation Committee. On the proposition of Mr. Parish, seconded by Mr. Payne, Mr. Dean was appointed to represent the Council at the meeting of parish councillors to be held in Cambridge on July 24th. Attention was called to the nuisance on the Recreation Ground by wires from motor tyres – remnants of the bonfire on Coronation Day. Mr. Godfrey undertook to have them removed.

21ST ANNIVERSARY. 23rd July 1937

Owing to the inclement weather, the celebration of the 21st anniversary of the inception of the Women's Institutes was held in the Memorial Hall on Wednesday, instead of in the president's garden, as previously arranged. Upwards of 100 members of Swavesey, Willingham and Elsworth Institutes listened in to the broadcast of Lady Derman's speech, and then sat down to a sumptuous tea, which was thoroughly enjoyed. After tea a short whist drive was played by some members, while others enjoyed games and music, kindly provided by Mr. H. Norman. At 7.30 a display of physical fitness exercises was given by Miss Clarke, of Cambridge, and her ladies, at the special request of Miss Griffiths, to show the kind of classes that are arranged under the County Council in the physical fitness campaign. This was eagerly watched and heartily applauded, and on the proposition of Mrs. Hephher, Miss Clarke was cordially thanked for the display. Dancing was then enjoyed for the rest of the evening. The musical parcel was won by Mrs. S. Carrier, and the winners of the whist drive were: Ladies, Mrs. Frohock, Mrs. Symonds; playing as gentlemen, Mrs. Denson, Mrs. Shepperson. At the close of the evening a vote of thanks was proposed to the members of Swavesey W.I. for their invitation and very pleasant evening by Mrs. Denson (President of Willingham W.I.). This was supported by Elsworth W.I.

SERVICE OF REMEMBRANCE. 30th July 1937

Evensong at the parish church on Sunday took the form of a service of remembrance of, and thanksgiving for, parishioners who had passed away. The Vicar Rev. C. C. Dickson, officiated at the service, which included appropriate hymns and the anthem "Crossing the Bar." Flowers taken by children were presented at the altar, and were subsequently placed on the graves of relatives in the churchyard.

SUNDAY SCHOOL OUTING. 30th July 1937

For their annual outing this year the children attending the Parish Church Sunday School, the party including teachers and friends, journeyed by special train to Clacton on Wednesday. The weather was kind and a most enjoyable time was spent, not only on the journey, but also at the sea. Bathing, a trip on the sea to Walton by 16 boys and a teacher, visits to the fun fair and a really good tea were among the many happenings of the day. Altogether a very tired but happy party arrived home at 10.20 p.m. Those travelling with the children included the Vicar and Mrs. Dickson, Mrs. C. S. Hephher, Mrs. E. J. Linford, Mrs. T. Williams and Miss G. Froment. Members of Bethel Band of Hope also took advantage of the train for their annual outing.

PARISH CHURCH. 6th Aug. 1937

In the absence of the Vicar, Rev. C. C. Dickson, on holiday, the services at the parish church next Sunday and on the three following Sundays will be taken by Rev. W. S. Bethway, vicar of St. Mary's, Northampton. Mr. Bethway and his family will reside at the Vicarage.

TIMBER BY ROADSIDE. 6th Aug. 1937

A correspondent writes: "Several months ago some timber, which, it was understood, was to be used in rebuilding the footbridge across Covell's drain in Mow Fen, was dumped on the grass verge of the main road through the village opposite the Vicarage gateway. The timber, it was stated, could not then be taken to Covell's drain owing to the flooded state of the land, but that difficulty disappeared long ago. If it has since been decided not to rebuild or repair the bridge, and thus deprive the parish of an ancient right of way to the river, why leave the timber by the roadside?"

SUNDAY EXCURSION. 13th Aug. 1937

Thirteen passengers were booked from Swavesey station by the half-day excursion to Clacton on Sunday.

"LET'S GO CRUISING." 13th Aug. 1937

At the monthly meeting of the Women's Institute, held on Thursday evening in the Memorial Hall, Mrs. C. Hepher (president) taking the chair, a talk on "Let's go cruising, and what happens when we do," was given by Miss Clay, of Meldreth. This was much enjoyed, and a hearty vote of thanks was accorded Miss Clay, on the proposition of Mrs. G. Froment. The programme for the social half-hour included a musical story and singing, the winners of the former being Mrs. Turner 1st and Mrs. Sharp 2nd, after drawing with Miss King. Mesdames C. Hepher, G. Hodson and Heasman, and Miss L. Hepher, were the hostesses for the evening.

DISTRICT NURSE. 27th Aug. 1937

DEATH OF MR. JOHN DODSON. 27th Aug. 1937.

Swavesey has lost a very old and highly respected parishioner by the death of Mr. John Dodson, who passed away on Sunday evening, aged 86 years. The funeral took place at the parish church yesterday afternoon.

CHURCH CAUSEWAY. 27th Aug. 1937

The wall protecting the raised causeway between Hog Pasture and Church Brook on the main road through the village is at last being repaired by the County Council. Attention was first called in these columns on Feb. 19th to the fact that a portion of the wall was mysteriously crumbling away. On April 16th it was pointed out that no steps had been taken to repair the wall, and that the mischief had then extended from a few feet to about a dozen yards. How the damage was caused in the first instance can only be surmised, but mischievous persons were undoubtedly responsible for its extension. Had the wall been repaired at once it would have been a matter of hours, whereas now two men have already been employed on the work for about three days. Another improvement has been effected close by within the past few days. The hedge belonging to the Vicarage, which had reached abnormal proportions and was encroaching on the side-walk, has been cut down to a reasonable height, a broken fence has been repaired and tarred, and the Vicarage gate has been repainted.

SWAVESEY STILL LEADS. 3rd Sept. 1937

Further interest was taken this week in the quest which I began a fortnight ago to find the Cambs. innkeeper or hotel keeper who has held his or her licence the longest.

Last week I gave the fine record of Mr. Jethro Linford, of Swavesey, who has held a licence for 52 years.

Now comes news from Over which reveals that here also is a licensee with a very creditable total, although the length of service is some years short of Mr. Linford's.

The Over claimant is Mr. William Robinson, who has held the licence of the Red Lion for 33 years.

Next, please!

SUNDAY EXCURSION. 3rd Sept. 1937

About 60 passengers booked from Swavesey station by the L.N.E.R. evening excursion to Hunstanton on Sunday. Complaint has been made of the noisy behaviour of some of them on their return about midnight.

CHURCH CAUSEWAY WALL. 3rd Sept. 1937

The repair of Church Causeway wall, which had to be suspended last week for lack of suitable bricks, has now been completed, and all concerned can be congratulated on the excellent way in which the work has been carried out. As only well-weathered bricks have been used, the repaired section matches admirably with the undamaged portion of the wall.

THE LATE MR. DODSON. 3rd Sept. 1937

The funeral of Mr. John Dodson, whose death at the age of 86 years was announced in our last issue, took place at the parish church on Thursday week the service being taken by the Rev. W. S. Bethway, assisted at the grave in the churchyard by the Rev. J. F. Cooksey. The immediate mourners were: Mr. and Mrs. H. Dodson (son and daughter-in-law), Mrs. H. Harbon, Mrs. L. Worrall, Misses D., E., G. L. and E. L. Dodson (daughters), and Mrs. R. Mitham. There were no flowers by request. The funeral arrangements were carried out by Messrs. R. Mitham and Sons. The late Mr. Dodson leaves two sons and six daughters. His wife died on October 31st last, aged 85.

PARISH CHURCH. 10th Sept. 1937

The services at the parish church last Sunday were conducted by the Rev. A. Macintosh (secretary of the S.P.C.K., Eastern District). The collections were in aid of the Society.

BEST KEPT STATIONS. 10th Sept. 1937

It was a surprise and disappointment to many people using the station to learn that in the annual competition for the best kept stations on the London and North-eastern Railway, Swavesey had only been awarded a certificate of commendation, while of the neighbouring stations, Longstanton had been awarded a second-class prize of £3 and Oakington a fourth-class prize of £1, Histon receiving a certificate of commendation. While in no way questioning the admirable way in which Longstanton and Oakington stations are kept, or that they thoroughly deserved their awards, it is felt that the difficulties with which the Swavesey staff were faced were not fully realised by the inspecting officials. The platforms at Longstanton and Oakington have for years been noted for their well kept beds of brightly coloured flowers, whereas at Swavesey there were only a few shrubs on the down platform until last year, when shortly after Mr. W. A. Cox had been appointed stationmaster, there was an attempt to improve things, and two or three beds for flowering plants were made on the hard surface of the platforms. This year Mr. Cox and his staff were determined to make their station a credit to the L.N.E.R., and the admiration of the people of the district and of the passengers travelling in the trains. Many more beds, cleverly edged with old roof tiles, etc., were made, and when the inspection took place in July all were filled with plants of various kinds, some of which were in flower, but, unfortunately, some, owing to adverse weather conditions, were only in bud. Not many days later, however, both platforms were a blaze of colour. In order that the station should be spick and span in every respect the lamp posts, etc., had been repainted, windows and glass lamp shades were kept brightly polished, and no weeds or tufts of grass could be found on the permanent way. It is suggested that if there had been a horticultural expert among the inspectors Swavesey might have fared better.

FOOTBALL. 17th Sept. 1937

We have received the following letter from "A Correspondent":- "Players and supporters of Swavesey Football Club are asking what has become of the executive who ran the club last season. For weeks past, everyone interested has been expecting the annual meeting to be called. Now it is too late. If the executive could not see their way clear to carry on, why did they not call a meeting? Surely this was the proper thing to do in any case, to wind up the old season. By their apathy they have deprived their village of a team for this season, and likewise prevented them from entering any of the competitions which they usually do. There are plenty of young fellows keenly interested in sport, who would rather have taken over the management than see the present unsatisfactory state of affairs."

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 17th Sept. 1937

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday. The President (Mrs. C. S. Hepher) was in the chair. Final arrangements were made for the social and whist drive to be held on Sept. 25th. Mrs. G. Froment will attend the autumn council meetings as delegate. The statement of accounts was presented by Mrs. Canham. Miss Tomlin gave a helpful talk on dressmaking. Mrs. Hepher thanked Miss Tomlin on behalf of the members. Tea was served by the hostesses for the evening – Miss King, Mrs. E. Mitham, Mrs. Marriott, Mrs. Martin. During the interval Mrs. Mitham offered a mystery parcel in aid of the sick fund. This was won by Mrs. H. Bridgeford and Mrs. Laverack. The social half-hour was spent in folk dancing and games. Musical chairs was played, the winner being Mrs. G. Crouch.

WEDDING. 17th Sept. 1937

The marriage took place on September 11th, at Christ Church, Islington, of Mr. Charles Wilfred Thurbon, a native of Swavesey, and Miss Grace Emily Bennett. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles William Thurbon, of 55, Earl-street, Edgware-road, London, and nephew of the well-known Swavesey thatcher. The service was fully choral. The bride, who was given away by her father was attired ivory satin, with veil and orange blossom (lent by her mother) and she carried a bouquet of red roses. The three bridesmaids wore pretty dresses of blue satin and lace overlay and crinoline hats to match. The chief bridesmaid, a cousin of the bride, carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations, and the others baskets of pink roses. After the ceremony a reception was held at Highbury Hall, where 84 guests were entertained. The newly-married couple, who were the recipients of numerous presents, left subsequently for Devon, where they are spending the honeymoon.

DARTS CLUB. 1st Oct. 1937

A darts club, to be known as the Rising Sun Darts Club, was formed at a well-attended meeting on Monday evening. It was decided to play friendly games at home and away, and officers were elected as follows: Chairman, Mr. B. J. Feakin; hon. secretary, Mr. S. J. Wright; hon. treasurer, Mr. E. B. Smart; captain, Mr. W. Wright; vice-captain, Mr. H. C. Bishop.

FOOTBALL CLUB. 1st Oct. 1937

A large number of past and present members of the Swavesey Football Club attended a meeting in the Memorial Hall on Monday evening, called specially to consider the present position of the club. After some discussion it was unanimously agreed to carry on, although it would not be possible to run a team this season. The treasurer's financial statement for the past year showed that all bills had been paid, and that a balance of two shillings remained in hand. The following were elected to serve on a committee to raise funds during the winter months, so that the club could be run as usual next season: Messrs. S. J. Wright and J. Mitham (joint secretaries and treasurers), Messrs. P. H. Lee, G. Oakman, W. J. Kester, W. Wright, S. Clark and A. E. W. Melbourne. The meeting closed with votes of thanks to Mr. P. H. Lee for presiding, and to Mr. S. Clark for storing the goal posts and nets.

HARVEST FESTIVAL. 1st Oct. 1937

The harvest thanksgiving services were held at Bethel Baptist Church on Thursday week, the special preacher being Pastor P. H. Crees, of Over. An exceptionally good congregation was present, including many friends from Over, Yelling, Cambridge, etc. The first part of the service was conducted by the Pastor, and prayer was offered by Pastor H. A. Hall, of Yelling. Taking as his text St. John vi., 35, Pastor Crees gave a helpful address on the "Bread of Life." Later in the evening a harvest home supper was attended by a good company of friends. The collection and proceeds of the supper, amounting to five guineas, was for the church funds. The services were continued on Sunday, when the preacher was the Rev. A. Burton, of Teversham, who spoke in the morning on the "Gift of God," and in the evening on the "Love of God." At an afternoon service, presided over by Mrs. Tilling, Mr. Burton spoke to the children and young people upon the Good Shepherd. SWAVESEY AND IMPINGTON COLLEGES. 12th Oct. 1937

Cambs. Education Committee meeting.

The sub-committee also received the following letter from the Board of Education:-

The Board have given careful consideration to the authority's proposals for the reorganisation of the Swavesey-Cottenham-Histon district, and in view of the scattered nature of the population they are prepared to approve in principle the authority's proposal to provide for the seniors of the western end of it by building a new village college at Swavesey, subject to satisfaction of the requirements of Sections 18 and 19 of the Education Act, 1921.

The Board also agree with the authority's decision that it is desirable that Impington Village College should be erected as soon as possible.

The Board note that the authority are proposing to make attendance at Impington Village College optional for the senior children of Cottenham. They are of opinion that it would have been educationally more satisfactory to have provided for the whole of the Cottenham senior children at Impington. They appreciate, however, the authority's desire, in view of local feeling, to proceed tentatively, and therefore do not propose to take exception to an optional alternative for the time being.

The Chairman remarked that it was expected that the tenders would be received in the next week or two.

FOR LAND SETTLEMENT CHILDREN.

Regarding Fen Drayton Council and Swavesey Council Schools, the sub-committee received the report of a special sub-committee, consisting of the Chairman (Councillor A. R. Fordham) and Councillor P. J. Watts, who visited these two schools on 11th June, 1937, together with a report of the Buildings Sub-Committee, with regard to the accommodation of the Land Settlement children at Fen Drayton.

It was resolved (1) that, subject to the approval of the Board of Education, a temporary timber-framed classroom be erected on the site of the recently demolished teacher's house at Fen Drayton Council School at an estimates cost of £250, and that the expenditure be met from the amount of £500 included in the estimates for improvements to Council schools; (2) that Councillor Watts be asked to interview the owner of orchard land behind Fen Drayton School, and to report to the sub-committee as to the possibility of purchasing land for an extension of the playground and possible permanent extensions to the school premises, and (3) that the hire of the Memorial Hall at Swavesey be continued in order to provide temporary accommodation for the senior children at Swavesey Council School, and that one of the rooms at the old school be fitted up as simply as possible for classes in woodwork and domestic subjects.

The sub-committee received a letter from the Board of Education giving approval to the erection of a timber-framed classroom to provide additional accommodation, subject to the provision of additional offices.

It was resolved that a further report be made to the sub-committee at their next meeting regarding the acquisition of a piece of land at the back of the school as a site for new offices and an extension of the playground.

A letter from the Chesterton Rural District Council respecting the proposal of the County Council to close the Isolation Hospital at Oakington, all infectious cases from the rural district in future to be treated at the Borough Isolation Hospital in Mill-road, Cambridge, gave rise to a long discussion, and eventually, on the motion of Mr. A. P. Payne, seconded by Mr. C. Dean, it was unanimously agreed that the Parish Council should support the Rural District Council's opposition to the scheme. At the meeting of the Council in July permission was granted the Coronation Celebrations Committee to erect three swings on the Recreation Ground for the use of children. The committee now found that their surplus funds were not sufficient to provide swings, and they asked to be allowed instead to give an extra seat, the cost of fixing it to be borne by the Council. Three councillors voted for the amendment and two for Mr. Cole's proposition. The amendment was, therefore, declared carried. CAMBS. BABY'S DEATH. 3rd Dec. 1937

Succumbs to Head Injury.

Injured by a piece of metal on Sunday evening, a 20-months old Cambs. baby died in Addenbrooke's Hospital shortly after admission.

The child was Dennis Oakman, whose parents live at School-lane, Swavesey. It is understood that a metal object thrown up into the air accidentally fell on the baby's head.

The inquest has not yet been arranged.

TRAGEDY OF IRON BAR. 3rd Dec. 1937

How Cambs. Baby Was Fatally Hurt.

How a Cambs. baby was fatally injured, while at play, by an iron bar let fall by his brother was described at Addenbrooke's Hospital on Wednesday.

The inquest, held by the Borough Coroner, Mr. W. R. Wallis, was on Dennis Oakman, aged 19 months, of School-lane, Swavesey.

George Oakman, of School-lane, Swavesey, a petrol roller driver, employed by the Cambs. County Council, gave evidence of identification.

His wife, Gladys May Oakman, of the same address, said that on Saturday morning three of her children, including Dennis, were out at play near the house. They were burning rubbish. Her fourth son, Keith, was holding a piece of iron, a bedstead bar (produced).

Raymond, another son, subsequently brought Dennis into the house. There was a small wound on the side of his head. Witness sent for the doctor and the nurse.

CHILD BECAME UNCONSCIOUS.

The child seemed restless that night, and witness lifted him into her bed. Next morning he had a fit and became unconscious. She sent for the doctor again and he told her to send the child straight to hospital.

The next witness was Dennis's 12-years-old brother, Raymond. He said that while he and his brothers were playing round a small bonfire, Keith, who was holding the bar of iron referred to – one end of it being on the ground and the other in his hand – said he would go and fetch some more paper. He let the bar fall and it struck Dennis's head.

He was certain that Keith did not lift the bar off the ground before dropping it. He did not see if Dennis was bending forward.

Dr. G. A. Hart, house surgeon at Addenbrooke's, said that Dennis was unconscious when admitted. The brain was injured. An operation was performed and the wound explored. There was a punctured wound which had pierced the skin and the skull bone. The brain was lacerated. The cause of death was cerebral laceration. The head was pierced to a depth of about an inch.

The Coroner said that from the evidence Dennis must have been leaning forward at the time the accident happened, otherwise the height of the child and of the bar did not correspond at all.

He returned a verdict of "Accidental death," from cerebral laceration due to an injury to the head.

The funeral is taking place to-day (Friday), at 2.30.

SWAVESEY MAN FINED £20. 17th Dec. 1937

Condemned Meat Prosecution.

“FOR DOGS AT CAXTON KENNELS.”

Heavy penalties were imposed on a Swavesey slaughterer by the Cambs. Divisional Justices on Saturday.

In this case Capt. F. Johnson did not adjudicate.

Defendant was R. W. , High-street, Swavesey, and the summons alleged that he had in his possession meat for the purpose of sale, or of preparation for sale, and intended for the food of man, the meat having been lawfully seized and adjudged diseased and unfit and condemned, and ordered to be destroyed. Defendant pleaded not guilty.

Mr. W. H. Kester prosecuted on behalf of the Inspector of Nuisances of Chesterton Rural District Council, and Dr. S. J. Peters, M.P., was for the defendant.

Eric Benjamin Newman, sanitary inspector, in the employ of the Chesterton Rural District Council, said that on November 2nd he went to defendant's premises on a routine visit. A cow had been slaughtered, and was in the process of being dressed. It was diseased, and he detained it for a further inspection.

TUBERCULOSIS.

Later in the day he condemned the whole carcase and all the offal because of tuberculosis. Another inspector and N., defendant's slaughterman, were present. He told N. of his decision and left the carcase for defendant to see.

He received a message by telephone from defendant at 4.45 p.m. He said he had seen the carcase and agreed that it was not fit for food. He asked if he might keep it and sell it to a knacker, as he might get £1 or £2 for it. Witness told defendant that there would be no objection, provided he told him where the carcase had gone.

On November 3rd he went to Mr. Munn's knackery at Fen Stanton and found there was no trace of the hindquarters. As a result he returned to defendant's premises. No one was there. He could find no trace of the hindquarters. N. arrived and there was a conversation. N. said that all the carcase had gone to Munns', and that he saw it all go. He denied all knowledge of the whereabouts of the rest of the carcase. He also said that he was working until 8 p.m. on November 2nd, and was there at 7 a.m. on the 3rd. He did not know where the hindquarters were.

HINDQUARTERS IN GARAGE.

About 4 p.m. he went back to Swavesey and at 4.30 saw defendant. He said the carcase went to Mr. Munns', and that all of it went. He told defendant that the hindquarters did not arrive there, but he maintained the whole carcase went. Defendant eventually admitted that he had the hindquarters, and showed them in the rear of a private garage on the other side of the road. The udders had been removed, and the meat had been trimmed up just as it would be for sale. They were the same hindquarters. A magistrate was fetched.

W. then told witness he wanted to sell the hindquarters for dogs' meat. He had not mentioned that before. If meat was being used for dogs, it was not treated in the same way.

The meat was later destroyed.

Cross-examined, witness did not agree that at Caxton dog kennels it would be necessary to use dressed meat. He had known "rough stuff" to be used there.

Defendant concealed where the meat was; he (witness) did not know who put the hindquarters in the garage.

Peter Frank King, assistant sanitary inspector to Chesterton Rural District Council, gave evidence that on November 2nd he went to defendant's slaughterhouse at 7.30 p.m. He saw Mr. Munns' lorry there and saw the forequarters being loaded. The remainder was in the slaughterhouse. He told defendant all the beast must be removed, and Freeman said if witness went into his premises the next day he would see the whole lot in the boiling pot.

William Freeman, employee of Mr. Munns, a knacker, said that he went to defendant's premises to collect a carcass of beef. Defendant and his man were present. An inspector arrived and said the whole carcass had to go on the lorry. N. cut the forequarters off and put them on the lorry, with the head and the offal. He said, "Leave them to-night, and I will ring you in the morning if I want you to fetch them," referring to the hindquarters.

William Sawyer, butcher, of Sutton, said that he went to defendant's slaughterhouse at 7 a.m. on November 3rd to collect a side of beef. A pair of hindquarters was hanging in the slaughterhouse; it was dressed.

Answering Dr. Peters, witness said that defendant did not attempt to sell him the diseased meat.

"ASKED INSPECTOR ON THE PHONE."

Defendant, in the witness-box, said that Sawyer came to him on November 1st or 2nd to purchase meat. Witness sold him a side of beef, and later told him he had to kill another because an inspector had condemned the meat intended for Sawyer. He asked the inspector on the phone if he could sell the meat for dogs' meat. He told the inspector that he was going to send some of the meat to Caxton.

Witness said he took the hindquarters to the garage about 7.15 a.m. on November 3rd. N. dressed them. When he sold dogs' meat to Caxton Kennels he did not usually dress it. They would trim it up a bit. The meat in question was properly dressed.

On November 2nd he was away all day at Leicester, and when he came back saw the inspector. He told him the hindquarters were in the garage; he did not conceal where the hindquarters were.

He did not offer the meat for sale to anyone. He had sent quite a lot of diseased meat to Caxton Kennels.

In cross-examination, defendant said that the kennels did not order their meat. When he had meat he took it there. He would not have told them it was condemned.

"I don't think the dogs mind if they eat tubercular meat," said defendant.

In further answers, defendant admitted that the meat was not fit for human being to eat. The inspector was telling lies if he said that anything was mentioned over the phone about dogs' meat. He did not hear the inspector say that the whole carcass was to be loaded.

The Chairman (his Honour H. G. Farrant) announced that the magistrates had decided to convict.

PREVIOUS CONVICTIONS.

Supt. Allen said that in June, 1933, defendant was charged with moving swine without a licence, and the case was dismissed on payment of costs. In February, 1935, he was fined £5 and 10s. costs for slaughtering certain animals without notifying the local authority. On December 5th, 1936, he was fined £10, expenses, and advocate's fee for exposing for sale certain meat unfit for human consumption. At the same court, for failing to give notice that the animal was diseased or unsound, he was fined £20.

The Chairman: The question arises as to whether his slaughterhouse licence should be revoked.

Mr. Kester said the magistrates had power to revoke the licence and disqualify any portion of the premises used as a registered slaughterhouse. A letter had been received from the defendant by the Council in which he said: "I have given up the butchering business and my son has taken over from December 1st, 1937. Will you please transfer the licence to him?"

If he had thrown the licence in there was no licence attaching to these premises. The position was extremely obscure.

Dr. Peters said the offence had nothing to do with the slaughterhouse. If the licence was taken over by the son the point did not arise.

Defendant was fined £20 and ordered to pay £1 3s. 6d. expenses and £3 3s. advocate's fee. There was no revocation of the licence.

Sergt. Gilbey said that at 9.30 a.m. he was at Boxworth End, Swavesey, with Mr. Prest, a traffic examiner. He stopped a vehicle driven by P. and owned by S. At 25 m.p.h. with the foot-brake applied the vehicle stopped in 128ft. with the hand-brake in 309 ft. The hand-brake was useless. P. said that he had told S. several times about the brakes being not good, and alleged that S. had driven the vehicle in that condition.

Witness said that he saw S. and told him of the tests and their result. S. said, "I know the brakes are bad. I had an accident at Madingley last Tuesday." When told he would be reported, S. said, "I expect it will cost me two or three pound."

He examined the brake shoes and found that in six out of the eight the linings had worn away. He issued an immediate prohibition order because of the dangerous condition of the vehicle.

Grave Charge Fails at Assizes.

At Hertford Assizes on Wednesday, E. E. L. (34), of Boxworth End, Swavesey, engineer and general labourer, was found not guilty of grave offences against a girl under the age of 16.

Offences were alleged to have taken place at Swavesey between September, 1934, and January, 1938.

Accused, who was represented by Mr. Boyd Carpenter, pleaded not guilty.

Mr. G. Frampton prosecuted.

Evidence for the prosecution was given by the girl, her mother, Dr. J. Hart and P.S. Gilbey.

Accused denied ever being intimate with the girl.

Mr. Carpenter, addressing the jury, stressed the need for corroboration of the girl's story, which he said was the basis of the prosecution but which was riddled with improbabilities.

Mr. Justice Branson, summing up, warned the jury of the danger of acting on the uncorroborated evidence of the girl. It was a charge which could very easily be made against a man, because by their very nature, such things only took place when no one else was present.

After an absence of about 20 minutes the jury returned their verdict as stated, and L. was acquitted.

DANGER BY THE RIVER. 4th March 19328

A correspondent writes: In June, 1936, attention was called in the "Independent Press and Chronicle" to the unsafe condition of the handrail on the sluice gates at the river end of Covill's drain. The question was also asked as to when the footbridge over the drain would be re-erected. As regards the latter, it was pointed out that the Parish Council in February, 1936, when replying to a communication from the County Council respecting footpaths in the parish, recommended that the bridge which had disappeared should be replaced. Two years have elapsed, but nothing whatever has been done in regard to the bridge, and the hand-rail on the sluice gates has gone, and unless pedestrians perform the risky Blondin trick of walking on the top of the gates, all access along the river bank is cut off at Covill's drain. During the summer months hundreds of men, women and children go to the river for a pleasant walk, or to picnic. To walk across the sluice gates is extremely dangerous.

25 YEARS AGO. WEEK ENDING MARCH 7th, 1913. 4th March 1938

Disastrous Fire at Swavesey.

The fire fiend reigned supreme at Swavesey for about two hours on Monday afternoon, and enormous damage was done to cottage property and workers' tenements at Church End. Many families were rendered homeless, and in many cases the poorer inhabitants lost the little all they possessed. Swavesey presents a sorry picture at the moment; blackened walls and charred debris are the relics of what were originally 29 thatched cottages, barns, buildings, and so forth. The suddenness of the outbreak and rapid succession of events practically put the villagers in a panic. Just before 2 o'clock fire broke out at Mr. George Hephher's house, through, it is supposed, a spark settling on the thatched roof. The wind was blowing a gale at the time, and fiercely burning masses of thatch were whirled and scattered in all directions. Mr. A. Prime's house, which adjoins that of Mr. Hephher, was speedily involved in flames and huge sparks were blown across the road to Mr. Williamson's premises, which became ignited, and within minutes premises on the farther side of the main street near the Little Rose Inn were alight. All the thatched cottages on both sides of the main street at Church End were eventually destroyed. The damage is estimated at about £10,000. The disaster has come with the greatest hardship on the village, as Swavesey was one of the places which suffered so severely from the abnormal floods during harvest time last year and also during the late autumn.

GIRL GUIDES' WHIST DRIVE. 11th March 1938

The refreshments at the Girl Guides' whist drive at Mrs. C. S. Hepher's house on March 1st were under the charge of Patrol Leaders L. Key and J. Hepher, assisted by Girl Guide Joan Mitham and Miss Joyce Willson, and not as stated in the report of the drive last week.

Only two persons attended, and after waiting for about three-quarters of an hour, Mr. Clements decided not to give the lecture.

Suggestions for the outing were discussed, a trip to King's Lynn, Sandringham and Hunstanton being suggested. Prizes were offered by members for the competitions at the monthly meetings. A financial statement was presented by the treasurer, showing a good balance in hand. Miss Marshall then gave an instructive demonstration on "Home treatment of slight injuries," for which, on proposition of Miss Willson, she was accorded a vote of thanks. There was a good number of entries for the competition for the best jar of marmalade. Miss R. Gaunt, who acted as judge awarding the prizes to Mrs. H. Wright and Mrs. C. S. Hepher, one of the prizes being given by Miss Gaunt. The roll call on old-fashioned remedies caused much interest. There was a brisk trade at the bring and buy stall, and a considerable amount of money was obtained. The programme for the social half-hour, arranged by Mrs. Turner and Mrs. H. Prime, included a sketch performed by Mrs. H. Prime, Mrs. G. Prime and Mrs. T. Howlett, which was greatly appreciated by members. SWAVESEY MAN KILLED. 18th March 1938

Crushed Between Two Lorries.

Shortly after 7 o'clock this morning Clarence Wagstaff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wagstaff, of Council Houses, Market-street, Swavesey, was killed instantly in High-street, Swavesey, by being crushed between two lorries belonging to Mr. Prime Godfrey, haulage contractor, Swavesey and Godmanchester.

It appears that an empty lorry was being towed by another lorry fully laden towards Boxworth End. When opposite the Memorial Hall the driver of the towed vehicle found that his engine would work, and the lorries stopped. Wagstaff proceeded to unhook the towed lorry, and at that moment its engine started, the lorry jumped forward, and Wagstaff's head was crushed between the two vehicles.

Mr. John Parish, butcher, whose shop is close by, phoned immediately for P.C. Shanks and Dr. J. A. Hart, and both were quickly on the scene.

The inquest will be held at the Memorial Hall, Swavesey, at 5 p.m. to-morrow (Wednesday).

CRUSHED BETWEEN TWO LORRIES. 18th March 1938

Inquest on Swavesey Driver.

“ACCIDENTAL DEATH.”

“He went between the two lorries and bent down, apparently doing something to the chain. Then the second lorry seemed to leap forward and hit him.”

These were the words of a woman who saw Clarence Sidney Wagstaff, 24-years-old lorry driver, of Market-street, Swavesey, crushed to death between two lorries when she gave evidence at the inquest at Swavesey Memorial Hall on Wednesday.

The inquiry was conducted by the County Coroner (Mr. Jasper Lyon) with a jury.

Supt. A. E. Allen watched the proceedings for the police.

Mr. S. T. Miller appeared on behalf of the driver of the other lorry, and his employer, Mr. Prime Godfrey, haulage contractor, of Swavesey and Godmanchester.

Medical evidence was given by Dr. Joseph Adrian Hart, of Swavesey, who said the cause of death was an extensive fracture of the skull. Death was instantaneous.

Douglas Arthur Wagstaff, bricklayer's labourer, of Market-street, Swavesey, identified deceased as his brother.

“JUMPED FORWARD.”

Douglas Bert Fulcher, of Colne, Hunts, a lorry driver, employed by Mr. Prime Godfrey, of Swavesey, said he went to work as usual at 6.30 on Tuesday morning. He drove a lorry with a Diesel engine, and on this occasion could not get it to start, so it was decided that his lorry should be towed by another lorry, driven by Clarence Wagstaff, a steel chain being used as a tow-rope. Witness was at the wheel of his own lorry, which was towed from Market-street towards the school.

“Eventually we got the lorry to start,” he continued, “and then I pulled up a little closer behind the lorry in front to slacken the chain. The lorry at this time was still in gear.

“I then put on the hand-brake and put the engine out of gear, as I thought, but the lorry then jumped forward and crashed into the rear of the other lorry, crushing Wagstaff, who had gone between to take the chain off.”

Supt. Allen: If the lorry was out of gear it would not have moved forward provided the hand-brake was on? – No, sir.

Was the ground level? – There was a slight slope.

Sufficient to make the lorry move forward? – No.

Do you say that you actually had the hand-brake on? – Yes.

You know, if you had done so, the lorry would not have moved forward? – I put it on sufficient to stop it from running forward.

Further answering the Superintendent, witness said by putting the hand-brake on there was no effect on the gears.

PARTLY IN GEAR?

He might have left the gear partly in. He always put the hand-brake on before taking out the gear.

Supt. Allen: What do you think occurred then? – I cannot say.

Were the brakes in good order? – Yes, they were afterwards tested by the police.

In reply to a juror, witness said Wagstaff was not between the two lorries when he eased up to slacken the chain.

Another juror: How long have you been driving? – Six months with a current driving licence and three months with a provisional licence.

Questioned by Mr. Miller, witness said he was quite certain that he put the hand-brake on, but the gear lever might not have been in neutral.

Miss Grace Froment, of High-street, Swavesey, stated that about five minutes past seven the previous morning she was in the kitchen of her house when she heard a noise outside. Going to the front room window she saw a lorry being towed by another lorry.

“Young Wagstaff got down from one of them,” she proceeded. “He went between the lorries and bent down, apparently doing something to the chain.

“Then the second lorry seemed to leap forward and hit him. He fell forward and rolled right over on his back.”

Witness added that she immediately ran outside to see if she could do anything for him.

ENGINE STILL RUNNING.

Samuel John Martin, lorry driver's mate, of Church End, Swavesey, another eye-witness, said he did not see Wagstaff get out of his lorry, but saw him go between the lorries. The chain was attached to the front axle of Fulcher's lorry and to the back axle of Wagstaff's and he would have to stoop to detach it. When the witness reached the scene the Diesel engine was still running, and he remembered making the remark to Fulcher, “For the Lord's sake stop it,” and he did so.

P.C. Owen Shanks said that following a message he immediately proceeded to the scene of the accident. Deceased was lying in a pool of blood underneath the front lorry. The chain measured 13ft. 8ins., and as about 2ft. was under each lorry there was about 9ft. of chain between the two lorries. The brakes of the Diesel lorry were tested and found to be in excellent order.

Without retiring, the jury returned a verdict of “Accidental death.”

Mr. Miller, on behalf of Mr. Prime Godfrey and Fulcher, expressed sincere sympathy to deceased's relatives, and the expression was endorsed by the foreman of the jury, the Coroner, and Supt. Allen on behalf of the police. The funeral of Clarence Wagstaff will take place at Swavesey Parish Church at 2.45 p.m. on Saturday.

25 YEARS AGO. WEEK ENDING APRIL 11th, 1913. 8th April 1938

Swavesey Housing Problem.

Swavesey is now face to face with a very complex housing problem, and action must be taken in the matter very quickly, or farmers and other agriculturists may be met with a shortage of labour. One-eighth of the houses in the village went down before the ravages of the recent fire, and many families were rendered homeless. Temporary accommodation was found for those people, but it is obvious that things cannot remain as at present. Private enterprise is not forthcoming, and the only solution seems to be a scheme from the Rural District Council. As predicted some time ago, the Relief Committee could not set apart money which was subscribed for the relief of the sufferers for the purpose of building houses, and thus aid the local rates. All that the Relief Committee would do – and quite rightly – was to erect four cottages for old age pensioners. About 20 houses are required, and in addition to the four pensioners' cottages six have already been promised. It remains for the District Council to provide about ten or a dozen cottages. It was suggested at the Parish Meeting, held on Monday, that some of the houses might be of the two-bedroom variety, but it is to be hoped the District Council will not adopt any scheme of so short-sighted a nature. Two bedrooms may be sufficient in some cases at the present time, but let Swavesey look a little further ahead, and do something to settle the housing and overcrowding difficulty for many years.

At the evening service the choir rendered the anthem, "Hallelujah, the strife is o'er."

so nobly during his absence, and said he was proud to be vicar of such a parish where there were so many willing helpers.

Parish, A. P. Payne and W. Spolton, with the clerk, Mr. Prime Godfrey. Mr. C. H. Parish was re-elected chairman, and Mr. C. Dean vice-chairman. Arising out of the minutes of the previous meeting, a letter was read stating that the County Council could not recommend the imposition of a speed limit through the village, and on the proposition of Mr. Cole, seconded by Mr. Payne, it was agreed to ask the County Council their reason for their decision. It was also agreed that the parish fire engine and hose should be tested in the presence of the Council at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, April 26th. With regard to the refusal of the Rural District Council to pay for attendance to the clock on the old school, it was agreed, on the suggestion of Mr. Cole, seconded by Mr. Payne, that the bill should be forwarded to the Vicar, as one of the trustees of the building. A communication from the Rural Community Council respecting the method of electing parish councillors was discussed at some length, and the clerk was instructed to reply that the Parish Council were not in favour of any alteration at present. Mr. Dean was appointed delegate to attend the forthcoming conference called by the Rural Community Council, when this, and other matters concerning parish councils, would be dealt with. Mr. F. Hephher proposed that the herbage of the Recreation Ground be not let this year. Mr. Payne seconded. An amendment, moved by Mr. Dean, and seconded by Mr. Hodson, that the herbage be let by public tender, was, however, carried, and it was decided that tenders should be handed to the clerk on or before April 30th. Before the meeting closed attention was called to the defective footbridge at the end of Covill's drain, but it was pointed out that the Parish Council was not responsible for the bridge.

FIRE ENGINE. 29th April 1938

At last week's meeting of the Parish Council it was decided that the fire engine, now about 130 years old, and the hose, should be tested on the Recreation Ground in the presence of the whole of the Council. This took place on Tuesday evening, when it was found that while the engine and hose were in a satisfactory condition, the hydrants in the roads, some of which were also inspected, were far from satisfactory, as the boxes were clogged with dirt and tarmac and the normal pressure of water not sufficient to be of much practical use in the event of a fire.

Mrs. Williamson was appointed to attend the treasurer's conference on May 21st at Trumpington Hall in place of Miss Willson. One of the best demonstrations ever given at a meeting in Swavesey was that on twine mats by Mrs. Hinckes. As the twine comes off orange boxes the cost is negligible and this made the demonstration most interesting to members, many of whom made a start on their mats during the meeting from materials kindly supplied by Mrs. Hinckes, who was cordially thanked. A keenly contested competition for the best buttonhole done at the meeting in 10 minutes was won by Mrs. Hepher and Mrs. H. Prime. The programme for the social half-

The 98th anniversary of Swavesey Baptist Church was celebrated on Thursday week, the Rev. J. A. Ashly, of Longley, Bucks, being the special preacher.

Taking his text from Job, xxxvi., 24, in the afternoon, he spoke of remembrance as a Christian duty. Our fathers, he said, thought grandly of God, and we need to recapture the vision again. Appreciation of God's greatness was always followed by a declaration of it. After the service about 60 friends met for tea in the schoolroom. In the evening, when there was a fairly good congregation, Mr. Ashly spoke from Revelation iii., 22. The offerings were for the church funds. Mr. G. E. Canham was at the organ.

THE FEAST. 3rd June 1938

This has been the village feast week. On Sunday the services at the parish church were of a festal character, and in the evening, when there was a very good congregation, the choir gave an excellent rendering of the anthem, "O, taste and see" (Goss). On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday Market-street was occupied by Messrs. Manning and Sons' Jollity Farm, swings, etc., with a number of stalls and other attractions, including two lady fortune tellers, but unfortunately on Tuesday, when usually there is the largest attendance, rain kept many people away. Three cricket matches for the Swavesey Hospital Cup had been arranged. Those between Swavesey C.C. and Fen Drayton on Monday, and Swavesey British Legion and Barwell's Tyre Works on Tuesday were played, but the final between Swavesey C.C. and Barwell's Tyre Works on Wednesday had to be postponed owing to rain. FETE AT SWAVESEY. 17th June 1938

Nursing Association's Annual Effort.

For the second successive year the annual fete in aid of the Swavesey, Over and Fen Drayton Nursing Association which took place on June 9th in the grounds of Swavesey Manor (kindly lent by the Rev. J. F. Cooksey) was favoured with fine weather. The attendance was larger than last year, but to the great disappointment of the organisers the proceeds, all for the association, did not show a corresponding increase. They were, however, only five shillings short, viz., £30 against £30 5s. in 1937.

The fete was opened by Mrs. Petter, who in a charming little speech, spoke of the pleasure it gave her, a newcomer to the village, to help in any way such a worthy cause, and one that was in great need of increased support. She was presented with a bouquet by Brian Norman, the little grandson of Mrs. J. Norman, of the Manor House, a keen supporter of and worker for the Association.

STALLS, SIDESHOWS, ETC.

The stalls, sideshows, competitions, etc., all of which were well-patronised, were under the charge of the following: Work stall, Mrs. J. Norman and Mrs. C. Dean; fancy stall, Mrs. W. J. Hephher; pound and produce stall, Mrs. Burling and Mrs. Ellwood; sweets, Miss E. Dodson and Miss Parsons; refreshments and teas, Mrs. J. T. Daintree, Mrs. A. J. Norman, Mrs. B. Hodson, Miss R. Hodinnott); darts, Mr. Arthur Kester (won by Mr. Norman Lee); bowls, Mr. U. Thixton (won by Mrs. Lee and Mrs. F. Causer). Guessing competitions: Weight of cake (given by Mrs. Cooksey), Mrs. S. F. Mitham (won by Mrs. S. Hephher); name of doll, "Isabell" (given by Miss Beaumont), Miss Joan Mitham (won by Mrs. C. S. Hephher).

BABY SHOW.

A feature of the fete is always a baby show, limited to the infants born in the three parishes, and for this there were fourteen entrants. Dr. French (County Medical Officer), who acted as judge, reported that the general standard was even better than that of last year. He awarded the prizes as follows: One to three months – 1 Joy Pamela Loades (Swavesey), 2 Pearl Elizabeth Smart (Swavesey); three to seven months – 1 Sidney Ambrose (Swavesey), 2 John Hemington (Over); seven to twelve months – 1 Barbara Mary Lyon (Over), 2 Shirley Day (Over), 3 Leslie George Gotobed (Swavesey). Every child entered received a prize.

FANCY DRESS PARADE.

Among other attractions was a children's fancy dress parade, arranged by Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Harry Prime, for which there were twenty-three entrants. Dr. and Mrs. Petter, who undertook the duty of judging, had a difficult task in allocating the prizes as all the costumes were excellent. The children were arranged in four groups. The following were the prize-winners: Group I. – Phyllis Hepher (Quaker Girl), 2 Victor and Nora Smart (Darby and Joan), 3 June Warrington (Window). Group II. – John Prime (Pirate), 2 Brian Hepher (Postman), 3 Jean Hepher (Nurse). Group III. – June Brooks (Knitting bag), 2 Dorothy Prior ("Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary"), 3 Roger Godfrey and Anne Smart (Jack and Jill). Group IV. – Roy Prime (Butcher), 2 Roy Smart (John Bull). In this also every entrant received a prize.

ENTERTAINMENT.

The parade was followed by a greatly appreciated entertainment. The programme included songs by the Vicar (Rev. C. C. Dickson), Miss Ingle (Over) and Mrs. C. S. Hepher, recitations by Miss Easter, and a sketch, "Daughters and Daughters," by the following members of the Mothers' Union: Mesdames B. Hodson, T. Howlett, Lee, R. Mitham and G. Prime.

Mr. C. Dean was in charge of the gate. Mr. Thixton rendered valuable assistance both before and during the fete.

THE LATE MR. SIDNEY GLEAVES. 17th June 1938

It was with sincere regret that his friends in Swavesey heard that Mr. Sidney Gleaves had passed away in hospital in London on June 9th, after only three days' illness. Born 69 years ago at Willingham, the second son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Gleaves, practically the whole of his working life was spent in London in the early days with Messrs. Harrod, and for the last 45 years at Messrs. Rylands and Sons, Ltd., wholesale drapers, in Wood-street, in the city of London. He was well known in Swavesey owing to his frequent visits during the lifetime of his father and mother, and since to his brother, Mr. W. F. Gleaves – in fact, but for his illness he would have spent the Whitsun holiday in Swavesey. He was unmarried. The funeral took place at West Hampstead cemetery on Monday. The immediate mourners were: Mrs. Edmund Gleaves and Mrs. W. F. Gleaves (sisters-in-law), Mrs. J. Hawkes, Mr. and Mrs. Norris, and Mr. Dyer. His surviving brothers, Messrs. Edmund and W. F. Gleaves, were unable to attend owing to ill-health.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 17th June 1938

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute, which was held in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday, opened with the singing of "Billy Boy," after which excellent reports were given by Mrs. Williamson, of the Treasurers' Conference, Mrs. H. Hephher for work recently exhibited in the handicraft exhibition. Arrangements were made for an outing to the House of Commons on July 6th, and also made for the children's party on June 22nd and the garden party on June 29th, both to be held in the President's garden. An interesting talk was then given by Captain Holmes on "the work of the Cambridgeshire blind," for which he was accorded a hearty vote of thanks. A keenly contested competition for the best bunch of flowers from a member's garden, judged by Capt. Holmes, was won by Mrs. W. Kester. The programme for the social half-hour, arranged by Mrs. Ding, and Mrs. Carrice, included games and dancing. Mrs. Crouch, Mrs. Covell, Mrs. Coulson and Mrs. Carrier were the hostesses for the evening.

Mitham, Swavesey.

CHILDREN ENTERTAINED. 24th June 1938

An enjoyable evening was spent by the children of members of the Women's Institute in the garden of the President on Wednesday. Tea was served by members of the committee at 5 p.m., at which 30 children sat down and thoroughly enjoyed the sumptuous fare provided. After tea, games were enjoyed on the lawn, and afterwards sports were entered into with great zest. The mothers' race caused much amusement, one mother finishing full length on the grass and two others minus a heel on their shoes. At the end of the evening prizes were presented by Mrs. S. Smith, one of the older members present. A vote of thanks was accorded Mr. and Mrs. Hepher for entertaining the children, who showed their appreciation by giving three hearty cheers. Mrs. Hepher, in reply, said it was a pleasure to have the children and thanked all who had helped. The prizewinners were as follows: - Flat races: Over 11 years – girls, 1 Phyllis Hepher, 2 Myrtle Ivett; boys – 1 Don Froment, 2 Bernard Prior; 7 – 11: girls – 1 Dorothy Prior, 2 Betty Walker; boys – 1 John Walker, 2 Leslie Ding; under 7 years: girls – 1 Kathleen Williams, 2 Beryl Prime; boys – 1 John Shepperson, 2 Bert Walker. FIRE AT SWAVESEY STATION. 1st July 1938

High Tension Wires Involved.

An unusual fire early on Wednesday near Swavesey Railway Station involved high tension electricity cables and was the cause of goods trains being delayed or diverted.

It occurred at the top of a pole carrying the high tension wires over the railway on the Beds., Cambs., and Hunts. Co.'s system. Fanned by a high wind, the fire glowed brightly and threw out showers of sparks. There was a constant danger of "live" wires falling on to the railway line.

Owing to some fault in the Post Office telephone system, there was considerable delay in getting into touch with St. Ives and having the current cut off.

THE LATE MRS. J. MITHAM. 1st July 1938

The names of Mrs. T. Williams and Mrs. H. A. Corbett (sisters) were inadvertently omitted from the list of mourners in the report of the funeral of Mrs. John Mitham last week. The Rev. Anderson Wells (brother) was unable to attend owing to illness.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 1st July 1938

Services in celebration of the anniversary of the Sunday School were held at Bethel Baptist Church last Sunday, good congregations being present throughout the day. The special preacher was the Rev. Frank Goody, of Harston. In the afternoon, at a young people's service conducted by the Pastor, various scholars took part, the programme including recitations by Myrtle Ivatt, Hilda Jackson and Maysie Holbrook, a Scripture reading and solo by Sylvia Brickwood, duet by Myrtle Ivatt and Jean Walker. The address was given by Mr. Goody and Pastor P. H. Crees, of Over, opened in prayer. The preacher next Sunday will be the Pastor.

GARDEN PARTY. 1st July 1938

The annual garden party under the auspices of the Women's Institute, which was held in the President's garden on Wednesday, was declared open by Mrs. Cooksey, who spoke of the valuable work done in the village by the W.I. The stalls were well patronised, as was also the appetising tea served attractively at little tables on the lawn. After tea competitions were keenly entered into, and a display of country dancing was given by about 30 children from Over School. These showed careful training, and the dancing was thoroughly enjoyed by the children and onlookers. The Head Mistress (Miss Vermell) and her assistant (Miss Rogers) were in charge of the children. After the dancing the children enjoyed swings and a see-saw and excellent refreshments. Owing to the very unsettled weather the rest of the evening was spent in the Memorial Hall. There the first beetle drive was very much enjoyed, and which was as popular as ever. Mr. C. S. Hephher was M.C. for beetle and Mr. Berryman for whist. The hall was then cleared and a happy evening was spent in dancing, for which Claude Whitham and his boys provided a well-chosen selection of music. At the close Mrs. Lee thanked Mr. and Mrs. Hephher for lending their garden to help W.I. funds. The following were in charge of the stalls and competitions: Gift stall, Mrs. J. Coulson; sweets, Mrs. H. Prime; cakes, Mrs. W. Kester; produce, Mrs. Williamson; white elephant, Mesdames Smith and R. and S. Hephher; dressing clothes peg, Miss F. Kester (won by Mr. C. S. The marriage took place at St. Hilda's Church, Brockley Rise, London, S.E., on June 30th, of Mr. R. Berry, of London, and Miss Olive Hawkes, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John (Jack) Hawkes, late of Swavesey and granddaughter of Mr. W. H. Key.

FELL FROM LOAD OF STRAW. 8th July 1938

Mr. Tom Savage, of Boxworth End, while tying a load of bundles of straw on a lorry on Monday at Longstanton, fell from the top on to the cabin of the lorry and thence on to some bricks on the ground. Very badly bruised and shaken, he was taken home, and Dr. Petter was called in. As far as is known at present, no bones were broken, but it will be two or three weeks before the injured man will be able to work again.

NURSING ASSOCIATION. 15th July 1938

The annual meeting of the Swavesey, Over and Fen Drayton Nursing Association was held in the old school on Thursday week, Mr. H. Edwards, of Over, occupying the chair. The accounts for the past year, which had been audited by Mr. Edwards, were presented and approved. They showed that the receipts had amounted to £221 6s. 2½d., and the expenditure to £213 8s. 1d. It was reported that the nurse had made 3,868 visits during the year. Officers for the ensuing twelve months were elected as follows: - President and treasurer, Mrs. Cooksey; hon. secretary, Mrs. J. Norman; assistant treasurer, Mrs. C. Dean; committee, Mrs. Harry Asplin, Mrs. Harold Asplin, Mrs. Hawkes, Mrs. T. Ingle and Mrs. Silk (Over), Mrs. Burling, Mrs. C. Dean and Miss Elsie Dodson (Swavesey), Mrs. Fred Johnson and the wife of a Land Settler (Fen Drayton). At the request of the Rural Community Council Mrs. Fred Johnson was appointed to represent the Association on the committee of Fen Drayton Village Hall. The meeting, unfortunately, was very poorly attended, those present, almost without exception, being officers of the Association.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 15th July 1938

Owing to the unsettled weather the monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held in the Memorial Hall, instead of the President's garden. The President occupied the chair and a good number of members were present, with one visitor. The proceedings commenced with the song, "Drink to me only," after which a discussion took place with regard to evening classes, folk dancing and rug making classes gaining the preference. Arrangements were made for attending the rally at Trumpington on July 21st, and it was announced that the bus would leave Market-street at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Williamson and Mrs. H. Prime were elected delegates to attend the group committee meeting on July 18th. A demonstration of soft toy making was given by Mrs. Hinckes, of Cambridge, for which she was accorded a hearty vote of thanks. The competition, best use made of two ounces of three-ply wool, was won by Mrs. Freestone. A roll call on household hints in hot weather brought some very useful suggestions. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mesdames Culpin, Ding and Dawson. The programme for the social half-hour, arranged by Mrs. G. Prime and Miss E. Thorp, included a treasure hunt, won by Mrs. G. Froment, and a beetle drive, in which the prizewinners were – 1 Miss L. Melbourne, 2 Mrs. Crouch.

FOOTBALL CLUB. 22nd July 1938

At the annual meeting of the Football Club, held in the Memorial Hall on Friday evening, a good number of members being present, the following officers being elected for the ensuing year: President, Mr. P. H. Lee; vice-presidents (subject to their consent), Rev. C. C. Dickson, Rev. A. Tilling, Rev. A. Beaumont, Messrs. G. E. Canham, W. Crouch, C. S. Hepher, A. E. W. Melbourne, C. Dean, A. E. Holloway, E. C. Bond, J. G. Inglis and Dr. Petter; captain first eleven, N. Hemstock; vice-captain, J. Mitham; hon. secretary, S. J. Wright; hon. treasurer, J. Mitham; groundsman, W. J. Kester. It was decided to enter the following competitions: Cambs. League, Cambs. Minor Cup and Willingham Nursing Cup, and that the subscription should be 2s. 6d. (juveniles 1s. 6d.). A proposal that a supporters' club should be run, with a membership fee of one shilling, was carried unanimously and officers were appointed as follows: Chairman, Mr. Turner; hon. secretary, Mr. R. Hendry; treasurer, Mr. G. Oakman. After a lengthy discussion it was decided to run a second eleven, if the number of playing members allowed.

PARISH COUNCIL. 22nd July 1938

The quarterly meeting of the Parish Council, which was held at the Memorial Hall on Monday evening, was attended by the following members: Mr. C. H. Parish (chairman), Messrs. W. Burton, C. W. H. Cole, C. Dean, F. Hepher, B. Hodson, R. Mitham, A. P. Payne and W. Spolton, with the clerk (Mr. Prime Godfrey). A communication was read from the County Council explaining why, on a report of the Chief Constable, the Parish Council's request for a speed limit through the village had not been complied with. The Parish Councillors notwithstanding remained strongly of opinion that a speed limit was absolutely necessary, especially through the middle of the village where the schools are situated, but, as more than one of them remarked, they supposed nothing would be done until a child had been killed. The clerk stated that representatives of the Rural District Council, who had made an inspection, had reported that the public water supply in the village was not of sufficient force for fire-fighting purposes, and that the village would have to rely on the ponds, which, however, would have to be cleaned out to be of effective use. After considerable discussion, in course of which it transpired that funds were not available for dealing with the three ponds, Mr. Burton proposed, and Mr. Mitham seconded, that the Swan pond should be cleaned out for a start. Mr. Cole moved as an amendment, that the School pond should be attended to first, as it was in the middle of the village. This was seconded by Mr. Dean, and carried. The Chairman then suggested that a small committee should be appointed to ascertain how best the work could be carried out, but no member of the Council was willing to serve, and so the matter was left in abeyance. Mr. Payne mentioned that complaints had been made that the public water supply had on several occasions been cut off without notice to the users, and that serious inconvenience had been caused. The clerk replied that the proper course for the complainants to adopt was to make a representation to the R.D.C. Before the meeting closed it was decided that four seats on the recreation ground should be re-varnished, Mr. Burton undertaking to see that the work was done.

CHURCH FETE. 22nd July 1938

The annual church fete in the Vicarage grounds, which was held this year on July 14th, was much enjoyed. Mrs. Robert Ellis, J.P., opened the fete at 3 p.m., and was presented with a charming bouquet by Little June Brooks. After the opening good trade was done at the stalls and competitions. The whole fete was enlivened by the music of Messrs. Cheesewright's radiophone. Many people, who previously had preferred a brass band, thoroughly enjoyed this innovation, and it was much appreciated. Attractive teas were served on the lawn, and these were supplemented by fruit salad and cream. During the evening a charming play, "The Turn About Spell," was well performed by 20 children, 15 of whom were "tots." The children were trained by Mrs. C. S. Hepher, and showed great credit to her training. A whist drive, for which Mr. Berryman was M.C., was held at the front of the Vicarage, at which a good many players enjoyed an hour or so. Dancing then began, and this time was free to everyone, and was thoroughly enjoyed while there was any daylight. The prizegiving then took place, Mrs. Dickson very kindly undertaking this. The Vicar then thanked everyone who had helped in any way, finishing up with three hearty cheers for Mrs. Hepher, who had undertaken the organisation. The following were the stallholders: New Work, Mrs. Dickson, Mrs. Cooksey, Mrs. J. Linford, Mrs. C. Dean, Mrs. G. Burling; gift, Miss G. Froment and Miss Daisley; china, Mrs. H. Wells, Mrs. E. J. Mitham; refreshments, Mrs. R. Mitham, Mrs. J. Daintree, Mrs. B. Hodson and helpers; produce, Mrs. W. J. Hepher; soap, Mrs. C. Ding; 6d. or 3d. stall, Mrs. Lee and Mrs. H. Prime; sweets, Miss E. Dodson and Miss Parsons; fruit salad and cream, Mrs. W. Kester. Competitions: Bowls, Mr. D. Williams (won by Mrs. C. S. Hepher and Mr. Brittain); Aunt Sally, Mr. B. Hodson; the clock, Master Alan Lee; weight of cake (given by Mrs. Bloodworth), Mrs. G. Prime and Mrs. R. Brooks (won by Mrs. G. Oakman); obstacle race, Mrs. G. Froment (won by Miss O. Nightingale); ping-pong chopsticks, Mrs. F. Causer (won by Mr. J. Mitham); darts, Mr. A. Hepher (won by Mr. Cheesewright and Mrs. C. S. Hepher); Corinthian bagatelle, Mr. N. Lee (won by Mrs. Curtis); weight of a tea, Mrs. S. Mitham (won by Mr. D. Williams); number of windows in church, Miss L. J. Hepher (won by Mrs. E. J. Mitham); cake competition, Mrs. J. Cain (won by Mrs. J. Linford and Mrs. C. S. Hepher); number of sweets in bottle, Miss J. Lee (won by Miss Robertson); clock golf, Miss J. Prior (won by Mr. Cheesewright and Miss F. Warboys); Mickey Mouse bagatelle, Mr. H. Prime (won by Mrs. H. Wells and Mrs. Bloodworth). Prizewinners in the whist drive were: Ladies, Mrs. Brooks and Mrs. Warboys; gentlemen, Mr. Dean and Mrs. Bloodworth. Buttonholes were sold during the afternoon by Misses P. Hephher and O. Nightingale.

DEATH OF A FORMER RESIDENT. 29th July 1938

Mrs. Rosa Alice Parish, wife of Mr. James W. Parish, of Rushden, Northants, and formerly of Swavesey, died suddenly on July 23rd, aged 69 years. In addition to her husband she leaves one son. The funeral took place on Wednesday at Swavesey Cemetery, Mr. Camp, pastor of the Strict Baptist Chapel, conducting the service. The mourners were: Mr. James W. Parish (husband), Mr. and Mrs. Harold Parish, London (son and daughter-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. A. Golding, St. Ives (brother-in-law and sister), Mr. and Mrs. Alf Parish, Colne (brother and sister-in-law), Mr. Jabez Parish (brother-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. G. Parish, London (brother-in-law and sister-in-law). Mrs. Jabez Parish (sister-in-law) was unable to be present owing to ill-health.

PROTECTION FROM FIRE. 29th July 1938

A Resident writes: According to the report of the meeting of the Parish Council in last week's "Independent Press and Chronicle," it would appear that in the event of a fire in the village no water, or at any rate only an inadequate supply, would be available. R.D.C. representatives, it was stated, had reported that the public water supply was not of sufficient force for fire-fighting purposes that the village ponds would have to be relied upon, and that to be of effective use they would have to be cleaned out. The Council, it was said, had not sufficient money to deal with the three ponds, but it was agreed that a start would be made with one of them. The Swan pond was proposed, but an amendment was carried that the pond adjoining the recreation ground as being in the middle of the village should be the first tackled. Then the Chairman suggested that a small committee should be appointed to see how best the work should be carried out, but no member of the Council would serve. And there the matter was left. That this is very unsatisfactory must be admitted. May I, however, suggest that there is an authority in the village that is superior to the Parish Council, namely the Parish Meeting. Perhaps if a parish meeting were called two or three public spirited parishioners might be induced to serve on a committee to have the selected pond cleaned out, and it is within the range of possibility that means could be devised for raising enough money to have the other two ponds put in a condition to be of effective use.

THE QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY. 5th Aug. 1938

BOYS NEARLY CAUSED "BLACK-OUT" 12th Aug. 1938

Stone Throwing at Wires at Swavesey.

Damage caused by two boys might have cut off electricity supplies from Cambridge and several large factories, it was disclosed by a witness at a Cambs. Juvenile Court at the Shirehall on Saturday.

The magistrates were his Honour H. G. Farrant (in the chair), Mr. H. F. Cook and Mrs. Pease.

Two boys were alleged to have been concerned together in causing malicious damage to 17 insulators attached to Pole 289 at Uttons Way, Swavesey, doing damage to the amount of £14 10s. to the property of the Beds., Cambs. and Hunts. Electricity Co., between May 2nd and July 2nd.

Mr. Abrahams (of Messrs. Wade-Gery and Brackenbury, St. Neots) prosecuted for the Company, and Mr. W. R. Wallis appeared for the defence, pleading guilty in respect of one boy and not guilty on behalf of the other.

Leonard Bernard Norman, a linesman, gave evidence as to damage caused to 17 insulators.

Henry John Smith, district manager for the Company, explained the seriousness of the damage, which, he said, might have had the effect of cutting off the electric supply to several factories as well as the town of Cambridge.

INTERVIEWS BY SERGEANT.

P.C. Shanks said that on July 5th he was with P.S. Gilbey, and after visiting the pole and seeing several stones lying in a field not far from the pole, he visited the boys' house and saw one of them, who ran away. He was called back, and after being questioned, said he had never thrown any stones at the wires.

His brother was then interviewed and made a statement, in which he said he was with his brother when they saw two other boys who appeared to be throwing stones at the wires. The other boys ran away when they approached. When he and his brother got to the pole they saw some of the insulators were broken, and after they had thrown several stones he broke one of the insulators. His brother also threw stones, but did not break anything.

The other boy was interviewed and admitted throwing stones, but denied breaking any insulators.

Witness said he had made inquiries respecting any boys who had been there, but had been unable to find any.

Mr. Wallis called the boy who pleaded not guilty, and he gave evidence to the effect that he had not broken any insulators, but admitted throwing stones.

The boys' father gave evidence as to his sons' characters and as to his means.

The Bench found the case proved against both boys, and fined each of them 30s. and 7s. 6d. costs each, the money to be paid by their father.

Mr. Abrahams waived the amount of the damage.

SEARCHLIGHT DEFENCE. 12th Aug. 1938

The detachment of the 346th Company, 36th Battalion, Middlesex R.E. (T.A.), who have been encamped in a field on Fen Drayton-road since July 31st, engaged on searchlight defence, left for Fenstanton yesterday (Thursday).

A SWAVESEY MAN'S PROMOTION. 12th Aug. 1938

B.W.T.A. 12th Aug. 1938

An enjoyable meeting of the local branch of the British Women's Temperance Association was held on Wednesday at the Manor, Swavesey, by kind invitation of Mrs. J. Norman. Owing to the showery weather the proceedings were held indoors instead of in the garden, as originally planned. A good company met for tea. The meeting was under the chairmanship of the Rev. A. Tilling, and the speaker was Mrs. W. Coles, of Cottenham, who gave a practical address, for which she was accorded a vote of thanks, on the proposition of Mrs. Tilling, seconded by Mrs. Laverack. The next meeting will be held on October 18th, when the speaker will be Miss Bressey, a national demonstrator from London.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 12th Aug. 1938

The attendance at the monthly meeting of the Women's Institute on Tuesday was rather smaller than usual owing to holidays. Mrs. C. S. Hephher was in the chair. It was decided to arrange a whist drive and beetle drive for Federation funds on October 20th, to be followed by a social for W.I. funds on October 27th. Final arrangements were discussed for the group meeting at Swavesey on Sept. 22nd. It was also agreed to form a thrift club instead of the outing funds. An excellent demonstration of miming was given by Mrs. Hodges, in which many members took part. The two competitions were poorly supported, Mrs. Williamson winning the prize for a collection of vegetables and Mrs. Laverack for the best bunch of wild flowers. During the social half-hour there was a short whist drive, a word making competition, and a song guessing competition arranged by Mrs. Heasman and Miss L. Hephher. The prizewinners were: Miss Melbourne (competitions), Mrs. Pettitt and Miss F. Kester (whist drive).

PROPERTY MARKET. 12th Aug. 1938

Three dwellings, adjoining, known as York Cottages, sold to Mr. Hephher for £250.

Three lots, comprising 39a. 1r. 21p. of pasture land in Cow Fen, were withdrawn at £400, but afterwards sold privately.

Messrs. Eaden, Spearing and Raynes, of Cambridge, were the solicitors concerned for the vendors.

HARVEST REPORT. 12th Aug. 1938

After the very dry Spring and summer, the winter crops are in a very good average, but Spring corn came in two crops and is rather thin, especially where sown late. Wheat, 7 to 8 combs per acre; barley, 6 – 7 per acre; oats, 10 – 12 per acre. Meadow hay, a very light crop, about 5 to 10 cwts. per acre. The seeds up to a ton per acre. Sugar beet and roots a fair crop.

A few strawberries, but practically no plums or apples, except in one or two isolated orchards. This season is a better one than last, but the grass land has carried very little stock.

Most of what farmers and gardeners have produced has been sold below the cost of production, hence the need for subsidies. – C. Cole.

CAMBS. VILLAGE “SCENE” 19th Aug. 1938

Trouble on Milk Round at Swavesey.

A street “scene” at Swavesey had a sequel at the Cambs. Divisional Court on Saturday, when J. K., of Askew-row, Swavesey, was charged with assaulting Florence Warboys, of Manor House, Fen Drayton, at Swavesey, on August 5th.

Mr. R. H. H. Whitehead appeared for the complainant, and Mr. W. H. Kester represented defendant, who, he said, was out of work, and asked for a certificate for legal aid to be granted.

The Bench decided not to grant the application.

Miss Florence Warboys, Manor House, Fen Drayton, said that on August 5th she was with her mother delivering milk in Askew-road, Swavesey. Witness remained near the car and heard her mother say, “Good morning, Mr. K.,” to defendant. Defendant said, “You are just the person I want to see. You have been gossiping about me.” Her mother denied this, and he alleged that she had lost him a job.

“I’LL GET MY GUN.”

Defendant threatened to throw a bucket of water over her mother, and witness went up to her mother. Defendant swore at her and threatened to shoot her. He said, “I am going to my house to get the gun.”

Witness and her mother left as he was on his way to his house.

Answering Mr. Kester, witness said she drove the car on the milk round. She did not remain in the car on this occasion. She had known defendant for as long as she could remember.

Mrs. Elizabeth Warboys, mother of the previous witness said that when she said “Good morning” to defendant he began to accuse her of being a gossip-monger and of doing him harm. She told him she did not know what he was talking about. He threatened to throw a bucket of water over her. Her daughter called her away, and he said he would fetch a gun. She and her daughter drove away in the car, and witness collapsed in Market-street. She suffered from a weak heart and was very upset by the incident.

She wanted defendant to leave her alone.

Cross-examined by Mr. Kester, witness said defendant was washing in the pail when she saw him. Defendant was not "quite nice about it" when he accused her of gossiping. He threw the bucket down and said he would get his gun and shoot her daughter. Witness said she had not been on the round since the incident occurred. Her daughter had since asked Mrs. Rooke if she had heard anything about it.

This concluded the complainant's case.

Mr. Kester called Mrs. Annie Elizabeth Rooke, of Askew-road, Swavesey, who said she was just inside her door. She heard a "few words" and heard defendant say he would throw some potatoes he had in a bucket. No one said anything about a gun.

Cross-examined by Mr. Whitehead, witness said defendant did not pick the pail of water up to throw the potatoes and did not say he would throw them at him. She did not hear him say anything.

Mrs. Louisa Carter, of Askew-row, Swavesey, said defendant was washing potatoes in a pail at the tap. She heard him say he would throw the potatoes and saw him pick the pail up and set it down in the middle of the yard. Nothing was said about a gun or shooting.

"YAPPING WOMEN."

Answering Mr. Whitehead, witness said she had good hearing. Defendant opened the conversation by asking what "you women have been yapping about me for."

Re-examined, she said defendant was in his usual good temper. Miss Warboys' attitude was cheeky.

On oath, defendant said it was a long time since he had last been in the court.

On August 5th he was washing potatoes at the tap in the road. He had heard that Mrs. Warboys had been talking about him. He asked her about it, and she denied talking about him and went by. When she came back she kept on talking, but he took no notice. He was then attracted by a cattish noise from the end of the street. It was Miss Warboys shouting and bawling, and he thought she told him to leave her mother alone. He told her that if she came down the street he would throw the water over her.

He had not got a gun and had no ammunition.

Replying to Mr. Whitehead, defendant said he did not threaten to get a gun.

Addressing the Bench, Mr. Kester said that they all knew defendant. He had been there time and time again, but since he had appeared on a serious charge he had not been up there.

Mr. Kester told the Bench that defendant was endeavouring to get a job and was behaving himself. Why should he be bound over because these women went along there and -----

His Honour: And yapped?

Mr. Kester: Yes.

Mr. Kester then asked that defendant should not be bound over.

The Bench, after a retirement, decided to dismiss the case.

OBITUARY. 26th Aug. 1938

Miss Frances Daisley, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Daisley, passed away early on Monday morning at her home in High-street. She would have been 64 years of age if she had lived until Wednesday. Miss Daisley had been in failing health for some time, but refused to see a doctor – in fact she had not been attended by a medical man for many years. The bell connected with the clock on the old school was struck 112 times at midnight on Monday, eight times less than on a previous occasion. Is this to be regarded, asks a correspondent, as the clock's protest against the refusal of

Mr. Earwaker also gave a short address in the course of which he spoke of the late Miss Daisley's long years of devoted service to the church and the Sunday School. 25 YEARS AGO. WEEK ENDING SEPTEMBER 12th 1913. 9th Sept. 1938
Champions Defeated. – Swavesey, the champions of Division I of the Milton and District League, were defeated on Saturday by a team representing the pick of the League clubs. The Swavesey innings realised 102, C. Wood being the top scorer with 31. The remainder of the side made only a very moderate show, and this was probably due to the bowling of S. G. Mansfield (Histon Institute) and V. Gautrey (Cottenham). The Rest's innings was conspicuous by the brilliant batting of J. Kefford (Trumpington Institute). He batted together with V. Gautrey for some time, but the latter fell after scoring 30. Kefford reached 124, and was caught out a few minutes before the finish. His total included ten 4's, a 5 and a 6. The Rest scored 192 for the loss of six wickets.

FORMER CAMBS. COUPLE. 9th Sept. 1938

Mr. and Mrs. Jethro Parish's' Golden Wedding.

A golden wedding of interest to many Cambridgeshire people has been celebrated in Manchester this week. Mr. Jethro Parish, of Swavesey, and Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. Benjamin Wilkin, of Over, were married at Over Baptist Chapel on September 5th, 1888. Their married life has been spent in Manchester, where Mr. Parish is a director of J. and J. Parish and Son, Ltd., builders and contractors, but they are frequent visitors to their old homes.

Mr. Parish, who is 79 and a well-known Manchester figure, still attends daily the business which he founded over 50 years ago and which is known in many parts of the kingdom. The firm has been concerned in work for the B.B.C. in Manchester and Wales, and their latest work of this kind is in Aberdeen. Mr. Parish says that building the special rooms for wireless broadcasting is a most interesting part of the business. A great deal of church work has been done, too, and there is a local example in St. Paul's Church, Withington, Manchester, where the firm built a war memorial chapel, which contains some beautiful and unusual carving. There are now two sons in the business.

Mr. and Mrs. Parish still attend regularly the Particular Baptist Chapel in Rochdale-road, Manchester, where Mr. Parish was for 18 years treasurer of the Sunday School, and for 33 years a member of the chapel committee. Mrs. Parish is president of the Dorcas Society at the chapel, an organisation that worked for the soldiers and sailors during the war, and was continued as a peace-time activity for the benefit of people in hospitals, workhouses, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. Parish have four sons, all of whom served in the war, three daughters and nine grandchildren. One son and a daughter-in-law are missionaries in Bolivia, and so were not able to join in the family celebration which was held on September 3rd at the Tudor Cafe, Manchester. In proposing the health of Mr. and Mrs. Parish, warm tributes were paid by the sons and a son-in-law. A bouquet of golden roses was presented to Mrs. Parish from the grandchildren.

On Monday and on Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Parish were at home to their friends, and many people came to offer good wishes. Many other messages and gifts of good will have been received from friends at a distance. They are both in good health and unusually active for their age.

Arising out of the minutes of the recent emergency meeting, it was reported that the local branch of the British Legion would undertake to provide the utility squad, but the Clerk (Mr. Prime Godfrey) stated that he had received no reply to his letter respecting the supply of equipment. A letter was read from the Clerk to the County Council enclosing circulars asking for volunteers for A.R.P. These Mr. Godfrey undertook to distribute. Mr. Payne said he had been asked to inquire whether the Parish Council would allow the use of electric light in the Hall for about half an hour daily during the time the Hall was occupied by the school. The Chairman and the Clerk both replied that the Parish Council had nothing to do with the lighting of the Hall, and that it was a matter entirely in the hands of the Hall Management Committee. During the discussion that ensued it was stated that the committee last year had offered to allow the use of electric light, when necessary, during school hours for 2s. a week, and that the Education Authority had refused to pay that amount. The Council eventually decided that if the light was still required, further application should be made to the Hall Committee. Our local correspondent was subsequently informed that the charge of 2s. a week for lighting mentioned at the Council meeting is the sum paid by the Village Institute for lighting, whereas the charge which the Education Authority refused to pay was considerably larger, and out of all proportion to the electricity that would be used.

He pleaded guilty.

P.C. Yeomans said that he saw defendant riding an Excelsior motor cycle combination, registration No. E.R. 3090, which number witness knew was a number allotted to a Triumph motor cycle. Defendant said the old Triumph broke down, so "he hung this on" referring to the numbers.

Defendant said he did not think he was wrong in hanging the plates on when the Triumph let him down.

Mr. S. F. Culver, inspector of licences, said that the licence on the Triumph expired on September 30th, 1938, and that on the Excelsior on September 30th, 1932. The loss to the revenue was 16s. 7d.

FORMER VICAR OF SWAVESEY. 11th Nov. 1938

Death of Rev. A. C. Vidler at Cambridge.

Formerly vicar of Swavesey, the Rev. Arthur Coleman Vidler died on Tuesday morning at St. Medan's, Glebe-road, Cambridge, where he had been living in retirement. He was aged 86.

The second son of Mr. James Coleman Vidler, of Rye, Sussex, he was educated at Hurstpierpoint School, and later at Jesus College, Cambridge. He rowed in the second boat and was a prominent figure in other college sporting activities.

After he was ordained he became curate of St. James', Clapton, from 1877-83. He was headmaster of St. John-at-Hackney Grammar School from 1879-95, when he accepted the living of Swavesey. From 1883-91 he was a chaplain to the Merchant Seamen's Orphan Asylum, and curate of St. John-at-Hackney during 1891-5.

For four years he was Rural Dean of North Stowe, and in 1912 he became rector of Tewin, where he remained until his retirement in 1930.

His successor to the rectory at Tewin was the Rev. C. F. Stebbing, also a former vicar of Swavesey.

A company numbering over one hundred was present at the dance which was held in the Memorial Hall on Saturday evening, and for which Claude Whitham and his band and Miss Joy Sargent provided an excellent programme. Under the auspices of the Women's Institute a well-arranged social was held in the Memorial Hall on Thursday week. MISCHIEF OR MALICE? 11th Nov. 1938

The 5th November bonfire on the recreation ground, for which the village schoolboys had for weeks been collecting materials was prematurely set alight on Friday evening while most of the youngsters were at the "pictures" in the Memorial Hall. Shortly after nine o'clock two lads were seen loitering near Turn bridge not many yards from the recreation ground, and a few minutes later, two youths, one of whom had been standing at the corner of School-lane, and the main road, cycled away rapidly in the direction of Fen Drayton, passing several people on the way. By this time the bonfire was blazing furiously. Mr. Burbridge, who was passing in his car, gave the alarm, and with Mr. C. Wood (the headmaster of the Council School) and Mr. Ernest Prior, promptly removed the football goalposts, which were in danger of being burned, but the bonfire could not be saved. On complaint being made to the police it was stated that no action could be taken as damage could not be proved. Swavesey boys, however, were not to be beaten. Early on Saturday they pluckily set to work with hand-drawn and hand-propelled trollies to collect bushes and other burnable rubbish, and by the afternoon had built a bonfire as big as the one that had been destroyed, and with this blazing merrily and with an almost inexhaustible supply of fireworks, they spent a very happy time.

ARMISTICE DAY. 18th Nov. 1938

The two minutes' silence was generally observed in the village. At the Senior School a hymn was sung before the period of silence, after which the Headmaster (Mr. C. Wood) read the Archbishop of York's message to children and also gave a short address. This was followed by Kipling's "Recessional," and the National Anthem. There was no service at 11 o'clock as had been the case in previous years.

Poppies were sold in the village by Mrs. Laverack, Misses J. and M. Lee, Mr. N. Lee and Mrs. C. H. Hephher, realising £14 5s. 3d., and making with the collections at the Remembrance services in the Memorial Hall (£1 9s. 6d.) and at the Parish Church (£3 2s. 3d.) on November 6th a total contribution to Lord Haig's Fund of £18 17s., or including the other villages in the area covered by the Swavesey and district branch of the British Legion, a grand total of £27 9s. 10d., about £2 more than last year.

FORMER CAMBS. VICAR. 18th Nov. 1938

Funeral of Rev. A. C. Vidler.

The funeral of the Rev. Arthur Coleman Vidler, Vicar of Swavesey 1895-1912 and Rector of Tewin, Herts., 1912-1930, who died in Cambridge on November 8th, aged 86, took place at Swavesey Parish Church on Saturday afternoon.

The cortege was met at the churchyard gates by the Rev. C. C. Dickson (Vicar of Swavesey), Rev. A. R. Vidler (cousin of deceased), Rev. C. F. Stebbing (Rector of Tewin and formerly Vicar of Swavesey) and the Rev. J. C. Paterson Morgan (Vicar of St. John the Evangelist, Cambridge), Mr. W. J. Hephher (church warden), and the choir. Mr. Harry Wells (people's warden) was unable to attend owing to illness.

During the service, which was taken by the Rev. A. R. Vidler, the Vicar of Swavesey reading the Lesson (1 Thessalonians, iv., 13-18), the hymns "Rock of Ages," "Just as I am, without one plea," and "Let Saints on earth" were sung and the 23rd Psalm and the Nunc Dimittis chanted. Mr. G. H. Skeeles was at the organ. The Rev. A. R. Vidler officiated at the grave in which the aged priest was laid by the side of his wife, who died in September, 1905.

Although 26 years had passed since he left Swavesey it was evident from the large congregation that the parishioners still remembered their old Vicar with affection, and the same may be said of the people of Tewin, seeing that nine of them at least made the long journey to be present.

The immediate mourners were: Miss R. M. Vidler, Miss E. H. Vidler (daughters), Deaconess M. K. Irby, Miss E. M. Irby (nieces), Miss H. M. Beaton, Mr. John Baker (cousins), Major W. E. Collison (godson), Mr. Noel Prentice, of Rye.

A long list of others present follows in the newspaper, as also does a list of beautiful floral tributes.

THE LATE REV. A. C. VIDLER. 25th Nov. 1938

Classes at Swavesey, Over and Willingham.

In Willingham and also in Longstanton, where lectures are still in progress under the direction of Dr. Cane, the response has been no less encouraging, and it is felt that the ground has been well prepared for further instruction in the New Year, when training in home nursing and anti-gas and more advanced first aid lectures will be organised.

Grateful acknowledgement for their splendid help and co-operation is due to the various chief air wardens in the district, also to Sergt. Gilbey and P.C. Shanks, as well as those others whose help has been so readily given.

The Emergency Committee of the Fen Department of the National Skating Association arranged to hold the Morley Cup (one mile, for members of the N.S.A. who have not won their first class speed badges) at Lingay yesterday, but the event had to be called off, mainly because the roads and approaches to the Fen were thick with snow.

The committee had also decided to hold the Duddleston Cup (one mile, for amateurs) to-day, but this event, too, has been abandoned.

The committee made no arrangements with regard to the amateur and professional championships.

Arising out of a communication from the Rural District Council respecting the transfer from the Parish Council to the R.D.C. on the 29th inst. of all matters relating to fire protection, it was decided to recommend Mr. Ernest Mitham, the present captain of the fire engine, for the position of local fire officer, and also to notify the R.D.C. that the Parish Council estimated the value of the existing appliances as follows: Fire engine (an interesting relic by Merryweathers, at least 130 years old) £10, and 100 yards (approx) fire hose and standpipes for hydrants £15. A suggestion by the Assistant County Surveyor that the hydrants should be marked by white posts was left in abeyance in view of the impending change in the arrangements. It was decided to give notice to the captain and sub-captain of the fire engine terminating their engagement. Messrs. Ernest Prior, Bert Hodson, Horace Ellwood and George Hodson were nominated as fit persons to hold the office of parish constable. A letter was read from the R.D.C. respecting the repair of the clock on the tower of the parish church, the clock being a gift to the parish by the late Mr. George Long. With the letter was sent a bill for repairs recently carried out by Mr. E. C. Sebley, 8, Bridge-street, Cambridge, and an estimate for further repairs which were deemed necessary. The latter would require scaffolding, etc. A lengthy discussion ensued in course of which it transpired that the clock, which had been stopped for two or three months, was set going when attended to by Mr. Sebley's men, but stopped again within a few hours. Eventually Mr. Payne proposed, and Mr. Dean seconded, that the estimate be approved, provided a guarantee be given that the clock would be in good order for three years. Mr. Cole, however, considered the estimate excessive, and moved as an amendment that the R.D.C. be asked to obtain a further estimate subject to the condition that the clock should be kept in good condition for three years. Mr. Spolton seconded the amendment, which was carried.

OVER FORTY YEARS ON RAILWAY. 17th Feb. 1939

Swavesey Signalman's Fine Record.

Mr. W. Kester, a signalman at Swavesey Station, retired on Saturday, after over 43 years' service on the railway, and at a meeting held at the station he was presented with a suitably inscribed canteen of cutlery, subscribed for by members of the staff and platelayers.

Mr. T. Dawson, stationmaster, presiding, referred to the event as a milestone in Swavesey railway history. He had nothing but praise for the way in which Mr. Kester had carried out his duties, and the happy manner in which he had worked with his colleagues. His ever genial disposition had made him a friend of everyone.

He was appointed to the service of the old Great Eastern Railway Company in September, 1895, and, apart from a few odd weeks relieving at other stations, worked the whole time at Swavesey, and had been in the signal box since January, 1900. During these 39 years in the signal box Mr. Dawson estimated that Mr. Kester must have dealt with some 320,000 trains, involving about 3½ million lever movements and nearly eight million bell signals. A conservative estimate of the number of telegrams he must have dealt with would be about 50,000. In attending the level crossing gates he must have climbed up and down the signal box steps at least 5,000 times each year, which represents an annual climb to a height of ten miles. He could safely be called an experienced railwayman, and he had a record upon which he could look back with pride.

Mr. S. B. Carter, signalman, spoke of his long and friendly association with Mr. Kester in the signal box, during which never a wrong word was spoken between them.

SUPERINTENDENT'S TRIBUTES.

Letters of appreciation of Mr. Kester's long and faithful service with the company from Colonel H. H. Mauldin, superintendent, London and North-Eastern Railway (Eastern Section), and from Mr. G. Sutcliffe, district superintendent, were read, also from Mr. C. A. Crane, who, as signalman at Longstanton, on the same shift, had worked in harmony with Mr. Kester for 32 years.

On behalf of the staff, the Stationmaster asked Mr. Kester to accept the canteen of cutlery as a token of the regard in which he was held by his fellow railwaymen, and hoped that he and his wife would have many years of good health to enjoy their retirement.

Mr. Kester thanked the staff for their expression of good wishes, and said he would treasure the presentation with pride. He had served at Swavesey under six station-masters, and had always worked well with the staff, and had been on good terms with them all. Although he was retiring from active service he would still take an interest in railway matters, and he hoped that the lean times under which the railways were at present labouring would soon be overcome.

CHURCH BRIDGE. 24th Feb. 1939 should be applied for. This was seconded by Mr. Hodson and carried by four votes to two. Mr. A. E. Holloway was co-opted to fill the vacancy on the Council caused by Mr. Frank Hephher's removal from the parish, and Mr. A. P. Payne was chosen to take his place on the Hall Management Committee. The proceedings were opened by Miss Francis, of Longstanton, who was presented with a bouquet by Brian Norman, grandson of Mrs. James Norman, a keen supporter of the Association. The stall, side-shows, competitions, etc., were under the charge of the following: Work stall, Mrs. J. Norman and Mrs. C. Dean; sweets, Miss E. Dodson and Miss Parsons; pound and produce stall, Mrs. G. Burling and Mrs. Ellwood; fancy stall, Mrs. W. J. Hephher; refreshments, Mrs. Berryman, Mrs. Hodson, Miss R. Gaunt, Miss Grace Thorp, Miss L. Thixton (both won by Mr. Carrington); bran tub, Mrs. C. Ding; doll given by Miss L. Beaumont, Mrs. E. J. Mitham (won by Nurse Claydon); cake given by Miss R. Gaunt (won by Mrs. E. J. Linford). There were eleven entrants for the children's fancy dress parade arranged by Mrs. Lee and Mrs. H. Prime, and the following were the awards of the judges, Mrs. C. Inglis and Mrs. C. Frohock: - Division I - "Gipsy" 1, "Rajah" 2, "Red Cross Nurse" 3, "Mr. Chamberlain" 4, "Pirate" 5, "Window" 6; Division II - "British Workman" 1, "Bo Peep" and "Bubbles" (tie) 2; "Bridesmaids" (2, a tie) 3, "Snow White" 4. A feature of the fete is always a baby show, limited to infants born in the three parishes, but unfortunately, owing to whooping cough, there were only five entrants this year, all of whom were reported by the judges, Dr. Robinson and Miss Graham, L.S.C.N.S., to be in good condition. The judges' awards were as follows: - Group I, 3 to 8 months – Michael Walker and John Hines (equal), 29 marks; Group II, 10 to 12 months – Patricia Blench and Alan Sutton (equal), 29 marks; Group III, Bryan Bishop, 28 marks. There was also a greatly appreciated concert, the first part of the programme consisting of pianoforte solos by Miss Naylor, song by Mrs. C. S. Hepher, piano-accordion selections by Mr. Ingle (Fen Drayton), and a short play admirably acted by Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Laverack. A pageant, "Pandora's Box," formed the second part of the programme. This was given by members of the Mothers' Union and their children, with the assistance of two kind helpers. Mr. C. Dean and Mr. U. Thixton were in charge of the gate.

EXCITING CRICKET AT SWAVESEY. 7th July 1939

Spectators shouted themselves hoarse at the most thrilling cricket ever witnessed at Swavesey on the first evening's play for the Sports Field Shield on Monday, when Swavesey played Dry Drayton and Mr. Hemstock's team met the County Boys.

Only half an hour was allowed for each innings, and it was hit out or get out with a vengeance. Everything was done at the double; at one time the onlookers were treated to the spectacle of two men walking back from the wicket, whilst a third was running to take his stand. Play was so fierce that one batsman threw off his pads so that he could run better, and then split his bat with a mighty hit. When the boundary was hit a new ball was thrown into play, without any loss of time.

The sympathy of the crowd was with the County Boys playing against grown men, and they were wild with delight when the boys, after scoring 57, had five of the men's wickets down in five minutes for 10 runs, and Mr. Hemstock's team, who unfortunately were three men short, were all out for 15 in nine and a half minutes.

It was wonderful to see the sporting way in which all the players were eager to give their batting opponents the benefit of every second, and one cannot help wishing that some of the pep could be introduced into some of our "dour" county play.

Tuesday was the veterans' evening out, the British Legion beating Fen Drayton by 5 runs, and then winning a friendly match against County Nalگو by 4 runs. Owing to the exigencies of business, Prime Godfrey's Transport were unable to field a team, so the Nalگو received a bye into the semi-final. Dry Drayton's record rate of scoring brought them 72 in 26½ minutes against the County boys on Wednesday, and in a steadier match Over could not quite overtake Landbeach.

The semi-finals were played yesterday evening, and this evening will be the final. Results to Wednesday were: Dry Drayton 63, Swavesey 49; County Boys 57, Mr. Hemstock's team 15; British Legion 38, Fen Drayton 33; county Nalگو bye; Dry Drayton 72, County Boys 46; Landbeach 45, Over 41.

GARDEN MEETING. 14th July 1939

There was a very good attendance at Tuesday's meeting of the Women's Institute, which was held at Estelle, the residence of the president (Mrs. C. S. Hepher). During the business part of the meeting envelopes were given out for the distribution in the village for the cancer campaign collection, to take place next week. Owing to the unavoidable absence of a speaker, an interesting talk was given by the President on "My Visit to Ostend," and Mrs. Laverack (secretary) gave a demonstration of the making of wool blankets. This item was much appreciated. The competition for the best bunch of roses from a member's garden, judged by Mr. Arthur Kester, was won by Miss Joan Hepher. The roses were afterwards sold for the sick fund. Brisk trade was done at the produce stall. During the social half-hour games were played on the lawn, and there was a small whist drive, the prizes being won by Mrs. Williamson and Mrs. Ivatt. Refreshments were served by the hostesses for the evening.

NATIONAL FITNESS CAMPAIGN. 14th July 1939

Dry Drayton secured the Swavesey sports field shield by winning the semi-final against British Legion on Thursday week, and the final against Landbeach on Friday. The scores were: Dry Drayton 39, British Legion 24; Dry Drayton 39, Landbeach 22. County Nalگو were unable to play against Landbeach in the semi-final and withdrew from the competition. Mr. Canham, presenting the shield to Dry Drayton, congratulated them on their splendid win, and thanked all the teams for their support in the initial effort for the improvement of Swavesey playing fields, and he hoped the time would come when they could be invited to the opening of the new sports field. The collection taken amounted to £2 16s. The winners were challenged by Mr. Hemstock to a match, the losers to pay 10s. to the Playing Fields Fund. The challenge was sportingly accepted by Dry Drayton, and it is expected that the match will take place one day next week.

BILL-POSTING ON TREES. 21st July 1939

A correspondent writes: Once again complaint has been made of a tree by the side of the main road near the parish church being improperly used for the display of a poster. This time it is an announcement of a political meeting. The tree used is one of a group on the grass verge between the road and the footpath, and presumably comes within the jurisdiction of the County road authorities.

PARISH COUNCIL. 21st July 1939

Two meetings of the Parish Council have been held this week. On Monday evening, when the following members were present: Messrs. C. H. Parish (chairman), W. Burton, C. W. H. Cole, C. Dean, B. Hodson, A. E. Holloway, A. P. Payne and W. Spolton. The Clerk (Mr. Prime Godfrey) reported that no one had yet been found who would undertake the repair of the church clock. After considerable discussion it was agreed that a further effort should be made locally and failing that the makers of the clock, Messrs. Dent, of London, should be communicated with. A letter from the District Council respecting the provision of fire fighting appliances, etc., was considered, and it was stated that one trailer pump would be supplied for use in Swavesey and surrounding villages. The pump would be kept in Mr. Prime Godfrey's garage. At 8 o'clock the Council received a deputation from the Swavesey Playing Fields Committee consisting of Messrs. T. Dawson, G. E. Canham and H. H. Berryman. Mr. Dawson, who acted as spokesman, explained how the Recreation Ground could be improved, and asked for the Parish Council's support of the scheme towards the cost of which the Playing Fields Association might be able to obtain a 50 per cent. grant. After prolonged discussion Mr. Dawson asked that that Committee might be informed (1) Whether the Parish Council was in favour of improving the facilities of the Recreation Ground, and (2) whether the Council would be willing to give reasonable financial assistance to enable this to be done. The delegation then withdrew, and the Council adjourned until the following evening. On Tuesday every member of the Council was present, including Mr. R. Mitham, who was absent the previous evening owing to a misunderstanding. With regard to the application of the Playing Fields Committee, Mr. Payne moved that the Council are in favour of improving the playing fields facilities in the village. This was seconded by Mr. Holloway and carried nem. con. Mr. Cole moved that before the Council could commit themselves to giving financial assistance to the Playing Fields Committee, they would like to be satisfied on the following points: (1) The amount that can be raised by voluntary subscriptions; (2) the approximate cost of the scheme proposed to be laid before the Council; and (3) the names of the persons forming the Committee who would be responsible for the repayment of any loan the Council might raise. Mr. Payne seconded this resolution, which was carried unanimously. Other business included the nomination of suitable men to act as auxiliary firemen, and a resolution that Mr. Godfrey be asked to submit a tender for supplying a motor vehicle to haul the motor pump. With regard to the reception, etc., of refugees in case of evacuation, it was decided to call a meeting of representatives of local organisations to go into the matter.

POLITICAL MEETING. 28th July 1939

Mr. George Edwards, prospective Liberal candidate for the County, gave an address at an open-air meeting on the Recreation Ground on Friday evening. Dr. Woodman, who presided, and Mr. Frank Sykes, Eastern Counties' Liberal Organizer, also spoke.

RED CROSS FETE. 4th Aug. 1939

Swavesey Division's Successful Venture.

The Swavesey Division of the British Red Cross Society held a successful fete on Saturday in the grounds of the Priory, Swavesey, kindly lent for the purpose by Mr. J. Inglis.

At the opening Dr. Petter introduced Mrs. Recordon, who said how pleased she was, as an active Red Cross member, to see the Society so well represented by the local detachments present. After declaring the fete open, Mrs. Recordon was presented with a beautiful bouquet of carnations by little Jean Inglis.

Mrs. Inglis, Commandant Cambs. 12, then thanked Mrs. Recordon for coming to Swavesey, and also Miss Marshall and Dr. Robert Ellis, who were there to judge the competitions which followed later.

BED-MAKING AND BANDAGING.

Miss Marshall then inspected the three detachments present, Cambs. 12, 13 and 26, and judged the bed-making and bandaging competitions held between Swavesey, Over and Willingham. The bandaging was won by the Over team, under the leadership of Miss A. Wayman, and the bed-making by the Swavesey team, under the leadership of Mrs. Shepperson. Miss Marshall remarked on the very high standard of work shown.

The men's first-aid competition was between one team from Cambs. 15 (the local detachment) and two teams from Cambs. 13 (Cambridge). Dr. Ellis conducted an interesting test with great thoroughness, and it was very encouraging to the local team to hear that they had won the highest number of marks. They were under the leadership of Mr. F. C. Haward.

SPORTS AND SIDE-SHOWS.

After an excellent tea, which was arranged by members of the women's detachment, sports were organised, including a variety of races, and two tug-of-war contests, the women's tug-of-war being won by the Swavesey members, and the men's by the Over team.

Music and announcements were carried out during the afternoon by Messrs. Miller's, of Cambridge. There were many side-shows and competitions, all of which were well patronised.

The prizes, all generously given by supporters, were presented by Mrs. Petter, who thanked all those who had helped to make the fete such a success.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

During the afternoon and evening an American tennis tournament was run. Sets were played on the Priory court, and also on Mr. R. Barwell's court (kindly lent). A very high standard of play was watched, and a pair of silver cups was won by Miss Finch and Mr. Betterman, of Cambridge.

CARNIVAL DANCE.

The fete was followed by a carnival dance in the Memorial Hall. Cottage's band provided excellent music from 8 to 12, and Mr. Inglis attended to the duties of M.C. with ability. By 9 o'clock a record crowd was present, and midnight arrived all too soon to end a very enjoyable afternoon and evening.

Mrs. Petter, Swavesey, will be glad if the holder of the programme No. 222 will communicate with her as soon as possible.

FIRE AT SWAVESEY. 11th Aug. 1939

Three Haystacks Ablaze.

The Cambridge Borough Fire Brigade were engaged for nearly five hours fighting a blaze at Swavesey on Tuesday afternoon and evening.

At 4.45 they were called out to Mill Farm (the property of Messrs. Alfred Day and Sons). Three stacks were alight.

The presence of buildings which were near the stacks necessitated a careful watch, and had the wind taken a different direction there is little doubt that the conflagration would have spread even further.

The Cambridge Auxiliary Brigade attended during the evening, but their services were not needed to any great extent.

The Borough Fire Brigade returned home at about 9.30.

THE HARVEST. 11th Aug. 1939

The harvest should be in full swing when this goes to press, weather permitting. Owing to the very heavy rains of late, most of the crops are laid, which will not add to the yield and quality.

Wheat, 9 sacks; barley, 8 sacks; oats, 11 sacks; peas and beans, 6 sacks; not many potatoes grown; sugar beet, good crop and growing strong; hay and seeds, 20 cwts. to acre. A lot of the best seeds spoilt by rain, also the late hay, and there is still a lot to be carted which is not of much value.

Plums, a good crop, except Victorias, but prices very low – halfpenny per pound. Apples a good crop. A fair crop of soft fruits which made satisfactory prices.

This will not be such a good year as last, as all grain yielded much above expectations; although prices were low, the tendency is still for lower. – C.W.H.C.

PARISH CHURCH. 11th Aug. 1939

In the absence of the Vicar on holiday the services at the parish church on Sunday were conducted by the Rev. H. J. Salmon, of Cambridge. From to-day (Friday) until the beginning of September, the Rector of Skerton, Lancashire, who will be residing at the Vicarage, will be in charge of the parish.

After tea (kindly provided by friends for the younger members), with no signs of the rain abating, it was decided to return at an earlier hour the coaches reaching the village safely at 8.30 p.m., many children expressing their thanks for an enjoyable trip notwithstanding the rain.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 11th Aug. 1939

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute, held in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday, was not quite so well attended as usual, owing to the unsettled weather. The chair was occupied by the president (Mrs. C. S. Hephner). During the business part of the meeting it was announced that the amount collected by members for the Cancer Campaign in the village was £5 17s. 8d.

Mrs. Ivatt also gave a good report on the Group Committee meeting which she attended as delegate, and members were reminded of the group meeting to be held at Elsworth on September 20th. Much interest was shown in the demonstration of the repair of men's' and boys' clothes, given by Mrs. Clark, to whom a hearty vote of thanks was accorded. The competition, for the best patch done by a member at the meeting, was won by Miss F. Hester. A lively social half-hour was enjoyed, the programme consisting of a roll call, "sing, say, or pay," and hidden singers, prizes for the latter being won by Mrs. S. Wright and Mrs. G. Froment. Refreshments were served by the hostesses for the evening.

RECREATION GROUND TREE DAMAGED. 25th Aug. 1939

A correspondent writes: A lower branch of one of the chestnut trees on the Recreation Ground was broken last week by lads who, it is understood, were using the tree in connection with a game of some kind. It is suggested that the Parish Council should issue a warning that these trees were a gift to the parish, and that any damage to them will result in unpleasant consequences to the offenders.

FINED FOR FORCING GATE. 25th Aug. 1939

Swavesey Man and the Forty Keys.

B.T., a garage proprietor, of Middle Watch, Swavesey, was fined 7s. 6d. for breaking a 2s. 6d. padlock on property owned by the Ouse Catchment Board, at the Cambs. Police Court to-day.

George Norman, a farmer, of Fen End, Over, said that he had hired the bank of the Ouse from Overcote to Over Staunch from the Ouse Catchment Board for grazing purposes. There was no right of way along the bank. There was a gate which he had to keep in repair. He kept it locked because cattle kept on getting out.

THREE LOCKS BROKEN.

The first lock he attached, the chain was cut. Two other times the locks were burst in.

Referring to the third time, witness said that on July 30th he went to Overcote and saw the lock was in order. By the following day it had been broken, and he communicated with the police.

Answering the Bench, witness said defendant had his horses in Mr. Thoday's field and had other means of getting there.

Defendant: I thought there was a right of way there; there were three or four cars down there."

40 OR 50 KEYS.

P.C. Owen Shanks gave evidence of seeing defendant in respect of the complaint, and he replied, "Yes, I will have a new one fitted. I hope they will not make a fuss about it."

Defendant then made a statement in which he said that he thought he could go there, as he had seen several cars parked there.

He later admitted he had taken 40 or 50 keys to try and unlock the gate.

A fine was imposed as stated.

WATER BY METER. 22nd Sept. 1939

At a meeting of the users of water, from the public water supply, for agricultural purposes, held at the Memorial Hall on Friday, the following resolution was carried unanimously: "That this meeting emphatically protests against the installation of meters for the supply of water to farm premises and for agricultural purposes in Swavesey. It is against the agreement first entered into with the Swavesey Rural District Council, who agreed to lay all service pipes (up to 30 feet) to consumers' boundary, and to keep the same in repair. This liability has now been placed on the consumer, and we consider this further expense quite unwarranted." This resolution, which was proposed by Mr. C. W. H. Cole and seconded by Mr. R. Mitham, has been sent to the Chesterton R.D.C. Mr. C. H. Parish (chairman of the Parish Council) presided.

WEDDING. 22nd Sept. 1939

SWAVESEY'S MYSTERY PLANT. 6th Oct. 1939

During ploughing operations recently at Castle Close, Swavesey, on land owned by Mr. W. Burton, there was turned up a plant which caused some speculation.

Local experts were unable to identify it – it stood about two or three feet high, and had a prickly berry containing seeds – and so it was sent to the Cambridge Botanic Gardens.

From there it was learned that the plant is a Thorn Apple (Datura Stramonium), a native weed. It is, however, grown quite a lot for its medicinal properties, and the seed and preparations from it are sold in drug stores. Large doses, I believe, are poisonous.

The field from which the plant was taken has on one side of it a big mound known as Castle Hill. The land is supposed never to have been ploughed – at any rate, so local historical experts say, not for 500 years.

The mound is held to have been part of the Castle of the Zouchs, who came over with William the Conqueror. (picture in newspaper).

MALICIOUS WOUNDING CHARGE. 6th Oct. 1939

Another Remand at Cambridge.

MAN LIKELY TO RECOVER.

A Swavesey man, charged with malicious wounding, was remanded for a fortnight in custody at the Cambs. Divisional Court on Saturday. He had already been remanded from the previous Monday.

Accused, J. K., of Askew-row, Swavesey, was alleged to have maliciously wounded Ben Thorp with intent to cause grievous bodily harm, at Swavesey, on September 23rd.

“IS HE ALIVE?”

Sergt. Gilbey said that at 2.50 p.m. on September 25th he went, in company with P.C. Shanks, to the house of the prisoner. He saw prisoner outside and told him he had a warrant for his arrest. He said “What for?” and witness replied, “For causing grievous bodily harm to Ben Thorp on Saturday, the 23rd inst.” Prisoner said “Is he alive?” and witness said “Yes.”

When cautioned and asked if he wished to make any statement prisoner said, “I will say nothing.” He was subsequently charged at 3.20 p.m. by Supt. Allen, and replied, “I will say nothing.”

Supt. Allen told the Justices that Mr. Thorp was not about yet and was under medical attention. He had been taken to hospital for an X-ray examination, but did not know the result yet.

The Chairman (his Honour H. G. Farrant): He is likely to recover?

Supt. Allen: Now, I think he is, sir, but in view of his rather serious state I ask for a remand in custody for 14 days. Then I hope I shall be able to complete the case.

When told he would be remanded and sent to Bedford Prison for 14 days, accused said: “There is no evidence offered against me. Why am I remanded in custody? I plead not guilty to malicious wounding and intent to commit grievous bodily harm.”

Supt. Allen: A man has been very seriously hurt, and that is why I ask for a remand in custody.

Educated at the Perse School and Christ's College, Cambridge, Capt. Ellis was called to the Bar in 1916. From December, 1915, he served in the

“IN VERY GRAVE CONDITION.” 20th Oct. 1939

Cambs. Wounding Charge.

When a Cambs. man appeared on remand at the Cambs. Divisional Court on Saturday charged with maliciously wounding, a doctor stated that the injured man will not be able to give evidence for some considerable time – assuming that he does recover.

Accused J. K., of Askew-row, Swavesey, was charged with maliciously wounding Ben Thorp at Swavesey on September 23rd with intent to do him grievous bodily harm.

Joseph William Green, medical practitioner, until October 10th locum tenens for Dr. Petter at Swavesey, and now of 152, Broadhurst Gardens, Hampstead, gave evidence of Thorp’s injuries.

MAN’S INJURIES.

He said that on September 24th he was called to Thorp’s house and found him very shocked. “He had a deep lacerated wound about one and three-quarter inches in length,” he added, “and extending right down to the frontal bone to the left side of the forehead, immediately over the left eyebrow. The wound was extremely dirty and the edges very jagged giving the impression of having been injured by a blunt instrument or perhaps in a fall.”

EXTENSIVE BRUISING.

The doctor went on to say that there was extensive bruising around one eye and to a lesser extent around the other. Thorp complained of severe pain in the shoulder, but there was no definite injury apparent. There was a considerable amount of blood clotted on his face, in his moustache and on his chin, and also over his shirt.

“EXTREMELY GRAVE” CONDITION.

Answering Supt. Allen, witness said he attended the man until October 9th.

Supt. Allen: What was his condition then?

Witness: His general condition was extremely grave.

And from your observation of him on that day is he unfit to attend court to-day? – Oh yes; very definitely.

And would you say it would be some considerable time before he is fit to give evidence? – Yes; provided he does recover.

The superintendent added that that was all the evidence he proposed to offer, and he asked for a further remand in custody for 14 days.

The Bench agreed to this course and the Chairman said accused would be granted legal aid.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP. 27th Oct. 1939

In spite of the inclement weather there was a good attendance at the meeting of Bethel Young People's Fellowship on Monday evening, when the Rev. E. P. Blackaby, of Willingham, gave the address. The audited accounts of the Parish Council were submitted. These showed a balance at the bank of £24. Some discussion arose respecting the use by Mr. George Oakman of the roadway leading to the old fire engine house, and the chairman, Mr. A. E. Hollaway, and Mr. A. P. Payne were appointed a deputation to interview Mr. Oakman on the matter. A letter was read from the telephone authorities stating that arrangements were being made for the erection of a telephone kiosk near the school. A letter was also read from Mr. Barwell (head air warden) informing the Council that, as no gas masks had been provided for little children, Mrs. Page had kindly offered the cellar of her house as a shelter. Mrs. Page had had the electric light installed. Mr. Barwell asked the Parish Council to forward to the County Council the bill for the cost of the necessary adaptation of the cellar, and it was agreed that this should be done. Complaint having been made of the very bad condition of the Hale road, it was decided, on the motion of Mr. Burton, to call the attention of the local committee to the urgent need of repairs to this road and other by-ways in the parish, and also the attention of the County Council to the dangerous corner of Rose and Crown-lane and the high road.

CAMBS. WOUNDING CHARGE. 3rd Nov. 1939

Swavesey Man for Trial.

HOBNAILED BOOTS IN COURT.

"Might have been kicked by them."

Ben Thorp, the 69-year-old Swavesey man, who suffered severe injuries following an argument at Swavesey on the night of September 23rd, is still in a very serious condition.

This was revealed at Cambs. Divisional Court on Saturday, when his alleged assailant, J. K., of Askew-road, Swavesey, was brought up in custody for the fourth time and accused of maliciously wounding him.

Accused was represented by Mr. W. R. Wallis.

In his younger days Thorp was a well-known local skater.

During the course of the hearing a pair of heavy hobnailed boots were produced in Court, and it was suggested that the injuries to Thorp might have been inflicted by these.

A policeman sat beside K. in the dock throughout the case.

Shortly after 4 o'clock his Honour H. G. Farrant committed K. for trial and he will appear at Herts. Assizes on November 7th.

"HIGH LANGUAGE"

Thomas Howlett, a special constable, of High-street, Swavesey, said that about 9.50 p.m. he saw accused walking towards the Old School. In reply to a question accused said, "I am just going for a walk." Witness walked beside him, and accused was wearing heavy boots with nails. They stopped at the school and had a talk, accused using rather high language.

"He was running the Home Secretary down and running the schoolmaster down," witness remarked.

Continuing, witness said it was a moonlight night, and while they were talking Ted Brasher and Mrs. Whybrow came up, the last-named stopping with witness and accused. Later Mrs. Whybrow and witness left K. and walked towards witness's house. At that time accused was talking to Ben Thorp, who had come from the direction of Turn Bridge.

Witness said he thought he heard K. say, "What have you been talking about me, Ben?"

When witness had nearly reached Turn Bridge he heard the noise of scuffling, and looking back he saw someone lying on the road. K. was standing near by. "MORE CROSS THAN USUAL."

Mrs. Ada Whybrow, 7, Council Houses, School-lane, Swavesey, described meeting K. and saying to him, "What are you doing this way?" He said, "It is a ----- free country to go where you like."

He looked more cross than usual. After bidding each other good-night she left with Mr. Howlett towards Turn Bridge. Mr. Thorp came along just before they left. Mr. K. walked off the kerb to meet Mr. Thorp, but witness did not hear what he said. Mr. Thorp was in the roadway at the time.

"As I was going towards Turn Bridge I heard a thud," she continued. "I looked back, but couldn't see anything."

Cross-examined by Mr. Wallis, witness said that accused wore a pleasant expression as a rule.

DOCTOR'S EVIDENCE.

Dr. Joseph William Green, now residing at 152, Broadhurst Gardens, Hampstead, said that from September 4th to October 10th he was residing at Swavesey and was locum tenens for Dr. Petter there. On Sunday, September 24th, he was called to the house of Ben Thorp in Swavesey. He saw Thorp in bed, examined him and found that he was very shocked, that he had a deep lacerated wound about 1¾ inches in length, extending down to the bone on the left side of his head over his left eyebrow. The wound was very dirty.

Continuing, witness said there was extensive bruising around the right eye and, to a lesser extent, round the left eye. There was considerable pain in the left shoulder, but no definite injury was apparent. There was a considerable amount of clots of blood on the face around the wound and in the moustache, and blood was spattered over his shirt. Witness excised all the dirty tissue around the wound, disinfected it and inserted three stitches. He applied lotion round the eyes, gave him a sedative and left him comfortable.

Supt. Allen: With regard to the cause of the wound. Was it the result of a sharp or a blunt instrument? – It could have been caused by a blunt instrument.

Supt Allen: Could the wound have been caused by either one of these? He held up a pair of heavy hobnailed boots.

Witness examined them and then said: "I should say he might have been kicked by these toes or these heels."

Continuing, witness said he was called to see Thorp at 3 a.m. on September 25th. He was semi-delirious, had removed the bandage and dressing from his wound, and refused to stay in bed. He had some slight haemorrhage from the nose and from the mouth, and complained of a very bad pain in the right shoulder.

Witness gave him an injection and he fell asleep.

CONDITION "CRITICAL."

Witness added that he attended Thorp daily up to October 9th. Some days he attended twice, and on one occasion three times. His condition improved slightly up to October 6th, after which he took a turn for the worse, showing all the signs of haemorrhage on the brain. This affected his nervous system, and on that date he became semi-comatose, gradually getting worse. When witness saw him on the 9th his condition was extremely grave.

The Chairman: Did he speak to you at any time?

Witness: He spoke to me once during the early part of the treatment, but in the last ten days he hardly recognised me.

In witness's opinion the haemorrhage on the brain was caused by the same violence as that which caused the wound. His general condition was that of a fairly healthy man. He was 69 years of age.

Witness said he had examined Thorp at Swavesey that morning. He found him in bed.

"His condition was critical and he has developed a partial paralysis of his left arm," continued witness.

Supt. Allen: Could you say the earliest time he will be able to give evidence?

Witness: Judging from his condition, he will not be fit to give evidence for about five weeks.

There is no question of leaving his bed for a number of weeks? – No. It might be possible to take a statement from him.

Cross-examined by Mr. Wallis, witness agreed that the blow might have been caused by a stone on the road.

LYING ON GRASS.

Stating that he was on his way home at the time of the alleged incident, Claud Joseph Harry Nightingale, 5, School-lane, Swavesey, described how he saw a man standing over another man who was on the ground.

"He was lying on the far side of the road on the grass verge. I think the other man was K.," he added, later modifying his statement to "I am sure it was K." K. said "Get up Ben, get up Ben." Witness stayed a minute or so and then continued walking towards his home.

(some of the evidence is missing from the newspaper selection).

Continues as:

Evening concerned. He stood near Mr. Dean's house, about forty yards from High-street.

"I heard an argument proceeding from High-street," he added.

The Chairman: Did you hear the subject of the argument?

Witness: I thought it was about politics but I am not certain.

One man's voice was much louder than the other and he heard somebody say something about this being a free country and everybody having a right to speak.

Later he heard a woman's voice joining in the conversation.

"NOW WILL YOU LISTEN."

After that he heard the sound of a blow and somebody remarked, "Now will you listen." Witness continued:

"I heard several blows struck after that. I then walked to the top of the lane to see what was happening. Lying half way on the grass and half on the road was a man. His head was on the grass.

Another man stood about two feet away from him.

About the same time witness saw two other men and he spoke to one of them. Directly after that he saw a man go up to the man who was lying down and say to him, "Now, Ben, pull yourself together."

"I went across the road," continued witness, "and asked the man who was standing up, if Mr. Thorp had been fighting, and he said he did not know.

Witness then pointed to the accused sitting in the dock as the man who was standing up.

Continuing his story witness said that he and K. helped Thorp to his feet; he could not have stood up without help and was only just conscious.

"I knew he must have been bleeding because there was blood on my clothes when I got home," he added.

"IS HE ALIVE?"

Sergt. Claude Gilbey (Longstanton) said that at 2.50 p.m. on September 25th, he went to K.'s residence in Swavesey.

Before he could caution K. accused said "Is he alive?" Witness replied "Yes" and then cautioned him. K. said "I say nothing." Accused was escorted to the County Police Headquarters, Cambridge, and there charged and cautioned by Supt. Allen. He replied in answer to the charge. "I'll say nothing."

At 8.40 p.m. the same day witness returned to K.'s house. He saw his wife and asked her for her husband's heavy hob nailed boots. She gave witness the pair produced which prisoner was wearing when arrested but which he changed before being taken away.

Cross-examined by Mr. Wallis: All that you can say about these boots is that they were worn on the 25th? You know nothing about what he was wearing on the 23rd. – No.

Witness and Mr. Wallis agreed that the boots were very heavy.

P.C. Irwin Shanks (Swavesey) said he saw prisoner on the day of the alleged attack, at 8.20 p.m., in High-street, Swavesey. They had a conversation and K. appeared quite sober and normal.

On Sunday morning, witness searched the scene of the alleged assault but could find no blood marks.

OUTBURST IN COURT.

For accused, Mr. Wallis said he pleaded not guilty, reserved his defence, had nothing to say and wished to call no witnesses.

Mr. Wallis raised the possibility of bail being allowed, but Supt. Allen intimated that he would strongly object to this.

“You haven’t got much respect for my wife” shouted K. from the dock.

YOUNG PEOPLE’S FELLOWSHIP. 10th Nov. 1939

“Youth” was the subject of the address given by the Rev. Mr. Tydeman, of Godmanchester, on Monday evening at the meeting of Bethel Young People’s Fellowship. Mr. G. Canham occupied the chair. C.C. ROADMAN INJURED. 10th Nov. 1939

Mr. George Hepher, of Swavesey, when walking along the main road through the village, accompanied by two other men, about 7.30 p.m. on Wednesday, was knocked down near the junction of Ramper-road by a bicycle ridden by Mr. Douglas Canham. A lorry, it is said, was passing at the time. Mr. Hepher, who appeared to have sustained somewhat serious head injuries, was taken to Dr. Petter’s surgery close by, and after receiving attention was conveyed to Addenbrooke’s Hospital, where he was detained. On inquiry at the hospital yesterday it was stated that Mr. Hepher’s face was badly lacerated, but that he was comfortable.

CAMBS. WOUNDING CHARGE. 10th Nov. 1939

Swavesey Man’s Previous Assaults.

EIGHTEEN MONTHS SENTENCE.

At Hertfordshire Assizes, at Hertford, on Wednesday before Mr. Justice Humphreys, J. K. (57), labourer, pleaded not guilty to maliciously wounding Ben Thorp, aged 69, at Swavesey, on September 23rd, with intent to do him grievous bodily harm.

“LYING BESIDE THE ROAD.”

It was alleged by the prosecution that the two men quarrelled in the street and that Thorp was seriously injured, so much so, that he was unable to give evidence. Thorp was found lying beside the road with K. standing over him. The prosecution alleged that a wound in Thorp's head was caused by K.'s heavy boots.

Witnesses gave evidence as to hearing quarrelling and scuffling and K. walking away.

Dr. J. W. Green, of Hampstead, who was residing at Swavesey as a locum tenens at the time, said that Thorp had a lacerated wound one and a quarter inches long in his head and his present condition was critical.

The Judge: Is he in danger of dying shortly?

Dr. Green: Every day, sir.

In reply to a question by the judge, Mr. Garth Moore (for the defence) said that he did not wish to make a certain application to him.

Police-Sergt. Gilbey (Longstanton) said that when he arrested K., prisoner asked, "Is he alive?"

"ARGUMENT ABOUT RELIGION."

K. (on oath) said that he had been fairly friendly with Thorp, but they had had an argument about religion, and Thorp had been aggressive ever since. On September 23rd he met Thorp, who pushed his hand against his chest and made an attempt to throw him. K. went on: "I struck out with my left hand in self-preservation, and caught him on the right side of the cheek. He toppled over on the left side of his head." He denied kicking Thorp.

Mr. Garth Moore, defending, said that this affair took place in the black-out and only the two men concerned knew what had taken place. K. had told them frankly all that had happened and the jury had no choice but to accept his account of the scuffle.

"NO EVIDENCE OF KICKING."

Mr. Justice Humphreys, summing-up, said that the story of K. had been heard that day for the first time. With regard to the prosecution's allegation that Thorp was kicked by hobnailed boots there was no evidence of blood on the boots and no evidence of anyone having seen him kicked.

After an absence of 20 minutes the jury found K. not guilty of malicious wounding but guilty on the second count of assault and causing grievous bodily harm.

PREVIOUS ASSAULTS.

Previous convictions were proved against K., mainly for assault, for which he received sentences of imprisonment. In May 1932 for stack firing (four charges) he was sentenced to three years' penal servitude.

Sentencing K to 18 months' imprisonment, Mr. Justice Humphreys said that he was inclined to believe that K. did not intend to do anything like the injury which he did inflict. He agreed entirely with the verdict of the jury. K. was a man who must learn to keep his temper.

SACRIFICES OF 1914-1918 NOT FORGOTTEN. 17th Nov. 1939

Cambs. Services of Remembrance and Dedication.

From the following reports it will be seen that notwithstanding the anxieties of the present time the sacrifices made by our men, and women folk too, during the fateful years 1914-1918 have not been forgotten.

SWAVESEY.

The Vicar (Rev. C. C. Dickson) conducted a service of Remembrance and Dedication in the parish church on Sunday afternoon. A fairly large congregation attended, including 20 members of the Swavesey and district branch of the British Legion, who paraded outside the churchyard gates, under the command of the chairman (Mr. R. Barwell) and marched to the church, headed by the branch standard. The service included an address by the Vicar, the hymns "All people that on earth do dwell," "O valiant hearts," "Lord, while for all mankind we pray," "O God, our Help in ages past," and the National Anthem. The Roll of the fallen was recited by Mr. Barwell. The offertory, which was given for Earl Haig's Fund amounted to £3 3s. 4½d.

Among the flowers placed around the base of the War Memorial Cross in the churchyard was a wreath of poppies and laurel from the local branch of the British Legion.

The British Legion was also represented by 20 ex-Service men who were invited to the evening service at the Bethel Baptist Chapel. The preacher was the Rev. W. H. Tebbit (area superintendent of the Baptist Union). Mr. R. Thoday was the soloist.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 17th Nov. 1939

Excellent congregations gathered at Bethel Baptist Church to welcome the Area Superintendent (Rev. W. H. Tebbit) on Sunday. In the evening the members of the British Legion and their friends were cordially welcomed. Mrs. W. Mr. Rupert Thoday gave an admirable rendering of the solo, "Will your anchor hold?"

BRITISH LEGION. 17th Nov. 1939

The annual meeting of the Swavesey and District Branch of the British Legion was held in the Old Schoolroom on Wednesday week with Mr. Barwell in the chair. The Hon. Treasurer (Mr. Willson) presented a statement of accounts showing a balance in hand of over £16, and the Hon. Secretary (Mr. P. Lee) reviewed the activities of the branch during the past year. Progress, he said, had been maintained, there being 55 members on the roll, including two new members. Two members had left the district and one member (Mr. Skelton) had left for service with the Red Cross. The last Poppy Day collection raised a record sum of £25 10s. 7d. The efforts of Mrs. C. S. Hephher and her loyal team of helpers for Earl Haig's Fund were highly appreciated. The Remembrance Services at the Memorial Hall and at the Church were well attended. Two open and two members' socials and the annual dinner had been very successful. The cricket team had entered the President's Cup Competition beating Over in the first round and losing the second round to Comberton. In the Playing Fields Competition after winning against Fen Drayton and County Nalگو the branch team lost to Dry Drayton. As for benevolent work there had been no fresh application for assistance. Mr. Lee regretted that owing to failing eyesight he would be unable to stand for re-election as hon. Secretary. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Rev. C. C. Dickson; vice-presidents, Messrs. C. S. Hephher, F. Norman, T. Dawson, H. Topham, R. Barwell and Dr. Petter; hon. sec., Mr. T.

POPPY DAY IN CAMBS. 17th Nov. 1939

Increased Collections for Haig Fund.

Flanders Poppies were on sale throughout the County on Saturday (Armistice Day), and there is every reason to believe that the proceeds will equal, if not exceed, the amount raised last year for Lord Haig's Fund. Reports from some of the villages are appended:

SWAVESEY. – Poppies sold in Swavesey brought in £14 13s. 6½., eight shillings more than in 1938. The sellers were: Mrs. Ansell £2 19s., Miss M. Lee £2 4s., Miss J. Hepher £3 16s 6½d., Mrs. C. S. Hepher £5 14s. With the collection at the parish church, £3 3s. 4d., which was also in advance of the previous year, the total amount raised for the Haig Fund was £17 16s. 10½d.

WORDS AT WORK.

S. W., of Askew-row, Swavesey, was alleged to have assaulted Sidney Arthur Wagstaff at Conington on Nov. 7th.

He pleaded guilty.

Sidney Arthur Wagstaff, Market-street, Swavesey, general labourer, said he had known the defendant some years, and had been working with him two months. They had not got on well together.

On Nov. 7th he received certain instructions from his ganger and later saw defendant, who said he had instructions to do some grass. Later, when witness was at Conington Bridge, defendant came up and asked why witness was not coming with him. There were more words, and then he received a blow in the face. He was still under the doctor.

Witness denied, in reply to witness, that he had called W. lazy and good-for-nothing.

P.C. Shanks said that Wagstaff had a lacerated wound over the left eye, which was blackened. Defendant alleged that Wagstaff swore at him and poked him where he recently had had an operation. He also alleged that Wagstaff had called him lazy.

Defendant said he had been discharged by the Chesterton R.D.C., and asked the justices to read four references, all of which gave him a good character. He was bound over for one year and fined £1.

Squadron-Leader Barwell, who is the eldest son of Mr. R. After shooting down the first enemy plane himself, he shot down another in collaboration with two other pilots of the flight.

Squadron-Leader Barwell, it is understood, is to be promoted Acting Wing-Commander.

Recently he was presented to the King, who offered congratulations.

THE SIREN. 8th Dec. 1939

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 8th Dec. 1939

As the 11th birthday party of the Women's Institute on Thursday week had to be held in the Church School there was not room for friends to be invited. The members sat down to tea at 5.30 p.m., when the good things provided included a two-tier birthday cake, given by the President (Mrs. C. S. Hepher). On this were 11 candles, which were lighted by Mrs. S. Hepher, the oldest member present. Mrs. Dawson (vice-president) made a presentation to the President of a flowering plant and brass flower pot from members of the committee in recognition of the work she had done for the W.I. during 1939. BRITISH LEGION. 15th Dec. 1939

Forty members and guests were present at the annual dinner of the Swavesey and district branch of the British Legion on Wednesday week in the Old Schoolroom. The chairman (Mr. R. Barwell) presided. After an excellent repast, Mr. J. Prior proposed the health of the guests, and in reply Mr. W. A. Diver spoke of the good work done by the British Legion for ex-soldiers during the past 20 years, and said that under present circumstances it was more than ever necessary to keep together the machinery of the Legion to look after the interests of the new "old comrades." The British Legion was one of the few good things arising from the Great War. Dr. Lane Petter, proposing the toast "The British Legion," remarked that it must be a matter of great regret to members that the ideals for which they had fought had crumbled. The new generation was carrying on where they had left off, and hoped to make a good job of it this time. The Chairman replied. "The Fighting Services" was submitted by Mr. O. E. Johnson, and Mr. H. Topham proposed that the secretary be asked to write to Wing Commander P. R. Barwell, D.F.C., a son of the chairman, expressing the admiration of the branch for his skill and daring. As Squadron Leader he attacked and brought down several enemy planes off the East Coast, and then re-formed his squadron and returned safely, an action for which he was promoted and honoured by the King. The Chairman expressed the thanks and appreciation of the members for the excellent catering arranged by Mrs. C. S. Hephher and her helpers, Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Willson, Mrs. Dawson, Mrs. Laverack and Mrs. Smith. A vote of thanks was proposed by Mr. A. Willson to Messrs. Collier, Messenger, Lee and Topham for their services in providing entertainment. Letters of regret were read from Rev. C. C. Dickson, and the secretaries of Over and Willingham branches, who were unable to be present.

The articles they had made for their Christmas gifts were also given to them. The evacuee children had their tea and games in the Old Church School, being looked after by their own teachers. All the children spent a happy afternoon.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 22nd Dec. 1939

The December meeting of the Women's Institute was held on Tuesday in the Church School, the President occupying the chair. A good number of members was present. The meeting commenced with the singing of a carol, "Good King Wenceslas," and after routine business there was a lively debate on the question whether a wife should have pocket money allowed her. This was followed by another discussion as to whether an office girl makes a better wife than a home girl. On a vote being taken the decision was in favour of the home girl. Refreshments were provided by the hostesses. During the social half-hour carols were sung and selections played by the percussion band. A collection of toys was brought for charity.

PARISH COUNCIL. 22nd Dec. 1939

A special meeting of the Parish Council was held on Wednesday evening, the following members being present: Mr. C. H. Parish (chairman), Messrs. W. Burton, C. Cole, C. Dean, B. Hodson, A. E. Holloway, R. Mitham and W. Spolton with the Clerk (Mr. Prime Godfrey) and the secretary of the Hall Management Committee (Mr. H. H. Berryman). The main business of the meeting was to receive a deputation from the local branch of the British Legion, consisting of Messrs. R. Barwell (chairman), T. Dawson (secretary), C. S. Hepher, F. Norman, Turner and A. J. Willson, who wished to make representations respecting the Management Committee's refusal to black-out the hall so that it would be available for social purposes. Mr. Barwell stated the case for the Legion. He maintained that the hall was built for the use of the villagers, and that arrangements should be made to have the building available for entertainments and other social functions. The difficulty in having this done was explained to the deputation owing to the hall being now used for the school, difficulty accentuated by the advent of a number of evacuee children with their teachers and furniture. Various suggestions were made, and after an animated discussion the deputation withdrew. The Chairman then proposed that the following resolution be sent to the Hall Management Committee: That the main part of the large room be blacked-out so that it can be let for social functions, etc. This was seconded by Mr. Holloway and carried unanimously.

CAROLS. 29th Dec. 1939

All services were well attended.

A NARROW ESCAPE. 5th Jan. 1940

Derrick Adams, a seven-years-old evacuee, billeted with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Prior, High-street, had a narrow escape from drowning last Friday morning when he fell into the pond near the school and was immersed up to his armpits, when he was seen by Mrs. De Haro, one of the London teachers. She immediately called to Mr. Gamaliel Froment, a County Council roadman at work near by, and he with his long sweeper's broom and the assistance of Harry Howlett, a 14-year-old Technical School boy, succeeded in rescuing the little fellow, who was quickly taken to his billet, put to bed, kept there for two days, and is none the worse for his icy bath.

Among the promotions announced by the Air Ministry on New Year's Day is that of Squadron-Leader P. R. Barwell, who becomes a Wing-Commander. He is the eldest son of Mr. R. Barwell, founder of Barwell's tyre works, Swavesey, Cambridge and King's Lynn. Wing-Commander Barwell, who had been described as "Britain's first air ace of the war," was recently awarded the D.F.C. for his part in successfully attacking German planes over the North Sea. "Its success," the official report stated, "was very largely due to the high standard of gallantry and leadership displayed by Squadron-Leader Barwell."

The services at the parish church on Sunday were conducted by the Rev. P. Harvey, of Grantchester Meadows, Cambridge. Next Sunday, Mr. E. C. Hullock, Police Court Missioner, will preach in the morning and afternoon, and the collections will be for the Police Court Mission and the C.E.T.S.

A member of an old Swavesey family, Mr. James Metcalfe, eldest son of the late Mr. Aaron Metcalfe, died at Kentford, near Newmarket, on January 1st, aged 83 years. After serving his apprenticeship as a carpenter and joiner with Mr. John Mitham, of Swavesey, he worked at Fulbourn, Cambridge, and Shelford. In 1882 he went to London and in his later years there was in the employment of Messrs. Higgs and Hills, South Lambeth. Returning to Swavesey, he worked for the late Mr. Robinson Mitham (Mr. John Mitham's successor). In 1929 he went to reside at Kentford with his brother, Mr. S. J. Metcalfe. PARISH COUNCIL. 26th Jan. 1940

There was very little business to be dealt with by the Parish Council at the quarterly meeting on Monday evening. Arising out of the minutes of the special meeting on December 20th, it was reported that steps were being taken by the Management Committee to "black-out" all the windows in the Memorial Hall. As in future there would be no parish constable, the question of the disposal of the rent of the Constable's Rood was discussed. The condition of the byroads was also considered, and the Chairman and Mr. Dean were authorised to arrange for their repair. On the motion of Mr. Burton, seconded by Mr. A. P. Payne, it was decided to ask the Chesterton Rural District Council to arrange for a collection of unburnable rubbish to be made in the parish during the month of April. WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 12th April 1940

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute, held in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday, opened with the singing of "The Blue Bells of Scotland." Owing to the illness of the President, the chair was taken by Mrs. Lee (vice-president). The meeting being the first of the new year, was well attended. During the proceedings two minutes' silence was observed as a tribute to the memory of the late Mrs. Cooksey, who was a member and took an active interest in the W.I. The speaker for the evening, Mr. Shaw, gave an interesting talk on the "Use of your garden in war-time," for which he was accorded a hearty vote of thanks on the proposition of Mrs. Williamson. The social half-hour was spent in games and dancing, which were enjoyed by all present.

Y.P.F. RALLY. 12th April 1940

An enjoyable time was spent on Sunday and Monday at the Young People's Fellowship rally at Bethel Baptist Church, when the special speaker was the Rev. Lomax Mackenzie, of Broadstairs. The services were well attended in the morning and evening, and in the afternoon there was a special meeting, at which solos, recitations, etc., were rendered by members of the Y.P.F. On Monday members of the surrounding village societies responded to the roll call. The chair was taken by the Rev. A. Tilling (late minister of the church), and a lesson read by the Rev. Tydeman, of Godmanchester. During the evening a solo was sung by Mrs. Hankin, also of Godmanchester, and the Rev. Lomax MacKenzie gave the address. After the meeting a good company sat down to an enjoyable supper.

THE LATE MRS. COOKSEY. 12th April 1940

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Cooksey, wife of the Rev. J. F. Cooksey, of Swavesey Manor, whose death was announced last week, took place at Swavesey Parish Church at noon on Friday. The Rev. F. G. Watson (Vicar of Over and Rural Dean) conducted the service, during which the hymn "Rock of Ages" was sung and the Nunc Dimittis chanted. Mr. G. H. Skeeles was at the organ. C. G. Poynder (Rector of Boxworth). The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. E. J. Mitham, Church End, Swavesey. — Rev. J. F. Cooksey and friends wish to thank all who so kindly sent flowers and messages of sympathy. Much

The annual Parish Meeting was held in the Memorial Hall on Wednesday evening, Mr. C. H. Parish presiding. The accounts of the Parish Council and of Galon's Charity were presented. The question of letting the whole, instead of only part, of the Memorial Hall was raised by Mr. T. Dawson (secretary of the local Playing Fields Committee) and Mrs. C. S. Hephher (president of the Women's Institute), and the Chairman informed them that the matter would be brought up at a meeting of the Parish Council to be held subsequently.

DEATH OF MR. ALFRED PRIME, M.M. 19th April 1940

We have to record the death of Mr. Alfred Prime, eldest son of the late Mr. Alfred Prime, of Swavesey, which occurred at his daughter's home at Coulsden, Beds., on April 14th, after an illness of about five months' duration. He had a sudden relapse on Saturday evening, and passed away peacefully at 2 a.m. on Sunday, aged 50. The late Mr. Prime, in addition to his widow, leaves two sons and three daughters. He served during the last war with the Queen's (Royal West Surrey) Regt., was twice wounded, and twice commended for gallantry, and on September 21st, 1918, was awarded the Military Medal for distinguished service in carrying in wounded through heavy barrage fire at Ephey. The funeral took place at Swavesey parish church yesterday (Thursday) afternoon.

PARISH COUNCIL. 19th April 1940

The annual meeting of the Parish Council took place on Wednesday, all members being present. Mr. C. H. Parish was re-elected chairman, and Mr. C. Dean vice-chairman; Messrs. C. W. H. Cole and A. L. Parish were re-appointed school managers, and Messrs. B. Hodson and A. P. Payne were appointed Feoffees of Galon's Charity. A letter was read from the Playing Fields Committee stating that it was their intention to carry on with their efforts to raise funds, but it was not possible to arrange entertainments, etc., as by resolution of the Council only part of the hall was available. After discussion Mr. Dean proposed that the resolution limiting the use of the hall be rescinded. This was seconded by Mr. A. P. Payne, and carried nem. con. A letter was also read from the R.D.C. forwarding a communication from the Secretary of the Parochial Church Council enclosing an estimate from Messrs. E. Dent and Co., London, of £57 for the thorough repair of the church clock, in addition to which there would be the cost of scaffolding, staging, etc. Whilst it was admitted that it was most desirable that the clock should be in good going order, in view of the heavy expense involved it was decided that the matter be left in abeyance until after the war.

NOTICE. SMALLER PAPERS. 19th April 1940

We ask the indulgence of readers in difficulties which the "Press and Chronicle," in common with other newspapers, is experiencing in consequence of a further rationing of newsprint from 60 per cent. to 30 per cent. of normal supplies.

The smaller paper necessarily means shorter reports and the omission of various features.

We ask correspondents to help us by being as concise as possible in their copy.

THE LATE MR. A. PRIME. 26th April 1940

FIRE. 3rd May 1940

A shed at the back of Mr. Fred Brickwood's cottage at Turn Bridge was found to be on fire shortly before 3 o'clock on Wednesday morning. Neighbours were alarmed and quickly came to the rescue, and with pails of water saved the shed from total destruction, but the contents, which included a mangle, three bicycles, tools, brushes, matting, floorcloth, etc., were damaged beyond repair. Mr. Brickwood also lost a quantity of seed potatoes.

WASTE MATERIAL WASTED. 3rd May 1940

A correspondent writes: The unburnable rubbish in the village of Swavesey was collected last week, and it is understood was dumped in a pit. That rubbish to a large extent consisted of old iron, tins, bottles, etc., most of which, if properly treated, could have been put to a good purpose. The Government are urgently calling upon people to hand over their waste material, but unfortunately the villages have not the means of putting it in proper form for disposal. Surely this is a case in which some central authority should act, and act promptly, not be merely suggesting that work should be undertaken by private enterprise – such as Boy Scouts or Women's Institutes – but by providing means of collection, presses for flattening tins, etc.

WASTE PAPER. 10th May 1940

With reference to the paragraph in last week's "Independent Press" respecting the waste material, the Captain of the Swavesey Girl Guides writes to say that the Guides, in conjunction with the Women's Institute, are making a collection in the village of old newspapers, magazines, catalogues, etc., every Saturday morning. The proceeds from the sale of the paper, etc., will go towards the provision of an ambulance.

SOCIAL. 10th May 1940

The social arranged by the Women's Institute Entertainment Committee, which took place in the Memorial Hall on Feast Tuesday evening, proved a great success. Mr. C. Redhead and his band from Somersham supplied an excellent selection of music for dancing, and during the evening Mr. Dennis Adams sang several songs, and a party from Over performed a negro sketch. Refreshments were served by the committee and helpers. Mr. C. S. Hephew was a capable M.C.

There were many beautiful floral tributes, among them being one from Bluntisham Cricket Club and one from the Swavesey Red Cross Detachment.

This has been the village feast week. On Sunday the services at the Parish Church were conducted by the Rev. S. Manning's jollity farm, a shooting gallery, swinging boats, cocoanut shies, etc., and a lady fortune-teller. Cricket matches have been played for the Swavesey Hospital Cup. On Monday, Godfrey's XI beat the British Legion by 42 runs to 23, and on Tuesday Fen Drayton C.C. scored 27 runs against Swavesey C.C.'s 26. In the final on Wednesday, Fen Drayton scored 82 and Godfrey's XI 12. After the match the cup was presented to the captain of Fen Drayton XI by Mrs. C. S. Hephher, who kindly entertained both teams. Other attractions included a dance in the Memorial Hall on Saturday, which brought in £5 14s. for the troops' comfort fund, and a social under the auspices of the Women's Institute on Tuesday evening, also in the Memorial Hall.

CONCERT. 24th May 1940

A most enjoyable concert, one of the efforts being made in many places for the encouragement of music in the countryside in connection with the work of the Pilgrim Trustees, was given in the Memorial hall on Saturday evening, but unfortunately the audience was far from being as large as it ought to have been. All who were there, however, thoroughly appreciated the excellent programme of songs, duets, and violin solos provided by Mary Ross McDougall (soprano), Anne Wood (contralto) and Olive Zonian (violin), with Dr. Hubert Middleton (organist of Trinity College, Cambridge) as accompanist. The items were interspersed with community singing in which all present took part right heartily. At the close Mrs. C. S. Hepher (President of the Women's Institute) proposed a vote of thanks to Dr. Middleton and the concert party, and in doing so expressed regret that the attendance had not been larger. many references to the present situation, and special prayers were offered for a turn of the tide towards the victory of righteousness. At the public tea between the services the Rev. W. H. Tebbitt, who presided, congratulated the church upon its fine record. Other speakers were: Revs. E. P. Blackaby (Willingham) and G. S. Tydeman (Godmanchester) and Mr. H. Rodwell (Shelford). STOLE PETROL FROM EMPLOYER. 14th June 1940

Swavesey Lorry Driver in Court.

“CAN IN SACK OF WOOD”

A young Swavesey lorry driver was at Cambs. Divisional Court on Saturday convicted on three charges of stealing petrol from his employer, a Swavesey carting contractor.

He admitted two thefts, but denied the third charge against him.

He was L. G. F. (26), of Middle Watch, Swavesey, and he was charged with stealing during December last, when he was a servant to Prime Godfrey, a gallon of petrol belonging to Mr. Godfrey.

He was further charged with a similar offence during February, and with a similar offence on May 2nd in respect of two gallons of petrol.

The cases were taken separately, and he pleaded guilty to the first charge.

Stanley Godfrey, of Swavesey, son of Mr. Prime Godfrey, a carting contractor, said defendant worked for his father as a lorry driver during December. The price of a gallon of petrol then was about 1s. 4½d. Defendant was in charge of the petrol in the lorry.

Witness did not agree with defendant that he (defendant) had bought petrol for the lorry for which he had not been paid.

SYPHONING ALLEGATION.

Harold William Prior, of Boxworth, said that during last December he was lorry driver's mate to defendant. Petrol was siphoned from the lorry into a two-gallon can by defendant.

Defendant here denied that he siphoned the petrol and, also, that it was put into a two-gallon can.

P.C. Shanks said that when he saw defendant's lorry at the beginning of May he found some lengths of rubber tubing in a tool box on the lorry. The box was locked by a code lock belonging to defendant.

When defendant was seen on May 3rd he made a statement in which he said that in December last he dropped two one-gallon cans of petrol into a hedge while he was driving the lorry. He picked the cans up while on his cycle later in the evening. “I think I used it for cleaning purposes,” he stated.

F. also pleaded guilty to the second charge, and P.C. Shanks said defendant made a similar admission in his statement.

DEFENDANT'S DENIAL.

In the third case defendant pleaded not guilty.

Stanley Godfrey, who is yard manager for his father, said defendant had no right to carry a can of petrol on the lorry on May 2nd. The tubing should not have been there either.

Harold Prior testified that defendant siphoned two gallons of petrol from the lorry while they were in Huntingdonshire on May 2nd. When defendant drove home he put the can of petrol into a sack with some wood and carried it into his house.

Defendant denied before the court that a can of petrol was concealed in the sack of wood.

“SOMETHING OF A SQUARE SHAPE.”

Arthur Leonard Parish, head special constable for Swavesey, said that on May 2nd he saw defendant alight from a lorry at his (defendant's) house and carry a sack into his house. He did not know what was in the sack, save that it was something of a square shape.

P.C. Shanks said that in the statement made on May 3rd defendant said, “I am certain I did not bring any petrol on to my premises last night.” Asked to account for the two gallons in his possession, he said he siphoned it from a relative's car because the tank leaked.

On oath, defendant said the rubber tubing was only used once for siphoning, and that was on Mr. Godfrey's instructions. He kept the tool box locked because a grease gun had been taken from it. He denied that there was a can of petrol among the wood he carried to his house on May 2nd.

He was fined 30s. in each of the three cases and ordered to pay 14s. costs on the first charge and 7s. costs on the third. He was given a month to pay.

RESIGNATION OF THE VICAR. 14th June 1940

In the North Stowe Deanery Magazine for this month is the following announcement from the Vicar of Swavesey (Rev. C. Cecil Dickson): "My dear friends, - This will be the last letter you will have from me, because, as most of you know, I have had to send in to the Bishop notice of my regretful intention to resign the living owing to continued ill-health. I have not been really well for some time; in fact last summer I had every intention of resigning if the war had not come along, and one felt compelled to carry on. However, now the doctor tells me I must not carry on, so I have to obey his orders. May I thank all of you who made me so happy amongst you? I shall hope to come and see you occasionally. May God bless and shield you in the days to come, is the prayer of your sincere friend, C. Cecil Dickson."

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 14th June 1940

A good number of members attended the monthly meeting of the Women's Institute on Tuesday, at which the President (Mrs. C. S. Hepher) occupied the chair. During business it was decided to hold a garden party in the President's garden on July 2nd, half the proceeds to be given to county funds. Mrs. F. Warrington, delegate, gave an admirable report of the annual meeting in Cambridge, for which she was heartily thanked. The talk of the evening was given by Miss Warrington on the formation of the Produce Guild and fruit preservation centre, and members readily agreed to the formation of the centre in Swavesey. After many questions had been answered, a hearty vote of thanks was accorded Miss Warrington, on the proposition of Mrs. Dawson. A short paper on topical events was also read by Mrs. Laverack. The programme for the social half-hour included nursery rhymes and guessing advertisements, for which Mrs. G. Prime was awarded the prize. Mrs. Berryman proposed a vote of thanks to Mrs. Laverack for her very hard work in connection with the sugar for W.I. members. To this Mrs. Laverack suitably responded. DANCE. 5th July 1940

A rather smaller number attended the dance on Saturday, for which an excellent programme of music was provided by Al Porter and his band. Much regret was expressed at the decision of the Hall Committee to close the hall early in future, thus cutting out any more efforts for the Comforts Fund.

WASTE OF WATER. 12th July 1940

By a burst in a pipe connecting a house near the Swan pond with the main pipes hundreds of gallons of water, for which the parish has to pay, have run to waste this week. The burst occurred some time on Sunday, and the defect was not attended to until Tuesday. Ratepayers think that the Chesterton R.D.C., the authority responsible, should arrange for these bursts which occur in the parish far too frequently, to be reported and dealt with more promptly.

AN URGENT APPEAL. 12th July 1940

The following personal call to men by an ex-Service man, who is still suffering from the effects of wounds in the 1914-18 war, has been posted in two or three places in Swavesey: Do you know that there are about 70 active men in this village who are available for a man's job, but who have not yet come forward to do it? Men are urgently needed, at once, to join the Local Defence Volunteers to do their bit, together with those already in, to do patrol work, man the various posts, to act as runners, and generally be ready if Fritz comes. What would you do, what could you do, if the Germans got into our village, if you were not organised and armed? You would have to stand by helplessly whilst the Hun did as he pleased. And don't forget the women and children would probably come in for rough treatment. So join to-day; get organised, get armed, and be prepared for anything. It is most urgent.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 12th July 1940

At an interesting meeting of the Women's Institute, open to the public, held on Tuesday in the Memorial Hall, Miss Speller of the B.C. and H. Electricity Co., gave good recipes for war time cookery demonstrated by an electric cooker. All present were keenly interested, and eagerly bought up the cooked foods, the money for this being devoted to the W.I. sick fund. Mr. Cruickshank then spoke briefly on the National Savings Movement, and on his appeal a savings group was formed and collections will be made each week. Mrs. Lee was appointed treasurer, Miss Ansell secretary, and Mrs. Warrington, Mrs. Dring, Mrs. De Haro, and Mrs. S. Carrier collectors. Mrs. Hepher proposed a vote of thanks to both demonstrator and speaker, which was carried with applause. A competition for the best jar of marmalade was won by Mrs. Warrington.

Refreshments were served by tea hostesses, Mrs. Ivatt, Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Dring.

NURSING ASSOCIATION. 19th July 1940

The committee of the Swavesey, Over and Fen Drayton Nursing Association decided in May not to hold a garden fete this year. Instead a special appeal to raise the equivalent amount was issued, and has met with most gratifying success, the sum of £35 8s. 10d. being realised. The President (Mrs. Inglis) desires to thank the members of the committee who acted as collectors, and also all who subscribed so generously.

PARISH COUNCIL. 19th July 1940

The quarterly meeting of the Parish Council was held in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening, the following members being present: Mr. C. H. Parish (chairman), Messrs. W. Burton, C. Dean, B. Hodson, A. E. Holloway, R. Mitham and A. P. Payne, with the Clerk (Mr. Prime Godfrey). Arising out of the minutes of the previous meeting, it was reported that it had been ascertained that the Constable's Rood is the property of the parish, and that the rent is payable to the Parish Council. Various communications from the County and Rural District Councils were discussed. With regard to the collection of waste iron and steel, Mr. C. Dean was appointed local organiser, the dump to be in the yard of the old school. It was agreed that the iron lamp-posts still left in the village should be taken up and included in the collection. Some discussion arose respecting the old fire engine house, and on the proposition of Mr. Dean, it was agreed that, with the exception of the village pound adjoining and the right of way thereto, the building should be transferred to the R.D.C., subject to compensation being paid. A letter respecting the clock on the tower of the church was read from the hon. secretary of the Church Council suggesting that only the movement should be repaired by the makers, the re-gilding of the dials being left for the present, and offering to provide £20 towards the cost. After discussion, Mr. Burton proposed, and Mr. Payne seconded, that the resolution carried out at the previous meeting that all repairs should be left until after the war be adhered to, and on being put the proposition was carried nem. con. It was reported that the herbage of the Recreation Ground had been let to Mr. G. Turner for £2. Messrs. C. Dean, B. Hodson, and C. H. Parish were re-appointed trustees of the Swavesey Fire Relief Fund Charity (Frere Cottages) for the ensuing four years.

TO THE EDITOR. 19th July 1940

CHURCH BELL-RINGING.

Sir, - On Friday last a letter appeared in your paper from the Rev. J. A. V. Wallace, vicar of Chesterton, and he is right. As a member of the Central Council of Church Bellringers, I may say it is hoped as far as possible to incorporate local ringers in the L.D.V. service, and the danger of hanging would be nil.

It may be of much interest to church people that on Wednesday week in the House of Lords an eloquent appeal was made by Lord Mottistone for the raising of the ban on church bellringing. Lord Croft, Under-Secretary of State for War, said he would convey the appeal to the Minister of Home Security. I feel sure even those who go elsewhere would be heartened to hear the church bells on Sunday morning and evening – it's British. – Yours, etc.,

FRANK WARRINGTON.

THE OBLIGING HEN! 2nd Aug. 1940

I am told that in Swavesey there is a hen which makes a point of laying its eggs in the kitchen of its owner's cottage.

On Sunday morning it "went one better," and deposited an egg on the table already laid for breakfast.

WEDDING. 9th Aug. 1940

A large congregation was present to witness the marriage at Bethel Baptist Church on Thursday week of Mr. George Hector Laverack, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Laverack, of High Street, Swavesey, and Miss Rose Ginn, daughter of Mrs. Ginn and the late Mr. Alfred Ginn, of Over. The Rev. A. Tilling, of Norton, Bury St. Edmund's, conducted the service, during which the hymns, "Come, Gracious Spirit, Heavenly Dove," and "O Love Divine and Golden" were sung. Mr. G. E. Canham was at the organ. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. J. Ginn, of Over, wore a pretty dress of floral crepe, with navy hat and coat. She also wore a spray of sweet peas to match her dress. There were no bridesmaids, but Mr. Eric Moule, of Histon, acted as best man. After the ceremony 40 guests were entertained in the schoolroom, and later the newly married couple left by car for their honeymoon. On their return they will reside in High Street, Swavesey.

MARRIAGE OF MISS HILDA HEPHER. 9th Aug. 1940

A pretty wedding was solemnised at the parish church on Saturday afternoon, when Miss Hilda May Hepher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hepher, was married to Mr. Dennis Arthur Brooks, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Brooks, of London. The church had been decorated with rosebuds and larkspur. During the service, which was conducted by the Rev. S. Rogerson, the hymn "How welcome was the call" and Psalm 128 were sung, accompanied on the organ by Mr. G. H. Skeeles. Given away by her father, the bride looked charming in a dress of ivory satin, with veil and orange blossom, and carrying a bouquet of red carnations. She was attended by three bridesmaids, her cousins, Misses L. M. and J. Hepher, who wore dresses of rose pink taffeta, and carried bouquets of pink carnations, and June Brooks, the little niece of the bridegroom, in leaf-green taffeta, and carrying a posy of mixed flowers. The older bridesmaids wore bracelets and the little girl a pearl necklace, all the gift of the bridegroom. Mr. William H. Carrier was best man. On leaving the church the bride was presented with a silver horseshoe by Master John Bell. After the ceremony a reception was held in the Memorial Hall, where about sixty guests were entertained, and later the newly married couple left for their honeymoon in London. The presents were numerous and useful, and included a cheque from the bride's fellow workers, a canteen of cutlery from the bridegroom's fellow workers, and a cheque from Messrs. Barwell and Sons, the bridegroom's employers.

The local jam centre is now working at full pressure, and many pounds of jam and cans of fruit are ready for sale, and can be obtained by applying to Mrs. C. S. Hepher, Mrs. Laverack or Mrs. Dawson. Jam jars are urgently needed, and the centre would be grateful for all sorts and sizes.

SCRAP METAL. 16th Aug. 1940

The scrap metal which has been dumped in the old school yard, and also the ten iron street lamp posts taken up by order of the Parish Council, were

With him this time are his seven sons, four of whom are with their father in the Home Guard, two are in the Army, and the seventh is having some exciting experiences in a minesweeper.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 16th Aug. 1940

The most interesting feature of the monthly meeting of the Women's Institute on Tuesday was a talk on China by Mrs. Jackson, who deputised for Mrs. Humphrey at the last moment. Many questions were asked and members were most interested in all habits and customs as vividly depicted by the speaker. A hearty vote of thanks was accorded Mrs. Jackson on the proposition of Mrs. Dawson. During the business proceedings it was suggested that the Group meeting be held at Swavesey on Monday, September 9th, in the afternoon, thus avoiding special transport by using the ordinary bus service between the villages. Mrs. Ansell gave the first report of the Savings Group, from which it appeared that there are now 42 members and that £10 18s. had been saved during the last month. More volunteers were forthcoming for the jam centre, which is now in full swing. The entertainment for the social half-hour consisted of an alphabet relay followed by dancing.

GLEANNING REVIVED. 30th Aug. 1940

Gleaning in the harvest fields, which in days gone by used to provide remunerative employment for many women and children, has this year been revived by a Swavesey widow over 70 years of age. In one week she has succeeded in collecting 12 stone of "heads," which she breaks off from the straw, and is disposing of them to villagers for food for their poultry. With the proceeds she intends to get in a supply of coal for the winter.

THE PASSING HOUR. 30th Aug. 1940

Well-Known Cambs. Doctor.

Well known in Swavesey, St. Ives and Cambridge, Dr. J. A. Hart has died in the cottage hospital of the Scottish fishing port of Peterhead.

The news will, I am sure, engender feelings of regret in a great many in this district.

Soon after the outbreak of the present war Dr. Hart went to Egypt with the Army, but ill-health overtook him and he was invalided home. In June he went to Buchan, with which his wife has an association.

For a few weeks before his death Dr. Hart had been staying at Stoneygate Farm, Hatton. He was about 50 years of age.

THE DOGS KNEW! 30th Aug. 1940

"Bones, please!" read a notice to be seen on an uncovered tin in the village of Swavesey; and local people, mindful of the great salvage campaign duly responded with a good collection.

But the haul did not remain there long, for shortly afterwards the bin was found overturned and a good deal of its contents missing.

No need to tell the village dogs that "bones please"!

THE LATE MR. JETHRO PARISH. 11th Oct. 1940

We have to record the death of Mr. Jethro Parish, who passed away at his home in Manchester, on Sept. 25th. He was a native of Swavesey, but left there as a young man to seek his living in the industrial North. He married a daughter of the late Mr. Benjamin Wilkin, of Over, and was a frequent visitor, when business permitted, to his old friends in the district. Mr. and Mrs. Parish celebrated their golden wedding two years ago. In Manchester, Mr. Parish founded the firm of J. and J. Parish, builders and contractors, and he was particularly interested in the church building and B.B.C. construction, in which the firm specialised. For the whole of his time in Manchester, Mr. Parish was associated with the Particular Baptist Chapel, in Rochdale Road, in various capacities, and he will be greatly missed there. Mr. Parish was known to a wide circle of people in Cambridgeshire, as well as in the Liberal movement and in business circles in Manchester. A large congregation attended his funeral, and many tributes were paid to his great personal charm and integrity. He was 81 years of age, and leaves a widow and seven sons and daughters.

FARMER LOSES £80 HORSE. 8th Nov. 1940

Killed by Van at Night.

BUT FINED AT CAMBRIDGE.

"The first case of its kind in the district," commented Supt. Allen at the Divisional Court on Saturday, when a farmer was summoned for leading horses without lights in the black-out.

The summons followed an accident in which a van driver ran into two horses on Swavesey Road, Fen Drayton, on the evening of October 19th, killed one of the horses, and injured himself.

Donald James Johnson, Fen End Farm, Fen Drayton, was the defendant. He was represented by Mr. J. W. Winter, Huntingdon, who entered a plea of not guilty.

The van driver, Neville George Canham, High Street, Swavesey, said he was driving from Fen Drayton to Swavesey at about 7.25 p.m. It was a rather dark and slightly misty night, and the van lights had been on for nearly an hour.

DID NOT SEE THE CLOCK.

Cross-examined, he said he judged the time by his call at Fen Drayton Settlement, when a Mrs. Jobling told him it was 7.15 p.m. He did not see a clock himself. It was about a mile from the cottage to the scene of the accident.

George Hector Laverack, High Street, Swavesey, carpenter, said he was driving from Fenstanton to Swavesey, and saw a horse in the road outside College Farm between 7.15 and 7.20 p.m. A young man was getting out of a van on the side of the road. The van radiator front was lying in the road. Another man was coming out of a farm gateway with a light. Witness gave Canham a lift home and on the way passed two more horses running loose.

P.C. Yeomans said Canham reported the accident at 8.30 p.m. At a later interview Johnson said he worked as horsekeeper for his father. He was leading two horses tied together and had just crossed the road and was going towards Swavesey when the van came up and struck one of the horses, which died some hours later. Both horses were practically white, and the night was not dark, Johnson said.

Witness said lighting-up time was 6.25 p.m., and Johnson's statement was that the accident took place at 7 p.m.

P.S. Unwin stated that lighting-up time was 6.27.

HORSE WORTH £80.

Johnson told the court that he was walking on the grass, leading the two horses. The car came on at a fast speed, without warning. The accident happened just before 7 o'clock, and he carried no light because he did not believe it was lighting-up time. He did not know the war-time regulations governing the leading of horses along roads at night. The value of the horse which died was £80.

Johnson was fined 10s. and 14s. costs.

GOODFELLOW'S GALLERY. 15th Nov. 1940

Picture

This week we take off our hats once again to the Royal Air Force. Our picture is of A.C.2 Norman C. Lee, elder son of Mr. P. H. Lee (subpostmaster of Swavesey) and Mrs. Lee.

He was educated at Swavesey and later at the County High School for Boys, where he was a member of the O.T.C. Norman volunteered for service with the R.A.F. and was accepted as rigger.

We have previously published a photograph of Mr. and Mrs. Lee's younger son, Alan, who joined the Royal Air Force straight from the Cambridge Technical School, and I am pleased to hear that he has recently been promoted to Leading Aircraftsman from A.C.1. Congratulations to Alan and good luck to both brothers!

WAR-TIME DAY OF REMEMBRANCE. 15th Nov. 1940

SACRIFICES OF 1914-18 RECALLED.

SWAVESEY.

Co-operation was the keynote in the observance of Remembrance Sunday in Swavesey. The Home Guard, Men's and Women's Red Cross Association, Girl Guides and the Girls' Life Brigade joined with members of the British Legion (in all about 120) in a parade to the parish church in the afternoon, during which a British Legion poppy wreath was placed on the War Memorial in the churchyard by the chairman (Mr. R. Barwell), and also in attending a service in Bethel Baptist Chapel in the evening, the Vicar (Rev. B. J. Woodd) and the Baptist minister (Rev. A. McPhee) officiating together at both services.

The service of remembrance and dedication in the church was very well attended, and the Vicar, in a spirited address, dealt with the problems of war and peace. The Rev. A. McPhee continued the theme in an impressive manner in a crowded congregation at Bethel Baptist Chapel.

The collection in the church, which amounted to £5 2s. 8d., was devoted to Earl Haig's Poppy Day Fund, and an after-service offertory in Bethel Chapel raised a further £2 2s. for that deserving cause.

SWAVESEY MAN KILLED. 6th Dec. 1940

On the Way Home.

The death occurred on Thursday evening as the result of an accident of Arthur Whybrow, of School Lane, Swavesey.

CHURCH SOCIAL. 6th Dec. 1940

A social gathering in connection with the parish church was held in the Memorial Hall on Saturday, and perhaps the best description of it is to say that it was a "roaring" success. Some 150 people made the hall as full as it could comfortably be, and from start to finish there was an atmosphere of free and easy friendship which it was good to see. Both games and dancing evidently gave as much pleasure to the onlookers as they did to the entrants. Mrs. Thomas well deserved the prize for her most original fancy head-dress of "Win on the kitchen front." The Vicar would like to thank all who kindly contributed to the success and enjoyment of the evening.

BAPTIST UNION PRESIDENT AT SWAVESEY. 13th Dec. 1940

The President of the Baptist Union (Dr. P. W. Evans) visited Swavesey over the week-end for the ordination of the new pastor of the Bethel Baptist Church (Rev. A. McPhee) and preached at both morning and evening services.

A native of Lanarkshire, Scotland, Mr. McPhee was educated at Forth Public School and received his theological training at Spurgeon's College, London, of which Dr. Evans is the Principal. The pastorate at Swavesey is his first charge. When Dr. Evans gave the charge to the Pastor and the church at the morning service he preached on a text from St. Paul's Epistle to the Philippians: "In the beginning of the Gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no Church had fellowship with me in the matter of giving and receiving, but ye only. For even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my need."

Dr. Evans declared that giving and receiving was the essence of the Christian ministry, and the trouble with the world to-day was that it did not know how to give and receive. "The world needs to learn again what it is to live in a fellowship of giving and receiving," he said, "and I believe the Christian Church is placed in the world by our Lord to give an example of what it means to live in such a fellowship. And the relation between pastor and people is precisely that. But never forget that this giving and receiving needs someone else to share in it. Never forget you must receive most richly from Christ."

The speaker expressed the hope that fellowship would be the note of Mr. McPhee's ministry, and that his pastorate would succeed in making that church glow with Christian fellowship, one of the loveliest things of this world.

CYCLIST'S FATAL RIDE. 13th Dec. 1940

"Crossed in Front of Car."

SWAVESEY MAN'S DEATH.

A verdict of "Accidental death" was returned at the inquest held at the Isolation Hospital on Saturday on Arthur Whybrow, of 7, School Lane, Swavesey.

The inquiry was conducted by the Coroner for Cambs. (Mr. Jasper Lyon).

Mr. Whybrow was involved in a collision with a motor car while cycling near Oakington on Thursday evening and sustained fatal injuries.

Arthur William Henry Whybrow, son of the deceased, who is at present serving in the R.A.F., gave evidence of identification. He said his father was 55 years of age and employed at Messrs. Chivers. Both his sight and hearing were excellent. He was a very careful rider and always took precautions.

Dr. R. D. Joyce said deceased had sustained a fracture of the right clavicle and a fracture of the skull. The latter injury was sufficient to cause death.

“HIT TAIL OF CYCLE.”

William Walter Nicholson, of 71, Windsor Road, Cambridge, the driver of the car concerned, gave evidence that at 5.10 p.m. he was driving from Oakington to Cambridge. When he approached the Histon turning he saw a cyclist who had apparently come out of the Histon Road and was turning across the road directly in front of him. The cyclist was looking towards Cambridge. There was not sufficient room to pull up, and he hit the tail of the cycle broadside.

Finding that the cyclist was seriously injured, he left two R.A.F. men who were in the car with him to look after the man while he went into Girton and telephoned the police. He returned to the scene of the accident and made the man as comfortable as he could until the arrival of the ambulance.

Corpl. G. Rand, of the R.A.F., who was a passenger in the car, estimated the speed at between 30 and 40 miles an hour. The driver sounded his horn. The cyclist crossed in front of the car, looking in the opposite direction.

Another member of the R.A.F., Arthur Cutler, gave corroborative evidence.

“CAR ON PROPER SIDE.”

P.C. Hard stationed at Histon, said there were skid marks on the road for 20ft. on the Oakington side of the Histon turning. According to the marks the whole of the car was on its proper side of the road. There was a hedge four feet high which might have obscured vision.

The Coroner returned a verdict as stated above.

Sergt. Unwin represented the police and Mr. F. Whittet, of March, appeared for the driver of the car.

There was a good attendance at the meeting of the Young People's Fellowship held in Bethel Schoolroom on Monday, when Mrs. V. Thixton gave a helpful address. The president (Rev. WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 13th Dec. 1940

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday, Dec. 10th, the chair being occupied by the President (Mrs. C. S. Hepher). After routine business, Mrs. Goodchild, of Longstanton, gave an excellent talk and demonstration on Renovations, in which many useful hints on altering clothes were given. Mrs. Goodchild was accorded a hearty vote of thanks on the proposition of Mrs. Laverack. Highest points in the competition for the best Christmas decorations were awarded to Mrs. C. S. Hepher (1st), Mrs. de Haro (2nd) and Mrs. C. Ding (3rd). The competition was judged by Mrs. Goodchild. The secretary of the entertainment committee announced that £47 16s. had been paid in connection with the Savings Campaign, and that 15 certificates had been issued in six months. Refreshments were served and during the social half-hour carols were sung by Mrs. Ivatt and her choir, and a Christmas play, entitled "The Village Dustbin," was performed by Mesdames Froment, Ivatt, Laverack, Thomas and G. Prime. The play caused lots of laughter and was heartily applauded. One new member was welcomed. The singing of the carol "The First Nowell" by the choir and members of the percussion band brought the meeting to a close.

PIG CLUB. 13th Dec. 1940

A meeting arranged by the local branch of the British Legion, with Mr. R. Barwell in the chair, was held in the Memorial Hall on Wednesday to inquire into the possibility of forming a pig club. Mr. Davidson, organising secretary of the Small Pig Keepers' Council, spoke of the conditions which gave rise to the desirability of increasing the number of small pig-keepers, making use of waste household products instead of relying wholly on meal for pig feeding. Owing to the war it had been necessary for imports of meal to be cut down to one-third to release cargo space for munitions. Since then some sources of bacon imports had been lost to us, and an increase in home production was imperative. Householders were being encouraged to keep one or two pigs, and members of a pig club would have certain advantages. A certain definite amount of meal would be made available for each pig. A number of questions were put, and a lively discussion developed. As a result it was decided to ascertain what waste household products were available in the village before going further in the matter, and a number of people present signified their willingness to take part in the inquiry, which would be organised by Mr. T. Dawson. Miss D. M. Warrington, secretary of the Cambs. Rural Community Council, was also present. The meeting closed with a vote of thanks to Mr. Davidson.

As the mourners left the church for the grave in the churchyard the organist (Mr. G. W. Thoday) played the "Dead March" in Saul. A letter was read from the County Council stating that the Parish Council would be in order in paying for the alterations at Mrs. Page's premises needed for the provision of an air raid shelter. After discussion it was agreed that the bill be paid. It was also decided that the attention of the District Council be called to the unsatisfactory condition of Scratch Bank and the Fobs; that tenders be invited for the herbage of the Recreation Ground; that arrangements for the collection of unburnable rubbish be made by the Chairman and Vice-Chairman; that permission be given for the Red Cross ambulance to be kept in the old fire engine house, no expense or liability to be incurred by the Council; that the attention of the County Council be called to the bad condition of a footbridge on the path to Over; and that a public meeting be held on Monday evening to make arrangements for War Weapons Week.

A DANGEROUS FOOTBRIDGE. 16th May 1941

At their meeting last week the Parish Council decided to call the attention of the County Council to the bad condition of the footbridge on the footpath to Over. This bridge, which crosses the brook that divided the two parishes, was stated to be dangerous, and this was proved to be the case by the accident to Mr. Dick Wilderspin on Sunday morning. As he was crossing the bridge his right leg went through the rotten flooring and his knee was seriously injured. He has since been confined to bed, and has suffered much pain.

WAR WEAPONS WEEK. 16th May 1941

The local organising committee, Mr. C. H. Parish, Mrs. C. S. Hephher, Mrs. Dawson, Rev. A. McPhee, Mr. C. S. Hephher and Mr. J. H. Barwell, have arranged an interesting programme to stimulate savings during War Weapons Week, May 25th – 31st. The target aimed at is £3,000. On Sunday, May 25th, a procession of all the defence services, headed by a band, will meet on the green, and many other attractions, including whist drives, a social, darts competition, a dance and special children's evening have been arranged.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 16th May 1941

There was a good attendance at the monthly meeting of the Women's Institute on Tuesday. The president (Mrs. C. S. Hephher) occupied the chair. Miss Warrington gave an interesting talk on "How we compare with other countries," for which she was accorded a vote of thanks on the proposition of Mrs. Laverack. The programme for the village's effort for War Weapons Week was outlined by the President, and all members were asked to "do their bit." A roll call on "How we can best raise money for our Institute" was conducted by Miss Warrington. There were many good suggestions and some amusing ones. After refreshments the social half-hour was spent in a "musical hike," the prizes being won by Miss G. Wright and Mrs. Pink.

W.I. GROUP MEETING. 23rd May 1941

The annual group meeting of the Women's Institutes was held on May 19th, about 160 members from Over, Willingham, Cottenham, Fen Drayton and Swavesey Institutes being present. Before the business commenced a presentation was made by Mrs. C. S. Hephher on behalf of the institutes to Mrs. Allen, who is retiring from her duties very reluctantly as convenor. Mrs. G. Laverack was elected to take her place. Miss Simpson gave an interesting talk on "How the Women's Institutes carry on in war-time." This talk was greatly appreciated. After refreshments the results of the competition were announced. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. Holliday (Over) for the best oatmeal scones, and to Mrs. Rayner (Cottenham)¹, and Mrs. Ivett (Swavesey)² for the most ingenious article made from something old. Games brought a very happy evening to a close.

PIG CLUB. 30th May 1941

A valuable contribution towards an increase in home food production is being made by the newly formed Pig Club, which has started operations with 16 pigs, which are being kept by members at various points in the village. Householders can help by offering house and garden scraps, and it is hoped to organise a collection of these later to supplement the meal ration as the pigs' appetites grow.

THE FEAST. 30th May 1941

The annual village feast should have been held this week, but owing to the war all its usual attributes have been lacking. There have been few, if any, visitors, and not a vestige of a roundabout, shooting gallery, swing or stall could be found in Market Street. The many functions that have taken place in the village, or have still to be held, have been in connection with War Weapons Week. Good congregations attended the parish church on Sunday, when the collections at the mid-day and evening services were for Addenbrooke's Hospital and the Swavesey, Over and Fen Drayton Nursing Association. In the evening the choir gave an excellent rendering of the anthem "Lift up your heads" (Hopkins).

DEATH OF MR. HARRY PRIME. 30th May 1941

The news of the death of Mr. Harry Prime, of High Street, came as a great shock to his many friends in Swavesey. Although he had not been feeling well for a few days, he took part as a member of the local Red Cross Detachment on Sunday, and went to work on Monday as usual. He became worse during the evening, and as it was evident that he was seriously ill the doctor was called in, and on Tuesday morning he was taken by ambulance to Addenbrooke's Hospital, where he passed away early in the evening without regaining consciousness. It is understood that he was suffering from Meningis coccal meningitis (sic.). Mr. Prime, who was born in Swavesey 42 years ago was a son of the late Mr. Alfred Prime. Sincere sympathy is expressed with his widow and young son in the very sad loss. The funeral will take place at the Parish Church at 2.30 p.m. to-morrow (Saturday).

WAR WEAPONS WEEK. 30th May 1941

War Weapons Week was inaugurated at Swavesey on Sunday afternoon with a parade through the village of the various local organisations, followed by a meeting on the Recreation Ground. The procession, which started from Boxworth End, was headed by the Home Guard, who preceded the Somersham Town Band. Then in succession came the British Legion, special police, A.R.P. wardens, A.F.S., Red Cross nurses, Girl Guides, Girls' Life Brigade, members of the Women's Institute and representatives of Parish Council. Mr. R. Barwell presided at the meeting, at which Major Kinghan was the principal speaker. The attractions during the week have included whist drives on Monday and Thursday, social on Tuesday, and a darts competition on Wednesday, all entrance fees being returned wholly or in part in Savings stamps and stamps given for prizes. To-day (Friday) there is to be a children's evening (stamp prizes for fancy dress) and the week will conclude to-morrow with a dance. Savings stamps have been on sale at these functions, all of which have been held in the Memorial Hall.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. 6th June 1941

The anniversary service was held at Bethel Baptist Church on May 29th, the special preacher being Prof. F. Cawley, Ph. D., of Spurgeon's College. Despite unfavourable weather, there was a good attendance and a highly successful meeting was held. The preacher's subject was "The Christian Race."

The marriage of Mr. Lawrence Gray Peters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Peters, of High Street, and Miss Gwendoline Olive Sharp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sharp, of School Lane, took place at the parish church on Whit-Monday, the Vicar (Rev. B. J. Woodd) officiating. During the service the hymns "O Father, all creating" and "Lead us, Heavenly Father" and the 67th Psalm were sung. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a dress of white satin, with wreath and veil, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations. She was attended by one bridesmaid, Miss Nancy Shinn, who was attired in rose taffeta with silver accessories, and carried a bouquet of red carnations. Mr. Fred Peters (brother of the bridegroom) was best man. On leaving the church the bride was presented with a silver horseshoe by Miss A. Godfrey. The reception in the Memorial hall after the ceremony was attended by between 40 and 50 guests. The happy couple, who were the recipients of many useful presents, are spending the honeymoon at Colwyn Bay, North Wales.

THE LATE MR. HARRY PRIME. 6th June 1941

There was a large attendance of sympathising friends at the parish church on Saturday afternoon for the funeral of Mr. Harry Prime, whose death after a very short illness was announced in our last issue. Members of the local branch of the British Legion and Red Cross nurses, with their Commandant, preceded the cortege, and on arrival at the church the former formed a guard of honour. Four members of the Red Cross Men's Detachment acted as bearers. The Vicar (Rev. B. J. Woodd) officiated, and the choir, of which deceased for 35 years had been a member, was in attendance. During the service the hymns "God moves in a mysterious ways" and "Thy way, not mine, O Lord," the 23rd Psalm, and the Nunc Dimittis were sung. As the congregation were assembling the organist (Mr. G. H. Skeeles) played "The Lord is mindful," "O rest in the Lord" and "Lift thine eyes unto the hills," and Lyons (nephews and nieces), Mr. and Mrs. G. Hephher, Mr. and Mrs. G. Prime, Mr. S. Prime, Mrs. W. King (cousins). Among the many beautiful floral tributes were wreaths from the Parochial Church Council, the choir and ringers; Swavesey and District Branch of the British Legion; and Cambs. 12 and Cambs. 15, British Red Cross. The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. E. J. Mitham, Church End, Swavesey. At the evening service on Sunday the Vicar prefaced his sermon with a sympathetic reference to the sad circumstances of Mr. Prime's death, and also spoke of the services he had rendered as a member of the choir and of the Church Council, and in connection with various village organisations. Mrs. H. Prime desires to thank all kind friends for their greatly appreciated sympathy in her sad bereavement, and also for the beautiful flowers. She asks them to be good enough to accept this as the only acknowledgement.

WAR WEAPONS WEEK. 6th June 1941

SWAVESEY. Whist drives, a darts tournament, a social and dance were among the events which went to make Swavesey's war weapons week a financial success. At the monthly meeting of the Women's Institute on Tuesday the President (Mrs. C. S. Hephher) in the chair, an interesting lecture was given by Miss Nettleship on "Music in the Institute." Mr. Prime Godfrey, haulage contractor, of Swavesey and Godmanchester, has received official intimation that his son Driver Bernard ("Jock") Godfrey, R.A.S.C., has been reported missing. Driver Godfrey, who is 21 years of age, joined up in July, 1939.

A TARRING PROBLEM. 27th June 1941

A resident in High Street writes: "High Street has this week been freshly tarred and re-surfaced, and so has the back lane which runs from Turn Bridge and again joins High Street at the side of Mr. H. William's premises. But a narrow strip between the end of the lane and the roadway in High Street has been left, I am told, because it is part of the side path along High Street. This is unfortunate, as for a considerable time pedestrians have either had to wade through, or go out in the road to avoid, two large puddles whenever rain has fallen. If this narrow strip is a pathway, why are Mr. Prime Godfrey's heavily-laden lorries and other vehicular traffic allowed to cross it? To treat it as a path is to ask for trouble, as it is obvious that material suitable for a path is useless for heavy traffic.”

EXAMINATIONS PASSED. 4th July 1941

Miss Hilda May Walker, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Walker, has passed all her examinations as a State registered nurse, and is joining the staff of one of the large London hospitals.

CHURCH FETE. 11th July 1941

All who came enjoyed themselves thoroughly at the “beano” in aid of church funds held in the Vicarage grounds last Saturday, and by coming raised the useful sum of £17 17s. 6d. A little diffidence was at first evident towards the novelty items, but when tried these were voted a great success. The weather was kindness itself, and at the end of the day there was a general feeling that it is good, and particularly good in these war days, to spend a pleasant time in social enjoyment together. The Vicar thanked all who kindly helped.

At the July meeting of the Women's Institute, which was held on the President's lawn, Miss Jarman, of Cambridge, assisted by her Girl Guides, gave an instructive lecture and demonstration on outdoor cookery. Payne, it was decided that the Constable's Rood should be tythe redeemed, and on the motion of Mr. W. Burton, seconded by Mr. C. Cole, that the attention of the County Council be called to the dangerous condition of the footbridge on the public path to Fen Drayton. A matter of great importance to the owners and occupiers of land in Middle Fen was then considered, and Mr. Cole proposed that a letter be sent to the Chesterton Rural District Council calling attention to the urgent need of repairs to Scratch Bank in Middle Fen, and requesting that they may be carried out without delay, in accordance with the terms of the Parish Award. “SUDDEN AND SILLY IMPULSE.” 5th Sept. 1941

Theft of Money from Swavesey Shop.

A Cambridge man who stole £9 from a Swavesey shopkeeper was bound over at Cambs. Divisional Court on Saturday.

He was Ronald Edward Bath, 204, Histon Road, Cambridge, and he pleaded guilty to the theft of the money from William Crouch on August 25th.

Mr. Crouch, of Boxworth End, Swavesey, tobacconist and confectioner, said there was a room at the back of his shop where customers used to sit at times. On the previous Sunday defendant came into the shop. Witness's brother was serving and witness told him to keep an eye on the cupboard as there was some silver there. Witness then went out.

On Monday witness added another pound to the money in a tin box, making £9 in all, and put it in the cupboard in the middle room.

SAT NEAR CUPBOARD.

About 11.30 a.m. defendant and his wife came in. Witness served the woman, and defendant walked into the middle room and sat on a box which creaked. This was close to the cupboard. He was in there for some 20 minutes.

Witness discovered his loss about 5 o'clock. All the money was gone, and witness informed the police.

P.C. Shanks stated that he saw defendant on Tuesday. He said, "I don't know anything about it. Why come and see me?" After further questioning he admitted the theft. He said in a statement that he was a bit short at the time. He gave witness £5 10s., and told him how he had spent the other money.

Defendant, in Court, said it was just a sudden silly impulse.

He was bound over for 12 months, on the condition that he made full restitution to Mr. Crouch.

SALVAGE OF METAL. 19th June 1942

“A Resident” writes – All, or most, of the iron railings protecting houses, gardens, etc., in the village were removed last weekend in connection with the drive for metal for war purposes, but an appreciable quantity of apparently unwanted metal was left behind, and there are people in the village who would like to know why. I refer to the iron pipes which were not used when the public water supply was installed something like 30 years ago. They have been stored on parish property in High Street, first of all in a shed, but for years have been lying in the open on waste ground close to the Memorial Hall. They may originally have been intended for use in case of a breakage, but at the present time they are probably not in a fit condition for such a purpose, and would be a useful contribution to the war effort.

All who were able to be present at the social evening held last Thursday week at the Vicarage could tell at once by the atmosphere that it was a success. The garden was looking prettier than it has been for a long time; in fact, everything conspired to help one to forget for a brief three hours the straining tragedy of our times. Both Miss Hatley and Mrs. de Haro, with their troupes of children, were most deservedly well applauded for their delightful contributions. GROUP CAPTAIN BARWELL DEAD. 17th July 1942

End of a Gallant Career.

On the day after his 36th birthday, Group Captain Philip Reginald Barwell, D.F.C., has been killed during an operational flight over the South Coast.

A Swavesey man, Group Captain Barwell was, at the time of his appointment, the youngest of his rank in the R.A.F.

Educated at Wellingborough, where he captained the Bisley eight, he obtained a short service commission in 1925. It was seven years later that his permanent commission was granted.

As a fighter-pilot commanding his squadron, he was awarded his D.F.C., and it is interesting to recall that the operational section which he commanded at the time of his death had more enemy machines to its credit than any other in Fighter Command.

On June 22nd of this year he stood godfather to the daughter of his youngest brother, Squadron Leader E. G. Barwell, D.F.C., at Boxworth Church.

In July of last year he was injured in a crash and spent ten days in hospital. However, after a fortnight's sick leave he returned to duty and for several months flew on local patrol in plaster of paris.

He leaves a wife and two sons, John Douglas, who is just 11½ and Richard Philip, aged four.

GOODFELLOW'S GALLERY. 17th July 1942

Picture.

Mrs. Ivatt, of 10, High Street, Swavesey, sends me this picture of her daughter, Joy, one of our old members, who is a tailoress in the W.A.A.F. and is now stationed somewhere in the West of England. Her only brother, Denis, has been on active service for 14 months. "They have often spoken of the good times they have had at the Robin parties," writes Mrs. Ivatt, who adds: "We wish you every success and hope you will continue to get lots more pennies to help you in your good works."

We appreciate these good wishes and send hearty greetings to our old members on service.

DEATH OF MRS. JAMES NORMAN. 24th July 1942

We have to announce the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Norman, widow of the late Mr. James Norman, who passed away at her residence, the Manor House, Swavesey, on Monday evening, aged 80. She leaves two sons to mourn their loss. The funeral will take place to-morrow (Saturday) afternoon, a service at Bethel Baptist Chapel, Swavesey, preceding the interment in Over cemetery.

NEW HEADMASTER. 24th July 1942

Mr. Charles Wood, headmaster of Swavesey School since January, 1911, is retiring at the end of next month. He succeeded the late Mr. Henry Beaumont, who had been headmaster from Nov. 2nd, 1868, to December, 1910, a period of 42 years. Thus the school had only two headmasters in 73 years. Regarding Mr. Wood's successor, the "Dewsbury News and Chronicle" says: - Mr. Leslie Ellis Jackson, aged 38, of 40, Warren Street, Savile Town, teacher at Eastborough Council School, Dewsbury, for the past 18 years, has been appointed headmaster of Swavesey Senior and Junior Schools, Cambridge, from Sept. 1st. Born in Leeds Road, Dewsbury, Mr. Jackson is the only son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jackson. His father was for 45 years at Messrs. M. Oldroyd and Sons' Spinkwell Mills. Mr. Jackson attended Eastborough Council School and Dewsbury Wheelwright Grammar School, and then went to St. John's College, York. He started teaching English and History at his old school, Eastborough. For 16 years Mr. Jackson has taught industrial and commercial courses at Eastborough Evening Institute, and recreational handicraft for nine years. He is married, has lived at Savile Town since 1916, and is a member of St. Philip's Church, Dewsbury, where he is a sidesman and church councillor.

KIND FRIENDS AT THE CAPE. 24th July 1942

The following are extracts from a letter just received by the mother of Sergt. John Mitham, R.E., of Swavesey, from a lady who hospitably entertained him during his two days' visit to Cape Town: "No doubt you will be surprised, but, I hope, pleased, to hear that we had the pleasure of meeting your son a few weeks ago. I am a member of an organisation of ladies who run a canteen for troops where the lads are given tea and cakes, and we have different games, table tennis, deck quoits, darts, etc., and they spend quite a pleasant afternoon. Some of the ladies invite the lads to their homes for dinner and spend the evening, and we try to make their stay as pleasant and homely as possible. I invited your son and his pal home, where they met my husband and two daughters, and we all spent a happy evening together. My two girls are really pleased when I bring the lads home. Needless to say they are quite young, 14 years and 10 years respectively. Johnnie sends his love and says he is fit and well. He promised to write to us when he got to his destination, but so far we have not heard from him.” In a letter received in Swavesey recently from Sergt. Mitham he spoke in glowing terms of the kindly, homely hospitality he and visiting troops generally met with at Cape Town. He was entertained by the writer of the letter on the second of his two days’ stay. On the first he was similarly entertained by another lady, and also taken for a car ride to have a look at the country.

PARISH COUNCIL. 31st July 1942

The quarterly meeting of the Parish Council was held in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening, when there were present Mr. C. H. Parish (chairman), Messrs. W. Burton, C. Cole, C. Dean, B. Hodson, A. E. Holloway and R. Mitham, with the Clerk (Mr. E. J. Mitham). Arising out of the minutes, the Chairman reported that no tenders had been received for the hire of the herbage of the Recreation Ground. A letter was read from the R.D.C. respecting the surplus iron water supply pipes stored for some years on parish property, and suggesting that they should be disposed of as old metal salvage, but on the proposition of Mr. Cole, seconded by Mr. Burton, it was decided that they should be retained as they might be needed in an emergency. With regard to the sum of £15 which the Chairman mentioned had been received from the R.D.C. for the old fire engine house, it was agreed, on the motion of Mr. Cole, seconded by Mr. Holloway, that the money should be invested in War Savings Certificates. Various other matters were also discussed.

THE LATE MRS. JAMES NORMAN. 31st July 1942

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Norman, of the Manor House, Swavesey, widow of the late Mr. James Norman, whose death at the age of 80 years was announced last week, took place on Saturday afternoon, the Rev. A. McPhee conducting the service at Bethel Baptist Church, during which the hymns “For those we love within the veil” and “O Lord of life, where-ere they be” were sung. Mr. G. E. Canham was at the organ. The interment followed at Over cemetery, the Rev. A. MacPhee again officiating. The mourners were: Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Norman, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Norman (sons and daughters-in-law), Miss Letch (sister), Mr. R. Norman, sen. (brother-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Bowtell, Buckden (cousins), Mr. and Mrs. R. Norman, jun., Mr. and Mrs. D. Chapman, Miss Chapman, Mrs. J. Smith, Mrs. Eason, Mr. A. Norman, Mrs. C. W. Townsend (nephews and nieces). Many other friends were also present, among them Mrs. Inglis, president of the Swavesey, Over and Fen Drayton Nursing Association, of which the late Mrs. Norman had been a vice-president and a generous supporter. The beautiful floral tributes included wreaths from: Friends of Bethel Baptist Church; the staff of Messrs. A. R. Norman, Sutton, Surrey, and the Swavesey, Over and Fen Drayton Nursing Association. The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. E. J. Mitham, Swavesey.

DANCE. 7th Aug. 1942

The dance organised by the local (men's) detachment of the B.R.C.S. (Cams. 15), which took place in the Memorial Hall on Saturday, was a great success. An excellent programme of music was supplied by an R.A.M.C. dance band. A competition arranged by Mrs. G. Oakman helped to defray expenses, cigarettes being won by Sergt. Smalley, Miss P. Cook (N.A.A.F.I.) and Mr. S. Brooks. The net proceeds, which amounted to £7 18s. 6d., will be equally divided between the men's and women's local detachments, B.R.C.S.

JUNIOR SCHOOL. 7th Aug. 1942

Mothers and friends of the children of the Junior School were invited to a mothers' afternoon on Friday. The programme began in the playground with displays of physical training by the infants and the juniors. These were followed in the school, by action songs and choral speaking by the infants. The juniors then gave two plays, entitled "The Black Imps" and "The Currant Bun." After some country dancing by the juniors, the infants acted several short plays, including a dramatised version of "The Owl and the Pussy Cat," which caused great amusement. A group of junior songs and more country dances were followed by "The Wooden Dolls," an infant item, which brought the programme to a close. There was an exhibition of art, handwork and needlework which had been done during the year.

WOMEN'S WORK IN CHINA. 14th Aug. 1942

Mrs. Williamson (vice-president) occupied the chair at the monthly meeting of the Women's Institute on Tuesday, when a most interesting talk was given by Mr. Chen, a Chinese gentleman who has been in England during the past three years, on women's work in China before the war and during the five years of Japanese aggression. He first dealt with how women spent their leisure hours, then how they had dealt with the appalling refugee problems, and lastly, how magnificently they had adapted themselves to war conditions and work. It was a great accomplishment for a young Chinese gentleman to thus speak to an audience of women, and the talk was greatly appreciated and a small donation from the members was handed to Mr. Chen for the British Fund for Chinese relief. A discussion on the housing questionnaire followed by community singing brought the evening's programme to a close.

PRESENTATION TO MR. CHARLES WOOD. 14th Aug. 1942

The Council School broke up for the summer holidays on Friday. It was announced in these columns a fortnight ago that Mr. Charles Wood was retiring at the end of the term, after 31 years as headmaster, and on Friday afternoon most of the children and the staff, including most from the junior school, with Mr. Tash (woodwork instructor) assembled in the Memorial Hall (the home of the Senior School for the past eight years) to say goodbye – to use the words of a member of the staff – to “one of the best headmasters in the world.” Representing the managers of the school were Mr. C. Parish (chairman), Mr. A. L. Parish (correspondent), Mr. P. J. Watts (County Council representative), and Mr. C. Cole, all of whom gave short addresses. Mr. C. Parish said that he considered it very appropriate to be meeting on such an occasion in the Memorial Hall, a building towards the raising of which Mr. Wood had done so much. Four of the 31 years had been spent serving his country during the last Great War. Mr. Parish then read an appreciation of Mr. Wood from the presentation album subscribed for by the children, staff, managers, friends and well-wishers in the village and district – 574 in all. This album he then presented to Mr. Wood, together with a wallet containing £20 in Treasury notes. Mr. Parish was followed by Mr. Watts, who spoke of his pleasure at being present, but also regret. “One would have wished,” said he, “that Mr. Wood could have stayed on for ever, but that was not to be.” He told the children that in years to come they would look back and remember what they had learned from their old schoolmaster. Mr. C. Cole spoke of the great interest shown in cricket by Mr. Wood, and regretted that the present standard of the sport was not so good. Mr. A. L. Parish associated himself with the remarks of the previous speakers. Miss Hatley, headmistress of the Junior School, spoke of the kindness shown to her personally by Mr. Wood, and wished him many years of health and happiness. Mrs. Ingle added her words of appreciation, mentioning the happy partnership that had existed in the school between Mr. Wood and his late wife, and wishing that she could have lived to retire with him. Mr. Wood then spoke separately to the children, staff and managers. He urged the children always to do their duty. The school, he said, had had a tradition both for scholarship and sport, and no one would be more pleased than he to see that tradition revived. He thanked the staff, both present and past, for their loyalty to him and for their co-operation. The managers were also thanked for their help given most readily when it had been needed at any time. He thanked everybody for the gifts. The proceedings closed with the singing of "For he's a jolly good fellow" and cheers. The school will re-open on September 7th, with Mr. Jackson as headmaster. Miss Hatley was responsible for all arrangements in connection with the presentation.

THE LATE DUKE OF KENT. 28th Aug. 1942

Picture.

The links between Cambridge and the Royal Family are very close, and the news received this week of the death "on active service" of the King's beloved brother, the Duke of Kent, forges an even closer band between the Royal household and countless homes to which similar tragic tidings have been brought since the war began. Wholehearted sympathy goes out to the Duchess of Kent and her three little children so suddenly bereaved, and there will be kindly thoughts, too, for Queen Mary in the loss of her youngest son. Several pictures of the late Duke of Kent have already been published in the "Cambridge Daily News." Here is another with a melancholy interest. It shows his Royal Highness being greeted by that brilliant young R.A.F. officer, the late Group Captain Philip Reginald Barwell, D.F.C., of Swavesey, whose death on the day after his 36th birthday was recorded in our columns last month. He was killed during an operational flight over the South Coast.

R.A.F. AWARDS FOR THREE CAMBS. MEN. 25th Sept. 1942

Gallantry in Many Raids.

TWO D.F.C.s AND D.F.M.

The King has been pleased to approve the following awards in recognition of gallantry and devotion to duty in the execution of air operations:

D.F.C.

Flight-Lieut. Eric Douglas Levien, R.A.F.V.R., No. 7 Squadron.

This officer has completed numerous sorties, two of which were daylight attacks. His navigation has at all times been outstanding. In one attack on the Renault works Flight-Lieut Levien obtained hits on an important part of the factory on each of two runs over the target.

Other targets attacked include Brest, Kiel, Bremen, Berling and Essen.

Flight-Lt. Levien was born in 1910 at Fulham. His home is in Cambridgeshire. He enlisted in April, 1939, for training as observer and was commissioned in 1940. He was mentioned in despatches in September, 1941.

Acting Flying Officer Frank Kay Hindle, R.A.F.V.R., No. 114 Squadron.

This officer has carried out a large number of sorties, 11 of which have been by night. On one occasion in August, 1941, Flying-Officer Hindle was the observer of an aircraft which was engaged with Arado seaplanes off Borkum. He was wounded in the leg by a cannon shell, but despite the pain and resultant loss of blood he continued to perform his duties and navigated his aircraft safely back to this country over 250 miles of sea.

In December, 1941, he participated in the low level raid on Herdla aerodrome in support of the Vaagso operation.

On May 5th and June 1st, 1942, respectively he participated in intruder attacks on aerodromes in support of the "thousand" raid, on 25th June he took an actual part in the "thousand" raid on Bremen.

Acting Flying Officer Hindle was born at Chorley, Lancs. in 1920. His home is at Milton, Cambridge. He was educated at the Cambridge County High School. He enlisted in August 1939, and was commissioned in October, 1941.

D.F.M.

1281397 Flight-Sergt. Eric Robert Williamson, No. 207 Squadron.

Flight-Sergt. Williamson has proved himself to be an exceptionally keen and reliable and efficient air gunner and bomber. He has at all times displayed a complete disregard of danger and an unshakeable confidence in his ability to achieve success.

During the daylight raid on the submarine yards at Danzig on 11th July, 1942, he displayed a grim determination and, in spite of bad weather and a considerable amount of accurate anti-aircraft fire, he obtained hits on the target.

Flight-Sergt. Williamson was born at Swavesey in 1920 and was educated at St. Ives Grammar School. He was a butcher before he enlisted in July, 1940. He is now an air-gunner.

MILK PRODUCTION PROBLEMS. 16th Oct. 1942

Swavesey Talks and Demonstrations.

Further evidence of the whole-hearted way in which the Cambridgeshire War Agricultural Committee is working to build up the quality of Cambs. farming was given yesterday, when a series of talks and demonstrations on milk production was given at Trinity College Farm, Swavesey.

It was one of a series of demonstrations on farming organised by the Technical Development Sub-Committee of the War Agricultural Committee.

Mr. S. A. Taylor (chairman of the sub-committee) introduced the speakers.

Mr. F. Day, M.R.C.V.S. (School of Agriculture) was the first speaker on the health of dairy cattle. Talking of the sterility of heifers, he said that instead of leaving them they should get their veterinary surgeon to them.

Speaking on the same subject, Mr. R. W. A. Watchorn, M.R.C.V.S. (Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries), spoke of the four diseases which attacked cows. They were tuberculosis, mastitis, contagious abortion and Jhone's disease.

Under existing legislature all dairy herds were subject to periodical examination. The disease most to look for was tuberculosis.

TUBERCULOSIS ERADICATION.

He went on to say that there was a scheme for the eradication of tuberculosis in dairy cattle. The essence of this control scheme was an undertaking between the farmer and the veterinary surgeon, which must last a year, but periods of two or three years were recommended for the best results. By coming into the scheme the farmers would enjoy its benefits in good time.

He gave the annual rates of payment for the farmer under the scheme to be, in a herd up to and including 50 head, 12s. 6d. a head. For a herd up to and including 10 head the rate was 10s. a head, and for herds over 50 head the rates were also 10s. a head. For heifers from six months to the first date of calving the rate was 2s. 6d. a head.

Mr. J. Edwards, M.A. (School of Agriculture), spoke on co-operative breeding in Cambs. and explained a scheme whereby, under a newly formed society, farmers could have their cows inseminated by two fine bulls. The rate was 15s. a time.

Mr. C. D. Oxley, M.A. (School of Agriculture), gave a demonstration and talk on clean milk production and the winter feeding of dairy cattle was the subject of a talk and demonstration by Mr. A. E. Garner, M.A. (District Executive Officer). He gave a number of formulae for feeding stuffs, which included such easily obtainable products as kale, hay, oat straw, silage, beans, sugar beet pulp, ground nut cake, crushed oats and dry brewery grain.

The annual meeting of the Swavesey and District Branch of the British Legion was held in the Memorial Hall on Wednesday, Mr. Barwell occupying the chair, supported by the hon. sec. (Mr. E. R. de Haro). There was a very good attendance. The statement of accounts presented by the hon. treasurer (Mr. A. Turner) showed a substantial balance in hand. In his report the hon. sec. reviewed the work during the past year. It showed that the branch was making good progress. The Poppy Day receipts, £33 18s. 7d., were the highest yet.

On the benevolent side there had been four applications for assistance, all of which had been granted. Dean, B. Hodson, A. E. Holloway, R. Mitham, A. P. Payne, and W. Spolton. The Clerk (Mr. E. J. Mitham) reported that an officer of the N.F.S. had had an interview with him respecting a site for the proposed new fire station. He had rejected the site of the old engine house as not large enough, and had decided that the piece of vacant land in High Street, between the Memorial Hall and Mrs. J. Cain's property, was the most suitable site. The Council, however, did not agree with him, and after a long discussion the following resolution, moved by Mr. Payne, was carried unanimously: "That in the opinion of the Council the site of the old engine house, with the pound, was more suitable for the erection of the new fire station." The Clerk was instructed to suggest that the N.F.S. officer should meet a deputation of the Council to discuss the matter of the site, the Chairman, Mr. Dean and Mr. Burton being appointed to form the deputation. With regard to two seats on the Recreation Ground which had been damaged, it was agreed that they should be repaired and treated with cuprinol. Mr. Payne said he had been asked to call attention to the old tyres and other waste rubber lying about the village, in ponds, fields, roadsides, etc. The tyres, he pointed out, had originally been placed in various places for use as obstructions by the Home Guard. On the proposition of Mr. Payne, seconded by Mr. Cole, the Council decided to ask the Home Guard to collect and clear away the rubber and other obstructions and have them used as salvage.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 14th May 1943

At the monthly meeting of the Women's Institute which was held on Tuesday under the chairmanship of Mrs. C. Hephher, a large part of the time was devoted to discussion of the numerous resolutions which are to come before the National Federation of Women's Institutes at the Albert Hall in June. Many and varied were the subjects, e.g. education through to University, free and equal for all children of ability; women representation on local council and peace conferences; national control of drainage water, electricity and many more, all of major importance to women in the present days of planning for the post-war country. All the questions were discussed with enthusiasm by the members. A talk on the work of the W.V.S. was also given by Mrs. Lewin, who is herself a W.V.S. worker. Many were surprised at the scope of the work. The speaker stressed the importance of all women having a knowledge of the rudiments of A.R.P., and showed the need of the organisation of women in all localities for this important branch of home defence. It was announced that three more talks on A.R.P. would be given on May 25th, June 2nd and 10th, and would be open to the public. Refreshments and two competitions, one a musical story, won by Mrs. Lewin, and the second a game, bargain basement, won by Mrs. Goldsborough, ended an enjoyable evening.

WINGS FOR VICTORY WEEK. 21st May 1943

We are indebted to Mrs. C. S. Hephew for the following: A really magnificent effort was made on Saturday to give a good send off to the campaign. A parade, representative of all the bodies in the village, marched from Boxworth End to the Swan Pond, headed by the Home Guard, and thence to the Recreation Ground. There the crowd was addressed by P.O. Lacey, D.S.O., who appealed for generosity to make the week a success. The result was marvellous, viz., £52 1s. 5d. from donations and house-to-house collection. After this the Home Guard gave a display of arms used by them. A dance followed, the Memorial Hall being packed. Everyone seemed out to help, and £15 12s. 6d. was nett profit from the dance and sale of lemon, given by Commando Archie Turner, recently returned from Tunisia. The whist drive on Monday was somewhat disappointing. Mr. Berryman was M.C. The winners of 10s. and 5s. savings stamps were: - Gentlemen, Mr. R. Turner, Mrs. de Haro; ladies, Mrs. F. Martin, Miss A. Shepperson. Tuesday was the evening for children. A fancy dress parade, judged by Mrs. Glover and Mrs. Rigby, resulted in the following winning prizes of 5s. and 2s. 6d. savings stamps respectively: Most original – 1 “Montgomery,” Billie Smart; 2 “Red Cross penny-a-week,” Brenda Davis; prettiest – 1 “these things are what we are fighting for” Beryl Prime; 2 victory girl, Ann Smart. Each child who entered was also given a savings stamp. The rest of the evening was spent in games and competitions and dancing.

FIRST AID LECTURES. 28th May 1943

There was rather a small attendance at the immediate aid lecture on Tuesday. It is hoped that any housewife who is interested in anti-gas and fire fighting in her own home and among her neighbours will make an effort to attend these two lectures.

GROUP CONFERENCE. 28th May 1943

A group conference of Women's Institutes was held on Monday, Mrs. C. S. Hepher presiding, supported by Mrs. Wayman (Over). After welcoming the visitors from Over and Fen Drayton, the President of Willingham W.I. was elected chairman and Mrs. Laverack convenor of the next meeting. Reports of work done during the year were read by Mrs. Garner for Over and Mrs. Laverack for Swavesey. A talk was then given by Mrs. Rackham on the Beveridge Report, showing how the scheme affected each person in sickness, unemployment and old age. The audience pronounced it most helpful. Mrs. Hopkinson, Vol. County Organiser, of Cambridge, read the county news, which mentioned the singing competition, jam making for the Government, and also a special appeal for all sorts of pieces of material and odd things for the prisoners of war camps for handicrafts which do so much to relieve boredom by providing interesting occupation for the prisoners. The competition was "the best jam jar of flowers," the first prize being awarded to Mrs. C. S. Hepher for lupins, and the second to Mrs. Garner for mixed flowers. Refreshments and folk dancing concluded an enjoyable evening.

WINGS FOR VICTORY. 28th May 1943

As a result of hard work during the week, something like £129 was realised from social activities, which the committee have yet to allocate. The target of £4,000 has been well passed, the final figure being somewhere in the region of £6,000. Both these figures are subject to slight alteration. A good social was held on the Wednesday in Victory Week, and games and competitions were entered with a good spirit, especially “Target for to-night”, everyone hoping to choose a really good spot in which to stick the pin in Hitler. A crowded hall thoroughly enjoyed the concert given by Mrs. Osborne and her players from Cottenham. During a short interval a large rubber dinghy was brought on to the stage and thoroughly explained. The second whist drive was held on Friday, with rather better results than the first one. Mr. Berryman again was M.C., and the prizes were distributed to the winners – savings stamps – by Mrs. Cain as follows: 1 Mrs. F. Hephher and Mrs. F. Martin, 2 Mrs. G. Froment and Mrs. Berryman. The six eggs were won by Mrs. de Haro. The week’s activities concluded with a dance in a crowded hall, for which the Crazy Crochets provided the music. During the interval the competition for various articles of interest was conducted by the chairman, Mr. C. H. Parish, and the secretary, Mrs. C. S. Hephher. As neither the whiskey, port, groceries, nor golliwog were guessed, these were sold and substantially increased the takings. The whiskey went to Mr. Berryman, port to Mr. C. S. Hephher, groceries to Mr. A. Turner (Commando). The golliwog was given as a mascot for the band, and the score of eggs taken by Mrs. Turner was won by Mrs. E. Hoyer. Mr. Jackson, Mr. G. Oakman and Mr. F. Martin were in charge of the door, and Mrs. Ivatt, Mrs. F. Hephher, Misses M. and I. Hephher, and Mrs. Turner rendered valuable assistance in the competitions. A word of praise should also go to Miss Freear and the collectors of the W.I. Savings Group, who set £100 as their target and actually reached £373.

WINGS FOR VICTORY. 4th June 1943

The figures received from Chesterton Rural District Council this week show that £6,645 was the final amount attained at Swavesey during Wings for Victory Week. This was an increase of £500 on last year. A cheque for £128 10s. has been sent to the Ministry of Aircraft Production to purchase two large rubber dinghies at a cost of £45 each and a parachute, £35, which it was felt would meet the wishes of the majority of people.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. 18th June 1943

At the meeting of the Women's Institute held on Tuesday evening, the president (Mrs. C. S. Hepher) in the chair, it was decided to enter for the county singing competition, and arrangements were made for a bring and buy sale in aid of the Institute sick fund in July. Members were also asked to bring every month all ship halfpennies that can be collected for the seamen. It was announced that a collection of all sorts of oddments useful for handicrafts in prisoner of war camps had been asked for by the county organisers. Reports were read by Mrs. Ivett and Miss Frear. The former was of the proceedings at the County Federation Conference, and the latter an account of the N.F.W.I. meetings in London. Both were much appreciated. Mrs. Hepher organised the social half-hour, introducing some new games, and the meeting ended with refreshments and singing.

PARISH MEETING. 25th June 1943

The Parish Meeting called on Monday to nominate a suitable person to represent the parish of Swavesey on the Chesterton Rural District Council in the place of the late Mr. Prime Godfrey was attended by only eleven local government electors, two of whom were ladies. Mr. Cecil Dean (vice-chairman of the Parish Council) was voted to the chair, and Mr. C. H. Parish (chairman of the council) acted as clerk. Mr. C. W. H. Cole, proposed by Mr. W. Spolton, and seconded by Mr. R. Mitham, was the only person nominated to fill the vacancy, and his nomination was carried unanimously. Arising out of the minutes of the annual parish meeting a letter was read from the R.D.C. stating that the cleaning out of the Swan Pond was a parish liability. In the subsequent discussion it was pointed out that in addition to the pond in its present condition being unsightly and a disgrace to the village, if cleared of mud and obstructions it would be of great service in the event of a fire, and eventually Mrs. C. S. Hepher moved that the Parish Council be asked to have the pond cleared out if possible at the present time and the cost was not prohibitive. The motion was seconded by the Vicar (Rev. B. J. Woodd) and carried unanimously.
